The University

Oklahoma City University is a nationally and internationally renowned educational institution. A private, United Methodist-affiliated university, Oklahoma City University offers a unique blend of tradition, quality, community, and innovation. U.S. News and World Report consistently ranks Oklahoma City University among the best master’s level institutions in the Western region.

The university traces its roots to Epworth University, chartered in 1904 as a joint venture of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South (now the combined United Methodist Church), and the Oklahoma City Trade Club (now the Greater Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce). From 1911 to 1922, the university was located in Guthrie, Oklahoma, and known as the Methodist University of Oklahoma. Oklahoma City University has been at its present location at NW Twenty-third Street and Blackwelder Avenue in Oklahoma City since 1922, when what is now the Clara E. Jones Administration Building was completed.

Located in the state’s capital city, Oklahoma City University’s beautiful campus occupies 104 acres in a diverse and vibrant metropolitan area. The architecture on campus is a pleasing blend of American collegiate, Gothic, and functional contemporary.

A broad spectrum of courses is offered through the Petree College of Arts and Sciences, which comprises the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences, School of Visual Arts, and Wimberly School of Religion; the Meinders School of Business; the Margaret E. Petree College of Performing Arts which comprises the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment, Bass School of Music, and School of Theatre; the School of Law; and the Kramer School of Nursing.

Saint Paul School of Theology at Oklahoma City University (SPST at OCU) is a United Methodist-affiliated seminary accredited by the Association of Theological Schools, the Higher Learning Commission, and the University Senate of the United Methodist Church. SPST at OCU offers the Master of Divinity degree. The School’s mission, rooted in the Wesleyan tradition, is to inspire passion for ministry in diverse Christian bodies and to educate leaders to make disciples for Jesus Christ, renew the church, and transform the world. For more information about SPST at OCU, see spst.edu.

Oklahoma City University takes pride in its dual role as Oklahoma City’s university and the United Methodist university of Oklahoma. Its students come from forty-eighty states in the United States and from more than sixty countries throughout the world.

Oklahoma City University creates an environment that brings together outstanding faculty, exceptional students, excellent teaching facilities, and the most advanced and innovative ideas in curriculum and teaching methods. Because of the personal involvement possible on campus, Oklahoma City University students are known by fellow students and professors and benefit from the personalized education offered by the university’s low student-faculty ratio of 11:1.

With a 110-year tradition of church-related service and academic excellence, Oklahoma City University today is a vital institution with a growing reputation as a center of quality, personalized, values-conscious higher education. Oklahoma City University holds memberships in Oklahoma Independent Colleges and Universities, the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, the National Association of Schools and Colleges of the United Methodist Church, the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics, and the Council on Undergraduate Research.

The Kramer School of Nursing is a member of the Council of Baccalaureate and Higher Degree Programs of the National League for Nursing. The School of Law is a member of the Association of American Law Schools. Oklahoma City University is an equal educational opportunity institution.

Accreditation

Oklahoma City University is approved by the University Senate of the United Methodist Church. Oklahoma City University and many of its academic programs are accredited by nationally recognized organizations. The following information is provided so students may contact accrediting organizations:

 Assessment

Assessment is an integral part of the strategic planning process for Oklahoma City University. New and continuing students to the university will be asked to participate in the assessment process. Students near the end of their academic plan of study participate in outcomes assessments for their major fields of study. Other constituencies of the institution also are asked about their satisfaction as part of the assessment process for system improvement.

 Diversity

Oklahoma City University celebrates and seeks diversity in all its forms—from human qualities of gender, race, sexual orientation, and disability to diversity of ideas regarding religious beliefs, cultural identities, and political and social convictions. It is understood that the intersections of varied populations and ideas enrich lives while developing personal values based on expansive interactions with those with whom common experiences are shared and those with whom few common experiences are shared. Diversity enriches academic, professional, and personal opportunities and is a source of strength and empowerment for all.

Oklahoma City University actively seeks all forms of diversity among the faculty, staff, and administration and pursues programming—both in and beyond the classroom—that examines and responds to the world of ideas from an ethical stance shaped by knowledge rather than by prejudice.
A Modern Metropolitan Setting

Home to more than 1.2 million Oklahomans and an average of 300 days of sunshine per year, Oklahoma City offers an abundance of the arts, quality healthcare, excellence in education, and more. And it does so without high costs, energy shortages, or traffic congestion. It is a distinctly liveable city where you can chase your dreams and still enjoy a rich quality of life.

Oklahoma City’s hip, spirited environment blends with its deep western heritage to create a place where culture & commerce thrive. With renowned festivals, national sporting events, treasure-filled museums, and a variety of districts highlighting arts and entertainment, the possibilities for adventure and fun in Oklahoma City are endless. Situated on vibrant 23rd street, our campus sits in the heart of OKC in the historic Uptown District, which has been experiencing an exciting time of revitalization. A variety of historic ethnic neighborhoods, as well as a wide range of educational, civic, religious, entertainment, sporting, shopping, and dining options surround Oklahoma City University.

On any given night you may find yourself dining at one of the local hot spots in Automobile Alley or Deep Deuce, enjoying a festival in the Plaza District or Midtown, appreciating one of the many art galleries in the Paseo Arts District, taking in a Thunder basketball game downtown, playing laser tag in the Bricktown Entertainment District, or taking a stroll by beautiful Lake Hefner. There is always an adventure waiting for you in Oklahoma City!

“Oklahoma City offers so much more than I initially expected when I came here from out of state. It has all the conveniences of a big city while at the same time retaining small town comfort. It is a unique hybrid of those two different cultures.”

—Ken, Junior, Mathematics & Chemistry Education

Did you know that Oklahoma City is one of the top river sports destinations in the world?

Located just south of downtown, the Boathouse District, along the Oklahoma River, is one of Oklahoma City’s top attractions for adventure seekers.

General Admission Policy

Oklahoma City University seeks to identify students who will benefit from the academic rigor, educational opportunity, and individual attention that are the hallmarks of an Oklahoma City University educational experience. The university does not discriminate against any individual because of race, color, religion, national origin, gender, age, handicap or disability, sexual orientation, or veteran status.

Oklahoma City University is interested in students who want to learn. Each application is given careful consideration based on the student’s high school and/or college record, college entrance exam scores, recommendation form, class rank, required essay, desirable character and personality traits, and the applicant’s interests and goals in relation to the programs of study offered by the university. All bachelor’s degree candidates must have earned a high school diploma or GED certificate and must submit either the American College Test (ACT) or the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) results. Students who have been out of high school for more than three years are not required to submit scores from the ACT or SAT.

The admissions committee will give preference to those applicants whose evidence of academic fitness and professional promise indicates that they are particularly qualified to study at Oklahoma City University, to succeed as degree candidates, and to develop the leadership potential to become productive citizens. Applicants who are successful in gaining admission to Oklahoma City University generally present the following minimum quantitative credentials: a score of 22 on the ACT (or a comparable score on the SAT) and a high school cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.00. We will look at both the weighted and the unweighted cumulative GPA and use the one that most benefits the student.

The Office of Admissions reserves the right to request any additional information before a decision for admission is made. Providing false or incomplete information on the application for admission may result in a denial of admission or revocation of enrollment. Students who have been admitted to the university and for whom academic success can be reasonably predicted are eligible to enroll at Oklahoma City University.

All transcripts, test scores, correspondence, or other materials submitted for the purpose of applying for admissions become the property of the University and will not be returned.

For information on graduate admission policies, refer to the admission section in the graduate catalog.

High School Course Requirements

A broad preparatory academic program is required for the student who wants to study at Oklahoma City University. The following courses are required for admission to the university:

- English: four units, excluding speech or journalism
- Mathematics: two units of algebra; one unit of geometry, trigonometry, math analysis, or calculus
- Social Studies: one unit of world history; one unit of state history and civics; and one unit of United States history
- Foreign Language: two units of one language
- Science: two to three units of science, at least one of which should be a lab science

Advanced Placement courses are encouraged. Appropriate exceptions may be made.

Admission Procedure

First-time Freshmen

Entering freshmen must submit the following to the Office of Admissions:

- Application for Admission: An application for admission, accompanied by a $55 nonrefundable application fee, should be submitted as early as possible, but not more than one year before the term in which the student plans to enroll.
- Transcripts: Entering freshmen should submit an official sixth- or seventh-semester high school transcript. The student’s high school counselor or principal should send an official copy of the transcript to the Oklahoma City University Office of Undergraduate Admissions. An official final high school transcript with graduation date posted must be received prior to the start of classes.
- Entrance Examinations: All incoming freshmen are required to take either the ACT or the SAT. The results are helpful in counseling and placement. Additionally, they are used in considering a student for academic scholarships. Test scores should be sent directly to Oklahoma City University. The ACT code for Oklahoma City University is 3416. The SAT code for Oklahoma City University is 6543.

Incoming students are still considered first-time freshmen if they graduated from high school the previous spring, have taken courses at a college or university as part of their high school course work, or acquired college credit during the summer leading up to the fall semester.

NOTE: An applicant who does not hold a high school diploma may be considered for admission by completing the following steps:

- Submitting GED test scores
- Presenting official transcripts of all high school work attempted
- Submitting official ACT or SAT test results, or
- A score of 350 or greater on the California High School Proficiency exam will be considered equivalent to the required GED for purposes of admission consideration

An applicant who is home schooled may be considered for admission by completing the following steps:

- Presenting an official transcript, including course work and grades, from the home schooling experience
- Demonstrating that he or she is graduating no earlier than his or her class in the public school system
- Submitting an official copy of the ACT or SAT test scores

Probational Admission

Applicants who do not meet the admission criteria stated in the catalog may be reviewed by the University Admissions Committee. In order to be considered by the committee, the student must do the following:

- Submit at least two letters of recommendation from school officials, teachers, or counselors.
- Write and submit a letter describing the student’s academic history and how he or she will be academically successful at Oklahoma City University.
- Provide any additional documentation that displays academic promise.

Once the above items are complete, the University Admissions Committee will review the file and recommend acceptance, admission on probation, or denial. If admitted on probation, the student must achieve a minimum cumulative 2.00 OCU GPA at the end of the semester in which the student has completed 12 or more cumulative hours at Oklahoma City University.

Transfer Students: Degree-Seeking

Transfer students seeking admission to Oklahoma City University must have a minimum 2.00 cumulative undergraduate GPA from a regionally accredited institution of higher learning and must have been in good standing at the institution last attended. In addition, applicants must submit the following to the Office of Admissions:

- Application for Admission: A $55 nonrefundable application fee must accompany the application.
- College Transcripts: An official transcript from each institution attended is required. Students should request that the official transcript(s) be sent directly to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.
- Dean of Students Recommendation: A completed recommendation form from the dean of students of the most recent college or university attended. This form is not required for RN-to-BSN students.
- High School Transcripts: Transfer students with fewer than 30 hours of transferable credit must submit an official high school transcript to Oklahoma City University in order to be considered for admission.
- Entrance Examinations: Transfer students with fewer than 30 hours of transferable credit must submit ACT or SAT scores to Oklahoma City University in order to be considered for admission.

Students ineligible to return to the school most recently attended will not be considered for admission until at least one semester has elapsed since the last term attended. (The summer session will not be considered an intervening semester.)

Readmission to the University

Former students who have not attended Oklahoma City University for a period of one year or longer must be readmitted before enrollment. An application for readmission and official transcript of all work completed since leaving Oklahoma City University must be submitted to be considered for readmission.

A student who is dismissed from Oklahoma City University for academic reasons and who wishes to reapply to the same program must wait one full academic year before applying for readmission. In order to be considered for the earliest possible readmission date, students must submit their requests to the registrar no later than the date indicated in the letter of dismissal from the registrar.
At the time of dismissal, the student will be informed of possible avenues to pursue, such as additional academic course work from other postsecondary institutions. This information will be communicated in the letter sent by the registrar. Official transcripts and records of academic work completed during the period following the dismissal must be included along with the request for readmission.

The Student Probations and Petitions Committee will review requests for readmission. Requests for readmission will be reviewed prior to the semester in which the student is eligible to re-enroll.

Academic Forgiveness

A former Oklahoma City University student who has not attended the university for at least five years and does not have the academic credentials to receive clear readmission to the university may petition the Admissions, Financial Aid, and Special Accommodations Committee to be admitted under the academic forgiveness policy. Students may be admitted conditionally and must agree that no prior hours will count toward the degree. Likewise, their poor GPAs will not be counted against them while they are at Oklahoma City University. This forgiveness policy does not extend the student’s financial aid eligibility. Previous work will still be indicated on the transcript, although it will not be calculated into the GPA at Oklahoma City University. Students admitted under this policy must understand that the policy is an internal policy only. Other institutions have their own rules and regulations regarding these situations.

Unclassified Students

Students may enroll at Oklahoma City University for purposes of personal enrichment, professional growth, or transfer of credit to another institution. Such students will be designated as unclassified students.

Unclassified students who do not plan to seek a degree at Oklahoma City University do not need to meet the admission requirements specified for degree-seeking applicants. Unclassified students may earn a maximum of 12 semester hours at Oklahoma City University. In addition, unclassified applicants must submit the following to the Office of Admissions:

- Application for Admission: A $55 nonrefundable application fee must accompany the application.
- Transcripts: Students should submit an official transcript or a letter of good standing from the registrar of the last school attended.

Concurrent Enrollment

High school students with unusually strong records may concurrently enroll at Oklahoma City University during their senior year. Students who are ready for college work before the completion of the usual four years of secondary school may take course work at Oklahoma City University if they have an ACT score of 24 and a GPA of 3.250 or higher. If the student meets these qualifications, but is not a high school senior, they must interview with the director of undergraduate admissions to be considered for concurrent enrollment. In addition, all applicants for concurrent enrollment must submit the following to the Office of Admissions:

- A letter of recommendation from the principal or counselor of the student’s high school
- A letter from a parent or guardian of the student endorsing concurrent enrollment
- A letter from the applicant stating why she or he believes she or he is ready for college work before the completion of a traditional high school program
- A completed Oklahoma City University application.

International Student Admission Procedure

Oklahoma City University has students from over sixty countries studying in its undergraduate and graduate programs. The university is authorized under federal law to enroll nonimmigrant alien students.

Admission of International Students

All international student applications, graduate and undergraduate, are processed by the Office of International Admissions. Applications and information may be obtained online at okcu.edu/admissions/international or by emailing ia@okcu.edu or by writing to:

Office of International Admissions
Oklahoma City University
2501 North Blackwelder
Oklahoma City, OK 73106 U.S.A.

Oklahoma City University does not have application deadlines, but recommends that applications be submitted no later than one month before the semester begins.

English Proficiency Policy

International applicants from non-English speaking countries (as indicated in the Cambridge Encyclopedia of Languages, 2003*) must demonstrate proof of English proficiency by meeting one of the following criteria:

Regular Admission

Regular admission to most undergraduate programs requires one of the following:

1. TOEFL internet-based (iBT) score of 80, paper-based test (PBT) score of 550 or an overall IELTS score of 6.0 with at least a 5.5 on each subband.
2. Completion of level 112 of the intensive program at an ELS Language Center.
3. Two years attendance and graduation from high school in an English* speaking country with the minimum GPA required for admission to Oklahoma City University.
4. Two semesters at a U.S. regionally accredited higher education institution with a minimum of 24 transferable credits including 12 credits that are equivalent to the Oklahoma City University general education courses and good academic standing.
5. Pearson Test of English score of 53

Provisional Admission

Students who do not meet the English proficiency required for regular admission may be considered for provisional admission by submitting one of the following:

1. TOEFL internet-based (iBT) score of 61-79
2. TOEFL paper-based test (PBT) score of 500-549
3. IELTS overall score of 5.5 with no sub-band below 5.0
4. Institutional TOEFL taken at Oklahoma City University with a score of 550 and successful completion of TSE and TWE.
5. ELS level 111 completion

Provisionally admitted students must complete 12 credit hours of regularly graded course work with a GPA of 2.00 or higher. A student who fails to maintain a GPA of 2.00 in his or her first 12 credit hours of academic course work may submit a new TOEFL or IELTS score that meets the requirements for regular admission (TOEFL iBT 80 or IELTS 6.0) or may attend the ELS Language Center on campus and pass level 112.

A student who is unable to successfully complete one of the above mentioned options has the right to appeal academic dismissal. Please see the catalog section on appeal of academic dismissal (page 43) for more details.

The Office of International Admissions will maintain the equivalency chart of appropriate English proficiency assessments.

Some undergraduate programs may require scores higher than those listed above. Check for specific department or school admissions criteria.

Conditional Admission

Students who meet the academic requirements for admission, but who have not yet met the required English proficiency may apply for conditional admission. Conditionally admitted students may attend intensive English training at ELS Language Centers or may submit a qualifying English proficiency test score in order to receive regular admission. Students who do not meet the English language proficiency requirements within one academic year of conditional admission must reapply. For applicants and information about intensive English training please visit the ELS website: els.edu/oklahomacity

Institutional TOEFL Policy

Students may submit an Institutional TOEFL score for admission consideration. In order to be considered, the Institutional TOEFL must be taken at Oklahoma City University. Students with an Institutional TOEFL score of 550 or higher must also take the SPEAK test or Test of Spoken English (TSE) and the Test of Written English (TWE). All applicants who successfully complete the TSE and the TWE as determined by a faculty committee will be admitted to the university provisionally and must meet the requirements listed above for provisionally admitted students.

Current English-speaking countries as listed in the Cambridge Book of Languages: American Samoa, Anguilla, Antigua/Barbuda, Australia, Bahamas, Barbados, Belize, Bermuda, British Guyana, Canada (except Quebec), Cayman Islands, Dominica, Falkland Islands, Fiji, Grenada, Guam, Guyana, Ireland, Jamaica/other West Indies, Liberia, Montserrat, New Zealand, Sierra Leone, South Africa, St. Helena, St. Kitts and Nevis, St. Lucia, St. Vincent, Trinidad and Tobago, Turks and Caico Isle, United Kingdom, Virgin Islands, and U.S. Pacific Trust.

Financial Support

International applicants must submit a certified letter of support from a sponsor, family member, or other source showing that they have adequate financial resources to provide for educational and living expenses at Oklahoma City University.

Housing

All single, full-time undergraduate students under age twenty-one are required to live in on-campus housing unless they are living with parents or legal guardians. Persons twenty-one years of age and older are excused from housing regulations.

General Financial Information

Tuition is the same for all residents and nonresidents of Oklahoma. Tuition rates are published annually in a separate tuition and fees announcement.

A music major will pay the general tuition, which includes two half-hour lessons. Charges for additional lessons and for those not required in the curriculum are based on the individual teacher’s fees. (Contact the Bass School of Music for a list of teachers and their individual fees.) Special practice arrangements will be made for the student enrolled only in applied music. An applied music fee will be charged to any student enrolled in applied music. For applied vocal music classes, an additional charge is assessed for the accompanist.

Students taking courses under the NURS code will be assessed an additional nursing fee. In addition, clinical and lab fees are assessed when applicable.

Tuition for courses taken on an audit basis will be assessed a nonrefundable audit fee rate of $150 per credit hour. Audit fees are not considered part of the structure for block tuition charges and will be assessed in addition to regular tuition charges.

Rules Governing Payment of Tuition

All tuition charges and fees are due on the first day of class for each semester or term according to the official Oklahoma City University academic calendar. All students must make arrangements for their account balances either by paying their balance in full (Option 1) or enrolling in a monthly payment plan (Option 2).

Option 1: Payment in Full

After all other aid is credited to a student’s account (loans, grants, university scholarships, etc.), the account is paid in full by or on the first day of class each semester.

Option 2: Installment Plan Fee

Charge assessed for the payment plan that allows students to make four interest-free payments over the course of the semester. The Installment Plan Fee is also assessed to any student whose account is not paid in full by the first day of class and who has not made appropriate payment arrangements. Any account with an unpaid balance at the end of the term will be subject to a finance fee of 2.67 percent.

Failure to enroll in an installment plan or pay the account in full by the first day of class will result in either automatic enrollment into an installment plan with a $100 enrollment fee or cancellation for non-payment. If a payment is not made by the payment due date each month, accounts are subject to a late payment fee of $30 per month.

Students awarded financial aid in the form of work-study should be aware that this form of aid is not considered in determining the balance due in tuition, fees, room and board for the semester. If a student chooses, they may request their work-study checks be applied directly to their student account. Work-study payments will reduce the student’s installment plan.

If tuition charges and fees are to be paid by a third party other than the student’s family or financial aid, a written authorization from the third party must be presented at the time of enrollment; otherwise, the student will be required to meet the financial requirements listed above. Veterans attending the university under the G.I. Bill are required to comply with the same rules and payment tables governing nonveteran obligations.

No student will be allowed to enroll in any semester or term if his or her account is past due. No student will be given a letter of good standing, transcript, or diploma until all financial obligations to the university are paid.

All tuition, fees, and charges made by the university are payable at the Student Accounts Office. Students may also submit payment for Oklahoma City University charges online via their Oklahoma City University BlueLink Account.

Payments to student accounts are applied first to tuition and fees and then to other charges. The only exception to this application of payment is donor restriction on a gift or endowed scholarship.

By enrolling at Oklahoma City University, students agree to the following:

- Specifically acknowledge that to the extent their educational expenses are not paid by parents, scholarships, employers, or other sources, they are responsible for such payments plus interest.
- Specifically acknowledge that by enrolling, they are subject to applicable charges and/or fees and that these charges and/or fees constitute a legal debt until paid or otherwise settled. Any balance due is a student loan and will be considered nondischargeable under the federal and state laws governing bankruptcy.
- Specifically acknowledge that any additional cost or legal fees, including but not limited to reasonable attorney’s fees, incurred by Oklahoma City University, its successors and/or assigns, in collecting the amounts due shall be added to the amount the student owes and will bear the same rate of interest as the principle amount.
Authorize Oklahoma City University and/or its agents, including attorneys and/or collection agencies, to contact the student via cellular telephone and/or electronic technology to collect any outstanding debt, unless the student notifies the university or its agents in writing to cease such communication.

Special Service Fees

Fees are published annually in a tuition and fees announcement. The following is a list of typical fees. All fees are subject to change annually.

• All students pay a general university fee. This fee provides general budget funding for a variety of services including campus technology, academic enrichment and assessment, athletics and facilities, safety and crisis preparedness, career services, health services, personal counseling, intramurals, student government association, student traditions, religious life, and student publications.
• Laboratory fees, as well as fees required for some courses are charged on a flat-fee basis in addition to tuition.
• An annual parking permit is required of all students for on-campus parking.
• OCU requires all students to maintain student health insurance as a condition of enrollment. The insurance fee for the OCU Student Health Insurance Plan (SHIP) is automatically billed to the student account each semester. If a student already has health insurance coverage which meets the university’s requirement they may sign a SHIP waiver so they may maintain their current insurance coverage.
• An international student fee and international student insurance fee are charged each semester. All fees are mandatory for international students.
• All first-time freshmen and transfer students are charged a new student orientation fee that covers the costs of providing services and resources that promote academic success for new undergraduate students.
• Charges for tests given to persons not enrolled in the university vary depending upon the test taken.
• Late Registration Fee—Any student who enrolls after the add/drop period will be assessed a $50 late fee.
• All students pay a one-time comprehensive records fee per degree sought that allows students and alumni to request copies of their official transcripts at no additional charge. The registrar reserves the right to limit the number of official transcripts an individual may receive within a particular time period.

Veterans Benefits

A Veterans Service Office is operated by Oklahoma City University as a service to veteran students. It neither sets policy nor administers V.A. programs. University personnel assigned to the office process the forms as a service to the student who is claiming V.A. educational benefits and act as liaisons between the student and the Veterans Affairs Regional Office. Students who wish to receive benefits must report to the Oklahoma City University certifying official in the Registrar’s Office each semester to fill out a Request for Certification. For further information, please contact the Veterans Service Office at (405) 208-5266.

Tuition Adjustments

Each term has a published first day of class as outlined in the academic calendar. A 100 percent tuition adjustment is made at varying time periods beginning with the published first day of class. After these periods, there will be no further adjustments:

Fall and spring semesters—up to and including Friday after ten semester class days.
Summer and accelerated cycles—up to and including the first Friday of the term.

Approximately the third week of class each semester, if the student’s account is paid in full, any excess personal, state, private, or federal financial aid awarded will be refunded to the student. The charges to be paid include, but are not limited to, tuition, fees, room and board, and traffic fines. If aid includes proceeds from Parent PLUS loans, any excess funds MUST be returned to the parent unless otherwise indicated on the application. Only then can the refund go to the student. Oklahoma City University processes refunds by direct deposit. Contact the Student Accounts Office for details.

Adding and Dropping Courses

Procedures and deadlines for adding and dropping classes are described in this catalog under Academic Regulations (beginning on page 29).

Withdrawals

Students unable to remain at the university to complete their courses for the term must process a full withdrawal. Procedures for withdrawal from all classes are in this catalog under Academic Regulations (beginning on page 29).

Full withdrawals from the university are not complete...
Email

All students receive an Oklahoma City University email account that they are responsible for activating and maintaining. Access to this account is available on the internet from any location and will never expire. The student email account is the official correspondence for the following:

- Financial Aid
- Billing notices
- Student activities
- Academic communication with the university and professors
- Important dates, times, deadlines and emergency university notifications

Email is the sole method of correspondence used by most university departments.

All students are expected to check their email account regularly. A student’s failure to check and maintain his or her account on a regular basis will not be accepted as an excuse for missing information, dates, and/or deadlines.

International students will receive all updates on immigration regulations and newsletters through their Oklahoma City University email accounts.

Identification Cards

Identification cards issued to all students are valid for as long as the student is enrolled in the university. Picture ID is required at the Student Accounts Office when requesting an Oklahoma City University ID card. A valid driver’s license or passport is acceptable. The card identifies the student and allows participation in student activities and elections. It admits the student to all home athletic events and various student activities, and enables students to receive free or half-price tickets to university drama, opera, and dance productions and concerts. A student identification card grants access to libraries and computer labs and serves as a meal ticket for students who are on a board plan. The identification card is used to print documents in the computer labs. Money may be added onto the card for use at Alvin’s, the cafeteria, and other Stars Card vendors. If an Oklahoma City University ID is lost, a student may purchase a new one for a replacement fee of $5.

Book Charge Program

Oklahoma City University’s bookstore is managed by Tree of Life. Tree of Life offers a charge program. Charges, as a result of utilizing the book charge program, will be added to the student account. The charges will be included in the monthly invoice and will be due upon receipt or can be paid monthly as part of the approved payment plan. Students who have a hold as a result of a past due balance will not be permitted to participate in the book charge program.

Financial Assistance

Types of Assistance Available

The Office of Financial Aid assists admitted students in developing a financial aid package to help meet their basic educational expenses. Financial aid includes the university scholarships, federal and state grants, student loans, and federal and institutional work study.

Eligibility for Financial Assistance

The Office of Financial Aid considers the official Cost of Attendance at Oklahoma City University, the family’s Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) as determined by the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), and the student’s incoming academic achievements to determine eligibility for financial aid. Oklahoma City University scholarships may be applied to tuition charges only and are not refundable to the student.

Financial aid may be available to help fund Oklahoma City University-approved study abroad programs. More information is available from the Director of Global Engagement in the Provost Office at studyabroad@okcu.edu.

Financial Aid Application Procedures

To be evaluated for financial assistance, a student must first be admitted to the university. Most federal and state programs require at least half-time enrollment. Transfer students must provide official transcripts from all institutions previously attended. Audited courses and courses not applicable to the student’s degree program will not be considered in the financial aid package. Students who repeat course work for which financial aid has already been received may not be eligible for additional financial aid for those repeated classes.

All students are encouraged to apply for federal student aid. The student should file a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) online at fafsa.ed.gov and designate Oklahoma City University (code 003166) on the application in order for the Office of Financial Aid to receive a copy of the results. The student will receive an electronic link to his or her Student Aid Report (SAR) from the Federal Student Aid Processing Center in response to the FAFSA.

The 2015-2016 deadline for priority processing is March 1, 2015. FAFSAs received after the deadline will be considered in the order received for as long as aid resources are available. Funding restrictions may alter eligibility for some programs.

In addition to the FAFSA, other forms may be required based on the student’s individual circumstances. Students should monitor their Oklahoma City University email and Bluelink for additional requested items.

Return of Unearned Federal Title IV Funds

Title IV funds are awarded to a student under the assumption that the student will attend school for the entire period for which the assistance is awarded. When a student withdraws, the student may no longer be eligible for the full amount of Title IV funds the student was originally scheduled to receive.

If a recipient of Title IV grant or loan funds withdraws from a school after beginning attendance, the amount of Title IV grant or loan assistance earned by the student must be determined. If the amount disbursed to the student is greater than the amount the student earned, unearned funds must be returned.

The Office of Financial Aid will calculate the amount of Title IV funds the student has earned in accordance with federally prescribed procedures as detailed in the Federal Compliance and Student Consumer Information found at okcu.edu/heoa.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Policy for Financially Aided Students

In accordance with federal, state, and university aid and scholarship program guidelines, academic progress toward a degree must be made in order for students to continue receiving funds.

The Office of Financial Aid will monitor the quantitative and qualitative progress of each student receiving financial assistance in accordance with the current guidelines and procedures as detailed in the Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy found at okcu.edu/financialaid/forms/sap-policy.pdf.

Renewals and Annual Awarding

Students are evaluated annually for continued financial aid eligibility. Federal renewal applications must be submitted annually and are available after January 1 of each year at fafsa.ed.gov. Scholarship renewal is based on SAP and is reviewed every semester. Scholarships generally require maintaining full-time enrollment and other criteria set forth at the time of the initial award.

On-Campus Housing

Residence Halls

All single, full-time undergraduate students under the age of 21 are required to live in university housing unless they are living with their parent or legal guardian. Veterans, married or divorced persons, and single parents are excused from this housing regulation. Falsification of residence address may result in termination of enrollment. For more information concerning university housing, call (405) 208-6363.

The university believes that a valuable part of a student’s learning experience occurs in the university residence halls. The student lives and learns with other students from different cultures and lifestyles. Numerous social and academic activities occur in the residence halls during the academic year. There are five residence halls on the Oklahoma City University campus: United Methodist, Draper, Walker, Banning, and Smith halls. Each residence hall is directed by a head resident and resident assistants, whose function is to answer questions and help solve problems related to community living.

Apartment Living

The Cokesbury Court apartment complex offers the security of card-key entry and an eight-foot wrought-iron fence. Apartment options include unfurnished efficiencies and furnished two- and four-bedroom apartments. The complex offers an outdoor swimming pool and Jacuzzi and on-site parking and laundry. Students classified as sophomore and above are eligible to apply for housing in Cokesbury Court. For more information, call (405) 208-8100.

University Manor, located directly across from the campus on NW Twenty-third Street, offers one-bedroom unfurnished apartments for students who are over the age of 21. Law students receive priority assignments. Amenities include on-site parking and laundry facilities. For more information, contact the director of university apartments at (405) 208-8100.

Food Service

There are several meal plans available to Oklahoma City University students, including a variety of residence hall board plans and Stars Bucks, a flexible debit-card system. Students residing in the residence halls are required to participate in a residence hall meal plan, and students living in University Manor or Cokesbury Court apartments are required to purchase an apartment plan based on the length of their lease. Meals for students participating in any university meal plan or block meal plan are served in the Commons Food Court in the Tom and Brenda McDaniel University Center. Stars Bucks are redeemable in the Commons Food Court or in Alvin’s Cafe, located in the University Center. Alvin’s provides a quick snack or a full meal and a place to meet friends for relaxation or study. Food services are provided by Sodexo.

Religious Life

The goal of Religious Life at Oklahoma City University is to promote spiritual enrichment and to minister to the spiritual needs of the campus community.

Organizations

The Oklahoma City University Wesley Center is the United Methodist campus ministry. The Wesley Center directs Evensong worship services, the Kappa Phi Christian Women’s Service Organization, and the Delta Alpha Chi Christian Men’s Service Fraternity.

Worship and Activities

We offer two worship services every week when classes are in session. The university chapel service is held on Thursdays at 1:00 p.m. The evensong modern worship service is held on Monday evenings in the lower level of the Chapel. We also offer Wednesday at the Wesley, a free lunch served in the lower level of the chapel the first Wednesday of each month. We sponsor mission opportunities. Everyone is invited to participate.

Clergy Support

There are two clergy staff persona in University-Church Relations who are available to students of all faith affiliations for pastoral care and spiritual encouragement. They work closely with our Muslim chaplain who meets these specific needs. They can also assist students find area houses of worship to connect with local faith communities. For more information, visit okcu.edu/religiouslife.

Interfaith Prayer Center

Students, staff and faculty of all faiths are invited to visit the Dr. Raniyah Ramadan Interfaith Prayer Center located on the west end of the Kramer School of Nursing building. Members of the campus may swipe their ID cards for 24-hour access to the prayer center.
Campus Life

Oklahoma City University recognizes that learning takes place in many forms and places and not exclusively in the classroom. Students are encouraged to participate in activities both on and off campus. Activities sponsored by the Division of Student Affairs and the Student Government Association are for all Oklahoma City University students and are well publicized around campus.

Students at Oklahoma City University play a large role in determining and regulating their own activities. Good student-faculty-administration relations are maintained through cooperative, responsible student leadership.

There are numerous social and academic organizations available to students on campus. When the school year begins, information is made available to all students about dates and meeting times for many organizations.

Career Services

The office of Career Services assists undergraduate and graduate students of all disciplines to blend their talent, interests, and academic achievement with the career readiness skills that will lead to success in post-graduate employment or continued education programs. Career planning and decision-making is a process that helps the undecided student choose a major, while providing a ‘plan of action’ for those who are ready for the next step. The career center combines traditional career development elements such as resume development and interview skills with career and personal education tools, so that graduates are empowered with the practical knowledge needed to transition from college to ‘real-world.’ Career Services wants every student to be confident in their ability to market key skills and experiences, and shine with a polished professional image. Students are encouraged to schedule an individual appointment to begin planning their success.

Career advisors are available to help students each step of the way.

- Self-Assessment and Career Exploration
- Individual Career Counseling
- Resume and Cover Letter Development
- Internship and Job Search Strategies
- Interview Techniques
- Online Job and Internship Posting
- Graduate School Planning
- Career Readiness Events and Workshops
- Online Student Resources
- Major Change or Selection
- On-Campus Interviews

The Office of Career Services is located in the Meinders School of Business, Suite 200. Office hours: Monday–Friday 8:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m. (405) 208-5171 or careerservices@okcu.edu

The Involved Center

The Involved Center provides information to students, faculty/staff, and campus organizations regarding events, campus involvement, co-curricular transcripts, space reservation, Orgsync basics, maintaining/starting a new student organization, flyer approval, and much more. The Involved Center is located in Room 114 of the Tom and Brenda McDaniel University Center across from the Student Leadership Center. Hours of operation are 8:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m., Monday–Friday during the school year, and 8:00 a.m.–5:30 p.m., Monday–Thursday during summer hours.

Office of Student Engagement, Inclusion and Multicultural Programs

The Office of Student Engagement, Inclusion and Multicultural Programs (SEIMP) advances, promotes, and initiates programming for campus organizations through co-curricular and community service activities and experiences, which emphasize diversity, appreciation and respect among domestic and international students, faculty, and staff. Collaboration is cultivated through supporting organizations that represent diverse students such as, Native American, Black, Hispanic, Asian, Indian, Saudi, Muslim, LGBTQIA, and other ethnically and culturally based groups. Students who participate in these organizations form lasting personal and professional relationships among students, faculty, staff, and alumni that contribute to their development as effective leaders in their respective communities.

SEIMP also administers among other programs the Clara Luper and American Indian Scholarships. These need-based programs help to provide a private college education to deserving students who may not otherwise have the opportunity. The scholarship programs demonstrate that access and opportunity are critical components necessary for underserved students to realize the goal of a private college education. The scholarship recipients are merged with members of the President’s Leadership Class to form a leadership cohort, which collaborates in academic, co-curricular, and community service projects throughout their academic tenure at OCU.
University Counseling

Counseling is a confidential process designed to help you address concerns, come to a greater understanding of yourself, and learn effective personal and interpersonal coping strategies. University counseling services are available for all currently enrolled students. Our goal is to provide short-term mental health services that will assist OCU students with emotional development, problem solving skills and decision making capabilities.

Counseling sessions are confidential, typically 45 to 50 minutes long, and are free of charge. OCU University Counseling services are short-term, meaning a client is eligible for 4–6 sessions per semester, based on individual needs. Should you need longer term services, your OCU therapist will make a referral for you. Call (405) 208-7902 to make an appointment.

Student Government Association

Student Government Association (SGA) is the governing body for all Oklahoma City University students. SGA consists of four branches: Executive, Legislative, Judicial and the Student Activities Council. This organization plans and implements a variety of activities for the campus community, appropriates money for student organizations and serves as the voice for students in university governance.

Greek Life

Oklahoma City University is home to four (4) national women’s Greek organizations: Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Phi, Gamma Phi Beta and Phi Mu, and three (3) national men’s Greek organizations: Kappa Sigma, Lambda Chi Alpha, and Phi Gamma Delta (FIJI). A few benefits of membership in a Greek organization include leadership experience, social and philanthropic activities, and opportunities to develop strong personal, supportive relationships with other members.

The Kappa Sigma and Lambda Chi Alpha fraternities are housed in on-campus facilities that include meeting space, kitchen facilities, and residential space. Fraternity house residents are subject to all campus policies and regulations. Each women’s Greek organization has a chapter space in the Nellie Melton Panhellenic Quadrangle.

The Interfraternity (IFC) and Panhellenic councils are composed of representatives from each of the active Greek organizations. These governing councils work closely with campus administrators on matters related to Greek Life at Oklahoma City University and promote positive and proactive leadership both on-campus and off-campus.

Membership in an active Greek organization is determined through a mutual selection process. Formal sorority recruitment and fraternity rush is held early in the fall semester. Other membership opportunities are available throughout the academic year. Contact the Office of Student Affairs for more information about membership eligibility or any questions related to Greek Life.

Extracurricular Activities

Varsity Athletics

Oklahoma City University sponsors a variety of varsity sports programs including men’s and women’s basketball, men’s baseball, men’s and women’s cross country/track, men’s and women’s golf, men’s and women’s rowing, men’s and women’s soccer, men’s and women’s wrestling, men’s and women’s canoe/kayak, women’s softball, and women’s volleyball. Oklahoma City University is a member of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics and the Sooner Athletic Conference. The tradition of our sports programs is known nationwide.

Cheer and Pom

Oklahoma City University offers a varsity competitive coed cheer squad and varsity competitive pom squad. The cheer and pom squads play an exciting part in the athletic department by participating at men’s and women’s basketball games and wrestling matches and at a number of other sporting events. Members of the cheer and pom squads are also involved at numerous community events throughout the year. Tryouts are held in the spring semester each year and are open to anyone interested.

Fitness Center

The Aduddell Fitness Center provides full service to a large selection of fitness equipment including state-of-the-art treadmills, ellipticals, stationary bikes, and cross-training equipment. The center also offers a wide range of free weights, stationary weight machines, and other aerobic equipment (jump ropes, steppers, etc.). Showers, day lockers, and towels are also available at the Aduddell Center.

The front desk provides a fully trained staff to answer any questions or assist students during their work outs. The staff also offers an orientation twice a week. For more information, contact (405) 208-5378.

Intramural Sports

Oklahoma City University features an intramural sports program designed to encourage interaction between students, faculty, and staff. The department provides a variety of league and tournament events. The Intramural Sports program strives to meet the competitive and recreational needs of the campus community. The department offers opportunities to maintain physical fitness while interacting with friends and classmates.

Sports offered include 3-on-3 basketball, 5-on-5 basketball, dodge ball, flag football, soccer, softball, table tennis (ping-pong), volleyball (indoor and outdoor), and kickball. For more information about Intramurals or how to register call (405) 208-5378.

Open Recreation

The Henry J. Freede Wellness Center and its Abe Lemons Arena provide the home court to many Oklahoma City University sports. The recreation department offers open recreation nights at Freede. Open recreation takes place in the fall and spring semesters. Each Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, Freede is open from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. for use by anyone who carries an OCU ID. For more information, contact (405) 208-5378.

Dance

All full-time students are eligible to audition for the American Spirit Dance Company, the Oklahoma City University Spirit of Grace Liturgical Dancers, and the Oklahoma City University Pep Dancers. Contact the American Spirit Dance Company company manager in the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment for further information. Noncredit dance classes are available through the Community Dance Center.

Theatre

All students, regardless of their majors, may audition for parts in TheatreOCU productions presented each year by the School of Theatre. Contact the School of Theatre at (405) 208-5121 for detailed audition information.

Music

University students are encouraged to participate in music activities, including performing in ensembles, taking private music lessons, and auditioning for productions. All qualified students are eligible to participate in Bass School of Music performing ensembles (Symphony Orchestra, Wind Philharmonic, Ad Astra Women’s Choir, Men’s Choir, University Singers, Chamber Choir, Jazz Ensemble, Pep Band, and various small ensembles). Auditions for Oklahoma Opera and Music Theatre Company productions are open to all students. See the director of the organization in which you are interested for further information, or call the music office at (405) 208-5474.

Student Publications

All students, regardless of their major fields of study, are invited to apply to work for the Student Publications staff. The staff publishes The Campus (the student newspaper) and MediaOUC (the student media smartphone app and website online at mediacu.com).

Publication of Student Work

All students can submit poetry, fiction, nonfiction and art to The Scarab, Oklahoma City University’s literary journal, sponsored by the English honor society Sigma Tau Delta. The undergraduate research journal Stellar accepts submissions of research papers written for undergraduate courses. Both annual publications can be viewed at okcu.edu/english/publications.aspx.

Cultural Enrichment Events

An array of music, drama, music theatre, art, literature, cinema, and lecture events occur annually on the Oklahoma City University campus. Among the cultural enrichment opportunities available and easily accessible in the Oklahoma City area are the Oklahoma City Philharmonic concerts, the Oklahoma City Museum of Art, Science Museum Oklahoma, and several theatres.
The Distinguished Speakers Series

The Distinguished Speakers Series was established to enrich the academic experience of students, faculty, and staff—and to create a Chautauqua experience that is free and open to the public. Nobel Laureates have joined a remarkable lineup of world-class thinkers, writers, and opinion-leaders who know that Oklahoma City University is where ideas are freely expressed, and learning is a continuous process of being challenged and inspired. This lecture series fulfills one of the central purposes of a university by hosting provocative speakers from a wide variety of backgrounds and multiple perspectives, which generates new thinking, productive discussions, and the rare opportunity for future servant leaders to meet some of the most remarkable human beings of our time. Previous speakers include Edward Albee, Ishmael Beah, David Brooks, Morris Dees, Marian Wright Edelman, Henry Louis Gates, Jane Goodall, Brian Greene, Robert F. Kennedy Jr., Jonathan Kozol, Rabbi Harold Kushner, Wilma Mankiller, Dunya Mikhail, N. Scott Momaday, Bill Moyers, Eboo Patel, Erik Peterson, Mark Plotkin, Sister Helen Prejean, Michael Sandel, Ann Simon, Helen Thomas, Brian Turner, Kurt Vonnegut Jr., Andrew Weil, and George Will, as well as Nobel Laureates Archbishop Desmond Tutu, Elie Wiesel, Wangari Maathai, and Jody Williams.

The Neustadt Lectures

Walter and Delores Neustadt of Ardmore, Oklahoma, established the lecture series in 1983 for the purpose of strengthening understanding of the great contributions of the Judaic religious tradition to Western civilization and thought. Scholars are invited to the campus to speak on informative themes in the area of Hebrew Scriptures, Judaic thought, and Jewish ethics and art.

The Willson Lectures

This lectureship is provided by an endowment from James M. and Mavis Willson of Floydada, Texas. The lectures are directed to the interest of students in the area of religion and society. The Willsons were outstanding members of the United Methodist Church. Their Christian vision was truly ecumenical in its outreach. Since 1953, their gift to Oklahoma City University has brought to campus speakers of international stature from the areas of religion, science, Christian theology and ethics, church history, biblical studies, and liturgical studies.

