RECEIVING THE ELEMENTS OF COMMUNION

Whoever will, let them come to the Kingdom Feast. The Ushers will direct us. Teams of communion servers will serve in the pews those who are physically unable to come to the Altar Rail.

We follow an ancient Christian custom. We bring a special offering with us to the altar. We give over and beyond our tithes and offerings. We give sacrificially to symbolize the Cross. We give generously as a sign of new life. We give saying, “WE CLAIM THE NAME of Jesus the Christ.”

We are all invited to join in the songs and prayers, until all have received the symbols of grace.

HEART TO HEART

FOR WHOM THE BELL TOLLS
by John Donne – written in 1624

No man is an island, Entire of itself. Each is a piece of the continent, A part of the main. Each man's death diminishes me, For I am involved in mankind. Therefore, send not to know For whom the bell tolls, It tolls for thee.

REV. ALLISON MARK as our new Associate Pastor We love you and there’s nothing you can do about it!
YOUR HOLMAN CHURCH FAMILY
INTRODUCTION OF NEW ASSOCIATE PASTOR

REV. ALLISON MARK

Born and raised in Honolulu, Hawai‘i, Rev. Allison Kanani, a 3.5 generation Chinese American and 5th generation Japanese American Pastor’s Kid, Pastor Allison and her 2 sisters, grew up with many church “aunties, uncles, and cousins” at Waianae and Kilohana UMC, who nurtured and supported her in her calling to ministry. Graduating from University of Washington in Seattle in 2000, with degrees in Sociology, American Ethnic Studies, and Communications, she returned to Hawaii and worked for four years as a Christian Education Director (Kilohana), a middle school typing instructor and Student Activities Coordinator, and high school Speech and Debate Coach (simultaneously!). She also dabbled in student teaching at the University of Hawaii, office administration, and nannyng! During that time back in Hawai‘i, she became more engaged with community organizing through Faith Action for Community Equity (FACE), the interfaith justice organization that her father helped to create.

Answering a call to ministry, she entered seminary at Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley in 2004, where she met and befriended your pastor, Rev. Kelvin Sauls, a Trustee on the PSR Board. In seminary, she cultivated her passion for Peace & Justice ministries and Mission & Compassion work, serving first as Buena Vista UMC’s Field Education Intern, and continued for two more years as their Minister of Young Adults and Community Outreach, leading two mission trips to New Orleans for Hurricane Katrina Rebuild work (with UMVIM), running Buena Vista’s Community Developer’s Program (CDP) and Endowment, and working with the community young people. She also served on the East Bay’s Interfaith Committee for Worker Justice (ICWJ) in Oakland and worked on socio-economic issues with Rev. James Lawson’s brother, Rev. Phil Lawson, and the Cal-Nevada Philippine Human Rights Work, and the Kairos Response in the Holy Land.

In 2008, Pastor Allison was appointed to the Cal-Pac Annual Conference as the Associate Pastor at First UMC Pasadena, the same year she married her husband, Andy Schwiebert, an ordained United Church of Christ pastor. Her ministry portfolio included Youth, Young Adults, Pastoral Care, and Missions, Peace & Justice and in seven years expanded to include Children and Family Ministries, Evangelism & Hospitality, Worship, Administrative duties (Lay Leadership, SPRC, Trustees, Church Council), and supervision of staff and Candidates for Ministry. She has led yearly mission and advocacy trips to Mexico, Philippines, Haiti, Palestine/Israel, Arizona, and Hawaii. In February 2015, Rev. Mark was appointed to the Young Clergy Initiative a joint collaborative of the Cal-Pac Annual Conference and Claremont School of Theology. YCI supported Young People called into ordained ministry through workshops, retreats, internships, cultivating congregations in their Culture of Call, and mentoring young people.

Pastor Allison is also very engaged in the work of our Annual Conference and community abroad. Continuing to work for justice issues on the conference’s Philippine, Immigration, and Holy Land Task Forces, Rev. Mark is also a consultant for the conference Young People’s Ministries, serves on the Higher Education and Campus Ministry Committee, the UCLA Wesley Foundation Board, the Cross-Cultural Competency Bridging Team, Center for Pacific Asian American Ministries and Leadership & Discipleship Essential Ministry Team (EMT). Community Engagement also includes Bread for the World (Hunger Justice Leader), Clergy and Laity United for Economic Justice (CLUE L.A.), and Friends Indeed (formerly ECPAC).

Heavily influenced by Rev. James, and his brother Phil Lawson’s non-violent justice work during the Civil Rights Movement, Pastor Allison and her husband, Pastor Andy, have committed acts of Civil Disobedience in the name of worker justice for our Walmart workers and Immigration Reform. Their 21-month-old daughter, Kaira is a young activist at heart and has been very supportive, attending every rally and protest with her parents! The Mark-Schwiebert family looks forward to becoming a part of the Holman Church Family.

Teaching Your Children about Money

Even before your children can count, they realize from an early age that they can use money to buy the things they want. So, as soon as your children become interested in money, begin teaching them how to handle it wisely.

Below are suggested areas that may help give your children a solid foundation for making wise financial decisions:

- Provide an Allowance
- Open a Bank Account
- Shopping Sense
- Earning an Income
- Credit Card Use

Pick up a copy of the July Bellringer and read page ?? for a description of each area listed above.

There are resources available to help you teach your children basic financial education.

Flyers are available on the display table in the James M. Lawson building.

WE GIVE TO MINISTER IN JESUS’ NAME.

WE GIVE BECAUSE GOD FIRST GAVE TO US.

Together, United Methodists do remarkable ministry around the world. We care for survivors recovering from earthquakes and storms; we invest, long term, in vulnerable communities; we implement the most effective solutions to diseases like malaria; we equip the next generation to lead the church and society. In all of this, we share the good news of Jesus Christ.

THE UMC DIFFERENCE.

Together we are witnessing the love that Jesus Christ has for a hurting world and are transforming lives and communities in his name.

Have you ever considered the breadth and depth of the impact our denomination’s giving worldwide?

WHAT NEXT?

As you reflect on your involvement in the areas of giving across the UMC, will you do two things?

First, pray that the people we serve will feel the love of Jesus Christ.

Second, would you share with your friends the work of your church?

YOU MATTER.

We believe -- Many Together Are Greater Than One Alone.

Thank you for being a part of our global community, following the heart and will of Jesus Christ.

Peace be with you,

The UMC Giving Team

SERMON NOTES
“FOR WHOM THE BELLS TOLL”

SCRIPTURE
LUKE 9:57-62

Rev. Kelvin Sauls

SC m

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

From the beginning of time, bells have been an invitation to salvation. Through the poem of John Donne, the bells are a reminder that no church is an island unto itself.

The bells are for each one of us to realize the interconnectedness of humanity. Through Ernest Hemingway’s 1940 published book about the Spanish Civil War, Hemingway refers back to 'for whom the bell tolls' and to 'no man is an island' to demonstrate the bells of unity with the allied groups fighting the fascism.

The bells toll for a deeper sense of solidarity with the marginalized and the exploited; a broader understanding of mutuality with all of humanity and creation, and a commitment to unity against evil schemes and systems that seek to undermine the dignity of humankind and the integrity of creation. How does your bell toll? For what purpose?
