The United States Agency for International Development (USAID/Pakistan) is seeking an individual for the position of USAID Development Program Specialist (Gender) for the Office of Program Management (OPM) in Islamabad. The position is classified at the FSN-10 grade level. The starting salary for this position is Rs.2,154,963 per annum and the maximum salary is Rs. 3,998,103 per annum, per the current FSN Compensation Plan. This salary range is not inclusive of other benefits and allowances.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES: The incumbent is a recognized gender professional, organizing and leading the Mission’s Gender Unit within the Office of Program Management. The incumbent is the essential and main contact for the entire Mission for all gender related topics and issues. This position is a key position as it is the Office of Program Management’s main point of contact for President Obama’s Let Girls Learn Initiative. The Gender Specialist will advise Mission leadership, guide the Mission in meeting Agency compliance to address gender concerns, and promote gender equity in all Mission work. Success of these efforts will be assessed through Mission level compliance, clear understanding of gender challenges, and a greater focus on, gender equality with an emphasis on women and youth empowerment in Pakistan.

QUALIFICATION REQUIRED FOR FULL PERFORMANCE LEVEL:

EDUCATION: Successful completion of a University Degree (16 years of formal education) from an accredited institution in gender studies, women’s studies, sociology, social work, international relations or international development is required.

EXPERIENCE: A minimum of five years of directly related professional experience in gender and development with Government, Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs), the private sector, or other international or donor organization. Demonstrated work experience should include gender integration with regard to project design, implementation, performance monitoring, gender analysis and training.

LANGUAGE: Level IV (fluent) English language proficiency, speaking and writing, as well as written and spoken Urdu proficiency, is required. Language skills may be tested during the recruitment process.

KNOWLEDGE: The incumbent will have in-depth professional-level knowledge of development principles, concepts, and practices, especially as they relate to gender, and to development programs in Pakistan and the region. S/he must have knowledge and understanding of the role of gender in the political, social, and cultural characteristics of Pakistan, to include: the political developmental problems, violence against women and girls, and development prospects and priorities for women and girls in Pakistan and the region. The incumbent should possess good working knowledge, or the potential to acquire such knowledge, of USG legislation, policy, and practice relating to development assistance; USG programming policies, regulations, procedures, and documentation. S/he will have knowledge and understanding of the organization and respective roles of the different branches of the Government of Pakistan (GOP) and provinces, in order to effectively collaborate with appropriate Pakistan Government representatives and to develop consensus on program/project strategy and implementation plans. The incumbent must have an in-depth knowledge of GOP institutions, policy directions, objectives, and priorities relating to Development Assistance activities in the gender sector and a broad understanding of political, economic, social, and cultural characteristics and developments in Pakistan.

ABILITIES & SKILLS: The incumbent requires excellent judgment, sophisticated analytical and interpersonal skills, and strong organizational ability. S/he must be able to obtain, analyze, and evaluate a variety of data; organize, interpret and present it in meaningful oral or written form for varied audiences and provide solid analysis leading to sound policy, programmatic, and financial decisions. This position requires the incumbent to have the ability to draft factual and interpretive memos, provide clear and well-supported recommendations, and objective information and advice. The incumbent will develop and maintain cordial, professional relationships in a team environment. Excellent verbal communication skills, tact, and diplomacy are required to establish and develop sustainable working relations and a high level of trust with senior and mid-level USG and GOP officials. The incumbent will also maintain excellent collaborative working relationships with public and private organizations, such as Agency’s primary technical contacts in the development area. Excellent verbal communication skills are also needed to explain and interpret host-country attitudes, priorities, and concerns to USG officials. The incumbent must have strong negotiation skills to work directly with appropriate Pakistani organizations, technical advisors, and institutional contractors. Computer skills may be tested during the recruitment process.
