I have had an incredible experience volunteering at a primary school in Ethiopia as part of an International Girlguiding Community Project this August. Thank you so much to everybody who helped with my fund-raising and to anyone who knitted hats or vests - the children loved them and they have all gone to very deserving homes.

We ran a summer school programme teaching the children English each morning and in the afternoons we helped build 3 new classrooms. We cemented, then painted the external walls of the classrooms and created 2 flower gardens. The project was very challenging but great fun too. Thank you very much for your help, the trip wouldn’t have been possible without all of your support. Libby Timperley

living inspiration

Half-Term Fun at Harewood House

Imagination and originality are a major theme this Autumn and this half term’s ‘Autumn Glory’ is bursting with creativity. You can help build an extraordinary sculptural paper forest, let your ideas run riot and learn without even knowing you are! There is something for everyone, inside and out, and surrounded by the glorious colours and shapes of autumn, you will not be short on inspiration. This year, the colours are forecast to be more fabulous than ever so the team has pulled out all the stops to ensure that the magnificence of autumn is woven through all of our events and activities.

Visitors to Harewood can take part in The Big Draw. This campaign is designed to get everyone drawing, from professionals to amateurs, whether you’re adept or amateur, and is part of the first ever Family Arts Festival, a national programme designed with families in mind and which takes place in late October to early November.

Help Harewood build a ‘sculptural forest’ by designing and decorating your own leaf to hang on twine branches which, when complete, will form a great communal paper forest. Held in the Education Suite at Harewood, you can either join in the fun there, or visit the website for a template and let your creativity flow.

Free to Harewood members, entry to Autumn Glory is included in a Grounds ticket for all other visitors – which includes access to Below Stairs. (Upgrade available for entry to the House).

In addition, there are the traditional activities for everyone - children’s craft activities including potato and leaf printing, seasonal food demonstrations in the Old Kitchen, with an amazing range of apples from the Northern Fruit Group and Harewood’s orchards, an interactive literature trail, storytelling in the bookshop and a carved pumpkin display.

Come and visit our feathered friends in the Bird Garden, the Adventure Playground, the extraordinary ruins of Harewood Castle and walks to enjoy.
Collingham Retired Men’s ….. Secret Society?

I had begun to wonder whether this serious minded and worthy group was still in existence - but just when I was getting seriously worried about lack of news I received this unsolicited email:

I write because your magazine lacks news of our little group which meets weekly during the winter on Tuesday mornings in the Methodist Hall at 10 for 10.30. The reason you lack our news, I would suggest, is because no one has got round to sending you any. Well, ….. I now send you that info.

We meet at 10.30am but gather first at about 10 for a coffee and biscuits. We have a guest speaker who remains anonymous until the day but who is always entertaining, informative, sometimes musical, often hilarious but, hopefully, never boring.

We have a Christmas lunch where wives, sweethearts and/or girlfriends are invited and a Spring Lunch to end our season. There are usually two trips where, again, the ladies are included and generally we enjoy ourselves.

That, at our time of life, is what it is all about.

Membership of Collingham Retired Men’s Forum is open to retired men of any age and is formalised by the payment of a weekly donation of £2. If you don't come, you don't pay.

When you've been three times you get a badge!!

I am obviously wrong - not staid and serious minded, just a lot of fun.
Open to men only? - not fair! Why can't I join?? The Editor

Confirmation Service and Eucharist

Bishop James will be presiding at St Oswald’s at 4.30pm on Sunday 20th October as ten adults and young people make their own commitment to the Christian faith. Do come and join us and support them at this time. This will be the main service that day and there will be no service at 10am.

Bishop John

The Bishop of Ripon & Leeds has announced that he will be retiring at the end of January 2014 and his last engagements in the diocese will be on the 31st December. This leaves the way clear for the appointment of a new Bishop of the new diocese of West Yorkshire and the Dales. Bishop James will continue with a new title to be our local bishop for this area.

Ann Harradine

Ann’s death has left many in Collingham feeling they have lost a friend. She had lived in Garth End for 57 years since she and Lewis moved there shortly after their marriage and their daughter Lynda grew up there, and she had given so much of her time and energy to the village. She worked for a number of families over the years and continued to do so until very recently. But it is for her support of the Women’s section of the British Legion, her work for the Memorial Hall, for the Cancer Research committee and for St Oswald’s Church that she will be remembered by many.

Ann was a trustee of the hall and on the committee and encouraged many others to become involved. In her work for the British Legion she was Chairman of the Collingham & Linton Woman’s section and its Standard bearer and held office both at County level and on the national Central committee. She received the Gold award in recognition of her dedication.

Ann loved St Oswald’s, its building, its services and its people. She was on the PCC and a Churchwarden for 12 years but it was her especial gift for making people welcome that will be missed so much. So many people remember her speaking words of welcome and drawing them into the community, whether it was those who had moved to Collingham or couples seeking to be married in the church. ‘My couples’ she called them. She was the kindest person imaginable and many of her acts of generosity are known only to those who benefitted from them.

