Matthew 17:1-13

And after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart, 2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light. 3 And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him. 4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias. 5 While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. 6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. 7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid. 8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only. 9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead. 10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elias must first come? 11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things. 12 But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them. 13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.
Transfiguration, the - of our Lord on a "high mountain apart," is described by each of the three evangelists (Matt. 17:1-8; Mark 9:2-8; Luke 9:28-36). The fullest account is given by Luke, who, no doubt, was informed by Peter, who was present on the occasion. What these evangelists record was an absolute historical reality, and not a mere vision. The concurrence between them in all the circumstances of the incident is exact. John seems to allude to it also (John 1:14). Forty years after the event Peter distinctly makes mention of it (2 Pet. 1:16-18). In describing the sanctification of believers, Paul also seems to allude to this majestic and glorious appearance of our Lord on the "holy mount" (Rom. 12:2; 2 Cor. 3:18).

The place of the transfiguration was probably Mount Hermon (q.v.), and not Mount Tabor, as is commonly supposed.

Mt. of Transfiguration

Matthew 17:1-13

Many people ask the question why did Jesus do this very amazing thing changing His appearance and talking with Moses and Elias? What does all this mean? Why did Jesus only do this in front of three people? The main point of this story is that Jesus wanted every one to know who He is and why He came to this earth. [Two very important things that we need to know about Jesus.]

This story in Matthew chapter 17: 1-13 tells us very clearly who Jesus is and why He came. The bible tells us that Jesus is God and He was never created. [Gen. 1:26 and John 1:1] The bible tells us that Jesus created every thing including you and me. [John 1:1-4 and Col. 1:15-20] Jesus was in heaven and how beautiful and how powerful He was there! He left all that to come to this earth for us! [Philippians 2 : 6-11 ]

So Jesus takes Peter James and John up on a mountain away from everyone and he reveals Himself to them. The bible says that Jesus' face became as the sun and His cloths became very white and Moses and Elias was brought back from paradise and they talked with Jesus about every thing that He Jesus was going to do on earth. How He would go to Jerusalem and be killed. [Luke 9: 30 -32]

All of the Old Testament talks about Jesus who He is and why He was coming to this earth. That is why Moses and Elias [Elijah] were brought back from paradise. Because they had written and talked about the promised one who would come to the earth to take away the sin of the world. Now God gave them the honor to see the one they talked about and testify that Jesus was the one Messiah. Moses and Elijah knew who Jesus was and why He came to the earth.

In Matthew chapter 16 Jesus is trying to teach His disciples these two very important things about Him. They had one correct. Remember Matthew 16:1316 Jesus asked the disciples who do you say that I am and Peter said Thou art the Christ the Son of the living God. But Jesus went on to tell them about Him going to Jerusalem and being giving His life for ours. The disciples reject Jesus words and Peter again speaks up. He says never! Jesus we will not let this happen! [Matthew 16:22]

This is why in our lesson Matthew 17:4 that Peter wants to build three tabernacles. Peter wanted to stay there on the mountain with Moses Elias and Jesus in all His glory. He did not want to go to Jerusalem and see Jesus dye.

Jesus did not come to this world the first time in his glory or to judge and rule this world. He came to be a servant to man, He came to show us how to live and most important He came to be the Lamb of God to take away the sin of the world. He had to dye and rise again to do all that.

Moses and Elias knew Who Jesus was and why He came to the earth. The disciples only knew who Jesus was, The Christ the Son of the living God. But they had not accepted Jesus' death yet. But they soon did and by the power of the Holy Spirit they lived the rest of their lives as servants to men. Living the way Jesus taught them and they wrote the rest of the bible teaching us about Jesus and why He had to die for us to make us clean from our sins.

Jesus is coming back to this earth some day In all of His glory and power and might! He will judge the earth and Rule over it. That will be a wonderful day. If we want to be with Him we must make a decision about who Jesus Is and why He came to this world.

Can you believe that Jesus Is God and He came to dye for you and forgive all your sins?

If you can do that just ask Jesus to come into your heart and be Lord of your life.
