Ancient spice proves to be hot news for arthritis sufferers

Curcumin, the active component of the yellow spice turmeric, has a strong anti-inflammatory action so it may help to calm the inflammation and pain of arthritis, and get you moving again.

Curcumin has a long history of traditional use as a potent anti-inflammatory, as well as trials showing it to benefit inflammatory diseases such as arthritis.1

Regular curcumin formulations may not work best for you – speak to one of our experienced Pharmacists to find out more about a high quality, clinically trialled curcumin with dramatically increased solubility and absorption. It may help provide natural antioxidant support and reduce your joint inflammation associated with arthritis.

Speak to your Malouf Pharmacies healthcare professional about choosing a therapeutic range of supplements.