The Harbour Winn OCU Film Institute

The Oklahoma City University Film Institute offers the university and the greater Oklahoma City community the opportunity to view classic and contemporary international films. Since 1982, the institute has been screening eight to ten films per year on designated Sunday afternoons to an audience of 150 to 400 people. Each year the series focuses on a theme, and reading material on the theme and series films is available at the showings. A discussion session follows each screening. The films are also available for university courses. The film series is supported by Oklahoma City University, the Oklahoma City University Film Institute Endowment, the designated endowment in the Community Foundation of the Kirkpatrick Family Fund, and the Thatcher Hoffman Smith Endowment for the Center for Interpersonal Studies through Film and Literature. The 2015–2016 academic year will be the Film Institute’s 34th year.

The Martha Jean Lemon Lectures

These lectures are a gift from Lynette Lemon Wert and Larry H. Lemon in 2010 on behalf of the Lemon family of Oklahoma City and in honor of Martha Jean Lemon. Ms. Lemon was graduated from Oklahoma City University in 1968 with a degree in history and worked as an independent comparative religion scholar. The annual lecture series will feature speakers, workshops, or seminars on topics that promote religious leadership and service.

General Requirements for Degrees

1. Degree requirements for students will be listed in the catalog in effect at the time of their first semester at Oklahoma City University. Students who are not in attendance for two consecutive semesters will be required to complete the degree requirements listed in the catalog in effect at the time of their re-entry.

2. All students entering Oklahoma City University who have not completed ENGL 1113 and/or ENGL 1213 or a course accepted by the university as an equivalent or completed the requirements of ENGL 1113 and/or 1213 by way of examination are required to enroll in ENGL 1113 during the first semester of attendance and ENGL 1213 during the second semester of attendance. Students who opt to take the CLEP for English Composition must do so during their first semester at Oklahoma City University. See Advanced Standing Credit in this catalog for more information on CLEP (page 34).

3. Any student with an 18 or below on the ACT Reading sub-test (36th percentile) is required to take College Academic Skills (EDUC 1013) during his or her first semester of enrollment. Any student with an 18 or below on the ACT Math subtest (43rd percentile), is required to take Intermediate Algebra (MATH 1303) before completion of 60 hours and before enrolling in College Algebra.

4. The last 15 hours, including the last 6 of the major of a baccalaureate degree, must be completed in residence at Oklahoma City University. Student teaching may not be counted as the last 6 hours of an education major in this instance. A minimum of 40 hours must be completed at Oklahoma City University. A minimum of 124 hours is required for a degree.

5. Concurrent enrollment at another institution must be approved by the student’s academic dean.

6. A candidate for a degree must have a cumulative GPA of not less than a 2.00. Only courses taken at Oklahoma City University are used to compute the cumulative GPA.

7. A candidate for a degree must have completed a major with at least a C average.

8. Undergraduate degree programs at Oklahoma City University can include no more than 6 hours of credit from exercise and sport science (ESS) courses at the 1000, 1100, 1200, and 1300 levels (or equivalent for transfer work). No more than 2 of these 6 credit hours may be earned from junior varsity and varsity sports combined.

9. The dean of each school/college is responsible for ensuring fulfillment of graduation requirements for each student receiving a degree in his or her respective school/college. The school/college is the final authority in determining fulfillment of major graduation requirements for each student receiving a degree in his or her respective school or college.

10. Responsibility for meeting graduation requirements lies with the student. Students should be familiar with all requirements for a degree and the academic regulations of the university.

Second Baccalaureate Degree

A candidate for a baccalaureate degree must have a minimum of 124 semester hours. A candidate wishing to receive a second baccalaureate degree must complete a minimum of 154 semester hours. Additionally, the candidate must meet the major requirements for the second baccalaureate degree as well as any additional general education requirements not satisfied by the first degree.

Attendance and Academic Pursuit

Because education is the prime objective of the university, every student is expected to attend classes regularly unless prevented by genuine emergency reasons or by representing the university in an organized activity. Students are expected to make up all work missed, regardless of the reasons for absence. Students should keep teachers informed of the reasons for absences. It is the student’s responsibility to be informed of the attendance policy in each course in which he or she is enrolled.

Time Limits on Course Work

If any course on a student’s transcript was taken at Oklahoma City University ten or more years ago, the transcript will be evaluated by the appropriate academic dean in the same manner as a transcript received from another institution.

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is required in all aspects of a student’s relationship with the university. Academic dishonesty may not be course-specific and includes falsification or misrepresentation of a student’s academic progress, status, or ability, including, but not limited to, false or altered transcripts, letters of recommendation, registration or advising forms, or other documents related to the
Academic Honesty

Appeal period is increased to 21 calendar days when the lining the infraction of the academic honesty policy. The seriousness days after the date of the faculty member’s letter out to the faculty member’s dean within 10 university busi.

tory assignment which involved dishonesty; or recording an F (Failure) for a particular test, examination, class/labora.

Sanctions by the course in which the offense occurred. Sanctions by the faculty member may include, but are not limited to, cheating on tests, examinations or other class/laboratory work; involvement in plagiarism (the appropriation of another’s work and/or the unacknowledged incorporation of that work in one’s own); collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with another person); misrepresentation of actions; and falsifying information.

Grievance procedures found elsewhere in the catalog do not apply to the academic honesty policy procedures listed below. Law students are subject to the code of conduct published in the Oklahoma City University School of Law Student Handbook.

Course-Based Procedures

Each faculty member will include in his or her syllabus either the Oklahoma City University academic honesty policy or a reference to the website regarding the academic honesty policy. The faculty member will include in the syllabus a description of the course-based consequences if a student fails to adhere to the academic honesty policy.

If, in the judgment of the faculty member, a student fails to conform to the academic honesty policy, the faculty member shall inform, in writing, the student’s academic dean, the provost/VPAA, and the student. University Studies students are a part of the Petree College of Arts and Sciences. Sanctions for a student’s breach of the academic honesty policy vary according to the nature and the seriousness of the offense. Sanctions are at the discretion of the faculty member involved within the constraints of the course in which the offense occurred. Sanctions by the faculty member may include, but are not limited to, requiring a student to redo an assignment; recording an F (Failure) for a particular test, examination, class/laboratory assignment which involved dishonesty; or recording an F (Failure) for a final course grade.

Appeal: A student’s appeal of the charge or the faculty-imposed sanction must be made in writing and delivered to the faculty member’s dean within 10 university business days after the date of the faculty member’s letter outlining the infraction of the academic honesty policy. The appeal period is increased to 21 calendar days when the faculty member’s letter must be mailed to a student residing outside the United States. If the 10th day (or 21st day, in case of a student residing outside the United States) falls on a weekend or university holiday, the appeal is due on the next university business day.

The faculty member’s school/college will elect faculty members to serve on a faculty/student committee to hear all school/college appeals for that academic year. If a faculty member who taught the course in question is on the committee, he or she will not serve on the school/college committee for this appeal. The dean will appoint a replacement member for this appeal. If the dean taught the course in question, the appeal will go directly to the assistant provost.

There is a presumption that the faculty member’s decision is correct and, in the absence of extraordinary circumstances, shall not be changed. The faculty committee will render a decision, in writing, regarding the student’s appeal within fifteen university business days of receiving the appeal. The faculty/student committee may lessen the sanctions but may not increase the course-based sanctions. The faculty appeals committee’s decision will be final, and there will be no further appeal of the faculty member’s decision. If the student is exonerated, no further action will occur.

School/College-based Procedures

If the student chooses to appeal and the appeal is not upheld or the student chooses not to appeal the faculty member’s actions, the student’s dean has the option of adding sanctions. Consequences may include loss of school/college-based scholarship funds, community service, or dismissal from the school/college. The dean can not change the student’s grade. The dean must notify the student within 10 university business days of the decision to impose additional sanctions. The appeal process is increased to 21 calendar days when the dean’s letter must be mailed to a student residing outside the United States. If the 10th day (or 21st day, in the case of a student residing outside the United States) falls on a weekend or university holiday, the appeal is due on the next university business day.

Appeal

The student, within ten university business days after the date of the written notification of sanctions imposed by the dean of the student’s college/school, may appeal, in writing, to the assistant provost. The assistant provost’s decision is final, and there will be no further appeal.
Loss of Privilege to Withdraw From a Course

A student who has violated the academic honesty policy shall lose the privilege of withdrawing from the course in which the violation occurred in order to avoid the collateral consequences of sanctions which may be imposed by the faculty member teaching the course.

Provost/VPAA-based Procedures

The Office of the Provost will keep a file of all student violations of the academic honesty policy across the university. The assistant provost may, at his or her discretion, convene the Student Probations and Petitions Committee to consider dismissal of the student from the university for grievous or repeated violations of the academic honesty policy. The assistant provost must inform the student at least ten university business days prior to the time the Student Probation and Petitions Committee meets. The student has the right to appear before the Student Probation and Petitions Committee. The Student Probation and Petitions Committee will convene and render a decision regarding dismissal of a student from the university or other actions. The decision of the Student Probation and Petitions Committee is final and can not be appealed. Students dismissed from the university for academic honesty violations will not be eligible for readmission.

Student Discipline

Every student is expected to observe the highest standards of conduct, both on and off the campus. The university cannot accept the responsibility for the education of any student who is not in sympathy with the purposes and the regulations of the university. NOTE: In the case of Law School students, the Law School Student Conduct Code Article 2.01 governs, and such students are subject to the Law School Disciplinary Tribunal.

Oklahoma City University reserves the right to exclude any student whose conduct or academic standing it regards as undesirable, without assigning any further reason. In such cases the fees due or which may have been paid in advance to the university will not be remitted or refunded in whole or in part. Neither the university nor any of its officers will be under any liability whatsoever for such exclusion. Any student under disciplinary suspension will be persona non grata on campus except for official business.

The entire judicial structure of the university is set forth in the Student Handbook, which is available on the university website. Students are responsible for all information contained in this catalog, the Student Handbook, and all class schedules. Copies of class schedules can be obtained in the Registrar’s Office.

Academic Advisement

Academic advising is a collaborative effort between the student and academic advisor aimed at maximizing the student’s educational and life goals. By using different styles of advising, such as prescriptive and developmental, advisors may be able to assist students in recognizing their own individual, educational learning styles.

In academic advising, the role of an advisor may include being the facilitator of learning, whereby the advisor works with the student to develop decision-making and problem-solving skills. Advisors can be an information source on school policies and procedures, programs, and other resources to further help students achieve their academic and life-learning objectives. Advisors, while working with students, may play a role in making sure the students proactively participate in choosing and enrolling in the required courses necessary for graduation and obtaining a degree in their chosen field. It is understood the academic advisor works in an advisory capacity and is not responsible for the failure of the student to follow the requirements for graduation set forth in the catalog.

Every student at Oklahoma City University is assigned an academic advisor in their major area of interest, with undecided students, who are classified as university studies students, being advised by the dean of the Petree College of Arts and Sciences or his or her designee. The provost is the ultimate authority on interpretation of requirements for graduation.

GradStar Degree Audit

GradStar by DegreeWorks is a Web-based tool to help students and advisors monitor a student’s academic progress toward degree completion using their specific major and catalog. A GradStar degree audit is a review of past, current, and planned course work. It provides information of completed and outstanding catalog requirements necessary to complete a degree/major/minor/concentration. GradStar is divided into requirement blocks such as a degree block, a general education block, and a major block. Check boxes exist within each block to easily outline which courses and requirements are complete. Students can access GradStar through the Student tab in their Bluelink account.

A GradStar degree audit can be a useful tool in the advisement process. The student’s academic advisor should be contacted for assistance in interpreting the degree audit. The audit is not an academic transcript, and it is not official notification of degree or certificate completion. Students must contact their advisors regarding degree audit and official degree/certificate status.

GradStar degree audits are currently available for students who started in fall 2012 or later.
Advanced Standing Credit

Transfer credit from accredited colleges and universities or noncollegiate credits earned from the FAA, military experience, American Institute of Banking, and other approved programs are posted on a student’s permanent record after successful completion of 12 credit hours at Oklahoma City University.

Credit by Examination

The university allows capable students the opportunity to earn advanced placement and credit in selected areas by participating in various testing programs recognized by Oklahoma City University. Official scores must be submitted to the Registrar in order for credit to be awarded.

Oklahoma City University allows high school students the opportunity to earn college credit in selected areas by participating in the College Entrance Examination Board’s program of advanced placement examination. The Advanced Placement (AP) tests are administered through high schools by the Educational Testing Service. Official scores must be submitted to the Registrar for credit to be awarded.

* Credit given depending on score from qualified essay and approval of the English department faculty at Oklahoma City University.

NOTE: Students who do not pass the English CLEP test in their first semester at Oklahoma City University must enroll in English Comp I (or receive credit through transfer credit or examination) within their first three semesters at Oklahoma City University.

International Baccalaureate Scores

Oklahoma City University recognizes credit earned through the International Baccalaureate (IB) program, which is administered through selected high schools. Credit will be awarded to students who have taken “Higher Level” courses and scored at least four (on a seven-point scale) on the Higher Level course examination. The following is a list of courses for which IB credit can be earned.

* 9 credits earned with completion of upper-division course

Students graduating with an IB diploma enjoy the following benefits at Oklahoma City University:

- Early enrollment
- Honors Program consideration
- Students who complete the full IB diploma with a score of 30 or higher will be awarded up to 30 Oklahoma City University credits. These credits will be a combination of core as well as elective courses.

Students should inquire in the Office of Admissions for additional information on the acceptance of credit for AP, CLEP, IB, and OSSM. Please consult with your Oklahoma City University admissions counselor and/or the director of admissions to clarify any questions you have prior to registering or taking an advanced standing test.

Transfer of Undergraduate Credit

Acceptance of transfer credit is a twofold process. All transfer work must be from an institution that has been accredited by a regional accrediting agency. Eligibility of the transferring institution will be determined by the Registrar’s Office. Transfer of credit from institutions outside of the U.S. must be fully recognized by the appropriate accrediting body (such as the Ministry of Education) as determined by the International Admissions Office. The transfer work will then be posted on the student’s Oklahoma City University transcript by the Registrar’s Office. Posting of this course work does not guarantee that the courses have been accepted towards a specific degree. The student is responsible for requesting an official transcript from any and all other institutions. Official transcripts are defined as transcripts sent directly from one institution to Oklahoma City University. Electronic transcripts will be accepted from schools using approved secured transmission systems. The complete list of acceptable systems can be found on the Registrar’s website (okcu.edu/academic-affairs/Registrar). Any transcript marked “Issued to Student” and/or hand-carried transcripts are not considered official and will not be accepted for transfer purposes. The student is responsible for confirming that transcripts have been received by the Registrar’s Office, or for transcripts from international institutions, by the Office of International Admissions.

The applicability of any transfer credit to a specific degree is subject to the requirements for that degree. Interpretation of transfer credits is made by the chair of the department in which the comparable course is taught. Transfer credit must also meet all of the criteria outlined in the Transfer of Undergraduate Credit guidelines included below. Each student should receive a copy of a degree plan that has been prepared by his or her advisor, indicating the transferability of any or all courses.
Any student providing a transcript from an international institution is required to provide original documents for review by the International Admissions Office. Specific requirements for verifications will be determined by the International Admissions Office. The International Admissions Office may offer a preliminary review of all transfer work, but the chair of the department in which the comparable course is taught is responsible for approving transferred course work for credit toward an Oklahoma City University degree.

General Requirements for Transfer Work

1. A maximum of 84 hours of credit are accepted from other regionally accredited institutions toward a degree at Oklahoma City University. Transfer of credit from institutions outside of the U.S. must be fully recognized by the appropriate accrediting body (such as the Ministry of Education) as determined by the International Admissions Office. (A maximum of 68 credit hours are accepted from two-year college-level institutions.) Applicability of any transfer credit to a specific degree is subject to the requirements for that degree. Interpretation of transfer credits is made by the dean of the specific school or college. See the School of Adult and Continuing Education section in this catalog and the R.N.-to-B.S.N. program description for their policies on transfer of undergraduate credit.

2. Transfer courses for which the Oklahoma City University curriculum has no specific equivalent, but which meet the aims and spirit of specific Oklahoma City University general education requirements, will be reflected on a student’s Oklahoma City University transcript under the following course designations. Courses so designated will meet the noted general education requirements. To receive general education credit for particular courses that have not yet been evaluated by Oklahoma City University, the student must provide specific documentation of each course’s content with the transfer petition form to the appropriate department or program chair for evaluation. The chair will determine whether to award specific general education credit and will notify the registrar of that decision.

3. Students with a baccalaureate degree from another regionally accredited college or university may transfer up to a total of 94 credit hours in pursuit of an additional baccalaureate degree from Oklahoma City University.

4. Credit for military service may be granted in accordance with recommendations of the American Council on Education. Credit for military service, transfer work, AP, IB, CLEP, and OSSM credit are posted to a student’s permanent record after successful completion of 12 credit hours at Oklahoma City University. Credit for military service combined with transfer credit from regionally accredited institutions, AP, IB, CLEP, and OSSM credit is not to exceed 84 credit hours.

5. Once a student matriculates at Oklahoma City University, the student must petition the dean of his or her specific school or college prior to enrollment to apply credit hours taken at other regionally accredited colleges or universities towards an Oklahoma City University degree. After matriculation at Oklahoma City University, students may take no more than 12 hours as a transient student. These hours combined with transfer hours accepted before matriculation are not to exceed a total of 84 credit hours. Students participating in a study abroad program following matriculation may earn up to 30 hours of study abroad transfer credits for a pre-approved program. The study abroad hours do not count toward the 12 transient hours.

6 Oklahoma City University will accept traditional or online courses for transfer with the exception of lab science, foreign language, and public speaking. These courses must be completed in traditional course format for the credit to transfer.

7 Students wishing to transfer college credit to Oklahoma City University must have at least a 2.00 GPA.

8 A grade below a C- or a 1.75 on a 4.00 scale (or its equivalent) will not transfer. Pass/Fail/Satisfactory grades are not eligible for transfer credit unless they are assigned a numeric value that can be converted to the 4.00 grading scale. Pass/fail/satisfactory grades may be credited if the institution only assigns pass/fail/satisfactory grades to a course.

9 International students may not receive credit for English as a Second Language courses taken at U.S. colleges, and students may not receive credit for English language courses taught in countries where the medium of instruction is a language other than English.

10 Students seeking admission with fewer than 29 hours of college credit will be subject to the same admissions requirements as first-time freshmen, and their college transcript(s) must show a 2.00 GPA or better.

Students with credit from Honors courses will receive an additional 0.25 points. The grading system is for all undergraduate and graduate students.

Credit/No-Credit

The credit/no-credit option is available within the approved guidelines of each school. Please review the specific guidelines for each major to determine the eligibility of courses to be taken for a credit/no-credit grade. NOTE: Students must receive a letter grade for all courses taken to fulfill general education requirements. Courses taken with a credit/no-credit option do not fulfill the requirements of the general education curriculum.

The credit/no-credit option may only be selected from the time of pre-enrollment for the semester until the final day to drop courses without a transcript record (see academic calendar). Once this deadline has passed, the option to request a credit/no-credit grade is forfeited. A student must earn a C- or better to earn credit in the course. Students must obtain permission and the signature of the instructor in whose course they wish to earn a credit/no-credit grade. The instructor has the right to refuse students the option of a credit/no-credit grade. A separate credit/no-credit request form is available from the Registrar’s Office.

Auditing Courses

An Oklahoma City University student may audit a course (excluding courses offered by the School of Law) by attending class sessions and completing classroom assignments. No examinations are taken and no credit is given. The student transcript carries the designation AU. The AU designation, once approved, may not be changed to a letter grade. Audited courses do not satisfy degree requirements. If a student determines that an audited course is needed to fulfill a major requirement, the student must repeat the course and earn a letter grade.
A student may audit only if permitted by the appropriate school or department policy and on a space-available basis. Students may not audit individualized academic experiences such as internships, directed study, independent study, music lessons, dance instruction, etc. Audited courses will not be considered in a student’s normal semester load.

Procedure

The audit option can only be selected through the second Friday of the regular semester and through the first Thursday after three class days of a summer session. Once the time period is over, the option to audit a course is forfeited. Students must obtain permission and the signature of the instructor whose course they choose to audit. An instructor has the right to refuse to permit students to audit a course. Students registered to audit a class are not guaranteed a space until after the time period. A separate audit form is available from the Registrar’s Office.

Fees

Students are assessed a nonrefundable audit fee. Fee schedules are available from the Student Accounts Office. Audit fees are not part of the structure for block tuition charges and will be assessed in addition to regular tuition charges.

Adding Courses

For the fall and spring semesters, courses may be added through the first Friday after four class days of the semester without instructor approval. Courses added after the first Friday after four class days and through the second Friday after nine class days may be added only with instructor approval. Courses may not be added after this date. For the first and second summer terms, courses may be added through the first two class days. Courses added after the first two class days and through the Thursday after three class days may be added only with instructor approval. Courses may not be added after this date.

Dropping Courses

The final date to drop a course is listed in the academic calendar. Students dropping courses before the final drop date will receive a W (withdrawal). After the final drop date, the instructor must assign a grade of WP (withdrawal passing) or WF (withdrawal failing) for the course. A grade of WF will be calculated into the student’s grade point average as a failing grade. If a student needs to drop a course or courses after the final drop date for documented health reasons, he or she may request to be assigned a grade of WH (withdrawal for health reasons) rather than a WP or WF; a grade of WH will not be calculated into the student’s grade point average. For grades of WP and WF, after receiving instructor approval, the student then must receive approval from his or her advisor, academic dean, and the assistant provost before the change in class schedule can be processed. For the grade of WH, the student or his or her designated representative must present appropriate documentation and a formal petition for approval to his or her instructor, advisor, academic dean, and the assistant provost. No course may be dropped after the last day of classes.

Courses dropped through the 100 percent refund date will not appear on the student’s permanent record. Changes in class schedule become effective on the day the form is processed by the Registrar’s Office.

A 100 percent tuition adjustment is made for varying time periods beginning with the published first day of class. After this period, there will be no further adjustments. The time periods vary. See Tuition Adjustments for more information. Student attendance in a course does not affect the tuition reduction. The date the completed form is processed by the Student Accounts Office is the determining factor.

Withdrawal

A student who is completely withdrawing from the university must obtain a withdrawal form from the Office of the Registrar, International Student Office, Financial Aid Office, or his or her dean’s office. Once this form is properly completed and processed through the Office of the Registrar and the Student Accounts Office, the withdrawal becomes effective on the date it is validated by the Student Accounts Office. A “WP” (withdrawal passing) or “WF” (withdrawal failing) will be assigned for each course. Nonattendance of classes does not constitute official withdrawal. Withdrawal will be permitted up to and including the final regular day of classes for all semesters or terms. No withdrawals are permitted during finals week.

Incomplete Courses

When a course is not completed by the end of the semester or summer session, an instructor may assign an incomplete (I) at his or her discretion. The student must be performing at a passing level and have a legitimate reason to receive an “I.” Students cannot be assigned an “I” because they have excessive unexcused absences or because they are failing the course. Academic units and faculty members may establish their own policies regarding legitimate reasons to assign the “I” grade.
At the time that the incomplete is issued, the instructor will submit information which specifies what work must be done to remove the “I” and the grade to be assigned if the work is not completed. This information is made available through the on-line system. The student is responsible for submitting the work by the deadline assigned by the instructor, not to exceed one year. If the “I” is not completed by the specified deadline, the grade will convert to the grade assigned by the professor.

In the event that a faculty member is no longer available, appropriate faculty shall be assigned by the dean or department chair to determine the grade.

Credit Hour

The credit hour or semester hour, terms used interchangeably, is the unit of instruction. One credit hour is constituted by a minimum of one hour of classroom or direct instruction and a minimum of two hours of out-of-class student work each week for a semester (or its equivalent). An equivalent amount of work (minimum three hours per week for a semester of its equivalent of combined direct instruction and outside of class student work) must be represented for a credit hour in other academic activities such as laboratory work, internships, practica, studio work and other academic work. Semester is defined as not less than sixteen weeks. Courses offered in shorter time frames must have an equivalent number of hours dedicated to instruction and student work as that spent in a semester-based class.

Grade Points

Grade point totals are calculated by multiplying the number of credit hours of a course by the number of points for the corresponding grade received. A student’s GPA will be determined by dividing the total number of grade points earned at Oklahoma City University by the total number of hours attempted at Oklahoma City University. At Oklahoma City University, the official GPA will be rounded to the third decimal place. The grades of W (withdrawal), WA (administrative withdrawal), WH (withdrawal health), WP (withdrawal passing), CR (credit), NC (no credit), I (incomplete), or NR (not reported) are omitted in counting grade points. The grade of WF (withdrawal failing) will be calculated into the grade point as a failing grade. Courses for which a grade of CR, W, WA, NC, I, and NR are received will not be calculated in the total number of hours attempted for the purpose of calculating the GPA. (For the purpose of determining a student athlete’s eligibility for participation in varsity and junior varsity athletic competitions, the student athlete’s GPA must meet all applicable standards of all appropriate institutions including the conference, the athletic association, and the university, using each institution’s methodology for calculating GPA.)

Repetition of Courses

An undergraduate course taken at Oklahoma City University in which the original grade was C+ or below, including a WF (withdrawal failing), may be repeated only once unless special permission for an additional opportunity to repeat the course is received from the dean of the student’s school. To repeat an undergraduate course, the course content must be the same as the original course (at the discretion of the faculty), and the course must be repeated at Oklahoma City University. The higher grade will be calculated in the student’s GPA. The lower grade will be recorded on the transcript as an R (repeat) and excluded from the student’s GPA. The higher grade will be posted in the semester earned and included in the GPA. It will be noted on the transcript which grade has been excluded from the GPA. If special permission is granted to repeat a course more than once, only one grade of R will be recorded to the student’s transcript. The second and any subsequent grades will remain and averaged into the GPA. A student is permitted to repeat a maximum of eighteen semester hours or six different courses, whichever is higher. Grades of W, WP, WH, or AU are not included in the eighteen hours of repeat.

Course Numbering Systems

The first digit in each course number indicates the academic level at which the department places the course (1 — freshman level, 2 — sophomore level, 3 — junior level, 4 — senior level, 5–9 — graduate level). The second digit, in combination with the third, gives the course a unique number within its department and academic level. The second digit may be used to indicate sequence where two or more courses dealing with the same subject matter are sequential in arrangement. The third digit indicates the type of course. The type indicated by specific numbers varies from school to school. The fourth digit indicates the number of semester hours credit assigned to the course. “I” following a course number denotes courses open only to international students for whom the first language is not English. “H” following a course number denotes courses for Honors students only. Permission of the Honors director is required for enrollment in these courses. “SA” following the course number denotes a course that includes a study abroad component.
Courses numbered 1000–4999 are for undergraduate students; 1000–2999 courses are freshman and sophomore level courses; 3000–4999 courses are junior and senior level (upper division) courses. Graduate students who are satisfying program prerequisites or otherwise remedying deficiencies may, with approval, enroll in undergraduate courses, but will not receive graduate credit for such undergraduate course work.

Courses numbered 5000–9999 are for graduate credit in graduate degree programs; 5000–5999 courses are graduate courses that may be dual-listed with upper division undergraduate courses; 6000–6999 courses are not open to undergraduate students. Courses numbered 7000–9999 are restricted to doctoral students; 9000–9999 courses are for independent study (such as research, thesis, or dissertation) and are restricted to doctoral students. The School of Law establishes its own course numbering policies.

Final Examinations

Final examinations are held in all courses upon the completion of each semester’s or term’s work. No one is to be excused from the final examinations. All classes will meet during the time stipulated by the Registrar’s Office for final examinations. Students who have three final examinations scheduled on the same day may seek permission from either their instructors or their academic dean to have one exam rescheduled for another day within final examination week.

Course Cancellation Policy

The decision to cancel a course due to insufficient enrollment, faculty overload, or other circumstances will be made by the dean of the school offering the course in consultation with the instructor of the course. After notifying the Office of the Registrar of the cancellation, the dean will inform students enrolled in the course.

Departmental Independent Study

Most departments within the university provide independent study, typically one to six hours of credit toward the major. This opportunity enables a student to expand the academic experience beyond the courses listed in the curriculum of a department by creating, in cooperation with the instructor and the chair of the department, special courses of interest to the student. It also allows the expansion of the student's educational experience into research and analysis of data, particularly advisable for those planning to undertake graduate study. The student may undertake independent study courses in blocks from one to six hours, but normally independent study courses are for three hours in a given semester.

Classification

A student who has fulfilled entrance requirements and is working toward a degree is designated as a classified student. Such a student will be classified as a freshman until 29 semester hours have been completed, as a sophomore if 30–59 semester hours have been completed, as a junior if 60–89 semester hours have been completed, and as a senior if more than 90 semester hours have been completed.

Student Academic Load

The minimum full-time academic load during the fall or spring semesters is 12 credit hours. Each school and college at Oklahoma City University may determine the maximum number of credit hours in which its undergraduates may enroll. For schools and colleges permitting maximum enrollments exceeding 18 credit hours, academic advisors are responsible for setting the credit hours for which an advisee may enroll, based on considerations that include, but are not limited to, a student’s general academic record, semester and cumulative grade point averages, and demonstrated ability to successfully complete heavy academic loads. Each school/college will inform the registrar of its overload policy including the number of credit hours that will require dean’s approval. Students may not enroll in more than 22 credit hours for fall or spring semesters. A student whose GPA for the semester is below 2.00 will carry no more than 12 semester hours in the subsequent semester.

A student employed as much as twenty-five hours per week should carry an academic load at least three semester hours below the normal full-time load. If the student is working twenty-five to thirty-five hours per week, the academic load should be reduced six semester hours below the full-time student. If the student is working more than thirty-five hours per week, not more than one-half the normal full-time load of semester hours should be carried.

A student wishing to enroll at another institution concurrently with an enrollment at Oklahoma City University must have prior approval of the dean of his or her school. Students receiving veteran’s education benefits also must notify the Registrar’s Office immediately to ensure that the required documents are submitted to the Veterans Affairs Regional Office.

Grade Reports

Midsemester grades are made available to students through the Web-based BlueLink system. Final grade
Reports are posted only through BlueLink unless the student has requested in writing to the Office of the Registrar that grades be mailed to a specific address.

Records and Transcripts

All permanent records are in the Office of the Registrar. Requests for grades, transcripts, and diplomas should be made to that office.

A student who completes the requirements for a degree cannot be issued a complete transcript or a statement that the requirements have been completed until the end of the semester or term in which he or she is registered for credits needed for the degree. Students who complete the requirements for a degree prior to the next graduation date may secure from the Office of the Registrar a statement that the requirements for the degree have been completed.

For transcripts with coursework completed after 1986, students may submit requests electronically using their student account login or by mail or fax. A transcript request form is available on the university website. Students requesting transcripts with all coursework prior to 1986 may submit a transcript request providing as much of the following information as possible in a written letter (missing information may delay the processing of a request):

- Full name (as it is now and as it was when enrolled at Oklahoma City University, if different)
- Student ID number and/or social security number
- Date of birth
- Current address and phone number
- Full address(es) where transcript(s) are to be sent
- Dates of attendance
- Year of graduation and degree (if applicable)
- Student signature (a requirement of the Federal Educational Rights and Privacy Act)

Send transcript requests to: Oklahoma City University Office of the Registrar, Attn: Transcripts, 2501 N. Blackwelder Ave., Oklahoma City, OK 73106. Requests may be faxed to (405) 208-6047. Students should sign each faxed request and call the office at (405) 208-5298 to verify that the fax was received. We do not fax or email transcripts.

We do not charge for individual transcripts; however, there will be a limit of five transcripts per day issued to a student. An exception may be made when the student provides individual addresses for transcripts to be sent directly to other institutions. If a student requests more than twenty transcripts per month to be sent to a person and/or institution, there will be a $6.00 charge for each additional transcript. Any special handling, such as a U.P.S. charge, will have to be prepaid. Transcripts are not processed if the student has an outstanding financial obligation to the university. Students should call the Student Account Services office at (405) 208-5146 or go to the Student Account Services window on the third floor of the Clara E. Jones Administration Building to check on their financial status. Students are required to show photo identification when picking up their transcript. If a transcript is to be released to a third party, written authorization from the student is required. Parents may obtain their student’s transcript with written authorization including the student’s signature, or a signed affidavit stating that the student is their financial dependent according to IRS regulations. Any questions regarding transcripts or student log-in should be addressed to registrar@okcu.edu.

Grievance Procedure for Grade Appeal

A grade awarded by the course instructor is presumptively correct, and the instructor’s determination is generally final. Other than for mathematical or data entry errors, no final grade can be changed except on proof of exceptionally egregious circumstances as defined below.

If a student has reasonable grounds to believe that a final grade received or final academic judgment made with respect to him or her in any course or program of study was based on violation of established university policies, procedures, or regulations, substantial error, bias, or miscarriage of justice, the student may, within ten school days of the receipt of the final grade, initiate a grievance. School days are defined as Monday through Friday when classes are in session, excluding breaks, final exam periods, and holidays. Grievance procedures for students attending programs outside the United States must be faxed or emailed within twenty-eight calendar days in order to meet the remainder of the deadlines. The process is composed of both informal and formal procedures.

I. Informal Grievance Procedure

A The student should communicate with the instructor in an attempt to resolve the issue.

B If, after communicating with the instructor (or if, after reasonable effort on the part of the student to contact the instructor, she or he remains unavailable), the student still believes that the grade is based on violation of established university policies, procedures, or regulations, substantial error, bias, or miscarriage of justice, the student may take the grievance to the chair of the department in question. The chair will attempt to mediate the dispute. If there is no chair or the chair taught the course in question, the student should proceed to section II.
II. Formal Grievance Procedure

A Only if the issue is still unresolved after meeting with the chair of the department, as outlined in section I, the student may initiate the formal grievance process with the dean. NOTE: If the dean taught the course, the assistant provost will undertake the dean’s responsibilities in the grievance procedure. The levels of action are clearly defined and include strict time limits designed to effect speedy resolution. No formal appeals procedure will be enacted if six months or more have elapsed since the incident. It is the responsibility of the student to initiate the process and follow it through. Failure of the student to move the appeal forward in the specified time limits will terminate the appeal.

1 The student will first present his or her appeal to the dean of the college or school. The appeal will be in writing, in as much detail as possible, stating all aspects of the issue that the student feels pertinent. Grounds for review are limited to violation of established university policies, procedures, or regulations, substantial error, bias, or miscarriage of justice. Copies of pertinent material in the student’s possession or access will be included as appropriate.

2 Upon receipt of the material provided in section I, the dean will determine, within five school days, if the student has a prima facie case. If the dean determines that insufficient evidence has been presented by the student, he or she will dismiss the appeal. If the dean determines that there is evidence that, if believed, would constitute a prima facie case, the dean will provide, within ten school days of this determination, a copy of the written material to the faculty member in question. The dean will request a written response that details as completely as possible the position/opinion of the faculty member on all issues raised. Copies of exams, assignments, grade books, or other relevant information will be submitted with this response. The instructor will have ten school days in which to prepare his or her response.

3 The student will be given the opportunity to review the instructor’s response and to provide additional written comments to the dean. This response will be given within five school days of the receipt of the faculty member’s response to the dean. The dean will then render a decision on the appeal within five school days. The dean or his or her designee has the right to request, from any party, any additional information he or she feels is pertinent and appropriate. However, the request for information will not extend beyond the five-day response period above. Unless the dean determines that sufficient evidence exists to support the student’s allegation, the dean will deny the appeal. The dean has the authority to deny the appeal or forward the appeal to the assistant provost, who will convene the Student Probation and Petitions Committee. The dean does not have the authority to change the grade, but may make a recommendation to the committee.

B Either the student or the faculty member may appeal the dean’s adverse decision within five school days of the receipt of the dean’s decision by giving written notice of intent to do so. Upon such written notice to the dean, the dean will forward copies of all material to the assistant provost, who will convene the Student Probation and Petitions Committee, which must meet within ten school days of receipt of the appeal. NOTE: If the faculty member who taught the class involved in the appeal is a member of the Student Probation and Petition Committee, the faculty member must recuse him or herself from the committee during the appeal. The committee will review all documentation and will reach a decision. The committee may request additional documentation if it feels it is appropriate to do so and may adjourn until the documentation is available. Both parties have the right to appear before the committee; however, to the fullest extent possible, the decision will be based on the written documentation provided. The committee will uphold the originally issued grade unless it finds substantial evidence of violation of established university policies, procedure, or regulations, substantial error, bias, or miscarriage of justice. The committee’s decision will be rendered as soon as practical after receipt of the documentation, but must be rendered within thirty days.

C If the committee determines that the above-described process has not been followed correctly, the committee will order a rehearing of the case following the correct process.

D The decision of the committee is final.
Academic Probation and Suspension

Academic Probation

To remain in good academic standing, a student must maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.000 or higher. Any student whose cumulative GPA falls below 2.000 will be placed on academic probation. A student placed or continued on academic probation must maintain a 2.000 GPA in 12 hours of regularly graded course work (excluding activity and/or performance courses not required for the major) each semester until she or he attains the retention GPA. Upon raising her or his cumulative GPA to meet the retention requirement, the student will be removed from academic probation.

Only students who are in good academic standing may participate in extracurricular activities. Extracurricular activities are defined as activities such as athletic competitions, artistic performances, and academic competitions that are not required by the student’s course work or major program. Students who are not in good academic standing will be prohibited from representing the university in the participation in intercollegiate athletic events, artistic performances except as required for their course work or degree requirements, and intercollegiate academic contests. Traveling with athletic teams, performance groups, or academic teams also will be prohibited.

Academic Suspension

Academic suspension occurs automatically when a student who was placed on academic probation the previous semester either fails to raise his or her GPA to the retention requirement or fails to achieve a 2.000 semester GPA in at least 12 hours of regularly graded course work (excluding activity and/or performance courses not required for the major). Any student suspended for academic reasons cannot be reinstated until one full academic year has elapsed unless upon appeal the Student Probation and Petitions Committee grants immediate reinstatement. Students wishing to appeal suspension should inquire about procedures and deadlines from the Office of the Registrar. Any student who is reinstated to the university will re-enter on probation and must achieve a minimum semester GPA of at least 2.000 in a minimum of 12 regularly graded hours each semester until he or she succeeds in meeting the retention GPA requirement appropriate to his or her classification. Once the retention GPA requirement is met, the student will be removed from probation.

University Academic Dismissal

Readmission Policy for Students Dismissed for Poor Academic Performance

A student dismissed from the university for academic reasons who chooses not to appeal the dismissal and wishes to reapply to the same program must wait one full academic year before applying for readmission. The latest date by which readmission requests must reach the Office of the Registrar in order to be considered for earliest possible readmission will be indicated in the letter of dismissal. Official transcripts and records of academic work completed during the period following the dismissal must be included along with the request for readmission. The Student Probation and Petitions Committee will review any request for readmission. Requests for readmission will be reviewed prior to the semester in which the student is eligible to re-enroll.

At the time of dismissal, the student will be informed of possible avenues to pursue, such as additional academic course work from other postsecondary institutions. This information will be communicated in the dismissal letter sent from the Office of the Registrar. Official transcripts and records of academic work completed during the period following the dismissal must be included along with the request for readmission. The Student Probation and Petitions Committee will review all requests for readmission. Requests for readmission will be reviewed prior to the semester in which the student is eligible to re-enroll.

Suspended seniors (students with 90 or more hours in a specified degree program) who fail to meet either the 2.000 retention GPA or the semester GPA of 2.00 may enroll in an additional 12 semester hours (excluding activity and/or performance courses not required for the major) in a further attempt to achieve the requirements for retention. Seniors will be afforded this extension only one time. This extension applies to seniors enrolled in more than six hours. Seniors enrolled in six or fewer hours will be placed on academic suspension after two successive enrollments with less than the required GPA for their classification.

The university reserves the right to place on academic warning a student whose semester grades fall below a 2.00. The academic warning letter will indicate what the student needs to do academically to retain a good academic standing with the university.
Appeal of Academic Dismissal

A student has the right to appeal academic dismissal due to substandard academic performance. The student may, within fourteen days, excluding official university holidays, of the receipt of the written notice of dismissal, initiate an appeal in the following manner:

1. The student must submit a written appeal to the registrar. The appeal should have as much detail as possible, stating all aspects of the issue that the student thinks pertinent. It is the responsibility of the student to initiate the process and follow it through. Failure of the student to move the appeal forward in the specified time limit will terminate the appeal.

2. After making a determination that the appeal is filed in a timely manner, the registrar will convene the Student Probation and Petitions Committee to consider the student’s appeal within ten school days of its receipt. School days are defined as Monday through Friday, when classes are in session, excluding breaks, final exam periods, and official university holidays. The Student Probation and Petitions Committee will review all documentation and reach a decision on the appeal. The committee may request additional documentation and may postpone the hearing until that documentation is available. The student has the right to appear before the committee; however, to the fullest extent possible, the decision will be based on the written documentation provided.

3. The committee may affirm the decision to dismiss, overturn the decision to dismiss, or qualify the decision to dismiss.

4. If the committee affirms the decision to dismiss, the provost may review the documentation to determine that these procedures were followed. The provost review will only address procedural matters.

5. The assistant provost will notify the student within three school days of the decision of the committee.

NOTE: This procedure applies to all departments and schools within the university except the School of Law. Appeals of academic dismissal in the School of Law are heard by the Law School’s Petitions and Retention Committee under the procedures and regulations set forth in the Law School’s Student Handbook. Decisions of that committee are final, except that the president may review the documentation solely to determine that due process has been followed.

Graduation Procedures and Commencement

Degree candidates, in the latter part of their junior year, should check with their advisor on their progress in satisfying graduation requirements. Students who plan to graduate should file an application for graduation in the Registrar’s Office before the deadline specified in the academic calendar.

There are three graduation dates (fall, spring, and summer) and one commencement ceremony (May). Students completing degree requirements in the fall participate in the following May commencement ceremony. Students completing degree requirements in the spring term participate in the May commencement ceremony following the end of that term. Students completing degree requirements in the summer terms participate in the May commencement ceremony of that same calendar year. All students should complete the application for graduation by the appropriate deadline published in the academic calendar.

A student on track to complete degree requirements in the fall semester of the following academic year may participate in the May commencement ceremony of that calendar year. To do so, the student must request permission from the Academic Affairs Office before the application deadline published in the academic calendar.

Completion of any degree-required comprehensive exam is not a requirement for participation in the commencement ceremony.

Before filing the application for graduation, each candidate should contact his or her academic advisor to initiate a final degree review. A final degree certification must be submitted to the Registrar’s Office by the appropriate dean. Consult the appropriate pages under education for the requirements pertinent to certification.

A candidate for a degree must have a cumulative GPA of not less than 2.00 for the degree to be conferred. Only courses taken at Oklahoma City University are used in calculating the GPA. Responsibility for meeting graduation requirements lies with the student.

The date recorded on a diploma will be the conferral date following the semester or summer session in which the student completes all requirements for the degree based on the last day of the course(s). The date recorded on a diploma for a degree with a required comprehensive exam will be the next conferral date after all requirements, including any comprehensive exams, have been successfully completed.

The Office of the Provost coordinates the commencement ceremonies for the university. Graduates are required to wear the appropriate cap and gown to participate in the ceremony. The only cords or stoles permitted to be worn with a graduate’s academic dress during the ceremony are those awarded by the university or honor societies of the university.

