Mark 14:12-26

12 And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover? 13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him. 14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? 15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us. 16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover. 17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve. 18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me. 19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I? 20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish. 21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born. 22 And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body. 23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it. 24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many. 25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God. 26 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

Lord's Supper - (1 Cor. 11:20), called also "the Lord's table" (10:21), "communion," "cup of blessing" (10:16), and "breaking of bread" (Acts 2:42).

In the early Church it was called also "eucharist," or giving of thanks (comp. Matt. 26:27), and generally by the Latin Church "mass," a name derived from the formula of dismission, Ite, missa est, i.e., "Go, it is discharged."

The account of the institution of this ordinance is given in Matt. 26:26-29, Mark 14:22-25, Luke 22:19, 20, and 1 Cor. 11:24-26. It is not mentioned by John.

It was designed, (1.) To commemorate the death of Christ: "This do in remembrance of me." (2.) To signify, seal, and apply to believers all the benefits of the new covenant. In this ordinance Christ ratifies his promises to his people, and they on their part solemnly consecrate themselves to him and to his entire service. (3.) To be a badge of the Christian profession. (4.) To indicate and to promote the communion of believers with Christ. (5.) To represent the mutual communion of believers with each other.

The elements used to represent Christ's body and blood are bread and wine. The kind of bread, whether leavened or unleavened, is not specified. Christ used unleavened bread simply because it was at that moment on the paschal table. Wine, and no other liquid, is to be used (Matt. 26:26-29). Believers "feed" on Christ's body and blood, (1) not with the mouth in any manner, but (2) by the soul alone, and (3) by faith, which is the mouth or hand of the soul. This they do (4) by the power of the Holy Ghost. This "feeding" on Christ, however, takes place not in the Lord's Supper alone, but whenever faith in him is exercised.

This is a permanent ordinance in the Church of Christ, and is to be observed "till he come" again.

The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

1. Jesus was willing to sacrifice His body and shed His blood for us that we might have eternal life with the Father.

2. When we partake of the Lord's Supper as we are remembering Jesus and his great love for us.

3. An important part of remembering Jesus are to remember His Words that we are to commune with and love one another just as He loves us.

The Last Supper
Mark 14:12-26

It was the on the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread that the Jews ate the Passover lamb. Jerusalem must have been filled with people coming from all directions into the city to celebrate the feast. Imagine the confusion of all the people trying to find rooms and hotels to stay in while they were in the city!

Yet Jesus is just arriving into all this confusion with his disciples and they have not made any reservations. The bible tells us in Mark 14 verse 12 that Jesus’ disciples asked him, “Where do you want us to go and make preparations for you to eat the Passover?” They were probably thinking to themselves, how do you expect us to find you a room to eat the Passover? We have come too late.

We can see that Jesus knows everything and always has everything under control. Because Jesus said to two of his disciples go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a jar of water. Follow him. When you come to the house that he enters, say to the man who owns the house “The teacher asks where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples”

This is neat. We can see that Jesus knows everything, sees everything and that by his spirit he can talk to people. Like the man who owned the house, he had not talked with Jesus or ever met Him. However, by the spirit the Lord spoke to him and prepared his heart before the disciples came to him, so that when they arrived and spoke the words that Jesus told them to say, this man would open his house to them.

Mark 12:17 Jesus arrives with the rest of the disciples and they go into the room to eat the Passover lamb. They were reclining at the table. It was customary for the Jews to talk about the deliverance of Israel from Egypt as they ate the Passover lamb. This helped them keep to keep in their minds how the Lord saved their first-born from the death angel, and how he parted the Red Sea for them and how the lord destroyed the Egyptian army as the sea closed in on them. Their talking together about these things must have encouraged the disciples, as to what God had done for them in the past. How ever, Jesus changed the subject and began to tell them something that would make them unhappy. Jesus told them that they were soon going to loose him and that one of them would help to have him arrested. This made the disciples very sad.

How ever, Jesus changed the subject and began to tell them something that would make them unhappy. Jesus told them that they were soon going to loose him and that one of them would help to have him arrested. This made the disciples very sad. In numbers 9:11 the Lord commanded the Jews to eat bitter herbs with the Passover lamb. The words that Jesus spoke to the disciples were bitter herbs for them. They could not believe or understand all that was taking place. Then Jesus went on to tell them of a new covenant that he was making for them and he did not want them to forget about it. He took the bread and said this is my body broken for you. Jesus just wanted the disciples to know that when he would be beaten and crucified that it was for them. Because of their sins and bad deeds, they deserved to be beaten but God allowed Jesus to take their punishment. Then he took the cup told them that the wine was to remind them of his blood that would pour out of his body when they crucified him. His blood would clean them and many more people from their sins.

Every time you go to church and see them serve the bread and the grape juice, remember that Jesus loves you. He was beaten for you! He died for you! His blood is for your sins. The bible says in Mare 14: 24 My blood is poured out for many. If you have never been in church, you need to know that Jesus loves you and he died for you. Are you sad because of your sins? Just ask Jesus to forgive you and come into your heart. He will come in and you will never be the same again. Try him and see how wonderful Jesus really is!
