The following tracts of land, to satisfy the Taxes due for the Years 1798, 1799, 1800, and 1801:

100 acres given in by David Collins, sen., lying on the Waters of New River, for 1798.

1804: Grainger County, TN Tax List; David Collins
1806: Grainger County, TN Tax List; David Collins
1807: July 21st, Knox County, KY; David Collins, Sr. (1750)
1810: Knox County, KY Census; David Collins, Sr.(1750), Knox County, KY [Barbourville]
1820: Greasy Creek, KY (Knox County) Census

1823: David Collins 1750 dies around 1823 in Knox County, KY and I have found no other record to indicate that Thompsey left Kentucky after David death or that David went to any other location prior to his death. The 1804 and 1806 Grainger County, TN tax lists do give me some pause as we do not know for certain which David Collins these are referring to as it could either be David 1750 or his son David 1774.

This timeline is a work in progress.

NOTES From Pris Roberts:

There are several daughters too, I think. These Children of David 1750 come from an article written by Marvin Oaks who is putting together a book on the Collins and who hosts the family reunions. It was printed in the West Plains Daily Quill June 19, 1997.

He is found in the 1790 Wilkes Co., N.C. census. By 1800 David and his family disappear but in 1804 they are located in Granger Co., TN, going by the Tax Records they were there for less then seven years because Aaron1773's oldest son David 1799 was born in N.C. And his next two oldest sons were born in TN. By 1807 David Collins 1750 and his family were in Knox Co., KY. Most of the Collins remained there until 1822 when movement began northward to Morgan Co., IN. David's brother William probably enticed David 1750 and his family to move to In. The Collins seemed to prefer hilly country in every area they settled in. A book "The Pioneers of Morgan County". History has several pages on the Collins, joking that there were so many David's that they had to give them all a nickname such as "Cacklin Dave", not sure which one this referred to.
By 1833 the Collins family began there move to Taney Co., MO. (which is now eastern Ozark), Howell and Douglas County's.

David is believed to have had more then one brother whose names were William, Solomon and probably Aaron. His brother William was a Revolutionary War Veteran and probably received a Land Bounty because of his Veteran Status for land in Indiana Territory.

All this came from the article written for by Marvin Oaks for The West plains Daily Quill June19, 1997, he is also putting together a book on The Collins Family and has Family reunions to work on our genealogy together.

Probably had these brothers at least according to Marvin Oaks but they weren't proven yet.

Biography of David: Lived in Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, and Indiana, there are two possibles for Virginia counties need to verify.

Possible migration to Tennessee in 1804, 1807 Knox CO., Kentucky? Need to Verify.

He was in the Censi for 1790 in Wilkes Co., N.C. as per Cherril L. Buster.

Marriage: Information comes from Dorothy Wren and Cherril L. Buster.

From the book, "A History of Ozark County 1841-1991", pgs. 103-104:
The COLLINS name was prevalent in early day Missouri, particularly int he Ozark region. Samuel was a descendant of David COLLINS, born circa 1750, who married Thompsey POSTING on 1 Oct 1772 in Rowan County, NC. David's places of residence included Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, and Indiana. The lineage from David continued through Aaron, born circa 1773, who died after 1850 in Douglas County, MO; a second David, born circa 1799; Leonard, born circa 1823; and James Franklin COLLINS, b. 31 Jul 1857. Some research compiled on the COLLINS family indicates that Leonard and his wife, Millie COLLINS, had a common great-grandfather. It suggests Millie was a descendant of David COLLINS (1750); Isaiah COLLINS (1791); and his son, Isaiah COLLINS (1808).

Douglas County History and Families 1857-1995 pg 156

COLLINS - The early migration of the large family of Collins into the now Douglas County, began around the year of 1833, as that is the first year of birth for Collins in this area. All of which are descendants of David Collins 1750, born in America. Of David's sons, five migrated from the old North State (North Carolina) through Tennessee and Kentucky, Indiana and then Missouri. Hiram Collins, David's youngest son staying in Morgan County, IN. David's second oldest son, David Jr., 1774, went on through Missouri to Arkansas into the counties of Izard and Newton.

This leaving four of David Collins (1750) sons to settle in the Taney County area that would become Ozark, Howell and Douglas counties respectively, Aaron, 1773; Levi, 1784; Solomon, 1787; and Isaiah, 1788. All four of which had descendants that helped fight in the Civil War to keep Douglas County strong, and earn the name of Loyal Douglas.

Even Solomon (1787) joined to fight with his sons, and claimed that he ws only 45 years of age, 45 being the maximum. Solomon lost one of his sons, Spencer Collins, in a skirmish north of Old Vera Cruz, the first county seat. Spencers burial site has never been verified and he has never received a military marker.

Thus far it is believed that David 1750 is the son of John Collins the son of Old
Family Group Sheet

Chapter 1

Notes

Thomas Collins of Flatt River. It is further believed that Old Thomas Collins of Flatt River is the brother to the John Collins that was arrested in Orange County, VA in 1740, 1741, and 1742 and listed as Saponi Indian.