Graduation Honors

The university recognizes the academic achievements of its candidates for degrees by the following honor awards:

Summa Cum Laude
A cumulative GPA of 3.90 with a minimum of 80 hours of graded courses at Oklahoma City University

Magna Cum Laude
A cumulative GPA of 3.75 with a minimum of 60 hours of graded courses at Oklahoma City University

Cum Laude
A cumulative GPA of 3.50 with a minimum of 60 hours of graded courses at Oklahoma City University

Courses that are nongraded or graded as credit/no-credit may not be included in the minimum hour requirements. To determine honors candidates for the commencement ceremony, the GPA and the hours accumulated through the semester prior to commencement will be calculated. For the official honors designation which is placed on the transcript and the diploma, the final semester’s hours and grade points are included. Only the GPA of hours completed at Oklahoma City University will be used in the calculation of graduation honors eligibility.

Letzeiser Medals
For the three senior men and the three senior women with the highest GPA. One hundred-five Oklahoma City University graded hours or a combination of Oklahoma City University graded hours and Oklahoma City University approved hours from AP, CLEP, IB, and OSSM, are required for the award. Transfer hours and advanced standing hours accepted by other institutions will not be included toward the 105 hours.

Cum Honore (University Honors Program)
Completion of 25 hours of Honors courses with a 3.50 cumulative GPA and an Honors GPA of 3.25.

University Honors

President's Honor Roll
All undergraduate students are eligible for this honor provided they meet the following requirements: (1) enrolled for and completed a minimum of 12 graded hours for the semester; (2) have not received any incomplete, no-credit, or unsatisfactory grades for that semester; (3) receive a current semester GPA of 3.90 or above.

Dean's Honor Roll
All undergraduate students are eligible for this honor provided they meet the following requirements: (1) enrolled for and completed a minimum of 12 graded hours for the semester; (2) have not received any incomplete, no-credit, or unsatisfactory grades for that semester; (3) receive a current semester GPA of 3.50-3.89.

Phi Kappa Phi
The mission of Phi Kappa Phi, an all discipline national honor society, is “to recognize and promote academic excellence in all fields of higher education and to engage the community of scholars in service to others.” Undergraduates, graduate students, faculty, professional staff, and alumni are eligible for membership. The organization is more than 100 years old, and election is by invitation only.

Blue Key Honor Fraternity
Membership is by election. Second-semester sophomore standing or above and a cumulative GPA of 3.40 or above are required.

Junior Marshals
Junior men and women are chosen for this honor on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and character by the faculty of the Petree College of Arts and Sciences, Meinders School of Business, Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment, Bass School of Music, Kramer School of Nursing, School of Theatre, and the Wimberly School of Religion.

Oklahoma City University Leadership Award
Outstanding senior man and woman in the Petree College of Arts and Sciences, Meinders School of Business, Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment, Bass School of Music, Kramer School of Nursing, School of Theatre, and Wimberly School of Religion are chosen for this award.

Who’s Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges
An annual publication in which the biographies of outstanding undergraduate students on American campuses are included. Students are selected by the Student Retention Committee. Both graduate and undergraduate students may participate.

University Honors Program

The mission of the University Honors Program is to provide enhanced educational opportunities to challenge academically gifted undergraduate students in any major. The program cultivates open-mindedness and progressive deepening of purpose.

Each new class of Honors students at Oklahoma City University is a special community of scholars. Students have the opportunity to become acquainted with one another and the Honors program in the Honors Liberal Arts Seminar, a course required for all new Honors students during their first year in the program. Honors students have opportunities to meet with visiting scholars and participate in special events. As part of a network of honors programs through the National Collegiate Honors Council and the Great Plains Honors Council, students may present research at national and regional honors conferences and participate in exciting summer and semester programs.

To qualify for the University Honors Program, an incoming first-year student must have a minimum 27 ACT. The admission process requires that a student answer two essay questions determined by the Honors Committee. On-campus recruitment occurs during the fall semester with the application process including verification of current and past Oklahoma City University grades to meet a 3.50 minimum GPA, recommendations from two Oklahoma City University instructors, and submission of two brief essays. The Honors Committee selects members of the program.

Transfer students are eligible to become members of the University Honors Program if their cumulative GPA is 3.5 or higher. Students may count up to 12 hours of transfer work for Honors credit provided the hours have been accepted for credit by Oklahoma City University, the hours were designated “Honors” at the former institution, and the former institution is a member in good standing in the National Collegiate Honors Council.

The requirements to graduate with University Honors Program honors (Cum Honore) are completion of 24 hours of Honors courses with a 3.50 cumulative GPA and an Honors GPA of 3.50.

World House Scholars Program: Peace, Social Justice, and Ecological Sustainability

The World House Scholars Program at Oklahoma City University aspires to be a premier liberal arts program for preparing students to engage in lives of social and ecological responsibility. The name of the scholarship is inspired by speeches of Dr. Martin Luther King, in which he referred to the world and all its peoples as a great World House, in which we all work together to live in peace.

All World House Scholars participate in service-learning projects each year; complete courses addressing issues of peace, social justice, and ecological sustainability; and are required to complete at least one approved international education experience while at Oklahoma City University. Each World House Scholar will receive a $1,500 annual scholarship ($500 of which contributes to the international education experience), renewable for up to four years of study. All World House courses may be taken for Honors credit to allow scholars to participate in both the World House Scholars Program and the University Honors Program.

Required Courses:

- Peace and Non-Violence
- Poverty and Social Justice
- Sustainability and the Environment
- Environmental Science or Principles of Ecology
- World House Senior Research Seminar
- Must have at least one approved international education experience before graduation

Undergraduate Research (C.A.I.R.S.)

Oklahoma City University actively supports student research in its many forms, including creative activities, inquiry, research and scholarship. Studies suggest that student engagement in research activities is important to develop “soft skills” such as critical thinking, creativity and problem solving that are valued by employers and that add worth to our graduates’ personal lives and professional careers.

Students will find that faculty members often use components of C.A.I.R.S. as part of class assignments, however OCU also offers opportunities for students to work directly with faculty members as faculty conduct their own original research to answer important questions in a wide variety of disciplines. Students are encouraged to seek out faculty members who share an academic area of interest. Faculty members will join with students to provide mentorship in more sophisticated research activities as they conduct their academic studies. These research activities allow our students to receive training that can open doors to advanced degree programs or research careers from the hard sciences to the social sciences, business, religion and more. Further opportunities include summer research grants, poster and paper research competitions, publications in student research journals, travel to research presentation conferences, and even joint faculty/student research publications in scientific journals. All majors are welcome to participate. For more information contact any faculty member or Dr. James Guzak at the Meinders School of Business.

The Washington Center Internship Program

Oklahoma City University’s partnership with The Washington Center (TWC) provides students with opportunities for full-time internships in the nation’s capital. The program provides a unique combination of benefits: a structured program for which students receive academic credit from Oklahoma City University; an extensive internship tailored to the interests of the student, whatever his or her major; and a varied selection of course work, lectures by national and international leaders, small group meetings with members of Congress, embassy visits, and workshops. TWC maintains ties with thousands of organizations—governmental, nonprofit, and corporate—that can provide high-quality placements in the Washington, D.C., area. Internships run a wide gamut of interests and opportunities. The student selects from fifteen different thematically organized programs (for example, Congress, mass communications, NAFTA, business and information technology, law and criminal justice, among others). Internships are available for all majors, and the placement sites provide tremendous opportunities to work for corporations such as Citibank; government sites such as the EPA, the White House Office of Public Affairs, Congress, or the Smithsonian; or mass communications placements at CNN or USA Today.

TWC offers internships year round. Students with a 3.00 GPA or higher may apply after the completion of their sophomore year and receive 9 to 12 hours of credit. The timing of the semester’s internship and the number of credits to be received must be preapproved by the student’s departmental advisor. Internships generally are assigned 3 to 6 hours of credit, TWC course work earns 3 hours, and the student may earn another 3 hours of credit for portfolio work assigned by a center supervisor and approved by the student’s departmental internship advisor.

TWC provides safe, attractive, and conveniently located housing in high-rise apartments in northern Virginia. Program supervisors counsel, place, supervise, and plan activities for interns during their semester. The center also offers students many opportunities to explore the cultural vitality of Washington. For information, contact the director of career services at (405) 208-5171.

Oklahoma Scholar-Leadership Enrichment Program (OSLEP)

Oklahoma City University students are encouraged to participate in the Oklahoma Scholar-Leadership Enrichment Program (OSLEP), an intercollegiate, interdisciplinary program designed to enhance the learning opportunities for Oklahoma’s outstanding college and university students. The program is sponsored by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education and administered by the University of Oklahoma. Oklahoma City University students may apply for the program through Oklahoma City University.

Small groups of college and university students selected from across the state study with distinguished visiting scholars. The intensive four-day seminars, which focus on a special topic, provide students the opportunity to develop a personal relationship with a world-famous scholar and to make lasting friendships with students from around the state. Students are provided books and room and board as part of the program. For more details on upcoming seminars, visit the OSLEP website at oslep.org or contact the Oklahoma City University Honors Program Director at (405) 208-5680. Honors Program students may receive Honors credit for OSLEP seminars, but Honors status is not a requirement for participation in OSLEP.

International Education

Oklahoma City University recognizes that an understanding of other cultures, languages, and global issues has become increasingly significant in the education of tomorrow’s leaders. The university aims to integrate the campus into this interconnected world by providing opportunities for students to internationalize their educational experience, encouraging faculty to expand their own international experiences and internationalize their curriculum, and facilitating global awareness campus-wide.

Study Abroad Opportunities

At Oklahoma City University, students may travel to many countries with the intent of studying the language and culture, pursuing their required academic coursework, or completing an internship. Students may participate in study abroad programs spanning ten days to an academic year.

Eligibility Requirements:

- A minimum 3.00 cumulative GPA to participate in academic year or semester study abroad programs. Students with a 2.50 to 2.99 GPA will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
- Successful completion of at least two full-time semesters or the equivalent (30 credit hours) at Oklahoma City University.
- Overall good standing at Oklahoma City University.
- Demonstrated foreign language proficiency for programs where English is not the official language of instruction.
- Completed online application and enrollment process, including attendance at a predeparture orientation.

Reciprocal Exchange

Reciprocal exchange programs allow Oklahoma City University students to pay Oklahoma City University tuition and fees but study at a foreign institution. Federal, state, and institutional aid are applicable toward tuition costs associated with reciprocal exchange programs as determined by the Office of Financial Aid.

Oklahoma City University currently has exchange agreements with the following institutions:

Argentina—Universidad del Centro Educativo Latinoamericana (UCEL)

Students may study Spanish and/or pursue regular course work in English or Spanish at UCEL, the first Methodist-affiliated university in Argentina. UCEL is located in downtown Rosario, Santa Fe, 300 km northwest of Buenos Aires, Argentina’s capitol city. Prerequisite: Minimum of four semesters of college-level Spanish or the equivalent to enroll in courses taught in Spanish.

Austria—Alpen-Adria University at Klagenfurt

Students interested in studying in Klagenfurt will find intensive language classes in German and Italian, as well as a variety of classes taught in English. The university is located in the capitol city of the beautiful southern province of Carinthia, nestled in the Tyrolean Alps next to the Worthersee Lake. Venice, Italy, is only a short train ride to the west and Vienna, Austria, is four hours due north. Carinthia is a charming example of the Austrian countryside, with welcoming people and a long history. Prerequisite: None for most courses taught in English; four semesters of college-level German or Italian for language study.

Belgium—The Institute for Higher Education Communication Studies (IHECS)

Since 1958 the Institute for Higher Social Communication Studies (IHECS) in Brussels has organized training in the field of journalism and communication by linking media theory and practice together. Oklahoma City University students interested in mass communications and/or French studies typically spend the fall semester at IHECS studying language, culture, European marketing, current affairs in the European Union, and hands-on courses in photography, video or television, or multimedia. Those with sufficient French language may select courses from the IHECS full catalog. Prerequisites: None, though study of French is highly recommended.

Brazil—Methodist University of Piracicaba

A United Methodist institution located just two hours from Sao Paulo, the Methodist University of Piracicaba allows students to enjoy life in a smaller Brazilian city. Students may study health sciences, natural sciences, humanities, communication, pre-law, business, and management in Piracicaba. All courses are taught in Portuguese. Prerequisite: Intermediate Portuguese or Advanced Spanish. Junior standing.
Brazil—Universidade Metodista de Sao Paulo (UMESP)
One of the largest universities in Brazil, UMESP offers international students opportunities to study health sciences, communications, software and environmental engineering, business administration, philosophy, and languages. International students are encouraged to participate in extracurricular activities that include music, sports, and capoeira, a Brazilian martial art. Students are also encouraged to participate in volunteer activities in and around Sao Paulo. Prerequisite: Successful completion of at least Intermediate I Portuguese or the equivalent.

England—Edge Hill University
Edge Hill University, named the United Kingdom’s University of the Year in 2014, has long been a favorite study abroad destination of Oklahoma City University students. Edge Hill University provides high quality education in the liberal arts, business, education, mass communications, film studies, and the performing arts. Its impressive outdoor facilities include rugby, soccer, and cricket fields and a full-size running track, tennis courts, a double gymnasium, and a swimming pool. The picturesque residential campus is conveniently located in northwest England just a short distance from Liverpool and Manchester, two of England’s major centers for the arts. Prerequisites: None.

Germany—Saarland University
Saarland University is a modern university within the Saar-Lor-Lux region – a dynamic part of Europe defined by the shared borders between Germany, France and Luxembourg. An international perspective is a defining feature of Saarland University, with 17 percent of its 18,500 enrollment comprising international students. Located in a pleasant woodland setting, the university campus offers students a broad range of sporting and cultural activities, which together with the numerous cafés and restaurants make the campus an ideal place to relax between lectures. A high-speed train links allows students to be in Paris in just two hours. Oklahoma City University students with little or no German may take intensive language courses (German and/or French) and a selection of liberal arts courses taught in English. Students capable of studying in French or German, will have a wider selection of courses from which to choose. Prerequisites: None, though German or French language skills are recommended.

Japan—Ritsumeikan University (RITS)
RITS offers undergraduate and graduate courses in areas such as law, social sciences, economics, international relations, and Japanese language studies. RITS comprises three university campuses, all part of the Oklahoma City University exchange program. Most students choose to study on the Kyoto campus for a semester or academic year and select from over 500 courses taught in English. The name Ritsumeikan means “the place to establish one’s destiny,” offering students the opportunity to learn within an education system committed to cultivating individuality and internationalism simultaneously. Prerequisite: None.

Japan—Aoyama Gakuin
Students who have reached near fluency in Japanese language (N5 on the JPLT) and who want to live and study in Tokyo, may spend a semester or academic year at Aoyama Gakuin studying English, history, Japanese language and literature, fine and performing arts, film and video, education, psychology, economics, business, international relations, communications, and cultural and creative studies. Prerequisite: N5 on the JPLT and junior standing.

Taiwan—Soochow University
Students may enroll in an array of courses taught in English while studying Mandarin language at Soochow University, which boasts two locations in the heart of Taipei. The schools of arts, science, and foreign languages and cultures are located near the national palace while the schools of law and business are located in the downtown Chung Cheng district, the political and commercial center of Taipei. Prerequisites: None.

Partner Programs
Partner programs exist so that students may enroll in an international institution through Oklahoma City University. Tuition and fees vary by program and are paid to Oklahoma City University. Some institutional financial aid and scholarships may be considered and utilized for program costs.

Danish Institute for Study Abroad (DIS) – Denmark
DIS is a specialized Danish institution offering study abroad programs in English for primarily American university students in their third or fourth year of study, with credit transfer to their home school. Established in 1959, DIS has a reputation of being intense, demanding, and rewarding, and of providing a challenging educational environment in a full-service framework. DIS offers site-specific courses and programs involving interactive and cooperative learning processes, individual and team-based research, experiential learning through course-integrated field studies and study tours, and housing with the Danes. All courses, except the Danish Language and Culture class, are taught in English. Prerequisite: None.
John Cabot University (JCU)—Italy

Situated in the heart of Rome within walking distance of Vatican City and the Colosseum, JCU is a four-year, U.S.-accredited undergraduate university that offers a variety of study abroad programs taught in English. Students may enroll for a semester, summer, or academic year. Courses are available in art history, business, communications, history, political science, and several other areas that fit within Oklahoma City University’s majors. Prerequisite: None.

Faculty-led Study Tours (short-term)

Oklahoma City University’s academic departments offer a range of international study opportunities for credit each year. Some typical faculty-led classes/study tours include natural history and ecology courses in Central and South America through the Department of Biology; the British media comparison class through the mass communications department; the Celtic Christianity course taught in Ireland through the School of Religion; and the Advanced Shakespeare course in London through the School of Theatre.

Faculty-led study tours are priced individually and budgets are published before the time of enrollment. Enrollment for summer programs generally opens in late October to early November and closes in February.

Affiliated/Approved Programs

Oklahoma City University students have studied in many countries including Australia, Chile, Ecuador, France, Ireland, Italy, Jordan, Qatar, Russia, South Africa, and Spain through third-party study abroad providers or other U.S. university programs. Oklahoma City University holds affiliation agreements with private study abroad organizations such as Academic Programs Abroad (API), Global Semesters, the School for International Training (SIT), the Council on International Educational Exchange (CIEE), The Education Abroad Network (TEAN), University Study Abroad Consortium (USAC), and CIS Abroad. The advantages for Oklahoma City University students to study abroad through one of the affiliated programs are that they expand the options available to our students, and Oklahoma City University students are eligible to apply for affiliate scholarships. Generally, state and federal financial aid may be used toward semester-long program costs.

Global opportunities at Oklahoma City University expand each year. Students can keep informed of developing and upcoming international education opportunities by exploring the study abroad website; visiting the study abroad fair held each semester and information sessions offered frequently on campus; contacting Oklahoma City University departments and faculty; or by scheduling an appointment with the director of global engagement at (405) 208-5270.

The Center for Interpersonal Studies through Film & Literature

The center’s mission is to develop creative programs through film and literature that engage individuals on the intuitive and experiential levels to understand themselves and others across time and space. Begun in 1997, the center brings a distinguished creative person to the campus each year. Poets Jimmy Santiago Baca, Lucille Clifton, Carolyn Forché, Mark Doty, Claudia Emerson, Joy Harjo, Jane Hirshfield, Li-Young Lee, Michael Ondaatje, Naomi Shihab Nye, Terence Hayes, Tracy K. Smith, and Richard Blanco, as well as Poet Laureates Billy Collins, Natasha Trethewey, Ted Kooser, Charles Simic, and Robert Pinsky have been featured. Marie Howe will be the poet in April 2016. The center also develops an annual documentary film series each spring; develops for the university and community an archive collection of quality videos and DVDs along with viewing suggestions and some lesson plans for grade school through university-level teachers; conducts field trips to Oklahoma City University for teachers and students from upper elementary through high school to view and discuss distinguished films; holds a book discussion series for the university and Oklahoma City community; collaborates with other campus and metropolitan organizations to support and encourage different groups to work together on creative projects; and contributes to the support of The Center for Interpersonal Studies through Film & Literature. The director teaches university courses related to the mission of the center, as well as courses in the English department and the Moving Image Arts Program. The Thatcher Hoffman Smith Endowment Fund and an advisory committee support the development of the center.
Student Support Services

Dulaney-Browne Library

Oklahoma City University supports two libraries: the Dulaney-Browne Library and the Law Library. While the collections and services of both libraries are available to all university students, faculty, and staff, all non-law-related library materials and services are provided through the five-story Dulaney-Browne Library building in the center of the campus.

The Dulaney-Browne Library provides access to thousands of high quality research resources for Oklahoma City University students, faculty, and staff. Library resources and services are available in the library or through the library’s Web page (okcu.edu/library) and include more than 215,000 books, 8,600 videos and DVDs, 47,600 full-text online periodical titles, 5,600 compact disc recordings, 13,400 musical scores, and 135,000 electronic books. Reference librarians provide assistance in finding information in the library, over the telephone, via the internet, and by text message. Librarians also offer formal instruction to individuals and groups in the use and evaluation of information resources. Additional library resources include the Archives and Special Collections (including the University Archives, the Oklahoma United Methodist Archives, and the Shirk Oklahoma History Center), the Foundation Center Cooperating Collection, the Center for Interpersonal Studies through Film and Literature Film Collection, and the Leichter Listening Library (in the Wanda Bass Music Center).

The library building is also the home of the Learning Enhancement Center and the Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning.

The library cooperates with other libraries in Oklahoma and around the world to provide students, faculty, and staff with access to their collections through OK-Share (a cooperative library card for Oklahoma academic libraries) and interlibrary loan (delivery to the library user of articles and books from other libraries).

Please contact the library at (405) 208-5068, (405) 445-3636 (text), or AskALibrarian@okcu.edu; or visit during regular library hours (Monday–Thursday 7:30 a.m.–midnight, Friday 7:30 a.m.–7:00 p.m., Saturday 10:00 a.m.–7:00 p.m., and Sunday noon–midnight) for more information.

Computer and Information Resources

Campus Technology Services maintains a centrally-located, area dedicated to aid students with their computer issues on the lower level of the McDaniel University Center. The Student Technology Support Center is staffed by trained technicians familiar with both Microsoft and Apple operating systems. The center offers a variety of student support services including:

- Walk-in and telephone support
- Technology-related consultation
- Hardware and software support
- Virus and malware removal
- Installation of campus-licensed software applications such as Microsoft Office and Essentials (virus protection)
- Assisted hardware upgrades
- Training
- A computer-based issue and support tracking system

Finding a computer to use on campus is easy with 16 computer labs in various locations spread conveniently across campus. Lab hours vary by location. MS Office, MS Visual Studio, and Web browsing capabilities are installed in each lab, and several labs have course specific software available. Printing services are available in all public-access labs as well as all public computing spaces on campus. Each semester students receive an allotment for printing via their OCU ID cards. All students are issued a user ID and password, which are required to log into the campus network to use the labs and access printing services.

Email accounts are provided to all students. Email can be accessed through the internet from any location on or off campus. Additionally, all students are provided disk space on the campus network to store files and create Web pages.

All residence hall rooms are wired for telephone and network connectivity. To have a telephone line activated, contact Telecommunications at 208-5100. Dorm residents may connect one wired computer or network device at a time to the campus network from their dorm rooms. A limited number of computers are available in each dorm lobby. Wireless network connectivity is available throughout the campus as well as within the dorm rooms.

Additional information for the Student Technology Support Center regarding student computing, lab hours and locations, support and questions can be found at starnet.okcu.edu/services/cts/geeks or by calling (405) 208-5555.

The university’s computer-use policy is published on the university website at okcu.edu/technology. All students should read this policy to find information about devices that are authorized and supported for connection in dorm rooms.

Learning Enhancement Center (LEC)

The LEC offers a variety of free services to students, such as one-to-one tutoring in most areas of the curriculum.
Tutoring sessions are approximately fifty minutes long. The LEC also helps instructors by proctoring tests that are given outside of the traditional class time period.

Students may discuss any aspect of their papers with tutors, and tutors may assist with specific areas suggested by faculty. Specialized assistance is available for the visually impaired. Selected PCs located in the LEC are equipped with screen magnification software.

Tutors also work with international students on English conversation and idioms.

The LEC is open Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Computers (PCs and Macs) are available. The LEC is located in the Dulaney-Browne Library. Students may schedule appointments online at okcu.edu/students/tutoring or by calling (405) 208-5040.

Campus Disability Services

Campus Disability Services is located in the Dulaney-Browne Library 106C. We are dedicated to providing for the needs of students, staff, and OCU patrons who have disabilities. Reasonable modifications in the classroom, on campus housing, facilities around campus, and within our campus library will be provided for students with documented disabilities. Assistive technology for people with vision impairments and learning disabilities is available. Students with disabilities who wish to access services must initiate their request by contacting the Campus Disability Services Office. To contact Campus Disability Services, please email or call the Coordinator for Campus Disability Services, Jenny Minsberg at jlminsberg@okcu.edu or (405) 208-5895.

ELS Language Centers

Oklahoma City University provides international students instruction in the English language through the ELS Language Center located on campus.

The Intensive English for Academic Purposes (EAP) program at ELS Language Centers' provides thirty hours of instruction per week to move a student quickly to the goal of university entrance. New sessions begin every four weeks, and students are tested and placed in one of twelve levels. The intensive EAP course is a complete English program including classes in structure/speaking, reading, writing, vocabulary and other supported learning in the Language Technology Center (LTC), and special-interest subjects.

ELS Language Centers’ is accredited by the Accrediting Council for Continuing Education and Training (ACCET) and by the Oklahoma State Board of Regents for Higher Education. For information regarding this service, contact ELS Language Centers’ (405) 525-3738, visit els.edu, or email okc@els.edu.

Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps Program (AFROTC)

Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC) is a nationwide program that allows students to pursue commissions (become officers) in the United States Air Force (USAF) while simultaneously attending college. AFROTC classes are held on college campuses throughout the United States and Puerto Rico; students can register through normal course registration processes. AFROTC consists of four years of Aerospace Studies classes (Foundations of the USAF, Evolution of USAF and Space Power, Air Force Leadership Studies, and National Security Affairs/Preparation for Active Duty), and a corresponding Leadership Laboratory for each year (where students apply leadership skills, demonstrate command and effective communication, develop physical fitness, and practice military customs and courtesies). College students enrolled in the AFROTC program (known as “cadets”) who successfully complete both AFROTC training and college degree requirements will graduate and simultaneously commission as Second Lieutenants in the active duty Air Force.

The AFROTC program is currently offered at the University of Oklahoma (OU), but they have a crosstown agreement that allows Oklahoma City University students to enroll in AFROTC and become full-fledged cadet participants. For more information on AFROTC descriptions, please review catalog.ou.edu/current/ROTC.htm and for more information on the AFROTC program at OU, please review our detachment Web page: ou.edu/rotc/air-force.

Cooperative Program in Military Science Army ROTC

Two-, three- and four-year programs are available to Oklahoma City University students through a cooperative agreement between Oklahoma City University and the University of Central Oklahoma (UCO). This allows students to commute to UCO and attend Army ROTC classes while continuing to pursue their degrees at Oklahoma City University.

Through the Army ROTC Program, the Department of Military Science offers two programs to qualified male and female students leading to a commission as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army, the Army Reserves, or the Army National Guard.
The Four-Year Program

The four-year program consists of a basic course and an advanced course. The basic course (MS I and II) is normally taken in the freshman and sophomore years. This instruction introduces the student to national defenses, mission and organization of the U.S. Army, role of the Army officer, leadership, military courtesy and customs, marksmanship, mountaineering, survival, and map reading. Classes meet two hours per week. Wearing a uniform and attending leadership lab is optional. Basic course students are under no military obligation.

The advanced course (MS III and IV) is normally taken during a student’s junior and senior years. For admission to the advanced course as an ROTC cadet, a student must have completed or received placement credits for the basic course and signed a contract. Advanced course contracting is selective and based on specific criteria, including leadership potential.

Instruction includes leadership development, group dynamics, management tactics, and administration. Classes meet three hours a week. The advanced course includes a three-hour biweekly leadership lab period, physical conditioning classes, and a five-week ROTC Leadership camp.

Contracted students receive a monthly stipend (freshmen, $300; sophomores, $350; juniors, $450; seniors, $500) during the school year. Contracted cadets agree to accept a commission as a second lieutenant, if offered, upon advanced course and degree completion to fulfill an initial obligation in either the active Army, Army National Guard, or Army Reserve.

The Two-Year Program

The two-year program involves only the advanced course as described above. Students may qualify for the two-year program by attending a five-week ROTC basic camp or by being granted credit for prior military service or high school junior ROTC. Eligible graduate students may participate in the two-year program.

General

1. Oklahoma City University students who enroll in any of the four military science courses will receive academic credit which will satisfy elective hours required for Oklahoma City University degree completion.

2. Enrollment in basic course classes will not incur a military obligation.

3. Students taking the University of Central Oklahoma military science courses will pay the current tuition and fee rates required by University of Central Oklahoma.

4. Grades and credits for the completion of ROTC courses will be transferred to the student’s permanent record at Oklahoma City University.

5. Oklahoma City University students will also have an equal opportunity to compete for two-, three-, and four-year ROTC scholarships, which will pay tuition and laboratory fees for both Oklahoma City University and University of Central Oklahoma courses as well as provide $600 per semester toward the cost of books. Scholarship students also receive monthly subsistence pay (freshmen, $300; sophomores, $350; juniors, $450; seniors, $500) for the duration of the scholarship. Army ROTC scholarship students are also awarded a standard room in Banning, Draper, Harris, Smith or Walker Halls and a board plan valued at $1700 that includes 150 meals plus a $200 Stars Bucks allowance.

6. Those students interested in participating in ROTC while belonging to a Reserve or National Guard unit may do so under the Simultaneous Membership Program.

For additional information, call the Department of Military Science at the University of Central Oklahoma, (405) 974-5167.

Military Science Courses Descriptions

(All military science courses are offered by the University of Central Oklahoma in Edmond, Oklahoma.)

1102 Basic Military Science I (fall)
An introduction to the U.S. Army: its organization, missions, customs, courtesies, benefits, and reserve officers’ training corps leadership training. Also provides instruction on basic land navigation skills and survival skills.

1132 Basic Military Science I (spring)

Vision, Goals, and Objectives

The Vision of General Education

At Oklahoma City University, we believe that the liberal arts form the basis for learning and thinking in undergraduate students. We believe that general education should not only provide knowledge and skills, but also promote personal values and communal development. We believe that general education should be multidimensional, cumulative, and integrated throughout the university through all disciplines and at all levels.

Principles and Objectives of General Education

Each student must:

1. Develop fundamental thinking skills, including the ability to critique, analyze, solve problems creatively, and both discover and effectively use information;
2. Acquire a broad base of knowledge, including the arts, history, languages, literature, mathematics, philosophy, religion, and both the natural and social sciences;
3. Acquire the capacity to communicate well, orally and in writing, both personally and publicly;
4. Cultivate the capacity to recognize and reflect upon ethical issues;
5. Use their knowledge and skills to assist others in our wider communities;
6. Be exposed to cultural perspectives other than the student’s own.

General Education

Requirements for All Undergraduate Majors*

The basic general education curriculum is a requirement for all undergraduate degrees at Oklahoma City University. Particular programs and majors may add additional courses as a part of their liberal arts core. Students should check with their advisors for additional courses.

Updated lists of courses approved by the General Education Committee are available on the university website.

* All undergraduate students who matriculate fall 2012 or later will complete this general education curriculum. Undergraduate students who matriculated before fall 2012 may choose the fall 2012 general education curriculum, but must do so by September 30, 2012. This is a one-time decision.

University Requirements for All Undergraduate Majors

Service-Learning

Students must complete at least one service learning course. Students may choose from a list of approved courses which include a service-learning component. The class schedule for each semester contains a section of approved service-learning courses. This requirement may be met by taking a service-learning course which satisfies another requirement, by selected approved internships, or through approved individual service-learning experiences that include an academic component.

Petree College of Arts and Sciences

History

The Petree College of Arts and Sciences traces its origins to the founding of the university. Oklahoma City University was established in 1904 and was then known as Epworth University. At that time the College of Arts and Sciences was the heart of the university, and many of the degree programs that operate today, over a century later, were begun at that time. The College of Arts and Sciences was reorganized as the College of Liberal Arts in 1925 and was known by that name until 1954, when the name College of Arts and Sciences was adopted once again. In 1981, in honor of former OCU Board of Trustee member F. M. Petree and his wife, Thelma, the college was renamed the Petree College of Arts and Sciences. Busts of F. M. and Thelma Petree are on display in the lobby of the Walker Center for Arts and Sciences. The college underwent extensive reorganization in 2009, including reuniting with the Wimberly School of Religion, and the creation of the School of Adult and Continuing Education, the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences, and the School of Visual Arts.

Mission

The historic mission of the Petree College of Arts and Sciences has been and continues to be centered on providing the essential liberal arts and sciences foundation for Oklahoma City University. The faculty of the Petree College is committed to offering career-focused undergraduate, graduate, and professional degree programs that build on a reputation for academic excellence, emphasizing the intellectual and moral development of our students in a nurturing environment that assures the maximum development of each student’s unique potential. The Petree College accepts as central to its mission responsibility for providing the foundation in critical reading, writing, and thinking skills; developing aesthetic sensitivity and moral awareness; and implementing the service-learning components of the general education program for all undergraduate students across the university.

General Education Requirements for All Undergraduate Majors

The basic general education curriculum is a requirement for all undergraduate degrees at Oklahoma City University. See the General Education section of this catalog (page 57–58) for specific courses and requirements. Updated lists of courses approved by the General Education Committee and the assistant provost are available on the university website.

In addition to the university’s general education curriculum, Petree College of Arts and Sciences B.A. degrees require completion of an Intermediate II level of a foreign language. Students in the Wimberly School of Religion may fulfill this requirement with six hours of one modern language and six hours of one Biblical language. Religion students who double-major within the Petree College of Arts and Sciences may also use six hours of modern language and six hours of Biblical language to fulfill the foreign language requirement for both majors. The B.S. and B.F.A. degrees require 6 hours of a single college-level foreign language or the equivalent.

For additional requirements beyond those included in the general education curriculum, students should consult their advisors and review the following pages for information specific to their school and major within the Petree College of Arts and Sciences.

Credit/No-Credit Grading

Students in the Petree College of Arts and Sciences are required to be evaluated on the traditional grading system for all general education courses and all courses taken in their majors. A maximum of 12 credit hours of elective courses may be taken on the credit/no-credit grading system.

Independent Study Opportunities

Several kinds of opportunities for independent study and the earning of credit in nontraditional ways are available at Oklahoma City University. Students with appropriate academic maturity are encouraged to take advantage of these opportunities.

Most departments within the college provide directed reading and independent study options for 1 to 6 credit hours toward the major. Some departments also offer practicum and internship opportunities. These courses offer students the chance to extend their learning outside the boundaries of the classroom and beyond the traditional curriculum. All these types of courses are established through individual learning contracts created between the student, his or her instructor, and the department chair. The contract must be on file in the Office of the Dean prior to registration in the course. These courses are designed primarily for majors in the department and are normally offered only at the junior and senior levels. Students should consult their department chairs for specific opportunities in their majors.
Adult Degree-Completion Program

The Petree College of Arts and Sciences offers, through the Adult Degree Completion Program, an alternative way to achieve a Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies or Bachelor of Science in Behavioral Studies.

The program is designed to meet the needs and busy schedules of full-time working adults, who are self-directed and highly motivated. The best candidate for this non-traditional format is an adult over age 21, who has completed approximately 30–60 credit hours or more from regionally accredited institutions. Adult students are presented with a variety of alternative learning formats that include 16- and eight-week classroom courses, eight-week Web-based courses, weekend courses, and interactive video courses.

Prospective students are evaluated on an individual basis for transfer of credit hours prior to admission so that both the institution and applicants agree that this is the appropriate program for them.

The Adult Degree Completion Program offers degrees as rigorous as the traditional B.A. or B.S. degree program, it generally differs from the traditional degree structure:

- Adult Degree Completion Program allows, where applicable, the use of nontraditional course study or other advance standing credits to fulfill degree requirements.

Adult General Education

Consistent with the vision and goals of general education within the Petree College of Arts and Sciences, the general education requirements of the Adult Degree Completion Program are designed to provide adult students with a broad foundation of knowledge for critical and creative thinking, grounded in strong ethical convictions and situated within the awareness of a culturally diverse world.

The following area requirements apply to all undergraduate majors in the Adult Degree Completion Program:

Communication Skills (6–9 hours)
Oral Communication (3 hours required)
English Composition (3 hours required)

Math, Science, and Technology (9–15 hours)
(At least one course from three subcategories)
Computer Literacy
Life Sciences (3 hours required)
Physical Sciences (3 hours required)
Research Methods
Mathematics

Social and Behavioral Sciences (9–15 hours)
(At least one course from three subcategories)
American History (3 hours required)
American Government (3 hours required)
Economics
Psychology
Sociology
Cross-cultural Studies

Humanities (6–12 hours)
(At least one course from two subcategories)
Art
Literature
Modern Languages
Music
Performing Arts
Philosophy
Religion

Wellness (2–3 hours)
(At least one course from each subcategory)
Wellness
Physical Education
Health Related

In addition to the general education and liberal arts requirements listed above, the concentration in mass communications has the following specific requirements:

Required Courses Credit Hours: 18
MASC 1113 Introduction to Mass Communications 3
MCPM 2003 News Writing and Reporting 3
MCAD 2213 Principles of Advertising 3
MCBC 2103 Introduction to Broadcasting 3
MCPR 2313 Principles of Public Relations 3
MCBC 2213 Broadcast Writing I 3

(Up to 24 hours of electives can be taken in additional mass communications courses to give students the equivalent of a traditional mass communications major.)

Credit Hours in General Electives to Total: 124

Bachelor of Science Degree

Currently, the Adult Degree Completion Program offers the Bachelor of Science with a major in behavioral studies.

Behavioral Studies (B.S.)

Major Requirements Credit Hours: 36
POLS 2513 International Relations 3
PSYC 2303 Statistics for Behavioral Sciences* 3

The Bachelor of Arts, Liberal Studies Major with a Concentration in Mass Communications Program Taught in Singapore

The B.A. degree with a major in liberal studies and concentration in mass communications (BAMC) is a 45 credit hour degree completion program currently offered only in Singapore. The program consists of 18 credit hours of mass communications courses (the minimum required on-campus for a concentration) and 27 credit hours of general education courses. Students in this program must earn a total of 124 credit hours (approved transfer credits combined with the courses specified below) to receive their Oklahoma City University degree.

School of Liberal Arts and Sciences

The School of Liberal Arts and Sciences at Oklahoma City University was established in 2009 during a reorganization of the Petree College of Arts and Sciences. Historically, the name College of Liberal Arts was used at Oklahoma City University from the mid-1920s until 1954. The return to this historically significant name represents a desire to emphasize the role that the liberal arts and sciences play at Oklahoma City University. Liberal arts is a term derived from the Latin, artes liberales. Here the word Art does not mean art as we currently understand the term, but refer to the branches of knowledge that have been taught in schools for the past 2000 years, the language arts (literature, history, philosophy, etc.), mathematics, and the natural and behavioral sciences. Liberal (Latin liber, meaning free) refers to the purpose of education in these areas, which is to prepare citizens to “…live responsible, productive, and creative lives in a dramatically changing world” (excerpted from the 1998 Statement on Liberal Learning, Association of American Colleges and Universities). Including the word Science in the name of the school emphasizes the role that science plays in the modern world, and reflects the importance of the science degree programs to the university.

The School of Liberal Arts and Sciences encompasses the most diverse group of faculty at Oklahoma City University and is the largest school within the Petree College of Arts and Sciences. The school currently consists of fourteen departments organized into four divisions. These departments together offer Bachelor of Art and Bachelor of Science degrees in over forty majors, and they cooperate to offer interdisciplinary majors in such areas as humanities, and research and data analysis. Most departments also offer minors in their field of study. In addition to offering a wide variety of degree programs, the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences provides a large portion of the courses that are required in the undergraduate general education curriculum.

General Education Requirements

All students completing majors in the Petree College of Arts and Science must complete the university general education curriculum. See the General Education section of this catalog for specific courses and requirements (pages 57–58). In addition, all students completing majors in the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences must complete the following additional general education requirements, referred to as the Liberal Studies Core.

School of Liberal Arts and Sciences Liberal Studies Core

Course or Area:
- PHRH 1103 Public Speaking or (PHRH 1001 taken three times)
- BIOL, CHEM or PHYS Laboratory Science (any 4 hour laboratory science course)

Inquiry Across Cultures
(choose one option from the following):
- A third course in the same foreign language (total of 3 courses in the same language)
- Study abroad or an approved immersion experience in a U.S. diversity-related learning experience.
- A course specifically designed to deal with issues of diversity in the U.S. or global issues from interdisciplinary perspectives (see your advisor for a list of approved courses).

Courses cannot be taken to count toward both the cross-cultural component of the University General Education and inquiry across cultures of Liberal Studies Core.

University Studies

Director of Student Success and Retention: Denise Binkley

Not every student is prepared to choose an academic major when they begin college. For that reason, Oklahoma City University has established its university studies (UNST) program, which serves as the academic home for students who have not declared a major in one of Oklahoma City University’s degree granting programs. Any new student who chooses to do so may simply declare himself or herself to be a university studies student (or undecided) upon admission to the university, subject to the limitations published below. University studies students will be advised by the director or the assistant director of student success and retention of the Petree College of Arts and Sciences.

Together with the university studies program, Oklahoma City University offers new students a variety of experiences and services that can help them adjust to college life and to decide on an academic major. Upon declaring an academic major, an advisor in the school or program where the major is offered will be assigned and the student will then be required to meet the requirements of that school or program.

University Studies Regulations

1. University studies is not an academic major or a degree program.
New students may maintain university studies status for only one academic year, or until they have completed 30 credit hours of course work at Oklahoma City University, except for transfer students as noted below. After that time period has elapsed, students must select an academic major.

Transfer students who have previously completed 30 credit hours or more of college course work may not declare themselves to be university studies students.

All university studies students must enroll in FYAS 1001 Arts and Sciences Freshman Seminar, MGMT 1001 Business Connection, MGMT 2001 Sophomore Business Connection, or another approved alternative “freshman orientation” type of course offered for college credit at Oklahoma City University.

For more information, contact undergraduate admissions.

Biology

Chair: Gaudin
Faculty: Buchanan, Kauffman, Mullen, Ryburn, Stancampiano

Biology (B.S.)

Biology Education (B.S.)

Cell and Molecular Biology (B.S.)

Biomedical Sciences (B.S.)

The Department of Biology offers four distinct majors and degree options to assist students in achieving their career and personal goals. Satisfactory completion of courses in the major and general education course work, plus additional electives to total at least 124 credit hours, are required to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree. In addition to course work in biology, all students who major in the Department of Biology must complete additional specified chemistry and physics courses. The department offers a traditional biology major, a major in biology education, a cell and molecular biology major, and a major in biomedical science.

Each of the four B.S. degree programs offered in biology provide a broad liberal arts background as well as thorough training in biological sciences. A biology degree provides education and training for individuals who will work in careers such as medicine, biology education, research, health-related fields, forestry, animal care, wildlife management, naturalist positions, outdoor education, and many more. The Department of Biology recognizes the value and contributions of the sciences in the modern world and continually strives to provide programs of study and advising that will enhance a student’s future life, whether he or she plans to pursue further graduate or professional studies or to enter the job market immediately following graduation.

B.S. Biology

Our traditional major, this program offers a thorough grounding in the biological sciences. Because of its flexible design, this major prepares students for a variety of career paths, including graduate studies and careers in nature and the environment.

B.S. Biology Education

This major is ideal for students who plan to teach biology at the secondary level (grades 6 through 12). This program provides a solid foundation in biology and includes all the education courses required for secondary licensure and certification.

B.S. Cell and Molecular Biology

Our most specialized and rigorous major, the cell and molecular biology major prepares students to pursue careers in medicine, dentistry, or pharmacy and is well suited for students who intend to pursue graduate studies in fields such as genetics, cell biology, and molecular biology.

B.S. Biomedical Science

Our human-centered major, this program of study provides a solid foundation in biology, chemistry, and physics course work to help prepare students for many careers in allied health.

Chemistry

Chair: Prilliman
Faculty: Engebretson, Nail

Chemistry is the study of matter by applying conceptual and mathematical models of atomic and molecular behavior to our observations of the physical world. Students in chemistry develop strong analytical skills, the ability to reason abstractly, and the ability to creatively solve difficult problems. These skills help chemistry majors go on to be successful in many fields including medicine, pharmacy, dentistry, research, and the law.

The Department of Chemistry offers four Bachelor of Science degree programs: biochemistry, chemistry, chemistry education, and biochemistry, pre-pharmacy. The department offers a minor in chemistry. The B.S. in chemistry provides the traditional preparation in the chemical sciences, while the biochemistry degree is an interdisciplinary program in chemistry, biology, and biochemistry. The biochemistry, pre-pharmacy degree is designed for those planning to attend pharmacy school. The chemistry education degree prepares students to become licensed high school chemistry teachers. The chemistry minor is strongly suggested for students of other majors who are interested in bettering their quantitative and conceptual skills in preparation for a medical profession.

