4. SCOPE OF APPLICATION

This policy is applicable to all the employees of the department and prospective job applicants.

5 POLICY STATEMENT

5.1 The Department is committed to utilise recruitment and selection practices that are based on merit, equity, objectivity, fairness and the need to redress the imbalances of the past so as to achieve a Department that is broadly representative.

5.2 The recruitment process should reflect the department’s employment equity values and goals.
5.3 All phases of the recruitment process will support the recruitment of suitably qualified men and women from diverse racial and other backgrounds with a view to giving them an opportunity to serve all the people of the province and ultimately, South Africa, with excellence and responsiveness.

5.4 Considerations of affirmative action will inform the entire recruitment process.

6. RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION PRACTICES

6.1 Need for Recruitment

(a) All internal and external recruitment initiatives shall be co-ordinated and managed exclusively by the Human Resources Manager within the Department, in consultation with the line manager where the vacancy occurs. He or she will work under the guidance and monitoring of the Head of the Department.

(b) The relevant line manager must inform the Human Resources Manager as soon as a vacancy arises in his or her Directorate or when a new position is created.

(c) The line manager must submit written request together with the job description and specifications of the position to be filled to the Human Resource Manager.

(d) A request to fill and advertise a post must specify the following information and be accompanied by:

- Draft advertisement;
- Job description;
- The details of the post including the job title, the component in which the post is located, and the number of the post(s) required;
- Confirmation on the funding status of the vacancy;
- Reasons why the post is vacant and when the post was vacated;
- Where the post is to be advertised (internally or externally or both).

(e) The submission must be approved in writing, by the executing authority or his/her duly authorised delegate.

6.2 Internal / External Recruitment

(a) The information contained in the job description will be used to compile a job advertisement.

(b) Vacancies or newly created positions on salary levels 1-12 must first be advertised internally, depending on the inherent requirements of the post and/or provided there is a reasonable expectation that a pool of internal candidates with potential exists, or else it must be done concurrently, internally and externally, for a period of at least four (4) weeks.

(c) The provisions of 6.2(b) will not be considered where specialist skills, expertise and/or experience are required for the position and such skills or expertise are not present internally.

(d) All applications must be directed to the Human Resources Manager.

(e) In line with Public Service Regulations, 2001 as amended, all Senior Management Services (SMS) posts shall be advertised nationwide externally.
6.3 Media Advertising

(a) The Human Resources Manager, in conjunction with the relevant Line Manager, will agree on the requirements of the position and will compile the advertisement to be submitted to publications that will be accessible to all the relevant population groups, especially persons historically disadvantaged;
(b) The advertisement should not exclude any groups, on the basis set out in the Employment Equity Act, from making application for the position;
(c) Employees that are on maternity leave should be informed of positions advertised in the workplace (excluding the ones advertised externally) by respective Line Managers;
(d) The advertisement should state that the department is committed to the principles contained in its Employment Equity Plan and that preference will be given to candidates who enhance its employment equity status and affirmative action;
(e) Advertisement for posts shall not be for more than a month;
(f) If operational needs change, the department can vary the advertisement provided reasonable notice is given in respect of a revised advertised position and/or any existing applicants are timeously notified;
(g) The advertisement must specifically state that applications will not be acknowledged and should an applicant not receive an invitation to attend an interview within three (3) months from closing date, such applicant is to assume that his or her application was unsuccessful;
(h) In the event that a post is to be re-advertised, the “new” advertisement must clearly state that it is a re-advertisement and that applicants who applied previously are at liberty to re-apply.
(i) The advertisement for all SMS posts must specifically states that “all shortlisted candidates will be subjected to a technical exercise that intends to test relevant technical element of the job. Following the interview, candidates would be recommended to attend a generic managerial competency assessment (in compliance with DPSA Directive)

6.4 Recruitment/Selection Agencies

(a) Advertisements of posts in the newspapers will be done through a recruitment agency contracted by the North West Provincial Government.
(b) Recruitment Agencies may be used in respect of certain job categories.
(c) The department should make the recruitment agency/ies aware of its employment equity policy.

6.5 Head hunting

6.5.1 Headhunting will not be encouraged except in exceptional circumstances.

(a) This individual based method of recruitment can be used to seek and identify suitably qualified candidates for positions where difficulty is experienced in finding suitably qualified candidates. It can only take place after the post(s) have been advertised at least internally and externally without success.
(b) This method shall be used only in conjunction with the normal advertising of vacancies, i.e, an identified suitable candidate shall be requested to apply for the advertised position, where after the normal processes will apply.
(c) Candidates identified must be interviewed by the same panel and against the same criteria used during the initial interviews. A different interview panel may be used, with the approval of the Executing Authority or her/his delegate.

(d) Should the above procedure prove not to be effective in case of recruiting scarce skills professionals affected by Occupational Specific Dispensation (OSD), alternative head hunting approach may be considered subject to approval by the delegated authority.

7. SHORT LISTING AND INTERVIEWS

7.1 Appointing a Selection (Shortlisting/Interview) Panel

(a) The appropriate delegated authority shall appoint a Selection Committee, recommended by the respective line manager where the post is being filled, to consider applications and make recommendations on appointment to posts;

(b) The Panel must be approved by the Executing or delegated Authority prior to shortlisting.

