Today Hwy. 63, a Kentucky Scenic Byway, is a road well traveled and has been greatly improved, due to Ms. Bowers persistent efforts. She also was instrumental in bringing the Rollercoaster Yard Sale into Tennessee in 2002 — from Hwy. 63 through Clay County & Celina, Overton County & Livingston, and through Pickett County & Byrdstown. Now the Rollercoaster route has been extended to go completely around Dale Hollow Lake picking up at Hwy. 127 at the Tennessee and Kentucky state line in Static — and then north north on Hwy. 127 through Clinton County & Albany, then turn west on Hwy. 90 to Cumberland County & Burkesville, continue north on Hwy. 90 back to Glasgow & Cave City, Kentucky.
