APPLICATION FOR MILITARY SERVICE INFORMATION
Part One: INSTRUCTIONS

OPEN RECORDS

Before 1914

To find out what records exist and how to access them, please consult our website www.collectionscanada.gc.ca/genealogy under What to Search - Topics: Military: Canadian Forces before 1914. If you do not have Internet access, send a letter with identifying details to the Canadian Genealogy Centre, Library and Archives Canada, 385 Wellington St., Ottawa ON, K1A 0N4.

First World War (1914-1918)

You can search our online database Soldiers of the First World War to identify a specific military service file: http://www.collectionscanada.gc.ca/databases/icf/index-e.html. Please read the database online help pages to find out how to order a copy of a file. Note that requests for copies must include an archival reference. If you do not have Internet access, send a letter with identifying details to the Canadian Genealogy Centre, Library and Archives Canada, 385 Wellington St., Ottawa ON, K1A 0N4.

Second World War (1939-1945): Killed in Action

You can search our online database Second World War Service Files: Canadian Armed Forces War Dead to identify a specific military service file: http://www.collectionscanada.gc.ca/databases/war-dead/index-e.html. Please read the database online help pages to find out how to order a copy of a file. Note that requests for copies must include an archival reference. The database includes those who died in service from 1939 to 1947.

For all other military service files (1919-1997), including Second World War (not killed in action), access restrictions apply.

PLEASE FILL THIS FORM

For individuals still living: Personal information cannot be released without the written consent of the individual concerned.

For individuals deceased less than 20 years: Only limited personal information will be released to an immediate family member (spouse, parent, sibling, child or grandchild) of the individual concerned if proof of relationship and proof of death are provided. Proof of death is not required if the individual died while serving in the Canadian Armed Forces.

For individuals deceased more than 20 years: Personal information will be released on an individual deceased for more than 20 years if proof of death is provided. Proof of death is not required if the individual died while serving in the Canadian Armed Forces.

Please do not send original documents; photocopies are acceptable.

The following are examples of documents accepted as proof of death: death certificate, newspaper obituary, funeral notice or photograph of the gravestone.

The following are examples of documents acceptable as proof of relationship: newspaper obituary, baptismal certificate, marriage certificate, full-form birth certificate that indicates parents' names. A wallet-sized birth certificate is not acceptable. Documents must clearly show the relationship between the service member and the requestor; both names must appear on the document.

From 1st January 1998 to the present

For requests for information concerning Canadian Forces members currently serving or who were released from service or died in service from 1 January 1998 to the present, please write to:

Department of National Defence
Director, Access to Information and Privacy (DAIP)
National Defence Headquarters
Ottawa, ON K1A 0K2

Exception: Requests for medical and dental records only of Canadian Armed Forces members who are currently serving or who were released from service or who died in service more than five years ago are handled by Library and Archives Canada.
