INTRODUCTION

Potential Barriers

As you begin planning for your release you first need to take an inventory of issues you may face when you return to the community. All of the areas listed below can interfere with your success in establishing a stable life once you are released. Use the checklist to help determine which areas may be a problem for you. When you have completed this exercise, look at the areas and start developing a plan to address them. This will help you decide what you need to do now to assist in your transition to life on the outside. Dealing with these issues before release may also help make them less overwhelming.

IDENTIFICATION/Primary Documents

Proper identification is required to cash a check, take a driver’s test, or get a job. Forms of acceptable identification are:

- Birth certificate
- Social Security card
- Driver’s license
- Valid passport
- Marriage certificate
- Court order or judgments

Birth Certificate
A birth certificate provides proof of when and where you were born. A certified copy of your birth certificate can be useful when proving identity in certain situations, such as applying for a driver’s license, retirement benefits, passport, or assistance programs.

You may request an application form and requirements for a certified copy of your birth certificate from your counselor, no matter what state you were born. Application information needed includes:

- Your full birth name (first, middle, last)
- Date of birth
- City of birth (if known)
- Father’s name
- Mother’s name, including maiden name (as recorded at time of birth)

There is a fee charged for the out of state certified copy. Ask your caseworker for information and assistance. A list of all vital statistics offices can be found in the library.

Most states require that your signature be notarized if you are requesting a copy of your birth certificate by mail. Notaries are available at all Georgia correctional facilities. Once you are released, you may locate notaries in your community by searching the local Yellow Pages.

Social Security Card and Benefits
Social security is a part of almost everyone’s life, no matter what your age. If you have never applied for a social security card and are over 18, you must apply in person. If you would like a free duplicate card, you must request an application from your caseworker or transition staff. Your caseworker can send a form letter to accompany the application, verifying your name.

You will find information about Social Security at: http://www.socialsecurity.gov/.
To calculate benefits use the social security benefits calculator at the following web site: http://www.socialsecurity.gov/planners/calculators.htm
The following information will be helpful when completing an application for disability benefits:

SSI/SSDI Application Strategies

Relationships are vital to expediting the Social Security application process. You must keep in contact with SSA, DAS, medical records departments and treatment providers.

Active assistance will increase access to Social Security disability benefits for mental health consumers from the current 20% approval rate on passive applications to a 70% approval rate in 90 days using these SAMHSA Best Practice strategies. Understanding the disability determination process will ensure that all of the necessary documentation is submitted to support a complete and quality application. Below you will find a step-by-step best practice guide for active assistance with SSI/SSDI applications.

Initial Interview and Basic Forms
1. Gather information about physical and mental impairments and all treatment providers (past and present).
2. Complete SSA Authorizations (SSA-827) and Agency Authorizations
3. Complete Appointment of Representative Form (SSA-1696). Always apply as the claimant’s Representative. (This is not the same as a Representative Payee). You will be able to:
   - Receive and file paperwork on the applicant’s behalf.
   - Communicate with the SSA Claims Representative in the field office and Disability Adjudicator to monitor the process.
   - Ensure that records have been received, what information is included in a record, and whether it meets the adjudicator’s needs.
   - Collect observations from individuals who can provide letters and other documents describing the claimant’s daily functioning.
   - File a letter summarizing all of the evidence presented in the applicant’s case.

Establish SSA Protective Filing Date
1. Call SSA at 1-800-772-1213 for an appointment at the local field office or begin the SSDI application online at www.ssa.gov

Send Medical Record Requests
1. Send request letter, list of medical information, Agency and SSA authorizations to each provider
2. Follow-up to ensure receipt of request and timely response.
3. Fax received records to the Disability Adjudication Services with the provider specific bar-coded cover sheet (you can get these from the adjudicator- see below)

Meet with consumer to complete SSA Forms
1. Disability Report (SSA-3368): Include information on all impairments, both physical and mental. Someone may be approved on a combination of illnesses.
2. Function Report (SSA-3373)
3. Work History Report (SSA-3369)
4. Claimants with substance abuse disorders must prove that the addiction is not material to their disability. They must show that they would still be unable to work if they were clean and sober. They DO NOT need to be substance-free to apply.
Complete SOAR Assessments
http://www.prainc.com/SOAR/training/worksheets.asp
1. SOAR General Assessment (Psycho-social assessment)
2. Functional Assessment
3. Substance Abuse Worksheet (as needed)

Attend scheduled SSA appointment with consumer
1. Allow consumer to speak and answer questions.
2. If consumer is homeless, ask the Claims Representative (CR) to flag case as “Homeless” and “SOAR.” The application should be routed to the Homeless Unit at the Disability Adjudication Service (DAS).
3. Follow-up with CR to ensure transfer to DAS (within 2 days for homeless cases)

Contact Disability Adjudication Services (DAS) and check on transfer and status
1. Call Case Control at DAS to find out name of the adjudicator: 1-800-282-7485 x2100
2. Homeless Unit Supervisor: Adrienne Galloway, adrienne.galloway@ssa.gov
3. Call adjudicator and discuss medical records received and needed
4. Request Bar-Coded Cover Sheet for electronic/fax submission of records

Write Medical Summary Report (MSR)
Create medical evidence by developing a Medical Summary Report, which to be considered medical evidence, must be reviewed and signed by a physician. Write a letter that summarizes the claimant’s medical history. Include the claimant’s Personal History, Medical/Psychiatric History, and Functional Information. Describe the claimant’s daily living skills so that DAS will have a full picture of what is keeping this person from being able to work. Samples are available: http://prainc.com/SOAR/tools/pdfs/MedicalSummarySample.pdf

1. Attend appointment with consumer to see their treating psychiatrist
2. Ask treating psychiatrist to co-sign MSR
3. Submit signed MSR to DAS (Submit even if you are unable to obtain a signature.)

Attend Consultative Exam (If necessary)
1. Bring copy of Medical Summary Report to CE as background information
2. Answer questions for the examiner if needed
3. Follow-up to ensure that records are sent

The Disability Adjudication Service: Sequential Evaluation
Once an SSI/SSDI application is filed with the Social Security Administration (SSA), the case is transferred to the Disability Adjudication Service (DAS) for the medical determination. The DAS will request medical records from sources provided by the applicant, order exams if necessary and request function and work history reports to determine whether someone is considered disabled according to the Social Security guidelines. DAS makes their decision using a 5 step sequential evaluation:

The Listings refers to the book titled Disability Evaluation Under Social Security. This book, available only online, provides a listing of disorders relating to disability (physical and mental) along with the criteria for determining disability. For mental impairments, the listing provides information on diagnosis, symptoms, and functioning. If an individual meets the criteria in a listing as documented in their medical records and functional reports they will be found disabled under Social Security.

The complete listings are online at http://www.ssa.gov/disability/professionals/bluebook/

Functional Information

It is important to include with every application, comprehensive, detailed functional descriptions. These descriptions make the link between the diagnosis and what it is keeping the person from being able to work. Below you will find samples of effective functional descriptions for 3 of the 4 functional areas that DAS looks at when determining disability.

I Marked Restrictions of Activities of Daily Living
II Marked Difficulties in Maintaining Social Functioning
III Marked Difficulties in Maintaining Concentration, Persistence and Pace
IV Repeated Episodes of Decompensation

SAMPLE: Activities of Daily Living
Ms. Jones says that she is so depressed each morning that she is unable to get out of bed until around noon. Although she used to care a great deal about her appearance, her feelings of hopelessness result in her washing only two or three times a week. Her energy for housework is also extremely low despite her past history of being fastidious in the upkeep of her home. The room that she rents is cluttered with old newspapers, leftover food, dirty clothes, and soiled towels. She shops rarely partly because she has so little funds but also because she has no appetite. Her severe depression continuously affects her ability to take care of herself adequately despite her attending treatment.

SAMPLE: Social Functioning
Ms. Waves finds that her mood swings are so unpredictable and severe that she never can predict how she will feel. When she is manic, no one can follow her conversation as her speech and thoughts race so quickly. She quickly becomes irritable with anyone she interacts with and often winds up losing her temper, getting into shouting matches with other people. When she is depressed, all she wants to do is stay by herself and do nothing. She finds that such changes can happen within a day's time, leaving her feeling terribly confused and out-of-control.

SAMPLE: Concentration, Persistence and Pace
Mr. Brown worked all his life as a foreman in a steel factory. He took pride in his ability to remember and monitor many aspects of the detailed operation. Since he's been dealing with what he describes as "a severe clinical depression" for the past two years, Mr. Brown finds that he has trouble thinking about even simple details and accomplishes very little. This contributes to a worsening of his depression, as he feels so worthless and helpless. He tries to assist in preparing meals at the transitional program where he lives. However, he finds that even the simplest instructions for preparing an item leave him befuddled and confused. He has to ask several times for the instructions to be repeated and sometimes needs hands-on instructions, something quite different from his past.

Georgia State Driver’s License and Identification Card Requirements
To apply for an initial Georgia driver's license, identification card, or instruction permit, you must present one of the following:
Applicants for initial issuance of a Georgia driver’s license, permit or identification card must provide documentation proving United States citizenship or legal authorization from the Immigration and Customs Enforcement bureau of the United States Department of Homeland Security. If you are having problems establishing residency do to a recent release, talk to your Probation or Parole officer. In cooperation with the Department of Driver’s Services, you may ask for a form that your Officer can sign to verify your residency.

Documents are subject to verification and may not be accepted if altered.

Any document that is not in English must be accompanied by an approved English translation.

Any documents listed previously or a primary document listed on the next page that does not contain your full legal name or only contains a middle initial means that you must also present another primary or secondary document that indicates your full legal name.

If your Georgia license has been expired for two years or more and you do not hold an active out-of-state license, you must pass the road signs test, road rules test, actual driving test, and eye exam to obtain a Class C license.

For other driver’s license information call (678) 413-8400

CHAPTER 2: HOUSING

Finding a place to live will be difficult for some. For others, there will be no choice because of Department of Corrections’ requirements. Some may be mandated to a halfway house or required to return to the county where the crime was committed.

If you have no restrictions on where you live, think hard before deciding to move back into your old neighborhood. There may be people and activities there to pull you back into committing crimes.

Some will have a supportive friend, relative, or family member to live with and housing may not be a major concern, while others will need to explore different options.

When looking for housing, keep in mind where it is located relative to your work, what transportation is available, and what stores are in the area.

Temporary Shelter Providers and Referral Agencies

- United Way 2-1-1, formerly First Call for Help, is a service that can assist you in finding temporary shelter like the ones listed below. Resources are accessible to you through the library transition resource center, the Internet (after your release), and by dialing 211.

- Community Action Agencies provide services to reduce the effects of poverty in the community. Many provide energy assistance, winterization, housing, and emergency shelter services. These agencies are also a good source of information and referral for related services. For agencies: http://www.geaonline.org/member_agencies.htm.

- County Social Services Agencies administer low-income financial assistance programs such as the Georgia Family Investment Program (GFIP) and General Assistance, as well as other assistance programs such as Medical Assistance, Emergency Assistance, and Food Stamps. They may provide referrals for overnight shelter. There are strict state and federal guidelines for the above programs so immediate monetary assistance may not be possible.

- Drop-In Centers provide a variety of services, which may include food, clothing, and support. The centers serve as sources of information, and daytime shelter. Availability is limited to larger metro areas.

- Emergency and Overnight Shelters offer lodging for a short period of time (usually one or two nights) until other arrangements can be made through the county or other programs. You may use 2-1-1 (First Call for Help) to help locate these shelters. Metro-wide Engagement on Shelter & Housing (MESH) also offers a directory of shelters in the metro area that have immediate openings; call 1-888-234-1329 for this listing. There is no charge for staying at most emergency shelters. Some charity-sponsored shelters may require that you participate in their programs to use their shelter.

- Salvation Army Units—provide shelter vouchers to individuals in need. They may also help out with meals and other essential needs. http://www.salvationarmy.org/arc.htm

- Emergency & Information/Referral Phone Numbers:
  - Governor’s Help Line: 24-hour service, live, trained counselors. Call for counseling, information and referrals 1-800-338-6745.
  - Taskforce for the Homeless: Call 1-800-448-0636 for information.
  - United Way’s First Call For Help: 24-hour service; call 211
Adult Rehabilitation Centers – There are over 100 centers with high success rate in getting off the streets and into clean living facilities. They offer meals, medical checkups, AA programs, job skill training, & counseling. Many include similar programs for women.

Types of Housing

Transitional (Halfway Housing)—some offenders are mandated to this type of housing as a condition of their release and to provide some structure as the offender adjusts to life on the outside. If space is available, others may also live there, provided they meet the shelter’s guidelines. You may use 2-1-1 (First Call for Help) to help you locate transitional housing in your area or you may want to ask your caseworker for assistance. Transitional housing:

- May provide shelter for up to one year.
- Has the expectation that you to be accountable at all times and cooperate with any programming identified by the referring agency.
- Provides opportunity to ease back into the community by gaining employment, accumulating savings, developing a plan of working toward independent living, and establishing community support services.
- Includes support services (such as counseling and job search help) in addition to food and shelter.
- Provides you time to save money for your own place. Costs will depend on services provided.

Sober Housing—is NOT a treatment program and often will not accept sex offenders.

- Provides long-term support, allowing residents to stabilize and develop healthy relationships with other people pursuing similar goals.
- Generally, the only requirements are sobriety and lawful means of paying bills. Often, there is no second chance—a resident who “uses” one time will be “out.”
- Is much less expensive than an apartment and makes saving money for more independent living easier.

Renting—be sure to consider all expenses such as application fee, security deposit, utilities not included in rent, etc.

- Search for listings in local newspapers, network with friends and family, and utilize apartment referral services.
- Be sure you understand terms of lease before signing.
- People with criminal records may not be allowed to reside in some apartment complexes, mobile home parks, etc. Price range is variable depending upon the type of building, location, and number of roommates.
- Will probably be required to sign a lease; meaning you must follow terms of the contract.
• Check with the property manager before you pay an application fee. It goes toward a background check.

Single Resident Occupancy—(SRO) is only for single, childless adults.

• SRO is usually furnished housing with shared bath or kitchen facilities that are made available to income eligible individuals at reduced rates.

Buying a Home—though not an option for many offenders it may be appropriate for some, especially when renting is too challenging.

• First-time home buying programs may be available in many areas—neighborhood associations can usually help you find these grants.
• Military veterans may qualify for home buying assistance.

Obtain a copy of the HUD booklet that covers steps involved in buying a home—available in the library transition resource center.

What Property Managers Look for in Tenants

- Past Rental History—Know names and addresses of those you rented from in the past. Before you apply, be sure to take care of any unlawful detainers.
- Employment History—Name, address and phone number of your employer, as well as your monthly income (generally rent should not exceed one third of your income).
- Credit History—Property managers do check into your on-time and late payments. Try to clean up any outstanding bills from creditors. If you have a copy of your credit report, it is helpful to bring it with you.
- Criminal History—Most property managers do a criminal history check. They may ask you if an offense was committed in a residence. An honest, straightforward response is best.

Questions to Consider Before Signing a Lease

- How long is the lease?
- How much notice is required (30 or 60 days) before moving?
- What is the penalty for moving out before the lease is up?
- Is there a security deposit for the apartment/rental unit and what is the amount?
- What are the property manager’s conditions for full return of the security deposit plus interest at the time of moving out?
- Are any utilities included in the rent?
- Is there a security deposit for the utilities?
- What is the average monthly cost for the utilities in the apartment/rental unit?
- Is public transportation available nearby?
- Where are the nearest schools, shopping centers, etc.?
- For what reasons can the property manager evict you? With how much notice?