Oklahoma City University chemistry and biochemistry graduates have a long tradition of admissions to M.D. and Ph.D. programs. Graduates who elect to enter the workforce often can find employment with the Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation, the Oklahoma State Department of Environmental Quality and other companies in central Oklahoma. The skills learned by studying the chemical sciences also provide an excellent foundation for professions outside of science including business and patent law.

Education

Chair: Willner
Faculty: Delgado Brown, Lawler-Brown, Wilhelm

The majors listed within the Department of Education section of this catalog are early childhood education, elementary education, vocal music education, and instrumental music education. Other certification areas listed in this section require degrees in the discipline plus any other courses required to meet competency requirements in that teaching field.

Teacher Education

The Oklahoma City University teacher education program has been awarded national accreditation by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparedness and state accreditation by the Oklahoma Commission for Educational Equality and Accountability. The program has been designed to prepare dedicated teachers to work effectively in diverse educational settings. Teacher preparation includes professional development as well as a comprehensive knowledge base in the curriculum areas taught. The knowledge base is grounded in historical and contemporary education theory and practices that respect the changing school culture. In addition, the teacher education program is designed to develop leadership skills necessary for collaboration, service, and sustained success throughout the educator’s career.

The general purpose of the program is to prepare the student for the teaching profession and to assist all candidates in becoming successful teacher leaders. The major goal of the program is to prepare educators who have the necessary knowledge, skills, and dispositions combined with a commitment to professional service. To accomplish this purpose, the department has established the following specific goals for students:

1. Develop a strong knowledge base in subject area content, research, theory, and practice reflecting an understanding of physical, social, mental, and emotional patterns of development and their impact on the learning process
2. Develop competence in a variety of teaching methods and techniques to meet the needs of diverse learners
3. Create a successful climate for learning by using teaching practices that are sensitive and responsive to student needs
4. Become reflective teachers who are competent in their subject matter and methodology and dedicated to ensuring that all students learn
5. Describe, analyze, and reflect on authentic school situations and adapt instructional practices to support learning for all students
6. Exhibit a commitment to life-long learning

Competency-Based Program

The passage of HB 1549 called for the implementation of a competency-based model for Oklahoma in teacher preparation. This program is aligned with specialized professional associations of the individual teaching disciplines and the competencies adopted by the state. As a competency-based program, courses are recommended within the major that assure students’ knowledge in their teaching fields. The professional education courses have been sequenced to support students’ mastery of general teaching competencies as they progress through the course of study. These competencies are documented by students and evaluated by faculty through the use of observations, individual conferences, portfolios, videotapes, examinations, projects, and other relevant supporting materials.

The teacher education program integrates theory and practice in the preparation of teachers. Through early practical experiences in the schools, students are engaged in the processes of teaching and learning as they develop a continuing awareness of children and the system of education. Beginning in their first education course, students observe classes in local schools. Each practicum observation experience has graduated responsibilities which culminate in student teaching for an entire semester.

Students are exposed to a variety of methods and materials. They learn to apply theory to practice in diverse educational settings. The faculty of the Department of Education strives to give students an accurate picture of public school teaching by placing them in a variety of settings. After completing the course of study, students are prepared to begin their teaching careers.

Admission to the Teacher Education Program

Students preparing for teaching should apply for formal admission to the teacher education program the semester immediately following their first professional education course, Introduction to Teaching (EDUC 2001), taken during their freshman or sophomore year. Prior to admission to the program, students should complete a minimum of 30 semester hours of college credit. Applicants must demonstrate a strong commitment to teaching and meet the following requirements:
A minimum overall GPA of 2.50 with a GPA of 3.00 in professional education courses and major requirements leading to certification. Grades below C- in professional education and major requirements leading to certification are not acceptable.

Completed admission application

Disposition Evaluation (score of 20 or higher)

30 completed credit hours

Passing score on Oklahoma General Education Test (OGET)

Minimum combined GPA of 2.50 in English Composition I and English Composition II

Documentation of prior experience working with children

Completion of EDUC 2001 Introduction to Teaching with a grade of “C” or better

Criminal History Disclosure Statement

Faculty interview (score of 18 or higher)

Teacher Education Council review

Each candidate is evaluated on these criteria. Applications are approved or rejected by the Teacher Education Council. Continued admission to the program is contingent on the criteria being maintained throughout the program. Students who have not been admitted to the teacher education program will be allowed to enroll in Introduction to Teaching, Human Development, Psychology and Assessment of Learning, and Students with Exceptionalities. Enrollment will not be permitted in professional education courses and Student Teaching without admission to the teacher education program.

Planning Programs

Any student seeking teacher certification should plan a program with the teacher education advisor and the advisor in the student’s subject area. The licensure/certification requirements outlined for general education, professional education, and specialization fit into the degree requirements of the university. With proper planning, the student can meet the requirements for a teaching license and the requirements for a degree with a major in a chosen field.

Students seeking secondary or PK–12 education licensure are advised by the content/subject area advisors to ensure successful completion of degree requirements and are also advised in the education department to monitor teacher licensure requirements. These students should meet with their education advisors before enrollment each semester to check their status toward completion and to verify that their course selection meets teacher licensure requirements.

Transfer students who plan to seek teacher certification must meet the requirements for admission to teacher education and student teaching.

Students must participate in field experiences prior to taking Student Teaching. These field experiences are structured within the professional education courses and are requirements for successful completion of the courses.

All appropriate methods courses must be taken prior to Student Teaching. Student Teaching and Student Teaching Seminar are taken concurrently.

Oklahoma City University offers eleven accredited licensure programs. The requirements for these programs are outlined on the following pages.

Professional Semester (Student Teaching)

During the semester prior to Student Teaching, application should be made for admission to Student Teaching. Approval is dependent upon meeting the following criteria:

1. Previous admission to teacher education.
2. A minimum overall GPA of 2.500 with a GPA of 3.000 in professional education courses and major requirements leading to certification. Grades below C- in professional education and major requirements leading to certification are not acceptable.
3. Recommendation by the student’s major department (teaching field).
4. Disposition rubric completed by content area professor and education professor.
5. Completion of (or near-completion of) the first 13 hours in professional education.
6. Completion of (or near-completion of) at least 85 percent of the course work required in the teaching field.

The Teacher Education Council approves or rejects all applications for admission to Student Teaching as well as to teacher education.

Student Teaching is virtually a full-time job for one semester. It cannot be done in a legitimate manner if the student takes more than one other course and is active in extracurricular activities. Careful attention must be devoted to leaving the Student Teaching semester free of other obligations. Students desiring to take more than 13 hours during the Student Teaching semester must petition the Teacher Education Council for permission.

The evaluation of early childhood, elementary, PK–12, and secondary student teachers will be on a letter-grade basis. Final evaluation will be determined by the teacher and university supervisor.
Recommendation for Licensure/Certification

Three tests for all teacher candidates have been implemented by the Oklahoma Commission for Educational Quality and Accountability as a component of the competency-based certification requirements. The Oklahoma General Education Test (OGET) tests the candidate’s general knowledge. The Oklahoma Professional Teaching Examination (OPTE) tests the candidate’s competence in pedagogy. The Oklahoma Subject Area Tests (OSAT) tests the candidate’s knowledge in each subject area that will be taught.

All candidates must meet Oklahoma City University’s general education requirements for foreign language proficiency at the Elementary II level to be recommended for certification.

After successful completion of a degree program, passage of the three state certification examinations, and portfolio assessment, the candidate may apply for a license to teach in Oklahoma after being recommended by the Oklahoma City University Department of Education certification officer.

Second Major in Education

The Department of Education has approved second majors in The Petree College of Arts and Sciences, supporting both content areas approved for Oklahoma State Certification as well as other majors within the university. This second major supports either a B.A. or B.S. depending on the content area of the first major.

Students majoring in the following secondary academic disciplines—English, social studies, science, speech/drama/debate, and mathematics—will have a second major in education. PK–12 (art and foreign language) majors also will have a second major in education.

Early Childhood Education

The early childhood program is based on the belief that educators must have a strong theoretical base of understanding in young children’s growth, development, and learning processes. The educator must master a variety of instructional strategies and responsive behaviors for working with young children in the educational setting.
* Teacher certification programs are developed in accordance with Oklahoma State laws and, therefore, are subject to change.

All early childhood education majors are required to complete a total of 12 hours in each of the four content areas of social studies, language arts, sciences, and mathematics (the "4 by 12" combination). All students are expected to work closely with their faculty advisor in selecting courses to fulfill the 4 by 12 combination.

Elementary Education

In elementary education each candidate is prepared to teach in diverse educational settings. The future teacher's preparation includes a knowledge base in current educational theory and practice as well as a comprehensive knowledge base in the curriculum areas taught in the elementary schools. Each candidate is educated to be a reflective practitioner. Classroom organization, planning, and technology skills are incorporated throughout the professional and specialized curriculum. Leadership skills in the field of education are fostered. The core of the program includes effective teaching and learning strategies that are developmentally appropriate and emphasize the unlimited potential of each child.

In the Petree College of Arts and Sciences, six credit hours in a single foreign language are required for the B.A. degree.

Secondary and PK–12 Licensure/Certification

Secondary and PK–12 (pre-kindergarten through grade 12) education is a competency-based licensure option for students majoring in a discipline certified to be taught in the public schools. These majors can add teacher licensure to their degree by gaining admittance to the teacher education program, completing the required courses in professional education as well as a major in the discipline, and successfully passing the three certification examinations for Oklahoma licensure/certification. Oklahoma teacher certification is a competency-based program with competency examinations in general education (Oklahoma General Education Test—OGET), professional education (Oklahoma Professional Teaching examination—OPTE), and the student's discipline or area of study (Oklahoma Subject Area Test—OSAT). In addition, the student's competency is assessed by a portfolio demonstrating knowledge of students, teaching, and learning articulated through the Oklahoma General Competencies for Licensure and Certification adopted by the Oklahoma State Board of Education as required by House Bill 1549.

Teacher education programs are developed in accordance with Oklahoma State laws and therefore are subject to change. Students are advised to consult with their education advisor concerning requirements or any change in requirements that may occur. Grades of D or F in major requirements are not acceptable and the course must be retaken.

English

Chair: Floreani

Faculty: Bennett, Clemens Fox, DiPaolo, Hessler, Keegan, Phelps, Roensch, Schiler, Sen, Winn

What English majors learn during the course of their studies will enrich their lives, cultivate their values, challenge their intellect, and expand their sense of curiosity and empathy. In courses leading to the major in English, students learn to think critically; to be sensitive to the artistic, moral, and social dimensions of language; and to engage in meaningful research. Literature and writing are studied as forms of art, as forms of social discourse, and as important vehicles for exploring and expressing the human condition.

Students will learn to

- read actively and deeply by studying literary concepts, genres, movements and periods, influential authors and themes, and important critical and theoretical approaches to interpretation;
- communicate effectively and ethically, to create print, electronic, and visual texts that participate in meaningful conversation with a variety of communities;
- employ the conventions of written and spoken English, the theory and practice of rhetoric, and the principles and techniques of creative writing.

By graduation, every major will have completed a portfolio of original work that includes a digital text, a creative work, and a research project. Consequently, graduates will have developed marketable skills that will be valuable for many vocations and endeavors. They will also have developed the independence and flexibility of mind to thoughtfully and effectively face the challenges of a changing world.

The Exercise Science Major

This rigorous 65-hour major is designed to prepare students who wish to enter the field of exercise science. Students are exposed to a strong science background (26 required ancillary hours in biology, chemistry, and physics) making them excellent candidates for employment opportunities in exercise related areas (cardiac rehabilitation), advanced graduate studies (motor behavior, exercise physiology, nutrition), or possible professional school (medical, dental, occupational therapy, physical therapy). Additional coursework may be necessary to fulfill prerequisites for post-graduate study in fields such as physical therapy, medicine, and related areas. Faculty advisors will assist students in choosing electives in this program. Students interested in cardiac rehabilitation are encouraged to seek the Registered Clinical Exercise Physiologist certification or the Health Fitness Instructor certification offered by the American College of Sports Medicine during the internship and capstone courses.

Exercise and Sport Science

Chair: Miller
Faculty: Salliotte

Department Mission

The exercise and sport science department seeks to provide a quality learning environment to prepare students for a variety of careers in areas related to health, fitness, clinical, human performance, and corporate settings. We instill the knowledge, skills, and abilities in our students to provide the population a healthier lifestyle and a better way of living. As part of the department’s goals for student success, we provide outstanding field experiences and service-learning opportunities.

Minimum Grade Requirement for Courses in ESS Majors

A minimum 2.000 GPA is required in the major at graduation and a minimum grade of C- (1.75 on a 4.00 scale) must be earned in all courses that are required for the major.

Three-Year Degree-Completion Option

Highly motivated students, especially those who matriculate with college course credits earned through concurrent enrollment, (CLEP, AP, IB, etc.,) may be able to complete their undergraduate degree in three calendar years instead of the traditional four. This plan of study requires careful planning and will require taking classes during one or more summer session. Contact a faculty advisor in the ESS department for more information.

Note: Additional coursework may be necessary to fulfill prerequisites for post-graduate study in fields such as physical therapy, medicine, and other related areas. Consult with a faculty advisor in the ESS department for additional information.

The Human Performance Major

This 42-hour major is designed to provide students with the knowledge and practical skills to prepare them for careers in human performance and clinical professions which include corporate wellness coaching, personal training, strength and conditioning, fitness management, youth and adult sport coaching, sport psychology, and community-based fitness programs. Students are encouraged to seek appropriate professional certification during the final two years of study. Graduates will be able to design and implement skill and age-appropriate fitness programs, or pursue advanced study in related fields. This option provides interdisciplinary training to develop healthy living skills by advising students to take specialized electives and minor in a field outside of kinesiology. All human performance majors will be encouraged to complete a minor in an area related to their specialization or in an unrelated area that is complementary to their interests. Appropriate minors include, but are not limited to, biology, business entrepreneurship, chemistry, education, fitness and sports management, and psychology. The only exception to this might be the 1-2 year transfer student who does not have time to complete a minor; however, those students will be encouraged to take elective courses outside of the ESS department to reflect their career choice, if possible.

Physical Activity Courses

Physical activity courses offered through the ESS department include beginning, intermediate, and advanced Pilates and yoga; aerobics; golf; self defense I and II; self defense for women; cardio-kickboxing; beginning and intermediate weight training; tennis; circuit training; rock climbing; and Olympic weightlifting. Undergraduate degree programs at Oklahoma City University may include no more than six hours of credit from activity courses numbered 1001 and/or 1161, 1261, and 1361 (or equivalent transfer work). No more than two of these six credit hours in an undergraduate degree program may be earned from intercollegiate sports participation.
Preparation for Graduate or Professional Schools

ESS faculty can provide information on the requirements and competencies necessary for applying to graduate programs or professional programs such as physical therapy. Requirements for these programs vary, and students are urged to consult closely with their ESS faculty advisor as they develop their plan of study.

Fitness and Sports Management Minor

Students of human performance or other majors may wish to consider a minor in fitness and sports management. This minor is offered through the Meinders School of Business and business faculty teach all of the courses required for the minor. The minor emphasizes the business and marketing aspects of fitness and sports management. Being able to market and understand business practice will be valuable for any student interested in corporate wellness, personal training, coaching, and owning and operating a fitness or strength and conditioning business. Contact a faculty advisor in the ESS department for more information.

History

Chair: Johnson

Faculty: Clark, Cobb

Objectives

The history department has a three-fold objective. First, the department works to provide a major that prepares students for graduate study in history, law, public service, and archival work, while encouraging a broad perspective and measured judgment appropriate for the graduate entering almost any career. Next, the department provides a minor and a variety of elective courses intended to hone interests and deepen knowledge in particular subject fields while enabling the student to synthesize knowledge from other disciplines. Finally, the department presents general education courses to help students better understand themselves, their national heritage, and the world in which they live. Through all of the above, the department hopes that students will also understand how events in the past did and did not happen and, perhaps most importantly, that neither the history of their country nor the world is a simple morality play.

Features of the History Department

The history department is made up of exceptional faculty members. The history faculty have created a variety of programs to meet students’ needs, including the Bachelor of Arts in history and the Bachelor of Arts in history/political science. The department proudly sponsors the Sigma Omicron chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, the international history honor society.

Humanities

Advisor: Bennett

Faculty: Humanities Faculty

The humanities major is designed for students who desire a broad undergraduate education with some specialization in one or two areas. Students pursuing the major in humanities must take a minimum of 30 hours and a maximum of 40 hours of course work in humanities in addition to the general education curriculum for the B.A. degree. Any hours in humanities beyond the maximum of 40 must count as electives. A minimum of 12 semester hours in humanities course work must be completed in residence at Oklahoma City University.

Distribution of the course work must reflect at least one course beyond the general education curriculum requirement from each of the five departments (art, English, mass communications, modern languages, and philosophy) within the division and from the Wimberly School of Religion and the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences.
In departments which do not have a general education requirement, such as mass communications, an introd-tory course will fulfill this requirement.

Humanities (B.A.)

Major Requirements
Credit Hours: 30-40

Core Courses

Art

ART 1143  Foundation Drawing
ART 2123  Intermediate Drawing

Another course may be substituted with approval of the chair.

English

Any English course beyond the literature required by the general education curriculum.

MASC 1113  Introduction to Mass Communications

Another course may be substituted with approval of the chair.

Modern Languages

One course beyond the 12 credits required for the Bachelor of Arts degree in the Petree College of Arts and Sciences.

Philosophy

Any 2000-level philosophy course not used to fulfill the general education requirements.

Religion

Any 2000-level religion course not used to fulfill the general education requirements.

Speech/Theatre

Consult advisor.

Upper-Division Course Work

15 hours of additional course work at the 3000 or 4000 level from at least three different departments in any area of humanities.

Capstone Course

An integrated project within one or more of the three areas of speciality reflected by the upper-division course work to be supervised by any faculty member in those areas or a pre-established department-specific capstone or modification of it with permission of the chair of the department.

All course work presented as a requirement for the humanities major must have received a grade of C or higher.

Chair: Hamilton
Faculty: Brunner, Gibson, Griffin, Harmon

A student entering a communications-oriented career must be broadly educated to understand the constantly changing society in which he or she functions profesionally and to interpret those changes for readers, viewers, and clients. He or she must also have a high skill level in all forms of communication.

The mass communications department, because of its location in Oklahoma City, is able to offer students a unique program. This program combines a sound liberal arts curriculum with theoretical and practical courses in mass communications. It also provides opportunities to gain experience and college credit by interning at area newspapers, television stations, and advertising and public relations firms.

The mass communications department has as its general objectives the following:

- To work with each student personally in developing an individualized program based on his or her aspirations and previous experience;
- To provide a sound theoretical foundation for understanding the principles and practices of the multimedia journalism, television, public relations, and advertising;
- To allow the student to build upon that theoretical foundation with practical experience in his or her field of study;
- To stimulate an awareness in each student of the rights and ethical responsibilities of those working in the media.

Faculty: Tavakoli

Mathematics is the language of science and, with the explosive development of computer applications in every facet of business and industry, it is rapidly becoming the language of society. Throughout history, mathematics has been studied for its beauty as well as for its utility. It has been considered more as a “way of thinking” than as a collection of facts, formulas, and procedures. The nature of mathematics requires the development and use of a variety of analytical skills and approaches to problem solving that impact the student’s existence and are highly prized by prospective employers. The study of mathematics prepares a student for life as well as for a career.

The demand for quality students in mathematics is such that excellent opportunities exist for graduate study. Graduates of programs in mathematics have an excellent background for further study and/or employment in the related sciences as well as many areas of business and law. The Society of Actuaries constantly seeks graduates to pursue careers in the insurance field.

Modern Language

Chair: Griffin

Faculty: Arrow, Hodkinson

The study of a modern language requires understanding and active use of the structure and linguistic patterns of language as a means of communication. Knowledge of a language provides insight into past and present achievements of international culture in the context of business, everyday life, and the arts.

The purpose of Oklahoma City University’s modern language program is to introduce students to international cultures and to provide the linguistic and cultural competencies to enrich students’ education and expand career options in a multicultural world. A bachelor’s degree program is available in Spanish.

The objectives of the modern language department are twofold: to give students practical tools for the worlds of business, government, and the professions, and to give students the broad understanding of other cultures that is an integral part of a liberal arts education.

Students may enroll for Honors credit in language classes and may qualify for membership in the National Collegiate Honor Society, Alpha Mu Gamma. Foreign study scholarships for Alpha Mu Gamma members may be available.

Career options are manifold. Fluency in a second language and culture enhances any career—medical, public service, diplomatic/mission, international aid work, teaching, communication, travel, entertainment, business, and the arts.

French

Minor in French

Courses for the minor in French can only be completed through another university via the study abroad program.

Requirements

German

The Modern Language department offers beginning courses in German. Students may receive credit for AP, IB (level 4), or CLEP. See department chair for details.

Spanish

The program features lecture/lab classes taught by native and near-native speakers. A computer lab features Spanish learning/review programs. Foreign study is encouraged.

Students may receive credit for AP, IB (level 4), or CLEP. See department chair for details. Recommended electives are 8 hours of another foreign language and Critical Reading and Writing (ENGL 2303), taught by the English department. Other suggested electives are courses in English and Continental literature, History of Philosophy (PHIL 3114-3314), and history or political science courses related to the countries where Spanish is spoken.

Teacher certification candidates must take Foreign Language Methods for Elementary and Secondary Schools (SPAN 4313) and meet the professional education requirements.

Minor in Chinese

The program features lecture/lab classes taught by native and near-native speakers. Courses for the minor in Chinese can only be completed through another university via the study abroad program.

The Oxford Plan

The Oxford Plan is an interdisciplinary major administered jointly by the departments of philosophy and political science and includes preferential admission policies at the School of Law. The major is patterned after the philosophy, politics, and economics major at the University of Oxford. For a full description of the major, please refer to the political science section of this catalog (page 87).

To participate in the Oxford Plan at Oklahoma City University, a student must satisfy any one of the following requirements:
1. A composite ACT score of 27 or higher;
2. A combined SAT score of 1210 or higher; or
3. A high school cumulative grade point average of 3.75 or higher on a 4.00 scale (or the equivalent).

In addition, international students must have an internet-based TOEFL (IBT) score of 100 or higher.

Successful participants in the Oxford Plan qualify for preferred admission to the Oklahoma City University School of Law. A participant with an LSAT score of 155 or higher and an undergraduate GPA of 3.50 or higher is guaranteed admission to the School of Law. Other participants receive a preference in admission to the School of Law over applicants from other undergraduate institutions. To qualify for guaranteed or preferred admission, the participant must meet the School of Law’s character and fitness requirements and apply by February 1.

Participants in the Oxford Plan may also qualify to complete their combined B.A. and J.D. degrees in only six years, rather than the usual seven years. Participants who successfully complete all of the requirements of the Oxford Plan and their foreign language requirement and are admitted to the School of Law may begin law school after only three years of undergraduate work. They receive their B.A. degrees after successfully completing the first year of law school.

Philosophy

Chair: Davidson
Faculty: Meyers, Ross

“Curiosity—that inborn property of man, daughter of ignorance and mother of knowledge—when wonder wakens our minds, has the habit, wherever it sees some extraordinary phenomenon of nature ... of asking straightway what it means.”

Philosophy is the ongoing process of disciplined reflection on such issues as the ultimate good or purpose of human life; the forms of knowledge and their limits; the different modes of reality and their relationships; the origin and nature of the fundamental social, political, and economic institutions that affect the quality of human life; and the extent to which human life can be understood in purely human terms. These issues confront each of us every day as implicit in the decisions we have to make about our relationships to others and ourselves, decisions about what our vocations will be and what is required to excel in those vocations, and decisions about which public policies are worthy of our support. Since everyone has to confront these decisions, the question is whether or not a person will make his or her decisions in an enlightened, disciplined, and philosophically responsible way.

The formal study of philosophy at Oklahoma City University is designed to train persons to be philosophical. That is, it is designed to train people who are capable of acting most responsibly, because they have the clearest conception of their goals, the most comprehensive understanding of the world in which these goals are to be realized, and the most realistic assessment of the available means toward these goals. To accomplish this end, the philosophy major requires each student to refine his or her ideas in relation and response to the history of philosophical activity (in the form of three 4-credit-hour courses in the history of philosophy). This is preparation for undertaking an original work in philosophy, the senior thesis. Additional courses are offered in the traditional areas of philosophy (e.g., ethics, political philosophy, philosophy of religion, metaphysics, epistemology, etc.), from which a student selects a minimum of four to complete the 27 credit hours required for the major in philosophy.

The philosophy major at Oklahoma City University provides the necessary foundation for successful graduate study in philosophy as well as for advanced, professional training in law and the ministry. Indeed, philosophy is the ideal major for any student who contemplates a career that places a premium on the ability to think critically, creatively, and systematically.

For students majoring in other disciplines, a minor in philosophy is also available.

Physics

Faculty: Shadfar

The physics department offers a Bachelor of Science degree in physics and a minor in physics. The physics degree program is designed to provide students with a strong background for careers in industry and government and for further education in graduate school. The physics department also provides several required courses for students seeking a degree in engineering.

Secondary Science Licensure/Certification

Students who wish to teach science at the secondary level (grades 6–12) may pursue licensure and certification by completing a major in one of the science disciplines concurrent with completing a second major in education, and fulfilling all licensure and certification requirements. Additional coursework may be required in the science major. Contact a faculty advisor in the education department for complete information.

Political Science

Faculty: Daadaoui, Henry, Huston

Just as the ancient Greeks used the word idiot to refer to one who took no interest in the affairs of the state, we believe that the study of political science is an essential part of the educational process.
Purpose

The purpose of the program is to provide a liberal arts education with an emphasis in the study of political science. The program prepares students for a wide variety of careers as well as for active and discerning roles in the community.

Objectives

1. Sensitize students to the issues of power, freedom, order, and authority in societies and on the international scene;
2. Enable students to become more active and discerning citizens;
3. Introduce students to the subfields of the discipline;
4. Assist in preparing students for graduate school, law school, and postbaccalaureate careers.

Special Features/Careers

Student majoring in political science can choose from five degree options, of which four are designed to further specific vocational objectives:

Option 1
B.A., liberal arts emphasis: Designed for the student with broad interests in political science.

Option 2
B.S., pre-professional emphasis: Designed for the student seeking graduate work in political science leading to a career in college teaching or research.

Option 3
B.A., pre-law emphasis: Designed for students intending to go to law school.

Option 4
B.S., public management emphasis: Designed for students seeking either a position in government or graduate work in urban studies, public administration, or urban planning.

Option 5
B.A., international affairs emphasis: Designed for students seeking careers with the U.S. foreign service, corporations doing business abroad, or international nongovernmental organizations or for students who wish to teach or conduct research abroad.

There are options for off-campus study, including internships with the Washington Center as well as other opportunities. Students can work with faculty on a one-to-one basis in independent studies or directed readings and are encouraged to master basic career skills—writing, research methods, problem solving, and analysis. Culminating the major is a required Senior Seminar that includes advanced study incorporating either an experiential or a written research component. Student organizations foster learning and interaction outside the classroom; these include a pre-law chapter of Phi Alpha Delta, the Oklahoma City University delegation to the Oklahoma Intercollegiate Legislature (OIL), Pi Sigma Alpha (the national political science honor society), the College Republicans, and the Young Democrats.

The Oxford Plan

Political Science/Philosophy (B.A.)

The Oxford Plan is an interdisciplinary major administered jointly by the departments of philosophy and political science and includes preferential admission policies at the School of Law. The major is patterned after the philosophy, politics, and economics major at the University of Oxford.

To participate in the Oxford Plan at Oklahoma City University, a student must satisfy any one of the following requirements:

1. A composite ACT score of 27 or higher;
2. A combined SAT score of 1210 or higher; or
3. A high school cumulative grade point average of 3.75 or higher on a 4.00 scale (or the equivalent).

In addition, international students must have an internet-based TOEFL (IBT) score of 100 or higher.

Successful participants in the Oxford Plan qualify for preferred admission to the Oklahoma City University School of Law. A participant with an LSAT score of 155 or higher and an undergraduate GPA of 3.50 or higher is guaranteed admission to the School of Law. Other participants receive a preference in admission to the School of Law over applicants from other undergraduate institutions.

Participants in the Oxford Plan may also qualify to complete their combined B.A. and J.D. degrees in only six years, rather than the usual seven years. Participants who successfully complete all of the requirements of the Oxford Plan and their foreign language requirement and are admitted to the School of Law may begin law school after only three years of undergraduate work. They receive their B.A. degrees after successfully completing the first year of law school.

Psychology

Chair: Hakman

Faculty: Cataldi, Shao

Psychology is the scientific discipline that seeks to describe and explain our thinking, emotions, and behavior. Psychology’s intellectual roots are in biology and philosophy, origins reflected in our curriculum. The psychology curriculum is designed to foster skills congruent with the liberal arts tradition: oral and written expression reflecting a critical consideration of the data, issues, and concepts gained in the classroom and through the reading of original sources. The general goal of the curriculum is for students to attain a better understanding of themselves and others, an understanding of the nature of psychological research, and an ability to apply research findings for solutions to theoretical and practical problems in the psychological realm.
The psychology department has several other, less global objectives. We offer courses and a curriculum balanced between theory and application for the following purposes:

1. Preparing students for graduate work in psychology and related fields. The B.S. degree provides a core of courses that satisfies the vast majority of graduate school entrance requirements in psychology.

2. Satisfying students who wish to work in applied areas with a bachelor’s degree. The B.S. degree includes applied courses and allows students latitude to design unique programs suited to special interests.

3. Providing nonmajors with sufficient resources to work in nonpsychological fields that require knowledge of human motivation, learning, attitudes, and behavior. Thus, business majors with an interest in management, sales, or advertising, or premedical majors interested in psychological functioning, or biology majors interested in the mechanisms of learning may pursue their interests with a minor in psychology.

The psychology curriculum prepares graduates for advanced study in psychology, law, social work, medicine, research, and teaching and for work in human services and related fields such as human resources management in business settings.

The Oklahoma City University chapter of Psi Chi, the national psychology honor organization, and the Psychology Club, a local organization informally affiliated with Psi Chi, offer students opportunities for socializing and learning about the discipline in an informal setting.

Psychology (B.S.)

Major Requirements

Attention should be given to course prerequisites and to the semesters in which courses are offered (see course descriptions). Careful planning with an advisor is required to complete the degree in eight semesters.

Additional hours in psychology

A minor in psychology that qualifies a student for entrance into many graduate psychology programs includes PSYC 2303, 2401, 2413, 2813, 3403, and 4213. Minimum requirements: 2.00 GPA and at least 9 semester hours in residence at Oklahoma City University.

Science Major

Advisor: Prilliman

Faculty: Science and Mathematics Faculty

The Bachelor of Science in science program enables the student to obtain a broad background in the sciences rather than the specialization of a departmental major. The courses in the major are selected by the student and the advisor. Students interested in secondary education, medicine, dentistry, allied health fields, and other areas may want to consider this program.
Science (B.S.)

Major Requirements Credit Hours: 45

Required Course Work in the Science Major

1. A minimum of 42 credit hours in science and mathematics course work is required to complete the major. Remedial and nonmajors’ courses may not be counted towards the major.

2. The student must achieve a concentration in one discipline (biology, chemistry, mathematics, or physics) by completing a minimum of 24 credit hours in that discipline. Of this total, at least 18 credit hours must be above the 1000-level and must include the senior capstone course in the discipline.

3. In addition to the courses in the discipline of concentration, the student must complete a minimum of 6 credit hours from each of the other three disciplines.

Required Ancillary Course Work in the Science Major

1. The student must satisfactorily complete (minimum grade C) an upper-division (3000- or 4000-level) course in technical writing. Currently, this requirement can be met by ENGL 3223 Technical and Business Writing. Any course substitution must be approved in writing by the faculty advisor and the science degree assessment coordinator.

General Requirements for the Science Major

1. The student must complete all of the program objectives and assessment requirements, including completion of the student portfolio and completion of the Educational Testing Service Major Field Test in the discipline of concentration in place when the student matriculates at Oklahoma City University. A complete listing of requirements is available from the faculty advisor or the science degree assessment coordinator.

2. The courses that constitute the major and the discipline of concentration are to be specified in writing by the student and his or her faculty advisor and are subject to the approval of the science degree assessment coordinator.

3. A minimum 2.00 GPA is required in the major at graduation, and no course in which a grade below C was earned may be counted towards the major.

4. A minimum of 12 credit hours of the course work in the major, including the senior capstone, plus at least one other 3000- or 4000-level course in the concentration, must be completed in residence at Oklahoma City University.

Sociology and Criminal Justice

Chair: Warehime

Faculty: Meinhart, Spinks

Adjunct Faculty: Buckley, Cochran, Dunnington, Green, Jehle, Moore

Founded in the late 1960s, the Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice has been producing top-quality students for over forty years. The department offers Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Arts degrees in sociology and criminal justice. Graduates have gone on to work in research facilities, as professors, in nonprofit agencies, in law enforcement, and in sociology agencies.

All full-time professors hold terminal degrees and have experience in fields from correctional service officer to law enforcement agents to nonprofit employee working with terminally ill children to trial consultant. The faculty provide a solid base for critical thinking, reading, and writing.

Courses

The required courses are offered on a two-year rotation. Students are responsible for taking the required courses when they are offered. Students who are having difficulties with course scheduling should consult their advisors.

Transfer Credit

Fifty percent of all criminal justice and sociology courses must be taken at Oklahoma City University.

Attendance

Classes are conducted on the assumption that regular attendance is essential to satisfactory progress. The student is responsible for meeting course requirements, regardless of the causes of absences. A student unable to attend classes should confer in advance with the professors involved. Failure to attend classes may result in the loss of credit, exclusion from the final examinations, or both. (Students must check with the department for additional information concerning departmental policies and procedures.)

Internship Requirements

All graduates of the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science in Sociology and Criminal Justice must successfully complete three credit hours of internship. For an internship, students must provide services to an entity working within the sphere of sociology or criminal justice. This will balance the theoretical underpinnings of many courses in the program with the application of the field of sociology and criminal justice.
Sociology

The mission of the sociology program is to prepare students to work in a diverse field with the sociological understanding of human behavior. Each student’s unique potential is nurtured through faculty mentoring.

Sociology at Oklahoma City University introduces students to sociological concepts that enable them to become scholars who are productive citizens and workers. The sociology major provides a solid liberal arts education that prepares students for graduate school or a variety of career paths (e.g., social services, criminal justice, education, or government).

Criminal Justice

The mission of the criminal justice program is to analyze issues of justice and injustice within the societal contexts of human behavior in complex societies. Using interdisciplinary perspectives, students examine critically the manifestation of this behavior through a criminology perspective. Students are expected to develop an ethical awareness and the aptitude to decisively research a broad base of knowledge on issues of justice, crime, and the law. Students declare one of the following tracks: Investigative/Leadership Track, Leadership/Administration Track, or Corrections Track. Some students may want to major in one track and minor in another track.

Collegiate Officer Programs (COPs) Completion Program

This program allows students with CLEET (Council on Law Enforcement Education and Training) certified individuals to use their CLEET transcripts to complete either a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice. This will encourage current peace officers to complete their degree and improve their opportunities for promotion and advancement within the criminal justice system.

Interdisciplinary Minors

Child Advocacy Studies Training

Director: Hakman

This interdisciplinary minor and certificate program provides education and training in the area of child maltreatment. It is designed to educate individuals in not only identifying and documenting child maltreatment, but most importantly, in educating individuals on how to respond competently to children who have been maltreated. This program will also teach individuals how to work effectively within multiple systems and institutions involved in maltreatment cases and will prepare individuals to be advocates for children who have been maltreated. This program is designed for students and working professionals who plan to make a difference in the lives of children. The minor and certificate are applicable to individuals from myriad backgrounds, complementing areas such as psychology, social work, law enforcement, sociology and criminology, justice studies, nursing and education.

School of Visual Arts

The School of Visual Arts recognizes the important role the fine arts and moving image arts play in modern culture and offers programs of study designed to prepare students to take their places in our society as lifelong practitioners of art. Studio-based courses taught by a faculty of practicing artists introduce students to a variety of medium-specific techniques and processes, which provides a solid foundation for each student to develop his or her own individual style and artistic identity. Additionally, the school places strong emphasis on balanced curricula valuing creativity and concepts through explorations of histories, theories, and critical appraisal of artworks in an effort to stimulate students’ intellectual curiosity, providing the ability to create works of art and discuss the impact of art on the world around us.

The School of Visual Arts offers degree programs focused on two- and three-dimensional studio art and film production. The facilities and resources available provide ample opportunities for students to produce work that is critiqued and assessed by the faculty on a one-on-one basis. Students are also encouraged to share their work with the wider university community and the public through open and juried exhibitions and screenings. Upon the successful completion of undergraduate degree requirements, students will have created a focused portfolio to support their next professional or scholarly undertaking.

Academic Policies

Grading

School of Visual Arts faculty follow the same general reporting scales, regulations and calendars as all other university faculty when evaluating student performance and academic achievement.

Attendance

The School recognizes the relationship between regular class attendance and successful learning. Therefore, students are expected to attend all class meetings for each class in which they are enrolled. Instructors may downgrade a student for unexcused absences. In the case of extenuating circumstances, students may provide written explanation for the instructor’s consideration.

Course Enrollment

Students from across the university, regardless of major, may enroll in most courses offered by the School of Visual Arts. However, as a course section nears enrollment capacity, students needing to fulfill requirements for degrees administered by the school will be granted preferential enrollment over non-majors.

Facilities

The School of Visual Arts promotes student success and learning through the maintenance of exceptional facilities and resources. It is our goal to remain current with all hardware, software, tools and equipment used in the practice and execution of professional arts.

Degree Programs

The School of Visual Arts is comprised of two academic departments: the Department of Moving Image Arts and the Art Department. While each department administers specific requirements for different undergraduate degrees: Bachelor of Arts (B.A.), Bachelor of Fine Arts (B.F.A.) and graduate programs Master of Liberal Arts (M.L.A.), leading to degrees in studio art and film production, the school acknowledges the foundational importance of interdisciplinary liberal arts study in the pursuit of these degrees.

By offering a balanced selection of coursework, electives, independent study and internship opportunities in a variety of fine arts and arts-related disciplines, the school provides solid curricula of practice and theory concepts, creating a productive learning environment in which students gain a full understanding of a discipline.

In addition, it is possible for a student to create a focused program of study to more deeply explore discipline interests while completing the requirements of an existing visual arts major. This requires advisor structuring and approval of the appropriate department chair.

Consult each department’s section in the undergraduate and graduate catalogs for details about degree requirements.

Admission Requirements

Prospective students must meet requirements for admission to the university and the Petree College of Arts and Sciences prior to consideration for acceptance into the School of Visual Arts. All applicants must submit a portfolio to the admissions coordinator of the department in which they desire to study and complete a personal interview with a member of that department’s faculty.
That portfolio should demonstrate creative ability and concept execution. More details about these portfolio requirements are listed within each department’s section of this catalog.

Academic Rigor

It is required that all degree-seeking students in the School of Visual Arts maintain academic standards and therefore are expected to achieve academic success. To measure this, an over-all minimum 2.0 GPA in all courses at graduation is required. In addition, within the student’s selected major, a higher minimum is required.

- The School will not accept a grade below C- (C minus) for any of the courses categorically designed as major, core, and/or electives as required by the chosen major curriculum. Any student who does not meet this minimum must retake that course in order to receive credit for that course toward their chosen School of Visual Arts degree.
- Transfer students with acceptable credit hours of study equal to, or better than, a GPA of 2.8 will be considered for admission. All transferred hours will be evaluated for equivalency by the school’s transfer evaluator in addition to meeting the university’s transfer matrix requirements. Transfer students will also follow the portfolio and interview processes.
- All transfer students must complete a minimum of 40 credit hours at Oklahoma City University, the last 15 hours in residence, to qualify for any School of Visual Arts degree.

Academic Probation

Students will be placed on academic probation for only one semester based on the following policy:

Students with a single semester GPA below 2.00 or with two or more F’s in any subject during a semester. To remain in the School of Visual Arts, students on probation must enroll in a minimum of 12 credit hours and achieve, during the semester of probation, a semester GPA of 2.75 or higher in major, core and elective courses.

The class schedule of the probationary student must be approved by the department chair of that student’s degree. Additionally, the student may not receive a grade of D or F in any of their enrolled classes.

Failure to meet academic standards in that semester will result in dismissal from the School.

Advisement

The School of Visual Art is committed to developing productive citizens of the global art world. In doing so we strive to help each student find his or her voice and place within the arts discipline of their choice. All efforts will be made to advise and guide each student to achieve success. At the same time, the School recognizes that each student must contribute to his or her own growth and that outcomes are not guaranteed solely on the basis of an individual’s academic merit, but are a result of many factors.

Portfolio Creation

All candidates for undergraduate degrees complete a Capstone project during their senior year. The result is a portfolio piece that serves two functions: First, the completed capstone demonstrates the student’s understanding and application of concepts and processes explored in degree course work. Second, the capstone can be used as a portfolio piece to present in pursuit of career or advanced study opportunities. Depending on the student’s program of study, the capstone project will take the form of either a written research project or an exhibited presentation in the medium of their study. Further explanation of the capstone requirements for each degree program may be found in the appropriate department sections within this catalog.

Art Degrees

The Oklahoma City University art degrees provide strong foundational knowledge in a variety of art forms and medias and prepare career-minded students for a professional entrance into today’s art world or graduate school.

The Bachelor of Fine Arts program is considered the professional art degree. Students receiving a B.F.A. in studio art have the opportunity to obtain a high level of general studio art experiences. Most graduate schools prefer the B.F.A. in their admission policies.

The Bachelor of Arts allows for a broad exploration in studio art within the framework of a liberal arts education. The B.A. provides students with the opportunity to expand their educational experience to include other areas of interest while still receiving a degree in art. The B.A. program allows for double majors, minors, and prerequisite course work for those who may wish to pursue a career other than art.

Facilities

The Norick Art Center is located in a 29,000 square-foot facility that houses all the fine art areas. The center contains painting and drawing areas, a ceramics and 3-D area, printmaking room, a twenty-two station Macintosh computer lab, and the Nona Jean Hulsey Gallery, which hosts six to eight exhibits each year. Every semester there is a capstone exhibit for seniors, and a student show is held each spring. There is an active art club that sponsors two student arts shows each year in addition to major involvement in both university and community programs.

Faculty

Faculty members in the Department of Art have extensive teaching backgrounds and are practicing artists. Although each faculty member is actively producing and showing, student success is always top priority. All studio classes are small, allowing individual student attention. No classes are taught by graduate students or teaching assistants.

Admission Requirements

In addition to university standards for admission, the art department requires all B.F.A. applicants to submit a portfolio in their chosen area of study. The portfolio should consist of ten to fifteen examples of the applicant’s most recent works. Students with no portfolio or students who need portfolio improvements can be admitted to the B.A. program and apply for the B.F.A. during their sophomore year. All portfolios are subject to the approval of faculty members of the School of Visual Arts.

Scholarships

Scholarships for art majors are available from a variety of sources including the Norick Family Scholarship in Art. These awards are based on portfolio review, latest high school GPA, ACT scores, and personal interviews. Portfolios may be mailed or brought to the Norick Art Center during three annual spring portfolio review days. Original artwork is preferred; however, slides or digital images are acceptable. Scholarships are awarded by a consensus of the art department faculty.

Attendance

Due to the nature of studio-based classes, it is imperative that students attend each class at the times prescribed by the professors. At each professor’s discretion, absenteeism or tardiness could lead to a reduction in grade.

Moving Image Arts

Chair: Kiersch
Faculty: Cardinale-Powell, DiPaolo, and Moving Image Arts Faculty

Interdisciplinary Degree

B.F.A. in Film Production

Literacy in visual and aural “texts” has become a necessity in our world, and as technologies develop, individuals’ and cultures’ reliance on the visual and aural increases. Thus, the moving image arts have become a primary global means for communicating values.

