“Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise.”

(Luke 23:40)

We hear these words today that Jesus says to the one whom we call “the good thief”, words which are written only in the Gospel of Saint Luke, the Gospel on which we focus during this Liturgical Year of Cycle C. We should let our imagination run a bit. What kind of life had this man led? For what crime was he being crucified? How, certainly in the days and weeks before his execution, he must have been filled with fear and dread and despair.

How marvelous, that even in this event in which he suffers from the most awful and inhumane punishment, somehow and in some way, God encounters him and bursts into his life that is about to come to this most agonizing end, to give him the incomparable gift of eternal life.

We have now come to the most important days of our entire year, the most solemn week that we call “Holy”. We do that this year in the special “Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy” called by Pope Francis. We maybe take a moment to look back. How faithful have we been to the Lenten call of prayer, fasting and almsgiving? How firm have we been in our Lenten resolutions of self-denial of prayer and penance?

Regardless of how faithful or lacking this time may have been, all of us now have a “new opportunity”, a “new day” to celebrate Lent in a most powerful way. We anticipate celebrating, what the Church calls the “Paschal Triduum”, the days and events of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter Sunday.

We begin this week in pomp and celebration recalling the triumphant entry of Our Lord into Jerusalem. We hear in that first Gospel proclaimed at the beginning of Mass, how the crowd gathered, proclaiming: “Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord.” Yet, we know that in only a few days, that same crowd will cry out, “Crucify Him, Crucify Him.”

Certainly, this symbolizes us sometimes who are so ardently filled with the life of our faith but then, so often, fall into sin. But in the example of the good thief, we see how all of our hope and joy rests not in our efforts but in the reality that Pope Francis calls us to contemplate in a special way during the year, the Infinite Mercy of God.

On a personal note, I want to offer to you my fervent prayers that this week will be one of great grace for all of us. Over these weeks of Lent, so many of you have shown to me such great and heartfelt devotion in so many ways: your great generous response to our Lenten Appeal, your attendance in such great numbers at Stations of the Cross, our Forty Hours Celebration, our glorious celebration of Confirmation just three weeks ago; all have inspired me and helped me feel such great graces during this time. Now, we come to Holy Week. May we continue to reflect upon God’s infinite mercy, may we know that “joy, serenity and peace” which it alone can give, and may we, in all of our suffering see it always as what it is, a union with the suffering of Christ that leads Him and all of us to the glory of His resurrection. God bless you.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

April 3rd, 2016

April 3rd is the Second Sunday of Easter, the end of the special Octave of Easter which begins on Easter Sunday. It is also designated as “Divine Mercy Sunday”.

It is a special day when the Church gathers in prayer to thank God for the greatest expression of His love for us, the infinite forgiveness that He offers to us. That love is represented in the Image that is in our Sanctuary: Our Lord with His hand, raised in forgiving love, and streams of light emanating from His Sacred Heart representing the Blood that He shed for us and the New Life offered to us in our Baptism.

On April 3rd, following the 11:00 am Mass, we will gather in the Church for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and to pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, the special prayer received by Saint Faustina (Helen Kowalska (1905-1938)). We will conclude with Benediction at 1:45 pm. This celebration gives us an opportunity to receive a Plenary Indulgence, an extraordinary outpouring of God’s mercy by which He removes that aspect of our sin that remains even after Sacramental Confession, that effect which the Church terms, “the temporal punishment due to sin”.

A Plenary Indulgence removes all the temporal punishment due to sin that has already been forgiven in the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. To receive this special grace, the faithful must engage in this devotion, with an ardent desire to be more fully conformed to Christ, seeking to free oneself from all attachment due to sin and fulfill three conditions: (1) Sacramental Confession, (2) The reception of the Holy Eucharist, and (3) Prayer for the intention of our Holy Father. These three conditions are to be satisfied within several days preceding or following the prescribed devotion, although it is most fitting that the Holy Eucharist be received on the day of the particular devotion.

Let us thank God for His infinite mercy and forgiving love by coming together on Divine Mercy Sunday after the 11:00 am here in the Church.

> “Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.”

Theology on Tap

Please join other young adults in Lancaster on Wednesday, April 13th, at Annie Bailey’s Irish Pub (second floor), 28 E. King Street, Lancaster, at 7:00 pm for a discussion of Franciscan Spirituality and the Year of Mercy.

Father Steve Fernandes, OFM, Cap., Pastor of St. Joseph’s Parish in York, has been designated a special Missionary of Mercy by Pope Francis. After a professional career, Father felt called to the priesthood as part of the Franciscan religious order. Following a discernment process, including a marriage annulment and serving as a missionary in Papua, New Guinea, Father was ordained in 2011. He is currently a Capuchin Friar, his life story will be of interest in light of the Year of Mercy.

Employment Opportunities

Director of Music
Saint Richard Church, Manheim, is seeking a paid part-time Director of Music. The position is for 10 hours per week. This position requires a mature, professional, responsible, committed individual with excellent communication, organizational and interpersonal skills. Must be a Catholic in good standing. Should be accomplished in one or more of the following areas: organ, piano, voice, or choral direction. This person will maintain a professional relationship with the pastor, members of the choir, parishioners, and members of the Liturgy Committee. In order to motivate volunteers to maintain their commitment to choral singing and cantering in the church, the person needs to be outgoing, enthusiastic and energetic, fostering enjoyment of singing for the Lord while maintaining required discipline.

Contact Father Stephen Weitzel at (717) 665-2465 or send resume to www.weitzelstephen@aol.com.

Part-time Maintenance Position
St. Philip’s Parish has an opening for an experienced lead maintenance person. The ideal candidate will have mechanical, electrical, carpentry, and plumbing knowledge and skills. Must have good interpersonal skills as well as the ability to lift 75 lbs. and climb ladders. This person will work with other personnel and contractors, as well as the pastor and office staff, to oversee the maintenance of exterior property, including mowing, snow removal, tree and landscaping care. Interior duties include floor maintenance, trash removal, bathroom, classroom and meeting room care, as well as coordinating the physical set up of the gym and meeting rooms for Parish activities. This position requires some weekend work.

Send your resume and cover letter to: shavey@hbgdiocese.org or to St. Philip’s Parish Office, 2111 Millersville Pike, Lancaster, PA 17603.

Coordinator of Event Planning
A Woman’s Concern, a non-profit pro-life pregnancy resource center, is seeking a paid part-time Coordinator of Event Planning. The position is for 16 hours per week. Candidate must be passionately pro-life. He/she will possess excellent communication skills, organizational skills and have flexible schedule availability. Computer skills are a must. College degree is not necessary, but preferred. A detailed job description is available at: http://www.catholicjobs.com/job/5294122623.

Interested candidates should email a resume and letter of interest to Cathy Hendrixson, Executive Director, at cathyawc@epix.net. No phone calls please.

Employment Opportunity
Saint Mary’s Parish, Lancaster, has an opening for a Religious Education Coordinator who will organize and implement the curriculum and programs for students in Pre-K through 8th grades; review, evaluate and order religious education materials; coordinate schedule for weekly religious education classes; recruit, train and evaluate catechists, etc.

For requirements and skills for this position, please contact Tina Skubon at tina@stmaryslancaster.org.
