Supervision Rules

Subchapter C. Licenses and Licensing Process.

§781.301. Qualifications for Licensure.
   (a) The following education and experience is required for the specified licenses and specialty recognitions:
      (1) Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW).
          (A) Must be licensed as an LMSW.
          (B) Obtain 3000 hours of Board approved supervised professional full-time clinical employment experience over a minimum two-year period, but within a maximum four-year period or its equivalent if the experience was completed in another state.
          (C) Complete a minimum of 100 hours of face-to-face supervision, over the course of the 3000 hours of full-time experience, with a board-approved supervisor. Supervised experience must have occurred within the five previous calendar years occurring from the date of application.
          (D) Passing score on the clinical exam administered nationally by ASWB.
      (2) Licensed Master Social Worker (LMSW).
          (A) A doctoral or master's degree in social work from a CSWE accredited social work program.
          (B) Passing score on the intermediate or master’s exam administered nationally by ASWB.
      (3) Licensed Master Social Worker-Advanced Practitioner (LMSW-AP).
          (A) Must be licensed as an LMSW.
          (B) Obtain 3000 hours of Board approved supervised professional full-time non-clinical employment experience over a minimum two-year period, but within a maximum four-year period or its equivalent if the experience was completed in another state.
          (C) Complete a minimum of 100 hours of face-to-face supervision, over the course of the 3000 hours of full-time experience, with a board-approved supervisor. Supervised experience must have occurred within the five previous calendar years occurring from the date of application.
          (D) Passing score on the advanced or advanced generalist examination administered nationally by ASWB.
      (4) Licensed Baccalaureate Social Worker (LBSW).
          (A) A baccalaureate degree in social work from a CSWE accredited social work program.
          (B) Passing score on the basic exam administered nationally by ASWB.
   (b) Only a person who is licensed and has been recognized by the board for independent practice is qualified for the independent practice of social work.
      (1) A LCSW may provide any clinical or non-clinical social work services in either an employment or independent practice setting.
      (2) An LMSW-AP, LBSW or LMSW recognized for independent practice must restrict his or her independent practice to the provision of non-clinical social work services.
      (3) A licensee must not engage in any independent practice that falls within the definition of social work practice (relating to definitions) without being licensed and recognized by the board unless the person is licensed in another profession and acting solely within the scope of that license. The person may not use the titles “licensed clinical social worker,” “licensed master social worker,” “licensed social worker,” “licensed baccalaureate social worker,” or “social work associate” or any other
(4) A licensee who is not recognized for independent practice may not provide direct social work services to clients from a location that she or he owns or leases and that is not owned or leased by an employer or other legal entity with responsibility for the client. This does not preclude in home services such as in home health care or the use of telephones or other electronic media to provide services in an emergency.

§781.302. Supervision for LCSW or LMSW-AP. A LMSW who plans to apply for the LCSW or LMSW-AP must:

1. submit a supervisory plan to the board for approval by the appropriate committee of the board or executive director within 30 days of initiating supervision. If the LMSW fails to submit a supervisory plan, then the LMSW will need to submit documentation regarding dates, times and summary of all supervisory sessions at the time the LMSW makes application for the LCSW or LMSW-AP;

2. submit a current job description from the agency in which the social worker is employed with a verification of authenticity from the agency director or their designee on agency letterhead;

3. submit a supervision verification form to the board within 30 days of the end of each supervisory plan with each supervisor. If the supervisor does not recommend the supervisee for recognition as an AP or LCSW, the supervisor must provide specific reasons for not recommending the supervisee. The board may consider the supervisor's reservations in its evaluation of qualifications of the supervisee; and

4. submit a new supervisory plan within 30 days of changing supervisors.

A person who has obtained only the temporary license may not begin the supervision process until the issuance of the regular license.

§781.303. Independent Practice Recognition. A LBSW or LMSW who seeks to obtain board approval for the recognition of independent practice shall meet requirements and parameters set by the board.

1. To qualify for the recognition of independent practice, as a LBSW, an individual, after licensure, shall obtain 3000 hours of Board approved supervised full-time experience over a minimum two-year period, but within a maximum four-year period or its equivalent if the experience was completed in another state. Supervised experience must have occurred within the five previous calendar years occurring from the date of application.

2. To qualify for the recognition of independent practice, as a LMSW, an individual, after licensure, shall obtain 3000 hours of Board approved supervised full-time experience over a minimum two-year period, but within a maximum four-year period or its equivalent if the experience was completed in another state. Supervised experience must have occurred within the five previous calendar years occurring from the date of application.

3. To qualify for independent practice the licensee must complete a minimum of 100 hours of face-to-face supervision, over the course of the 3000 hours of full-time experience, with a board approved supervisor. A licensee who plans to apply for independent practice recognition shall:

   A) submit a supervisory plan to the board for approval by the appropriate committee of the board or executive director within 30 days of initiating supervision. If the licensee fails to submit a supervisory plan, then the licensee will need to submit documentation regarding dates, times and summary of all supervisory sessions at the time the licensee makes application for the upgrade.