The Department of Moving Image Arts at Oklahoma City University recognizes the centrality of visual and aural communications and responds to the continual emergence of new technologies by providing interdisciplinary liberal arts curricula focused on both the critical and the physical production studies of moving image content. Students study and create today’s dynamic products of artistic and informational communications.

Through required courses, students majoring in film production will learn how to create recorded content and understand the effects of recorded content as both a narrative and nonnarrative imaginative language of visual and aural art. Beyond the core course work, students will have extensive elective course choices that will properly prepare and fulfill different professional objectives to enhance his or her specific career direction.

The flexible moving image arts programs of study will

- prepare students for professions in the current industries of the moving image arts or to pursue advanced studies in graduate programs;
- educate students in the history, theories, and concepts of the moving image arts as a global art form and of their impact on social, economic, and cultural constructions;
- allow students to develop individual talents, skills, and creative voices by offering an intensive, hands-on production education coupled with a broad exposure to the liberal arts as a foundation to successfully engage in art and culture;
- add value to the studies of other majors, especially those in the established programs of music, theatre, and dance, by providing allied course work to expand expertise into recorded as well as live performance.

Degree Programs

The Department of Moving Image Arts offers a Bachelor of Fine Arts in film production. The undergraduate degree requires completion of moving image arts core courses, in addition to the university general education requirements. The degree additionally requires specific major courses and a number of interdisciplinary electives from a pool of diversified subjects.

As part of its professional emphasis, the department provides an opportunity for practical work in both the classroom and the field. Internships are strongly encouraged.

Admissions

By setting expectations for its students and providing them with an environment of academic and professional excellence, the moving image arts degree promotes student success. All students wishing to major in film production must meet certain specific admission requirements in addition to the general university admission requirements. Admission to this program is selective. An interview, résumé, and either a recorded content portfolio or writing sample (depending on degree plan) are required. Decisions are based on the applicant’s ability to demonstrate a high level of proficiency, potential, and a unique creative voice.

Proficiency

All moving image arts students are required to successfully complete formal competency measurements to further foster their development as creative filmmakers and/or scholars: The first, a preliminary measurement, is taken in a required, hands-on film production class entitled Behind the Scenes. The outcome is a collectively produced short class project.

The second measurement (Project One), taken in the second semester of the sophomore year, is an individually produced short, sync-sound moving image production. The third measurement (Capstone), in the senior year, is either a comprehensively planned and produced moving image thesis project or an in-depth written thesis in moving image theory/culture.

Failure by any student to demonstrate proficiency in the above mentioned courses will result in that student not being eligible for the moving image arts degree.

At the discretion of the moving image arts director, students failing to meet minimum requisites may be given one retest or re-evaluation or a thirty-day period in which to resubmit the course project in order to restore their academic standing. In the event that a student fails to improve, no further considerations will be extended.

Wimberly School of Religion

Faculty: Betsworth, Davies, Enchassi, Long, Starkey, Wolfe

The mission of the Wimberly School of Religion is to offer religious and theological studies in the United Methodist tradition that unite knowledge and vital piety, to explore questions of ultimate concern for the lives of all human beings, and to prepare persons seeking to enter a variety of Christian vocations in service to the church and community.

As a professional school, the Wimberly School of Religion plays the dual role of preparing persons for service in the church and community, while at the same time engaging the total student body in the study of religion for its own sake through the university’s general education curriculum.

The curriculum of the Wimberly School of Religion focuses primarily on basic studies of faith, values, and religious life. The aim of these studies is an understanding of religion and how it relates to various cultures and issues in the modern world.

Academic Policies

Degree Programs

The Wimberly School of Religion offers the degrees of Bachelor of Arts in religion, Bachelor of Arts in religion with an emphasis in religious education, Bachelor of Arts in religion with an emphasis in youth ministry, Bachelor of Arts in religion/philosophy, and Master of Religious Education.

Religion Major

To major in religion at the undergraduate level has meaning and value for anyone who wants to understand religion in its several dimensions. It is particularly useful for persons planning to enter the Christian ministry, Christian education, or other church-related vocations. Studies in the major field, along with courses in English, history, philosophy, the social sciences, and various electives will give the student an excellent background for entrance into a theological seminary or for various service opportunities in the church and society.

Religion/Religious Education

A major in religion/religious education is particularly useful to persons planning to enter the Christian ministry, Christian education, youth work, program coordination, or other church-related vocations. Studies in the major field, along with courses in English, history, philosophy, the social sciences, and various electives, will give the student an excellent background for entrance into a theological seminary or for service in the church and society.

The Internship in Religion course is required for majors in religious education. It is taken in the junior or senior year.

Religion/Youth Ministry

The major in religion/youth ministry is useful for students planning careers as directors or ministers with youth or planning to enter other forms of Christian ministry, such as Christian education or the pastorate.

The spiritual formation of youth as Christian disciples requires students who would serve as youth workers to be grounded in the biblical and theological understandings of the faith and be knowledgeable about the development of young people. Mature interaction with youth requires far more than the ability to present interesting programs.

Studies in the major field, along with courses in English, history, philosophy, the social sciences, and various electives, will give the student an excellent background for entrance into a theological seminary or for various service opportunities in the church and society.

The Internship in Religion course is required for majors in religious education. It is taken in the junior or senior year.

Religion/Philosophy

The joint major in philosophy and religion is designed primarily for those students who want to undertake ethical and religious studies within a rigorous philosophical and theological context in preparation either for advanced academic study in philosophy or religion or for professional training for the ordained ministry. The core requirements are intended to provide students with systematic grounding in the major philosophical and theological resources of Western philosophy and the Jewish and Christian traditions. Students may then select one of four areas of emphasis (philosophical theology, ethics, religion-philosophy and culture, or biblical studies) for more concentrated study.

Grade Point Average

A religion major must have a 2.25 GPA in religion courses to graduate, including the six hours of Introduction to World Religions and Introduction to Biblical Literature.

Honors in Religion

The designation Honors in Religion recognizes excellence in a student’s work at Oklahoma City University. To be eligible for Honors in Religion, the student must have completed 60 semester hours at Oklahoma City University.
University and a minimum of 24 semester hours in religion in the School of Religion. The student must have a GPA of 3.50 in the religion major and a cumulative GPA of 3.25 in nonreligion courses taken at Oklahoma City University. Honors in Religion students must complete Senior Research Paper with a minimum grade of A-.

Honor Society in Religious Studies
Theta Alpha Kappa is open to both undergraduate and graduate students. Undergraduate students must have completed three semesters at Oklahoma City University, completed 12 hours in religious studies, attained a 3.25 GPA in religion courses and at least a 3.00 GPA in their total academic program. Graduate students must have completed at least half of the residency requirements for their degree and attained a 3.50 GPA for this work.

Liberal Arts Core
In addition to the courses in the general education curriculum, students with a major in the Wimberly School of Religion will also complete the following requirements:

- PHRH 1103 Public Speaking (or PHRH 1001 taken three times) 3
- ESS 1303 Health Behavior
- ESS 1161 Physical Activity or 3
- ESS 1001 Intercolligate Sports 1
- REL 3213 Religion and Science 3
- 12 hours of language 12

Certification Studies in the United Methodist Church

Certification is the church’s recognition that a student has met the required personal and church qualifications, academic preparation, and work experience necessary to achieve and maintain professional excellence.

Certification is available in the United Methodist Church in a variety of areas of specialization. The School of Religion has been approved by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry of the United Methodist Church to provide the academic programs related to certification in the areas of Christian education and youth ministry.

The following are ways a student can fulfill the academic requirements of certification at Oklahoma City University:

1. Attain a bachelor’s degree with a major in religion/religious education or religion/youth ministry. (Students continuing toward ordination as deacon must complete 8 hours of graduate credit in addition to the 27 basic theological graduate hours and other disciplinary requirements for ordination.)
2. Attain a bachelor’s degree plus five graduate certification courses in the area of specialization, including a course in United Methodist doctrine and polity.
3. Attain a master’s degree in the area of specialization.

The following are ways a person can fulfill the academic requirements for associate certification at Oklahoma City University:

1. Complete a minimum of 24 semester hours in the area of specialization, such as the program for associate certification in youth ministry or program for associate certification in Christian education,
2. Complete a minimum of 24 semester hours in undergraduate course work, and
3. Complete five graduate certification studies in the area of specialization including a course in United Methodist doctrine and polity.

For additional information on requirements for certification, contact the registrar of the Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, Section of Deacons and Diaconal Ministry.

Associate Certification Program in Youth Ministry

The associate certification in youth ministry is a program for persons over twenty-five years of age who do not have a college degree and wish to receive training leading to certification in the United Methodist Church. The program is offered by colleges recognized by the United Methodist General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, Section of Deacons. Students must complete a minimum of 24 semester hours in the area of specialization.

Meinders School of Business

A Broad View of Management

The Meinders School of Business is committed to providing quality business education at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Curricula are designed to provide students with a broad-based view of management: a view that emphasizes ethics, entrepreneurship, and social responsibility in the workplace; a view of management that will enable students to work effectively in the challenging global business environment. Course work features practice as well as theory and helps to provide students with the management skills necessary for effective leadership. Theoretical foundations are balanced by practical applications.

An Educational Environment That Serves the Student

The Meinders School offers students a wide variety of learning opportunities outside the classroom. These enrichment activities provide valuable insights into the business world and augment traditional classroom study. Learning opportunities such as industry visits, internships, and career coaching help students develop strategies to reach their career goals. Through a series of professional development workshops conducted each semester, students also begin preparing for their careers after college. Among the topics covered are résumé writing, interviewing techniques, business etiquette, and communication skills.

Outstanding Facilities

The business school is located in the Meinders School of Business building, a $20 million state-of-the-art facility. The three-story, eighty thousand square-foot building includes features that focus on student success and add value to students’ learning experiences. The facility includes classrooms with leading edge technology, breakout study rooms for small groups, a learning center, student/faculty lounge, and resource center. The building houses faculty offices, and a 230-seat tiered auditorium capable of hosting videoconferences, guest speakers, and seminars.

Busey Institute for Enterprise & Leadership

The Busey Institute for Enterprise and Leadership brings an exclusive blend of leadership programming to Meinders School of Business and the OKC Metroplex. Programming includes leadership assessment, coaching, professional development and educational opportunities, as well as conferences and speaker forums offered for the benefit of students as well as regional businesses. These unique programs incorporate specially developed course curriculum, highly interactive workshops, leading-edge materials, and activities all committed to the personal growth, professional development, and career success of our students and business managers across the OKC Metroplex.

Continuing Professional Education Programs

The Continuing Professional Education Program offers students and working professionals certification courses in many demanding fields including Project Management Professional (PMP), Petroleum Land Management (PLM), Professional in Human Resources (PHR) and Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR). We also meet the dynamic needs of regional businesses by providing customized on-site programs for groups. We specialize in program development, handling everything from entire program assessment and delivery to all administrative functions. The Continuing Professional Education Program at Oklahoma City University, in partnership with Gatlin Education Services and ed2go, also offers more than 400 online open enrollment programs designed to provide the skills necessary to acquire professional-level positions for many in-demand occupations. For more information or to enroll in a course, visit okcu.edu/business/profed.

Steven C. Agee Economic Research and Policy Institute

The Steven C. Agee Economic Research and Policy Institute is focused on assisting the Oklahoma City business community by disseminating information to businesses, government, and regulatory agencies through economic impact studies, marketing and macroeconomic survey data, and other forms of economic research. The institute is instrumental in conducting the three-state Arvest Consumer Sentiment Survey in partnership with the Bureau of Economic Research at Missouri State University and the Center for Business and Economic Research at the University of Arkansas. The institute is designed to provide undergraduate and M.B.A. students opportunities for direct involvement in applied economic research through the Institute Scholars Program. To learn more about the institute, see okcu.edu/business or contact Russell Evans at rrevans@okcu.edu.

Academic Policies

Transfer Students/Credits

The academic dean and the student’s advisor evaluate and approve courses to be transferred from other regionally accredited colleges and universities. All courses accepted from other institutions must encompass the equivalent breadth and depth of courses offered in the school.

Any Oklahoma City University student wishing to enroll simultaneously at another institution must file a petition and obtain prior written approval of the academic dean.

Grading

Students enrolled in the Meinders School are evaluated in all courses using the university grading system described in this catalog (beginning on page 37). A maximum of 3 credit hours of approved elective course work may be taken on the credit/no-credit grading system.

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend classes and arrive no later than the designated starting time for all classes. Absenteeism and tardiness may lead to a grade reduction at the professor’s discretion.

Academic Probation

Students will be placed on probation according to the policy described in the Academic Regulations section of this catalog (beginning on page 29).

Academic Appeal Process

A student may appeal decisions affecting his or her academic progress as follows:

1. The student initiates an appeal by filing a written petition with the school’s academic dean.
2. The academic dean reviews the petition and determines if a meeting with the student petitioner is necessary.
3. The student petitioner will be informed in writing of the decision on the merits of his or her petition.
4. If the student does not agree with the decision, he or she may continue the appeal process with the assistant provost.

Student’s Responsibility for Degree Program

Each student enrolled in the school is responsible for being aware of and meeting all the requirements of the degree program. Each student should maintain a personal record of his or her progress toward the degree.

Whenever an exception to the planned program of study is deemed necessary, such exception, having been made in consultation with an academic advisor, must be documented for the official record and approved in writing by the dean of the school. All requests for independent study, arranged courses, course substitutions, course waivers, concurrent enrollment, course transfer, or semester hour loads in excess of 18 credit hours (exclusive of physical activity courses) must be approved in writing by the dean.

As a requirement for graduation, undergraduate (B.B.A.) business students must take and pass the Business-Multi-Field Assessment Test (MFAT) by achieving a total score $\geq$ 65 percent of the maximum score possible of 200 points. This equates to a minimum threshold score of 130 points. A student who fails to pass or take the MFAT at the required, scheduled time:

- May take/retake the test at his/her own expense. There is no limit to the number of retakes and only the highest score will be recorded.
- Should engage with faculty members for review and preparation to retake the assessment.

Degree Programs

The Meinders School of Business offers the degrees of Bachelor of Business Administration (B.B.A.), Bachelor of Science (B.S.) in software engineering, Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.), the Master of Science in Accounting (M.S.A.), the Master of Science (M.S.) in computer science, the Master of Science (M.S.) in energy management, and the Master of Science (M.S.) in energy legal studies.
B.B.A. Degree Requirements

1. General Requirements
   See the General Requirements for Degrees section of this catalog (page 30).

2. Course Requirements
   The student program is composed of courses classified in four groups:

   A. General education curriculum        43 credit hours
   B. Basic business courses              59 credit hours
   C. Area of specialization or major     21–24 credit hours
   D. Electives                           0–9 credit hours

   Although a student, with the help of an advisor, has a choice of courses under these four main classifications, certain essential courses must be included. The four broad classifications permit maximum freedom in choosing courses to fit a student’s individual needs while ensuring that each student receives a balanced preparation for business and life.

General Education Requirements for All Undergraduate Majors

The basic general education curriculum is a requirement for all undergraduate degrees at Oklahoma City University. See the general education section of this catalog for the general education requirements (pages 57–58). Updated lists of courses approved by the General Education Committee are available on the university website.

Bachelor of Business Administration

Accounting

Chair: Shough
Faculty: Murray, Shough, Stetson

Program Description

The courses in accounting provide students with a broad knowledge of generally accepted accounting principles, cost accounting practices, not-for-profit and governmental accounting procedures, and tax laws. They are designed to meet the needs of the public accountant, industry accountant, government accountant, and the needs of the owner-manager of a business. The following are typical areas of professional activity that provide opportunities for graduates in accounting: public accounting firms, both national and local; small and large corporations; federal, state, and local governments; and service organizations, such as hospitals, nonprofit agencies, and universities.

Business Administration

Chair: Jones

Faculty: Dearmon, Dean, Evans, Flores, Greve, Guzak, Howard, Jones, Khader, Ma, Murray, Shandiz, Shaw, Shough, Smith, Stetson, Wareham, Wegener, Williams, Willner

Program Description

Reflecting the Meinders School’s broad view of business administration, the business administration major allows the student to tailor the course work to suit her or his particular interests and professional objectives. Students choose a first and second field from the six available fields listed below, then select three courses in the first field and two courses in the second field. Two additional 3000-level or above business school credit hours are then chosen to complete the major. Courses in some fields must be taken in the proper sequence, and students must meet stated course prerequisites.

Economics

Chair: Shaw

Faculty: Dean, Dearmon, Evans, Willner

Program Description

An economics major offers many professional opportunities in business and government. Economic analysis is regularly applied to many different real-world issues. One is not limited with an economics major. The analytical training emphasizes is also valuable as preparation for graduate study in business, law, and many other disciplines. Economics provides the basic understanding of much of the business world. Typical employment after graduation is in insurance, securities, and banking industries. Other areas of employment where analytic skills are a priority are also common employment opportunities.

Math, as a second field, is necessary for a graduate degree in economics and highly recommended for graduate study in finance. For those planning to attend law school, economics is one of the most useful majors. See an economics or finance faculty member for more information.

Finance

Chair: Shaw

Faculty: Ma, Shaw

Program Description

Knowledge and understanding of financial organization and structure have a very real place in our economic system. Professional training in financial principles, practices, and promotion; operation and contribution of community and securities markets; investment and risk concepts; short-term and long-term financing for firms; and expansion, consolidation, and merger of enterprises all prepare the student for work in a finance department or to work as a specialist in the areas of budget, investment, or credit and financial control. Professional opportunities will be found in banks, savings and loan associations, investment firms, brokerage houses, or financial planning in the public sector.

Marketing

Chair: Jones

Faculty: Flores, Howard, Jones, Smith, Williams

Program Description

Marketing is a system of business activities that begins with an interpretation of the wants and needs of consumers, follows through with all activities involved in the flow of goods and services from producers to consumers, and ends with those services necessary to aid the consumer in getting the expected usefulness from the product or service purchased.

Every organization’s goal is to market and sell its products or services profitably while creating a valuable relationship with customers. A marketing graduate could find professional opportunities in sales, advertising, communications, promotions, brand management, supply chain management, research, and more for companies both large and small, for profit and nonprofit. The emphasis of our program is a blend of theory and “hands-on” experiences through projects with external clients, internships, and interactions with leaders in the marketing industry.

Bachelor of Science in Software Engineering

Chair: Greve
Faculty: Aboudja, Park, Satyavolu

Program Description

Over the past decade, the fields of computer science and information systems have experienced major shifts in both the workplace and the very nature of the work itself. In this same time frame, the planning, design, quality assurance, and project management aspects of software engineering have become high growth areas. The U.S. Department of Labor’s Bureau of Labor Statistics identifies software engineering as one of the fields projected to grow the fastest and add the most jobs through 2018 – specifically a 34% job growth rate.

The Bachelor of Science in software engineering degree is designed to provide students with coursework, real world applications projects, and learning experiences away from the computer science program’s traditional emphasis on programming and toward a richer and more in-depth learning experience built on the foundations of solving problems through systems thinking and application of technology. While still including programming, the software engineering program is broadened to encompass the systems, planning, and design aspects necessary to enable students to understand and analyze the requirements and provide the right technology-based solution in preparation for attractive careers in a high growth and challenging industry.

As detailed in the tables below, the Bachelor of Science in software engineering program of study is comprised of a common core set of courses designed to build a solid foundation of base-level knowledge and abilities. Building on this common core of required courses, students can follow their passion and choose from two very different tracks of study:

1. Business Solutions Track

On top of a solid curricular base of software engineering and computer science, this track integrates systems and networks perspectives from information technology along with core business courses. This combination builds a foundation of business acumen and the understanding necessary for creating innovative and effective technology solutions to business problems and needs. Graduates from this track will enter careers in information systems and technology within business and consulting organizations.
Computer Science-STEM Track
With a strong emphasis in computer science and math, this track prepares the undergraduate for a career in software engineering and also provides a solid base for subsequent graduate work in a software engineering masters programs as well as applied computer science.

Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment

The Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment provides professional, career-oriented programs for students interested in working in the American entertainment and performing arts industries as dancers, managers, dance teachers, or as creative talent with strong business and liberal arts knowledge and skills. The school, which consists of the dance and arts management departments, seeks to produce graduates who are prepared to work in the commercial entertainment or nonprofit performing arts industries.

Academic Policies

Admission Requirements

Applicants to the dance program must audition for admission and be accepted. Applicants for admission to the entertainment business major must submit a goals-related essay and résumé and must be interviewed and accepted by the arts management faculty.

Applicants must have ACT scores of 20 or higher or SAT scores of 950 (math plus verbal from a single sitting) or higher to be eligible to audition for admission to the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment as entering freshman dance majors. Applicants must have ACT scores of 21 or higher or SAT scores (math plus verbal in a single sitting) of 1000 or higher to be eligible to be interviewed by arts management faculty for admission as freshmen entertainment business majors.

To be eligible to audition for admission as a dance major or to be interviewed by the arts management faculty for admission as an entertainment business major, transfer students with less than 27 completed semester credit hours of academic courses must have qualifying ACT or SAT scores as described above for entering freshman dance majors. Applicants must have ACT scores of 21 or higher or SAT scores (math plus verbal in a single sitting) of 1000 or higher to be eligible to be interviewed by arts management faculty for admission as freshmen entertainment business majors.

To be eligible to audition for admission as a dance major or to be interviewed by the arts management faculty for admission as an entertainment business major, transfer students with less than 27 completed semester credit hours of academic courses must have qualifying ACT or SAT scores as described above for entering freshman dance majors. Applicants must have ACT scores of 21 or higher or SAT scores (math plus verbal in a single sitting) of 1000 or higher to be eligible to be interviewed by arts management faculty for admission as freshmen entertainment business majors.

Dance Transfer Credits

Transfer credit for modern dance courses may not be applied toward the requirements of the dance degrees.

Credit/No-credit

Students within the school may not take courses for credit/no-credit to meet degree requirements.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend classes diligently and regularly in the same way that employees in the entertainment industry are expected to show up for work. Course grades will be lowered one full grade (i.e., A- to B-) for each absence beyond that allowed for the course under the appropriate dance or arts management Standards and Procedures. Three late arrivals or early departures from class will be considered equal to one absence.

Arts Management Course Projects and Papers

Course projects and papers must be turned in before or by the established due time and date deadline. Projects and papers will not be accepted after deadlines. Late projects and papers will receive a grade of zero.

School Academic Probation

Students within the school with a semester GPA below 2.00 or with two or more F's in any subject during a semester, will be placed on Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment academic probation. In order to remain in a major within the school, students on school academic probation must achieve, during the following semester, a semester GPA of 3.0 or higher in an enrollment of at least 15 credit hours approved by the dean, with no grades of D or F.

Students who have been placed on school academic probation who do not meet the above requirements may... apply for consideration for readmittance after completing an additional 30 credit hours in academic courses (not applied arts or nonacademic courses) with a GPA of 3.0 and no D's or F's for any semester in which the students were enrolled after leaving the school.

Minimum Grade Requirements for Dance Management, American Dance Teacher, and Entertainment Business Majors

For an arts management course (AMGT) or business course to count toward the B.S. in dance management degree, B.S. in American dance pedagogy or B.S. in entertainment business degree, a student must earn a grade of C (2.00) or higher.

Full-Time Enrollment Required

In order to remain in the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment, students must maintain full-time enrollment (a minimum of 12 credit hours) each semester. Last-semester seniors with less than 12 credit hours of remaining degree requirements may enroll in less than 12 credit hours as long as they enroll in all of their remaining degree requirements offered by the university.

Concurrent Enrollments

Students may not enroll in courses at other colleges or universities during the fall or spring semesters while attending Oklahoma City University.

Employment in the Entertainment Industry and the Start and End of a Semester

Students will not be excused from classes, final exams, project and paper deadlines, dance leveling, or juries at the end of a semester in order to begin employment. Students may not return late for the spring semester. Students may receive permission to miss certain classes at the beginning of the academic year in August due to summer employment in the entertainment industry. The process for receiving permission to return late in August is posted on the dance and arts management call boards each year and must be followed carefully.

Policy-Based Program

The Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment is governed by policy documents which include Dance Standards and Procedures, Entertainment Business Standards and Procedures, Parents' and New Students’ Guide to the Oklahoma City University Dance Department, and Parents’ and New Students’ Guide to the Entertainment Business Program. Students, faculty, and staff within the school are expected to adhere to the policies described in these documents.

Performance Opportunities for Dancers

Dancers may audition for the American Spirit Dance Company, Oklahoma City University Pep Dancers, Spirit of Grace Liturgical Dancers, and opera and musical theatre productions presented by Oklahoma City University’s Oklahoma Opera and Music Theatre Company. They may also find performance opportunities in the popular annual Student Choreography Show.

American Spirit Dance Company members and arts management majors may apply to be considered for the American Spirit Dance Company’s special touring company. Students’ transportation and lodging expenses for tours are paid for by the American Spirit Dance Company.

Performance Opportunities for Entertainment Business Majors

Entertainment business majors constitute a multifaceted group with interests in all aspects of the arts and entertainment industry. Performing opportunities include university choirs, university theatre, children’s theatre, university band, university orchestra, and Oklahoma Opera and Music Theatre Company. There are also a multitude of bands and ensembles formed by students providing opportunities for instrumentalists, vocalists, and songwriters.

Degree Programs

The Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment offers the degrees of Bachelor of Performing Arts in dance performance (B.P.A.), Bachelor of Science in dance management (B.S.), Bachelor of Science in entertainment business (B.S.), Bachelor of Science in American dance pedagogy (B.S.) and Bachelor of Arts in dance (B.A.).

Students selected through audition to pursue a dance degree take a foundation curriculum of dance technique, teaching dance, choreography, dance history, arts management and production, music fundamentals, and general education courses in the first two years. Students are placed in one of the three dance degrees (B.P.A. Dance Performance, B.S. American Dance Pedagogy, or Dance Management) for their junior and senior years. Placement in the degree for which students are best matched is based on the students’ interests and faculty evaluation of their skills, knowledge, and accomplishments.

Degree Requirements

Bachelor of Performing Arts in Dance Performance

Minimum semester hours and GPA 124 credit hours, 2.75 GPA

Major courses minimum GPA 3.00
Commitment to Education

The Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment is committed to developing future leaders in the entertainment industry. We strongly believe that the best leaders are those who are not only thoroughly trained in performance or arts management, but who also are well educated in the liberal arts. We believe that a solid education produces greater opportunities and personal rewards for our students. Students are expected to maintain a balanced semester schedule that includes academic as well as performance or arts management classes.

Mission and Purpose

In 1981, the Oklahoma City University dance department was reconceived and reorganized as a career-oriented program offering students the opportunity to study tap, jazz, and ballet with an emphasis on theatre dance. The program aims to create well-rounded performers, arts managers, and dance teachers. Dance performance majors study voice, drama, music, and technical theatre to become “triple threats,” a show business term for the performer who can dance, sing, and act. Dance management majors study arts management and business to prepare for a variety of management jobs in the performing arts. American dance teacher majors study business, choreography, and the art of teaching dance to help them become well-prepared dance teachers.

The dance program has a double consumer orientation: It strives to meet the needs of career-oriented students who seek education, training, and experience in a professionally oriented program, and it strives to meet the needs of its own and future audiences by teaching students that audiences must always be remembered and entertained. In fact, the dance program is founded on the belief that art and entertainment are not mutually exclusive.

It is also the purpose of the dance program to instill in its students renewed appreciation and respect for the American dance forms. The dances and songs that evolved out of the American experience and traditions communicate to a larger audience than the more traditional Western European art forms.

Ballet is taught as a common framework and for the mental and physical discipline and training it provides. Even though the dance program offers more ballet training than most traditional ballet/modern programs at other universities, ballet is not a primary feature of the program, and modern is omitted as a result of a conscious effort to avoid duplication of the many outstanding ballet and modern programs taught throughout the region and nation.

The dance program narrows its focus to entertainment and theatre dance and excels in these areas. It is the purpose of the dance department to maintain a national reputation as the university to attend if one wants a college degree and a career in musical theatre or entertainment dance, dance management, or dance instruction and choreography.

Being a dance major and enrolling in dance classes is a privilege granted by the university, not a right. Due to the strenuous nature of dance and the career orientation of the dance program, the university reserves the right to determine the eligibility of any student to continue majoring in dance and enrolling in dance classes based on considerations including, but not limited to, health and weight; regular attendance of dance classes; focus and commitment; probable success in attaining the dance degree as determined by the dance faculty’s evaluation of the student’s technical progress measured by leveling examinations at the end of each semester; and a student’s record of active participation and growth as an artist and performer as measured by various performance proficiency examinations and academic progress.

Regular class attendance is related to health and safety. A dancer who does not study and train regularly is subject to increased incidents of injury. Weight in dance is both an aesthetic and a health and safety consideration. Excess weight causes misalignment and leveraging of body parts that can lead to injury.

Dance Major

All students wishing to major in dance or to attend dance classes must audition and be leveled and approved for admission into dance classes or into the dance program by the dance faculty. Students wishing to enter the dance program in the fall semester should audition during the preceding fall or spring. DVD auditions are accepted during the summer.

Students who are not able to audition in person may audition for admission by submitting a nonreturnable audition DVD and questionnaire. Students are strongly encouraged to audition in person.

Students wishing to be considered for a dance tuition scholarship should plan to audition in person at the dance admission and scholarship auditions held each fall and spring. Students auditioning for a scholarship and admission into the dance program are judged on personality, college entrance test scores, body structure, weight and appearance, and technical ability and versatility.

For information about audition dates or recorded audition requirements, contact the dance department by phone at (405) 208-5644, by email at dance@okcu.edu, or visit our website at okcu.edu/dance_amgt.

Weight Policy

Since the dance program is oriented toward preparing dancers for professional careers, weight is a very important factor in a student’s success, happiness, health, grades, and retention in the dance program. Students seeking admission into the dance program or to enroll in dance classes required by specific music and theatre degrees will be evaluated in part on their weight and body structure.

Due to the variety of body types and structures, it is not possible to develop a weight/height table for objectively evaluating students. This is a subjective area, and judgments about weight and appearance are made solely by the dance faculty.

Students who are considered by the dance faculty to be significantly overweight or underweight or who have structural problems will not be admitted as dance majors and may not be permitted to take dance classes if the dance faculty feel that participation could be a health and/or safety risk.

Dance majors who do not achieve and maintain acceptable dance weight may be counseled out of the program at any time. Students are encouraged to seek professional assistance in setting up a nutritious weight adjustment and maintenance program. Students who are not able to actively participate in dance classes may be counseled out of the program at any time and/or required to drop their dance courses.

The dance department adheres to a uniform grading policy that applies the same grading standards to all students in dance technique courses regardless of academic major, prior dance training, or personal goals.

The weight and appearance standards for professional dancers in the musical theatre and entertainment industries, as determined by the dance faculty, apply to all ballet, jazz, and tap courses at the A and B levels. Final course grades for students not meeting these standards, as determined by the course instructors, will be reduced one complete letter grade (e.g. a B- to a C-).

Health and Safety

The dean of the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment or the chair of the dance department may require a student to take a physical at the student’s expense before granting permission for the student to participate in dance classes and activities. The dean of the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment or the chair of the dance department may also suspend a student’s participation in dance classes and dance activities out of concern for the health and safety of the student. The dean of the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment or the chair of the dance department may require that a student be examined by a physician at the student’s expense and be cleared for full participation in dance technique classes and dance activities before the student may resume participation.

Non-Dance Majors and Dance Technique Classes

Only students in degree programs specifically requiring dance technique courses may enroll in a dance technique course. Dance courses may not be used to meet activity requirements for non-dance majors.

All students must obtain permission from the dean of the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment to enroll in a dance course.

All students must be leveled by the dance faculty to be eligible to enroll in dance technique courses. Subject to availability. Contact the Dance Office at (405) 208-5322 for information about leveling schedules.
Double Majors

Dance majors may not double major. The dance program is extremely demanding and time consuming due to its professional career orientation. Dance majors are involved in physically rigorous classes and rehearsals, performances, runouts, and tours. These activities take considerable time, energy, and concentration. Fatigue caused by overextension can cause illness, injury, psychological and emotional distress, poor grades, and loss of scholarships.

Minors

Dance majors who are interested in minoring in another subject area are encouraged to do so. There are many minors available through other departments on campus. Most minors require 18–21 credit hours of concentrated work in a specified subject area. Information about minors can be obtained from the department in the subject of interest.

Senior Performance and Technical Proficiency Exam—Capstone

Students must apply to the dance program for permission to take the senior performance and technical proficiency exam. A student may be denied permission if the dance faculty determines that the student is unlikely to achieve required graduation levels. A student may be denied permission if the dean of the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment or the chair of the dance department believe that participation in the components of the exam jeopardize the student’s health and safety. Detailed information about applying for permission to take the senior performance and technical proficiency exam and application procedures are contained in the Dance Standards and Procedures.

In order to be awarded a B.P.A. in dance performance, dance performance majors must attain the following minimum competency levels as determined by the dance department leveling jury:

- First-Choice Dance Style  Master Level 7
- Second-Choice Dance Style  Master Level 6
- Third-Choice Dance Style  Master Level 5

In order to attain the required graduation levels, students may need to complete more than the minimum required credit hours in dance technique classes.

Dance performance majors must successfully complete a senior performance project that includes the performance of a solo dance of two to three minutes in length. The dance must be an original work created during the senior year. The senior performance project is adjudicated as either Satisfactory or Unsatisfactory by the dance faculty on the basis of the quality of performance and choreography. To graduate with the B.P.A. in dance performance, a student must attain at the time of the senior performance and technical proficiency examinations a graduation weight established by the dance department. The graduation weight is established during the semester of planned graduation or during the semester before planned graduation.

In the event that a student does not succeed in one or more components of the proficiency exam, the following policies apply:

1. At the discretion of the dance department chair, within seven days after the first examination, the student may be given a re-examination covering the portion of the examination that he or she previously failed.
2. The student will have a maximum of eighteen months to take a second exam(s) of any and all portions of the examination which the student originally failed. During this period, the student may retake the required portion(s) no more than three times (not including the re-examination described in item 1, above).
3. The student must retake all failed portions of the examination at the same time.
4. The student may not schedule the first retake earlier than ninety days after the original examination.
5. The student must apply in writing to the dance department chair to schedule a retake and must indicate what measures have been taken to prepare for successful completion of the examination.
6. In the event that the student fails to successfully complete all parts of the proficiency examination within eighteen months and the three allowed retakes, the B.P.A. in dance performance will not be awarded and no additional examinations will be given.

Bachelor of Arts in Dance

The Bachelor of Arts in dance degree option is offered only to Oklahoma City University students who have completed all the course requirements for the Bachelor of Performing Arts in dance (B.P.A.) but have been unable to take or pass the Senior Dance Performance and Technical Proficiency Examination required for the B.P.A. in dance performance. No other classification of dance majors or other students are eligible for this degree program.

Eligible students must select courses totaling 24 credit hours from an approved list of courses offered through the Petree College of Arts and Sciences. No more than two courses may be selected from the same department, unless the student declares a minor upon entering the B.A. in dance program. A student may take academic courses in a single department necessary to fulfill requirements for a minor, but must take the balance of courses in other departments with no more than two courses in a single department. Applied, studio, and skills courses required for a minor will not count toward the 24 credit hour requirement.

Courses taken by the student before entering the B.A. in dance program will not count toward the 24 credit hour requirement. For a course to count toward the B.A. in dance degree, the student must earn a grade of C (2.000) or higher. To enroll in a course, the student must meet the prerequisite and permission requirements of the department offering the course. All courses must be taken in residence at Oklahoma City University. Once a student elects to pursue the B.A. in dance, the student is no longer eligible to take or retake the Senior Dance Performance and Technical Proficiency Examination required for the B.P.A.

For a complete list of approved courses, contact the dean of the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment.

Competency in Dance Technique—
Ballet/Tap/Jazz

Competency in ballet, tap, and jazz technique are determined by leveling examinations. A level 5 in the student’s first choice and level 4’s in the student’s second and third choice technique are required for graduation. Students who do not attain the minimum requirements will not be permitted to graduate with the B.S. in Dance Teacher degree.

In order to attain the required graduation levels, students may need to complete more than the minimum required credit hours in dance technique courses.

Arts Management Department

Chair: Bedford
Faculty: McLaurin, Shelley, Suggs
Adjunct Faculty: Estes, Millsap, Telfer

The arts management department seeks to prepare students to become managers in the entertainment and performing arts industries or to become performers or creative talent who can better manage or understand the management of their business affairs. Arts management courses are designed to combine theory with practical application. Many courses require extensive projects, which can be used later by students as part of their job search portfolio. Hands-on experiences are provided through the many performance activities and productions presented both on and off campus.

Career-Related Track Courses 18

Students work with their advisor to plan a combination of 18 hours of track courses from various departments. Track choices include:

Event Planning Track includes conventions, meetings, weddings, fashion events, business events and more!

Entertainment Pre-Law Track includes courses to focus on various types of law.

Talent Management Track includes casting, talent management, and personal business management.

Entertainment Enterprise Track includes touring, sports entertainment, venue management, church arts programs, film, entrepreneurship, and customizing is available with department permission.

The tracks provide the student with an opportunity to select courses from a list designed to support his or her specific management interests in the entertainment industry. Because the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Arts Management offers a B.S. in dance management, the entertainment business program and the career-related academic electives may not be used to create a customized dance or dance management track. Entertainment Business students may enroll in dance technique courses for self-development. Dance Health is required for Entertainment Business students wishing to take dance technique.

Wanda L. Bass School of Music

The Bass School of Music is renowned for its exceptional training of musicians in the liberal arts tradition. For 80 years its graduates have been in demand as singers, conductors, composers, instrumentalists, educators, critics, and commentators. Bass School of Music alumni include Grammy, Tony, and Emmy award winners. It is the only school in the world to be both an all-Steinway institution and a member of the National Alliance for Music Theatre. Over the past decade, students have enrolled from forty-eight states and five continents.

The school’s versatile faculty features nationally known performers, composers, and clinicians who excel at teaching. Twelve Oklahoma City University professors play in professional orchestras. Top guest artists give frequent performances and master classes. Students are well schooled in the classics and involved in the creation and exploration of new works.

Oklahoma City University’s Oklahoma Opera and Music Theater Company presents eighteen performances of six shows each year. The student-run production company, OCUStripped, produces four additional shows each year. Ensembles, open to all university students by audition, include the Symphony Orchestra, Wind Philharmonic, Ad Astra Women’s Choir, Men’s Choir, Chamber Choir, University Singers, Surrey Singers, Percussion Ensemble, Flute Choir, Jazz Ensemble, and Jazz Arts Combo. Project 21, organized by student composers, presents concerts of original works at least five times a year, and singers plan and perform programs for an informal on-campus cabaret. More than two hundred performances, ranging from solo recitals to collaborations involving several ensembles, are staged during the academic year.

Mission

The School of Music provides a professional education within the liberal arts curriculum and develops musicians equipped to make significant artistic contributions to society. Critical thinking, open inquiry, and artistic expression are fostered through the study of traditional intellectual disciplines and applied skills.

Core Beliefs & Values

Student Success and Excellence

We believe in an education that is student-driven. We believe that priorities and resource allocation should reflect what is best for the student. We believe that effective student learning includes ongoing feedback and the demonstration of learned skills. Our success is demonstrated by the professional achievements of our students and alumni.

Faculty Excellence

We believe that our discipline requires lifelong learning and that this concept must be - and is - demonstrated to students through public performances, scholarship and professional development. While our faculty is performance-oriented, we believe all faculty must be teachers first and foremost. We believe faculty should be caring and involved in the educational and professional development of their students.

Service to the Community

We believe in service to a global community. We believe that serving the community through music helps students become sensitive to and have respect for changing and diverse communities. We strive to educate students in their responsibility of service to the community now and in the future.

Commitment to the Future of Music

We believe that the process of music making is organic. We prepare versatile students who can succeed in an ever-changing marketplace.

Accreditation

The school is a full member of the National Association of Schools of Music. The requirements for entrance and for graduation as set forth in this catalog are in accordance with the published regulations of this association.

Fields of Study

Bachelor of Music

Students preparing for a career in the fields of performance, music theater, private teaching, music business, music education, or composition enroll in a four-year degree program.
Performance includes piano, organ, voice, guitar, and all of the orchestral instruments. The music education degree is offered in vocal and instrumental education.

Bachelor of Arts

The Bachelor of Arts degree is offered with a major in music. Requirements incorporate core applied music and academic studies with additional course work from the general education studies. Students pursuing the B.A. in music can customize their elective courses to acquire the prerequisites for medical school, law school, or graduate business school (M.B.A.).

Master of Music

This degree allows advanced study in the fields of opera performance, musical theater, composition, conducting, and performance (instrumental and voice). See the graduate catalog for detailed information.

Preparatory Division

The Performing Arts Academy offers noncredit programs for pre-college students and continuing education for adults in all instruments and voice, early childhood music, and ensembles.

The Faculty

Professors at the school are carefully chosen based on their educational, teaching, and performance backgrounds. Faculty members are active performers, composers, and researchers, but their top priority is teaching. The faculty is committed to student success. Each student receives individual attention. No classes are taught by graduate students or teaching assistants.

Facilities

The Bass School of Music is housed in the 113,000-square-foot state-of-the-art Wanda L. Bass Music Center and the historic Kirkpatrick Fine Arts Center. Opened in 2006, the Bass Music Center features high-tech music labs for voice, composition, and sound recording as well as thirty-seven teaching studios, sixty practice rooms, seven ensemble rehearsal rooms and an organ practice facility with a Brombaugh organ. Each classroom, teaching studio, practice room, rehearsal space, and performance hall features at least one Steinway piano. The Italian-designed Bishop W. Angie Smith Chapel is built around German stained glass windows depicting the four seasons. The main sanctuary features seating for 650. The chapel’s newly restored seventy-rank Holtkamp organ and two practice organs make the chapel a center of musical activity for the campus and the city.

Oklahoma City University is the home of The Oklahoma Opera and Music Theater Company. Opera and musical theater productions performed in the 1,119-seat Kirkpatrick Auditorium are enhanced by special lighting, costume, and scenic design from on-campus technical theater faculty, staff, and students. The facilities include an orchestra pit capable of holding an orchestra of fifty and full dressing rooms. The 500-seat Petree Recital Hall hosts orchestral, wind band, jazz band, choir, small ensemble, and recital performances. The hall is designed for audio and television recording of performances. The 255-seat Burg Theatre is used for major dramatic productions, lectures, and other special presentations. The black box theater offers innovative options, including in-the-round staging and staggered platforms to create multiple levels for performers and/or audience members. Features include thirty-six-foot high ceilings and a dedicated light and sound booth. A more intimate venue is provided by the 46-seat Wimberly Room, which features state-of-the-art equipment for recording and multimedia presentations. The Wimberly Room is used for master classes, lectures, and recitals.

The Dulaney-Browne Library houses a collection of books, periodicals, and recordings in the areas of music and the performing arts. The Leichter Library in the Bass School of Music features more than thirty thousand recordings and scores. Students have access to a computer/keyboard laboratory with Web access and extensive capabilities for composition, music sequencing, and computer-assisted learning.

Advising

The Bass School of Music gives individual advising attention to each student. In the field of music—where aptitudes, career-interests, and the individual preferences of students vary—advising is of great importance. All music students are assigned a faculty advisor. The faculty advisor must be consulted prior to each semester’s enrollment. The coordinator of student services assists with the enrollment process.

Organizations

The Bass School of Music sponsors several student musical organizations: University Singers, Concert Choir, Chamber Choir, Wind Philharmonic, Symphony Orchestra, Percussion Ensemble, Jazz Arts Ensemble, Jazz Combo, Pep Band, Flute Choir, Double Bass Ensemble, Guitar Ensemble, Early Music Ensemble, and small instrumental and vocal ensembles. Project 21 is a consortium of Oklahoma City University composers who collaborate with vocalists and instrumentalists to bring new musical works to life. Students also form informal groups that perform in clubs from Oklahoma City to Austin. Student societies include the Alpha Zeta Chapter (1928) of Sigma Alpha Iota, an international music fraternity for women; the Alpha Epsilon Chapter of Pi Kappa Lambda (1960), a national music honor society; and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia (1994) for men.

