Verizon New York Inc. Lifeline Service in New York:

Lifeline is a government assistance program that is supported by the New York State Public Service Commission and the Federal Communications Commission. Verizon New York Inc. (“Verizon”) offers the following Lifeline-supported services as an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier:

- Message Rate Service $1.00 per month plus regular rates for each call made or optional service requested
- Flat Rate Service $2.00 per month plus monthly local usage charge of $7.20

In addition, Verizon does not impose the Federal Subscriber Line Charge ($6.40) on Lifeline customers.

Only eligible consumers may enroll in the program. You may qualify for Lifeline service if you have:

- Documentation that you participate in one of the following programs: Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) General Assistance, Family Assistance, Food Distribution Program (Tribal Land residents only), Head Start (Tribal Land residents only), Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP), Medicaid, National School Lunch Program (free lunch program only), Safety Net Assistance, Section 8 - Federal Public Housing Assistance, SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, formerly known as Food Stamps), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, Veteran’s Disability Pension (non-service related), Veteran’s Surviving Spouse Pension (non-service related); or
- Documentation that your annual income is at or below 135% of the Federal Poverty Guideline.

Verizon also provides Lifeline Service to residents of federally recognized Tribal lands who meet Native American criteria. Residents on federally recognized Tribal lands who qualify for Lifeline are eligible for up to $100 in Link-Up installation credits to establish service.

In addition, Lifeline is limited to one discount per household consisting of either wireline or wireless. Therefore, you are required to certify and agree that no other member of the household is receiving Lifeline service from Verizon or another communications provider.

Lifeline service is a non-transferable benefit. Consumers who willfully make false statements in order to obtain the benefit can be punished by fine or imprisonment or may be barred from the program.