   B) submit a current job description from the agency the social worker is employed in with a verification of authenticity from the agency director or their designee on agency letterhead.

   C) submit a supervision verification form to the board within 30 days of the end of each supervisory plan with each supervisor. If the supervisor does not recommend the supervisee for recognition as an independent practice, the supervisor must provide specific reasons for not recommending the supervisee. The board may consider the supervisor's reservations in its evaluation of qualifications of the supervisee.

(D) submit a new supervisory plan within 30 days of changing supervisors.

(E) An individual providing supervision to a LBSW shall be a LBSW, LMSW, LMSW-AP or LCSW. An individual providing supervision to a LMSW shall be a LMSW, LMSW-AP or LCSW. In addition to the required licensure, the supervisor shall be board-approved and have attained the recognition of independent practice.

(4) A person who has obtained only the temporary license may not begin the supervision process until the issuance of the regular license.

(5) The board may use the twenty common law factors developed by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as part of their determination process regarding whether a worker is an independent contractor or an employee.

(A) No instructions to accomplish a job.

(B) No training by the hiring company.

(C) Others can be hired by the independent contractor (sub-contracting).

(D) Independent contractor’s work is not essential to the company’s success or continuation.

(E) No time clock.

(F) No permanent relationship between the contractor and company.

(G) Independent contractors control their own workers.

(H) Independent contractor should have enough time available to pursue other jobs.

(I) Independent contractor determines location of work.

(J) Independent contractor determines order of work.

(K) No interim reports.

(L) No hourly pay.

(M) Independent contractor often works for multiple firms.

(N) Independent contractor is often responsible for own business expenses.

(O) Own tools.

(P) Significant investment.

(Q) Services available to the public by having an office and assistants; having business signs; having a business license; listing their services in a business directory; or advertising their services.

(R) Profit or loss possibilities.

(S) Can’t be fired.

(T) No compensation if the job isn’t done.

§781.304. Recognition as an approved supervisor and supervision process. A person who wishes to be an approved supervisor must file a request with the board.

(1) A supervisor must:

(A) be a LBSW, LMSW, LCSW or LMSW-AP in good standing or hold the equivalent social work license or certification in another state;

(B) take professional responsibility for the social work services provided within the supervisory plan;

(C) have completed a supervisor's training program acceptable to the board;

(D) currently be engaged in the practice of social work and self-identified as a social worker;

(E) submit the required documentation and fee to the board for approval; and

(F) pay the annual Approved Supervisor fee as listed in §781.217 of this title (relating to Fees).
(2) On receipt of the request and verification of qualifications, the board will issue a letter of approval to a qualified supervisor.

(3) A supervisor must maintain the qualifications described in subsection (a) of this section while he or she is providing supervision.

(4) Supervisory sessions may be in one-on-one sessions or in a combination of individual and group sessions.

(A) There can be no more than six individuals in a supervision group.

(B) Supervision shall be spread out over the experience of the supervisee.

(C) Supervision shall be accomplished in one or two hour blocks not exceeding 10 hours per month.

(D) Supervision must be face-to-face meetings between the supervisor and supervisee unless the executive director of the board or a committee of the board has granted an exception allowing an alternate form of supervision due to geographical difficulties or physical disabilities. If an alternate form of supervision is approved, limits may be set on the amount of alternate supervision to assure sufficient interaction between the supervisor and supervisee.

(5) Supervision must extend over a full 3000 hours. Supervision must average one hour per 30-40 hours of social work services over the full period. Individuals who work less than 30 hours per week will be credited for experience and supervision in proportion to the average hours worked per week.

(6) A social worker may contract for supervision with written approval of the employing agency. A copy of the approval must accompany the supervisory plan submitted to the board.

(7) A board-approved supervisor may not charge or collect a fee or anything of value from his or her employee or contract employee for the supervision services provided to the employee or contract employee.

(8) The supervisor must be responsible for establishing all conditions of exchange with the clients served by her or his supervisee.

(9) Supervision completed before the effective date of this chapter will be evaluated on the basis of the rules in effect at the time the supervision plan or verification is submitted to the board.

(10) A supervisor may not be “employed by” or “under the employment supervision of” the person whom he or she is supervising.

(11) A supervisor may not be related within the second degree by affinity (marriage) or within the third degree by consanguinity (blood or adoption) to the person whom he or she is supervising.

(12) During the period of supervised experience, a supervisee may be employed on a salary basis or volunteer within an established supervisory setting. The established settings must be structured with clearly defined job descriptions and areas of responsibility. The board may require that the applicant provide documentation of all work experience.

(13) All supervision submitted in fulfillment of the board's requirements must have been on a formal basis arranged prior to the period of supervision. Supervisory arrangements must include all specific conditions agreed to by the supervisor and supervisee.

(14) No payment for services will be made directly by a client to the supervisee.

(15) Client records are the responsibility of the agency and shall remain the property of the agency and not the property of the supervisee.

(16) A supervisor shall submit billing reflective of the services provided and the provider of that service. All billing documents for services provided by the supervisee shall reflect the license held by the supervisee and that the licensee is under supervision.-AP Supervision packet