Performance

A full calendar of musical events is presented to the general public and university community each year. Guest artists give performances and master classes for students and the community.

More than 500,000 people have attended Oklahoma City University performances in Oklahoma and abroad. The Oklahoma Opera and Music Theater Company, Symphony Orchestra, Surrey Singers, Wind Philharmonic, and Chamber Choir have all toured extensively, including several international tours. Oklahoma City University students travel widely, bringing their special talents to other parts of the world while learning from and interacting with other cultures.

Oklahoma City: A Thriving Cultural Center

Concerts by touring virtuosi, along with innumerable recitals and concerts by faculty and students, make Oklahoma City one of the most vital performing arts centers in the Southwest. The city is also home to the Oklahoma City Philharmonic, Oklahoma City Ballet, Canterbury Choral Society, Bright Music, Lyric Theatre, and a variety of other musical and theatrical organizations.

Employment

The Placement Office assists students in finding part-time employment in the performing arts or a related area while attending the university. Advanced music majors may have opportunities to teach in the Performing Arts Academy. Outstanding vocal music education majors may apply for a year-long, paid internship with the Canterbury Youth Choruses during their senior year. Students are made aware of national auditions and competitions throughout the academic year by the Bass School of Music and by studio instructors. On-campus auditions are held by professional organizations including Lyric Theatre, Music Theatre of Wichita, Disney, Busch Gardens, Opryland, Discoveryland, Oklahoma Children’s Theatre, Oklahoma Shakespeare in the Park, and City Rep.

The Placement Office staff and Bass School of Music faculty make every effort to assist graduates in finding suitable positions. Employers seeking qualified performers and teachers frequently contact the university. Students pursuing graduate study frequently win admission to the world’s top universities and conservatories.

Admission Requirements—Music

In addition to meeting the general university admission requirements, all students wishing to major in music must be accepted through audition. See okcu.edu/music/auditions/ for current audition requirements. The applicant should have the following musical qualifications:

1. To enter the B.M. curriculum in piano, the student should be able to play creditably such compositions as the Bach “Two-Part Inventions” and the easier sonatas of Haydn and Mozart. The student should be able to play major and minor scales, chords, and arpeggios with accurate fingering at a moderately rapid tempo.

2. To major on an orchestral instrument, the student should be able to play compositions of above-average difficulty on his or her instrument.

3. To enter the curriculum in voice, the student should have ability as a singer and knowledge of the rudiments of music. Some background in piano is highly desirable.

4. To enter the curriculum in vocal music education, the student should have a satisfactory singing voice and knowledge of music fundamentals. The ability to play simple piano music is highly desirable.

5. To enter the curriculum in instrumental music education, the student should be able to play at least one band or orchestral instrument well enough to have performed in a high school band or orchestra.

6. Candidates for the curriculum in composition must audition as a vocalist or instrumentalist, submit several scores and/or recordings of original work for evaluation, and complete an interview with the composer-in-residence.

7. To enter the curriculum in guitar, the student should be able to play compositions equal in difficulty to the studies of Sor, Giuliani, Carulli, or Carcassi, and be able to play major and minor scales, chords, and arpeggios.
To enter the curriculum in music theater, the student should have ability as a singer, dancer (ballet, tap, or jazz), and actor. The student should have genuine interest in becoming proficient in these areas of performance.

All new transfer students who have not successfully completed freshman and sophomore music theory requirements must take the music theory advisory examination. The examination is scheduled during the first week of classes of both fall and spring semesters.

If a student is enrolled in a degree program at Oklahoma City University, prior approval by the dean must be obtained before taking courses at another institution for the purpose of applying those courses to a degree program at Oklahoma City University.

The Bass School of Music will accept transfer credit for music or related courses in which the student has a grade of C (2.000) or higher from institutions that are accredited by NASM. For further information on scholastic and admission audition dates, call the coordinator of student services at (405) 208-5980.

Credits in Applied Music (Performance)

Credits earned for private lessons in voice, piano, organ, guitar, or orchestral instrument are designed as credits in performance. The amount of credit earned in performance depends on the number of lessons per week, the amount of practice, and whether the student is advanced enough to earn major credit; it also depends on whether he or she is taking an instrument or voice as a secondary or minor requirement for his or her degree.

General Regulations

1. A student in the Bass School of Music follows the same academic and general regulations as students in other schools in the university. See the Academic Regulations section of this catalog (beginning on page 29). See the Expenses and Financial Aid section for information about payment of tuition and fees, scholarships, and grants-in-aid.
2. Each student is carefully assigned to his or her major applied teacher. Requests for change must be submitted to the dean in writing with an explanation for the change. Changes cannot be made during a semester. Petitions are available from the coordinator of student services. Students must discuss their desire to change studios with their current professor before inquiring about study with another professor.
3. All students enrolled for credit in applied music, except Oklahoma City University employees and/or faculty, must take a final exam (“jury”). All students are required to register for a jury time and date when the lists are posted. After a time and date have been scheduled, it cannot be changed or exchanged with another student. To avoid scheduling conflicts with other examinations, the final examination schedule for the university should be consulted before a student registers for a jury time and date. A student may be excused from taking a jury only in the case of a documented major illness, personal tragedy, or national disaster. A missed jury must be made up in the full semester immediately following the semester in which the jury was canceled. Makeup juries are posted in the Bass Music Center and take place during the first two weeks of the next full semester. A student failing to schedule a makeup jury may not advance in performance level.
4. Private lessons that have been missed, except in case of protracted illness, will be made up at the convenience of the teacher, provided twenty-four hours advance notice of the absence is given to the teacher and reasons for such missed lessons are acceptable. A teacher is not required to make up a lesson that the student has missed without first contacting the teacher as described above.
5. Students late for private lessons will receive only the remaining portion of the lesson period.
6. Music students must receive permission from their applied music teachers and the dean prior to accepting musical engagements outside of the university. Permission to Perform Off-Campus forms are available on StarNet.
7. Unless otherwise specified, the term ensemble, as found in the following curricula, refers to one of the major ensembles: Symphony Orchestra, Wind Philharmonic, Ad Astra Women’s Choir, Men’s Choir, Chamber Choir, and University Singers. The major ensemble to which a singer is assigned is determined by audition. The major ensemble for string players is the Symphony Orchestra. The major ensemble for wind and percussion majors is the Wind Philharmonic. Selected wind and percussion majors are also expected to participate in the Symphony Orchestra, Jazz Arts Ensemble, and Pep Band, as assigned. All students are strongly encouraged to participate in the various small ensembles. in their area of performance. Major ensemble participation requirements apply during each semester the student is enrolled for twelve hours or more, or as required by the scholarship agreement. Major ensemble participation is not required during the student teaching semester. The total ensemble requirements must be met before the degree can be completed. All voice students are required to audition for all opera and music theater productions and to perform in them if cast.

8 All candidates for the B.M. except piano and composition majors are required to pass a piano proficiency test. Failure to do so is a barrier to graduation. All students must take a minimum of one semester of piano before they are allowed to sit for the piano proficiency examination.

9 Music education students must comply with the “Admission to the Teacher Education Program” requirements as stated in the Department of Education section of this catalog (page 70). The Bass School of Music defines major requirements leading to certification as all required music courses in the music education curriculum. This includes all courses with the prefix MUS, MUEN, MUED, and DICT, as well as all applied lessons and class music instruction. Grades below C are not acceptable.

Music education majors are required to perform satisfactorily a half recital. This recital can be performed by memory or with music at the teacher’s discretion.

10 Students enrolled in the Bass School of Music are evaluated in all courses using the grading system included in the Academic Regulations section of this catalog (beginning on page 29). Students may not select credit/no-credit grading for any course work.

11 Credit for applied study at another institution is not transferable while a student is working toward a degree at Oklahoma City University.

12 To qualify for graduation, a student must attain the designated level of performance as specified in each of the applied performance divisions. Levels are determined at the time of the jury examinations. If a student completes the required number of applied music credits but has not yet attained the stated graduation level, the student must continue to enroll in applied music until the required graduation level is attained.

13 Vocal students are required to pay a standard fee for accompanists’ services as part of their applied lessons. This fee covers accompanists’ services for studio lessons, master classes, and juries for two credit hour students, and studio lessons and juries for one credit hour students. Instrumental students may need to provide an accompanist as instructed by their applied teacher.

14 Regardless of the number of hours earned, a student must be enrolled in at least one credit hour of applied music lessons during the semester or term in which the recital is presented.

15 All music majors must successfully complete six semesters of Music Assembly attendance. Music Assembly credit is posted on the official transcript. Failure to meet this requirement is a barrier to graduation.

16 Applied music study requires a requisite knowledge of music fundamentals. Leveling exams in voice and basic music skills are prerequisites for Applied Voice (AMV) for all nonmusic majors. Students not at an appropriate level for private applied voice study are placed in Voice Class (AMVC) and may be required to take Music Fundamentals (MUS 1102).

17 In addition to the policies and procedures outlines in the undergraduate catalog, Bass School of Music students are expected to be familiar with and adhere to the policies and procedures in the undergraduate Music Student Handbook found at starnet.okcu.edu/Academics/Music/SS/default.aspx.

General Education Requirements for All Undergraduate Majors

The general education curriculum is a requirement for all undergraduate degrees at Oklahoma City University. See the General Education section of this catalog (pages 57–58) for a complete list of required courses and competencies.

All general education requirements must be met whether they are met in individual three (3) hour courses or interdisciplinary four (4) hour courses that combine two general education requirements.

The following are suggested course sequences for each degree. Course sequences for individual students may vary. All degrees require a minimum of 124 credit hours.

Bachelor of Arts in Music with Elective Studies in Pre-Medicine

Music majors interested in attending medical school may select the Bachelor of Arts in music with elective studies in pre-medicine. These students follow the general education and major requirements for the B.A. in music degree and use the elective hours to complete the prerequisites for medical school admissions. Students electing this track are assigned both a music advisor in the Bass School of Music and a premedical advisor in the Department of Biology. The following is a list of recommended courses:

Two semesters of general or inorganic chemistry with laboratory
CHEM 1104 General Chemistry I
CHEM 1141 General Chemistry I Laboratory
CHEM 1204 General Chemistry II
CHEM 1241 General Chemistry II Laboratory

* Ensembles for composition majors may include Wind Philharmonic, Symphony Orchestra, Ad Astra Women’s Choir, Chamber Choir, University Men’s Choir, University Singers, or Surrey Singers.
Two semesters of organic chemistry with laboratory
CHEM 3103 Organic Chemistry I
CHEM 3141 Organic Chemistry I Laboratory
CHEM 3203 Organic Chemistry II
CHEM 3241 Organic Chemistry II Laboratory

Two semesters of physics with laboratory
PHYS 1503 General Physics I
PHYS 1541 General Physics I Laboratory
PHYS 1603 General Physics II
PHYS 1641 General Physics II Laboratory

Two semesters of biology
The following courses are recommended:
BIOL 1214 Fundamentals of Biology
BIOL 3003 Genetics or BIOL 3114 General Microbiology or
BIOL 3514 Cell Biology

Additional requirements vary and may include:
BIOL 3714 or
CHEM 3714 General Biochemistry
MATH 2004 Calculus and Analytical Geometry I

Bachelor of Arts in Music with Elective Studies in Pre-Law
Music majors interested in attending law school may select the Bachelor of Arts in music with elective studies in pre-law. These students follow the general education and major requirements for the B.A. in music degree and use elective hours to complete a suggested course of study to prepare the student for the law school admission process. Many of the recommended courses satisfy general education requirements. Students are also encouraged to participate in pre-law activities and organizations offered through the Department of Political Science.

Recommended pre-law courses that satisfy General Education Curriculum:
ECON 2013 Principles of Macroeconomics
ECON 2113 Principles of Microeconomics
HIST 1003/1103 American/United States History to/since 1876
ENGL 2103 Western Literature or
PHIL 2213 Moral and Social Philosophy
PSYC 2303 Statistics for the Behavioral Sciences

Additional recommended pre-law courses:
PSYC 2301 Statistics for the Behavioral Sciences Lab
PHIL/POLS 2613 Political Philosophy
PHIL 2713 Critical Thinking
ECON 3213 Macroeconomics
ECON 3313 Microeconomics
POLS 4113 Legal Writing
POLS 4613 The Politics of Law
SOC 2013 Introduction to Sociology
SOC 3113 Sociological Theory

* Students in the University Honors Program may take PHIL/ENGL 2004H Classics of Western Culture I or PHIL/ENGL 21114H Classics of Western Culture II instead.

 Students in the University Honors Program may take SOC 2013H Structure of Society instead.

Adjunct Faculty: Adams, Bhaird, DiBello, Heyman, Hicks, Huffman, Kohlman, Sholer, Vance, Wrentmore

The School of Theatre offers a multidimensional, dynamic program that embodies the convictions of the liberal arts tradition of education. Its graduates have been in demand as teachers, performers, playwrights, technicians, and directors.

The school's versatile faculty joins students in outstanding productions of plays: the classics, revitalized or newly conceived plays, and experimental works. Faculty, students, and productions from the School of Theatre have won awards at prestigious events such as The International Siglo de Oro Theatre Festival and the Kennedy Center/American College Theatre Festival.

Great training and a chance to perform, design, and direct marks the Oklahoma City University theatre experience. Every season includes seven mainstage productions. The school has producing partnerships with the Oklahoma City Repertory Theatre, Lyric Theatre of Oklahoma, Oklahoma City Ballet, and Oklahoma Children’s Theatre.

Fields of Study

Four undergraduate degrees are offered: a Bachelor of Fine Arts in acting, a Bachelor of Fine Arts in theatre design and production, a Bachelor of Arts in theatre for young audiences, and a Bachelor of Arts in theatre performance. Teacher certification in speech/drama/debate or a pre-law or pre-medicine emphasis can be added to the Bachelor of Arts degree.

B.A. in Theatre Performance

Undergraduates enrolled in the theatre performance program receive varied performance training—including on-camera acting, voice, and dance. The student’s cross-training in voice and dance is provided by the Bass School of Music and the Ann Lacy School of American Dance and Entertainment. Students also take diction, history, theory, and technical theatre classes—all leading to a B.A. degree.

Students pursuing the B.A. in theatre performance degree program can customize their elective courses to acquire the prerequisites for medical school, law school, or secondary education certification in speech/drama/debate. Many of the recommended courses for these emphases satisfy general education requirements and allow students to easily tailor their degree programs towards specific professional goals in law, medicine, and education.

B.F.A. in Theatre Design and Production

The B.F.A. in theatre design and production is a comprehensive degree that offers students professional theatrical training as well as a foundation in the liberal arts. The B.F.A. provides strong foundational knowledge in the areas of scenic, lighting, and costume design, technical direction, stage management, scenic technology, and costume technology. The theatre design and production program prepares students to enter the fields of theatre design, theatrical production, entertainment technology, and stage management. The program also prepares students for graduate study in theatre design, production, and technology. Course work provides “hands-on” experience in theatrical productions (ranging from theatre to musicals to opera to dance) as well as the study of the theory and history of theatre.

B.F.A. in Acting

The B.F.A. in acting degree is a pre-professional training program that combines the best of conservatory/studio training with the breadth of the general education requirements that have made Oklahoma City University one of the nation’s best small universities. B.F.A. actors take nine acting classes over their four years (including exciting topics classes, such as Improvisation, Chekhov, Shakespeare, Acting Styles, Auditions, and two semesters of On-Camera Acting), along with extensive voice and movement training, a study of script analysis and theatre history, and an introduction to major aspects of technical theatre and directing. Our B.F.A. in acting graduates are ready to face the challenges that confront professional actors in the 21st century entertainment job market.

B.F.A. in Theatre for Young Audiences

Students pursuing the B.F.A. in theatre for young audiences (TYA) will prepare to work in diverse fields of theatre for young people including theatres, schools, churches, community centers, libraries, museums, and more. B.F.A. TYA students will study forms of written communication for the field of TYA, learning to write for dramaturgy, analysis, research, study guides, press releases, public service announcements, outreach materials, brochure text, and arts integration planning. Students will acquire knowledge of basic technique in design and production, marketing and management, and functional acting and directing skills for both children and adults. Students will learn how to articulate and apply values and standards in the creation of drama and theatre with and for young audiences. Students will develop an advocacy position regarding the role and benefits of drama and theatre in the lives of young people and within the global community. By working closely with Oklahoma Children’s Theatre—located on the OCU campus—students will receive the invaluable and unique experience of hands-on learning.

The Faculty

The faculty of the School of Theatre comprises theatre professionals carefully chosen for their educational, teaching, and performance backgrounds and their genuine commitment to student success. Professors of the School of Theatre are active performers, directors, writers, and researchers. The top priority for our teachers, though, is teaching.

The faculty is personally supportive and genuinely interested in each student’s program of study, training, and experiences. No classes are taught by graduate students or teaching assistants. The close interactions between professors and students are an invaluable aspect of the educational experience at Oklahoma City University.

Admission Requirements

In addition to meeting the general university admission requirements, all students wishing to major in theatre performance, theatre for young audiences, and acting must be accepted through audition. Admission to the theatre design and production program is selective. An interview, portfolio, résumé, and writing sample are required for admission. Students in the program must maintain a portfolio of their design and production work that they present at the end of each semester. There is a formal annual review and assessment of each student at the end of the spring semester. B.F.A. students are expected to maintain good academic standing and have successful reviews for their production and performance assignments. Students who do not meet these requirements could be removed from production assignments or put on probation. Continued poor performance can lead to dismissal from the degree program.

Prerequisite

Students for whom English is a second language are required to achieve a score of at least 55 on the Test of Spoken English.

Credit/No-Credit

Students in the School of Theatre are required to be evaluated on the traditional grading system for all general education courses and on all courses taken in their majors. A maximum of 12 credit hours of elective courses may be taken on the credit/no-credit grading system.

General Regulations

1. A student in the School of Theatre follows the same academic and general regulations as students in other schools in the university. See the Academic Regulations section of this catalog (beginning on page 29). See the Expenses and Financial Aid section for information about payment of tuition, scholarship, and grants-in-aid.

2. Theatre performance, theatre for young audiences, and acting majors are required to audition for all department productions; if cast, they are to make themselves available for all scheduled rehearsals and performances.

3. Theatre majors must have the permission of the dean before accepting outside theatrical engagements.

4. Failure to comply with the university’s and School of Theatre’s academic and general regulations may result in disciplinary action and/or loss of scholarship.

5. Being an Oklahoma City University theatre major is a privilege granted by the university, not a right. Due to the intense activity, performance demands, and career orientation of the theatre program, the university reserves the right to determine the eligibility of any student to continue majoring in theatre based on considerations including, but not limited to, regular attendance of classes, focus and commitment, positive participation in departmental productions and activities, technical progress, and probable success of attaining a theatre degree. Determinations and subsequent counseling are made by the theatre faculty and administration through evaluations and observations gleaned from the regular semester auditions, performances, and classroom evaluations.

6. Private voice lessons have prerequisite levels in both singing and music fundamentals to assure success in the studio setting. Leveling occurs at the beginning of the semester. Students can level towards private voice lessons multiple times. If the student does not meet the required vocal level, they may be enrolled in Class Voice. Class Voice can be taken multiple times. Three semesters of Class Voice can also fulfill the voice requirements for the B.A. in theatre performance, the B.F.A. in theatre for young audiences, and the B.F.A. in acting.

Theatre Performance (B.A.) with Elective Studies in Pre-Medicine

Theatre majors interested in attending medical school may select the Bachelor of Arts in theatre performance with elective studies in pre-medicine. These students follow the general education and major requirements for the B.A. in theatre performance degree and use elective hours to complete the prerequisites for medical school admissions. Students choosing an emphasis in pre-medicine should meet with a pre-medical advisor in the Department of Biology in addition to an advisor in the School of Theatre. Students should also participate in pre-medicine activities and organizations offered through the Department of Biology.

Theatre Performance (B.A.) with Secondary Education Speech/Drama/Debate Certification

Theatre majors interested in teaching speech/drama/debate in secondary schools may select the B.A. in theatre performance with elective studies towards secondary education speech/drama/debate certification. These students follow the general education and major requirements for the B.A. in theatre performance degree and use elective hours to complete the suggested course of study to gain licence/certification for secondary education speech/drama/debate.

Students gaining secondary education certification in speech/drama/debate should meet with an advisor in the Department of Education in addition to an advisor in the School of Theatre, and these students should participate in activities and organizations offered through the Department of Education.

For recommended courses see Education: Secondary Speech/Drama/Debate Licensure/Certification Areas.

Kramer School of Nursing

Faculty: Amalraj, Barnett, Blackmon, Boeck, Bottoms, Bowen, Burton, Campbell-Detrixhe, Crawford, Diener, Frutchey, Gibson, Gorrell, Hobbs, Hutchings, Mannahan, Manning, Tucker, Westmoreland, Wright

Kramer School of Nursing (KSN) offers two undergraduate programs leading to a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (B.S.N.). For students who want to enter nursing, the Gateway program prepares successful candidates for the Registered Nurse (R.N.) licensure examination. KSN also offers a professional advancement B.S.N. program specifically designed for R.N.s who have associate degrees or diplomas in nursing. Students pursuing the B.S.N. who already have bachelor’s degrees in other fields, regardless of which B.S.N. program they pursue, have already fulfilled the equivalency of the university’s general education requirements. KSN also offers a Master of Science in Nursing (M.S.N.), an R.N.-to-M.S.N. for students with nursing license but without a B.S.N., a Doctor of Nursing Practice (D.N.P.) completion program for master’s-prepared Advance Practice Nurses, a B.S.N.-to-D.N.P. with family nurse practitioner focus, and a Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.). Kramer School of Nursing is accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing.

Role and Responsibility of the Oklahoma Board of Nursing

Kramer School of Nursing is approved by the Oklahoma Board of Nursing. Graduates of this state-approved program are eligible to write the National Council Licensure Examination (NCLEX) for registered nurses. Applicants for Oklahoma licensure must meet all state and federal requirements to hold an Oklahoma license to practice nursing. In addition to completing a state-approved nursing education program that meets educational requirements and successfully passing the licensure examination, requirements include submission of an application for licensure, a criminal history records search, and evidence of citizenship or qualified alien status. To be granted a license, an applicant must have the legal right to be in the United States (United States Code Chapter 8, Section 1621). In addition, Oklahoma law only allows a license to be issued to U.S. citizens, U.S. nationals, and legal permanent resident aliens. Other qualified aliens may be issued a temporary license that is valid until the expiration of their visa status, or if there is no expiration date, for one year. Applicants who are qualified aliens must present, in person, valid documentary evidence of:

1. A valid, unexpired immigrant or nonimmigrant visa status for admission into the United States;
2. A pending or approved application for asylum in the United States;
3. Admission into the United States in refugee status;
4. A pending or approved application for temporary protected status in the United States;
5. Approved deferred action status; or
6. A pending application for adjustment of status to legal permanent resident status or conditional resident status.

The Board has the right to deny a license to an individual with a history of criminal background, disciplinary action on another health-related license or certification, or judicial declaration of mental incompetence [59 O.S. §567.8]. These cases are considered on an individual basis at the time application for licensure is made, with the exception of felony charges. An individual with a felony conviction cannot apply for licensure for at least five years after completion of all sentencing terms, including probation and suspended sentences, unless a presidential or gubernatorial pardon is received [59 O.S. §567.5 & 567.6].

Mission

The mission of Kramer School of Nursing is to provide unique educational and service opportunities that prepare professional nurses who practice with integrity, knowledge, and compassion while positively impacting the health care needs of diverse communities.

Goals

The goals of Kramer School of Nursing are derived from our mission. The B.S.N. graduate of Kramer School of Nursing will function as a professional nurse able to:

- Demonstrate clinical competence in the provision of ethical and legal nursing care.
- Collaborate with and educate clients regarding self-care activities designed to promote health, restore wellness, and prevent illness.
- Utilize the nursing process as a critical-thinking framework for problem solving and making effective clinical judgments.
- Promote physical, mental, social, and spiritual health across the lifespan within diverse cultures.
• Manage, coordinate, and delegate care of clients within and in collaboration with the health care system.
• Exemplify the caring behaviors of acceptance of, respect for, and empathy with the client.

English Proficiency

All students must be proficient in writing, speaking, and reading English. Students from non-English speaking countries who are naturalized U.S. citizens, immigrants with permanent residence status, or international students must demonstrate proof of English proficiency to begin NURS courses in any KSN program as evidenced by achieving the minimum standards listed below. This requirement is waived in the following situations:

1. Completion of grades 6 through 12 of their secondary education in the U.S.
2. Completion of a minimum of 45 credit hours in a regionally accredited U.S. college or university
3. Two years attendance and graduation from high school in an English speaking country
4. Passage of the NCLEX-RN prior to admission at Oklahoma City University.

If proof of English proficiency is required, students must achieve an iBT TOEFL score of 80 or higher with a score of at least 20 on each subsection; 6.0 on the IELTS with at least 5.5 on each band score; or achieve level 112 at ELS.

Admission to the Gateway B.S.N. Program

To declare nursing as a major, incoming freshmen and sophomores must be admitted to Oklahoma City University and not be on academic probation. Oklahoma City University students changing majors to nursing also must not be on academic probation.

Students must have a 3.00 cumulative GPA or higher; a cumulative GPA of 2.500 or higher on prerequisite science courses; and have junior-level nursing course prerequisites completed to progress to and enroll in junior-level nursing classes without undergoing further consideration. Students must have not more than nine credit hours of general education courses remaining before beginning 3000-level nursing courses.

To enroll in nursing courses, students must comply with the Oklahoma Board of Nursing mandate that all nursing students sign a disclosure statement regarding felonious acts and competency.

Admission to the R.N.-to-B.S.N. Program

In order to be accepted into the R.N.-to-B.S.N. program, an applicant must have the following:

- A cumulative grade point average of 2.50 or better in previous college course work
- An active unrestricted U.S. Registered Nurse license
- Be a graduate of a nationally accredited nursing program

Eligibility Statement

Due to the strenuous nature of nursing and the practice orientation of the Kramer School of Nursing program, the school reserves the right to determine the eligibility of any student to enroll or continue in the nursing major. This decision is based on considerations including but not limited to characteristics required of a professional nurse. Eligibility is determined by the faculty’s evaluation of a student’s ability to perform the skills necessary to complete the course objectives and includes attitudinal and behavioral components. These elements are re-evaluated each semester.

Every student must pass background checks and drug screenings to enter clinical settings. Inability to meet these requirements will prevent the student from completing the program. Graduates must also meet the licensure requirements of the Board of Nursing in the state where the first license will be sought. Such requirements may include further background checks, investigations of felony convictions, and other measures related to public safety. If in doubt about eligibility to receive a nursing license, contact the Board of Nursing for further information before proceeding with nursing school.

Progression

To progress to each sequential semester of nursing courses, the student must earn grades as specified below and complete prerequisites for that semester.

Undergraduate students must earn a grade of C (2.00) or better in the prerequisite general education courses towards the nursing major and all NURS courses. A grade of C- (1.75) is acceptable for any Oklahoma City University general education course which is not a prerequisite for the nursing program. Any undergraduate transfer course, whether a general education, prerequisite, or a nursing course, must have at least a grade of C (2.00) to be accepted.

Undergraduate students must earn a C (2.00) or better in all nursing courses required for their B.S.N. program, whether taken at Oklahoma City University or elsewhere.
Nursing course grades of C- (1.75) or below are considered failing. This includes independent study nursing courses taken to meet a graduation requirement.

If the student earns a grade of C- (1.75) or below on the repeated required course or on the first attempt of any other required nursing course, the student will be dismissed from the nursing program. In Gateway nursing courses, students must earn at least 75 percent of the points possible in theory, at least 75 percent of the points possible in application, and a passing grade in clinical performance and/or practicum experience.

All nursing courses must be completed in sequence as listed in the degree requirements unless approved by the Faculty Organization at Kramer School of Nursing. It is the responsibility of the student to enroll in courses as they are offered.

Students may repeat only one nursing course. Failure to complete a repeated course with a grade of “C” (2.00) or better within two enrollments will result in dismissal from the nursing major.

Transfer of Credit

Students in the nursing major must comply with university policy concerning transfer of credit. The Kramer School of Nursing faculty evaluates transfer of nursing credit from other nationally accredited associate and baccalaureate programs. All courses transferred into the major must encompass the equivalent breadth and depth of courses offered in Kramer School of Nursing. Evaluation of students requesting transfer from another accredited nursing program will be based upon the following:

- Letter of recommendation from the dean/director of the former school (does not apply to R.N.-to-B.S.N. students)
- Complete syllabus or course description of each nursing course completed
- Request for specific course substitution and any other materials deemed relevant

A grade of less than C (2.00) in any course will not be considered for transfer. Each transferred course must be approved by the dean or designee of Kramer School of Nursing.

Students who have previously been enrolled in any nursing program and have two or more failing grades for nursing courses are not eligible to enroll in classes at Kramer School of Nursing.

Grading Policy

Students enrolled in Kramer School of Nursing will be evaluated in all courses using the grading system described in the Kramer School of Nursing Student Handbook. The school does not accept credit/no-credit grades.

Graduation/Licensure

Students with a nursing major must comply with university policy on graduation procedures. Upon completion of all requirements for graduation, students in the Gateway B.S.N. program are eligible to apply for the NCLEX-RN® examination. It is the responsibility of the student to complete the application during the last semester of the senior year. Candidates for licensure in Oklahoma who have been arrested for or convicted of any offense—including a deferred or suspended sentence—within the past five years, or have ever been convicted of a felony, or have ever had disciplinary action taken against another health-related license, or have ever been judicially declared incompetent are required to notify the Oklahoma Board of Nursing prior to being approved to write the NCLEX-RN®. Failure to report such action may be a violation of the Oklahoma Nursing Practice Act.

Clinical Experience

In conjunction with the clinical experience, students must accept certain responsibilities which include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Transportation to the clinical area and to other special laboratory assignments
- Evidence of selected immunizations
- Evidence of current CPR certification at the appropriate level from an approved provider
- Additional expenses for nursing uniforms and equipment beginning at the junior level
- Background check and drug screen

Curriculum

Bachelor of Science in Nursing Traditional, Part-Time, or Accelerated Option

A minimum of 124 credit hours is required for the B.S.N., including 56 hours in the major. The student must complete the general education course requirements and enough electives to total 68 hours with a maximum of 9 hours left to complete prior to beginning nursing major courses. Students should work with their advisors in enrolling to ensure that they will complete all requirements by their expected graduation date. Prerequisite courses must be successfully completed prior to being enrolled in nursing major courses.

All nursing classes meet one half day each week. No additional science or math courses are required other than those required for the diploma or associate's degree in nursing. A variety of options are available for general education courses, including independent study, internet courses, and/or traditional classroom courses. The B.S.N. requires a total of 124 credit hours:

- 72 hours granted for an active, unrestricted U.S. R.N. license.
- 30 credit hours taken at Oklahoma City University (including at least 18 in nursing)
- 22 transfer, portfolio, and/or additional credits from Oklahoma City University

Master of Science in Nursing (M.S.N.)

The Kramer School of Nursing also offers a Master of Science in Nursing (M.S.N.) with two tracks: nursing education and nursing leadership. See the Oklahoma City University Graduate Catalog for more information.

Doctor of Nursing Practice (D.N.P.)

Kramer School of Nursing also offers a Doctor of Nursing Practice (D.N.P.). See the Oklahoma City University Graduate Catalog for more information.

Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.)

Kramer School of Nursing also offers a Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.). See the Oklahoma City University Graduate Catalog for more information.

expressions unified by shared ideals. This course is extremely helpful in understanding much of the foundations of contemporary art, but is a captivating and valuable period of study in itself.

3123 Printmaking: Serigraphy 3
This class is devoted to learning the materials, processes, and techniques of serigraphy (silkscreen) and creating original prints that are best expressed through this process. (TBA)

3143 Water-Based Media 3
Students have the opportunity to learn the basic techniques and materials used to create traditional watercolors in addition to exploring a wide variety of water-based media and mixed media.

3203 Art History: High Renaissance 3
An in-depth examination of sixteenth-century Italian painting, sculpture, and architecture, emphasizing that of Florence, Venice, and Rome. Historical, cultural, religious, and theoretical frameworks are discussed. (TBA)

3213 Art History: Baroque 3
Explores birth of Baroque in Rome and the role of the Counter-Reformation in shaping artistic genres in Italy and France in the early 17th century. Covers influence of the Versailles court of "Sun King," Louis XIV, in the late 17th and early 18th centuries. (TBA)

3223 Lithography 3
This class is devoted to learning the materials, processes, and techniques of lithography and creating original prints. (TBA)

3243 Relief Printing 3
This printmaking class is devoted to learning the materials, processes, and techniques of relief printing and creating original prints. (TBA)

3303 Art History: Contemporary 3
This course addresses the major art movements from the end of World War II to the present day and the individual artists whose work has played a key role within these movements. Ideas and concepts are increasingly important in the creation of work that is considered contemporary. Understanding the rapidly changing debate as to "what is art" is paramount in order to understand, analyze, and discuss contemporary art. (Spring)

3313 Mesoamerican Art 3
The art and architecture of Mesoamerica, particularly Mexico, from the pre-Columbian civilizations through to the present day; the way in which religion and colonialism influenced art. Social, political, and religious context of art. (Spring, even)

3323 Intaglio 3
This printmaking class is devoted to learning the materials, processes, and techniques of intaglio and creating original prints that are best expressed through this process. (TBA)

3343 Life Painting I 3
This course emphasizes the naturalistic representation of the human figure using oil painting techniques. Students develop skills in the accurate observation of anatomy, the structure of the figure, color, value, and of the form in space. Cross-listed MCGD 2223. (TBA)

3353 American Art 3
Paintings and sculpture of the United States from the 1770s through the 19th century; historical, social and political context of art unique to the United States. (Spring, odd)

3363 Technology for Artists 3
Application of technology and concepts as they expand the possibilities of traditional fine art and photography. Includes a basic understanding and hands-on use of computer programs employing emphasis on application in the student's individual discipline.

3403 Digital Photography II 3
Course is a continuation of Digital Photography I stressing intermediate camera work and intermediate digital darkroom techniques. Survey of digital composing with Adobe Photoshop and professional digital printing. A digital SLR camera and hard drive are required for this course. Prerequisite: ART 2063 or by instructor approval. Lab fee required. (Spring)

3413 Egyptian Art 3
The art and architecture of ancient Egypt that encompasses the predynastic period through to the annexing of Egypt by Rome following the death of Cleopatra; the role of religion and dynastic rule in both the architecture and art. (Fall, even)

3423 Medieval Art 3
Art and architecture of the European Middle Ages encompassing the dates of 1000-1300; historical, social, and religious context of art. Influence of the courts and the Church. (Fall, odd)

3503 Large Format Photography 3
This is an introduction to the large format style of photography. Emphasis is on camera technology, aesthetics, developing film, making the large format print, and learning the zone system. Still life, architecture, portraiture, and landscape photography are covered. Lab fee required. (TBA)

3543 Ceramic Sculpture 3
Application of clay, plaster, etc., modeling, employing additive and subtractive construction methods.

3603 Fine Art Digital Printing 3
Course surveys professional digital printmaking practices with emphasis on making profiles, ink sets, printer maintenance, paper types, alternative substrates, and a reference for the processes, as well as production of a large format digitally printed portfolio. Each student must have access to a digital camera with manual capabilities and hard drive. Prerequisite 3403. Lab fee required. (Fall, even)

3643 Raku and Surface 3
This is an upper-division ceramics course that focuses on both the function and form of utilitarian fine art objects. Emphasis is on surface and glazing techniques. (TBA)
Course # | Course Name | Credit Hours
--- | --- | ---
3703 | Black and White Techniques | 3
Course explores traditions of black and white photography as a combination of darkroom and digital techniques. Students study traditional darkroom printmaking aesthetics in conjunction with breaking the rules within the photographic traditions. Medium and large format photography is introduced. Prerequisite: ART 2663. Lab fee required. (TBA)

3743 | Life Drawing II | 3
A continuation of Life Drawing I stressing further complexities, including composition, total space, and more sophisticated style and media. Prerequisite: ART 2143

3803 | Special Topics | 3
This course allows students to specialize in depth with technical and theoretical problems and processes. Requires greater student involvement in refinement of techniques and processes in conjunction with a specific conceptual problem. Junior-level or above consistency is expected of the student. (TBA)

3813 | Studio Lighting | 3
Course introduces the use of artificial lighting in a controlled studio environment. Both photo-floods and electronic flash are used. Emphasis on technical mastery of lighting equipment coupled with an aesthetic understanding of lighting principles. Each student must have access to a digital camera with manual capabilities and hard drive. Lab fee required. (Fall)

3843 | Life Painting II | 3
A more personal approach to painting the human figure. In addition to improving accurate observation of anatomy, the structure of the figure, color, value, and of the form in space, students begin to apply various painting techniques as they explore their individual interpretation of the subject. (Spring)

3903 | Color Techniques | 3
This course explores the use of color as an aesthetic tool in the hands of the creative or fine art photographer. While the emphasis is on the use of negatives, reversal, and instant films, and print materials, attention is also paid to color theory, perception, aesthetics, and the use of alternative color processes. Lab fee required. (TBA)

3913 | Alternative Processes (Photography) | 3
Course surveys approaches toward nonsilver processes as they can be applied in the darkroom and/or digital lab. Emphasis is placed on traditional and contemporary trends in practice and will survey multiple processes, the history, and safety. Each student must have access to a digital camera with manual capabilities and hard drive. Prerequisite: ART 2063 or ART 2663 Lab fee required. (Spring, odd)

4063 | Art Internship | 3
Internship in an area of special interest. Instructor's permission required. (TBA)

4163+ | Senior Exhibition/Capstone | 3
All B.F.A. majors are required to take this course during their final semester. Instructor's permission required prior to enrollment. Dual-listed ART 5163. (TBA)

4263 | Advanced Ceramics | 3
This independent study course is designed specifically for ceramics portfolio building. Students explore advanced modes of form and structure in ceramics with an emphasis on individual expression. (TBA)

4293 | Independent Study (Studio or Photo Course) | 3
This is a senior level, student-directed course. Students are responsible for designing and implementing course work appropriate to their area of specialization. Contracts and instructor approval required. (TBA)

4303 | Art Criticism | 3
A text-based examination of Western art theory and criticism from the mid-twentieth century to the present. Advanced writing and research skills are required. (Fall)

4343 | Fabrication Techniques | 3
This is an upper-division ceramics course that focuses on both the function and form of utilitarian and fine art objects. Emphasis is on various construction methods. (TBA)

4413 | Special Topics: Art History | 3
Investigation of a chosen or assigned area of art history. (TBA)

4423 | Advanced Printmaking | 3
This independent study course is designed specifically for printmaking portfolio building. Students explore advanced modes of pictorial structure and printing processes with an emphasis on individual expression. (TBA)

4563 | Advanced Studio/Capstone | 3
Instructor's permission required. Required for studio and photography majors. Topics include senior exhibit, senior capstone, and advanced studio/senior exhibit. (TBA)

4583 | Advanced Photography | 3
This independent study course is designed specifically for photography portfolio building. Student selects topic and direction. Lab fee required. (Spring)

4643 | Advanced Drawing | 3
This independent study course is designed specifically for drawing portfolio building. Students explore advanced modes of drawing, with an emphasis on individual expression.

