Anti-Nimby Law
Anti-NIMBY Law

Gov. Code Sec. 65589.5

Developments for Low/Mod Households may not be denied unless findings are made:

- Housing Element in compliance and RHNA met and disapproval not based on reasons prohibited by GC 65008.
- Development would have a specific health and safety impact and no feasible way to mitigate.
- Denial is necessary to comply with State and Federal Laws.
- Development is proposed on lands zone Agriculture or Resource Preservation and is surrounding on 2 sides by Agr. or Resource lands.
- Development is inconsistent with the General Plan and Zoning and locality has compliant Housing Element EXCEPT if proposed site is identified in Housing Element to accommodate low or moderate income need. Also if housing element does not identify adequate sites, this finding may not be made.
No Net-Loss
No Net Loss of Residential Capacity Loss

Government Code Section 65863

- Inventory of adequate sites must be maintained throughout the planning period.

- Prohibition against downzoning/no net loss: limits downzoning of sites identified in housing element unless no net loss in capacity and community can still identify “adequate sites” to address the regional housing need.
Limits on Conditional Use Permits for Multifamily
Limited CUPs for Multifamily
Government Code Section 65589.4

A multifamily housing project shall be a permitted use, not subject to a conditional use permit, on any parcel zoned for multifamily housing if it satisfies specified criteria.
Least Cost Zoning
Sufficient land must be zoned for residential use with appropriate standards, in relation to zoning for nonresidential use, to meet the housing needs for all income groups.

Appropriate standards mean densities and development requirements must contribute significantly to the economic feasibility of producing housing at the lowest possible cost.
Article XXXIV of the California Constitution
Article 34

- Requires public entities to demonstrate voter approval before they develop certain types of low-rent housing projects.

- Most jurisdictions seek voter approval for a specified number or percentage of units, rather than on a project-by-project basis.
There are numerous exclusions from Article 34

- Low income housing projects developed by private sponsors with only federal or private funding.
- Private developments with public funding with 49% or less of the units reserved for lower-income households.
- Reconstruction of a previously existing low-rent housing development.
Fair Housing Laws
Federal & State Fair Housing Laws

Prohibit discrimination by local government and individuals based on race, color, religion, sex, familial status, marital status, national origin, ancestry or mental or physical disability.
Gov. Code Sec. 12900 et seq. prohibits discrimination through land use practices and decisions that make housing opportunities unavailable.

Similarly, the federal Fair Housing Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 3601 et seq., or “Title VIII”) has been held to prohibit land use practices and decisions that have a disparate impact on protected groups.
U.S. Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988

Requires local governments considering housing projects for the disabled to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies and practices if necessary to afford disabled persons equal opportunity for housing.

(42 U.S.C. Sec. 3604(f)(3)(B)).
Forbids discrimination against affordable or multi-family housing development proposals, developers or potential residents using planning and zoning powers.

Agencies are prohibited not only from exercising bias based on race, sex, age or religion, but from discriminating against developments because the development is subsidized or to be occupied by low or moderate income persons.
Government Code Section 65008

No local action may deny tenancy, land ownership, or the enjoyment of residence based on:

- race, sex, color, religion, ethnicity, natural origin, ancestry, lawful occupation, familial status, disability or age,
- Method of financing,
- The intended occupancy by low or moderate income households
Government Code Section 65008

Local governments may not enact or enforce ordinances that prohibit or discriminate against housing or emergency shelter because:

– Of the method of financing,
– The owner or intended occupants are members of protected class,
– The housing or shelter is intended to be occupied by low and moderate income households,
– The development consists of multifamily housing, consistent with zoning and general plan even if site has not yet be rezoned to conform with more recent general plan.
Government Code Section 65008

- Local governments may not impose different requirements on affordable projects or emergency shelters than those imposed on non-assisted housing.

- Except does not prohibit preferential treatment to facilitate development such as fee reductions, reduced development standards, etc.

Housing & Community Development

1. Official State Income Limits for 2005

   California Health and Safety Code Sections 50073.5, 50105 and 50106 provide that the state limits for the low-, very low-, and extremely low-income categories will be the same as those in the equivalent levels established by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) for its Section 8 program. Sections 50073.5, 50105, and 50106 also direct the California Department of Housing and Community Development (Department) to publish the income limits. HUD released its new FY 2005 income limits effective February 11, 2005.

2. State CDBG and HOME's Table of 2005 Income Limits

   This table includes income limits for the two federal programs of CDBG and HOME when administered by the State Department of Housing and Community Development. The table includes county-level income limits from HUD's release of 2006 HOME Program Limits effective March 31, 2005.

   This table is not intended for use by local jurisdictions that receive these funds directly from HUD.

WHAT is good design?
Hin-nu Terrace

These 92 town homes and apartments, for families and seniors with low and very low incomes, mend a deteriorating neighborhood by restoring its main boulevard with housing over shops. Family housing with a childcare center around quiet courtyards is built behind a ground-floor market, niches for street vendors, and a community center with job training, all contribute to economic development in the neighborhood. A multi-ethnic mix of depicted in exterior murals, frieze panels, decorative tiles, and steel entry gates in the bust of sunshine.

The sponsors and the architect wanted to recreate the upper pattern of mixed-use - two to three story with retail below and housing above - as an example of good planning for future developers in the neighborhood. The architecture is an interpretation of Revival Style, recalling the graceful three and apartment buildings in the neighborhood. Curved roofs, trellised balconies and warm colored create a solid yet lively street front building main boulevard. Behind, in the quieter interior courtyards, vivid colors define the family town homes clad in cool blue horizontal siding. Lush foliage overflows planters, the places where children play.