These are the areas you will need to consider to determine your monthly expenses

Tenants’ Rights and Responsibilities

You have the following Responsibilities as a tenant:

- Your property manager can require references from you.
- You must pay rent on time.
- You must follow all legal clauses in your lease.
- You must not disturb other tenants.
- You must give proper written notice when you want to move out.
- You must pay for damages beyond normal wear and tear to your apartment.

As a tenant in Georgia, you have the following Rights:

- Your property manager must follow your lease.
- Your property manager must keep your apartment free from health and safety hazards.
• Your property manager must keep your apartment in good repair.
• Structures, fixtures, plumbing, and furnished equipment must be kept working.
• You have the right to call health /safety inspectors to inspect your apartment
• Your building must be insulated and weatherized.
• You have the right to peaceful and undisturbed possession of your apartment.
• You have the right to privacy.
• Your property manager cannot enter without your permission without giving you notice unless the lease says he/she can or in the event of an emergency.
• Your property manager must give you his/her name and address.
• Your property manager may not end or change the lease without giving you written notice.
• Your property manager cannot evict or retaliate against you for exercising your rights.
• Your property manager cannot shut off utilities or lock you out of your apartment.
• Your property manager cannot force you to leave your apartment without going to court.
• Your property manager cannot hold your personal belongings for non-payment of rent.
• Your property manager must provide certificates of rent paid so you can claim a tax credit.
• You are entitled to the return of your security deposit, with interest, within three weeks after you move. Be sure to give your property manager a forwarding address. However, your property manager may retain any amount of the security deposit that is reasonable to pay for unpaid rent if the property manager gives you a written explanation within three weeks. Your property manager cannot charge you for normal wear and tear to the apartment.

Buying A Home

Buying a home may not be possible for some time after release—until you have saved enough for a sufficient down payment and meet income eligibility guidelines. But for many people, home ownership is within reach and may even be more affordable than renting. This basic information can help you plan for the time when home buying is an option. The first step in choosing a home is figuring out how much you can afford to spend. As a general guide, you can buy a home with a value of two or three times your annual household income, depending on your savings and debts.

Describe your rental history. List any evictions, unlawful detainers, or problems you have had with property managers.

EMPLOYMENT

Information in this section will help you when filling out employment applications, putting together a résumé, interviewing, and keeping a job.

Job Searches

Statistics show that nearly two-thirds of all positions in the workforce are filled by “hidden” job-seeking methods. Below are descriptions of both “traditional” and “hidden” job-seeking methods.

Job-Seeking Methods

- Help-Wanted Ads in the Newspaper — only 15 percent of all jobs available are listed in the help wanted ads, and competition is fierce because almost everyone reads them.
- Sending out Résumés — almost all job search books recommend it, but doing that alone as a job search method does not work very well.
- Private Employment Agencies — charge fees for finding you a job. The fees range from 10 to 15 percent of your annual income.
- Georgia Department of Labor, TOPPSTEP — provides assistance to rehabilitated offenders in obtaining and maintaining employment, through one-on-one job counseling and a series of specially designed workshops that will assist in résumé writing, interviewing skills, job search and networking techniques. When going to the Labor office, make sure to ask for the TOPPSTEP representative.
- Local Government Workforce Centers (WIA) — post job openings and will post your résumé for potential employers. They also provide assistance in résumé writing. Workforce centers have a number of useful publications to help you choose a career.
- Job Clubs — various community agencies and local churches host job club meetings in their facilities. The meetings provide job leads, job search tips, and support.
- Warm Contact — let it be known to others that you are seeking employment. Let friends, relatives, neighbors, former employers, former co-workers, church members, etc., know that you are looking for a job.
- Cold Contact — means going directly to possible employers. This requires a lot of time and traveling around town. Cold contacts may not be easy for most, but remember the worst that can happen is that they will say no.
- Public Library — is a great resource for job seekers. It has directories for local, state, and national organizations, businesses, and corporations. Most libraries also have out-of-town newspapers and phone directories for assistance as well.
- School Placement Offices — at private, trade, technical, and vocational schools. Some prospective employers notify these schools of openings, and schools may reserve these prospects for their own students.
- Trade Magazines and Journals — often list jobs available in their field. Review only current issues.
- Accept an Entry-Level Position — to get your foot in the door and then volunteer to help with more responsible positions within the business.
- Temporary Help Agencies — are a fast source of income and supply you with helpful experience, even though the pay may be lower and fewer benefits offered. Many times the temporary job can turn into a full-time position.
• Volunteer Work—shows employers a positive work ethic and may serve as a foot in the door to a potential employer. It is also an excellent opportunity to network. If you are volunteering for an organization, ask your volunteer coordinator to be a job reference for you.

• Internet—allows you to browse at your convenience at home and most public libraries. You can find many different websites containing possible employment opportunities. Be sure you have no special release conditions prohibiting your use of the Internet.

• Job Card—example of a pocket-sized card to leave with an employer. These are especially handy for “drop in” or cold contacts for employment.

Federal Bonding Program

Fidelity bonding is employee dishonesty insurance that protects employers against theft of money and property by employees. This insurance is a job placement tool because, in effect, it guarantees the job honesty of the applicant. It helps market the applicant’s strengths to the employer, and can apply to any job. The Federal Bonding Program provides individual fidelity bonds to employers for job applicants who may be denied coverage by commercial carriers because of a:

- Record of arrest, conviction, or imprisonment
- History of alcohol or drug abuse
- Lack of employment history
- Dishonorable discharge
- Poor credit history

Either the job applicant or the prospective employer (on behalf of the applicant) may make the initial contact with a local Georgia Department of Labor Office to apply for bond insurance coverage. Georgia Bonding Program pamphlets are available in the library.

Georgia Work Opportunity Tax Credit

This is a program that lets an employer reduce his or her taxes by hiring individuals in certain “targeted” groups. Ex-felons are one of these groups! The employer can deduct a percentage of the first $6,000 in wages paid to you directly from his or her taxes. None of this comes out of your pocket. In fact, it helps your chances of being hired, providing that the employer knows of this program. Georgia Work Opportunity Tax Credit pamphlets are available in the library or from Georgia Department of Labor.

Résumés and Applications

A good résumé is an important job search tool and “sells” your employment skills to a prospective employer.

Tips for an Effective Résumé

1. Try to Use a Computer - There are computer programs that make it much easier to prepare your résumé. Your local library, work force center, or “quick print” shop can help. Practice on the computer in the library.

2. Be Specific - Don’t waste valuable space with overused, general statements. An example of a general or “flowery” statement is: “A challenging position enabling me to contribute to organizational goals while offering an opportunity for growth and advancement.” Be direct and to the point in identifying your accomplishments.

3. One or Two Pages - If your career justifies a two-page résumé, go ahead and create a document that explains the full range of your experiences and accomplishments. On the other hand, don’t ramble on about unrelated experiences. Ask yourself, “Will this statement help me land an interview?” Every word should sell you.

4. Avoid Use of Personal Pronouns - There should be no mention of “I” or “me” and only limited use of articles such as, “a,” “an,” and “the.” Also, do not use abbreviations.

5. List Only Necessary Information - Do not include your interests unless they are related to the job. For example, if applying for a position as a ski instructor, list cross-country skiing as a hobby. Personal information such as date of birth, marital status, height and weight, and salary or wages should not be on the résumé.
6. Center or Align Headings - All headings should be easy to locate and consistent in layout.

7. Avoid Making Excuses - Don’t include the reasons you are no longer working at each job listed on your résumé. The phrases, “company sold,” “boss was an idiot,” and “left to make more money” have no place on your résumé. Be positive.

8. Check for Typos - Check for typos, grammatical errors, and coffee stains. Use the spell check feature on the computer and ask one or two friends to review the résumé to find mistakes you might have missed.

9. Use Quality Copy Paper - Don’t try to save money by printing your résumé on cheap copy paper instead of good quality stock. A résumé should be printed on paper with a high percentage of cotton fiber; it should also be mailed in an envelope with a high percentage of cotton fiber. You can find résumé paper and envelopes at any store that sells office supplies. Inspect copies for smudges and marks before distributing.

Action Verbs

Use the following list of action verbs on your résumé to describe your skills, and what your job requirements and activities were at your previous jobs.

Getting Your Résumé Out

- Résumé should be sent to a person by name; make the extra effort to find out the name and title of the appropriate person.
- If you are asked to send a résumé to Personnel or Human Resources, also send a résumé to the person in charge of the department for which you want to work. Though the personnel staff executes the screening, the department manager has the final hiring authority.
- Always send your résumé with a cover letter.
- When directly contacting employers, always have a copy of your résumé available and offer it to them.
- When applying for a job with an employment application, you may want to attach your résumé. Always take the time to completely fill out the application. NEVER write on the application, “see résumé.”
- Give a copy of your résumé to your references as it provides information about you and helps them talk to an employer about your qualifications.
- Always phone the employer before or after sending your résumé. Be courteous and professional and sell your qualifications.
- Always bring extra copies of your résumé to an interview.
- Finally, follow-up, follow-up, follow-up! It is no use mailing résumé if you do not take the time to follow up your efforts.

Functional or Skills Résumé

- Emphasizes your abilities and often doesn’t mention employers and job titles.
- Helps mask limited experience or gaps in your employment record.
- Places attention on results you can produce—emphasizes your skills and how you can use them.
Looks different than more common résumé, and potential employers may find it harder to read or assume that you are trying to hide something.

Cover Letters

- Introduce you, your skills, and your experiences.
- Always include a brief, professional, and positive cover letter when sending a résumé.

Thank-You Letters

- A well-written thank-you letter helps you stand apart from the crowd.

- Shows that you are someone who takes time to show appreciation for the efforts of others.

Thank You Letter (Sample)

Nancy K. Doe
Personnel Director
Dexter Manufacturing Company
Dexter, Maine 04930

Dear Ms. Doe:

Thank you for interviewing me last Wednesday for the position of Line Quality Inspector. I believe Dexter Manufacturing Company and I have a lot in common!

The information you provided about your community was very helpful. Relocating to such a beautiful area is very appealing.

As you requested, my references and transcripts are enclosed. I look forward to meeting with you again. Until then, don’t hesitate to call me with any further questions regarding my candidacy for this position.

Sincerely,

Ray T. Simmons
268 6th Ave.
Laconia, New Hampshire 03246
(397) 222-1111

Follow up quickly. Send a letter the same day if possible.

Indicate specifically the reason for the thank you.

A thank you letter should be short and friendly. Be sure to use proper grammar and correct spelling.

Let them know that you are available at their convenience and you are happy to supply any information needed.

A personal letter can be handwritten. If your handwriting is not neat and legible, type it.
Applications

Sometimes a company’s policy may require you to fill out an application before being considered for a job. An application allows an employer to compare you to other applicants.

- Read the directions carefully.
- Keep it as neat as possible; re-do poorly done applications, if possible.
- If an application is mailed to you, make a photocopy. Fill out the copy first, and then rewrite your information on the original.
- Provide positive information.
- Hobbies and interests that you list could relate to what the employer is looking for or could include tasks needed on the job, requiring less training by the employer.
- Application request for “pay desired” is best left “negotiable” or “open.”
- If possible, do not indicate a specific title for position desired—leave it broader.
- Do not use lazy responses such as “see résumé” or “same.”
- Include volunteer work as it shows that you are responsible and may include skills needed for the job.
- Criminal record checks by employers are common. The employer may even ask you to sign a release form to allow them to look beyond what is just public record.

Things to Remember for Completing Applications On-site

- Take along a copy of information and dates that you might need to complete the application, rather than trying to remember them and making mistakes on the application.
- Remember that false information given on an application may be grounds for dismissal even after you have been employed for any length of time.
- Take “white-out” or an erasable pen, as well as a small dictionary, with you when completing applications.

Face-to-Face Contacts

Creating a Good First Impression

People form an opinion of someone they meet in the first two to four minutes. For that reason, it is important that you pay attention to detail to create the best first impression you can. Some factors that affect the impression you make are appearance (hair, clothes, hygiene, jewelry, make-up), movement, mannerisms, personal space, and speaking manner. A weak or too firm handshake makes a negative impression. You should practice shaking hands before an interview. To help enhance your chances of making a favorable impression, follow the basic rules discussed below.

Communicate Your Best Image in Appearance

Dress appropriately. Keep your dress understated, conservative, and neat. If you’re unsure about what to wear, a good rule of thumb is to dress slightly better than you would to report to the job every day. For example, if blue jeans are acceptable attire at the work place, you could wear casual dress pants to a job interview with such an organization. You can determine the dress code in a work place by asking or observing, if it is a public place. If you are still unsure, a suit in a dark or neutral color is almost always a good choice. (Some social service agencies provide appropriate interview clothing to those in need.)

Dress For Success

It is helpful to try a “dress rehearsal” before a job interview. You can increase your confidence by seeing your put-together, professional self; you can be assured that the clothing is clean and in good repair; and you can ask the opinion of a friend or relative.

Women should avoid:

- Hair that is over styled, teased, or moused. It is best to keep hair conservatively styled.
- Dangling or large earrings.
- Too many earrings, rings, necklaces, or bracelets.
- Too much make-up. Too little is always better than too much.
- Too much perfume - none is better.
- Low-cut, tight, or short apparel.
- Exposed undergarment.
- Leather or suede apparel.
• Ruffles, bows, or fringe (they do not project a professional or businesslike image).
• Patterned nylons. Plain nylons are best.
• Very high heels.
• Glittery, silver, gold, or open-toe shoes.
• Showing tattoos or body piercings—cover with clothing or make-up if possible.

Men should avoid:
• Earrings, bracelets, pinkie rings, or similar jewelry.
• Too much aftershave or cologne - none is better.
• Unbuttoned shirts.
• Tee shirts
• Patterned tee shirts under dress shirts.
• White socks with dress pants. Wear dark colored dress socks.
• White pants.
• Novelty or leather ties.
• Sneakers.
• Showing tattoos or body piercings—cover with clothing or make-up if possible.

Communicate Your Best Image by Being Prepared

• Arrive early. Plan your schedule and route so you arrive 10-15 minutes prior to the appointment. Allow time to stop in the building’s bathroom, if there is a public one, for a last-minute check on your appearance.

• Bring a black pen, extra copies of your résumé, your reference list, copies of licenses, driving record (for jobs requiring it), and social security or alien card.

• Bring any other documentation supporting your qualifications (portfolio, work samples, references, etc.).

• Introduce yourself politely using your first and last name and stating the first and last name of the individual you are to see.

• Do not chew gum.

• Do not smoke. It is best not to smoke just before an interview as many people find the smell on your clothes and hair offensive.

• Say, “It’s nice to meet you” in your initial greeting to the interviewer. Shake hands firmly.

• Address the interviewer as Mr._________ or Ms._________ unless you are requested to do otherwise. Don’t assume that if the interviewer calls you by your first name you are both on a first-name basis!

• Be willing to make a bit of small talk, possibly about the weather, about the interviewer’s good directions, or about traffic on the way to the interview.

• Speak clearly, and in a positive, audible manner – but don’t be too loud.
Interview Do’s and Don’ts

Do – Do – Do:

- Do bring a pen.
- Do arrive early to show how organized, prepared, and dependable you are.
- Do greet everyone including the receptionist in a courteous, friendly way.
- Do smile and show a positive attitude; be enthusiastic.
- Do greet the interviewer by name (not first name!).
- Do look the interviewer in the eye.
- Do offer a firm handshake and introduce yourself.
- Do wait for the interviewer to ask you to be seated.
- Do speak clearly and loud enough to be easily heard.
- Do relax if you can; remember the interviewer may be as nervous as you are.
- Do sit still.
- Do thank participants for their time, smile, and shake hands when the interview is over.
- Do depart in a positive manner.
- Do send a thank-you letter recapping your interest in the job.

