Another land scam. It is shocking to know that the police officers from functions of police, who are supposed to be the guardians of the rule of law in the State, have been found involved in such an irregularity. The irregularity is appearing in the allotment of land state by some of the police officers, retired or in service, managed through the connivance of retired officers and many others in the administration, has come to notice just by a freak of chance. A dispute between two brothers has come to light in the Sunjwan locality of Jammu district, led some of the residents of Gugar Colony, Sunjwan to lodge a complaint with the Deputy Commissioner, who in turn forwarded it to the Regional Director, Surveys and Land Records for investigation into these irregularities of land under consideration. In his preliminary report to the Deputy Commissioner on Khasra No.372 of Sunjwan over which the occupants have no standing, Surveys, R K Shavan said that Khasra No.372 of Sunjwan under consideration. In his preliminary report, he said that Khasra No.372 of Sunjwan was allotted to some of the police personnel in the State, who have been found involved in such a hasty allotment of land. The police personnel who have been found involved in such an act of criminal-guardians of the rule of law in the State, have also shown decline in female growth rate in their area of jurisdiction. This has been found in Western States like Arunachal Pradesh, Mizoram and Meghalaya. For example, it shows fall in the ratio of female population to that of male population.
