English in the Workplace
Learn how to be more effective, clear and successful in your workplace with sharp communication skills. After a conversation at work, are you left wondering whether you said everything clearly and to the point? When you write a business correspondence, do you rely on spell check devices? Grammatical and punctuation mistakes make even the simplest document harder to read and also reflect badly on you. You will learn to communicate, both orally and in written form, in an effective and professional manner.

Writing Effectively

Good written communication is the key to achieving your goals in business, in the classroom, or in your personal life. Learn about the writing process, organizing ideas and fighting writers’ block. Learn how paragraphs work, and how sentence structure and sentence variety can help you express your ideas with clarity and make your writing clear, concise and interesting. Also learn how to write in the persuasive, expository and narrative styles.

Grammar Refresher

Have you ever felt that what you said and what others heard was awkward, strange, or even embarrassing? Do you want to improve your grammar and have a stronger command of your sentences? Then have no fear and sign up for the Grammar Refresher! In this interactive class, we will cover the rules of speech, building sentences, proper punctuation, subject and verb agreement and verb tense ... all while having fun. The class will focus on writing and speaking skills to increase your power of the English language. Don’t miss your chance to sign up!

American Customs & Culture

This class is useful for anyone new to the American culture, customs, manners and etiquette values. You may be here short-term on business, or long-term, but you will find it helpful to learn the local customs. Carrie will explain some of the practices and stereotypes in American friendliness and informality, and cover such areas as greetings, both formal and informal, and dining etiquette. We will be drawing inferences from TV shows, films and other media. Practice using role playing and verbal conversations.

Reading & Writing Basics

Learn to read like a writer and write like a reader. This class provides practice in building essential reading and writing skills needed for clarity in communication. Students will gain fluency and confidence in their ability to comprehend and write simple texts. You will be engaged in writing as a process and will write paragraphs and short essays, with attention to content, organization and sentence structure. In addition, students will build on their vocabulary and learn to identify main points with supporting details. $5 materials fee.

Sushi
If you love to eat sushi at restaurants, learn how to make it at home. Or, even if you have mastered the basics of sushi, we will be preparing different kinds of sushi rolls that you may encounter in Japanese restaurants. We will be making hand-rolled sushi such as Futomaki (traditional wide roll), Uramaki (inside out roll) and Temaki (hand roll cone), and Hosomaki (traditional thin roll). This is a hands-on class, so come ready to roll your own sushi and host your own sushi party! $20 food fee is payable to the instructor and covers food and supplies.
