REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN!

Registration for the 33rd World Congress of Audiology (WCA) is now open. Delegates can register online at www.wca2016.ca/registration.

The early bird registration deadline is May 31, 2016, and members of the International Society of Audiology, Canadian Academy of Audiology and Speech-Language and Audiology Canada get preferential rates. Congress fees are also economical for international delegates, who will benefit from Canada’s low foreign exchange rate.

WCA2016 will feature speakers from around the world, covering the latest topics in audiology research and practice. You do not want to miss this highly-anticipated event — it may well be the best audiology conference ever!

Deadline for Abstract Submissions: February 15, 2016

The organizers of WCA2016 invite professionals and students to submit an abstract on any topic in audiology for inclusion in the congress’s education program. Presentations may be in oral or poster format, and all abstracts must be submitted online. For more information about submitting an abstract, please visit the WCA2016 website.

A Truly Global Perspective

The six pre-conference sessions and congress program will feature more than 130 high-calibre speakers from 15 countries. They will contribute their expertise in research and clinical practice to help health practitioners, educators and researchers improve hearing health-care outcomes internationally. You can see where each speaker is from on our website, as their home countries are identified with flags in the program. Register now to reserve your spot!

Stay On-Site at the Sheraton

WCA2016 will be hosted at the Sheraton Vancouver Wall Centre, Vancouver’s largest hotel in the heart of downtown. Delegates who stay at the Sheraton will have convenient access to all congress sessions and activities and be a short walk away from many of Vancouver’s premier attractions.

Delegates can take advantage of special congress rates in Canadian dollars ($199.00 + tax). Reserve a room today! Group rate applies until August 17, 2016, subject to availability.