Over the last 18 months since I came to Collingham I have had numerous occasions to be grateful for Ann’s knowledge of the village, its history, its families and the help and encouragement she gave me. And my Methodist colleagues Steve and Heather have asked me to say how much they appreciated her friendliness and helpfulness whenever we had joint services. For them she has always represented the ecumenical heart of the village and she will be missed by the Methodist church as well as by its individual members. They join with St Oswald’s in saying that we have lost a true friend. Ann’s Christian faith has burned steady throughout her life, in times of joy and in times of trouble. Ann always took everything to the Lord in prayer and trusted him to help her.

She would probably have laughed if I had said to her that she was an example to us all in her sense of duty and dedication which she matched with a cheerful friendliness and an enjoyment of life. We miss her but we give...

From the Methodist Church

138 days before Christmas! That I think was my record for coming across a banner advertising a Christmas event. Isn’t it a bit early I asked the man putting up the banner. “Well”, he replied. “Whilst we were taking one down we thought we’d put up the next one. Saves time and money!” Logical I suppose but it was one of those instances I felt when you could be too well prepared. So much so in fact, that I wondered if it didn’t take some of the excitement away from drawing near to an event if all it became was a logistics exercise.

Would a friend of mine who bought and gave a Christmas present to someone in August because “she might as well have use of it now” agree? I doubt it. It’s good to be well prepared but I suspect most of us would define being well prepared quite differently. Do you like to pack and go on holiday on the spur of the moment, or do you enjoy long term planning? In the Methodist Church we often make our ecumenical colleagues smile because we have “The Plan” which sets out all our preachers, styles of service and churches at which they will be taking services, for at least three months in advance - and it’s pretty difficult to change anything once down on The Plan. Like a lot of things in life I suspect it’s a case of getting the balance right either as individuals or organisations between being flexible and forward planning. The really sad thing is when we come across some system that is clearly wrong but no one is prepared to change it, and individuals suffer the consequences.

It’s the same in our own lives isn’t it? We often know our own faults and the things we would like to change but it’s getting down to doing something about them. Some of those faults could perhaps do with instant action - others, a more measured approach to secure long term success. Jesus supported both. He cured people instantly and sent others, like the rich young ruler, away to ponder how they might better live their lives. Do you have anything you would like to change, short term or long term? I do.

With every blessing

Steve and Heather
In September’s issue of the Parish Magazine you were asked to express an opinion as to whether you still want to receive your free copy: the costs of printing and producing have to be justified by yourselves so please contact Katy before the Parish Council make a decision, if you still find it relevant. Pat Crampton and myself set up the inclusion of Linton in response to the Parish Plan suggestion that Collingham and Linton needed to support each other: this has been achieved to some extent.

Do you want to continue to receive the Magazine in Linton??

On September 21st the 60th Anniversary of Linton Memorial Hall was celebrated. It never ceases to amaze me how such a small village could raise funds so quickly to build this beautiful hall in commemoration of the six Linton boys who died in the Second World War.

Is it too soon to mention the Xmas Lights Switching On, on November 29th, followed by the Xmas Fayre on November 30th?

Good News for cyclists and pedestrians
The long-fought-for 30mph speed limit on Linton Lane has, at last, been authorised.
We are still working on the 20mph one through the village, the safety of cyclists continues to be a concern.

CRUK CHRISTMAS CARDS

The year has moved quickly on and I am once more writing about the Christmas card events to raise funds, helping the doctors and scientists get closer to beating cancer. Thanks to all the people who have supported in the past, the better treatment and diagnosis of cancer has improved the chance of patients surviving the illness.

I appeal to you who still favour the old tradition of sending cards at Christmas. A home with an array of cards sent by loving family and friends, arranged around the furniture, presents a warmth of seasonal spirit at a time when we celebrate the birth of Christ.

Christmas Card sales will be held on:
Friday 4th October. Afternoon tea with cream scones at Barbara Dodgson's home, 4 School Lane, at 2.30pm
Saturday 19th October: At “Calm Waters2, 3 Langwith Valley Rad from 10am - 12noon with Winifred Dowd. A Coffee Morning with home-made biscuits.

When looking at Insurance most of us add up the value of items kept in the house, we class these as 'our valuables' we take care of them using locks, alarms and security measures. However, when it comes to securing Sheds and Garages many of us aren't so careful!!

Just think for a while and add up the value of the items kept in the Shed and Garage. Gardening Equipment. Tools. Cycles Golfing Equipment Toys. Are you surprised at just how much it all adds up to!!! Is it all as secure as it could be or is it all down to a £2 padlock and the standard garage lock!

Please take some time to think of Shed and Garage Security. Check the general fabric of your shed. Are there signs of decay that would provide an opportunity for a potential thief to steal from it?

