Spirituality Committee Presents
A Spirituality and Health Lecture On Yoga
November 10th at 4:00 PM
St. Margaret’s Hall

The spirituality committee will sponsor a program on yoga as a continuation of its presentations on spirituality and health.
Yoga enhances physical fitness and leads to a calming of the mind. It improves memory function and processing speed and has been found to improve quality of life and reduce stress which is a leading cause of illness.
Because of the multiple health benefits of yoga the World Health Organization declared June 21st as International Yoga Day.
Hope you can fit this into your busy schedules.
Jack Harrigan M.D.
I read the New York Times everyday. I never miss it. I also read the Wall Street Journal, and other newspapers online...... Every day...... Some people think I am a masochist. I guess I’m a “newsaholic”. Eventually they will find a cure or a pill that I can take.

I have discovered over the years that I am not the only Catholic who reads the New York Times. I have some good company. Archbishop Dolan of New York apparently reads it too. I remember reading some time back that Archbishop Dolan has had it with the Catholic-bashing New York Times.

This article pointed out that Arch bishop Dolan is known for his easy going and even -tempered demeanor – but he took to his blog to blast the paper for “gushing” reviews it gave to an art exhibit that criticized the late Cardinal O’Connor, and a play that makes fun of nuns.

“The common, casual way the New York Times offends Catholic sensitivity is something that they would never think of doing – rightly so- to Jewish, Black, Islamic or gay communities”, he wrote.

At that time the Times had heartily recommended an art exhibit in the West Village by the AIDS activist group ACT UP that features a blasphemous picture of the late Cardinal O’Connor, and a play in the East Village called “The Divine Sister” that was described as “fresh and funny” by the Times. Archbishop Dolan accused the paper of “promoting cheap laughs at the expense of a bigoted view of the most noble women around” …“These are nuns, mocked and held up for snickering,” the Archbishop wrote.

The Times responded that it covers cultural events even if some may disagree with the content. But Archbishop Dolan wasn’t having any of it. “If they are going to say, ‘Oh, No, we do that all the time’, I’m going to say, show me when you do it to the Islamic community, to the African American community, to the gay community. They don’t do it because they know it is out of bounds.”

I was reminded of this last week when those WIKI Leaks emails from one of the Presidential campaigns was published, denigrating and deploring the position of the Catholic Church and observant Catholics on an array of positions.

It was comforting to recall that the Archbishop of New York sent a message that he is not prepared to sit around quietly when a powerful institution like the New York Times feels that it can disrespect the Catholic Church in a way that it would not dare to do to other prominent groups.

Whether perceived or real, the alleged anti-Catholic bias of the New York Times is one reason why some of my friends criticize me for reading that paper every day. Some of the people who criticize me for reading the New York Times admit that they do not read any newspaper. Some of them form their opinions and their views largely from listening to, and watching the cable news channels. I guess they would contend that it is preferable to surround and immerse yourself with people and views that are similar to your own rather than to open your self to the dissonance of points of view that are not consistent with your own world view.

That is why, I am glad to note that Archbishop Dolan reads the New York Times. I guess that he, like myself, believes that it is important to keep your friends close, but it is even more important to keep your enemies close – not that I am suggesting that that newspaper is our enemy, but just that it often presents a point of view and a way of looking at things that is diametrically different from the way we see things.

Mass Intentions 2017

Mass Intention Book Opens
Friday, November 4th at 1:30 PM
in the CONVENT Offices

We will book Masses for next year on a first-come, first-served basis. We regret that we must limit the number of Masses booked to 5 per family at this time. No Mass intentions can be accepted by phone. Please consider that there are more than 3,900 registered families in our parish and the parish has about 1200 Masses each year. The usual offering for each announced Mass is $10. We are not able to take requests over the telephone. Forms are available in the churches and in the rectory office.

Please be patient. Last year there were hundreds of requests during the first week.

Please keep in mind that we also can accept any number of UNANNOUNCED Mass intentions, although we cannot tell you when or where the Mass will be said and there will be no announcement in the bulletin for this Mass.

*You can also enroll your deceased loved one in the Memorial Mass Society.

The Mass book will be opened as usual on Monday, November 7th at the RECTORY reception desk.

Thank you for your co-operation and patience.

Urgent! HELP WANTED Urgent!

