1. Definitions and Interpretation

In this Statute

(1) any word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned by the Higher Education Act, 1997 (Act No 101 of 1997), has the meaning so assigned to it, and unless the context otherwise indicates:

"academic staff" means any person appointed by council to a position to undertake teaching, research or academic development and any other person appointed to a position designated as such by council;
"calendar year" means a period extending from the first day of January to the last day of the following December;
"certificate" means a qualification of the Institution awarded to a student on completion of the work prescribed for the certificate by senate;
"chancellor" means the person contemplated in paragraphs 4 to 6 of the Statute;
"Companies Act" means the current Companies Act of the Republic of South Africa and any amendments thereof;
"convocation" means convocation contemplated in paragraphs 33 to 39;
"council" means council contemplated in paragraphs 7 to 17;
"degree" means a qualification of the Institution conferred upon a student on completion of the work prescribed for the degree by senate;
"deputy vice-chancellor" means a person appointed in terms of paragraphs 48 and 50;
"diploma" means a qualification of the Institution awarded to a student on completion of the work prescribed for the diploma by senate;
"examination" means any form of assessment, including any written, oral, practical or clinical test where the result obtained contributes to the summative judgment of competence;
"faculty board" means a faculty board as contemplated in paragraph 26;
"institutional forum" means the institutional forum contemplated in paragraphs 27 to 32;
"Minister" means the minister responsible for higher education as appointed by the President of the Republic of South Africa;
"postgraduate qualification" means a Master’s or Doctor’s Degree in Technology, or equivalent as determined by council;
"postgraduate student", for the purposes of appointments to council, senate and the institutional forum, means a person registered as a student for a postgraduate qualification of the Institution;
"predecessor institutions" means the institutions that formed the Durban University of Technology;
"professional and administrative staff" means the staff appointed at the Institution who are not academic, support or service staff;
"property" means any asset, immovable property, movable property, intellectual property, registered trademark, patent, brand, investment, stock, bond, security or financial resource of the Institution.
"rules" means any rules to give effect to this Statute made by council in terms of section 32 of the Act;
"seat of the Institution" means the seat contemplated in paragraph 2 of this Statute and in section 65A of the Act;
"senate" means senate contemplated in paragraphs 18 to 25;
"senior academic staff" means all appointments to academic ranks above that of senior lecturer;
"senior management" means the vice-chancellor, deputy vice-chancellors, and such other positions as determined by the rules;
"SRC" means the students' representative council contemplated in paragraphs 40 to 44;
"staff" means any person appointed to a position at the Institution, whether part-time or full-time, permanent, temporary or contract, remunerated or honorary;
"student" means a person currently registered at the Institution for a programme of study leading to a degree, diploma or certificate;
"support and service staff" means the staff appointed at the Institution who are not academic, professional or administrative staff;
"the Act" means the Higher Education Act, 1997 (Act 101 of 1997) as amended;
"the Institution" means the Durban University of Technology, a university of technology as contemplated in paragraphs 2 and 3;
"trade union" means an association of employees registered in terms of the Labour Relations Act and recognised by council;
"vice-chancellor" means the vice-chancellor contemplated in paragraphs 45 to 47 of this Statute and in section 30 of the Act; and

(2) the following rules of interpretation apply to this Statute:
(a) Any reference to the singular includes the plural and vice versa;
(b) Any reference to natural persons includes legal persons and vice versa;
(c) Any reference to gender includes the other genders;
(d) The clause headings in this Statute have been inserted for convenience only and shall not be taken into account in its interpretation;
(e) Words and expressions defined in any sub-section shall, for the purpose of the section of which that sub-section forms part, bear the meaning assigned to such words and expressions in that sub-section;
(f) If any provision in a definition is a substantive provision conferring rights or imposing obligations on any party, effect shall be given to it as if it were a substantive clause in the body of this Statute, notwithstanding that it is only contained in the definitions clause;
(g) If any period is referred to in this Statute by way of reference to a number of days, the days shall be reckoned as business days exclusive of the first and inclusive of the last day unless the last day falls on a day which is not a business day, in which case the day shall be the next succeeding business day;

(h) Any reference to an enactment is to that enactment as at the date of adoption of this Statute and as amended or re-enacted from time to time;

(i) When figures are referred to in numerals and in words, if there is any conflict between the two, the words shall prevail;

(j) A reference to a person includes such person’s permitted successors, assignees, transferees or substitutes; and

(k) Any reference to a document is a reference to that document as amended, novated, ceded or supplemented.