Is it possible to strengthen the door and frame? What condition is the window in! Is it possible to fit a grille or mesh to the inside? You could consider fitting a curtain or blind to the window so that all your goods are not on view.

Are the hinges secured with Coach Bolts or non return screws, or could you just unscrew the hinges and open the door? Have you secured items together with a chain and lock or secured them to the floor?

Have you post coded items with your post code and house number? Whilst you are doing this, keep a record of serial numbers.

REMEMBER KEEP IT SECURE!!

The Wetherby Crime Panel still have a supply of Shed Alarms for sale along with replacement lock barrels for uPVC doors. Telephone 01937 582 441

Explore the Georgian furniture industry and the people behind its success at the Linton Antique Society

The Linton Antique Society opens its 2013/14 season with a talk by the furniture historian Dr Adam Bowett about a subject on which he is the foremost expert, Furniture-making in Early Georgian London. He reveals how the trade was organised, the wide variety of specialised crafts skills employed, the range of furniture produced and how London became the centre of an industry that exported to the world.

The talk will be held at the Linton Memorial Hall, Linton, Wetherby LS22 4HL on Thursday 10 October at 7.30pm. You can join the Society for an annual subscription of just £15.00, which entitles you to entry to all talks and the opportunity to participate in special events. Drama in Linton
“Third Week in August”
by Yorkshire playwright
Peter Gordon

Linton Memorial Hall
24th 25th 26th October 7.30pm

This is a play set on a rundown caravan site on the coast. Sue thinks she can find peace and quiet in order to write a play but she is disappointed. Expert but inadequate Neville, with bossy wife and her recently divorced moping sister soon interfere. Then enthusiastic Tony with sceptical girlfriend Jennie appear. Neville decides a communal barbecue would boost “camp spirit” and then things really start to hot up!

Tickets £6

Tesco Express store
As the Tesco Express store approached two months of trading, teething problems and working relationships with other Collingham shops continue to be under consideration. A new pedestrian crossing remains under consideration. If residents have concerns, please refer these to the parish clerk.

It is intended to discuss highways issues with Tesco and Leeds City Council. Difficulties have arisen from Mill Lane being a short link road to the A58 whilst being busy as the A659 is “no right turn” at the A58 junction. On occasions the level of traffic on the A58 leaves vehicles waiting on Mill Lane. In turn this prohibits cars from entering the Tesco car park and it can cause a build-up on the A58. Also, it has been found (for some) that the Tesco wall restricts the sight line from Mill Lane when looking to see if traffic is approaching from Wetherby.

Two other difficulties are evident too. Some vehicles exit the car park onto Mill Lane. This is prohibited. Mill Lane is the only entrance to the car park - it is NOT an exit. All vehicles MUST leave the car park directly onto the A58 next to the car sales showroom.

There are concerns, also, that delivery vehicles are misusing the entrance and the car park. If you see this happening, bring it to the attention of the Tesco manager.

Elizabeth Court car park
For safety reasons (following some near misses), bollards will be installed in Elizabeth Court car park to prohibit through access to/from the Post Office and Newsagent. Vehicles needing access to these premises will use the private access lane from School Lane.

Grass Cutting contracts
Contractors interested in submitting tenders for grass cutting in 2014 are invited to contact the parish clerk for information. Discussion will be arranged with Leeds City Council to review its grass cutting contract in the parish.
Ban HGVs on Harewood Road

Cllr Matthew Robinson, ward councillor for Harewood is organising a campaign to prevent HGV usage on the A659 between Collingham and Harewood. There has already been press coverage in the Wetherby News and he spoke at the full Council meeting on the issue in September.

He is looking to involve residents and parish councillors of Harewood, East Keswick and Collingham in a press release in the YEP that will aim to increase pressure on the Council to introduce a HGV ban on this stretch of road, which would deliver a much safer road for local residents.

Would you be willing to support this campaign?

Collingham Neighbourhood Plan

The Collingham Neighbourhood Plan committee has started to draft the text of the Plan, and has set aside a period of three months to prepare the draft. The committee is still concerned that opinions of under 18s may not have been identified sufficiently and therefore we are seeking teenage volunteers to share their knowledge and provide input into the Plan. If you want to help or know someone that might be interested then please make contact.

We have decided to arrange a Photography Competition. We would like photographs to be submitted by December 31st, capturing the best aspects of Collingham and the worst aspects of Collingham. The photographs will be judged in three categories, under 11s, 11-18 years and over 18. There will be a prize of £50 in each category. The intention is to use the photographs within the Neighbourhood Plan. Full rules are available on www.thisisls22.com, or via the contact below.

A number of residents have noted machinery working in the fields north of Leeds Road, adjacent to Millbeck Green. Ground investigation works are being undertaken in advance of a possible planning application for housing. There was strong objection to this site in our recent survey. We will keep you informed.