Don’t – Don’t – Don’t:

- Don’t chew gum or smoke; even if the interviewer does.
- Don’t put anything on the interviewer’s desk (elbows, purse, notebooks, etc.).
- Don’t play nervously with your keys, rings, or pens.
- Don’t slouch or look tired.
- Don’t mumble or speak too softly.
- Don’t avoid looking the interviewer in the eyes.
- Don’t look too scared or nervous.
- Don’t argue or act defensive or secretive.
- Don’t talk too much or too little.
- Don’t wear a hat or dark glasses.
- Don’t talk about personal problems.
- Don’t talk negatively about past schooling, jobs, or supervisors.
- Don’t ask the interviewer if the company is stable or unstable.
- Don’t fidget.
- Don’t use slang.
Communicate Your Best Attitude

- Sit straight and relatively still. Avoid distracting wiggling or jiggling of your hands or legs or tapping and clicking of a pen.

- Fold your hands comfortably in your lap or on top of your résumé materials. Do not cross your arms over your chest (makes you appear disagreeable) or spread them across the back of the chair or couch (makes you appear too relaxed, lazy, or disinterested).

- Maintain good eye contact.

- Show reserved confidence. Let the interviewer start the dialogue. Listen carefully.

- Avoid interrupting, even if the interviewer does most of the talking.

- Ask questions if you don’t understand something.

- Be positive and upbeat in your remarks.

- Avoid complaining about a previous job or employer. Whether or not your remarks are true, you won’t appear professional if you “harp” on these subjects.

- Avoid criticizing or disagreeing with the interviewer.

- Tell the employer about your skills. If you don’t, no one else will! Don’t make the employer work harder than you during the interview.

- Welcome all questions and give direct, honest answers. Take your time by developing the answer in your head before you respond.

- Try to plan ahead for tough questions and practice your answers before the interview.

- For women, crossing your legs is acceptable, but wear a skirt of appropriate length to do so.

Communicate Your Best Image byFinishing Strong

- Don’t overstay your time.

- If you want the job, say so! Summarize why you are qualified. This is the time to state strengths and qualities you may have forgotten to emphasize earlier.

- Thank the interviewer for his or her time and interest and extend your hand for a strong parting handshake.

- Be proactive in your follow-up. Ask how you will be notified or arrange to call the employer to learn their decision.

- Send thank-you letters or notes within 24 hours to each person with whom you interviewed.

- Use each interview as a building block for the next one. You may go through many interviews before you connect with the right job. It is not what happened at the last interview that is important, but what happens at this one!
Reasons Employers Give for Not Hiring an Applicant

- Sarcastic or defensive responses.
- Boastful or “know it all” attitude.
- Over aggressive or high-pressure type.
- Makes excuses or lies about unfavorable facts in record.
- Seems unprepared for interview—late, cannot answer questions, etc.
- Poor grooming or personal appearance.
- Immature or ill-mannered behavior.
- Speaks negatively of former co-workers, school, or other people.
- Lazy or low on energy.
- Talks about personal problems.
- Radical ideas—politics, religion, dress, life-style, etc.
- Seems overly concerned about salary and benefits.
- Shows no interest in company or job.
- Undecided—appears to rely on others to make their decisions.
- Doesn’t ask any questions about the job.
- Poor work history—a “job hopper.”
- Fails to make good eye contact.
- Limp handshake.
- Lack of confidence—poor posture, shy, etc.
- Unable to take criticism.
- Appears to have trouble getting along with others.

Questions Interviewers May Ask You

- Why should I hire you?
- Why do you think you might like this particular job?
- Why would you like to work for this company?
- Tell me about yourself.
- What are your main strengths? (skills, abilities, etc.)
- What do you consider your main weakness?
• Describe a time when you did not get along with a supervisor, teacher, or co-worker and how you handled the situation.
• What would you like to be doing five years from now?
• Tell me about your last job (likes and dislikes).
• How do you work under pressure?
• Tell me about any work gaps in your employment history.
• Have you ever been fired or asked to leave a job?
• Have you ever been convicted of a felony?
• What are your salary expectations?
• When would you be able to start work?
• Would you be willing to work overtime and/or weekends?
• Can you travel; do you have a car for travel?
• What can you offer our company?
• Do you have any questions? Always have at least one question!

All interview questions are really the same question:
Why are you the best person for the job?

Suggested Questions You May Ask an Employer

• What are the hours?
• Are there any special duties in this job?
• Is there weekend or overtime work?
• Would I be working with other people?
• What is the most important part of the job?
• Is this a permanent position?
• Are there chances for career growth with this company?
• Why is the position open?
• What is the 5-10 year plan for the company and how does this position fit into those plans?
• Never ask about salary or benefits until the interviewer brings the subject up or until you are offered the job.
• If offered the job, ask what clothes are appropriate on the job.
• Ask them to describe the ideal candidate for the position.
Discussing Your Conviction Record

Be aware that the law prohibits felons from holding some types of jobs. However, there are many jobs available for offenders. Remember it is important to tell the truth.

For many just out of prison and applying for a job, the most difficult part is facing the question on the job application, “Have you ever been convicted of a felony?” Let’s say the employer needs someone with your energy and skills. He or she says, “I see that you checked ‘yes’ on the felony question. Can you please tell me about that?” What will you say?

Three Choices for Discussing Your Record

- Tell the truth—always the best choice.
- Lie about it—and get disqualified or fired.
- Avoid the subject—refusing to discuss it will “kill” the interview.

Steps to Discussing Your Conviction Record

Step 1: Own it. Take responsibility for your actions. Show them you own up to your behavior. Statements should begin with “I.” Placing blame on someone or something else (it wasn’t my fault or I didn’t know) is the worst thing you can do. Suggested openers could be: In the past,
  - I made some bad choices.
  - I made bad judgments.
  - I made a bad decision.
  - I did something I shouldn’t have.

Step 2: State the positive changes you have made since the conviction:
  - Completed GED.
  - Completed Cognitive Skills Programming for thinking and decision making
  - Paid restitution
  - Participated in counseling or treatment. Maintained aftercare

Step 3: Tell them what you have learned or realized:
  - Express your regret and speak about the lessons you have learned.
  - I’m not proud of what I’ve done; I’m sorry it ever happened.
  - I wanted fast money and now I see it was wrong.
  - I wish I had realized sooner just how immature and irresponsible I was being.
  - I lost sight of what was really important; my priorities were really mixed up.

Step 4: Talk about the new goals you have and how that part of your life is over.
  - I now have new goals in life. I’m very focused on establishing a successful career. I’m moving forward and am willing to work hard to make it happen. I can’t un-do the past, but I did learn from it and will not repeat the same mistake.

If Asked – Were You Incarcerated?

- I did spend some time at an adult correctional facility for some bad choices I made.
- My time there helped me to focus and set new goals.
• I used the time to take advantage of education offered and by participating in various courses (name a few) and volunteering to work while I was there.

• I’m ready to work hard and do a good job.

Remember: Once you get the job, the word may get out that you are an ex-offender. Stay professional – never discuss your past with fellow workers.

Don’t lie!

Don’t give details!

Don’t get defensive!

Don’t volunteer information!

Keep answers brief and to the point!

Telephone Etiquette

It is almost guaranteed that you will talk to a potential employer on the telephone at some point in the hiring process. In an extensive job search you will be using the telephone to conduct research, cold-call employers, make networking contacts, schedule meetings, and to interview. Your first phone call to a potential employer can often mean the difference between getting an interview and being overlooked as a candidate.

• Whenever your first contact with an employer is by telephone, always be courteous to whoever answers the phone. The support staff is often who decides whether calls should be put through, and it is not uncommon for supervisors themselves to answer the phone.

• Wear a smile on the telephone—they may not see it, but they will hear it.

• In general, it’s best to make calls in the morning when people are alert and not yet involved in the day’s events.

• If you can’t get past a shrewd receptionist, try before 8:00 a.m., during lunch, after 5:00 p.m., or Saturday morning. If you still can’t get through, ask for the receptionist’s assistance.

• If you were referred by a mutual contact, give that person’s name to the receptionist.

• The first rule of telephone etiquette is to be prepared. Know whom you want to speak to and what you want to say. If you sound hesitant or unsure of yourself, you may have more difficulty getting past the person answering the phone.

• Outline in writing what you want to say. This is important in the early stages of cold calling or when the call is very important. As you gain confidence, you will “script” most of your calls in your head.

• Make sure there are no distracting noises in the background; crying children, loud lawnmowers, kitchen noise, barking dogs, etc., will detract from your professionalism.

• Like it or not, voice mail is a part of our lives. Speaking to a machine adds a new dimension to telephone skills. Knowing what you will say if you get someone’s voice mail and having a “script” ready will enable you to leave a simple, clear, and concise message. Your message should be 30 seconds or less and include a phone number with area code.

• Do not ask a potential employer to hold while you answer, “call waiting.”
Chapter 4: CAREERS

Career Centers

Offender Career Centers provide inmates with materials to assist them with career decision-making. While all facilities may not currently have Career Centers, all facilities do have TOPPSTEP Representatives from the Department of Labor who will assist in developing a career plan. Facilities with Career Centers have inmate clerks who have been trained to assist other inmates in career development. The goal is to eventually have career centers with inmate career clerks in every facility.

The Career Center objective is to help you raise self-awareness regarding career development and job retention, by developing the career/employability skills necessary to transition back into society as a more informed and marketable person.

The Offender Career Clerk will be responsible for assisting the other inmate participants in matching jobs to interests, assisting them with completing and interpreting Interest Profiler Occupational Assessment, conducting career exploration activities using the assessment information and the Occupational Outlook Handbook, and assisting inmates in developing a career plan that includes job retention planning, contingency planning and advancement planning. You will work with your counselor to implement the skills learned in the center.

CHAPTER 5: WORK ETHICS

Job Survival Skills

There are things you can do to increase your chances of success on a new job. If you want to do well, you may need to change the way you act and some of your attitudes. Employers say more people lose their job because they do not use good work habits rather than because they are not able to do the job. The following list of suggestions is based on feedback from employers.

- Positive attitude—do not carry negative feelings into your new workplace. Take care of them elsewhere.
- Always be on time. Set an alarm clock to help you get up. Allow a few extra minutes for traffic problems and getting children to daycare. Reliability and dependability gain the trust and respect of your employers.
- Good attendance and promptness are always important. Ask your supervisor for the proper method of informing him/her in the event you will be unavoidably late or out sick. Unreliability may disrupt the work of other people who have to make up for your absence and sets a bad example—employers place this problem high on the list of reasons for firing people.
- Honesty—employers don’t want to pay someone who steals from them or can’t be trusted. Dishonesty is one of the top reasons employers give for firing an employee.
- Know and follow all office rules, policies, and procedures. Read the employee manuals.
- Follow directions and get along with your supervisor—in a battle with a supervisor, you will almost always lose! This is one of the top three reasons people get fired.
- Listen and learn. Be open to new ways of doing things, even if you were taught differently in school or on a different job.
- Work efficiently. Working too slowly or making too many mistakes is a major reason for job failure. You can see why—unproductive employees cost more than they earn!
- Treat co-workers with respect, courtesy, and dignity. Know your employer’s harassment policy—monitor your own behavior and act early if you feel you have been placed in an uncomfortable position. Harassment can occur at any time and any place (before and after work, on and off work premises). Harassment can be verbal, physical, or visual and can occur whenever employees interact with each other, supervisors, customers, vendors, and other third parties.

Communication

- Be a team player. Be willing to help. Try to fit in with the team.
- Ask for help when you need it. If you make a mistake, let your supervisor know immediately.
- When you need to talk with your supervisor, ask when would be a good time to meet.
- Follow the proper chain of command. Discuss items with your supervisor first.
Getting Along With Others

- Treat everyone with courtesy and respect.
- Always be friendly to everyone. Be willing to go the extra mile. This creates goodwill with employers, co-workers, and customers.
- Do not express your opinions, biases, or prejudices about others while you are at work. Respecting differences is a priority in the workplace.
- Accept criticism as constructive. Do not become defensive or take criticism personally.
- Keep your emotions under control. The job is not the place to express or show your opinions or feelings.
- Find a mentor, someone who knows the company and the job well enough to coach you or show you the ropes.
- Realize playing politics or power games could be dangerous and backfire on you.
- Show appreciation. Let your supervisor and co-workers know you appreciate their training, support, input, feedback, etc.
- Be willing to do more than you are asked to do.

Personal Traits

- Be clean and well groomed. Wear clean and job-appropriate clothes. Avoid wearing strong perfumes or colognes.
- Be willing to learn new skills. Keep a record of classes you are taking that relate to the job and review with your supervisor at an appropriate time.
- Find positive and upbeat co-workers as new friends. Avoid negative, critical, and gossiping people.
- Keep your personal life and problems at home. If you are having trouble working out personal problems, seek out counseling, support groups, or employee assistance programs.
- Prior to starting the job, try to have all appointments with doctors, dentists, etc., out of the way. Have your transportation and day care lined up so you do not immediately have to take time off. Have an emergency plan for day care and transportation.
- Be patient with yourself and your employer. It takes time to get used to, learn, and like a new job.

When You Make A Mistake (on the job or in life)

To err is human; we’ve all been guilty of mistakes large and small. Remember the following when the inevitable mistake occurs:

- First take a deep breath. Do not run, hide, get angry, or blame others. Move from “stewing” about what cannot be undone to figuring out what needs to be done next and right away.
- Figure out what went wrong, how it went wrong, and what to do about it. Think clearly and gather information so that you can solve the problem and make amends.
- Be a problem-solver. Whether it was a minor embarrassment or a major disaster, think of yourself as a problem-solver and explain to your supervisor how you will avoid a repeat.
- Tell your supervisor the mistake. Keep emotion to a minimum – be straightforward, clear, and direct, “This is what happened and I’m sorry. I know we have to deal with this, and this is what I recommend.”
- Listen to your boss’’s response. Be prepared to hear everything, including anger, criticism, silence, etc. Above all, do not argue or offer excuses.
• Apologize and accept responsibility. Grace under fire can win you new respect.
• Check for causes of repeat mistakes. Try to change it so you can be in control in the future.
• The longer you wait to deal with a mistake, the harder it will be to correct it.

CHAPTER 6: TRANSPORTATION

Walking- you can make your plans so that you live within walking or bicycling distance from work, shopping, and all of your family and recreational activities. If you are going to live miles from your work or recreation, you will need motorized transportation.

The bus- if you are going to Atlanta, and a number of large towns in Georgia, you will be able to take the bus. All cities with bus systems have free bus schedules available.

Metropolitan Rapid Transit Authority rail and bus system has a website at www.itsmarta.com and Customer Service number at (404) 848-5000 which helps you plan trips, get news, help, schedules, and bus passes.

- Buses: Times vary on individual routes. In General, buses run from 5:30 a.m. to 1:30 a.m. Monday through Friday and from 5:30 a.m. to 12:30 a.m. weekends and holidays. You can call (404) 848-4711 for details or use the system map.

- Rail Cars: Marta’s rail system operates from approximately 5a.m. to 1 a.m. Monday through Friday and from 5 a.m. to 12:30 a.m. weekends and holidays. For locations and routes, check the website, or call (404) 848-4711 or (404) 848-5000.

- Fares: Regular MARTA fares can be purchased at each rail station, in the form of a ride card or may be purchased at convenient locations around the Atlanta area. MARTA’s RideStores are located at various locations in the Metro area.