THE INSTITUTION

2. Name, status and physical location of the Institution

(1) The name of the Institution is the Durban University of Technology.

(2) The seat of the Institution is at 79 Steve Biko Road, Berea, Durban, 4001. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the University may carry out its functions beyond its seat on the campuses under its control.

(3) The Institution is a juristic person and, subject to the Act is capable of performing such acts as juristic persons may perform.

(4) Notwithstanding subparagraph (3) the Institution may not, without the concurrence of the Minister, dispose of or alienate in any manner, any immovable property or grant any real right therein or servitude thereto.

3. Constitution of the Institution

(1) The Institution consists of-

(a) the chancellor;
(b) council;
(c) senate;
(d) the vice-chancellor;
(e) the deputy vice-chancellors;
(f) the registrar;
(g) the SRC;
(h) the institutional forum;
(i) the faculties, the departments and such other academic structures of the Institution as may be determined by council;

(j) other staff;
(k) students;
(l) convocation; and

(m) such other offices, bodies or structures as may be established by council.
(2) No vacancies in any of the offices contemplated in subparagraph (1) or any vacancy or deficiency in the numbers or defect in the composition of the bodies contemplated in subparagraph (1) impairs or affects the existence of the Institution as a juristic person or any function or powers conferred upon the body or the Institution by this Statute or by the Act.

CHANCELLOR

4. Functions of the chancellor
(1) The chancellor is the titular head of the Institution.
(2) The chancellor, or in his or her absence, the person appointed to act on behalf of the chancellor in terms of paragraph 6(2), presides at all congregations of the Institution and, in the name of the Institution, confers all degrees and awards all diplomas and certificates.

5. Election of the chancellor
(1) The chancellor is elected by an electoral college.
(2) The composition of the electoral college is determined by the rules.
(3) The secretary to the electoral college must constitute the electoral college at least three months before the start of the term of office or whenever the office is vacant.
(4) The procedure for nominating candidates for election as chancellor and electing the chancellor are determined by the rules.
(5) A person is not eligible for nomination for election as chancellor or to hold or continue to hold office as chancellor if such person:
   (a) holds a political office at provincial or national level; or
   (b) is disqualified from being appointed or acting as a director of a company in terms of the Companies Act.

6. Term of office of the chancellor
(1) The chancellor holds office for 5 (five) years, or until he or she resigns, or dies, or is incapacitated, or until he or she ceases to qualify to hold office in terms of paragraph 5(5), or is disqualified in terms of the rules.
(2) If the chancellor is absent, or if the office is vacant, the vice-chancellor, or in his or her absence the acting vice-chancellor or a deputy vice-chancellor nominated by him or her, or failing them, such-other person as council may designate for the purpose, acts for the chancellor.
(3) Should a vacancy occur for whatever reason, the chancellor next elected holds office for 5 (five) years, or until he or she resigns, or dies, or is incapacitated, or until he or she ceases to qualify to hold office in terms of paragraph 5(5), or is disqualified in terms of the rules.
(4) The chancellor may be re-elected to one further 5 (five) year term of office.
COUNCIL