(c) The Selection Committee must consist of a minimum of four (4) members who are departmental employees of a grading equal to or higher than the grading of the post to be filled. The Selection Committee may in certain circumstances include suitable persons from outside the department or public service;

(d) Employment Equity representative must be invited to shortlisting not as a panel member but to observe and guide the panel in terms of the Departmental equity status and EE targets as per the EE plan.

(e) Union members must be invited to interviews to monitor the process but shall not form part of the selection committee;

(f) The composition of the Selection Committee should be balanced in terms of gender, race and to the extent possible, disability;

(g) The Chairperson must be the Head of the Directorate or the Head of Section of the component in which the post is located and must be at least one grading higher than the post to be filled;

(h) Representative from the Human Resource Management (Recruitment unit) must provide secretarial and advisory service during selection process, but shall not form part of the selection committee.

7.2 Shortlisting

(a) The representative from the Human Resource Management (Recruitment Unit) should guide Managers in short listing.

(b) At least six applicants per post, where possible, must be shortlisted.

(c) During shortlisting candidates who do not meet the minimum requirements will be eliminated.

(d) The Selection committee shall make recommendations on the suitability of a candidate after considering only:

- Information based on valid methods, criteria or instruments for selection that are free from any bias or discrimination;
- Training, skills, competence and knowledge necessary to meet the inherent requirements of the post;
- The need of the department for developing human resources;
- The representativeness of the component where the post is located; and
- The department’s affirmative action programme.

(e) In making the selection, preference will be given to suitably qualified persons from Designated Groups, as set out in the Employment Equity Act;

(f) No right accrues to a person merely because he or she may be a candidate for a particular post. A right only becomes established when the formal process has been concluded, the transfer, promotion or appointment has been approved and the person has been informed in writing of his or her successful application or candidature.

(g) No expectation, promises and communication must be created and directed to the candidate at any intermediate phase of the process to fill a post and until the formal written approval of the executing authority (or his delegate) has been given.

(h) The report of shortlisted candidates detailing the process followed must be forwarded to the Executing Authority or his/her delegate for approval.

7.3 Preparing for Interviews

(a) The Department should provide training and guidance to the Selection Committee on:

- interviewing skills;
- the measuring system;
- employment equity and affirmative action; and
- matters relating to diversity, including skills for recognizing different dimensions of merit.

(b) Short-listed applicants must be invited verbally and in writing to attend an interview within seven working days before the date of the interviews and the letter must specify all the relevant information regarding the interviews, such as the date, venue and time.

(c) All administrative arrangements for the interviews must be done simultaneously so as to avoid delays on the date of the interviews. The unit where the advertised position exists, is responsible for logistical arrangements with financial implications inclusive of travelling and overnight accommodation (where applicable) for candidates.

(d) No applicant shall be appointed permanently unless he or she:

i. is a South African Citizen or permanent resident; and

ii. is a fit and proper person.

7.4 Interviewing and recommendation

(a) No telephonic interview will be allowed.

(b) The Selection Committee must meet prior to the commencement of the interview to amongst other things:

i. set the interview questions which must be based on the key performance areas of the job and the key actions associated with them, including competencies and skills, as specified in the advertisement and require applicants to give examples that demonstrate, amongst other things, appropriate competencies, skills, knowledge and training;

ii. compile the model answers for the questions;

iii. decide on a standard point system for scoring each applicant’s reply to each set of questions.

(c) Each member of the Selection Committee should briefly indicate on his or her scoring sheet the reason for each score given regarding an applicant’s response.

(d) The panel must reach consensus on the most suitable candidate(s) for the post(s) based on their performance during the interview.

(e) After discussing the scores of the candidates, the Selection Committee must recommend at least three appointable candidates.
(f) Where no candidate is found to be suitable the Selection Committee may recommend that the post be re-advertised.

(g) The Selection Committee must provide written reasons as to why the recommended candidates were found to be suitable for the post and why other applicants were found to be unsuitable. These must be recorded in the minutes of the Selection Committee.

(h) The interview report with a recommendation on the suitability of the candidate(s) must be forwarded to the Executing Authority or his/her delegate for approval.

(i) When an Executing Authority or his/her delegate does not approve the recommendation of the Selection Committee he/she shall record the reasons for his/her decision in writing.

(j) The department may exercise its discretion not to make any appointment at all.

(k) Candidate who has been shortlisted and invited for the interviews and subsequently withdraws his/her candidature shall do so in writing.

(l) Should a prospective appointee declines the employment offer, the next suitable appointable candidate may be considered subject to the approval by the delegated Authority.

8. BACKGROUND AND REFERENCE CHECKS (RECRUITMENT, TRANSFER AND PROMOTIONAL TRANSFER)

8.1 Prior to any offer of employment being made, whether written or verbal, Personal Suitability Check (pre – employment security screening) including criminal record, credit and citizenship checks as well as reference checks in respect of previous work history and educational qualifications (through SAQA ) must be carried out on the appointable candidates.

8.2 Reference checks should not be conducted in a manner that unfairly discriminates. The same type of reference checks must be conducted on all appointable candidates.