Taxi cabs charge per trip, not per person. If possible, pool with family and friends. Cabs also charge for waiting, sometimes up to $25 an hour. Cabs are the most expensive, so check the bus routes before calling a cab or call the bus hotline to see if one runs through the area.

GEORGIA TRANSIT LINKS

American Public Transportation Association (APTA) links to web sites for bus, subway, ferry, and light rail systems in the state of Georgia at www.apta.com/state local/ga.cfm. This site lists public transportation available in every county in Georgia.

Buying A Car

At one time, a brand new car was a better value than a used vehicle in terms of overall dependability. However, cars of the last decade are built so much better and last so much longer that buying new mostly means the extra money goes for depreciation and that new car smell. For about half the cost of an entry-level new car, you can buy a seven- to eight-year old used vehicle in good condition that still offers years of service and includes many standard safety features.

The Internet is a wonderful tool for the used-car buyer. You can read expert reviews on older vehicles, then type in a make, model, year, and mileage to receive a professional estimate of a particular car’s worth. For example, the Kelly Blue Book breaks prices down by method of sale (dealer or private party) and car condition (poor, fair, good, or excellent).

Once you have found a car that interests you, take it to an independent mechanic. For about $50-$75, many mechanics will check out a car’s major systems, give you a list of work that the car needs, and estimate how much these repairs are likely to cost. This is good “lemon insurance” and may also help you get a better deal if there are significant repairs to be made.

Insurance Costs

The cost of owning a car today is much more than the price on the window. Before you can drive your car you must also purchase insurance. It is required by law and protects you from paying costly bills in the unfortunate event of an accident. Insurance costs widely vary. The cost is calculated by a number of factors including the year of the car, the make and model of the car, your age, your gender, and your driving record.

There are two types of car insurance:

- Liability – will cover the bills of the other driver in the event that you cause an accident but will not pay anything to you if you are hurt or your car is damaged. This type of insurance costs you less per month, but may be more costly in the event of an accident as you must pay to fix the damages to your car.
- Full Coverage – will cover all bills* of all drivers in the accident, including you. This type of insurance costs more per month but may save you money in the event of an accident. (*A deductible applies in all policies. This is the amount you are responsible for before the insurance company will pay.)

The following tips may help when choosing the right car for you:

1. Go with low mileage if at all possible. Lower miles are a benefit if you resell and should mean more time before repairs are necessary. Try to avoid cars with excessive mileage (more than 15,000 miles per year).

2. Learn about previous owner(s). Find out the number of previous owners. Ideally, a two year-old car should have one owner, and a five-year old car shouldn’t have more than two owners. If it has more owners, it may be a warning sign. Beware of missing or inconsistent service records. You have the right to ask for the CARFAX report. This report gives you a history of all the accidents or damage the car may have received.

3. Do your homework. Research everything about the vehicles you have in mind. Read up on current trade-in and market values; safety ratings; consumer and professional reviews of the vehicles; and the options, mileage adjustment, and condition of the cars.

4. Investigate the lease and rental market. There are many excellent lease return cars on the used-car market, especially cars driven by an individual for personal use or in a company.

5. Get everything in writing—especially price, terms, repairs, and/or trade-ins. This should be clearly written into the sales agreement.

6. Make sure you can afford to own the car once you have bought it. The True Cost to Own (TCO) takes into account all ownership and operation costs for five years, giving the breakdown year by year. The purchase price is the tip of the iceberg, and the TCO reveals all costs such as:
   - Depreciation
   - Loan/ Interest
   - Taxes and fees
   - Insurance premiums
   - Fuel costs
   - Maintenance and repairs associated with buying, owning, and operating a car over a five-year period
If possible, research these costs on the Internet by going to Edmunds.com or many other sites.

CHAPTER 7:
MONEY MANAGEMENT

As difficult as prison may be, there is security in not having to make too many choices, especially with money. Once you are “on the streets,” you will be earning money, deciding how to spend it, and will have expenses you did not have in prison. You will have to decide between “wants” and “needs”—what is a “want” to one person may be a “need” of another.

People all have different ways of dealing with money. Some like to organize their money and plan for the future. Others prefer to spend their money without planning—they focus on today and don’t look ahead to what tomorrow may bring.

There aren’t “right” or “wrong” ways of dealing with money, but planning tends to give people a feeling of more control over their money and their lives. Ask yourself:

- Does your money always seem to disappear long before the next check?
- Do you often wonder where your money went?
- Do you ever run out of food or gas between paychecks?
- Do you often get collection notices for past due bills?
- Do you need to buy things you can’t seem to afford?
- Do you pay some of your bills late every month?
- Do you need to borrow money to make ends meet each month?
- Do you owe a lot of money on credit cards?

If your answer to any of these questions is “yes,” a plan can help you manage your money and avoid some of these problems. The first step in making a spending and saving plan is to start keeping track of where your money is going. You have to know how much you are spending and what you are spending it on before you can make a plan.

Wants Versus Needs

- How do you decide what to buy? What do you absolutely need? What can you do without for the time being? A wise man once said, “Most problems in life can be figured out by sitting down with a paper and pencil.” Here is your chance.
Use the pages included in this chapter as a sample budget. Complete it the best that you can, and then ask a friend to check your numbers. Check the newspapers for apartment rent figures, the Sunday paper grocery ad for the cost of food, etc. This will be your budget for your first month out of prison.

Make your numbers as realistic as possible. When you are released, this will help you create a budget plan of how and where to spend your money appropriately. Write the actual amounts that you spend next to your budgeted numbers so when you make your budget again it will be accurate.

Some bills you will pay every six months or once a year. Budget these expenses by including one month’s cost of that bill in each month’s budget. For example, if your car insurance premium is due twice a year and is $360, then budget 1/6 of that bill (1/6 of $360 = $60) every month and put that amount into your savings until you need it.

Keep this book and use your filled out sample budget pages in this chapter as a guide. Purchase a budget book when these pages run out. Keeping a budget will help you organize your life and avoid running up expenses you cannot afford.

Remember to keep receipts from purchases. Keep them in a folder or a place that you will not lose them. Sit down once a week and, using your receipts and/or checkbook, update your budget.

Before you go shopping, consult your budget to see how much money you can spend. For purchases like groceries, do your shopping once a week or every two weeks. This will make it easier to limit how much you spend. Try not to buy on impulse. However, if you do, make sure to keep the receipt and enter the amount into your budget. Also, try not to grocery shop when you are hungry.

Before you go shopping, make a list of what you intend to buy and how much you can afford to spend. Look for sales, discounts, deals, and coupons.

If you have a pocket calculator, keep track of the cost of items as you select them. This will help you choose the right mix of items to stay within your budget. Using a calculator and adding up the cost of your purchases as you shop is a good way to avoid impulse shopping. If you leave the store with the items that you came for and money left in your pocket, congratulate yourself.

Keeping Track of Your Spending

The first step in making a spending and savings plan is to start keeping track of where your money is going. You have to know what you are spending and what you are spending it on before you can make a spending and savings plan.

As soon as possible, start writing down everything that you spend by cash, check, and credit card.

When you write a check, write down the date, item, and amount in your checkbook.

When you spend cash, write down the date, item, and amount in a notebook or calendar.

You need to keep track of your spending for at least one month before you can get a good picture of where your money goes. At the end of the month, total the amount you have spent for each spending category.
For example, for January your list might look like this

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Item</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>#1 Jan. 1, 2010</td>
<td>Rent</td>
<td>$450.00</td>

<td>3.25</td>
</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>

The Case of the Missing Money!!

Do you have any missing money? Think about your daily routine. Do you get a snack from a vending machine every afternoon? Do you buy a pack of cigarettes every day? Do you play the lottery every week? These are all examples of “missing money” that will eat away at your spending plan. To see where your money is going, record these items below. Then you can either make changes or include this cash in your spending plan. Otherwise, it will continue to disappear.

For example: Each workday, Lin buys three snacks from a vending machine:

- Cupcake twin pack $ .95
- Bag of potato chips .70
- Can of pop .60

Just three snacks add up to just a few dollars a day. Although this doesn’t seem like much, over a period of time it grows:

- Every day $ 2.25
- Every five days $11.25
- Every four weeks $45.00
- Every year $585.00
Use the above examples on how much you are spending on “junk”

Smart Changes to Save Dollars

Stretch your paycheck by looking for smart ways to spend less.

1. Plan ahead and shop around.
   - Plan your spending carefully, especially for expensive items.
   - Comparison-shop before you buy. Check catalogs, thrifty classified ads, garage sales, and secondhand and discount stores.
   - Do most of your food shopping at discount grocery stores. Save convenience stores for emergencies. Don’t get fast food just because you haven’t planned ahead; save it for a treat.
   - Look for sales and specials on food staples, soap, paper products, and personal items. Use coupons if they help you save on things you would buy anyway.
   - Eat before you go to the store. Don’t shop for groceries when you’re hungry.
   - Make a list of what you need before you go grocery shopping and stick to it. Don’t buy anything that isn’t on your list, unless it is a good buy and you will use the item(s).
   - Check around for lower cost insurance, but be sure the company is reputable.
   - Buy clothes that go with items you already have. Mix and match outfits.
   Your ideas:

2. Use wisely.
   - Make the items you buy last longer by taking proper care of them.
   - Use food promptly to avoid spoilage. Talk to your children about not wasting food.
   - Do regular car maintenance, such as oil changes. Tuning up your car and inflating the tires properly will improve your gas mileage.
   - Wash your car yourself (a clean car rusts less).
   - Pay your bills on time to avoid finance charges and late fees.
3. Don’t buy impulsively.

- When you think of buying something, ask yourself: Do I really need this item, or is there something else I would rather do with the money?
- Be able to say no to yourself, your children, and salespeople whenever you feel pressured into buying something.
- Check your phone bill. If you have any custom-calling services (like Call Waiting), do you really need them? Basic service costs the least.
- Check your cable television bill. Do you really need more than the basic plan? Do you need cable television at all?

4. Substitute

- Buy one all-purpose cleaner for floors, walls, woodwork, and appliances.
- Use less expensive homemade cleaners. You can use baking soda to scrub sinks and countertops and a vinegar and water solution for cleaning glass.
- Find out if a lower-priced brand works as well as the one you usually buy.
- Instead of taking the family to a movie, rent one from the store, check one out from the library, or borrow one from a friend.
- Instead of going to the mall, play games together.
- Instead of going to a restaurant, get prepared food from a grocery store deli.
- Take the city bus whenever possible. If you use the bus a lot, buy a bus pass. For short trips, walk or ride a bike.

5. Find it free.

- Many items are available for free. You can borrow books, CDs, music tapes, and videos (and sometimes even games, toys, and pictures) from the library.
- Check the local newspaper for free or low-cost activities for the family.
- There are many web sites that offer deals.
- Get your exercise in public playgrounds or parks.
- Check if you’re eligible for free or discounted classes, food, or meals (such as community or school meals, WIC, food stamps, or senior meals).
- Find out about all the health care benefits to which you are entitled.

6. Keep track of the little things that can add up.
   - Record how you are spending the cash in your wallet.
   - Reduce your spending on snacks, magazines, phone calls, and lottery tickets.
   - Turn off the radio and television when no one is using them.
   - Teach your children to turn off the lights when they are the last person to leave a room.

If you buy on credit, how much can you afford?

As a general rule, there are two methods you may use.

Method 1

Usually credit payment (excluding mortgage payments) should be no more than 12 to 15 percent of your take-home pay.

My take-home pay $ _____________ X 15% (0.15) = $ _____________

Method 2

For safe credit use, fill out the following worksheet to see how much you can safely spend on credit payments each month.

| A) Your monthly take-home pay / income | $ |
| B) Housing (mortgage / rent), insurance | $ |
| C) Utilities (phone, electric, gas, waste, cable tv) | $ |
| D) Food | $ |
| E) Clothing | $ |
| F) Transportation (gas, repairs, insurance) | $ |
| G) Medical expenses (insurance, dentist, medications) | $ |
| H) Child care and other fixed monthly expenses | $ |
| I) Total Monthly Expenses (add together items above B - H) | $ |
| J) Monthly Spendable Income (subtract I From A) | $ |
| K) Divide Monthly Spendable Income (J) by 3 | $ |

Note: Method 2 generally gives you less spendable income than Method 1. For most consumers, the second method is the safest way to guard against overspending.

Banking

Ask these important questions of any bank or credit union before opening an account:

- What is the minimum I need to open an account?
- What is the interest rate on the account and the minimum balance I must keep in order to earn interest?
- Is there a monthly fee and is there any way to avoid monthly fees, such as maintaining a minimum balance?
- What happens if my account balance falls below the minimum requirement?
• Is there a charge for each check or no charge up to a certain number of checks (such as 10 checks per month)? If there are a limited number of checks allowed per month, how much is the charge for going over that number? If you write a lot of checks, an account that has no monthly fee or per-check charges is for you.

• Should I get a debit card from my bank? A debit card is a way to access your checking account without writing a check. Many debit cards will have a Visa or MasterCard logo on them, but they are not credit cards. You have to money in your checking account to use the card! Make sure to record all the transactions from your debit card.

• Is there a fee for using an ATM? A non-network ATM is a privately owned ATM that charges a fee for using its services. A non-network ATM will have a notice posted on the machine stating the transaction fees. Depending on your bank they may also charge you a fee for using a non-network ATM. You can find out by asking a bank representative or by reading your bank contract.

Depositing Money Into A Checking Account

!Deposit slip

1. Write the date you are making the deposit in this blank.
2. If you are depositing cash, write total amount here.
3. If you are depositing coins, write the total amount here.
4. If you are depositing a check, write the check number, which is the number printed in the upper corner of the check.
5. Write the amount of the check here.
6. If you are depositing more checks than can be listed on the front, continue to list them on the back, and write the total amount of the checks on the back in this blank.
7. Write the total amount you are depositing here.

8. If you are making a deposit at a bank with a teller and want to receive cash back from your deposit, write the amount you want in this field.

9. Write the total amount you want deposited (total amount minus cash received).

Steps To Take When Writing Out a Check

1. Check number Checks come pre-numbered when you receive them. Numbering helps in balancing your account or spotting a lost or stolen check.

2. Date Enter the date you are writing a check.

3. Pay to the Order of Enter the name of the person or company to whom the check is written.

4. Amount of check in numerals Enter the amount of the check, in numbers. Don’t leave any space between the pre-printed dollar symbol ($) and the numbers indicating the amount of the check; there should be no room for someone to add in extra numbers.

5. Amount of check in words Enter the amount of the check in words. Start writing at the far left side of the line. Follow the dollar amount by the word “and,” then write the amount of cents over the number 100. Draw a line from the end of the 100 to the end of the line.

6. Signature Sign your check exactly the way you signed your name on the signature card you filled out when you opened your account.
7. Bank numbers These numbers are so that the check can be delivered to your bank after your purchase.

8. Identification numbers-These numbers are used to identify the bank, your account number, and the check number. They are printed in special magnetic ink that machines can read.

Reading a Monthly Checking Account Statement

Reconciling A Checking Account

When you get your bank statement, sit down with the statement and your checkbook to make sure that your checking account record is correct and that the bank has not made any errors. Following the directions listed below will help you keep an accurate record of your account.

1. Obtain the current balance from your bank statement.
2. Add any deposits that you have recorded in your check register but that are not on this statement.
3. Subtract any outstanding checks (checks you have written but that have not yet cleared the banking system).
4. Compare the results with the current balance in your check register.

THANK YOU FOR BANKING WITH Your First Bank
NOTE: The balance in your check register should be adjusted to include a) deductions for service fees or other charges; and b) additions for direct deposits and interest earned.