7. Powers and functions of council
   (1) Council governs the Institution in terms of the Act and this Statute.
   (2) Without derogating from the generality of subparagraph(1), council -
       (a) is the custodian of all property of the Institution;
       (b) appoints all staff of the Institution, but in the case of:
           (i) senior academic staff it may do so only on the recommendation of senate; and
           (ii) senior management it may do so only after considering advice from senate and the institutional forum;
       (c) must, subject to the policy determined by the Minister, with the concurrence of senate, determine the language policy of the Institution;
       (d) must, after consultation with the SRC, establish a structure to advise on the policy for student support services within the Institution;
       (e) must consider and approve the admissions and readmissions policy of the Institution as recommended by senate;
       (f) must consult the institutional forum as required by the Act;
       (g) may make, rescind or amend a statute and rules for the Institution in terms of the Act;
       (h) may establish committees of council, determine the composition and functions of such committees, and terminate the membership of any person it has appointed to such committee;
       (i) establishes, in consultation with senate, joint committees of council and senate to perform functions which are common to council and senate; and
       (j) may establish foundations and/or trusts and/or any other vehicles to advance the interests of the Institution.
   (3) Council may delegate or assign any of its powers and functions to -
       (a) a committee of council;
       (b) a member of council; or
       (c) any staff member of the Institution;
       except those powers and functions specified in paragraph (5).
   (4) Council remains accountable for the exercise and performance of any function delegated or assigned in terms of subparagraph (3).
   (5) Council may not delegate or assign any of the following powers and functions -
       (a) the final decision on the appointment of the vice-chancellor or any deputy vice-chancellor;
       (b) the approval of the annual operating and capital expenditure budgets;
       (c) the adoption of the annual financial statements and annual report;
       (d) the determination of academic and residence fees to be paid by students;
       (e) the making or approval of the statute and rules;
(f) the approval of conditions of service, the disciplinary provisions and the privileges and functions of staff;

(g) the determination, on the recommendation of senate, of academic structures and the functions of each structure, in order to ensure efficient governance;

(h) the approval of a loan, overdraft or acquisition and disposal of investments subject, where appropriate, to Ministerial approval; and

(i) the decision to embark on the construction of a permanent building or other immovable infrastructural development, the acquisition and disposal of immovable property, or entering into a long-term lease of immovable property subject, where appropriate, to Ministerial approval.

8. Composition of council

(1) Council consists of not more than 30 members, made up of-

(a) the vice-chancellor;

(b) a maximum of two deputy vice-chancellors, designated by the vice-chancellor;

(c) two members of senate elected by senate;

(d) one member of the permanent academic staff elected by that staff;

(e) one member of the permanent professional and administrative staff, elected by that staff;

(f) one member of the permanent support and service staff elected by that staff;

(g) two SRC members one of whom must be the SRC president;

(h) one member of the institutional forum elected by the institutional forum;

(i) five persons appointed by the Minister;

(j) one person appointed by the eThekwini Municipality;

(k) three persons elected by convocation;

(l) one person appointed by the M L Sultan Charitable and Educational Trust;

(m) nine persons appointed by council.

(2) At least 60 per cent of the voting members of council must be persons who are not staff or students of the Institution.

(3) No staff and no student may be elected or hold an appointment under subparagraphs (l)(i) to (m).

(4) A person elected, appointed or co-opted under subparagraphs (l)(i) to (m) who becomes a student or a staff member, forthwith ceases to be a member of council.

(5) The vice-chancellor, with the approval of the chairperson of council, or the chairperson of council may invite any person to attend any meeting of council in an advisory capacity or as an observer and such person does not have any voting rights.

9. Election of members of council

(1) The procedure for the election or appointment of members of council in paragraphs 8(1)(g), (h), (i), (j), (k), and (l) respectively, is determined by the bodies concerned.

(2) The procedure for the election of members of council in paragraphs 8(1)(c), (d), (e), (f), and (m) respectively is determined by the rules.
(3) A person is not eligible for nomination for election as a council member if such person is disqualified from being appointed, or acting, as a director of a company in terms of the Companies Act.

10. Term of office of council members

(1) The vice-chancellor remains a member of council for as long as he or she occupies the post.

(2) The term of office of the deputy vice-chancellors is for such periods as the vice-chancellor determines.

