Quarterly Contribution & Employment Report Main Menu

After you successfully log into the site, you will see the Quarterly Contribution & Employment Report Online Form for Employers Main Menu page. You can select from the drop down box the quarter that you want to file. The current quarter will be displayed first. Any previous quarters that are still due will be displayed next, newest to oldest. Once you have made your selection you can select one of the three filing options from the Main Menu:

Filing Option 1: File both the Contribution and Employment Report – This is the option most employers should select. Use this option if you want to report wages by filling in the wage report online. The application will only display wage information online for up to 200 employees. You can always enter wage information for additional employees over the 200 limit; however, the application will not display the records beyond the 200 limit. If you have more than 200 employees or you wish to file wage information electronically, use Option 3.

Filing Option 2: File only a Contribution Report – Use this option if you are still operating but paid no wages during the report quarter. Even though you paid no wages during the report quarter, you must still report to us that no wages were paid.

Filing Option 3: File wages using the Web-Wage Application – Use this option if you have your wage information in an electronic file which is in a DLLR-recognized file format and you want to automatically file both wage and contribution information online for up to 5,000 employees. (For more information about acceptable file formats, refer to page 32.)

Once you have selected one of the filing options, click “Continue”.
Select this option if you want to view and or print reports previously filed using the WebTax application. Reports filed on WebTax for the first quarter 2005 and forward are available. Click on the drop-down box to view the available quarters.
Review My Account History

This is the screen you will see when you select the Review My Account History button on the main menu. Starting from the top and working down the screen, you will see the most recent 16 quarters of Maryland Unemployment Insurance activity for your account. You will also see the total amount of contributions, interest, and / or penalty older than the 16 displayed quarters. You may decide to view details specific to the quarter by clicking on the “details” hyperlink. This action will provide you with the application of payments to contributions, interest and or penalty. You may also elect to pay a delinquency on this page by selecting the appropriate payment option at the bottom of the page. You may choose to pay by Credit Card, Electronic Check or by paper check. At the end of the payment process, you will receive a confirmation number to assure you that the payment submission was successful.

If the summary indicates that no report for a quarter has been filed you may file a report for the most recent quarter online by returning to the main menu and selecting “File my online Quarterly Contribution and Employment Report”. If a report for an older quarter needs to be filed, request a blank Contribution and Employment Report by calling the Employer Assistance Unit at 410-767-2412 or e-mail at empassist@dllr.state.md.us.
This is the screen you will see when you click on a quarter "details" hyperlink. It tells you the computed contributions due and paid, the interest due and paid and any penalties due and paid. Remember, if your contributions due were $176.00, and you filed and paid $176.00 after the due date; penalties and interest will be paid first. The remaining contributions due, plus any penalty and interest due, will be added together for the final net amount due for this quarter.
Modify My Account Information (Change My Address)

You will see this screen when you select the change my address option on the main menu. This module allows you to add or modify address information for the street, city, state and zip code. You may also add or modify the employer doing-business-as name, the telephone and fax numbers, and the email address. At the end of the address change process, you will receive a confirmation page summarizing the changed information, along with a unique confirmation number.

Internal control and security procedures prevent us from allowing you to modify certain account information fields. If you need to change your employer name or your federal employer account number, you will submit your change request via the email link to status@dllr.state.md.us at the top of the page. Your request will be reviewed and processed as appropriate.

Request a Re-Certification of State UI Payments (FUTA 940C)

Select this option to request a re-certification of the payments that you made on your Maryland unemployment insurance account. The re-certification is used to resolve a discrepancy between actual unemployment insurance reports and payments made to the State of Maryland and the annual Form 940 as recorded by the Internal Revenue Service.

The Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA) provides for cooperation between state and federal governments in the establishment and administration of unemployment insurance. Under this dual system, the employer is subject to a payroll tax levied by the federal and state governments. The taxpayer is allowed a maximum credit of 5.4% against the Federal tax of 6.2%, provided that all payments were made to the state by the due date. Employers whose payments are received by the state after the due date are allowed 90% of the amount that would have been allowed had the payments been made on time.

Once you receive your 940 re-certification, send proof of payments to the Internal Revenue Service.
Close Your Unemployment Insurance Account

In order to close your account, we will need the following information.

Employer Help

Do you have a question about this application? Just click on any one of these topics to find an explanation. You will find answers to questions relating to interest rates, definitions for wages, etc. You will be able to return to this index by clicking on any “Return to Index” link.
This is the page you will see if you click the “Log Off” link at the top left of each page. When you click “Log Off”, the application will save all data you have entered up to that point. You may also exit the application by clicking the “Save & Quit” button at the bottom of the Quarterly Employment Report page.
You will see this page when you select Filing Option 1: File both the Contribution and Employment Report from the Quarterly Contribution and Employment Report Main Menu. This page allows you to verify social security numbers, employee names and wage information. If necessary, you may make corrections. This page also allows you to add employees.

Please remember that this page will only display wage information for up to 200 employees. You can always enter wage information for additional employees over the 200 limit; however, the application will not display the records beyond the 200 limit. If you have more than 200 employees or wish to file wage information electronically, use Filing Option 3 - File wages using the Web-Wage Application. There are several options for this page:

View - You can view the wage records of your previous quarter’s employees in four different views: SSN ascending, SSN descending, last name ascending and last name descending. You may switch views at any time by selecting an option from the Wage Report View drop down box.