Some other important things to consider as you look for a checking account include:

- Convenience
  1. Bank location
  2. Disability access and services
  3. Hours
  4. Online banking
  5. ATM availability

- Check clearing—what are the policies? Some banks put a “hold” on deposits that are personal checks, with a longer hold for out-of-state checks; others may give you instant access to only part of a deposit (for example, the first $100) until the check clears. Remember, banks usually subtract from your balance any checks you have written against your account BEFORE adding any deposits to your account, even though the bank received all on the same day.

- Fees for services, overdrafts, etc. Some banks have very steep fees for “bounced” checks (written by or to you). Banks vary in the amount charged for using their or other bank’s automatic teller machines (ATM’s) or even for returning your cancelled checks to you each month.

- Cost for personalized checks from the bank (some banks charge as much as $25 for a box of 200 checks). Mail-order check printing services offer lower-cost checks.

Availability of electronic banking services—if you are interested in using these services. Examples of electronic banking services are:

1. Direct deposit of earnings into accounts.
2. Automatic payments to utility companies/other businesses deducted from your checking account as pre-arranged by you.
3. Telephone teller allows you to authorize certain transactions and access account information over the phone. Fees usually apply to these transactions—access is from anywhere there is a touch-tone phone.
4. Online banking offers a timesaving, cost-effective way to check balances, pay bills, transfer funds, compare savings plans, and apply for loans on the Internet (provided you have computer access).
5. Automated teller machines (ATMs)/debit card services offer an easy way to complete simple banking transactions such as deposits and withdrawals.
   - ATM machines are usually conveniently located outside banks, shopping malls, supermarkets, and convenience stores. They allow 24-hour access to your account, but that also means you can be tempted with overspending and impulse buying.
   - ATM convenience is a pricey one—your bank and the ATM bank provider may both charge you service fees for using the machine. Make sure you understand your banks policies. Many banks do not charge a fee if you use their ATM machine. This service is a great convenience, but should be used with caution because of the charges. Make sure to deduct any charges and fees from you checking account balance.
   - You can get a free copy of your credit file if you have been denied a bank account in the past 60 days because of information provided by an account verification company. Ask the bank to give you the address or telephone number of the company.
To use an ATM machine or debit card, you need your card and “personal identification number” (PIN). Never write your PIN on the card or keep it with the card. Also do not use passwords such as your birthday, 1,2, 3, 4 or any other code someone could figure out. If you give your card and PIN to someone, you are responsible for any withdrawals, even if you didn’t authorize them. Guard your PIN carefully. Tell the bank right away if your card is lost or stolen.

If you have an ATM card with a MasterCard or Visa logo on it, you also have a debit card connected directly to your bank account. When you use it, money goes from your checking or savings account to the company you are paying. It can be used wherever MasterCard or Visa cards are accepted.

If you apply to open a bank account and are rejected, it is probably because your name is listed in the database of the major national account verification company. This service helps banks screen out applicants who have mishandled bank accounts in the past. A financial institution may require that you open a savings account before allowing you to open a checking account with them if you have been screened as a poor risk.

Electronic Banking Services

Electronic banking can be very convenient. Electronic banking, however, is not a substitute for keeping an accurate record in your checkbook.

- Direct deposit …earnings (or government payments) automatically deposited into bank accounts, saving time, effort, and money.
- Automatic payments… utility companies, loan payments, and other businesses use an automatic payment system with bills paid through direct withdrawal from a bank account.
- Automatic teller machines (ATMs) allow customers to withdraw cash and conduct banking transactions; some ATMs sell bus passes and postage stamps.
- Point of sale transactions… acceptance of ATM/check cards at retail stores and restaurants for payment of goods and services.
- Online banking… Banks with websites allow customers to check balances, pay bills, transfer funds, compare savings plans, and apply for loans all on the Internet.

What Is Credit?

If you have ever taken out a loan to buy something—a car, for example—you were given credit. Credit means you are using someone else’s money to pay for things. It also means you are making a promise to repay the money (the loan) to the person or company that loaned you the money.

Good credit means that you make your loan payments on time and repay your debts as promised. Good credit is important because it makes it more likely that you will get a new loan in the future when you want to make a major purchase, such as a car or home. When you have a good credit record, lenders feel more confident that you are willing and able to pay back the new loan.

Comparing The Cost Of Buying On Credit:

- Rent-to-own contracts and catalog or television ads that feature monthly payments may look like a good deal. You don’t have to make a deposit or have a good credit history. However, this kind of credit is expensive and may cost two to four times as much as paying cash or charging the item.
• When you buy from a store with an installment plan, you can pay on an average of 18 percent interest. For example, if you purchase an item for $177 over a period of 12 months, you will pay $27 in interest charges.
• Many people only make minimum payments on their charge accounts each month. This means you will pay much more for your original purchase. For example: you owe a department store $500 for a new TV set. Every month you pay the minimum amount due, $12.50. At this rate, it will take you five years (60 months) to pay off the loan, if you don’t charge anything else on the account.
• If you make only the minimum payments, you will actually end up paying $762 for the TV set, instead of the $550 it would have cost you if you had paid it off in one year.

View the graph below to see how the length of time a loan is paid back can make a difference on the total cost of a purchase.

How Do I Know If I Have Good Credit?

Sometimes people think they have good credit. Then they apply for a loan and are surprised to learn that there are some problems with their credit. The best way to find out if you have good credit is to get a copy of your credit report.

What is a Credit Report?

A credit report is a record of how you have paid your credit card debt and other loans. A credit report shows how much debt you have, if you have made payments on time, or if you have not paid back some loans. Credit reports do not show information about your race, religion, medical history, personal lifestyle, political preferences, criminal records, or any other information unrelated to credit.

Credit reports are compiled by national credit-reporting agencies. The typical credit report includes three types of information:

1. Identifying Information:
   Your name, address, phone number, social security number, date of birth, and current and previous employers. This information comes from your credit application.
2. Credit Information:
   It contains specific details about your credit cards, student loans, and other loans. This information includes the date opened, credit limit or loan amount, balance, and monthly payment. The report also shows your payment history during the past several years and the names of anyone else responsible for paying the account, such as a spouse or co-signer. Late payments, skipped payments, accounts will be turned over to a collection agency, and repossessions appear here. This information comes from companies with whom you do business.

3. Inquiries Information:

How To Order A Credit Report

The best way to know what your credit report shows is to order one and review it carefully. It’s a good idea to order your credit report once a year to make sure there are no errors on it. You can contact the three major credit bureaus at the following addresses.

How To Correct Errors On Your Credit Report

Credit reports should be accurate, but it is important to make sure they are. If there are errors or outdated information on your credit report, it could hurt your chances of getting a new loan. The good news is that you have the right to have the mistakes corrected at no charge to you. Here’s how:

- The credit report may include information on how to correct errors. Follow the instructions that you get with the credit report to tell the credit-reporting agency about the mistake.
- If additional information is needed to correct the error, the credit-reporting agency will tell you what to send. For example, the agency may ask for copies of cancelled checks or other payment information. If you have kept good records of this information, it will be much easier to show them where the mistake was made.
- A phone call to the agency alerting it of the error often will take care of the problem.
- You may also wish to explain the problem in a brief letter. The credit-reporting agency must investigate your complaint within 30 days and get back to you with the results. If the agency finds that the information in the credit report is inaccurate, the creditor must notify the other major credit-reporting agencies of the error so they can correct their information. If the credit-reporting agency does not find an error and you still believe your credit report is inaccurate, you can contact the creditor directly to try to straighten out the problem. You also have the right to explain your side of the story on the credit report if the issue still remains unsolved. You may write up to 100 words to explain the situation. The statement will appear on your credit report.

Ways To Create A Credit History

Some people prefer to pay cash for all their purchases. However, this does not create a positive credit history. If you have never taken out a loan or have never had a credit card, you may not have any credit history. This may become a big problem when you want to apply for a home mortgage because you do not have any credit history. You can create a credit report of your own by putting together your own personal credit history. This is called a non-traditional credit history. This is a way to show your lender that you have been responsible for paying your bills on time. You may use these suggestions when it is time to create your own credit report:

- Keep copies of your bills including rent, telephone, electric, insurance, cable, etc.
- Keep copies of cancelled checks that you used to pay your bills.
- Ask your property manager and utility providers to give you a letter stating that your payments have been made on time.
- Show your record of bills, payments, and letters to lenders to prove that you have been paying your bills on time. A record of two years would be ideal.
- You may consider asking your bank to give you a “secured” credit card. This card might be backed by your savings account. Be sure you understand the terms of this type of card because there may be fees involved. Be sure to use the card and make the payments.
- You may qualify for department store credit cards. The limit may start out small but will be raised after you show your ability to make the payments. Try to pay the balance each month; this will make a difference on your credit report.

Be aware that if you have a joint account with your spouse, any debt that results is your responsibility, even if you were not aware of the charges. Before getting a joint account, you may want to ask a non-profit credit-counseling agency for assistance.

Ways To Improve Credit: A Credit History

The following are steps you may take on your own to improve your credit:

- After paying rent, utilities and car payments (including insurance, pay your loans next. Pay the loans before you spend on things like going out for dinner and movies. Recreation and leisure are important parts of life, but there are other ways to do these things without spending funds that are to be used for bills.
- Pay your total credit card bill(s) every month. If you cannot do this, cut up your cards or put them away and don’t use them unless you have an emergency.
- Use your credit cards to establish good credit. Using the credit card and paying the balance each month shows that you can manage money well. Don’t be afraid to use the card if you know that you can easily pay the balance. Just because you have a credit card doesn’t mean you have good credit.
- Before you use a credit card, ask yourself, “Do I really need this?”
- Charge less than the maximum amount available. Even if you can make the payments, creditors may think you have accumulated too much debt.
- Apply for only the credit you need. Every time you apply for credit, it appears on your credit report. Even if you do not accept the credit, lenders may feel you have a cash flow problem and then become hesitant of your application. Avoid applying for credit cards just for the fun of it, to receive a free gift, or just to discount a purchase.

- If you can wisely use a credit card, choose one that offers a low interest rate and has no or low annual fee. Cards from department stores usually charge a higher interest rate than one from a bank. Compare the rates and fees of any offer you receive. Don’t pay an up-front fee. It is different from an annual fee and is often a scam.
- Try to pay more than the minimum amount due each month. When you pay only the minimum each month, you end up paying a lot in interest. For example: assume you use a credit card with an interest rate of 18 percent to purchase a sofa for $1000. You make a minimum payment of two percent (about $20). At that rate, it would take you about 90 months (or 7½ years) to pay off the couch, and you would pay about $800 in interest alone.
- Look for different ways to cut your everyday expenses. This will give you more money to pay off credit card balances and loan payments early. Be careful when you pay off loans early, however. Some repayment plans penalize you for paying too soon. Be sure to ask the lender first.
- Keep track of your bills and past due notices. Just because you haven’t received a bill after a few months doesn’t mean the bill does not exist. Sometimes hospitals and doctors, after a few months, stop sending out bills and turn them over to a collection agency. Along with unpaid student loans, these will always show up on a credit report. Check your credit report to see if you have any of these debts. If so, make arrangements to start paying on these before you apply for another loan.

Getting Help

If you are having problems paying your debts, call your creditors to discuss your options. Call them before you miss a payment. This may be a difficult step, but it is less embarrassing than receiving phone calls demanding payment.

If you owe money to any businesses, it may be time for expert help. Consider going to a nonprofit credit-counseling organization. (If they ask you for money upfront, they are not a reputable company.) These organizations can work with you and your creditors to set up a repayment plan. They will provide this service for no or little cost to you. Don’t get these confused with credit-repair companies that offer to fix your credit history for a fee. It can’t be done. To check a company’s reputation, call the Better Business Bureau or the State Attorney General’s Office.

Bankruptcy

If your loss of income has made your debt impossible to handle, as a last resort you may need to consider filing for personal bankruptcy. You don’t have to be absolutely broke to file a petition; you may be coping with only one major debt and little hope of repayment. The purpose of bankruptcy must not be fraudulent.

While it is not necessary to have a lawyer file the petition, you may want to seek legal advice about the details of exemptions and method of filing which best fit your situation. Legal fees are often required in advance, so be organized with your facts and papers and request a half-hour consultation. The court filing fees must be paid in advance.

Alternative High-Cost Financial Services

Check Cashing Outlets: Charge high fees just to have a paycheck or government check cashed, sometimes 2-3 percent (that’s a $10-$15 charge for a $500 check).

Check Deferral Services: Allow customers to get a cash advance on their paycheck. However, these short-term loans are very expensive. A $200 two-week advance may cost over $30.
Pawn Shops: Charge very high interest rates for loans based on the value of tangible assets (such as jewelry or other valuable items).

Title Pawns: This is a very risky way to get a loan. They charge very high interest rates and you can lose your car if you do not repay.

CHAPTER 8: EDUCATION

Education and Marketable Skills
So you want to work? Who is going to hire you? What can you do that an employer will pay you for doing? The skills you possess that someone will pay you for are marketable skills. Knowing how to frame a house is a marketable skill. Typing 50 words per minute and knowing Microsoft Word are examples of marketable skills. Programming a computer is a marketable skill.

However, going to school does not just teach you specific skills, such as how to program a computer or how to frame a house. Continuing your education will help you develop other marketable skills. Basic abilities in problem solving, verbal skills, mathematical skills, as well as general scientific/technical skills, management skills, critical thinking, medical knowledge, and human service skills are important in the job market.

Use the Georgia Careers publication by the Georgia Department of Economic Security to research high-paying jobs in fast growing areas of employment, the required skills needed, and the placement outlook. This publication is available in many libraries or on-line.

Apprenticeships, Practical Education On-the-Job
Many jobs, especially in the construction trades, offer apprenticeships. An apprentice works at the occupation he or she wants to learn. The apprentice learns along the way and receives pay increases with increasing skill. Getting into an apprenticeship can be competitive. You will start at less than half of the salary that the job will eventually pay, work full-time, and get paid to go to school. Typically it takes about five years to work up to full salary. There were over 3,000 new apprenticeships in 2000. There are over 8,000 apprentices working in Georgia today.

Apprenticeship training is available in selected trades at correctional facilities. Apprenticeship training does not guarantee job placement upon the offender’s release. Hiring decisions and credit for on-the-job training remain the final decision of the employer and associated union, but training does improve the offender’s opportunities and likelihood of finding employment in the trade.

Part-Time Student Options
After getting released from a correctional facility, most offenders need to focus upon getting themselves reestablished with employment so that they can support themselves. This does not mean that you cannot continue your education. It is possible to work a job and attend school part-time. Many schools offer evening and weekend programs, and these programs often qualify for financial aid. If your release requirements do not restrict Internet access, check out some of the excellent educational opportunities offered on the Internet.

Often, it is not easy being a part-time student. However, education is the key to a better life. It may take longer to reach your goals by attending school part-time, but it is well worth the rewards. Remember – Knowledge is power.

Acceptance & Enrollment
Each school may have different requirements for enrollment in their programs. As a rule, colleges and technical schools require a high school diploma or GED certificate. Schools may require testing such as an ACT or SAT, which will demonstrate your knowledge of a broad range of academic subjects.

1) Most schools require a non-refundable fee for processing your application.
2) You will need to supply a copy of your high school transcript or GED certificate. Write for what you need now if you don’t have it with you.

3) Most schools will have you speak to an advisor to help set up your class schedule. You may need to take additional placement testing.

4) It is a requirement that students’ immunizations be up-to-date.

5) Make sure that you know when your classes will start.

You can research school offerings using the computer in your local library. If a school interests you, use the skills that you have learned to write and ask for an application form and college admission packet.