(3) The term of office of the SRC members is one calendar year, provided that when anyone of them ceases to be a SRC member, he or she shall forthwith cease to be a member of council.

(4) At the first meeting of a newly constituted council the term of office of twelve of the remaining twenty five members shall be determined to be three years and the term of office of the thirteen remaining members shall be determined to be four years. At the end of the three year period of membership of the aforesaid twelve members, or sooner should any of these positions become vacant for whatever reason, the period of membership of any person elected or re-elected to such position shall be four years.

(5) The determination process referred to in subparagraph (4) above shall be by lot.

(6) Subject to subparagraphs (1), (2), (3) and (4) above the term of office of all council members is four years.

(7) The appointment or election of a person as a member of council supercedes any subsequent elected office bearer position on council or any council committee.

(8) A member may serve more than one term of office as a council member.

11. Termination of membership and filling of vacancies

(1) A position on council becomes vacant if -

(a) a member resigns in writing;

(b) a member dies;

(c) the Minister, or entity who appointed or elected the member to council terminates the membership in writing, at any time before the expiry of the member's term of office;

(d) a member is absent from three consecutive ordinary meetings of council without a prior apology;

(e) a member is disqualified from being appointed or acting as a director of a company in terms of the Companies Act.

(f) a member's membership is terminated by council in terms of the rules and/or the code of conduct.

(2) In the event of a vacancy the secretary to council shall request the relevant authority or body to appoint or elect a new member.

(3) Council may suspend a member's membership or take disciplinary action against a member in terms of the rules and the code of conduct.

(4) If 75% (seventy five per cent) or more of the members of council resign at a meeting of council, it is deemed that council has resigned.

(5) If council resigns as contemplated in subparagraph (4), a new council must be constituted in terms of paragraphs 8, 9 and 10.

(6) The process referred to in subparagraph (5) shall be administered by the registrar in accordance with the rules.

12. Chairperson and vice-chairperson of council and secretary to council.

(1) Council must elect a chairperson and a vice-chairperson from among the members of council who are neither staff nor students.

(2) The term of office of the chairperson and of the vice-chairperson is two years, unless terminated earlier as determined by the rules.

(3) The chairperson presides at all meetings of council at which he or she is present.

(4) In the absence of the chairperson the vice-chairperson presides.

(5) If both the chairperson and the vice-chairperson are absent, council elects a chairperson for the meeting concerned from those members present who are neither staff nor students.

(6) The secretary to council shall be the registrar.

(7) The secretary to council must invite council to elect a chairperson and vice-chairperson at the first meeting of a newly constituted council or to fill the vacancy for the unexpired period of the term of office whenever a vacancy arises.

(8) When the term of office of the chairperson and/or vice-chairperson is due to expire the process for election shall be completed at council meeting immediately preceding the end of the relevant term of office in a manner determined by the rules. The outcome of the election will come into effect on conclusion of the meeting.

(9) When a vacancy arises for any reason other than subparagraph (8) the vacancy will be filled at the first council meeting thereafter in a manner determined by the rules. The outcome of the election will come into effect on conclusion of the election.

(10) When the term of office of the chairperson and/or vice-chairperson expires he or she is eligible for re-election if he or she is still a member of council.

13. Ordinary meetings

(1) The ordinary meetings of council must be held when and where council decides, and at least four ordinary meetings must be held each calendar year.

(2) The secretary to council must issue a written notice to each member of council at least seven days before each ordinary meeting of council setting out the place, date and time of the meeting, and the agenda for the meeting, but council may, if the chairperson so rules or, if such a ruling has not been made, a majority of the voting members present agree, consider any urgent matter of which notice was not given.

(3) At each ordinary meeting council must -
(a) confirm the minutes of the last ordinary meeting, and the minutes of any special meeting held since then, with or without amendment, the minutes to be taken as read if copies have been sent to members prior to the meeting; and
(b) deal with the business of which notice has been given and any other urgent matter agreed to in terms of subparagraph (2).

