THE MISSION STATEMENT of the DIOCESE OF HARRISBURG

To proclaim the goodness of God and to make truly present and active the one, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church of Jesus Christ to all people through the power of the Holy Spirit.
October 2015

Dear Friends in Christ,

I am pleased to present to you this inaugural issue of our new Diocesan Directory consisting of current information about the diocese and its ministries and apostolates. Communication is one of our perennial goals and perennial challenges and this new directory is just one of our efforts to keep the lines of communication open and making our diocesan leadership accessible to everyone.

This Directory is also posted on our diocesan website (www.hbgdiocese.org), as a downloadable and searchable file. While having a printed, hard-copy version is convenient, undoubtedly there will be changes that occur throughout the year. Our goal is to ensure that the online version will be updated regularly to keep it current. Changes to the Directory may be submitted to the Vicar General’s Office. A form for changes to the Directory is available on the same webpage as the Directory.

I am grateful for the support provided by our advertisers, and I urge you to patronize their services.

I hope you will find this information helpful as we continue our collaboration in proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Ronald W. Gainer, D.D., J.C.L.
Bishop of Harrisburg
MOST REVEREND
RONALD W. GAINER, D.D., J.C.L.
Eleventh Bishop of Harrisburg

† Ordained to the priesthood on May 19, 1973
† Installed as Bishop of Harrisburg on March 19, 2014

Bishop Ronald William Gainer was born on August 24, 1947 in Pottsville, Pennsylvania and educated in the Catholic Schools there. He completed studies at Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia in 1973, earning a Master of Divinity degree, summa cum laude.

He was ordained to the priesthood for the Diocese of Allentown on May 19, 1973. In 1986 he earned a licentiate degree in Canon Law and a diploma in Latin Letters from the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome. He served in various ministries in the Diocese of Allentown including pastor of Holy Trinity Church (1986-1999); Judicial Vicar (1986); and Secretary of Catholic Life and Evangelization (1999).

On December 2, 2002 he was named the Second Bishop of Lexington, Kentucky and had his Episcopal Ordination on February 22, 2002.

On January 24, 2014 he was named the Eleventh Bishop of Harrisburg with his Episcopal Installation on March 19, 2014. Bishop Gainer is a member of the Canon Law Society of America and currently serves as the President of the Pennsylvania Catholic Conference.

The Coat of Arms for Bishop Gainer is composed of a shield with its symbols, a motto scroll, and the external ornaments. By tradition, the arms of the bishop of a diocese are joined to the arms of his jurisdiction – in this case, the Diocese of Harrisburg, seen on the left side of the shield.

The personal arms of Bishop Gainer, seen on the right side of the shield, reflect his life and heritage. These arms are composed of a red field on which is displayed a silver (white) bard encircled by a golden (yellow) ring. This is the dominant configuration, honoring Saint Catherine of Sienna, of the arms of the bishop’s home: The Diocese of Allentown, Pennsylvania. Above the bar is a silver pine tree and below the bar are the three silver hills with the golden double-crossmember, known as the “Cross of Lorraine”. These eastern European (Baden and Slovak) charges are used to honor the heritage that has come to the bishop from his parents.

For his Episcopal Motto Bishop Gainer selected - From His Fullness Grace Upon Grace – taken from the Gospel of Saint John (John 1:16).
Established in 1868, The Diocese of Harrisburg is...