When your application form arrives, fill it out and send it back to the school you have chosen. You may need to visit the school for an interview once your application has been returned. Keep a notebook with the dates for any necessary school visits, class registration, visiting with guidance counselors, and the date classes start.

Financial Aid

Private schools cost more than public schools. Four-year colleges cost more than trade and technical schools. Most people do not have the money to go to school without help from family, working full or part-time, getting loans, or being granted a scholarship.

When you receive a grant or a scholarship, an institution gives you money for your schooling. Usually the money is paid directly to the school. You do not have to pay anything back.

To get a scholarship or grant you need to do at least one of the following:

1. Demonstrate ability by getting high grades or by competing in a contest.
2. Demonstrate need by showing that you don’t have the means to pay for schooling.
3. Show that you belong to a group for which grants and scholarships are available.

The best way to find out about scholarships and grants is to contact the Financial Aid Office at the school you want to attend. To get a loan for your education you will also have to demonstrate need. Getting loans is not as competitive as getting a scholarship. After you graduate you will have to pay back your loans and any applicable interest.

Focus on Financial Aid is available in the library transition resource center. This publication has extensive information on the kinds of financial aid available and how to get it.

TRIO, Educational Opportunity for Low-income and Disabled Americans can be reached online at http://www.trioprograms.org/abouttrio.html.

FAFSA - Free Application for Federal Student Aid

The FAFSA Form is the first step to take to get financial aid for school. You can fill out one of these forms while still in prison. The library transition resource center has these forms.

Read the direction sheet which is titled What is FAFSA? on one side and What Does Your School Want You To Know? on the other. Make sure that you apply early. When you decide on a school, read their admissions forms to see if the school uses any different or additional forms for Financial Aid. After you fill out and mail the FAFSA form, you will receive a Student Aid Report (SAR) by mail. Check this for errors. Correct any mistakes in the SAR form and send corrections to the address indicated on the form.

The federal government considers your financial need for schooling to be the cost of attending school minus the “expected family contribution.” In filling out this form you will be telling how much money you make and how much your family makes. If an individual and/or the individual’s family have high incomes or a lot of money, he or she will be eligible for less financial aid.

Work Programs
- Many schools offer work/study programs where you work part-time and go to school part-time. In work/study programs you will continue to pay tuition and other expenses for your education. However, you will learn and get paid while working at your chosen occupation.

Loans
- Federal Subsidized Stafford Loan Program
- Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan
- Federal Direct Student Loans

• CHAPTER 9: INCARCERATED VETERANS PROGRAM

The Veterans Administration and the Department of Labor TOPPSTEP personnel along with various Veterans Service Organizations, Certified Service Officers, provide guidance and assistance to incarcerated and recently released veterans on:

- Filing a claim for VA compensation or pension benefits.
- Resumption of previously awarded VA compensation or pension benefits.

By addressing the following questions an inmate or recently released veteran will have a better understanding of what they may or may not be eligible for. The list of questions below represents the most frequently asked questions that are of great concern to incarcerated and recently released veterans. By no means does this list represent the only questions that will be addressed by the TOPPSTEP Regional Coordinators, TOPPSTEP Representatives or Veterans Service Organizations, Certified Service Officers.

- Can A Veteran Receive VA Benefits While In Prison?
- Are You Eligible For VA Medical Care While Imprisoned?
- Will Your Benefits Be Automatically Resumed When You Get Out Of Prison?
- How Will Your Imprisonment Affect The Payment Of:
  - VA Disability Compensation?
  - VA Disability Pension?
- Can Your Spouse, Children Or Dependent Parent(s) Receive Any Of The Money Not Paid To You Because Of Imprisonment?

There is a TOPPSTEP Representative in each of the 53 Georgia Department of Labor Career Centers serving the State of Georgia. In addition to TOPPSTEP personnel there are other highly trained individuals who are capable of providing assistance to all recently released veterans. They are the Disabled Veterans Outreach Program Specialist, (DVOP) and the Local Veterans Employment Representative, (LVER). Both of these individuals are also located in the Georgia Department of Labor Career Centers.

CHAPTER 10: HEALTH & LIFE SKILLS

Substance Abuse:
Each of the Substance Abuse Treatment Programs has been designed and is monitored by the Risk Reduction Services of the Georgia Department of Corrections. The mission of these programs is to provide services to offenders who have been identified as high risk and in need of substance abuse treatment. All substance abuse programs are cognitive-behavioral in design and are based on the “What Works” literature. Each program adheres to the National Institute on Drug Abuse “Principles of Drug Addiction Treatment.” Programs have been developed to address the needs of the individual. Special attention has been given to create a “seamless system” of services and a continuum of care culminating in our aftercare services. Programs are offered in several settings including Detention Centers, Diversion Centers, Prisons, and Day Treatment Programs.

Community Aftercare for Substance Abuse:
Even if you have no supervision following release, if you or a family member have a substance abuse problem, it is essential that you seek aftercare to assist you in dealing with this potential problem. Below is a list of phone numbers that are provided to assist you with Substance Abuse Aftercare.

Georgia Crisis and Access Line
Access the link below or call 800-714-4225 to reach Georgia’s Crisis and Access Line for Mental Health, Substance abuse and Developmental Disability services in the community. Representatives will be able to assist you in referring and scheduling an individual for services in the community. Such services include both inpatient and outpatient treatment services and many of the providers to whom they refer are what many people know as the “Community Service Boards” http://www.mygcal.com/

The Four Corners of Fitness

1. Exercise
   - Relaxes muscles where tension has accumulated.
   - Improves health and endurance.
   - Clears minds.
   - Improves self-image.
   - Builds resistance to fatigue.
   - Positively channels stress.

2. Eating Right
   - Eat a variety of foods.
   - Maintain a healthy weight.
   - Drink plenty of water.
   - Select a diet low in fat, saturated fat, and cholesterol.
Choose a diet with plenty of vegetables, fruits, and whole grain products.
Consume salt and sugar in moderation.

3. Relaxation
- Decreases wear and tear on your body.
- Increases self-control and ability to handle stressful situations (ACT instead of REACT).
- Helps control muscle tension by recognizing the difference between tense and relaxed.
- Increases total body awareness.

4. Emotional Fitness
- Choose how stress can affect you—make it a wise choice.
- Be responsible for your own self-talk, emotions, and outcomes. Everything we do, everything we say, is the result of our thinking.
- Negative thinking is a heavy burden—it literally bends the body and drains energy every bit as much as carrying a heavy weight.

Physical Activity
It has been shown that frequent physical activity reduces your risk of heart disease and high blood pressure, as well as depression. Staying physically active will help you keep your weight down and feel better about yourself. Any level of exercise, from a mile walk three times a week to daily running, has conditioning value and can simply make life more enjoyable.

Here is a visual display of how much and what types of exercises are good for you. A lifetime commitment to routine exercise is physically healthy and a safe choice for something to do in your free time.
Diet

A healthy diet is a building block of a healthy life. The illustration below shows the basic food groups necessary for good nutrition.

- Fat (naturally occurring and added)

- Sugars (added)

Fats, Oils and Sweets

Dental Health

Remember to follow these tips to maintain a healthy smile:

1. Brush your teeth carefully at least twice every 24 hours. Ideally, you should brush after every meal. At the very least, brush once a day and always before you go to bed.
2. Floss your teeth daily. Flossing cleans those areas your toothbrush can’t reach.
3. Eat a well-balanced diet!
4. Don’t smoke or chew tobacco! It promotes serious dental problems such as gum disease and oral cancer.
5. Check your gums regularly for signs of disease—red, puffy gums or gums that bleed even slightly when you brush or floss. Notify your dentist if any of these signs appear.
6. If you wear full or partial dentures, clean your dentures daily. Be sure to remove stains and plaque that may build up and irritate your gums. Also remember to take your dentures out when you sleep to help your gum tissue stay healthy.
7. See your dentist regularly for checkups and professional cleanings.

Life-Long Health Concerns

Here are some things to do to reduce your risk of disease:

- Quit smoking or chewing tobacco.
- Check your cholesterol. If it is too high, follow your doctor’s advice on a diet and/or medication.
- Check your blood pressure. Treat if it is high. Treating high blood pressure helps prevent heart problems and strokes.
- Be physically active. A regular program of exercise reduces your risk of a heart attack by 35 to 55 percent. Try to get at least 20-30 minutes of moderate physical activity on most days.
- Maintain a healthy weight. Being overweight increases your risk of developing diabetes, hypertension, and high cholesterol, which in turn increases your risk of heart disease.
- Practice moderate or no consumption of alcohol.
- Get plenty of rest.

Avoidance of Automobile Accidents

A low-risk driver is 1,000 times less likely to die in a car accident than a high-risk driver. High Risk

- Age 18
- Intoxicated
- Male
- Light truck
- Not wearing seat belt

Low Risk
- Age 40
- Sober
- Female
- Always wears seat belt

The most important auto accident factors are age, intoxication, and wearing a seat belt. Age is an important factor because older drivers tend to drive much more responsibly than younger drivers. They use better judgment to avoid accidents. Drive carefully, use your seat belt, and do not drink and drive.

Immunizations

If you have questions or concerns about immunizations once you are released, please contact your health care provider or city or county health department. You may also dial 2-1-1 to obtain assistance.

- All adults require tetanus and diphtheria immunizations at 10-year intervals.
- All adults aged 65 or older, as well as anyone aged 2-64 who have diabetes or chronic heart, lung, liver or kidney disorders, need protection against pneumococcal disease. Normally only one immunization is needed, which is good for life. Consult with your health care provider or city or county health department.
- Influenza vaccination is recommended for older adults, pregnant women, and persons with chronic diseases. This vaccine is given yearly, due to new strains of the virus not covered by previous vaccines.
- Hepatitis B vaccine is recommended for adults in certain high-risk groups.

Depression

Feeling “down” from time to time is normal. Feeling “down” all of the time is not. You can become depressed because of things that happen in your life, such as loss of a loved one, losing your job, or losing your freedom when sent to prison. For some people, not accomplishing life goals can lead to depression. Physical illness can also lead to depression. Some types of depression run in families as well. Depression affects people of all ages, races, and social classes. For some, it will be a one-time event and for others it may recur. Some 19 million Americans suffer from it each year. Symptoms of depression are:

- Persistent sad, anxious, or “empty” mood
- Feelings of hopelessness, pessimism
- Feelings of guilt, worthlessness, helplessness
- Loss of interest or pleasure in hobbies and activities that were once enjoyed, including sex
- Decreased energy, fatigue, being “slowed down”
- Difficulty concentrating, remembering, making decisions
- Insomnia, early-morning awakening, or oversleeping
- Appetite and/or weight loss or overeating and weight gain
• Thoughts of harming self or others
• Restlessness; irritability
• Persistent physical symptoms that do not respond to treatment, such as headaches, digestive disorders, and chronic pain

If you have a few or many of the above symptoms that last for days at a time, you may need to be treated. Depression is normally a very treatable illness—medications, counseling, and lifestyle changes can all help to relieve symptoms.

Depression is made worse by the use of alcohol or sedating drugs to “treat” depression. It can become a vicious circle of suffering with depression resulting from excessive drinking. Sometimes people consider harming themselves because they see no other way out of their situation. It is important to seek help from a medical doctor, psychologist, psychiatrist, clinic, or anyone skilled in dealing with depression.

If you need help to find mental health resources, dial 211. If you are afraid you may harm yourself or others, dial 911 immediately.

Sexually-Transmitted Diseases (STDs)

Of the top ten most frequently reported diseases in 1995 in the United States, five are sexually transmitted diseases (STDs). The term STD is not specific for any one disease but represents more than 25 infectious organisms spread through sexual activity and the dozens of disease symptoms they cause.

STDs are almost always spread from person to person by sexual contact. Some STDs such as Hepatitis B and C virus infections and HIV infections are also spread by blood-to-blood contact, particularly among intravenous drug users through contaminated needles, etc. In addition, pregnant women with infections may pass their infections to infants before birth, during birth, or through breast-feeding.

If you:
• Are afraid you might have a sexually transmitted disease;
• Have questions about tests or treatments; or
• Need to find a doctor or clinic;

Call the National STD Hotline at 1-800-227-8922. Trained health professionals are available to answer your questions and provide referrals 24 hours a day, seven days a week. All calls are private, personal, and confidential.

Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) & Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (AIDS)

The only way to determine for sure whether you are infected is to be tested for HIV. You cannot rely on symptoms to know whether you are infected. AIDS is caused by infection with a virus called HIV. As with HIV, you cannot rely on symptoms alone to diagnose AIDS. A medical doctor makes the diagnosis based on certain clinical criteria.

If you test positive for HIV, the sooner you take steps to protect your health the better. Early medical treatment and a healthy life-style can help you stay well. Early medical care can delay the onset of AIDS and prevent some life-threatening conditions. HIV can weaken the immune system to the point that it has difficulty fighting off certain infections. Your immune system can be weakened by: smoking cigarettes, drinking too much alcohol, and using illegal drugs.

- Take care of the todays the best that you can, and the yesterdays and tomorrows will take care of themselves.
- Turn “needs” into preferences. Our basic needs are food, water and keeping warm. Everything else is a preference. Don’t get attached to preferences.
- Get up 15 minutes earlier in the morning. The inevitable morning mishaps will be less stressful.
- Get plenty of sleep.
- Eat healthy.
- Exercise daily.
- Learn something new.
- Relax daily and take time to do something you enjoy.
- Moderation – make one change at a time. Many changes add stress.

Rules For Handling Conflict

- Don’t fight to win. Nobody wins. Remember you are fighting to solve the problem, not to win. Be willing to negotiate or give-in when necessary.

- Be sure that you understand exactly what the problem is. If you are not sure why you are having a conflict, discuss it.

- Take care of the problem when it comes up. Don’t let it get too big to handle. Even if the problem seems small, if you don’t deal with it when it happens, the problem will only get bigger.

- Talk about only one conflict at a time. Don’t bring up old problems that have happened in the past. Stick to the problem that you are having at the moment.

- Don’t blame others for problems you are having with someone else. If you are mad at your brother, don’t yell at your best friend. Directly tell each person what is bothering you.

- Think before you speak. If you say mean things to your family and friends or speak sarcastically to them even though you are just teasing, you are really hurting them. If you have something constructive to say, be sure you say it in a way that will be helpful and not harmful.
• Never strike another person to get your way. Physical violence or abuse (hitting, punching, kicking, shaking, or slapping) is NEVER acceptable behavior.

• Try writing down your feelings. If the person that you are having a conflict with will not discuss the problem, or you are not comfortable enough to talk to him or her about it, write a letter. You can decide later if you want to mail it. Even if you are not able to talk it over with another person, you will understand more about how you feel when you have read your words over again.

• Listen to what the other person has to say. Each person involved has his or her own point of view and should have the chance to express it.

• When the fight is over, drop it. Forgive and forget. Don’t keep bringing up the fight or hold onto your anger once the argument is over, even if it was not resolved the way you wanted.

Low-Cost Leisure Activities

• Spend time outdoors – a walk in the park, neighborhood, or wilderness relaxes and increases energy at the same time.

• Take a class (craft, adult education, self-improvement, etc.) – learning new things is a great way to relax, and when we accomplish something we feel better about ourselves, thus relieving stress.

• Become involved in a cause – volunteer.

• Play sports – You can join a community team or simply play with family or friends.

• Join a support group.

• Listen to music – Music is used for fun, for releasing tension, for comfort, for getting away from yourself, and for uplifting the spirit, as well as inspiring you into action.

• Read a book.

• Exercise.

• Check local newspapers for free or low-cost activities.