Wages – employee information you reported from last quarter’s wage report is displayed. Enter the total wages paid to each employee during this reporting quarter in the Employee Wages column. If you have more than 20 employees, complete the wages on this page and click "View next 20 records" to view the next page. If you have fewer than 20 employees, the "View next 20 records" link will be grayed out. If you are filing a previous quarter due employee information will be displayed if there was a previous quarter filing. If there was no previous filing, employee information will be entered by using the “add employee” button.
Quarterly Employment Report
Filing Option 1: File both the Contribution and Employment Report

New Employees – If you have new employees that do not appear on this page, click the “Add Employee” button and enter the SSN, name and wage information.

Total Number of Employees / Total Amount of Wages – These two fields display the total number of employees and wages you entered. We display the data so that you can verify this information against your source documents. The amount you see in the Total Amount of Wages field will carry to your Contribution Report page.

Monthly Employment – You must enter the number of employees working each month as of the 12th day of the month. This number is NOT the same as the summary number of employees displayed above the monthly employment fields. For example, if you entered 13 employees with wages on the employment report, your total number of employees would be 13. However, your Monthly Employment number COULD be different. If your business was closed for the month of July but operated with 8 employees in August and 12 employees in September, you would enter 0 for July, 8 for August and 12 for September.

Excess Wages – Taxes are not due on wages in excess of the taxable wage base ($8,500) that is paid to each employee during the calendar year. Excess wages is computed for each worker and then accumulated into a grand total. The grand total of excess wages is entered in the Excess Wage field. This field directly impacts your taxes so exercise care in completing this information. You may elect to have the system calculate the amount of excess wages for you if your properly reported employee wage information for each prior quarter in the year. The automatic calculation of excess wages is not available for previous quarter due filings.
Quarterly Employment Report
Filing Option 1: File both the Contribution and Employment Report

There are four buttons at the bottom of the Filing Option 1: File both the Contribution and Employment Report page.

- "Continue" button – Click this button if you are finished entering wage information and you want to proceed to the next step.

- "Save" button – Click this button at any point during the process to save your data.

Please keep in mind that server limitations and security concerns require us to terminate your session after two hours. If your session was terminated because of this limitation, the application will retain all information you have entered since the last time you clicked “Save”.

- "Save & Quit" button – Click this button if you want to save all the information you have entered but you want to quit now and return at a later time to complete the filing process. The application will retain all information you have entered up to this point.

- "Cancel" button – Click this button if you want to completely abandon the filing process and all information you have entered up to this point. If you press this button, the application will not save any of the information you have entered and you will not have fulfilled your filing obligation.
This is the screen that you will see if you elected to have the system calculate excess wages for you. The screen gives you the opportunity to use the amount of excess wages that the system calculated or you may enter your own amount on the Contribution Report.
This is a sample of the Excess Wage Worksheet if you elected to have the system calculate excess wages for you. The worksheet may not show the same amount of total and excess wages that you reported on your Contribution Report(s) for prior quarter(s). Total wages and excess wages for the year may also not equal the total of your prior report(s). The differences would occur if your employees entered in the current quarter were different than the employees entered in prior quarters. The worksheet only lists employees entered for the current quarter. Employees who received wages in prior quarters but who did not receive wages in the current quarter are not shown on the worksheet.
This is the first page you will see when you select Filing Option 2: File only a Contribution Report from the Main Menu of the Quarterly Contribution and Employment Report page.

Use this option if you paid no wages during the report quarter but expect to report employee wages in the future. Remember, even though you paid no wages during the report quarter, you must still report to us that no wages were paid.

Because you had no employees during this quarter, the application will automatically pre-fill the Monthly Employment and Excess Wages amounts with 0.

There are two buttons on this page.

- “Continue” button – Click this button to proceed to the Contribution Report page.
- “Previous” button – Click this button to return to the Quarterly Contribution and Employment Report Main Menu and change your filing option.
Quarterly Employment Report
Filing Option 3: File wages using the Web-Wage Application

This is the first page you will see when you select Filing Option 3: File wages using the Web-Wage Application from the Main Menu of the Quarterly Contribution and Employment Report page.

Use this option if you have your wage information in an electronic file which is in a DLLR-recognized file format and you want to automatically file both wage and contribution information online. (For more information about acceptable file formats, refer to pages 32, 33 and 34.) You can report up to 5,000 employees using this method.

A benefit of using this option is that your wage information will be transferred to the application automatically. All you need to do is verify the data, complete the excess wage field and monthly employment fields, and select a payment method.

There are two buttons on this page.

- “Continue” button – Click this button to proceed to the Contribution Report page.
- “Cancel” button – Click this button if you want to completely abandon the filing process and all information you have entered up to this point. If you press this button, the application will not save any of the information you have entered and you will not have fulfilled your filing obligation.

This is the summary of your filing information. You must click the “SUBMIT” button to complete the filing of this return. Using the total wages and excess wages you provided on a previous page, we pre-fill this information on the page. Using that data, we calculate your taxable wages using your tax rate and the amount, if any, of applicable penalty and interest due. The Net Payment Due is a summary of all tax, penalty and interest due, less any credit on file.
You will see this page when you have successfully completed the process of filing the contribution and wage data. The next step is to select a payment option. You will not see this page if there are no taxes or penalties due this quarter.

You can select one of three filing options from this page:

Payment Option 1: Credit Card – There is a convenience fee of the greater of $1 or 2.5% of the Net Payment Due (from the Summary of Contribution Report) if you use this option. We accept American Express, Discover, Master Card and VISA.

Payment Option 2: Direct Debit – There is no convenience fee when you use this option. You need to know your bank’s routing and transit numbers and your account number.

Payment Option 3: Paper Check – Use this option to pay by paper check or to make an electronic payment at a later time.

Once you have selected one of the filing options, click “Continue”.
