Tax Concerns

- Will the charity be required to promote?
- Unrelated Business Income – income from (i) a trade or business that is (ii) regularly carried on and (iii) is not substantially related to the organization’s exempt purpose
- One campaign of short duration – likely okay, but consider aggregate activities
Intellectual Property Issues
Intellectual Property Overview

- Trademark: Any word, name, symbol, device, or any combination, used or intended to be used to identify and distinguish goods/services.
  - Trademark protection is a function of both Federal and State law.

- Patent: Any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvements thereof is eligible for patent protection.
  - Patents are governed by federal law.

- Copyright: Original works of authorship are protected by copyrights.
  - Copyright protection is granted under Federal law.

- Trade Secret: Any confidential business information which provides an enterprise a competitive edge including sales methods, distribution methods, and manufacturing processes.
  - Trade secrets are protected by state law.
Facebook is a social networking site that aims to “make the world more open and connected”.

Facebook is every day becoming a more powerful marketing force with one study finding that consumers think a brand’s Facebook page is more useful than a brand’s website.

With more than 1 billion users posting and reposting content, Facebook usage presents numerous intellectual property issues.
Facebook Intellectual Property Policy

- prohibits users from posting content that infringes on another party’s property rights
Facebook Faux Pas

- Monitor Facebook for infringements.
  - Balance IP Protection with Reputation Protection
  - Enforce with Policy Statements, DMCA, Demand Letters, and Legal Proceedings
  - Examine and use Facebook Policies and Enforcement Mechanisms

- Retain express contractual control over use of trademarks by others.
  - Consider false associations
  - Consider what you will allow employees to post
  - Remember: Attribution to entity – actual or apparent

Facebook Faux Pas Cont’d

- Audit your own Facebook site
  - Get express consent to use other’s IP
    • Use clear placement of appropriate symbols- ©, ®, ™
  - Avoid using third-party trademarks in search terms, domain names, or user names
  - Be careful of false associations
  - Consider copyright ownership issues: Who owns posted content?

- Create and Implement An Effective Social Media Policy
Crowdsourced Fundraising Sites

- Crowdsourced Fundraising sites like crowdrise, razoo, and go fund me allow interested donors and donees to connect with one another over the internet.
- Fundraising efforts reach more potential donors than traditional means of fundraising.
Crowdsourced Fundraising

15 USC § 1125 - False designations of origin, false descriptions, and dilution forbidden

(a) Civil action

(1) Any person who, on or in connection with any goods or services, or any container for goods, uses in commerce any word, term, name, symbol, or device, or any combination thereof, or any false designation of origin, false or misleading description of fact, or false or misleading representation of fact, which—

(A) is likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive as to the affiliation, connection, or association of such person with another person, or as to the origin, sponsorship, or approval of his or her goods, services, or commercial activities by another person, or

(B) in commercial advertising or promotion, misrepresents the nature, characteristics, qualities, or geographic origin of his or her or another person's goods, services, or commercial activities, shall be liable in a civil action by any person who believes that he or she is or is likely to be damaged by such act.

Unauthorized use of a NFP’s name on Razoo.com or Crowdrise.org or a similar site may give rise to Lanham Act claims of false association.

Consider Monitoring these Sites.

Take down notices and operator enforcement mechanisms are possible responses when an unauthorized person is using sites and the named nonprofit is not receiving those funds.
Twitter

- Twitter is an information sharing social networking site
- Information is shared in “tweets” which are limited to 140 characters
- Tweets can be directed at particular users using their @username
- Tweets are spread across the internet through followers and users who retweet messages
- Conversation streams are categorized by #topic
Twitter Updates

- Avoid Trademark Misuse
  - Seek Permission.
  - Avoid Using Others’ Trademarks or Trade Dress in user names

- Twitter recently updated its policy on takedown requests

- Allegedly infringing tweets will be replaced with a message that the tweet was taken down in response to a request from a copyright holder
  - Consider the reputational harm from a take down notice vs. leaving the infringing material up
Pinterest is an online scrap book
- Users copy images and videos and “pin” them to their pinterest pages
- Pins are organized by topic on boards

Pinterest is the third most-visited social networking site in the US
Pinterest Considerations

- Pinterest website has a “do not pin” meta-tag available for users available on the Pinterest site
  - `<meta name="pinterest" content="nopin" />
  - Response: "This site doesn't allow pinning to Pinterest. Please contact the owner with any questions. Thanks for visiting!"

- “Pin Etiquette” asks that users credit their sources

- Monitor Pinterest for objectionable uses of protected intellectual property
  - Consider the dangers of false association
  - Pinterest is a good source of exposure