14. Special meetings

(1) Special meetings must be held –
(a) when called by the chairperson or, in his or her absence, by the vice-chairperson; or
(b) when a written request, for a special meeting, stating the object of the meeting, is received by the secretary to council from at least five members of council of whom at least three must be members who are not staff or students.

(2) At least three days’ notice must be given of a special meeting, unless, in the opinion of the chairperson or in his or her absence the vice-chairperson, there is an emergency that warrants a shorter period of notice.

(3) No matters other than those for which the meeting has been called may be dealt with at a special meeting.

15. Quorum and procedure at council meetings

(1) The quorum as determined at the start of a meeting of council is half of the total membership of council of which at least 60% (sixty per cent) of those present at the start of a meeting must be external council members.

(2) Once the quorum requirement has been met, a meeting will continue regardless of whether attendance falls below the quorum thereafter, unless the chairperson of council deems it inappropriate to continue with the meeting.

(3) Council members must participate in the deliberations of council in the best interests of the Institution, and in accordance with the rules of debate as approved by council and contained in the rules.

16. Financial and other interests of council members

(1) Any member of council or a committee of council who has a direct or indirect financial or personal interest in any matter to be discussed at a meeting must, before or during such meeting, declare such interest, and comply with such other rules and policies as council may adopt.

(2) After such declaration such member of council or a committee of council must excuse himself or herself from the meeting and any subsequent meeting at which the matter is to be discussed, and is not entitled to receive papers relating to the matter.

(3) A member of council cannot enter into any commercial transaction with the Institution.

17. Committees of council

(1) Council may establish committees to perform any of its functions but must establish -
(a) an executive committee;
(b) an audit committee;
(c) a finance committee; and
(d) a human resources committee.

(2) The composition, manner of election, functions, procedure at meetings and dissolution of a council committee are determined by the rules.

(3) Notwithstanding subparagraph (2) -

(a) at least 60% (sixty per cent) of the members of a committee contemplated in subparagraph (1) must be members of council who are neither staff nor students;
(b) the chairperson of a committee contemplated in subparagraph (1) may not be staff or a student; and
(c) the quorum as determined at the start of a meeting of a committee contemplated in subparagraph (1) is half of the total membership of the committee of which at least 60% (sixty per cent) of the members present at the start of a meeting must be persons who are neither staff nor students.

(4) A committee contemplated in subparagraph (1) may co-opt functionaries and/or experts onto such committee as non voting members to advise the committee on the matters before it.

(5) Notwithstanding subparagraph (4) council may appoint persons who are not council members to serve as voting members of a committee, where, in the opinion of council, council does not have among its ranks specialist skills required by a committee.

(6) Council may, in consultation with senate, or the institutional forum, establish such joint committees of council and senate and/or the institutional forum as may be necessary for the performance of particular tasks.

SENATE

18. Powers and functions of senate

(1) Senate is accountable to council for the academic and research functions of the Institution including quality assurance and must perform such other functions as may be delegated or assigned to it by council.

(2) Without derogating from the generality of subparagraph (1) senate -

(a) must organise and control the instruction, curricula, syllabuses, student assessments, examinations and research of the Institution;
(b) makes the rules for student assessments and examinations and must ensure that all assessments and examinations are conducted in accordance with these rules;
(c) makes rules prescribing the requirements for each degree, diploma and certificate;
(d) appoints assessors, examiners, supervisors and promoters for all student assessments, examinations, dissertations and theses;
(e) recommends to council -
   (i) the appointment of senior academic staff;
(ii) the language policy of the Institution;
(iii) the faculty to which each academic department, school or other academic structure belongs;
(iv) the awards of professorships and associate professorships;
(v) the awards of honorary degrees; and
(vi) any matters affecting the Institution that senate considers necessary.

(f) advises council on -
   (i) the appointment of senior management;
   (ii) the admissions and re-admissions policy of the Institution;
   (iii) disciplinary measures and rules concerning students; and
   (iv) the establishment and disestablishment of faculties, academic departments, schools and other academic structure.

