Welcome to Flagstaff

Perched above the metropolitan city of Phoenix and only a one hour drive to the majestic Grand Canyon, Flagstaff is located in the mountains of northern Arizona. Flagstaff is the destination for all seasons and all types of adventurers. Depending on the time of year and your calling for outdoor adventure, experience world-class downhill skiing and snowboarding, Nordic skiing, hundreds of miles of scenic trails for hiking, biking, horseback riding and bird watching, or simply gaze at the color changes of our magnificent aspens each fall.

Flagstaff is the best of both worlds; with its authentic, even quirky Flagstaff culture, visitors experience local artists, farm-to-table restaurants, local brew pubs and one-of-a-kind local shops in a historic downtown setting. For the history buffs, 2016 is the 90th anniversary of the iconic Route 66 and Flagstaff is the premier stop on the Mother Road. Furthermore, for our visitors with a desire for arts and culture, Flagstaff has an active and engaged arts council, museums, historic architecture, a flourishing Native American culture and Old West legacy.

We invite you to turn the pages and start planning your uniquely Flagstaff vacation now.

CLIMATE & COMFORT
WEATHER IN THE HIGH COUNTRY

Tips for High Altitude
At high altitude the sun is more intense and it is possible to experience fatigue and shortness of breath. Drink plenty of water, rest often, apply sunscreen and wear sunglasses and a hat, even on cool days. When packing, plan to wear layered clothing, as the temperature and weather can change quickly at 7,000 feet.

HELPFUL RESOURCES

PARKS AND URBAN TRAILS
ARIZONA STATE PARKS

Dead Horse Ranch State Park
675 Dead Horse Ranch Rd. | Cottonwood, AZ | 928.634.5283 | azstateparks.com

Dead Horse Ranch State Park sits on the Verde River Greenway, which is a Cottonwood-Willow riparian forest. The forest is one of less than 20 such riparian zones in the world. Life along the river changes with the seasons, giving visitors a glimpse of the numerous species that make the park their home. The 3,300-foot elevation accounts for mild temperatures ideal for camping, mountain biking, hiking, canoeing and fishing.

Fort Verde State Historic Park
125 E. Hollaman St. | Camp Verde, AZ | 928.567.3275
azstateparks.com

Fort Verde State Historic Park is the best-preserved example of an Indian Wars fort in Arizona. Fort Verde was the primary base for General George Crook’s U.S. Army scouts and soldiers. Today, Fort Verde’s Commanding Officer’s Quarters, Bachelors’ Quarters and Doctor’s Quarters, furnished in the 1880s period, are historic house museums. In the former Administration building, interpretive exhibits on military life, Indian Scouts and Indian Wars history are on display.

Homolovi State Park
1.5 miles north on Hwy 87, I-40 at Exit 257
Winslow, AZ | 928.289.4106 | azstateparks.com

To protect the land and ancient ancestral sites, the Hopi people supported the establishment of Homolovi State Park. The park now serves as a center of research for the late migration period of the Hopi from AD 1200s to the late 1300s. Arizona State Parks provides visitors with the opportunity to visit the sites and use park facilities including a visitor center, museum, trails, and a campground.
On the grounds of Jerome State Historic Park sits the Douglas Mansion which is now a museum devoted to the history of the Jerome area, mining and the Douglas family. The mansion has been an eye-catching landmark in Jerome since 1916 when James S. Douglas built his home on the hill above the Little Daisy Mine. The mansion was constructed of adobe bricks made on site.

Kachina, AZ | 928.679.8000
coconino.az.gov/parks

Raymond County Park offers a spectacular view of the iconic San Francisco Peaks and is located south of Flagstaff in Kachina Village off of I-17. The park features a ball field, picnic ramadas, basketball court, and a climbing wall. Stretch your legs and be sure and check out the watchable wildlife viewing platform, adjacent to Pumphouse County Natural Area, a popular wildlife viewing area in the spring and fall that protects a unique wetland habitat.

Rogers Lake County Natural Area
10 miles southwest of Flagstaff on Woody Mountain Rd., Forest Road 231 | 928.679.8000
coconino.az.gov/parks

Rogers Lake is a high-elevation wetland important to wildlife including elk, black bear, pronghorn, bald eagles, wading birds and migrating waterfowl. Experience striking vistas while hiking and biking on two new trails in this 2,250-acre natural area. The area has prehistoric sites and scatter areas dating back 5,000 years, in addition to old railroad beds and log structures from Flagstaff’s sheep herding and logging era.

