JUNE 12, 2016

Your faith has saved you; go in peace.” Luke 7:50
FROM THE PASTOR

PA HOUSE BILL 1947 – I hope that our Parish Meeting last Wednesday evening was helpful in clarifying the issues related to the upcoming PA Senate’s consideration about House Bill 1947. Material related to this legislation is available on our Parish Homepage and at the doors of our worship centers.

PARISH NEWSLETTER – The new edition of our Parish Newsletter is available this weekend as an insert in our Sunday Bulletin. A digital version is available on our Parish Homepage. Thanks to everyone who helped with this edition. Printed copies have been mailed to our homebound.

WORDS of MERCY - This week, from the Magnificat Year of Mercy Companion, I especially recommend the image “We don’t pump our own gas” from the mediation for Friday (June 17).

WORKS of MERCY (Corporal) - Today I am highlighting “HOPE Ministry.” Over the years, 5500 sparks of Mercy, that is rides have helped needy people in our area. This ministry echoes the words from Les Miserables: “To love another person is to see the face of God.” If you need a ride see Page 5 of today’s bulletin.

WORKS of MERCY (Spiritual) - Bible Study (where we study the Bible but more so allow the Bible to study us) is offered in English and in Spanish throughout the year. For more details contact Madelyn O’Hara at stannadulted@gmail.com or 610-639-0923.

Helping Those Persecuted for their Religion
If you are interested in helping Christians and others who are being persecuted in the Middle East here is a list of highly rated relevant charity sites. You can view their websites and contact them to send donations. The charities are: Christians At Risk/Knights of Columbus, Catholic Relief Services/Caritas International, Aid to the Church in Need (ACN), Mercy-USA, Mercy Corps/Syrian Crisis Response, International Medical Corps, Save the Children/Syrian Children Relief Fund, International Rescue Committee, Migrant Offshore Aid Station, AMAR Foundation, and WADI/Jinda Center. Besides these charities there are other, usually large, charities that can be found and directly linked to at the CNN Impact Your World site.

THANK YOU for your support of our parish that has enabled us to have new roofs installed on both our Parish Office ($13,195) and Chapel ($24,225).

“WITHIN”

A FAIR QUESTION - “How come in St. Ann Parish there are so many other “things” that happen within Sunday Mass? I don’t get it and it bothers me a bit. I’m just coming for Mass and I don’t find all this clutter helpful.”

“SERMONS IN STONE” - is a phrase I came across years ago describing church buildings. Before a word is uttered, the physical structure itself speaks through its shape, material, height, focus, internal geography, stained glass, statues, paintings, and overall "feel.”

SERMONS IN STRUCTURE - The way the Service is shaped, too, speaks. Have you ever noticed that while we celebrate other sacraments within Mass, we never celebrate Mass within another sacrament. We even refer to the Mass as being “the Most Blessed Sacrament.” This is because when we celebrate Mass the once-for-all saving event of Christ is made present so that we may allow the past seven days’ of our life to be incorporated into the one Christ-Event, and so that Christ the Person and Christ the Event may become a more integral and integrated part of us.

A KEY QUESTION - Am I fitting Sunday Mass into my life, or am I fitting my life into Sunday Mass? Is there a context into which my life fits, or is my life the context into which all else fits? What fits into what?

CHRIST OUR CONTEXT - Since Christ is our context, and since the Mass (especially the Sunday Mass of obligation) is point for the integration of Christ into all things and of all things into Christ, we celebrate within the Most Blessed Sacrament such lesser sacraments as: Baptism, First Holy Communion, Confirmation, Marriage, Ordination and the Anointing of the Sick. We go forth to our graves from our Funeral Mass and there are many other rituals celebrated within the Most Blessed Sacrament.

SO - “How come in St. Ann Parish there are so many other “things” that happen within Sunday Mass?” It’s an attempt to make visible the deep truth that in Christ all things “live, and move, and have their being” (Acts 17:28) and that with St. Paul we might proclaim that we are “always carrying about in our body the dying of the Lord Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may be made manifest in our body” (2 Cor. 4:10).

HOLY FAMILY SCHOOL - Catholic identity is paramount to the mission of Holy Family School. We foster meaningful spiritual growth throughout a child’s time in our school. This is particularly true as our children prepare to leave us for high school. Our seventh and eighth graders, under the guidance of trained Youth Ministers and their classroom teachers, enjoy end-of-year religious retreats. Our seventh graders focus on what it means to develop an adult relationship with God. They experience more deeply the faith in which they have been immersed for so many years. Our eighth graders reflect on what their Catholicism means as they prepare to move forward to new opportunities and schools.

HFS is proud of its tradition of academic excellence couched in Catholic tradition. For more information or to schedule a tour call 610-933-7562 or email us at office@myholyfamilyschool.org.