Are you searching for meaningful volunteer work for the benefit of your parish? Perhaps you have a background in writing and/or public relations and/or marketing. Maybe you are retired? Maybe you have some time to spare that could be used immersing yourself in the exciting life of St. Catharine-St. Margaret Parish and/or St. Catharine School? We have had some very exciting events in our parish and in our school in recent times that deserve to be highlighted in the local press and elsewhere. Sadly, we do not always have someone we can reliably look to represent us and let the world know that we are members of a world class parish and school. Like to give it a shot? Or like to just discuss it? Call Fr Cullen at the rectory (732 449 5765) or email at cullenhf@hotmail.com

Next Sunday, Oct. 30 at 4:00PM you are all invited to take part in a very meaningful and different type of dedication ceremony here at St. Catharine Church. It is in honor of the Unborn. Unborn, as in those unfortunate souls whose lives have been intentionally terminated before birth. Intentionally aborted while still in the womb.

The dedication ceremony will include a blessing of the beautiful new granite memorial stone recently installed (see photo). Carved into the stone are the Lord’s words from Jeremiah: "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you. Before you were born, I consecrated you." There will also be prayers confirming that, as God’s creation, these human beings, small as they may be, are entitled to life. And that we will continue to fight the evil act that snuffs out the lives of these defenseless before they take their first breath or ever see the light of day.

The ceremony will be simple and solemn, and include singing by some of the students from St. Catharine School. It will take place outside, across from St. Catharine Church at the far end of the Lady of Fatima shrine area. Dear people, please mark your calendars: Sunday, Oct. 30 at 4:00PM. And join us for this special ceremony. You’ll be glad you did.

The monument project and dedication ceremony has been coordinated by the Mary’s Child Pro-Life Ministry represented by these six (6) parishes: St. Catharine-St. Margaret, St. Denis, St. Elizabeth, Holy Innocents, St Marks and St. Rose.

BAPTISMS: Baptism Preparation Class must be taken before the Baptism. We urge parents to take the class before the baby’s birth. Please call 732-449-5765, ext 102 to arrange for Baptisms and the Preparation Class.

MARRIAGES: All couples planning marriage should notify the parish at least one year in advance. The Church sees marriage in one’s own parish as the most proper arrangement, therefore, people who reside in St. Catharine - St. Margaret Parish have a right to be married here. Others should receive the sacrament in their own parishes. The bride, the groom, or their parents must be registered and living in this Parish for at least one year. Pre-Cana or Engaged Encounter Weekend is required as is participation in FOCCUS; a self-diagnostic inventory designed to help couples learn more about themselves and their unique relationship. Please call 732-449-5765, ext. 134.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, the Catholic community of St. Catharine - St. Margaret, gather in Christ’s name to nurture spiritual growth through the various stages and challenges of life.

We are committed through liturgy, sacraments and parish activities - to proclaim the message of the Gospel, to provide a quality Catholic education for children and adults, to continue to build community and to serve those in need.

Rich in the traditions established in this community during the last century, we challenge ourselves to live our faith in loving service to the community’s residents and its many summer visitors.

We affirm our concern for all members of the Mystical Body of Christ everywhere and particularly those who require assistance.

And always, we seek to know and love God and to love our neighbor as Jesus taught us.”
Scholarship Announcement

The Laura Lovering Herbermann Scholarship Fund proudly announces that $3,500 in scholarships will be posted to the CBA website November 1, 2016 for students at CBA who are members of St. Catharine-St. Margaret Parish. First place is awarded $2500; 2nd place $500 awards. There is a slight tilt towards Boy Scouts and Alter Servers. This is a religious award and not an academic or athletic award. It is estimated that there are 100 students in the parish who are eligible.

The October Count

On the weekends of 10/15-16 and 10/22-23, the Diocese asks us to count the number of people who attend Mass in our churches. This count becomes part of the Diocesan and National statistics on participation in religious services across the country. Be patient and understanding of our parish ushers this weekend and next if you see them eying you curiously. They are just making sure that you are counted among the elect!

Daughters of St. Catharine and St. Margaret

Our next meeting is Thursday, October 27, 2016 @ 7:00PM in St. Margaret Hall

Come and learn about churches not only in America but in Europe, Ethiopia, Armenia, and Georgia (Turkey). For questions or more information, please call Gretchen Stevens at 732-213-7475 or email gretchenstevens22@gmail.com.