Sawmill Multicultural Art and Nature County Park
703 E. Sawmill Rd. | 928.679.8000
coconino.az.gov/parks

Meander around the backyard wildlife habitat gardens and see how a contaminated industrial site can be transformed into an environmental and aesthetic amenity. Built on a “brownfield” where one of Flagstaff’s first sawmills operated from 1908 to 1993, this community park showcases sculptures, murals, and other public art that celebrate the diversity of the surrounding community. The ramada is made from repurposed ponderosa pine trees, a perfect stop for hikers and bicyclists exploring the FUTS. The park also hosts Willow Bend Environmental Education Center’s green building.
Navajo Nation Tribal Parks

Lake Powell Navajo Tribal Park and Antelope Canyon
129 miles north north on Hwy 89 to Page, AZ

The Navajo name for Upper Antelope Canyon is Tse’ bighanilini, which means "the place where water runs through rocks." Upper Antelope is about 4,000 feet elevation and the canyon walls rise 120 above the streambed. Lower Antelope Canyon is Hasdestwazi, or "spiral rock arches." These world-renowned slot canyons are a treasured experience for any traveler. Guided tours available year-round.

Little Colorado River Tribal Park
9.4 miles west on SR 64 from US Highway 89
Cameron, AZ | 928.679.2303 | navajonationparks.org

Little Colorado River Tribal Park encompasses multiple areas, including Grand Falls and Marble Canyon in addition to two viewpoints along Highway 64 on the way to the Grand Canyon. No two canyons could be less alike than the Little Colorado and Grand Canyon. The narrow gorge of the Little Colorado conceals an astonishing depth. The walls are almost colorless, gray, grim and forbidding.

Monument Valley Navajo Tribal Park
4 miles east of Hwy 163 at the Arizona-Utah border
Monument Valley, AZ | 435.727.5870 | navajonationparks.org

The park is approximately 92,216 acres and features a 17-mile drive. The Wildcat Trail, a 3.3-miles self-guided hiking trail around one of the mittens, winds through desert country alongside washes and sandy slopes, offering spectacular views of the rock monuments from the valley floor. Open daily. Closed Christmas and New Year’s Day.

800.805.9202 | aspenplace.com

Named in honor of the Stone Forest Sawmill that once occupied the area, Aspen Place at the Sawmill features varied dining options, multiple clothing and outdoor retail stores, groceries as well as a day spa.

Flagstaff Mall and The Marketplace

4650 N. Hwy. 89 | 928.526.4827 | flagstaffmall.com

Flagstaff Mall and The Marketplace is the only indoor shopping center serving northern Arizona with more than 80 stores including Dillard’s, Sears, JCPenney, Best Buy, Buckle, Marshalls, The Children’s Place and many local retailers. The food court offers complimentary Wi-Fi. Enjoy classic American food at Denny’s. Open Daily.

Fourth Street District

N. 4th St. from Route 66 on Linda Vista Dr. and along 7th Ave.

One of Flagstaff’s first commercial corridors, the Fourth Street District offers a mix of dining, business professionals and retail shopping. Centrally located and easily accessible, the corridor provides different amenities than other areas of town with locally-owned shops and restaurants lining the street.

The Hilltop Shops at Woodlands Village

2500 S. Woodlands Village Blvd.

Situated adjacent to Walmart and Kohl’s and just minutes from NAU, The Hilltop Shops at Woodlands Village offers unique and diverse restaurants mixed with locally-owned shops.

Historic Downtown Flagstaff and Historic Southside District

Humphreys St. to Verde St., north to Cherry Ave. and south to Butler Ave. | flagdba.com

Along historic 1890s streets you will find numerous clothing boutiques, outdoor outfitters, art galleries and retailers selling authentic Native American arts and jewelry. Live entertainment can be found almost every evening at Heritage Square or within the great restaurants and nightlife venues. Venture south of the tracks to the evolving Southside District with amazing dining and cafés lining the streets.

Oak Creek Vista Overlook

14 miles south of Flagstaff on Hwy 89A, milepost 390
928.526.2968 | nacainc.org

Native Americans for Community Action works in partnership with the Coconino National Forest on this Native American arts and crafts vending project. It creates a unique opportunity for Native artisans to enhance and develop their economic self-sufficiency. Sixteen vendors are set up daily to sell their high quality, authentic crafts and jewelry. The outlook has clean restrooms and is open year-round.

University Plaza

1312 S. Plaza Way | universityplazashopping.com

University Plaza is home to an array of shopping options as well as restaurants and services. It’s a great destination for any supply you need, from everyday necessities to gifts for special occasions.

Varsity Shopping Center

1500 Riordan Ranch St.

Conveniently located on Milton Road near NAU, this shopping center is home to local favorites such as Bookman’s Exchange, Sprouts, Burritos Fiesta Fresh Mexican and more.

Flagstaff is a hiker’s paradise with trails available for all skill levels. When exploring the backcountry, remember to bring plenty of water, snacks, a trail map, sunscreen, wear layered clothing, a hat and comfortable shoes. It’s also a good idea to let someone know where you are going and when you plan to return. Be safe and have fun!