4743 | Advanced Painting | 3
This independent study course is designed specifically for painting portfolio building. Students explore advanced modes of pictorial structure and painting processes with an emphasis on individual expression. (Spring)

4893 | Special Topics: Studio Art | 3
This course allows students to explore in depth technical and theoretical problems and processes. Requires greater student involvement in refinement of techniques and processes in conjunction with a specific conceptual problem. Senior-level or above consistency is expected of the student. (TBA)
Arts Management (AMGT)

1111 Arts Management and Production Level 1 1
Basic study of systems, protocols, technology, and production management utilized within the dance and entertainment industry to support performances and productions. Dance and Arts Management students only. (Fall, spring)

1711, 1712, 1713 Arts Management Internship 1, 2, 3
The internship provides the arts management student with an opportunity to apply and temper newly gained knowledge in arts management within the context of an actual performing arts or arts service organization. The nature and content of the internship is negotiated among the student, the host organization, and the arts management advisor. (TBA)

2111 Arts Management and Production Level 2 1
Intermediate study of systems, protocols, technology, and production management utilized within the dance and entertainment industry to support performances and productions. Dance and Arts Management students only. Prerequisite: AMGT 1111 (Fall)

3113 Arts Management and Production Level 3 3
Advanced study of systems, protocols, technology, and production management utilized within the dance and entertainment industry to support performances and productions. Attention is given to how the technical and managerial production aspects evolve from initial conception to final presentation. Arts Management students only. Prerequisites: AMGT 1111 and 2111 (Fall)

3393* Dance Studio Management 3
This is a course in how to establish, operate, and build a successful dance studio. All aspects of studio management are covered, including site location, physical plant requirements, classes to be offered, development of teaching staff, promotion, office management, and recitals. Junior standing required. For dance majors only. May be cross-listed with AMGT 4783. (Spring)

3473 Professional Event and Convention Planning for the 21st Century 3
A close investigation of the growing global industry of event, convention, and meeting planning including event leadership, administration, logistic coordination, design, marketing, ethics, risk management, technology, career development, best practices and trends. For arts management majors only. (TBA)

3573 Entertainment Venue Management 3
An introduction to the key concepts and techniques employed by a venue's manager to plan, budget, market, and utilize a performing arts, sports, or multipurpose venue. Included will be examinations of the various types of venues, their organization and management styles, scheduling, staff, maintenance, and specific marketing and budgeting techniques. Additional items covered will include safety and security for both employees and patrons, types of events utilizing the various venues, ancillary services, volunteer management, government imposed regulations, and careers in facility management. (TBA)

3701 Arts Management Costume Lab 1
This course covers the techniques of constructing, maintaining, and managing costumes for a professional performing arts company. For arts management and dance majors only. (Fall, spring)

3703 Stage Management and Production 3
A comprehensive examination of stage management for a broad range of theatre and entertainment events, examining the stage manager's backstage and front-of-house responsibilities from preproduction planning through postproduction. Students gain an understanding of the synergistic nature of production elements: direction, lighting, sound, sets, props, costumes, ticket office, and front-of-house management. Course topics include auditions, event planning, master calendars and scheduling, production meetings, running effective rehearsals, preparing the space, taking blocking notation, giving cues, making rehearsal reports, coordinating between director and division heads, preparing for rehearsals, running performances, and understanding human behavior as it relates to show production. The course includes a lab component consisting of show production assignments coordinated through the instructor. Junior standing required. (Spring)

3713 Management of Nonprofit Arts Organizations 3
An introduction to the management of nonprofit performing arts organizations from the perspective of the general manager. The course covers organizational structure, boards of directors, staffing, budgeting, finance, marketing, fund-raising, and operations. Junior standing required. For arts management and dance teacher majors only. (Fall)

3723 Touring Performing Arts Organizations 3
An introduction to the key concepts and techniques needed by a performing arts tour manager for planning, budgeting, marketing, and implementing a tour by a performing arts organization. Junior standing required. For arts management majors only. (Fall)

3733 Development and Fundraising 3
An examination of the theory, practice, and techniques for raising funds and financial support for nonprofit, tax-exempt organizations such as orchestras, dance companies, opera companies, and theatres. For arts management majors only. (Spring)

3742 Contracts and Management for Performers/Arts Managers 2
For the student planning a professional performance career, this course is designed to provide basic but important information about contract law for performers, organizational structures in the performing arts, performing arts unions, artist agents and managers, unemployment insurance, and workers’ compensation. Junior standing required. (Fall, spring)

3763 Nonprofit Accounting for the Arts 3
The principles of managerial accounting and finance applied to the not-for-profit arts environment. Junior standing required. For arts management majors only. (Spring)

3773 Theatre Management 3
An examination of managing a professional dramatic theatre. Topics include general management, operations, fund-raising and development, budgeting, planning, boards of directors, community relations, staff and artistic personnel issues, audience development, play selection, and current trends. Junior standing and departmental permission required. (TBA)

4783
Dance Studio Management
Capstone for dance teacher majors. This is a course in how to establish, operate, and build a successful dance studio. All aspects of studio management are covered, including site location, physical plant requirements, classes to be offered, development of teaching staff, promotion, office management, and recitals. Junior standing required. For dance teacher majors only. (Spring)

4793
Producing
Capstone course for entertainment business and dance management majors. An examination of the issues and considerations required to produce, sponsor, or present performances for performing arts series, festivals, and residencies. The course covers all aspects of presenting, including organizational structure, planning programming, budgeting, financing, marketing, and implementing sponsored performances. Senior standing required. For arts management majors only. (Spring)

This course is a study of animal structure and function with an emphasis on animal diversity and mechanisms of adaptation to the environment. Most laboratory sessions include dissection of preserved specimens of the animals discussed in lecture. Three hours of lecture/discussion and three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisites: BIOL 1214 or equivalent, or BIOL 2003, 2041, 2103, and 2141, or permission of instructor. (Fall)

This course is designed for students who are in the biomedical track or pre-medicine track. The course focuses exclusively on terminology required for medical practitioners. (Spring)

This course deals with the fundamental principles and mechanisms of genetics; including, structure and function of nucleic acids; mechanisms of inheritance and genetic change; similarities and differences in viral, prokaryotic, and eukaryotic systems; applications of statistics and other analytical tools to understanding the mechanisms of genetics; and an introduction to population genetics and related questions in molecular evolution. Three hours of lecture/discussion each week. Prerequisite: BIOL 1214 or equivalent and a college chemistry course, or permission of instructor. (Spring)

A study of the structure and function of invertebrate groups. Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: BIOL 1214 and BIOL 2414 or permission of instructor. (TBA)

Laboratory investigations in Mendelian and non-Mendelian inheritance using experimental systems such as bacteria, bacteriophage, Drosophila, and Arabidopsis, and an introduction to techniques and tools used in the molecular genetics laboratory, that may include DNA isolation and manipulation, electrophoresis, PCR, and cloning techniques. Three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisites: BIOL 3003 or concurrent enrollment or permission of instructor. (TBA)

Detailed coverage of processes that are fundamental to the study of biology, including a study of biological macromolecules, enzymes and metabolic processes, cell structure, and gene expression. Prerequisite: BIOL 1214. (Spring)

This course, intended for majors in biology and related fields, focuses on the structure and physiology of microorganisms, with an emphasis on bacteria. The skills required to handle and study bacteria are acquired in the lab portion of the course. Three hours of lecture/discussion and three hours of laboratory per week. Prerequisites: BIOL 1214 or equivalent and CHEM 1104 or equivalent, or permission of instructor. (Fall)

Morphology of the organ systems in animals with special emphasis on vertebrates, providing a basis for the structural and developmental history of humans and other animals. Detailed dissection of selected vertebrates. Three hours lecture/discussion and three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisites: BIOL 1214 and either BIOL 2414 or BIOL 2003, 2041, 2103, and 2141, or permission of instructor. (Fall, odd)

This course is designed for biology majors. Emphasis is placed on ecological theory in an effort to explain the development and maintenance of natural ecosystems. Field trips are included. Three hours lecture and three hours laboratory each week. Prerequisite BIOL 1214 or equivalent. (Spring, even)

The integration of neural, hormonal, nutritional, circulatory, and excretory functions of the animal as related to cell-origin interrelationships. Laboratory exercises include instrumentation and techniques required for the study of animal systems. Three hours lecture/discussion and three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisites: BIOL 1214 and either BIOL 2414 or BIOL 2003, 2041, 2103, and 2141, or permission of instructor. (Fall, even)

Principles of cellular activity, molecular structure and protoplasm, surface and osmotic phenomena, permeability, energy exchange mechanisms, and the biochemistry of cellular replication. Three hours lecture and three hours laboratory each week. Prerequisite: BIOL 1214 or permission of instructor. (Spring, even)

Examines the discipline of plant biology focusing on the study of plants that are economically important to people, including plants that are sources of food, fibers, medicines, gums, insecticides, etc. (TBA)

Chemical properties and metabolism of constituents of living organisms. Three hours of lecture/discussion and three hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: CHEM 3103 and BIOL 1214 or equivalent, or by instructor permission. Cross-listed CHEM 3714. (Fall)

Level designed for individual or small-group study within specialized areas of biological science. Under appropriate faculty guidance, study opportunities range from specialized course work (i.e., courses not listed in the catalog) and seminars or colloquia to participation in a specific research project. The course level shown on enrollment reflects the level of complexity inherent in the study opportunity. (TBA)

This course emphasizes the origin and evolutionary patterns of vascular plants with an emphasis on flowering plants. The importance of various techniques used in the development of classification schemes, including those related to computer analyses and molecular biology, are discussed. Reproductive biology of flowering plants constitute a significant component of this course. The laboratory emphasizes the flora of Oklahoma. The course consists of three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week. Prerequisite: BIOL 2214. (TBA)
Chemistry (CHEM)

4003 Biochemistry II
Detailed analysis of selected areas of intermediary metabolism with an introduction to enzyme and hormone research. Three hours of lecture/discussion each week. Prerequisite: CHEM 3714 or BIOL 3714. Cross-listed CHEM 4403. (Spring)

4442 Laboratory Techniques in Biochemistry
See CHEM 4442.

4502 Biology Capstone
This course fulfills the general education capstone requirement for all biology majors. The student completes a capstone project that requires conducting laboratory or library research on an approved question drawn from the field of biology. Course requirements include a written paper, which draws on the primary research literature in addressing the research question and an oral presentation of the capstone project to the department. Prerequisite: BIOL 3851-8 or 4851-8 and senior standing. (Fall)

4814 Internship
Structured and evaluated experiential learning in a biology-related organization. Number of credit hours and location arranged through the Department of Biology. Prerequisite: junior or senior standing and permission of the department chair. (TBA)

4861-4 Field Studies in Biology
Biology study of a selected region of the world through travel, field work, reading, and lecture. Specific topics (e.g. ecology, animal behavior, zoology, botany, and/or environmental issues) reflect the expertise of the instructor and the characteristics of the region, supplemented by informal lectures, seminars, demonstrations, discussions, experimentation, and directed study. Library research paper and/or other forms of writing required. (TBA)

4991-8 Research
Research projects are conducted under appropriate faculty guidance. By permission of department chair only. (TBA)

Perspectives on Child Maltreatment and Child Advocacy

This is an introductory course which covers the history, various perspectives, legal framework, and responses including skills to work in the area of child maltreatment. Other pertinent and controversial issues pertaining to child maltreatment and child advocacy will be presented. This is a required course for the certificate and minor. (Fall, even)

Global Child Advocacy Issues

This course introduces students to child advocacy issues from a global perspective. Students will explore cultural, legal, social, economic, and religious factors that affect children's well-being, as well as the roles that child advocates assume to protect the welfare of youth. This is a required course for the minor. (Spring, odd)

Child Exploitation, Pornography, and the Internet

This course introduces students to issues surrounding the abuse and exploitation of children and the use of technologies by predators to monitor and exploit children. Students will also explore the responses of social services and criminal justice system in providing services and treatment to children as well as the detection, investigation, and prosecution of offenders. This is an elective course for the minor. (TBA) recursion, and the syntax of classes. Encoding, entering, and running programs comprise a significant part of the course. Three hours of lecture and two hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: CSCI 1514. (Spring)

2303  Java
A study of programming techniques in Java including fundamental programming structures and concepts, GUI applications and applets, and introductory concepts in object-oriented programming. Previous experience in at least one high-level programming language is assumed. Two hours of lecture and two hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisites: CSCI 1614 or permission of instructor. (Spring)

3114  Data Structures
The development of the concepts and techniques of structuring data for efficient storage and retrieval. Topics include linked lists, trees, stacks, queues, hash tables, sorting, and searching. Three hours of lecture and two hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisites: CSCI 1614 and MATH 1503. (Fall, spring)

3303  Networking and Data Communication
A study of computer networks. Topics include packet switching, routing, flow control and congestion avoidance, communication protocols and interfacing, high-level protocols, terminals in the network, message authentication, network optimization, and system network structure. Prerequisites: CSCI 2004, CSCI 3114, and MATH 1503. (Fall, odd)

3503  Discrete Mathematics
A survey of selected methods of reasoning and objects of study in discrete mathematical structures. Topics include Big O notation, elementary math (logic, set relations, functions, and number theory), proof and counting techniques, recurrence relations, graph theory, and trees. Prerequisite: MATH 1503 or three years of high school algebra. Recommended: MATH 2004. (Fall)

3613  Database Design and Management
An introduction to application program development in a database environment. Topics include loading, modifying, and querying the database; database normalization; and entity-relationship modeling and database analysis, design, and implementation. Prerequisite: one programming language. (Fall)

3863  Special Topics in Computer Science
A study of a special topic in computer science; subject and prerequisites may vary. (TBA)

4003  Programming Languages
A study of the concepts of programming languages, including the definition of syntax vs. semantics, data types and abstractions, expressions, control structures, functions, subprograms, binding, and exception handling. A brief study of logic programming and functional programming are included. Prerequisite: CSCI 3114. (TBA)

4063  Senior Seminar/Creativity La
A capstone course required for all computer science majors. Topics include computer science ethics and law, computing and society, and recent research in computer science. Prerequisite: senior standing or permission of instructor. (Spring)

4203  Logic for Computer Sciences
A survey of classical and modern logic including Boolean operators, truth tables, and Karnaugh maps; theorems, argument verification, inference rules, and proof techniques in zeroth- and first-order logic; multi-valued logics; and fuzzy logic, including applications such as artificial intelligence and controllers. Prerequisite: MATH 2004. (Fall, spring)

4213  Software Engineering
An overview of the major aspects of contemporary software engineering designed to introduce students to the software development life cycle as defined by various software-engineering paradigms. Development of a team-programming project, including system documentation, is an important part of the course. Prerequisites: CSCI 1614 and CSCI 3114. (Spring)

4303  Object-Oriented Programming
Topics include the object model, classes and objects, classification, object-oriented analysis and design, class libraries, object-oriented languages and applications. Writing object-oriented programs comprise a significant portion of the course. Prerequisite: CSCI 3114. (Fall, even)

4313  Introduction to Operating Systems
A study of system management and control software in a variety of hardware and user environments. The course illustrates common approaches to the development of operating systems and examines in more detail several existing operating systems that will be of continuing importance in the future. Encoding, entering, and running programs are a part of the course. Two hours of lecture and two hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisites: CSCI 3114 and CSCI 2004. (Fall)

4503  Applications Program Interfacing
A practical course on designing and implementing software interfaces for application programs running in the Microsoft Windows environment. The course includes a study of the Visual Basic.NET programming environment. Encoding and running programs comprise a significant part of the course. Two hours of lecture and two hours of laboratory each week. Prerequisite: CSCI 3114. (Fall, even)

4513  Website Programming and Design
A practical course on installing and maintaining a website. The course emphasis is on website administration and server programming in Unix and Windows environments. Topics include CGI, HTML, Java, JavaScript, VRML, Perl, and custom Web clients. Encoding, entering, and running programs comprise a significant part of the course. Two hours of lecture and two hours of lab per week. Prerequisite: CSCI 3114. (Spring)

4582-3  Internship in Computer Science
A practicum working with computers. The work may be on campus or by arrangement with an off-campus facility. Prerequisites: senior standing and 24 credit hours of computer science. (TBA)

4603  Advanced Databases
A quantitative study of the tools and methodology of database design. The intent of the course is to equip a student to design a conceptual database, specify its implementation, and predict the performance of the system when implemented. Topics include hashing, B-trees, database structures and schemas, structured query language (SQL), and system performance and protection. Experience with

Economics (ECON)

2003 Economics and the Quality of Life
This is an issues approach to economics. Elements of economic theory are used to provide a basic understanding of individual issues such as how markets for specific goods and services work, what causes prices and output of these goods to change, how unemployment and inflation and budget deficits are interrelated, and how the American economy is interrelated with the global economy. For non-business majors only. (TBA)

2013 Principles of Macroeconomics
Following a general description of the subject matter of economics and basic concepts including supply and demand analysis, this course develops the foundations of macroeconomics, Gross Domestic Product and its measurement, and theories of aggregate demand and aggregate supply. The monetary and banking systems and international trade and finance are also studied. These are all used to understand the causes and effects of changes in unemployment, inflation, economic growth rates, interest rates, exchange rates, and other economic variables. Prerequisite: ECON 2113 (Fall, spring, summer)

2113 Principles of Microeconomics
This course studies the foundations of the supplies and demands of individual products and resources. It uses the theory of consumption to provide an understanding of the demand side of the market. Production and cost theory provide an understanding of the supply side. Combined, these show the effects of firm and consumer behavior on prices and outputs. Relations between firms within an industry are studied in perfectly and imperfectly competitive markets. This material is applied to consider the advantages and disadvantages of the market system, the effects of government policies, income distribution, economic efficiency, and other issues. Prerequisite: MATH 1503 or higher. (Fall, spring, summer)

2123 Business Statistics
Collection and presentation of statistical data; studies of various statistical distributions and their applications in business; introduction to probability theory, sampling, hypothesis testing, regression analysis, and forecasting through the use of computerized statistical packages to manage real databases. Proficiency with college-level algebra is expected. Prerequisites: MATH 1503. (Fall, spring, summer)

2323 Quantitative Approaches to Management
A survey of applied mathematical techniques used in management science. The course serves as an introduction to the techniques of linear programming, decision theory, inventory control, and queuing models. These concepts form the basis of management science. Prerequisite: ECON 2123. (TBA)

2423 Incremental Analysis and Optimization
This course is designed to increase students’ understanding of change and limits, their knowledge of systematic behavior in the context of economics, finance and business; and their ability to make decisions within constraints. It provides students with greater ability to understand and interpret real world phenomena when expressed in the condensed form of mathematics. The course, through applications, increases student understanding of the tight bonds of theory and real world processes. Prerequisites: ECON 2123, MATH 1503. (Fall, spring)

3013 International Economic Policies
This course studies and compares existing economic systems or policies, including those concerned with currency convertibility, capital mobility, and exchange rate regimes; and other policies. Policies of countries in economic transition are discussed in this context. Prerequisite: ECON 2113. (Fall, spring)

3013  Fundamentals of Early Childhood Education  3
The course initially focuses on current issues and trends in early childhood education within the context of family, culture, and society.
The role of the early childhood professional and the diverse career opportunities available are studied. Students articulate an understanding of their role as political advocates for children, families, and professionals. Current research on the theories of play is analyzed, with an emphasis on appropriate strategies for enhancing learning.
The teacher’s role in guiding young children is introduced as students learn to plan appropriate schedules, transitions, and routines.
Students theoretically design a developmentally appropriate learning environment for young children. The history, philosophy, and social foundations in the field of early childhood are compared to current educational trends. (Fall)

3312  Home, School, and Community Relations  2
This course focuses on the interaction among the home, school, and community in a multicultural and linguistically diverse society.
Effective communication skills with students, parents, peers, and the community are explored. Topics covered include families in crisis, family systems theory, community resources, parental involvement, and collaboration techniques. The student plans and implements a parent involvement activity, and identifies and researches community resources. (Spring)

3403*  Foundations of Reading  3
See ELED 3403. (fall)

3413*  Reading Assessment and Instruction  3
See ELED 3413. (spring)

3704*  Language Arts and Social Studies in the Elementary Classroom  4
This course is designed to teach language arts and social studies from an integrated perspective. A variety of instructional models and strategies are used to involve students in the exploration of the language arts and social studies curricula in the PK–8 classroom.
Special emphasis is placed on reading and writing across the curriculum as well as the selection of appropriate materials that emphasize multicultural perspectives in the social and language arts. Cross-listed ELED 3704. (Fall)

3804*  Inquiry-Based Science and Math  4
This course is designed to teach content, attitudes, and processes involved in teaching science and math concepts to PK–8 students.
Special emphasis is placed on the constructivist teaching approach in inquiry-based math and science teaching and learning. Cross-listed ELED 3804. (Fall)

4051-6  Directed Readings (fall, spring)  1–6
4061-6  Seminar (fall, spring)  1–6
4091-6  Independent Study (fall, spring)  1–6

4113  Sensory Motor Learning  3
This course examines the relationships among motor development, intellectual development, and ego development. Activities designed for independence and responsibility are presented with opportunities for teachers to structure these activities for their classrooms. An introduction to movement exploration for young children is part of the course. (Summer)

4143*  Creative Arts and Activities  3
See ELED 4143. (Spring)

4613  Early Childhood Curriculum and Management  3
An overview of current models of teaching in early childhood are explored. Students integrate the historical and current trends in educational practices within a developmentally appropriate classroom setting. An analytical approach to the influence of the school environment on young children's behavior is revisited as this knowledge applies to actual classroom practices. Instruction focuses on the implementation of an integrated, literacy-focused and individualized curriculum that is responsive to the needs and interests of children living in a culturally and linguistically diverse society. Students articulate their philosophy and support their decision-making within an educational setting. They plan the appropriate selection of materials, media, and technology to enhance instruction. A carefully orchestrated lesson is planned, implemented, taped, and self-evaluated using current trends and practices. Thirty hours of observation required. (Fall)

4702*  Children's Literature  2
See ELED 4702. (Spring)

4739  Student Teaching in Early Childhood Education  9
During the early childhood student teaching experience, students observe, plan, implement, reflect, and refine their teaching skills.
Students experience teaching in both primary and preschool settings.
The student’s final portfolio is evaluated to determine his or her knowledge of the Oklahoma effective teaching competencies. (Fall, spring)

Professional Education (EDUC)

1013  College Academic Skills  3
This course provides an opportunity for students to improve their study skills through efficient time management, effective note taking, skimming, research skills, increased vocabulary proficiency, and comprehension strategies. Required for all degree-seeking students who demonstrate reading proficiency at or below the 40th percentile nationally as demonstrated by a test score of 18 or lower on the reading section of the ACT, or a score of 870 or lower on the SAT (the sum of critical reading and mathematics scores). This course must be completed by the beginning of the sophomore year. Other students may enroll with permission of the instructor. (Fall, spring)

See ECED 3704. (Fall)

3804* Inquiry-Based Science and Math 4
This course is designed to teach content, attitudes, and processes involved in teaching science and math concepts to PK–8 students. Special emphasis is placed on the constructivist teaching approach in inquiry-based math and science teaching and learning. Cross-listed ECED 3804. (Fall)

4003 Intermediate Mathematics Methods 3
This course is designed to allow students to practice and enhance their teaching abilities in mathematics. The course has two goals: to strengthen the skills required for teaching certification and to provide experience with current teaching methods used in successful math classrooms and recommended by the NCTM teaching standards. The course encourages students to leave behind their math anxiety as new experiences are gained in teaching mathematics. Emphasis is on the mathematical processing skills of problem solving, reasoning, communication, and connections. (Spring)

4051-6 Directed Readings (fall, spring) 1–6
4091-6 Independent Study (fall, spring) 1–6

4143* Creative Arts and Activities 3
Emphasis is on the study of the basic elements in art, physical activity, and music, and the relationship of arts and creative activities to culture. The appropriate materials, methods, and techniques for teaching art, physical activities, and music are explored. Cross-listed ECED 4143. (Spring)

4512 Classroom Management 2
In this course students explore a variety of best practices and theories in the area of classroom management. Topics include organization, the design of rules and procedures for the classroom; discipline and behavior management; effective lesson planning; teacher/student/family relationships; and establishing positive expectations. (Spring)

4513 Elementary Curriculum Methods 3
This course is designed to provide teaching strategies and the resources to implement effective teaching by using the principles of learning. The course focuses on prominent classroom organizational strategies and diverse theories for classroom management/behavior and guidance techniques. Students put theory into practice by teaching using a variety of instructional strategies and selecting appropriate media, technology, materials, and resources to implement instructional objectives. (Fall)

4639 Student Teaching in Elementary 9
The elementary student teaching experience is designed for students to be responsive to the diversity existing within the educational setting in today's society. Students apply teaching skills of observation, planning, implementation, and reflection. They are able to manage, respond to, and evaluate students effectively. Students teach in both primary and intermediate classrooms with cultural diversity. The student's final portfolio is evaluated to determine his or her knowledge of the Oklahoma effective teaching competencies. (Fall, spring)

4702* Children's Literature 2
Students are introduced to a wide range of children's literature, its authors, and illustrators. Focus is on the different genres available in children's literature. Multicultural, historical, and societal influences are integrated into the course of study. Emphasis is on the diverse techniques, media, and technology used with literature in storytelling and the use of children's literature in the early childhood and elementary classrooms. The ability to analyze and evaluate literature for curriculum integration is stressed. The student will be able to use the library effectively. Cross-listed ECED 4702. (Spring)

English (ENGL)

1113 Composition I 3
Composition I has four goals: improving students' writing skills; learning about language and writing, not just how to use them; developing critical-thinking skills; and reading more carefully and critically with a writer's eye. Students work with multiple genres for multiple audiences and purposes; they practice strategies for invention, arrangement, and presentation; and they develop strategies of writing, revising, editing, and researching for writing in composition class and beyond. (Fall, spring)

1213 Composition II 3
Composition II builds on the concepts and experiences of Composition I and shares the same four goals. In this course, however, there is greater focus on academic writing—summaries, arguments, syntheses, critiques, objective reports, and essay exams. Research projects include work with library and electronic sources. Prerequisite: ENGL 1113 or an approved equivalent. (Fall, spring)

2004H Classics of Western Culture I 4
See Honors 2004H. (TBA)

2013 Classical Mythology Through Literature 3
An introduction to classical mythology through a study of the major Greek and Roman epics, drama, pastoral poetry, and satire in translation. (TBA)

2043 Applications of Writing in Tutoring 3
Instruction and practice in diagnosing writing problems, exploring options, finding appropriate solutions, and revising, with emphasis on applications in tutoring. Studies include writing theory, grammar, and usage. Enrollment with instructor's permission only. (Fall, spring)

2103 Western Literature 3
A theme-based survey of representative works from the Western canon. Texts representing multiple authors, genres, periods, and cultures are considered within historical, religious, political, social, and aesthetic contexts. Satisfies the literature requirement of the General

2123 Introduction to Creative Writing 3
Students are introduced to the genres commonly associated with creative writing: creative non-fiction, poetry, fiction, and drama (or screenplay). Each genre has its own forms and concentrations, yet each can interrelate to the next. This class helps students build skills that will help them translate their values, concerns, and thoughts into unique and creative texts. (Fall)

2303 Critical Reading and Writing 3
This course includes an examination of how to read for understanding and insight; how to undertake reflective, critical analysis of what is read; how to structure critical viewpoints and interpretations; and how to write effectively about texts. Required of all English majors and minors. (Fall)

2403 Survey of British Literature: Beowulf to Milton 3
Surveys development of British literature from Beowulf to Milton; includes Anglo-Saxon Age to English Civil War and Protectorate; materials arranged chronologically according to major historical periods, literary movements; major authors, history of ideas, and representative texts from different genres in poetry, drama, and prose. Authors may include Chaucer, Spenser, Marlowe, Jonson, Shakespeare, Donne, Herrick. Prerequisites: ENGL 1113 and 1213. (Fall, odd)

2413 Survey of British Literature: Restoration to Romanticism 3
British literature from Restoration to Romantic Age; materials arranged chronologically according to major historical periods, literary movements; major authors, history of ideas, and representative texts from different genres in poetry, drama, and prose. Authors may include Swift, Defoe, Dryden, Behn, Blake, Wordsworth, Coleridge, Keats, Byron, Shelley, Austen. Prerequisites: ENGL 1113 and 1213. (Spring, even).

2603 World Literature 3
A theme-based survey of representative works from world literature; explores universal human themes as well as unique cultural practices. Texts representing multiple authors, genres, periods, and cultures are considered within historical, religious, political, social, and aesthetic contexts. Satisfies the literature and cross-cultural requirements of the General Education Curriculum. May be repeated for credit when topics vary. Prerequisites: ENGL 1113 and 1213. (Fall, spring, summer)

2613* Histories and Theories of Rhetoric 3
Introduction to classical and contemporary rhetorical theory and the historical role of the discipline of rhetoric in Western culture. Cross-listed PHRH 2613. (TBA)

2703 Survey of British Literature: Victorian to Present 3
Introduction to such representative major authors as Emily Bronte, Charles Dickens, James Joyce, and Zadie Smith and literary movements of Victorian, modern, and contemporary British writing; chronological arrangement; emphasis on cultural context, history of ideas and genre development. Prerequisites: ENGL 1113 and 1213. (Spring, odd)

2713 Survey of American Literature: Colonial to Civil War 3
Critical examination of works by major and selected minor writers with emphasis on the history of ideas in American culture from the Age of Exploration through the Romantic period and the Civil War era. Authors may include Bradstreet, Franklin, Wheatley, Emerson, Thoreau, Poe, Hawthorne, Melville, Whitman, Dickinson, Douglass. Prerequisites: ENGL 1113 and 1213. (Spring, even)

2803* Values in Contemporary Literature 3
An exploration of systems of values and, therefore, of implied worldviews as they are embodied in a selection of readings in contemporary literature. Discussion of values as fundamental to structures of meaning are basic to the literary analysis of the works. Cross-listed REL 2803. (TBA)

2813 Survey of American Literature: Realism to Present 3
Critical examination of major and selected minor writers with an emphasis on the history of ideas in American culture and artistic movements, including Realism, Naturalism, Modernism, and Postmodernism. Authors may include Twain, Wharton, Crane, Jewett, Chopin, Frost, Eliot, Pound, Faulkner, Hemingway, Fitzgerald, O’Neill, Williams, Hughes, Ginsberg, Salinger, Plath, Ellison, Morrison, McCarthy, O’Brien, Alexie, Franzen. Prerequisites: ENGL: 1113 and 1213. (Fall, even)

2903* Literature and the Judeo-Christian Tradition 3
Explores Christian characters and concepts in literature, particularly in the short story and novel. The Judeo-Christian aspect is seen both in terms of a thematic basis for imaginative literature and as a source of meaningful awareness on which interpretation can be based. Cross-listed REL 2903. (TBA)

2913 Spirituality and Literature 3
A thematic study that explores the relationship of writers and writing to the spiritual life. Students explore major motifs of spiritual expression, including creative inspiration, vision quests, compassion, and social responsibility. (TBA)

Honors (HON)

LAS 1063H Honors Liberal Arts Seminar

The Liberal Arts Seminar is a three-hour experiential and discussion-based course that allows first-year students at OCU the opportunity to explore scholarly topics under the guidance of highly qualified faculty members. These seminars offer a wide variety of topics in diverse academic disciplines from across the campus, which allow students the opportunity to discover new interests as part of their academic journey at OCU. The honors sections are designed to introduce new honors students to the University Honors program and include speakers and special activities. (Fall, spring)

3163H Honors Junior/Senior Seminar

A variable-topic seminar that is the capstone course for all Honors students. (Fall, spring)

3263H Special Topics in Honors

A variable topics course for Honors students. (TBA)
Honors Courses

BIOI 3114H General Microbiology 4
This hybrid class is for Honors and non-Honors students. Students enrolled in the Honors section of BIOI 3114 will, in addition to completing the other requirements for the General Microbiology course, participate in a laboratory research project. Students will work in groups to generate questions and to conduct research to address their questions. (Fall)

DANC 3792H Dance History: Beginning to 21st Century 2
This hybrid class is for Honors and non-Honors students. Honors students will study jazz and/or musical theatre dance in the last century. Students will write historic research papers and present orally/visually on a dance topic of historic significance. (Fall)

DANC 3892H Dance History: American Dance 2
This hybrid class provides the option of earning Honors credit. Honors students will study the development of American music theater dance. Students will complete historic research papers and present orally/visually on a dance topic of historic significance. This course falls under all rules of the OCU Dance and Arts Management Standards and Procedures. (Spring)

ECON 2113H Principles of Microeconomics 3
This introductory course addresses the fundamental problems faced by individual economic actors such as households, firms and governments. This honors section will require students to lead a significant portion of the class discussion and analysis. (Fall, even)

ENGL 1113H Honors Composition I 3
Honors Composition I shares the goals and principles as ENGL 1113. Designed to accommodate the variety of writing abilities of honors students, ENGL 1113H functions as a community of learners who work collaboratively to become more perceptive and capable writers. (Fall)

ENGL 1213H Honors Composition II 3
Honors Composition II builds on the concepts and experiences of Honors Composition I and shares the same goals and principles as ENGL 1213. Taking a rhetorical approach to thinking and writing, students explore writing applications beyond academics. This course may include service-learning or collaborative research. (Fall, spring)

ENGL*/ PHIL 2004H Classics of Western Culture I 4
A study of philosophical and literary masterpieces from the ancient world through the Renaissance. This course fulfills both the literature and the philosophy/ethics requirements of the general education curriculum. (Fall, odd)

ENGL*/ PHIL 2114H Classics of Western Culture II 4
A study of philosophical and literary masterpieces from the neoclassical through the modern period. This course examines the historical, philosophical, social, and cultural contexts in which each literary work was written and attempts to relate the work to the intellectual spirit of its time. We discuss how to read and appreciate literature as an art form and how each author uses literary techniques to convey his ideals and worldview. This course fulfills both the literature and the philosophy/ethics requirements of the general education curriculum. (Fall, even)

HIST 1003H American History to 1876 3
Introductory course in U.S. history emphasizing the development of American ideas to 1876. Topics include colonial development, American nation-building and exceptionalism, slavery, economic development, and the Civil War. (TBA)

HIST 1103H United States History Since 1876 3
Introductory course in American history emphasizing the development of American ideas since 1876. The seminar includes an analysis of historians’ interpretations of American history. (TBA)

HIST 1203H World History to 1500 3
Seminar-type class that traces events through the collapse of the ancient world to the beginning of the modern age. (TBA)

HIST 1303H World History since 1500 3

MUS 1112H Theory I 2
Students learn the basic elements of music: scales, intervals, triads, seventh chords, Roman numeral function, and two-voice counterpoint. In addition, four-part voice leading, cadences, phrase structure and figured bass will be covered. Students will also demonstrate competence of basic harmonic patterns on the keyboard. This course contains a significant writing component. The course is to be taken concurrently with a corresponding Aural Skills course that is taught by the same instructor. Prerequisite: Music Theory Diagnostic Exam or completion of MUS 1102 with a grade of C or better. (Fall)

MUS 1122H Honors Aural Skills I 2
Students develop fluency in the fundamental melodic, rhythmic, and harmonic structures of Western classical music, as well as the fundamental melodic and rhythmic structures of popular music. This involves the development of corresponding musical skills, including transcription/dictation of short rhythmic phrases, melodies, and four-voice harmonic progressions, as well as singing using the moveable do system of solfege syllables. The course is to be taken concurrently with the corresponding Honors Theory I course that is taught by the same instructor. Prerequisite: none. (Fall)

MUS 1212H Theory II 2
Students learn diatonic harmony, voice leading patterns, melodic embellishments, secondary functions and modulation through voice leading and analysis examples, as well as learning to harmonize melodies with appropriate keyboard accompaniments. Students will also demonstrate competence of harmonic patterns on the keyboard. All students are required to write an analysis paper as part of this course. The course is to be taken concurrently with a corresponding Aural Skills course that is taught by the same instructor. Prerequisite: Successful completion of MUS 1112. (Spring)

MUS 1222H Honors Aural Skills II 2
Students develop fluency in more advanced melodic, rhythmic, harmonic, and formal structures of Western classical music and popular Music. This involves the development of corresponding musical skills, including transcription/dictation of short rhythmic phrases, melodies, four-voice harmonic progressions, and formal types, as well as the performance of these structures. The course is to be taken concurrently with the corresponding Honors Theory II course that is taught by the same instructor. Prerequisite: successful completion of Aural Skills I. (Spring)

MUS 4113H Form and Analysis 3

This hybrid course is for Honors and non-Honors students. All students will study issues of formal, phrase, and harmonic analysis, with emphasis placed on the theme-types and forms of the late eighteenth century. In addition to the forms of the Classical era, forms and harmonies of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries will also be discussed. Students are expected to gain knowledge of terminology and classification and apply that knowledge to new circumstances and to inform students’ musical prose. Honors students will meet once a week to discuss movements in sonata form that contain “problems” and interrogate the text more rigorously. Honors students will choose a sonata form movement from the nineteenth century to present as a capstone to this course. (Fall)

PHRH 1013H Arts and Human Values 3

An exploration of the variety of art forms, including cinema, drama, music, dance, and the graphic arts. This course has both aesthetic and humanistic orientation: The course examines the nature, form, and intrinsic value of works of art and what they express concerning human values. (TBA)

PHRH 1103H Public Speaking 3

Focus on human communication theory with emphasis on effective public speaking. (Spring)

POLS 1003H Governance in America 3

A seminar that describes, analyzes, and evaluates American government and politics including the Constitution and its philosophical origins, federal-state relations, political parties, interest groups, Congress, the presidency, and current public policy issues. (TBA)

PSYC 1113H Introduction to Psychology 3

An introductory course examining fundamental psychological principles with emphasis on increased self-understanding so that students can better understand themselves, significant others, and the influence of the social environment on their psychological lives. (Spring)

REL 1003H Introduction to Biblical Literature 3

An introduction to the history, thought, and literature of ancient Israel before the time of Jesus; the life and teachings of Jesus; and the history, thought, and literature of early Christianity. (Spring)

REL 2513H Introduction to World Religions 3

This course is an overview of the eight major extant religious traditions but will emphasize four: Hinduism, Buddhism, Taoism and Islam. Course study will help students to better describe, define, critically compare and contrast, and to some degree, understand and evaluate the many religious and nonreligious ways humans relate to each other and to the world in connection with any ultimate reality or realities that may be found beyond, within, or around this world that all of us hold in common. (Fall)

SCI 1003H Methods of Scientific Inquiry 3

The course, a general education course, is required for all university students. The course deals with methods of modern science and its impact in understanding the world around us. (Fall)

SOC 2013H Introduction to Sociology 3

A foundation course for all areas of sociological study. Content deals with the basic concepts and perspectives of sociology. (Fall)

Information Technology (IT)

1003 Introduction to Information Technology 3

Provides students with an understanding of information technology in business. Students learn to effectively manage information technology in business, see how information technology is used to transform the business, and further refine and develop individual computer skills associated with the use of information technology in organizations. Course prepares students to solve managerial and organizational problems of limited complexity using popular end-user application programs (word processor, spreadsheets, email, Web browsers, and rudimentary database). (Fall, spring)

2113 Structured Query Language (SQL) 3

The course is designed for students who want to learn how to interact with Oracle databases. The course not only offers an understanding of SQL, it also prepares students for the first exam in both the Oracle Database Administrator and Internet Application Developer Certification Tracks. Students then progress to simple creation of data files and read-write programming. Further topics include elementary data processing followed by advanced topics such as sorting, indexing, and merging; control-break programming; data validation; array processing and table handling; and master file/transaction file processing. Database management techniques such as data modeling and the relational database model are introduced. This course prepares students for upper-level IT courses. (TBA)

3133 Technology and Operations Management 3

Introduces students to operations management concepts as practiced in today’s leading organizations and critical enabling role played by technology in supporting management and operations. Operations management topics include forecasting, materials requirements management, and decision theory. Information technology categories and applications are covered as are the use of management support systems (expert systems, decision support systems, executive information systems, and groupware) and mobile technologies. Prerequisite: IT 1003. (Fall, spring)

4303 Cyber Security 3

Provides an awareness of cyber threats and vulnerabilities, risk mitigation efforts, cyber security policy and procedures, IT system design, and architecture. Includes security concepts and mechanisms, security management, network security, and system and application security. (TBA)

4313 Business Systems Analysis and Design 3

This course exposes students to structured systems analysis and design through implementation of the systems development life cycle. Deliverable for this course is a comprehensive group case study.
IT – Liberal Studies

4323 Database Management Systems
- Course Description: This course is designed to provide students with skills required to develop database systems. The course begins with a brief review of SQL through comprehensive assignments, followed by instruction in Oracle, and then database management and development techniques. Topics covered are flat file, hierarchical, network, and relational database models; data modeling using Logical Data Structures; Structured Query Language; data normalization; storage concerns; data warehousing; and distributed database systems. Upon successful completion of this course, the student is able to conceptualize, develop, test, and maintain a complete database system on either microcomputers or mainframe systems. Prerequisite: IT 2113 or other programming language. (TBA)
- Credit Hours: 3

4333 Business Systems Internship
- Course Description: The internship is designed to allow students to obtain practical work experience prior to completion to the course of study while integrating knowledge and abilities gained in earlier major courses. The intern must work with the internship coordinator and a sponsor for an organization external to the university to develop an internship proposal. Prerequisites: completion of all required major track courses, senior standing, and an approved proposal. (TBA)
- Credit Hours: 3

4823 Topics in Computer Information Technology
- Course Description: Subject matter varies by semester. Emphasizes important computer information technology topics not sufficiently covered in other information technology courses. The course may be repeated with different content. Prerequisites: Permission of instructor. (TBA)
- Credit Hours: 3

4833 Networking
- Course Description: This course offers a conceptual and technological survey of the structure of distributed information systems architectures, operating systems, network operating systems, data management systems, application development environments, peripheral technology, and user interfaces. Interoperability between these architectural components is explored. Current technology and trends in each architectural element are reviewed. Students are exposed to home pages, graphics, search engines, and other items of interest on the internet. We discuss accomplishing Electronic Commerce over the internet and how businesses will evolve in the future with the use of the internet. Prerequisite: IT 3133, junior standing, and permission of the instructor. (Spring)
- Credit Hours: 3

4843 Strategic Information Systems
- Course Description: This course examines the use and implementation of information systems for strategic and competitive advantage in an organization. The focus of the course is an analysis of frameworks, which provide students an understanding of the elements of competitive advantage from an upper management perspective. This foundation of frameworks is linked to the organization’s information systems through the use of case studies and augmented with real-world examples. This course covers a sampling of Commercial Enterprise Software packages and the various implementation methodologies. Students are required to develop a Request for Proposal for the acquisition of an Enterprise Software package and evaluate multiple alternatives to meet the needs of a case study organization. Prerequisites: IT 4313, junior standing, and permission of the instructor. (TBA)
- Credit Hours: 3

Interdepartmental (INDP)

2103* Issues in Women's Studies
- Course Description: A survey of women's roles and status in American society. Emphasis is on the importance of gender and social institutions such as the family, government, workplace, and religion in shaping the lives and opportunities of women. (TBA)
- Credit Hours: 3

3963 21st Century Problems Research Seminar
- Course Description: Interdisciplinary course facilitated by professors from a variety of programs within the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences; students use background knowledge from liberal arts and major courses to collaborate on a significant problem facing 21st-century global citizens; inquiry, creative thinking, literature reviews, and other forms of research are used to develop and propose plans to positively impact chosen focus issue. Topics may include ecosystems degradation, resource scarcity, social and economic inequality, global poverty. Fulfills Liberal Studies Core requirement. Prerequisite: junior or senior standing. (TBA)
- Credit Hours: 3

4893 Research and Writing in Women’s Studies
- Course Description: The student researches a topic in his or her major/field as it relates to women's studies. Using directed readings, the student produces an integrative paper. Approaches to such an integrative study might include examination of the current place of women's studies in the major, research from women's studies that might influence the major, or current research in the major conducted by women or from a women's studies approach. Prerequisite: 6 hours in women's studies minor. (TBA)
- Credit Hours: 3

Italian (ITAL)

1113 Beginning Italian I
- Course Description: An introduction to the Italian language, with focus on the skills of speaking, listening to, reading, and writing Italian. Beginning-level vocabulary, pronunciation, and grammar. (Fall)
- Credit Hours: 3

1213 Beginning Italian II
- Course Description: A continuation of Beginning Italian I. Second-level emphasis on the skills of speaking, listening to, reading, and writing Italian. Second-level vocabulary, pronunciation, and grammar. Prerequisite: ITAL 1113 or equivalent. (Spring)
- Credit Hours: 3

Liberal Studies Major

The following courses are offered in support of the general education requirements for the Bachelor of Arts, Liberal Studies Major with a Concentration in Mass Communications (BAMC) Program taught in Singapore.

* Denotes cross-listed course
+ Denotes dual-listed course
CSAC 2203  Research and Writing in an Academic Context  3
This course exposes students to the proper research methods (both library and internet search techniques) and correct form (MLA and APA) for writing (in English) papers, reports, and examinations commonly employed in college level courses.

AAAC 2003  Art and Our World  3
Through exposure to diverse art forms, students are trained to be literate consumers of the arts. This course explores the concept of artistic creativity and the role played by the mastery of technique in artistic production. The manner in which the artist reflects and shapes her or his culture is also a major topic of investigation.

AAAC 3003  Values and Culture  3
Literature, philosophy, and religion are the primary sources for the study of the role played by diverse cultures in shaping personal and social values. The major focus of this course is on the values characteristic of Western culture and the ways these values have shaped the lives of Europeans and Americans.

CCAC 2003  Politics, Economics, America, and the Future  3
This course examines the economic, political, and social history of the United States beginning with the twentieth century with an emphasis on America’s increasingly important relationship with Asia.

CCAC 2103  Comparative Politics  3
This course encompasses a comparative study of the political systems and governmental structures of the United States and selected European and Asian countries.

SMAC 1003  Behavioral Science  3
Concentrated study in one of the behavioral sciences represented on the OCU campus—typically psychology or sociology.

SMAC 1103  Research Methodology  3
This is an introductory level course focused on exposing students to the scientific method as applied in the behavioral sciences and business contexts. Students are shown how to design basic survey instruments and the analytic tools to interpret results. In particular, implications for market research are emphasized.

HEAC 1013  Management of Personal Lifestyles  3
This course covers the important areas of diet, exercise, stress management, and drug abuse as they impact personal wellness and the quality of an individual’s life in modern society.

HEAC 1113  Environmental Science  3
This course guides students in a reflection on the concept of the earth as a holistic biosphere and examines the impact of various forms of human activity on the overall environment and its capacity to sustain life. Current issues, e.g. “global warming,” rapid loss of species diversity, and pollution of air and water, will receive special attention.

MCAD 4013  Advertising Campaign Planning and Management  3
In this course, students learn how to research, evaluate, and analyze the product, market, target consumer, and competition in order to create an effective integrated communications plan that includes advertising, promotion, public relations, and direct marketing components (normally taught overseas in conjunction with MCPR 4203).

MCBC 4223  The Television Program: Scripting  3

MCBC 4163  The Television Program: Production  3
This course focuses on the technology, process, and skills that must be mastered in producing live television programs in the studio (taught on campus in conjunction with MCBC 4243).

MCBC 4243  Student Showcase  3
Students work as a team in the studio to produce a thirty minute television program. Positions rotate throughout the course, and students will learn through supervised operations all positions from on-air talent to camera operator, floor director, audio, tape-deck, graphics, and control room director (taught on campus in conjunction with MCBC 4163).

MCPM 4103  Advanced News Gathering and Writing  3
This course gives students experience with the practice of in-depth enterprise new reporting and the writing of complex stories. Assignments focus on contextual, issue-oriented topics (normally taught overseas as the first or second module in the program).

MCPR 4203  Public Relations Campaign and Management  3
This course focuses on the major components (public opinion surveys, creative concept, media planning, integrative strategies, etc.) required for successful creation and management of an integrated public relations campaign (normally taught overseas in conjunction with MCAD 4013).