Henry Zivley and Alex Brown

I was wondering if anyone could help me search out Thompsey Posting in will books for Tennessee, North Carolina, and Kentucky. I am trying to see if she may be listed in wills that pertain to the Zivley or Brown families. It is a long shot, but David 1750 and Thompsey's marriage bond shows a Henry Zivley and Abe/Alex Brown. I am under the impression that the bondsmen were usually related to the bride on the bond.

I was told that a John Zivley from Rowan County, N.C. moved off to Tennessee.

Also are there any other Brown family that connect up in our lines?

Found Henry Zivley's marriage to Elenor Enochs 10 yrs. previous to David Collins 1750's which was in 1772.

Henry Zivley/Zevly and Elenor Enochs marriage date 03 Apr 1762 Rowan County, N.C. County Court Record FHL # 0317002 and 0500949 - 0500957

Then their bond record.

Henry Zivley/Zevly and Elenor Enochs bond date 03 Apr 1762, bond # 000130745, NOth Carolina Marriage Bonds, 1741 - 1868 image # 002445 Rowan County, N.C. record # 02 482, Bondsman: John Johnston; William Williams, Witness: Will Reed; John Brandon

I am leaning more and more in the direction of thinking her last name was actually Poston and not Posting. For one there are no other Posting surnamed people in Rowan County, N.C. or any where else that I have looked. In Rowan County, N.C., I do find Poston families that interacted with the Brown and Zivley/Sivley families along with some others that interacted with the Collins families. The marriage bond of David Collins 1750 and Thompsey Posting shows that Henry Zivley and Abe/Alex Brown where on the bond. I have recently made myself aware of what these bonds where for and their nature. According to what I have read the persons on the bond tend to be related in some way to the bride. This would mean that Henry Zivley and Abe/Alex Brown where relations of Thompsey Posting or Poston. Unless of course its all coincidence I think the Poston families in Rowan where Thompsey's families.

Strangly when looking for records in the Federal Census on Ancestry.com for N.C., they only listed two for Poston in the 1790 Federal Census, they were Jerre Poston of Caswell County, N.C. and Dani Poston of Lincoln County, N.C.

However, Abstract of North Carolina Wills page 279 shows a 1785 listing for John Poston with Mary, Jean, Margaret, Elizabeth, Robert, and John. This would have been after the 01 Oct. 1772 marriage bond for Thompsey Posting and David Collins.

The other search I did was on Abe/Alex Brown and the Brown families. I did find an Alex Brown, but not an Abe Brown. Alex Brown is listed with his brother John Brown as merchants of Peterbourg Record Book Abstract 1792-1820 Person County, N.C.
Family Group Sheet

Compilations: Land Grants; 1794, 1805, and 1823 Tax Lists; Record Books Abstracts, 1792-1820; Letters of Attorney Pg.60

Caswell County N.C. Will Book, 1777-1843; 1784 Tax List; and Guardians' Accounts, 1794-1819 Pages 92,93,97,107,125,136

Page 136 Shows information on the Browns and an interesting John Collins, James Gibson, Dixons, and several others of import to the Collins lines. These pages also had Williams, Enochs and some of the others listed on the above posting.

Then on page 137 of their records for Marriages of Rutherford County, N.C., 1779-1868 shows a marriage involving Mary Hardin and G.W. Smith 12 Nov 1859; Bondsman Drury Dobbins, and married 13 Nov 1859 by Robert Poston.

Those pages I listed above had a lot of information on Poston, Brown, Rice, Johnston, etc.; the way it looks these particular families seemed to follow each other in the migration routes. So I'm thinking that is a fairly good sign post to follow looking for the connections.

What is most needed is a document whether a will, census, or otherwise that shows Thompsey listed with a Poston family, the Browns, or the Zivley/Sivley's.

On Zivley I had a lady named Janet tell me that a John Zivley went from Rowan County, N.C to Tennessee and that fits some of our family groups migration routes. I need to check the Grainger County, TN area and surrounding counties to see if the Zivley/Sivley surname pops up there before the Collins move from N.C. to Ky thence to TN.

Hope this is a good restart of looking more intently for our Thompsey.

Glenda Breakbill - Jul 27, 2008

Scott, When I saw your post, I noted the name Will Reed. On one of the court documents, I have read in the past, there was a mention of the mother of one the Collins men being a Reed and of Portugese descendant. There was some speculation as I recall that would possibly be David Collins's mother's maiden name. Did you do or have you done any research on the Reed name? Also, the bond between Thompsey and David is curiously worded as I recall, which made me wonder about some sort of pre-nuptial agreement. I'll have to dig it out, unless someone is kind enough to post it.

Also, Douglas, Howell and Ozark County Missouri used to be thick with Browns and amongst the areas populated by Collins and related kin. My uncle married a Douglas County Brown whose family was in with the Tabors another of the families that Collins mixed with.

