Lenten Parish Mission

MEDITATION ON THE SECOND WORD
How much are we like the first thief? Full of anger - because we are not rescued from our sin? Full of hate - because we suffer because of the sins of others?

How much do we want God to snap His fingers and make right what we have made wrong? What we have allowed others to make wrong? How easy it is to cry "save us" and to rail against God when there is no magic cure no miraculous recovery, no legions of angels, to take away pain and bring wholeness. How easy it is to scorn the Messiah, to mock the goodness of the world and condemn the Light of the world because we are unwilling to face what we have done? Yet there is goodness. There is a cure for sin, a cure that does not promise magical solutions but promises that the pain of sin is not the end, that when all this is over when the suffering is finished that the final word is not torture and defeat but life -- life springing out of the ashes life transformed and fulfilled in Paradise. To the compassionate thief — To the one who could still recognize the good in the world — To the one who tried to comfort and protect that good — To the one who sought good — Comfort was given, "Today, you will be in paradise with me."

(Rev. Richard J. Fairchild)

Sunday, March 8, 2015 – 2:00 PM – St. Odilia Catholic Church – Free-will Offering

The St. Philip’s in the Hills Episcopal Church’s Canterbury Choir is delighted to present a program to help celebrate the 50th anniversary of the founding of St. Odilia Parish in Tucson. The program will include masterpieces of sacred choral literature, including Allegri’s celebrated “Miserere” and Josef Rheinberger’s “Cantus Missae” for double-choir. This rarely performed masterpiece, a setting of the Mass which utilizes the traditional mass texts, is music of power and expressiveness, taking the harmonic richness of the late 19th century Romanticism, in combination with the polyphonic tradition of the Renaissance and the use of divided choirs for antiphonal effects. Other works celebrate the French and English sacred choral traditions. St. Odilia Parish is privileged to host this wonderful group of singers.

St. Philip’s in the Hills Episcopal Church in Tucson has a history of fine church music dating back to the founding of the parish in 1936. The original choir was a professional male octet which sang from the choir loft, where the Holtkamp pipe organ is now located. The Canterbury Choir is a mixed-voice professional caliber ensemble, who sing at the 11:15 Sunday Eucharist most weeks during the choir season. Their repertoire spans the history of Western music, from the earliest chant, through Palestrina, Bach, Mozart, Brahms, and the great tradition of Anglican Church Music found in England and America. The group is unique among church choirs in Southern Arizona in offering regular concerts of sacred music to the wider community outside of St. Philip’s.

This will be a wonderful experience! We hope to see you there!
Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The readings in the liturgy for the SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT, give us the following for our further reflections: “Abraham offers the ultimate sacrifice of thanksgiving, the gift of his very son. This sacrifice prefigures the sacrifice of Jesus who died for us all. In His transfiguration, Jesus discloses a suffering messiahship.” (ORDO, March 1, 2015)

All of us are called to offer our “sacrifice of thanksgiving,” as we ponder the generosity and the things that Lord has done for us all. He rewards those who are generous in their giving, especially for the needs of our parish and those who are poor and have nothing in our community at large.

On a different note, I still encourage you to give me your suggestions about what to do with our BLESSED SACRAMENT CHAPEL. Some of you have come to me to offer your wisdom and suggestions, and I have been bringing it all to my prayers and discernment so that the Holy Spirit may guide me in our decisions. Some of the suggestions are as follows: -Close the Blessed Sacrament Chapel at a certain time of the day -Close the Blessed Sacrament Chapel permanently and transfer the Tabernacle to the main body of the sanctuary -Transfer the Blessed Sacrament to the main body of the sanctuary and open the children (cry) room where people can still have access to the Church, to pray even after Church hours, (putting a spotlight to highlight the tabernacle and the crucifix) -Put a camera in the chapel.

In addition, I would like to share with you two incidents whereby a couple of our parishioners were harassed inside the BLESSED SACRAMENT CHAPEL while they were praying. I am really concerned for the safety of those who visit the chapel, especially in this time and environment of a society that is no longer safe.

At the end of the day, IN COMING UP WITH A DECISION, TWO THINGS WE NEED TO CONSIDER ARE: -The protection of our PARISHIONERS and of the BLESSED EUCHARIST. -MAY THE HOLY SPIRIT GUIDE US AND MAY THE BLESSED MOTHER INTERCEDE FOR US.

St. Odilia, pray for us.

In the service of God and of His Church,
Fr. Miguel

RETREAT ~ Redemptorist Renewal Center
SATURDAY, MARCH 14, 2015
9:00 am - 4:00 pm

On this Saturday of Lent, we will reflect on the question that Jesus asked His disciples. He asks the same question of you as you seek to follow in His footsteps in your own life. You are invited to spend a Lenten day of retreat in the Sonoran Desert as we study, reflect and pray about the numerous names of Jesus, found in our Scriptures. The day will give you opportunities to do a close reading of Jesus' various names and titles in the Bible, interspersed with both group and personal prayer. Significant quiet time in both the morning and afternoon will hopefully satisfy the spiritual thirsts and hungers you bring to this day for renewal and conversion. Please bring your Bible.

$45 includes lunch and materials.

Please register by Friday, March 6. — 866.737-5751; 520.744-3400 office@desertrenewal.org

Thank you for advertising with us!

Gratitude for your Generosity

Thank you for your support; it is evidence of your faithfulness to God as you help build His Kingdom.
