YEAR OF MERCY – PART 2

Consoling the Heart of Jesus

PARISH-WIDE SELF-DIRECTED RETREAT AFTER ALL WEEKEND MASSES:
(2-3 Apr, 9-10 Apr, 16-17 Apr, 23-24 Apr, 30 Apr-1 May,
7-8 May, 14-15 May, 21-22 May, 28-29 May, 4-5 June)

Drawing closer to the merciful Heart of Jesus during the Year of Mercy continues the weekend of April 2-3, Divine Mercy Sunday, with the distribution of Fr. Michael Gaitley’s second book in the series, Consoling the Heart of Jesus.

Books are available to our parishioners at no cost. We will be distributing them along with the weekly questions and reading schedule after each weekend liturgy, 2-3 April. You may pick them up in the Cathedral Room after Mass that weekend. A 30 minute video will also be shown after all the weekend Masses as well. Please plan accordingly.

The content of this Retreat is the revelation of the immense desire of Our Lord to spread his merciful love on all the world. This the Lord revealed to St. Faustina and to others. It also reveals to us how to console the Heart of Jesus who “loves so much and yet is so little loved” (St. Margaret Mary Alacoque).

We are invited to experience this great privilege and gift to “little souls” who eagerly return his love and seek to bring him the joy of our conversion and the conversion of our brothers and sisters.

Come and join us for this 10 week Retreat as we continue our journey into the merciful love of Jesus through Mary!