Scott Collins - Jul 28, 2008

I think I have seen some Reed family information in the past regarding our Collins family. Could be I read it in the material that Dillion and Blackburn wrote in "One More Mountain" or it could have been in the plethora of "Melungeon" material. The Browns are interesting in that Alex and John Brown were merchants and that is discussed in the wills that involved them as heirs. It is an interesting tid bit of information in that it fits a pattern that I'm tracking with the Collins and having a close tie with tradesmen and the landed elite of their times. It lends more insight into the material discussed in the Carlson dissertation as well.

Dusty Pilgrim - Jul 28, 2008
there are a few reports at rootsweb with Henry in them - example <http://vc.rootsweb.ancestry.com/cgi-bin/igm.cgi?op=GET&db=lindseyt&id=1631>

I contacted one of the submitters several years ago & he wrote & said his ancestor was the bondsman for many marriages in that area in that time frame. Henry spoke several languages & understood legal matters so helped people in that fashion. I would suspect helped financially with the bond too, the bond was returned when the marriage took place.

As I’ve mentioned before if we ever really want to know about Thomsey I know of female descendants that have a direct mother to mother line to her. If we want to collect money to get a DNA done I’m sure one of them would do it.

1. Thompsey
2. Eleanor Collins m. John Bull
3. Margaret Bull m. William Evans
4. Sarah Evans m. James Mason (my G-grandparents)
5. Rebecca Mason m. John Finley Evans
6. Sarah Evans m. Larkin Mason
7. Eunice Mason

Eunice is the only one left of her generation & she has a son but their are several daughters of her sisters. One of them might be willing to do it. They had their family reunion this past weekend but I wasn’t able to attend - darn it.

Scott Collins - Aug 2, 2008
David Collins 1750 and Thompsey Posting/Poston married in Rowan County, N.C. 01 Oct. 1772. Then in the 1790 census David Collins 1750 is listed in Wilkes County, N.C. David Collins, b.1750, is listed on the 1790 Wilkes Co., NC census along with Ambrose, George, Hardy (Vardy?), Martin and Valentine Collins as well as Joel, Archibald, Ezekiel, Jordan & Andrew Gibson and Jo. Nichols, Jesse Bolin (and Henry Hardin). It would be interesting if the Henry Hardin in the above listing for 1790 census and the Mary Hardin in the following Rutherford County where related. Then on page 137 of their records for Marriages of Rutherford County, N.C., 1779-1868 shows a marriage involving Mary Hardin and G.W. Smith 12 Nov 1859; Bondsman Drury Dobbins, and married 13 Nov 1859 by Robert Poston. Is it possible that this Collins migration to Wilkes County, N.C. may have been spurred by the Revolution either to protect the family or for bounty lands as a result of service in the militia? Then from Wilkes and Ashe Counties N.C. they go to Bell and Knox Counties KY right? That would have been about the time of the War of 1812, is that correct? I think that Solomon Collins was in KY by 1812 to file for service in the militia there. I need to check out the Wilkes County census, land, will, and marriage records for all these and check against the previous information. Thanks everyone for the Preston information.

Thompsey Poston

NOTES From Pris Roberts:
Information on Aaron Collins, his spouse and children was given to me by Marvin Oakes at the 8th Collins reunion in West Plains, Mo. and from his article on the Collins Family in the June 5th, 1992 West Plains, Mo Daily Quill. One of the researchers for some of this information was Mary Bittick Galleano on August 22nd, 1992

They had two girls that are unknown. This information from Dorothy Wren.

In the Goodspeed Book of Northeastern Arkansas, printed late 1800’s it states that Aaron Collins came to Missouri about 1834. This information from Dorothy Wren.

Connie Stubbs - Aug 28, 2009  Viewers | Reply to this item  Well you've found something...
I had this:
US Census 1870,Wood/Richland twp., Texas Co. MO., Houston PO., enumerated in July. House Hold # 61/61
Collins, Solomon, 83,M,W, Farmer, N.C.
    Delila, 83, F. W. keeping house, N.C.
Clinton, Elizabeth, 19,F, W, keeping house, MO.
    Rebecca, 5/12, F.W. Born Dec., MO
    ( CJS  9,18,2005 )
but never connected any dots. May not yet...I don't have an Elizabeth as a daughter of "Old Sol" and Delilah (Nichols) Collins. So is Elizabeth a Collins??

Thought this cute. had to add it

1880 Us Census Richland Twp., Douglas Co., Mo., District 30, enumerated 18 June, House hold # 238/242 (next house hold from Tipton, though the information seems to have been given by someone from Tipton's house hold) Collins, Solomon, 93 & 11/12, Father, Wd, was a farmer, old age, blind, NC,SC, SC (CJS 9,18,2005)

Isaiah "Cuppy" Collins
   Person note: Nick named Old Zayer
   He married Elizabeth Betsy Mason Nov. 20, 1805 in Grainger County, TN.

Harmon Collins