• Go to the library – books, CDs, cassettes, videos, and sometimes even games, toys, and pictures can be borrowed from the library.

• Gardening (even in a small space) relieves tensions, promotes exercise, and soothes nerves.
CHAPTER 11: FAMILY/FRIEND Relationships

Just as you had to adjust to life in prison, you will have to adjust to life as you return to the free world. You cannot expect to feel comfortable in the real world for quite awhile, but the following suggestions will help:

- Begin by appreciating the small things that others take for granted—such as privacy, being able to come and go as you please, etc.
- Avoid talking about life behind bars as your only conversation topic—practice making “small talk” about daily happenings instead. Begin visualizing positive ways to react to possible situations.
- Don’t try to catch up on what you have missed; you cannot re-live time lost.
- Be patient—know that you have to take small steps toward a new way of living.
- Gradually you will feel more “here” than “there” (prison).

Family Relationship Changes

- You can’t expect to just walk back into a family’s life without adjustments on both sides. A partner may have learned to do things around the house (budgeting, grocery shopping, car repair, etc.) that you did before. Once you return, who does them?
- Children may get used to living without their mom or dad. You may be rejected as a disciplinarian/parent or role model because of your “ex-con” status or just because you haven’t been around.
- Your children aren’t the same as when you left—don’t try to treat them the way you did before you left. You can’t treat a child like you would an infant or a teenager like you would a child. Show your children that you care about their needs, are interested in what they are doing, and that you are willing to spend time with them.
- A divorce or child custody proceeding may have occurred and significantly affected the family as you once knew it.
- Your relationship with your parents will change, or maybe has already changed, because of aging.

Show your family that you understand how you have hurt them.

- Allow members of your family to share painful memories with you,
- Admit you were wrong, and
- Ask for forgiveness.

If asked about your incarceration, answer questions honestly. Do not tell people it was “no big deal.” Acting “tough” about your experience does a serious disservice to your family and friends. Let them know that being incarcerated is no way to spend your life. As your family learns to trust you, they will be able to start treating you like your crime and imprisonment didn’t happen.

Former Friends/Associates

Let go of a negative past and look forward to a positive future!

That may mean no longer associating with old friends that have not changed. If your former associates are still into drugs, violence, and stealing, you need to find new friends!

Don’t be pulled back into your former lifestyle!
Remember that it’s you who comes back to prison!

Your Parents
Will you be living with your parents following release? Is their advancing age becoming a factor in your relationship with them? If so, it is essential that you prepare yourself for a changed, more supportive role with them. You may even find yourself caring for other relatives or friends.

Families are a primary source for care giving of an older adult. In fact, the National Alliance for Care-giving estimates that one in four households are providing care to someone who is at least 50 years old and has a disabling condition.

Will you be a Caregiver?
You may be a spouse, son or daughter, neighbor, close friend, or distant relative that is helping someone maintain their independence. You may be young or older yourself. It doesn’t really matter your relationship or age! As a caregiver, you are making concessions and personal sacrifices to provide care for another person. The 21-century will be marked by a dramatic increase in the size of the older population as the baby boomer generation ages and helps elders and, in turn, will need assistance.

The job of care giving can evolve slowly, over a long period of time, or suddenly, in the case of an accident or illness. Care giving can mean having an elder live with you, or live hundreds of miles away, with you dealing with issues from a distance.

Take this simple test to see if you identify yourself as a caregiver:
- Will you do errands like shopping, telephoning, arranging for health care?
- Will you travel to and from your relative’s home more often than usual?
- Will you provide social activities?
- Will you supervise medications and arrange medical visits?
- Will you listen, talk, and provide emotional support?
- Will you provide round-the-clock supervision?
- Will you supervise others who provide direct care?
- Will you maintain two homes – your own and that of your relative?
- Will you assist with personal care like lifting, bathing, dressing, or feeding?
- Will you manage financial/legal affairs?

If you answer “yes” to one or more of these questions, you are a caregiver. The wide range of needs defies definition. Whether you provide round-the-clock assistance or are just becoming aware of the needs, you are still a caregiver. You are responsible, to some degree, for another person’s well being. At any point on the continuum of care giving, the challenges and demands can become too great. It can cause emotional and physical exhaustion, depression, marital, and family problems as well as work conflicts.

One solution is to access resources to help you in this job. Locally, an entry point is the Senior Linkage Line (1-800-333-2433). It is an easy way to find community resources and support in Georgia. If you live a distance from your family member, a national toll-free line – Elder Care Locator (1-800-677-1116) can locate resources in the area where they reside as well as local Area Agencies on Aging. They can direct you to local resources in your area that will support your efforts to do a successful job of care giving.

More information on eldercare and aging is available in your local library.

Seven Characteristics of Strong Families

The following are simple reminders as to what is important in keeping a family strong. You aren’t expected to have all characteristics in your family, but begin by concentrating on one or two:

1. Appreciation
   At least once a week show appreciation to your children or spouse when they are being good.

2. Democratic Decision-Making
   It is important to involve all members of the family in making family decisions.

3. Flexibility and Openness to Change
   Change is unavoidable.

4. Communication
   Family members share their feelings, hopes, dreams, fears, joys, sorrows, experiences, and needs. We communicate by our words, with our bodies, and by our behavior.

5. Shared Values
   Values provide direction and meaning to life—parents have to know what they expect of their children and how to communicate this clearly.

6. Quality Time Together
   The family bond is valued and efforts are made to make time for family activities and interaction.

7. Connections with Others
   Building and maintaining supportive relationships between family members and others in the community helps families cope with stress and crises.

Tips For Incarcerated Parents

- Establish and maintain a positive relationship with the other parent of your child. Even if your relationship has ended, try to find ways to connect respectfully for the sake of the child.
- Make a plan of how you can connect with each of your children and follow the plan.
- Be honest with your children regarding why you are not living with them but respect their ability to understand, depending on their age.
- Let children know how important they are to you, but remember they may not necessarily respond as you might want. They may be angry because you did something wrong and cannot be there with them.
- Be prepared to make amends, and say you are sorry.
- Take your time. Don’t expect big changes from family members overnight.
- As much as possible, find ways to support your child emotionally, financially, and spiritually.
- Be consistent in your approach and contact schedule. Your children need to be able to rely on you to call or write regularly.
- Observe family celebrations, special occasions, and cultural events from the inside.
- Make gifts, if you are able, using the classroom, carpentry, craft, or metal shop.
- Create a game to play long distance. Make up a story for the children to finish. Draw pictures and make them into a coloring book that tells a story. It may help if they have a stuffed animal to hug or talk to when they miss you.
- Focus on clearing up any outstanding legal problems before your release, especially things like unpaid fines and tickets which can affect your driver’s license. If you have a court-ordered child support obligation, contact the child support officer assigned to your case.
- Develop a realistic plan to reconnect with your child after you are released.
- Connect with others inside who share your situation as a parent behind bars trying to connect with their children.
- Don’t be afraid to ask for counseling from the prison psychologist, chaplain, or your caseworker.
- If possible, take some time to read about becoming a better parent. Look in the library transition resource center for parenting information.

If your offense history includes victimization of children, you may have restrictions prohibiting contact with them. Abide by these rules.
CHAPTER 12: CHILD SUPPORT

The information in this section has been compiled with the cooperation of the Georgia Office of Child Support Services in the Georgia Department of Human Services. This resource gives you general information about child support and is not legal advice.

Values of OCSS Include:
- Put children first
- Children need both parents

Collecting Child Support:
The Office of Child Support Services (OCSS) serves Georgia parents who need assistance. Either parent may apply at the OCSS office that serves their county or online through the website www.ocse.dhr.georgia.gov. There is an application fee of $25 that is waived for TANF recipients. The parent is asked to furnish legal documents, if available, and other necessary information.

Child Support Services Include:
- Establishing paternity through genetic testing
- Establishing and enforcing child support orders
- Establishing and enforcing medical support orders
- Collecting and distributing support payments

Georgia Fatherhood Program
This program helps non-custodial parents pay child support by providing them with assistance in employment readiness and workforce preparation, transitional employment, job placement, and life management and survival skills. Use the link below to find a program near where the offender will be returning. Call to schedule an appointment for the offender post-release.

http://www.ganet.org/GAFatherhood/
The national Web Site is www.fatherhood.org

Internet Access to Case and Payment Information:
The fastest way to check on your case...www.ocse.dhr.georgia.gov
Click on “Constituent Services Portal” and apply for services, view payment information, view the status of your case and update case information 24 hours a day, everyday. Through this site you can find contact numbers and the location of Child Support offices throughout the state. In order to access an individual case you will need your secure number (IRN).

The website also provides a list of Frequently Asked Questions and Answers as well as information on most any topic involved with Child Support. The public website provides all the service information. You do not have to have a case with OCSS to obtain information.

If you need to contact Child Support Services, call (404) 921-1490

OCSS Does NOT:

- help anyone get a divorce;
- find custodial parents;
- take legal action about visitation rights or custody;
- enforce court-ordered payment of unpaid bills not related to child support payments

How is the Amount of Child Support Determined:

In Georgia, child support is determined using the guidelines established in state law. There is a commission appointed to review these guidelines. There was a change in legislation (2006) that changed the guidelines in Georgia. These guidelines went into effect January 1, 2007. Particular rules and procedures are being established but these new guidelines will take into account the income of both parents as well as the circumstances of the child. Previous guidelines in Georgia have only taken into account the income of the Non-Custodial Parent. The website listed above for OCSS has current information on guidelines and will also have a calculator to determine the amount of current child support once this has been established based on the new guidelines. This is on the public part of the website so anyone can access this information.

What Incarcerated Parents Need to Know About Child Support:

- It is important for your local child support office to know that you are incarcerated.
- During the time of incarceration your current child support continues and your arrears (past due amount) will accrue.
- If you work or have any type of income or money available during the time of incarceration then part of that should be used to pay toward your child support obligation.
- Any money available through third party payment is still subject to attachment.
- If there is no order for child support yet you may be contacted about establishing paternity through a genetic test.
- When you are released your child support is an obligation that must be handled.
- It is important for you to have immediate contact with your local office - this can be done through the Constituent Services Portal on the OCSS website.
CHAPTER 13:

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE & VICTIM AWARENESS

What is restorative justice

Restorative justice is a different way of thinking about crime and our response to it—it focuses on the harm caused by the crime and requires offenders to take responsibility for their actions and to assume a role in remedying that harm, often using creative forms of making amends. Offenders are provided opportunities and encouragement to understand the harm they have caused to victims and the community and to develop plans for taking appropriate responsibility. Examples of restorative justice practices include:

- community service projects;
- victim or community impact panels;
- victim empathy groups or classes;
- financial restitution to victims;
- family group conferencing;
- peacemaking circles;
- victim-offender mediation and dialogue.

The measure of success in restorative justice is not how much punishment has been inflicted, but rather how much harm to the victim, community, and offender has been repaired. Offenders in denial for years about the harm they caused, who never considered the victims, who previously had no empathy for the victims, can change and grow by having a chance to hear of the harm, to accept responsibility, to apologize, to ask for forgiveness, and to make efforts at restoring the victims of their offense.

What is victim awareness?

All of us have been victims of a hurtful act at some time in our lives. Each year many people have property that is stolen from them or suffer from physical injuries because someone assaulted them. Many of these people are deeply upset about what has happened to them and may face many months or years of pain before their lives can feel “normal” again. A good way to help you understand how your victims felt when you hurt them is to remember how you felt when you were victimized. If you remember the pain and feelings you experienced, you can understand what your victim(s) felt. To feel another person’s pain and to take responsibility for that pain is very difficult to do. But doing so is an important step towards the restorative justice concept which values:

- truth-telling
• accountability
• making amends (reparation)
• opportunities for healing for all parties

CHAPTER 14: LIVING UNDER SUPERVISION

Supervision After Release:
You may max out your prison sentence and have probation to follow, or you may parole out and have probation to follow. Parole and Probation Supervision may be served concurrently. You should check with your Probation Office and Parole Office upon release to set up the details of your Probation supervision and/or Parole supervision.

Your counselor and you will develop a reasonable release plan, including conditions and goals. Your probation/parole officer will monitor your compliance with the conditions of probation/parole and your progress in meeting the goals of supervision. Generally, offenders may be released under two forms of supervision, probation and/or parole.

If you are aware that you have personal identification documents (such as driver’s license, birth certificate, or social security card) in your file, be sure to remind your counselor or send a note to the records unit to have these documents included with your release paperwork.

Be sure that you understand the conditions of release before you are released. If you have questions, ask your counselor. Before you leave prison, you will be signing paperwork that states you have been read and had explained to you the conditions of release and that you fully understand all the rules, regulations, and conditions in the document. At the time you actually leave the prison, you will receive copies of these documents.

Supervision Under Probation

An offender released from prison may have been sentenced as a split sentence. This is a sentence divided among periods of prison, parole and probation. Another type of split sentence can occur when an offender is sentenced to prison on one count or case, but sentenced to probation on another count or case. If you fall into either one of these categories and have received a sentence of probation, you must report immediately to the Probation Office in your sentencing circuit when released from prison and/or parole. Upon your contact with the Probation Office, further instructions will be given to you concerning your conditions and reporting instructions.

*See Appendix J for list of Probation Offices

While on Probation, you will have general conditions of Probation, which can be unique to your sentencing circuit and Judge. The following are general conditions of Probation, which may be on your sentence:

GENERAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION 42-8-35

You may also have special conditions of probation which are as follows:

THE FOLLOWING SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION ARE EXPRESSLY IMPOSED IN THIS SENTENCE IN ADDITION TO THE GENERAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION. THE VIOLATION OF ANY SPECIAL CONDITION OF PROBATION WILL AUTHORIZE THE COURT TO REVOKE THE PROBATION OR SUSPENSION AND TO REQUIRE THE DEFENDANT TO SERVE UP TO THE BALANCE OF THE SENTENCE IN CONFINEMENT.

C. OTHER SPECIAL CONDITIONS ORDERED BY THE COURT ARE AS FOLLOWS:

DEFENDANT SHALL COMPLETE ______ COMMUNITY SERVICE HOURS.
You may also have special conditions of probation which are as follows:

DEFENDANT SHALL SERVE _____DAYS/MONTHS AT A GEORGIA DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS DETENTION/DIVERSION CENTER SUBJECT TO ALL RULES AND REGULATIONS OF SAID CENTER.

There are a number of special conditions that may be added, designed specifically for the individual offender. These special conditions may include, but are not limited to: Intensive Probation, Community Service, Electric Monitoring, Day Reporting Centers, Programming, Attending Treatment, Limitations on activities, and Limitations on contact with specific individuals, and/or groups of individuals. Exact wording of conditions of probation will vary between circuits. It is incumbent that every offender be familiar with his/her own court orders and terms of probation that are listed on his/her sentence.

PROBATION BEHAVIORAL PROGRAMMING

The Probation Operations Unit of Georgia Department of Corrections is offering a variety of cognitive behavioral programs to offenders. These programs are offered in a majority of statewide circuits. Cognitive programs hold offenders accountable for their actions and classes are intense and behavioral in nature. Behavioral strategies are reinforced in a firm but fair manner by qualified staff. Programs are conducted in a structured manner by enthusiastic and dedicated staff, according to established guidelines.

SUPERVISION FEES

Offenders are required to make monthly payments on fines, court costs, restitution, probation fees, and other monetary penalties as ordered by the court. If the court does not specify a payment plan, the Probation Officer will develop a payment schedule when the offender is released from prison or parole.

