Dr. Withington to observe 104 years

Dr. Lawrence F. Withington, a longtime member of St. Paul’s Church, will observe his 104th birthday Monday, March 31.

Members of our St. Paul’s/Trinity family are invited to participate in a surprise shower of cards and notes, which should be mailed to 222 Thompson Blvd., Watertown, N.Y. 13601.

Dr. Withington retired in 1986, after 50 years of practicing general medicine. He was born March 31, 1910, a son of DeWitt W. and Martha Cooley Withington. He graduated in 1927 from Adams High School; in 1932 from Union College, Schenectady, and in 1936 from Columbia University’s College of Physicians and Surgeons. He did both his internship and residency at Brooklyn hospitals.

He started private practice in Copenhagen in 1939 and joined a medical practice in Watertown before serving in the Navy during World War II.

Dr. Withington has three children, Dr. Richard L. Withington, Nancy Del Borgo and Barbara Meglis. His wife of 68 years, Alice Giblin Withington, died in 2007.

Throughout his life, Dr. Withington has been an active outdoorsman and avid sports fan.