3) Senate -
   (a) must carry out such other functions as council assigns to it;
   (b) must submit to council such reports on its work as may be required by council; and
   (c) makes recommendations to council on matters referred to it by council and on any other matter affecting the Institution as senate considers necessary.

4) Senate may by resolution -
   (a) establish committees of senate;
   (b) appoint to any such committee both members of senate and persons who are not members of senate;
   (c) disestablish any committee it has established; and
   (d) terminate the membership of a committee of any person it has appointed to any committee.

5) Senate may delegate or assign any of its functions to -
   (a) a committee of senate;
   (b) a member of senate; or
   (c) any officer of the Institution, provided that it may not delegate or assign a function delegated to it by council without council’s agreement.

6) Senate remains responsible for the performance of any function delegated or assigned in terms of subparagraph (5).

19. Composition of senate

1) Senate consists of -
   (a) the vice-chancellor;
   (b) the deputy vice-chancellors;
   (c) the executive deans of faculties;
   (d) the deputy deans of faculties;
   (e) the heads of academic departments or schools where appointed;
   (f) all staff as stipulated in the rules;
   (g) senior academic staff,
(h) one academic staff member from each recognised trade union appointed by such recognised trade union;

(i) three students appointed by the SRC at least one of whom must be a postgraduate student, and at least one of whom must be a member of the SRC;

(j) two members of council elected by council who are neither staff nor students;

(k) such persons as co-opted by senate who shall be voting members; and

(l) such persons as invited by senate who shall be non-voting members.

(2) The majority of members of senate must be academic staff of the Institution.

20. Election of members of senate

The procedure for the election of members of senate in paragraphs 19(h), (i) and (j) respectively, is determined by the bodies concerned.

21. Term of office of senate members

(1) The term of office of the students elected by the SRC is one calendar year provided that when anyone of them ceases to be a registered student at the Institution, they forthwith cease to be a member of senate.

(2) The terms of office of the elected members of senate must be determined by the respective electing bodies.

22. Office-bearers of senate

(1) The vice-chancellor is the chairperson of senate.

(2) In the absence of the vice-chancellor the acting vice-chancellor presides, failing the acting vice-chancellor, the deputy vice-chancellor (academic), failing the deputy vice-chancellor (academic), the meeting elects a chairperson for the meeting.

(3) The registrar is the secretary to senate.

23. Ordinary meetings

(1) Ordinary meetings must be held when and where senate decides and at least four ordinary meetings must be held each calendar year.

(2) The secretary to senate must issue a notice to each member of senate at least five days before the date of each ordinary meeting of senate, setting out the place, date and time of the meeting, and the agenda for the meeting, but senate may if the chairperson so rules or, if such a ruling has not been made, a majority of the voting members present agree, consider any urgent matter of which notice has not been given.

(3) At each ordinary meeting senate must -

(a) confirm the minutes of the last ordinary meeting, and the minutes of any special meeting held since then, with or without amendment, the minutes to be taken as read if copies have been sent to members at least five days prior to the meeting;

(b) deal with the business of which notice has been given and any other urgent matter agreed to in terms of paragraph 23(2); and

(c) deal with motions placed on the agenda as determined by the rules.
24. Special meetings
(1) Special meetings must be held -
   (a) when called by the chairperson or the acting chairperson; or
   (b) when a written request for a special meeting, stating the object of the meeting, is received by the secretary to senate from at least 30 members of senate.
(2) At least three day’s notice must be given of a special meeting, unless, in the opinion of the chairperson there is an emergency that warrants a shorter period of notice.
(3) No matters other than those for which the meeting has been called may be dealt with at a special meeting, except that senate may by a majority of the voting members present agree to consider any urgent matter of which notice has not been given.

25. Quorum and procedure at senate meetings
(1) The quorum at any meeting of senate is half the total membership of senate plus one of the members of senate.
