Hi, I'm Crawford Loritts with a Legacy Moment.

There are times in human history in which evil seems to triumph. Wicked people and vile leaders tend to get away with almost the unthinkable. Fear, terror, and devastation mark their regimes, and for the moment they carry out their demonic plans without any sense of moral responsibility or accountability.

This was also true in our Lord’s time. I mean, He was brutally murdered and crucified because He threatened the established order. The first time He came as a Lamb and submitted to what had to be. However, the second time it’s going to be a very different story. The next time He is coming as King of Kings and Lord of Lords, and the world will submit to what must be.

Listen to 1 Timothy chapter 6 verses 13 through 16; “I charge you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, …that you keep the commandment without stain or reproach unto the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, which He will bring about at the proper time. He who is the blessed and only sovereign, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, who alone possesses immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no man has seen or can see: to Him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen.”

This passage says that our Lord is coming, and when He comes back again, He will indeed be triumphant. Every person who has ever lived will be held accountable. Every knee shall bow, every tongue shall confess—without exception! Even the most pompous, vile, maniacal leader will be forced to say “yes” to Jesus Christ on that great day.

Here’s what I want you to remember and do today. Humbly submit to Jesus Christ now as your King of Kings and Lord of Lords. If not now you will later, but it will be too late.