Management (MGMT)

1001  Freshman Business Connection  1
This course is designed to familiarize new Oklahoma City University business students with the Meinders School of Business. Students experience discussion, experiential exercises, and presentations by professors and executive board members. Students participate in writing a personal vision statement and researching a local business. This course meets eight times plus a field trip during the first eight weeks of the semester. (Fall)
2001  Sophomore Business Connection—Career Development  1
This course is designed to meet sophomore transitional needs; continue assisting students in exploring majors, investigating the world of work and their place in it, and beginning to build career plans. Students begin setting a framework for accomplishing critical goals in the middle years of college and develop a professional résumé, cover letter, and industry/career/employer research paper that will be included in the professional portfolio. Prerequisites: MGMT 1001 and sophomore standing (Fall, spring)

2023  Business Communication and Technical Writing  3
This course covers internal, external, oral, and written communication common to the workplace. It requires an analysis of communication situations and strategies, design of messages, and evaluation of feedback. Written and presentation skills are emphasized. Prerequisites: ENGL 1113 and 1213. (Fall, spring)

2213  Business Law  3
General concepts regarding the nature of the legal system, ethical issues in business decision making, dispute resolution processes, basic constitutional limitations on the power of government to regulate business activity, the nature of government regulation, fundamental principles of tort, contract, sales and commercial law. Prerequisites: MGMT 2023 and MGMT 2223. (Fall, spring)

2223  Business Ethics and Leadership  3
This course clarifies ethical questions in business and critically analyzes ethical theories and principles. Students seek to discover solutions to specific ethical dilemmas commonly encountered in the business world. This course satisfies the values and culture general education requirement. (Fall, spring)

3123  Principles of Management and Organization  3
This course introduces students to the concepts of managing the enterprise. This includes human behavior in the organization, including individuals, groups, and the enterprise itself. Also included is an overview of managing information systems, operations, and innovation. Prerequisites: ECON 2113 and ACCT 2113. (Fall, spring, summer)

3213  Human Resources Management  3
Responsibilities of the human resources manager, including personnel programming, sources of manpower supply, testing, merit evaluation, training, executive development, enumeration and retirement plans, personal interfaces, and management/union relations. Prerequisite: MGMT 3123. (Fall, spring)

3413  Entrepreneurial Environment  3
This course examines the general issues related to starting a new business, introducing a new product or service, and creating a new market. The course focuses on how opportunities for accomplishing these objectives can be discovered and exploited. Topics covered during the course include sources of funding, organizational issues, and new venture strategy. The course consists of combination of lectures, guest speakers, student presentations, and in-class exercises. Prerequisite: Sophomore standing. (Fall)

4333  Topics in Management  3
Subject matter varies by semester. Emphasizes important management topics not sufficiently covered in other courses. May be repeated with different content. Prerequisites: MGMT 3123 and permission of instructor. (TBA)

4421-6  Applied Research or Internship in Management  1–6
An opportunity for work experience or independent study in the field of management. Prerequisites: 6 hours of upper-level management, senior standing, and permission of instructor. (TBA)

4563  International Business Topics  3
This course allows students to develop competence and expertise in international aspects of a certain industry, country, or a functional area of business. Selected topic must be approved by the supervising professor before initiation of the study. A comprehensive written report and an oral presentation are required. Prerequisites: MKTG 3523, FIN 3533, and senior standing. (TBA)

4573  International Business Strategy  3
The course serves as an integrated capstone for all business majors. The management of multinational corporations requires all of the standard business skills applied in domestic corporations plus skills to deal with complications of different cultures, multiple currencies, varying government regulations, and different regulations dealing with financial, labor, and product markets. Students learn to develop and use strategic, organizational, and financial policies for global competitive business management. The format includes lectures, case studies, presentations, and discussions. Prerequisites: MKTG 3013, MGMT 3123, FIN 3023, senior standing, final semester. (Fall, spring)

Marketing (MKTG)

3013  Marketing Principles  3
A survey of business activities and institutions involved in providing goods and services to consumers. Emphasis is placed on planning, product development, pricing, distribution, promotion, and the management of these activities. Prerequisite: Junior standing; or Sophomore standing with permission of Marketing and Management Department Chair. (Fall, spring, summer)

3113  Marketing Research  3
This course is intended to give students a working understanding of marketing research, what can be done with it and how to apply the concepts to their work in other courses and in the workplace after graduation. Business decisions rely on market research. This course teaches students how to conduct, read, and interpret market research. It also shows what can be done with market research and what options they have as a manager. Prerequisites: MKTG 3013, ECON 2123 (Fall)

3123  Consultative Selling  3
This course introduces the basic concepts and skills of trust-based, consultative selling, including behavioral concepts, needs discovery and analysis, communication skills, informative and persuasive verbal presentations, gaining commitment to purchase, and negotiating objections and resistance. The course emphasizes building interpersonal trust through ethical, customer-focused dialogues and managing long-term customer relationships. Classes are highly interactive and designed to develop selling concepts, skills, and self-confidence through experiential exercises, sales role-plays, and professional speakers. Prerequisite: MKTG 3013 (Fall, even)

Consumer Behavior

Course #: 3313
Course Name: Consumer Behavior
Credit Hours: 3
Study of consumption-related behaviors as they relate to marketing strategies intended to influence such behaviors. Psychological, economic, anthropological, and sociological perspectives on consumer decision making. Theories and frameworks applied to enhance understanding of consumer pre-purchase, purchase and post-purchase behavior that enable better marketing decisions. Prerequisite: MKTG 3013. (Spring)

Transnational Marketing

Course #: 4013
Course Name: Transnational Marketing
Credit Hours: 3
This course examines the importance of international marketing and global sourcing to the economy of the U.S. and other countries and the analysis of characteristics, structure, and competitive forces of international markets. Export and import procedures, production in multiple locations, and transportation challenges are reviewed as well as the roles and responsibilities of export and import managers with emphasis on the problems and practices of managing international marketing activities. Further study assesses the advantages and problems of standardization of marketing programs across several countries, selection of appropriate entry strategies, and different aspects of marketing mix management. This course meets the general education cross-cultural requirement. Prerequisite: MKTG 3013 (Spring, even)

Brand Identity and Strategic Brand Management

Course #: 4103
Course Name: Brand Identity and Strategic Brand Management
Credit Hours: 3
Explores the role of the brand management function in developing brand strategy and brand identity, building strong brands, measuring their equity or value, and maintaining the strength of the brand over time. Focuses on critical concepts of brand, brand equity, and strategic brand management including an understanding of what is branding, how to develop brand equity, how to reach the target audience, the importance of consistent communications, and brand planning. Prerequisite: MKTG 3013. (Fall)

Services Marketing

Course #: 4123
Course Name: Services Marketing
Credit Hours: 3
The challenges of managing services and delivering quality service to customers. The selling of services as opposed to the selling of goods. Intangibility, non-separation of buyer and seller, variability of services, and simultaneous production and consumption explored relative to the traditional marketing mix framework. Prerequisite: MKTG 3013. (Spring, odd)

Topics in Marketing

Course #: 4133
Course Name: Topics in Marketing
Credit Hours: 3
Subject matter varies by semester. Emphasizes important marketing topics not sufficiently covered by other courses. May be repeated with different course content. Prerequisite: MKTG 3013. (TBA)

Marketing Management and Strategy

Course #: 4153
Course Name: Marketing Management and Strategy
Credit Hours: 3
This course seeks to familiarize students with the major concepts of marketing management and strategy. Focus is on relationships among organizational, business-level, and marketing strategies; evaluating and selecting markets in which competitive advantages may be attained; and preparing marketing programs for improving performance and strengthening market position. Prerequisite: senior standing. (Spring)

Consultative Experience

Course #: 4213
Course Name: Consultative Experience
Credit Hours: 3
This course provides students the opportunity to help develop a solution to a real marketing problem within the confines of a real organization. Students working as organizational team members under the direction of a faculty leader provide marketing expertise and learn how marketing functions are performed in a real work environment. Students are required to keep a personal reflection journal and documentation of tasks performed and make a formal presentation to marketing faculty describing the learning experience and outcome. Prerequisite: MKTG 3013, MKTG 3123 (TBA)

Course #: 1213
Course Name: Mass Media Writing
Credit Hours: 3
Introduction to writing for the mass media using proper style and industry standards. Define news, construct leads, prepare a variety of news and feature stories, and effectively use the Associated Press Stylebook. (Fall)

Mass Communications/Broadcasting

Course #: 1603*
Course Name: Basic Photography
Credit Hours: 3
See ART 2663. (Fall)

Mass Communications/Graphic Design

Course #: 1803*
Course Name: Digital Photography
Credit Hours: 3
See ART 2063. (Spring)

Mass Communications/Multimedia Journalism

Course #: 2303
Course Name: Photo Journalism
Credit Hours: 3
An introduction to communicating with photographs that covers the techniques of black and white photography, editing photographs, and combining words and pictures. Group critiques of weekly assignments emphasize the photograph’s statement, aesthetics, and techniques. Each student creates a portfolio of individual photographs and a photographic essay. (TBA)

3713 Print Production Techniques 3
Designed for advertising and public relations students who must plan, supervise, or produce persuasive publications. Content focuses on sound design and production guidelines for print media, paper selection, ink and color theory, type selection, printing processes, and production techniques. (TBA)

4013* Integrated Campaign Development 3
Development of a comprehensive Integrated Marketing Communications (IMC) campaign for a selected client, using advertising and public relations techniques. Assigned cases include analysis of competitors, research methods, target markets, creative strategies, media vehicles, sales promotions, direct marketing and social responsibility efforts. Prerequisite: MCAD 3403 or MCPR 3803. Cross-listed with MCPR 4013. (Fall)

4161-3 Selected Topics/Advertising 1–3
Variable-content seminar relating to advertising topics. Examples: Advertising Agency Management, Advanced Advertising Design, etc. (TBA)

4203 Direct Response Advertising 3
This course is designed as an overview of methods and tactics of direct response advertising, including a variety of direct, database, and interactive marketing topics. Students learn hands-on skills in database development and management. Topics include direct marketing planning and execution, customer loyalty programs, design of direct mail, and collateral and interactive media. Prerequisite: MCAD 2213. (TBA)

4303 Promotional Methods and Strategies 3
This course examines sales promotion and how it applies to integrated marketing communications. Students study consumer behavior and customer transaction as well as effective planning, management, and evaluation of both trade and consumer promotion. Key issues include the development of interactive media strategies, and the tools and techniques used to analyze media opportunities. Prerequisite: MCAD 2213. (TBA)

4343 The Blackwelder Group: Advertising 3
Students work as staff members for the student-run nonprofit advertising agency. Projects are developed for a variety of clients and provide diverse advertising learning applications. By permission only. (TBA)

4483 The Professional Experience: Advertising 3
Internship. A look at the profession of advertising from the inside out. By permission of the instructor and department chair. (Fall, spring, summer)

4853 Directed Readings: Advertising 3
Individually developed readings course designed to provide intensive information gathering related to advertising topics. By arrangement with the instructor and department chair. (TBA)

Mass Communications/Broadcasting (MCBC)

2103 Introduction to Broadcasting 3
This course introduces students to the broadcasting industry today. Course content covers the development of media, organization, programming, and regulatory practices in these industries. (Fall)

2203 Sportswriting and Sportscasting 3
Students are introduced to the principles of reporting and writing sports news for both print and broadcast media. Among the techniques studied and practiced are play-by-play, color analysis, in-depth and breaking news coverage, and interviewing in a variety of sports settings. Students gain experience in sportscasting and examine the rapidly growing sports media business. Prerequisite: MCBC 2213. (TBA)

2213 Broadcast Writing I 3
This course prepares students to write basic news copy for the broadcast media. Students are introduced to the unique characteristics of broadcast style and story formats. This course is a combination of lecture sessions and writing labs. Basic computer skills are necessary. (Fall)

2223 Audio Production 3
This course allows students to learn and develop proficiency in audio production (audio control, on-air announcing, digital and tape multi-track recording, editing and project productions). (TBA)

2343 TV Studio Production I 3
This course introduces students to the process and techniques of live television studio production. Emphasis is on hands-on experience. (Fall)

2443* TV Field Production 3
Students are introduced to the basic concept of electronic field production and electronic news gathering. Prerequisite: MCBC 2343. Cross-listed with MCMJ 2443. (Spring)

3003 Broadcast Promotions, Programming, and Sales 3
This course introduces students to the basic promotional, programming, and sales strategies and techniques used in the broadcast media today. Prerequisite: MCBC 2103. (TBA)

3103 Nonlinear Editing 3
Introduction of software and advanced techniques in nonlinear editing. Includes music videos, multi-camera editing, green screen and commercials. Shooting original video required. Prerequisite: MCBC 2443. (Fall)
Mass Communications/Graphic Design (MCGD)

2123 Introduction to Graphic Design
This introductory course addresses the elements and principles of design. It provides an introduction to applied drawing and focuses on the problem-solving process necessary in the creation of all graphic design work. This course introduces students to the software applications used in graphic design. Emphasis is placed on how graphic design can help solve problems in various mass communications professions. Topics are explored through research and a series of projects during the semester. Students are required to present finished projects and participate in the critique process. (Fall)

2223 Graphic Design Tools and Technology
This intermediate course focuses on the graphic design tools and software needed to create contemporary communications. This studio-based course utilizes tutorials and projects in Photoshop, InDesign and Illustrator programs (for Mac). It also covers scanning, importing, and printing. Prerequisite: MCGD 2123 or permission of instructor. (Spring)

2323 Graphic Design III
This intermediate course explores the written language, including the art of typography. Projects include signs, symbols, and logos used in corporate, retail, and industrial communications. Students are required to present their finished projects and participate in the critique process. Prerequisites: MCGD 2123 and MCGD 2223 or permission of instructor. (Spring)

4991-3 Independent Study: Broadcast

ability, and client presentation skills are stressed on all projects. Prerequisite: MCGD 3123 or permission of instructor. (TBA)

This intermediate hybrid course focuses on visual communications in the ever-changing global market. It addresses design considerations necessary for multiple demographics and culturally diverse audiences. Lectures and guest speakers will add to this studio-based experience. Additionally, problems of language and cultural uniqueness are addressed through graphic design projects. Attempts to include a related community service project (based on needs and appropriate timing) are made. Prerequisite: MCGD 2323 or permission of instructor. (TBA)

This advanced course is for students who seek to develop additional pieces for their electronic portfolios. Projects may include a broad range of subject areas or a specific focus on Web design, illustration, multimedia, advertising, complex campaigns, or other topic approved by the instructor. Advanced skills in Photoshop, InDesign, and Illustrator are used to enhance students’ professional work. Prerequisite: MCGD 3123, MCGD 3223 or by permission of instructor. (TBA)

This advanced course focuses on individual student interests and portfolio development. Students explore various topics such as corporate identity or environmental graphics. Professional client presentations and critique sessions are included. Prerequisite: MCGD 3123 or permission of instructor. (TBA)

This advanced course is for students who seek additional training in print-related media design (newspaper, magazine, newsletters, direct mail, etc.) and print production processes. Studio-based projects cover initial concepts through final production. Students are required to present their work to clients, defend it, and interpret critiques before producing the pieces for their portfolios. Emphasis is on the production methods and processes used by external vendors to create the finished pieces. Prerequisite: MCGD 3123 or by permission of instructor. (TBA)

This course exposes students to the profession of graphic design from the inside out. Students must interview with an external organization and be selected for an internship. Enrollment is by permission of the instructor and department chair. (Fall, spring, summer)

Independent study in graphic design related areas. Enrollment is by permission of the instructor and department chair. (TBA)

Introduces in-depth enterprise news reporting and writing complex multimedia story packages. Focuses on contextual, issue-oriented topics. Generates multimedia content for use by Student Media. Prerequisite: MASC 1213 or permission of instructor. (Spring)

Coverage of government news at the local level, specifically information gathering from court proceedings and city, county, and state government meetings. Student field reporting required. Prerequisite: MASC 1213, MCMJ 2003. (TBA)

Seminar for staff media staff members. Problem solving, practical applications, and current media issues. May be repeated three times. (TBA)

Opinion-writing skills; news analysis, critical reviews, fairness, editorials, and commentary. MCMJ 2003. (TBA)

This course provides an intensive experience in editing, headlining, and displaying text, photos, artwork, and informational graphics. A strong component in conceptualizing and designing publications from scratch is included. Competence in computerized page construction and graphics technology is required. Prerequisite: MCMJ 3313. (TBA)

Nonfiction writing styles for multimedia outlets. Complex story structures. Prerequisite: MCMJ 2003. (TBA)

Intensive experience in editing, headlining, displaying text, photos, artwork, informational graphics, and operating online content management systems. Conceptualize and design new publications. Prerequisite: MCMJ 2003. (TBA)

Mathematics (MATH)

1103  Problem-Solving Approaches in Mathematics 3
This course follows the content of arithmetic, geometry, and pre-algebra as it is sequenced through the eighth grade. Each area is connected to problem-solving strategies included in the NCTM goals and standards for the reform of mathematical education. This course gives the student practice with operations including whole number, rational number, informal geometry, integers, and linear equations. Emphasis is on the solution of algorithms and word problems while integrating strategies and variation of techniques as applied to the scope of math learning. Content is used to strengthen the math skills of education majors. (Spring)

1203  Basic Concepts for the Understanding of Pre-Algebra 3
This math content course is designed to prepare the education student for college algebra while including ways to implement the NCTM standards for pre-algebra skills including problem solving, cognitive approaches, and thinking skills, connections and manipulatives. Math content includes practice with integers, variables, expression, equations, number theory (factors, multiples and exponents), fractions, probability, decimals, percents, the coordinate plane, square roots, and polynomials. This course includes a recorded journal reflecting the experiences with the above mathematical concepts. (Spring)

1213  Basic Concepts for the Understanding of Geometry 3
This math content course prepares the education student for geometrical aspects of informal geometry in both the elementary and intermediate classroom. Content includes a historical perspective of geometry, angles and measures, lines and line segments, patterns, polygons, circumference and area of circles, and volume and surface area. As each concept is practiced, students analyze ways to implement the NCTM standards. (Fall)

1303  Intermediate Algebra 3
Required for all degree-seeking students who demonstrate mathematics proficiency at or below the 40th percentile nationally as demonstrated by a test score of 18 or lower on the mathematics section of the ACT, or a score of 870 or lower on the SAT (the sum of critical reading and mathematics scores). This course must be completed before the beginning of the junior year and before enrolling in MATH 1503 College Algebra or other higher-level courses in mathematics. The student will demonstrate an understanding of algebraic expressions and numbers, linear equations, graphs of equations, functions, algebra of functions, linear functions, equations of a straight line, systems of linear equations, matrices, determinants and Cramer’s rule, inequalities, polynomials, multiplication, factoring and division of polynomials, synthetic division, rational functions and equations, radicals, radical functions and rational exponents. This course does not fulfill the general education math requirement. Prerequisite: one year of high school algebra. (Fall, spring)

1503  College Algebra 3
The student will demonstrate an understanding of quadratic functions and equations, complex numbers, exponential and logarithmic functions and equations, conic sections and nonlinear systems of equations, polynomials and graphs, fundamental theorem of algebra, zeros of polynomial functions, rational functions and graphs, arithmetic and geometric sequences and series, binomial theorem, permutations, combination and probability. Completion fulfills the general education mathematics requirement for most students (some majors may require a different mathematics course). Prerequisite: completion of MATH 1303 or a score of 19 or higher on the mathematics section of the ACT, or 870 on the SAT (the sum of critical reading and mathematics test scores). (Fall, spring, summer)

1602  Trigonometry 2
The equivalent of high-school trigonometry. (TBA)

1703  Pre-Calculus 3
A review of trigonometry and algebra skills necessary for calculus. (TBA)

2004  Calculus and Analytic Geometry I 4
Differential and integral calculus of one variable, application to elementary functions. Prerequisite: MATH 1503 or equivalent. (Fall, spring)

2104  Calculus and Analytic Geometry II 4
Application of differentiation and integration to hyperbolic trigonometric functions, special integration techniques, infinite series, Taylor and McLaurin series, functions in polar coordinate form. Prerequisite: MATH 2004. (Fall, spring)

2203  Multivariable Calculus 3
Multivariate calculus, use of vectors, Gauss’, Stokes’, and Green’s theorems. Prerequisite: MATH 2104. (TBA)

2403  Foundations of Mathematics 3
Techniques of mathematical proof, induction, mathematical logic, introduction to set theory, set operations, relations and functions, equivalence relations, cardinal numbers, countable sets, uncountable sets, and axiom of choice. Prerequisite: MATH 2004.

3003  Linear Algebra 3
An introduction to vector spaces, matrices and determinants, linear mappings, eigenvalues, bilinear and quadratic forms. May be taken concurrently with MATH 2203. Prerequisite: MATH 2104 and 2403. (TBA)

3103  Algebraic Structures I 3
An introduction to the theory of algebraic structures including groups, rings, and fields. Prerequisite: MATH 2403 and 3003. (TBA)

3203  Probability and Statistics I 3
An introduction to probability and statistics, discrete and continuous random variables, algebra of expectation, moment-generating functions; binomial, hypergeometric, multinominal, Poisson, normal distributions. Prerequisite: MATH 2104. (TBA)

3303  Ordinary Differential Equations 3
Ordinary differential equations, including transfer methods introduction to partial differential equations. May be taken concurrently with MATH 2203. Prerequisite: MATH 2104. (TBA)
3403  Numerical Methods  3
Numerical techniques applied to solving equations and systems of equations, interpolation and extrapolation, integration of differential equations, etc. Prerequisites: CSCI 1513 and MATH 2104. (TBA)

3503* Discrete Mathematics  3
A survey of selected methods of reasoning and objects of study in discrete mathematical structures. Topics include Big O notation, elementary math (logic, set relations, functions, and number theory), proof and counting techniques, recurrence relations, graph theory and trees. Prerequisite: MATH 1503 or three years of high school algebra. Recommended: MATH 2004. Cross-listed with PHYS 3503. (TBA)

3603 Real Analysis I  3
A rigorous study of number systems, sequences, convergence, continuity, differentiation, and integration. Prerequisites: MATH 2403. (TBA)

3703 Advanced Geometry  3
Analytic projective geometry of one, two, and three dimensions, with specializations of Euclidean and non-Euclidean geometries. Prerequisites MATH 3603. (TBA)

3804* Engineering Math I  4
The course covers many of the postcalculus topics in mathematics that are necessary for the modern engineer. Coordinate systems, coordinate transformations, matrices, vector analysis. Ordinary differential equations. Laplace transform. Prerequisite: MATH 2104. Cross-listed PHYS 3804. (TBA)

3913 Complex Analysis  3
Analytic functions, Taylor and Laurent series, conformal mapping, Schwartz-Christoffel transformation, contour integration. Prerequisite: MATH 2104 and 2403. (TBA)

4103 Algebraic Structures II  3
Structure of groups, lattices, categories and adjoint functors, tensor products and multilinear algebra. Prerequisite: MATH 3103. (TBA)

4203 Probability and Statistics II  3
Interval estimation, hypotheses testing linear regression, and distribution-free methods. Prerequisite: MATH 3203. (TBA)

4303 Partial Differential Equations  3
Prerequisite: MATH 3303 and 3603. (TBA)

4403 Topology  3
An introduction to point-set topology. Prerequisite: MATH 3603. (TBA)

4503* Quantum Mechanics  3
See: PHYS 4503.

4603 Real Analysis II  3
A continuing rigorous examination of the calculus, including Fourier series and line and surface integrals. Prerequisite: MATH 3603. (TBA)

4803* Engineering Math II  3

4911-6 Independent Study  1–6
By permission of the department chair. (TBA)

Moving Image Arts (MIAP)

1013 Introduction to Film Studies  3
The course introduces students to the essential techniques of film analysis to develop the critical vocabulary to view, discuss, and write about film as an art form. Distinction between the importance of the literary and cinematic analysis of film is emphasized. Examination of approaches to the study of film include auteurism, genre study and how film forms establish or subvert expectations, theoretical and historical developments in the history of cinema, and the tension between film as an art form and film as a business. Discussion is rooted in the screening of appropriate films. (TBA)

1113 History of Motion Pictures  3
International survey of the industrial and cultural conditions of the motion picture industry. Prerequisite: MATH 3103. (TBA)

1123* Behind the Scenes: The Process of Making Films  3
See MCFM 1123. (TBA)

1133 Hollywood I, Before 1945  3
An exploration of the historical and cultural contexts that governed the emergence of film as art and mass culture. From early silent film through the American pre-war studio products, different approaches to narrative filmmaking as a developing form of communication are examined and screened. Readings, screenings, and written reports required. (TBA)

2023 Intermediate Technology and Equipment Practicum  3
Students learn to plan for and operate the most commonly used moving image art technical hardware employed in the processes of professional content production. Equipment needs and usage in each major labor category are examined. Guest lectures and hands-on workshops focusing on results planning, efficiency of usage, safety, and set operations. (TBA)

2183 Introduction to Film Music  3
This course explores the roles of music in film from historical, aesthetic and production viewpoints. It is a lectured, workshop, and peer-taught forum examining the relationship of film as a separate element of the overall production and how the working dynamics of the creative team of director, producer, and composer collaborate to use music to voice a unique perspective affecting audience interpretation. (TBA)

2213 Film Production and Business  3
Students study the professional moving image production management process from product concept to completion. Students learn script selection, breakdown and production scheduling, budget development and management, casting and staffing, production execution, and the visual and aural post production processes. Publicity, marketing techniques, distribution plans, copyright, and chain of title are analyzed. (TBA)

Music—Theory (MUS)

1102-1202 Music Fundamentals 2, 2
These courses deal with the basic aspects of music, including notation, key signatures, intervals, elementary harmonic structure, ear training, and simple sight-reading. Designed for the nonmusic major. Based on the results of the Music Theory Diagnostic Exam, music majors may be placed in Music Fundamentals. Credit is not acceptable for the B.M. degree. (Fall, spring)

1112 Theory I 2
Students learn the basic elements of music: scales, intervals, triads, seventh chords, Roman numeral function, and two-voice counterpoint. In addition, four-part voice leading, cadences, phrase structure and figured bass will be covered. Students will also demonstrate competence of basic harmonic patterns on the keyboard. This course contains a significant writing component. The course is to be taken concurrently with a corresponding Aural Skills course that is taught by the same instructor. Prerequisite: Music Theory Diagnostic Exam or completion of MUS 1102 with a grade of C or better. (Fall, spring)

1122 Aural Skills I 2
Students learn the basic elements of dictation: scale recognition, interval identification, and triad identification. Students learn the "moveable do" system of solfège syllables and apply to short examples. In addition, rhythmic and melodic dictation will be covered, as well as short harmonic dictation examples in four voices. The course is to be taken concurrently with a corresponding Theory course that is taught by the same instructor. Prerequisite: Music Theory Diagnostic Exam or completion of MUS 1102 with a grade of C or better. (Fall, spring)

1212 Theory II 2
Students learn diatonic harmony, voice leading patterns, melodic embellishments, secondary functions and modulation through voice leading and analysis examples, as well as learning to harmonize melodies with appropriate keyboard accompaniments. Students will also demonstrate competence of harmonic patterns on the keyboard. All students are required to write an analysis paper as part of this course. The course is to be taken concurrently with a corresponding Aural Skills course that is taught by the same instructor. Prerequisite: Successful completion of MUS 1112. (Spring, summer)

1222 Aural Skills II 2
Students continue studying diatonic harmony through melodic and harmonic dictation, and through sight singing examples. Rhythmic dictation includes simple and compound meter. The course is to be taken concurrently with a corresponding Theory course that is taught by the same instructor. Prerequisite: Successful completion of MUS 1122. (Spring, summer)

2112 Theory III 2
Students learn chromatic harmony (borrowed chords, augmented sixths, Neapolitan sixths, etc.) through voice leading and analysis examples, as well as both small and large formal structures. Students will also demonstrate competence of chromatic harmonic patterns on the keyboard. This course contains a significant writing component. The course is to be taken concurrently with a corresponding Aural Skills course that is taught by the same instructor. Prerequisite: Successful completion of MUS 1212. (Fall)

2122 Aural Skills III 2
Students study diatonic and chromatic harmony (borrowed chords, secondary functions) through melodic and harmonic dictation and through sight singing examples. Rhythmic dictation includes syncopation in both simple and compound meter. The course is to be taken concurrently with a corresponding Theory course that is taught by the same instructor. Prerequisite: Successful completion of MUS 1222. (Fall)

2212 Theory IV 2
Students learn harmony of the late nineteenth century and twentieth century, as well as score reading and transposition through voice leading and analysis examples. Students will also demonstrate competence of chromatic modulation patterns on the keyboard. All students are required to write an analysis paper as part of this course. The course is to be taken concurrently with a corresponding Aural Skills course that is taught by the same instructor. Prerequisite: Successful completion of MUS 2112. (Spring)

2222 Aural Skills IV 2
Students study chromatic harmony through specific chords and modulations, as well as modal melodies and harmonies through melodic and harmonic dictation and through sight singing examples. Rhythmic dictation includes syncopation and asymmetrical meters. The course is to be taken concurrently with a corresponding Theory course that is taught by the same instructor. Prerequisite: Successful completion of MUS 2122. (Spring)

The course introduces the nursing process and focuses on the role of the professional nurse in assessing the health status of clients, and related to the practice of nursing. Students are introduced to the concepts of nursing, care, client health, and environment and are provided with opportunities to use the nursing process, develop effective communication techniques, and practice psychomotor skills. Four hours of class and six hours of lab or clinical per week, or the equivalent. Pre-requisites: CHEM 1025; BIOL 2003, 2041, 2103, 2141, 2314.

This course focuses on the role of the professional nurse in the delivery of nursing care to client experiencing selected alterations in health. Three hours of class and six hours of lab or clinical per week, or the equivalent. Pre-requisites: NURS 2403, NURS 3006.

This course introduces basic principles of pharmacology and pharmacotherapeutics. A review of the major drug groups includes emphasis on nursing care. Three hours of class per week or the equivalent. Prerequisites: CHEM 1025; BIOL 2003, 2041, 2103, 2141, 2314.

This theory and laboratory course focuses on the role of the professional nurse in the delivery of nursing care to adult clients experiencing selected alterations in mental health. Four hours of class and six hours of lab or clinical per week, or the equivalent. Pre-requisites: NURS 2403, NURS 3006.

Registered Nurses only. Four hours of class per week and three hours of practicum per week, or the equivalent.

4704 Critical Care Nursing
This course focuses on the role of the professional nurse in the delivery of nursing care to clients requiring complex assessments and high intensity nursing care. Three hours of class and three hours of lab or clinical per week, or the equivalent. Prerequisite: NURS 3706.

4805 RN-to-BSN Nursing Leadership
This capstone theory and practicum course focuses on synthesis of all aspects of the professional nurse's role related to managing, coordinating, collaborating, and delegating nursing care of clients. Open to Registered Nurses only. Four hours of class per week and three hours of practicum per week, or the equivalent.

4904 Child Health Nursing
This course focuses on the role of the professional nurse in the delivery of nursing care to the child and family. Three hours of class and three hours of lab or clinical per week, or the equivalent. Pre- or corequisite: NURS 3306.

4906 Nursing Leadership
This capstone course focuses on synthesis of aspects of the professional nurse's role related to managing, coordinating, collaborating, and delegating nursing care of clients. Four hours of class and six hours of lab or clinical per week, or the equivalent. To be taken in final semester. Prerequisite: NURS 4503.

4991-3 Independent Study in Nursing
Variable course content designed to meet specific student needs. Requires permission of instructor.

Philosophy (PHIL)

1013 Arts and Human Values
An introduction to a variety of art forms, including cinema, drama, music and music theatre, and graphic arts. This course has both aesthetic and humanistic orientations: it examines the nature, form, and intrinsic value of works of art and what they express concerning human values. Practicing artists present their art forms where possible. Students observe performances and exhibits on the Oklahoma City University campus and in the Oklahoma City area.

2004H* Classics of Western Culture I
See Honors 2004H. (Fall, even)

2013 Aesthetics: Philosophy of the Fine Arts
Examination of the many critical questions that surround the serious study of art as an essential human activity. Principally, these questions are of two sorts: questions about the experience of art and the value judgments we make about these experiences and the objects that evoke them and questions about the "object" of aesthetic experience. The dominant question that unites the course is, "What is art, and why is it important for human life?" This course satisfies the values and culture requirement in the general education curriculum. (TBA)

2114H* Classics of Western Culture II
See Honors 2114H. (Fall, even)

2163* Moral Issues in Contemporary Culture
Reflection on and analysis of moral issues that arise in a particular area of contemporary culture (e.g., medicine, politics, law, ecology, mass media, etc.). The course may be repeated with a different content. This course satisfies the values and culture requirement of the general education curriculum. Cross-listed REL 2163. (Fall, spring)

2203* Business Ethics
This course satisfies the values and culture requirement of the general education curriculum. Cross-listed MGMT 2223. (Fall, spring)

2213* Moral and Social Philosophy
Consideration of the nature and scope of ethical reflection as an inherently social phenomenon. Through an analysis of several classical and contemporary ethical theories, the course deals with such issues as the nature of value, the basis of normative value judgments and ethical prescriptions, and the implications these reflections on value and conduct have for our conceptions of the truly human community. This course satisfies the values and culture requirement of the general education curriculum. Cross-listed REL 2213. (Fall)

2413* Philosophy of Religion
Analysis and evaluation of the classical arguments for the existence of God, the problem of evil and the traditional answers to this problem. The course explores the relation between theological reflection and the concept of a worldview and focuses on a comparison between the prescientific worldview and the modern worldview and its impact on contemporary theology. This course satisfies the values and culture requirement of the general education curriculum. Cross-listed REL 2413. (Spring, even)

2513* Ethics of Communication
Systematic study of moral issues as they effect personal communication with special attention given to the ethics of the mass media. Cross-listed PHRH 2513. (Spring, odd)

2563 Problems of Philosophy
Systematic analysis of a particular philosophical problem or area of philosophy (e.g., philosophy of history, philosophy of science, existentialism, philosophy of technology, etc.). This course may be repeated with a different content. (TBA)

2613* Political Philosophy
Analysis of the relation between politics and ethics, involving a systematic study of classical political theories. Cross-listed POLS 2613. (Spring, odd)

2703* Introduction to Christian Ethics
See REL 2703. (Fall, odd)

2713 Critical Thinking
This course introduces students to the standard methods of informal reasoning as applied to the creation of written arguments. Methods of demonstration, criticism, and defense are examined, along with rhetorical strategies for creating a persuasive case. Informal fallacies are covered, as are questions of truth, validity, and consistency. (Spring)

2763 Philosophical Issues in Contemporary Culture
Analysis of the way metaphysical, epistemological, and other traditional philosophical issues and problems appear in the context of some facet or facets of modern culture, e.g. advertising, marketing, mass media, etc. (TBA)

3114 History of Philosophy I
Systematic study of the major figures in the history of ancient and medieval philosophy (e.g., Plato, Aristotle, St. Augustine, St. Thomas Aquinas, Duns Scotus, Ockham, etc.) Prerequisite: three hours of philosophy or permission of the instructor. (Every third semester)

3214 History of Philosophy II
Systematic study of the major figures in the history of modern philosophy from Descartes to Kant. Prerequisite: three hours of philosophy or permission of the instructor. (Every third semester)

3314 History of Philosophy III
Systematic study of major figures and movements in contemporary philosophy (e.g., Hegel, Marx, Kierkegaard, Nietzsche, Husserl, Sartre, Heidegger, James, Dewey, Wittgenstein, Whitehead). Prerequisite: three hours of philosophy or permission of the instructor. (Every third semester)

3563 Topics in Philosophy
Systematic treatment of a particular philosophical problem or area of philosophy at an advanced level (e.g., philosophy of psychology, advanced logic, semiotics, hermeneutics, structuralism, deconstruction, cognitive science, philosophy of art, philosophy of education, etc.). The course may be repeated with a different content. Prerequisite: three hours of philosophy or permission of the instructor. (TBA)

3613* Problems and Issues in Christian Ethics
See REL 3613. (Spring, even)

3713 Symbolic Logic
Systematic study of symbolic logic beginning with truth-functional analysis and proceeding through the two most prevalent formal languages, sentential and predicate calculus. Direct, indirect, and conditional methods of derivation are covered, as are techniques for converting natural language into logical symbols. Mathematical induction is covered if time permits. (TBA)

3763 Topics in Ethics
Examination in depth of a special area, individual, problem, or issue in the area of ethics. This course may be repeated with a different content. Prerequisite: three hours of philosophy or religion. (TBA)

4003* Rhetoric and Reality
See PHRH 4003. (TBA)

4163* Seminar in Philosophy and Theology
See REL 4163. (TBA)

4313* Contemporary Political Theory
See POLS 4313. (Spring, even)

4451-3 Directed Readings
1–3
Systematic analysis of a particular philosophical problem through directed readings and tutorials. Topics and readings are decided upon through mutual agreement between the student and his or her faculty advisor in the philosophy department. (TBA)

4563 Advanced Topics in Philosophy
Systematic treatment of a particular philosophical problem or area of philosophy at an advanced level (e.g., philosophy of psychology, advanced logic, semiotics, hermeneutics, structuralism, deconstruction, cognitive science, philosophy of art, philosophy of education, etc.). The course may be repeated with a different content. Prerequisite: three hours of philosophy or permission of the instructor. (TBA)

4893 Senior Thesis
Individual research for senior majors in connection with the preparation of the senior thesis. The course is conducted by arrangement with the Department of Philosophy. (TBA)

4991-6 Independent Study
1–6

Philosophy and Rhetoric (PHRH)

1001 Intercollegiate Forensics
This course serves to provide a designated organizational meeting and practice time for the competitive speech and debate team. This course may be taken for credit up to three times in different semesters, and if taken three times will satisfy the Public Speaking requirement of the general education curriculum. Enrollment by permission of the director of forensics. (Fall, spring)

1103 Public Speaking
This class focuses on human communication theory with an emphasis on public speaking. Through trial and error, students learn to organize and deliver effective speeches for a variety of purposes. (Fall, spring)

1103I Public Speaking for International Students
This class focuses on human communication theory with an emphasis on public speaking. It is designed for international students only. (Fall, spring)

3041  Advanced Physics Laboratory  1
Advanced experiments in classical and modern physics. Three hours laboratory each week. Prerequisites: PHYS 2204 and 2241. (TBA)

3103  Analytical Mechanics  3
Kinematics and dynamics of a particle, momentum, energy, conservative forces, statics and dynamics of rigid bodies, introduction to vibration theory. Prerequisite: PHYS 2204. (TBA)

3203  Thermodynamics  3
Laws of thermodynamics, temperature, entropy, thermodynamic potentials, heat transfer, reversible and irreversible processes, cyclic processes, thermodynamic properties of materials, change of phase, radiation laws. Prerequisite: PHYS 2204. (TBA)

3303  Electricity and Magnetism  3
Laws of Coulomb, Gauss, Faraday and Ampere, Maxwell's equations, electric fields and electric potential, dielectrics and conductors, direct and alternating currents, magnetic fields and magnetic potential, magnetic materials, Lorentz force. Prerequisite: PHYS 2204. (TBA)

3403  Optics  3
Geometrical treatment of lenses and mirrors, aberrations, optical instruments, analytical treatment of physical optical phenomena of reflection, refraction, interference, diffraction, polarization, scattering, introduction to magneto-optics, electro-optics, and quantum optics. Prerequisite: PHYS 2204. (TBA)

3503  Modern Physics  3
Existence of the electron, determination of fundamental constants, atomic nature of matter, particle beams in electric and magnetic fields, photoelectric effect, x-rays, Compton effect, Bohr-Sommerfeld theory, deBroglie's hypothesis, Schroedinger equation, and introduction to special relativity. Prerequisite: PHYS 2204. (TBA)

3603  Electric Fields and Circuits  3
Advanced treatment of DC and AC circuits, including Thevenon's theorem, Norton's theorem, complex representation of AC phenomena, matrix description of circuits and applications. Prerequisite: PHYS 2204. (TBA)

3703  Solid State Physics  3
Nature and property of materials, crystal structures, x-ray diffraction, lattice vibrations, thermal properties of solids, free-electron model, band theory of solids, Brillouin zones, semiconductor crystals, and superconductivity. Prerequisite: PHYS 3503. (TBA)

3804*  Engineering Math I  3
See MATH 3804. (TBA)

4003  Classical Mechanics  3
Lagrangian and Hamiltonian formulation of the mechanics of particles, field concepts, vibrational structures, and accelerated reference systems. Prerequisite: PHYS 3103. (TBA)

4103  Fluid Mechanics  3
An introduction to fluid statics and dynamics, including properties of fluids, continuity equation, hydraulics, equations of motion, Bernoulli's equation, types of flow, flow in pipes and over submerged bodies, boundary layers. Prerequisite: PHYS 2104, MATH 2104. (TBA)

4203  Statistical Mechanics  3
Introduction to statistical methods, representative physical ensembles, statistical formulation of laws of thermodynamics, simple applications, quantum statistics of ideal gases, application of blackbody radiation, systems of interacting particles, application to crystalline solids, and other areas. Prerequisite: PHYS 3203. (TBA)

4303  Relativity  3
Special relativity, applications to various areas of physics, introduction to general relativity. Prerequisite: PHYS 3103. (TBA)

4403  Electromagnetic Theory  3
Maxwell's equations, potentials, wave equation, electromagnetic radiation, forces, energy relations, and relativistic formulation of Maxwell's equation. Prerequisite: PHYS 3303. (TBA)

4503  Quantum Mechanics  3
Schroedinger formulation, Heisenberg formulation, potential well problems, harmonic oscillator, hydrogen atom, perturbation theory, emission and absorption probabilities. Prerequisite: PHYS 3503. (TBA)

4603  Atomic and Nuclear Physics  3
Atomic models, exclusion principles, periodic table, magnetic and optical properties of atoms, optical spectra, radioactivity, nuclear structure and models, nuclear forces, nuclear reactions, fission, fusion, and neutron physics. Prerequisite: PHYS 3503. (TBA)

4691-3  Introduction to Physical Research  1–3
Studies of research techniques, studies in technical journals, studies in treatment of experimental data and pursuit of research in preparation for graduate work. Prerequisite: 12 hours of physics beyond PHYS 2204. (TBA)

4803*  Engineering Math II  3
See MATH 4803. (TBA)

4991-3  Independent Study  1–3

Provisions of this catalog are subject to change without notice and do not constitute an irrevocable contract between any student and the university. Oklahoma City University reserves the right to modify or change policies, courses, and program requirements described herein.

Every student is responsible for reading and understanding the academic requirements for the degree program as outlined in this catalog and as may be changed from time to time. Academic advisors are available for counseling and advising to assist students in this process; however, the final responsibility remains with the student to meet any and all academic requirements.

Oklahoma City University pledges to recruit, select and promote diversity by providing equality of opportunity in higher education for all persons, including faculty and employees with respect to hiring, continuation, promotion and tenure, applicants for admission, enrolled students, and graduates, without discrimination or segregation on the grounds of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, handicap or disability, sexual orientation, or veteran status.

The university chief human resources officer, whose office is located in room 108 of the Clara E. Jones Administration Building, telephone (405) 208-5075, coordinates the university’s compliance with Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act and amendments, and the Age Discrimination in Employment Act.

Oklahoma City University complies with the Student Right to Know and Equity in Athletics Disclosure Acts. This report is compiled and made available by October 15 each year. Requests for this report can be made to the athletics director.

In accordance with requirements by The Higher Learning Commission, the university will provide information to the accrediting agency regarding written complaints from a student against any faculty, staff, or institutional process or procedure. The information will contain the date the complaint was formally submitted to a university official; the nature of the complaint (e.g., dispute about a grade, allegation of sexual harassment, etc.); steps taken to resolve the complaint; the university’s final decision regarding the complaint, including referral to outside agencies; and any other external actions initiated by the student to resolve the complaint, if known to the university (e.g., lawsuit, EEOC investigation, etc.).

Any information provided to The Higher Learning Commission will be presented in such a way as to shield the identities of faculty, staff, or students involved with the complaint.
