Unit Descriptor

This unit covers provision of assistance to recipients of government benefits and entitlements with managing their own service offers. This assistance is typically provided by customer service officers. The unit includes providing personalised service, maintaining detailed service plans, managing mutual obligations and breaching, and responding to changes in need. In practice, assisting with self-management of government service offers may overlap with other generalist and specialist work activities, such as working ethically, complying with legislation, applying government processes, gathering and analysing information etc.

No licensing, legislative, regulatory or certification requirements apply to this unit at the time of publication.

Evidence Guide

The Evidence Guide specifies the evidence required to demonstrate achievement in the unit of competency as a whole. It must be read in conjunction with the Unit descriptor, Performance Criteria, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for the Public Sector Training Package.

Units to be assessed together

- Pre-requisite units that must be achieved prior to this unit: Nil
- Co-requisite units that must be assessed with this unit: Nil
- Co-assessed units that may be assessed with this unit to increase the efficiency and realism of the assessment process include, but are not limited to:
  - PSPETHC401A Uphold and support the values and principles of public service
  - PSPGOV406B Gather and analyse information
  - PSPGOV422A Apply government processes
  - PSPGSD401A Identify and select government service delivery options
  - PSPGSD403A Conduct government service delivery interviews
  - PSPLEGN401A Encourage compliance with legislation in the public sector

Overview of evidence requirements

In addition to integrated demonstration of the elements and their related performance criteria, look for evidence that confirms:

- the knowledge requirements of this unit
- the skill requirements of this unit
- application of the Employability Skills as they relate to this unit (see Employability Summaries in Qualifications Framework)
- assistance with self-management of government service offers in a range of (3 or more) contexts (or occasions, over time)

Resources required to carry out assessment

These resources include:

- legislation, policy, procedures and protocols relating to government service delivery
- case studies and workplace scenarios to capture the range of circumstances and cases likely to be encountered

Where and how to assess evidence

Valid assessment of this unit requires:

- a workplace environment or one that closely resembles normal work practice and replicates the range of conditions likely to be encountered when assisting with self management of government service delivery, including coping with difficulties, irregularities and breakdowns in routine
- assistance with self-management of government service offers in a range of (3 or more) contexts (or occasions, over time)

Assessment methods should reflect workplace demands, such as literacy, and the needs of particular groups, such as:
- people with disabilities
- people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- women
- young people
- older people
- people in rural and remote locations

Assessment methods suitable for valid and reliable assessment of this competency may include, but are not limited to, a combination of 2 or more of:
- case studies
- portfolios
- questioning
- scenarios
- simulation or role plays
- authenticated evidence from the workplace and/or training courses

For consistency of assessment

Evidence must be gathered over time in a range of contexts to ensure the person can achieve the unit outcome and apply the competency in different situations or environments
Range Statement

The Range Statement provides information about the context in which the unit of competency is carried out. The variables cater for differences between States and Territories and the Commonwealth, and between organisations and workplaces.
