INTERNATIONAL JUDGES:

Annella Cooper, Orkdomain Samoyeds since 1968

Starting in 1968 Annella Cooper was involved in breeding and exhibiting dogs in Alaska under the kennel name of Orkdomain. Samoyeds were her primary breed and she has bred more than 100 Samoyed champions, numerous Specialty winning dogs and nine (9) Best in Show winners. On a national basis, she has tied for the #2 Samoyed top breeder award, won the Samoyed Top Winning Dog Award, in addition to one of her Samoyeds being tied for the Top Brood Bitch Award. She has also been extensively involved with Siberian Huskies over a period of twelve years. Other breeds she has been involved with are Britain’s, Labrador Retrievers, Irish Setters, Soft-Coated Wheaten Terriers and Bulldogs. Not only has Annella been active exhibiting in the confirmation ring, but she has earned many obedience titles and has worked her sled dogs in harness and several of the Brittanys have hunting titles. Annella started AKC judging in 1999. She has judged the Samoyed Club of America’s National Specialty three times. She has judged the Canadian Samoyed national and national specialties for all the Arctic breeds in Spain twice, in 2004 and 2013. In addition to Canada and Spain, other international judging assignments have included South Africa, Poland, Russia, Australia, the Philippines, twice to South Korea and five assignments in China. She will be judging a Siberian specialty in Italy in Dec of 2014. Since she started judging, Annella no longer exhibits, but has a Samoyed at home. She enjoys mentoring those new to the sport of pure-bred dogs and also enjoys the challenge of her judging opportunities. She currently judges the AKC Working Group, the Herding Group, and several Non Sporting Breeds together with Junior Showmanship, the Miscellaneous breeds and Best in Show.

Bill, International All-Breed Dog Judge, Breed Specialist; Bullmastiffs; Belgian Shepherds; Dachshunds; Border Terriers; Yorkshire Terriers

Originally from England, Bill has spent the previous forty years in British Columbia, Canada. Bill bred Bullmastiffs under the Shayla prefix for thirty years, going through the alphabet in champions and again with litter names. He bred the first Bullmastiff to ever win the American and Canadian Bullmastiff National Specialty, plus he has written two books on the breed. He was proud to judge 170 Bullmastiffs at the Welsh show in 1996. Bill is licensed in both Canada and Australia to judge Terriers, Gundogs, Hounds, Utility and Working breeds, plus Best in Show in many countries who allow judges with more than four groups to judge Best in Show. He was President of the Bullmastiff Fanciers of Canada twice, and has acted as lecturer on the Bullmastiff breed in many countries - having judged in England (twice). His other breeds have included Belgian Laekens under Springwood prefix, Border Terriers under the Brookhill prefix, and with his wife, Standard Wirehaired Dachshunds under the Springwood prefix. Over the years, Bill’s aspiration has been to have the privilege of judging the Bullmastiffs at Crufts. Bill is kept busy judging all around Australia and New Zealand and is reputed to be brutally honest and knowledgeable in his judging.
