Kara Klein in Concert

Immediately following Friday night’s program, Kara performs her original music which has won numerous United Catholic Music and Video Awards.
Religious sisters and volunteers will assist with the Children’s Program. For more information, visit www.catholicfamilyconference.org.

Adult Program

The Adult Program takes place in two concurrent sessions, one in Convention Hall and the other in Baptist Hall. Most talks will be recorded and all talks will be available at the Conference, either at the St. Joseph Communications booth or the individual speaker’s booth.

Young Adult Program

For more information, visit www.catholicfamilyconference.org. Please call 316-618-0787 or print a copy of the Special Needs Form from the Conference website – www.catholicfamilyconference.org. Children are divided into groups by age and grade and will participate in age-appropriate catechesis. Each room is staffed by religious sisters, teachers and other volunteers. They will be sharing their faith with songs, games and activities. Our theme this year is the Kingdom of God. Older children will participate in Eucharistic Adoration and Confession. Safety concerns prevent Conference personnel from changing diapers or administering medication. For safety reasons, all children must have wrist bands that match parents, before being released to them. Please call name and age of children when registering. Wrist bands are on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Middle School Program (Grades 6-8)

Do you know who Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen is? Amistad will share stories to put you in his footwear, along with Mary W. Potter, Br. Leopold, Sr. Mary Clare, and Fr. Josef. Put on your Armor of Faith and see if you can play the challenges that Father Sheen faces! Fr. Mary W. Potter and Fr. Josef will lead you through the battles that they waged together in the mornings and separate on the afternoon for their own programs.

Children’s Program (3-4 years old, K-1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th & 5th grades)