Registration / Predatory Offender

Many states (Georgia included) have laws requiring people convicted of certain types of offenses to register with law enforcement. Many of these states’ registration laws are not limited just to sexual offenders (Georgia included). It’s YOUR responsibility to know what these laws are and how they affect you. Ignorance of the law is no excuse. Failure to comply with these laws has serious consequences, and in many states failure to register is a felony.

It is also important to note that many offenders will be required to register for a period of time up to, and including, lifetime registration. This varies from state to state and according to the offense committed. While you are under supervised release, your agent will assist you in getting properly registered. However, after you are off supervision it is YOUR responsibility to keep your registration current and comply with all applicable laws if you relocate to another state.

Frequently Asked Questions about Sex-Offender Registration

If the original charges are dismissed and I am re-charged with a non-registerable offense, am I still required to register? Under most circumstances, if the original charges are dropped and the accusation and/or indictment are re-drawn indicating an offence that does not require registration, you will not be required to register.

Can a judge order that I do not have to register? While a Judge can order that an offender not be required to register, this condition would be in conflict with state law if the offense is statutorily a registerable offense. When this occurs, the Probation Officer is directed to follow the Court’s order and send the sentence to Division Office. A corresponding email must be forwarded to the Sex Offender Administration Unit advising of the sentence. This information and sentence will be forwarded to GDC’s Legal Department for further direction as the sentence may be in conflict with Georgia Law.

If a register offense is expunged from my criminal record, am I still required to register? If you are sentenced under the First Offender Act, you will be removed from the registry upon Discharge without Adjudication of Guilt.

Why isn’t a risk level assigned to every offender? The Sex Offender Registration Review Board will begin assessing all sex offenders required to register that are released from incarceration or sentenced on or after July 1, 2006. Any offenders already on the registry prior to July 1, 2006, will not be assessed and assigned a risk level unless they are returned to prison and/or receive a new sentence. They will be treated as Level I/II, (or non-predator) offenders.

What if I am designated a Sexually Dangerous Predator? An offender who has been declared a Sexually Dangerous Predator must wear a GPS/Electronic Monitor for the remainder of the offender’s life. The offender will also be responsible for the cost of the monitor. If the offender has probation to follow probation will supervise the offender. If the offender is paroled then parole will supervise the offender. If the offender maxes out with no probation to follow then the sheriff’s office in the county of the offenders residence will supervise the case.

What if a citizen requests information on a registered offender? GDC can release certain information to the public. For example, information regarding the conviction (offense, conviction date, docket number, etc.) can be given to the public. Conditions of probation may also be given in order to protect the victim, a potential victim, and/or public. Information such as the offender’s address, social security number, date of birth, etc., may not be given to a citizen.
Some information can also be obtained by accessing http://www.state.ga.us/gbi.

What if I am homeless and cannot provide an address for registration?
All offenders required to register are required to provide an address for registration per O.C.G.A.
42-1-12 (Sex Offender Registration). An offender has to be registered PRIOR to release from incarceration or placement on probation. Refusal to provide such information for registration is a felony and is punishable for 10 - 30 years.

Am I still required to register even after my supervision has expired?
Yes. Sex Offender Registration is for the life of the offender. Those offenders that have been sentenced under the First Offender Act will be removed from the registry when discharged without Adjudication of Guilt.

What if I receive a legal name change?
Registration information is entered utilizing the name under which you are sentenced. Any and all aliases may be included on the registration. This would include any legal name changes. The Sheriff’s Department maintaining the registration must be immediately notified of any changes including a legal name change.

Parole Supervision

Frequently Asked Questions

For current members call 404-656-5651 or email www.pap.State.ga.us

2. How often does the Board meet?

Board membership in Georgia is a full-time position so the Board is always in session. However, members do not meet as a group to discuss cases. They review and vote on cases individually.

3. When are inmates considered for parole?

Unless an inmate is serving on a life sentence, or for an offense that mandates no parole, most inmates serving a parole eligible sentence are considered on or before their statutory parole eligibility date which is generally after service of 1/3 of the prison sentence.
Information about the Parole Board

The Board is composed of five members appointed by the Governor for staggered renewable seven-year terms subject to confirmation by the State Senate. Each year the Board elects one of its members to serve as chairman.

Board membership in Georgia is a full-time position so the Board is always in session. However, members do not meet as a group to discuss cases. They review and vote on cases individually.

Due to Georgia’s large inmate population spread in institutions around the state, such a system would be unworkable. Currently the Board reviews more than 15,000 cases annually.

By law, the Board is required to consider clemency for all inmates under its authority. At the time of consideration, the Board may establish a Tentative Parole Month in the future or may deny parole entirely. The Board may reconsider and change a prior decision in a case, for any reason, at any time, up to the time of release. Georgia inmates have a right to be considered for parole, but they do not have a right or “liberty interest” which requires release on parole.

Inmates serving non-life sentences who are denied parole are not routinely reconsidered for parole. However, if the Board receives substantive new information, the case may be reconsidered at the Board’s discretion. Inmates who are serving life sentences who are denied parole must, by law, be reconsidered for parole at regular intervals not to exceed eight years.

The Guidelines process is used to assist the Board in making consistent, soundly based, and understandable parole decisions on inmates serving non-life sentences. Introduced in 1979, revised several times since, Guidelines help the Board decide on a Tentative Parole Month (TPM) for the inmate or that he will complete his sentence without parole.

When an inmate is considered for parole, the case file is given to one of the five Board Members, who studies it, deliberates alone, and renders his or her independent decision. On non-life cases, Board Members determine whether the Guidelines recommendation for parole denial or for a tentative release month is appropriate in each case or whether mitigating or aggravating factors should override the recommendation. This process continues until the majority decision has been reached on whether or not to parole the individual, and if so, when.

The Parole Decision Guidelines are used for non-life cases only. In life cases, primary emphasis during consideration is given to the nature and severity of the crime.

The file contains a personal interview with the inmate, diagnostic prison data, social background information, and legal circumstances of the offense(s), possibly interviews with prosecutors or arresting officers or victims. Criminal history is included in the file, obtained from juvenile records, the GBI and FBI. Letters from the community are read and pertinent information is extracted and placed in the file along with court official comments. Prison reports of conduct, attitude or performance incentive credits are included, and lastly, the parole guidelines recommendation, which has been based on factors extracted from all the information, submitted.

Offenders serving a non-life sentence for one or more of the “serious violent felonies” committed on or after January 1, 1995, are not eligible for parole and must serve 100% of the prison term imposed by the Judge. The “serious violent felonies” are murder, rape, aggravated child molestation, aggravated sodomy, aggravated sexual battery, armed robbery, and kidnapping. By law, all other inmates in state custody are considered for parole at least once during their prison term, unless they are sentenced as a recidivist, to life without parole, or are under a death sentence. Georgia is the only state in the U.S. in which inmates serve 100% of their sentence for certain crimes, or if they are denied parole. There is no good time, gained time, or earned time applied to Prison sentences in Georgia.

Performance Incentive Credit Program
In 1992, the Georgia Legislature passed a law creating an inmate performance incentive credit program (PIC). Eligible inmates may have their TPM advanced a few months, but not more than six months, by satisfactory progress in education/treatment programs, work, and good behavior. At the time of parole consideration, if parole is tentatively scheduled, the Parole Board will set a TPM and a PIC date. The time between the two dates will be the maximum amount of time that a TPM can be advanced for good conduct in prison. There is no limit on how much time can be added to a TPM for poor performance by the inmate. The following categories of parole-eligible inmates are not eligible for the PIC program.

- Life sentences
- TPM set at one-third of sentence
- In a work release program
- In a boot camp
- Sentenced to two years or less
- No TPM set (parole denied).

Shortly before the PIC review date, prison officials send the Parole Board a report detailing the inmate’s institutional conduct, attitude and participation in rehabilitative programming, with a recommendation whether the Parole Board should advance or delay the TPM. Regardless of this recommendation, a final decision to grant or deny Performance Incentive Credits is left to the Board’s discretion. Poor institutional conduct by an inmate often causes the Board to delay the TPM or to deny parole entirely.

Two-strikes legislation, effective for crimes committed after January 1, 1995, mandates that persons convicted for the first time of murder, rape, armed robbery, kidnapping, aggravated sodomy, aggravated sexual battery, or aggravated child molestation serve all of their prison sentence without possibility of parole. Persons convicted a second time of any of those seven crimes receive a life sentence without possibility of parole. For all serious crimes, Georgia law establishes the minimum time an inmate must serve in prison before being eligible for parole.

Beginning in January 1996 the Board began requiring electronic monitoring for all serious offenders released on parole. These offenders will have restricted movement from their homes for the first three or four months of their release and any violation may result in an immediate return to prison. Other parolees may be placed on electronic monitoring at any time during their supervision.

In Georgia, the Judge sets the maximum term of confinement, and the Parole Board determines the minimum time to serve. The Board was created for the purpose of providing a non-judicial review of inmate cases, to minimize sentencing disparities, to consider rehabilitative efforts by the inmate, and to select those inmates, after careful review, most likely to succeed on parole. In Georgia, as in other states, limited resources, increased incarceration rates, and lengthy sentences, has meant limited prison bed space. No system can accommodate the steady influx of full-term sentences. Without paroles from prison, overcrowding would result in Federal court intervention with mass releases and no state control over when or which inmates are released.

Prison punishes the offender but does not teach him or her how to deal successfully with society. Most inmates eventually return to society, and usually with fewer employment and social skills than when they entered. The first six months after an inmates release from prison is the most vulnerable period. While experiencing the low self-esteem and disorientation typical after prison, he is often subjected to peer pressure to return to his former lifestyle. Offenders with substance abuse problems are particularly susceptible. The fear of returning to prison is not always strong enough to overcome the immediate pressures an offender may feel. A combination of monitored supervision and practical assistance in obtaining jobs, counseling, and support, can place the offender in a supportive, rather than destructive, context, and pave the way for his new, law-abiding life.

Parole officers, all of whom are four-year college graduates with extensive training, work to ensure the parolee re-enters society with all the community monitoring, support and guidance available to prevent the offender from returning to crime. Parolees are assigned a case plan based on the severity of their offense, their particular needs, such as literacy training, and the length of time they will have on parole. Each case is individually planned within an established structure of agency requirements such as frequent visits, reports, and other conditions to safeguard the community. Parole officer’s primary responsibility is the community’s safety. Georgia parole officers are POST certified peace officers that are authorized to arrest parole violators.

The cost of parole is currently $4.91 per day per parolee.

There are degrees of supervision in the community just as there are in prison. Studies have shown that certain low-risk non-violent offenders actually perform better with moderate, rather than maximum, supervision. Others require much more structure and control. At the highest end of supervision is maximum supervision with electronic monitoring which is used in two ways: punitively, for parolees who are not complying fully with technical conditions of their parole and who need 24-hour monitoring to see if revocation is in order; and preventively, for offenders straight out of prison who could benefit by a more gradual transition into the community.

Each year roughly 12 percent of Georgia’s 25,000-parolee population are returned to prison. Of these less than 10 percent are sent back for committing a new crime; most return for failing to abide by the technical terms of their conditional release.

CONDITION 1
Intervention Plan/Instructions: I will participate in the development of and comply with a rehabilitation plan designed by my Parole Officer. This plan will require me to work, be drug tested, and may require me to attend and to pay a reasonable fee for counseling or classes. I will truthfully answer all questions and follow all written and verbal instructions from my Parole Officer or any other employee of the State Board of Pardons and Paroles.

CONDITION 2
Law/immediate Notification/Searches: I will not violate the law of any governmental unit. I will immediately notify my Parole Officer if I am arrested for any offense, including a traffic offense. My Parole Officer or any other Parole Officer may, at any time, conduct a warrantless search of my person, papers, and place of residence, automobile, or any other property under my control.

CONDITION 3
Weapon: I will not receive, possess, transport, have under my control, attempt to purchase, or obtain transfer of any firearm, ammunition, explosives or other deadly weapons.

CONDITION 4
Leaving State and Absconding: I will not leave my state of residence, even briefly, or change my residence without first getting permission from my Parole Officer. I will not abscond from parole supervision.

CONDITION 5
Child Support, Restitution, and Fees: I will support all my children as required by Georgia Law, make payments on any restitution, pay a monthly parole supervision fee as established by Parole Board Rule, and pay a reasonable fee for electronic monitoring.
CONDITION 6

Education: If I do not have a high school diploma or its equivalent and am unable to maintain reliable, regular employment, I will attend school to pursue a general education diploma (GED), a high school diploma, or a trade at a technical/vocational school. Education has been linked to a successful lifestyle to the extent that it is not only a condition of release but state law (OCGA 49-9-44). Each district must have a procedure/protocol in place to meet the requirements established by the law as well as ensuring releasee compliance with this condition.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PAROLE

The following are some of the more common examples of special conditions added by the Board.

Mental Health: (M.H.) “I will obtain a mental health assessment and follow through with any treatment/service recommendations(s) until my Parole Officer authorizes termination. I agree to pay all costs of any treatment/services provided to me.”

Substance Abuse: “I will receive a substance abuse assessment and follow through with any recommendations made until my Parole Officer of Chief Parole Officer or designee Authorizes termination. Additionally, I agree to pay all of the costs of substance abuse counseling.” This condition alerts the Parole Officer to the Board’s assessment that there is reason to believe the releasee has a substance abuse problem. The Parole Officer should complete the referral form service provider providing any information from the file or from experience with the releasee that may help in the assessment process. If substance abuse services are needed, the Parole Officer and counselor work as a team to implement a plan of action which includes a treatment plan and supervision strategy. The Parole Officer and counselor continue to work a team to ensure the effective implementation of the plan of action. If, during the initial substance abuse assessment, the Substance Abuse Counselor determines the releasee is not at that time in need of services; or when the Substance Abuse Counselor determines the releasee has completed the mandatory portion of the treatment plan; or, for other reasons, treatment services will be ended, the Parole Officer and Substance Abuse Counselor should discuss the changes in supervision strategy. Since referral to the counselor is imposed as a condition of parole, it is the Parole Officer’s responsibility to inform the releasee that the special condition has been fulfilled. The Substance Abuse Counselor provides the Parole Officer with written notification of the releasee’s status.

Restrictions on the Use of Motor Vehicle: “I will not operate, or possess a motor vehicle.” In cases where Vehicular Homicide or Serious Injury by Vehicle is the present offense or there is a prior offense of this nature, the Board may stipulate that a releasee may not own, operate or possess a motor vehicle, even though the releasee has a valid operator’s permit. In such cases the Board will stipulate “No Driving.” This condition, like, all others, can be suspended in its entirety by the Chief Parole Officer. However, if the objective is to modify the special condition, then modification, like any special condition modification, requires Board approval.

Sex Offender and Electronic Monitoring: “I will comply with the applicable sex offender notification law, O.C.G.A. §42-9-44.1 AND/OR §42-1-12”, AND “I will be placed on electronic monitoring immediately upon release”. These two special conditions of parole are coded and are automatically picked-up by the computer.

Sex Offender: “I will participate in a sex offender counseling program.” No general mental health counseling is mandated. Only sex-offender specific counseling is directed.

Fines: “I will begin payment of my fine 90 days after my release.” If the court has set a fine of $25,000 or higher, the Board will add this special condition automatically.

Restitution: “I will begin payment of my restitution 90 days after my release.” This particular condition addresses Board ordered Restitution.
Victims: “I will not have contact with the victim(s)” This condition will include the victim’s name if given.
HIV Positive/Release: Releasees who are known to be positive for HIV are managed much the same as other releasees. They do, however, have additional conditions of parole, which address their medical conditions and their responsibilities to the community both legally and procedurally.
Other: There are other special conditions not listed here and are applicable based on the offense.
