ADELAIDE SW CORNER HERITAGE WALK
The south-west corner of Adelaide was a predominantly working class area with many small industries providing work. Unlike other predominantly residential areas of 19th century Adelaide there are no grand homes and the workers’ cottages have largely survived due to the level of industry that kept the developers at bay in the latter 20th century. This walk will reveal parts of Adelaide unknown to all but the locals. Graham Jaunay will reveal a number of other surprises during the course of this walk that will conclude near the starting point.

AN INTRODUCTION TO ROMAN HISTORY «NEW»
The aim of this course is to introduce Roman History to people who have always been interested in it, but feel lost and don't know where to start. We look at the 3 periods: Rome Under the 7 Kings, Rome Under the Republic and Rome Under the Empire. It explores the role played by key personalities such as Hannibal, Spartacus, Julius Caesar and the emperors as well as the social causes behind the main events. Finally it analyses the overwhelming influence Roman society had on our own. At the end of the course people will then be in a position to further their knowledge by tackling the Roman writers and the works of modern specialists.
