Vacancies on the Sullivan County Youth Board
To be Posted on Sullivan County Website
January 27, 2016

The Sullivan County Youth Board acts in an advisory capacity regarding the activities of the Youth Bureau. The purpose of the Youth Board is to advise the Youth Bureau in the planning and implementation of youth programs, as well as assist in the coordination and supplementation of activities of public, and private agencies devoted to the welfare and protection of youth in Sullivan County.

The Sullivan County Youth Board may include representatives from the municipalities, county departments, public schools, community-based organizations, business, and labor. Two (2) board members shall be youth, and up to three (3) members may be at-large.

Responsibilities of the Sullivan County Youth Board:

- Make policy recommendations and advocate for programs for the prevention and control of delinquency and crimes by youth.
- Supplement and aid in coordinating activities of public, and private agencies devoted in whole or in part to the prevention of delinquency and youth crime, and serve as a consultant to such agencies.
- Encourage closer cooperation between employers, schools, churches, recreation commissions, service clubs, and other public and private agencies to stimulate employment for youth and encourage sound youth programs on the basis of community planning.
- Promote and encourage grants from the state, federal, or county governments or from private individual corporations or associations, and establish reasonable bases for recommending allocation of these funds to youth programs so as to serve most effectively the purpose and mandate of the Youth Bureau.
- Assist the Youth Bureau in devising, analyzing, accepting or rejecting plans for the creation or expansion of recreation and youth-service projects or other youth programs as defined by laws of the State of New York and make appropriate recommendations to the Sullivan County Legislature.
- Assist the Youth Bureau in collecting and analyzing statistical records and data.
- Assemble such advisory groups and committees as may be necessary to carry out its duties.
- Perform such other duties as may be mutually agreed upon with the Sullivan County Legislature.
Currently, the Sullivan County Youth Board has at least five vacancies.

The board meets eight times per year on the second Tuesday of the month at 3 pm. Meetings are scheduled for January, March, May, June, August, September, October, and November.

Anyone interested in serving on the Youth Board, please contact AnnMarie Martin, Clerk to the Sullivan County Legislature, Sullivan County Government Center, 100 North Street, P.O. Box 5012, Monticello, NY 12701 or (845)807-0435 or email annmarie.martin@co.sullivan.ny.us

Vacancies on the Sullivan County Agricultural and Farmland Protection Board
To be Posted on Sullivan County Website

The Sullivan County Agricultural and Farmland Protection Board (AFPB) was established by the Sullivan County Legislature in 1992. Under Article 25AA of the New York State Agriculture and Markets Law, counties are required to establish agricultural and farmland protection boards to assist in review of public land acquisition, review of non-farm projects within New York State Certified Agricultural Districts, formation and review of Agricultural Districts and the development and implementation of county and municipal agricultural and farmland protection plans.

The AFPB generally meets quarterly. During the thirty-day window to include viable agricultural land into the New York State Certified Agricultural Districts, which occurs annually in April, members meet more frequently and participate in site visits to evaluate applications for inclusion into the Agricultural Districts. In addition, during the eight-year comprehensive review of an Agricultural District, members meet to review proposed modifications and prepare recommendations for the County Legislature.

The County also updated their Agriculture and Farmland Protection Plan and the Board will be responsible for overseeing the implementation of the plan.

At this time there are three (3) open positions on the Sullivan County Agricultural and Farmland Protection Board:

- One position for an active farmer
- One position for an active farmer and/or other agricultural stakeholder and/or stakeholder from an organization dedicated to agricultural land preservation
- One position for an agri-business representative

New terms will be for four years, after a new appointment and confirmation by the Sullivan County Legislature.

The term “active farmer” is defined by the Agricultural and Farmland Protection Board as a person who actively farms land that he or she either owns or rents, and that falls within one of the following categories:

- not less than seven acres of land used as a single operation for the production for sale of crops, livestock or livestock products of an average gross sales value of ten thousand dollars or more; or,
- less than seven acres used as a single operation for the production for sale of crops, livestock or livestock products of an average gross sales value of fifty thousand dollars or more.

Interested persons should send a letter of interest and statement of qualifications to AnnMarie Martin, Clerk to the Sullivan County Legislature, Sullivan County Government Center, 100 North Street, PO Box 5012, Monticello, NY 12701 by December 11, 2015.

Vacancies on the County of Sullivan
Industrial Development Agency Board
January 7, 2014

The County of Sullivan Industrial Development Agency (IDA) currently has two vacancies on its nine member board.

The County of Sullivan IDA was created by an act of the New York State Legislature in 1970, as a public benefit corporation of the State of New York, under Section 906 of the General Municipal Law, to grant tax abatements and to help advance such projects. The County of Sullivan Industrial Development Agency’s primary goal is to promote economic welfare, recreation opportunities, prevent unemployment and economic deterioration, ensure the prosperity of Sullivan County’s inhabitants, and promote tourism and trade. The IDA also administers several business loan programs. Board members of the IDA are appointed by the Sullivan County Legislature. All board members are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement.

The Board has regularly scheduled meetings on the second Tuesday of each month at 10 AM in the County Legislature Office, at 100 North Street, Monticello, New York. Special meetings of the Board are occasionally required.

Potential board members should have familiarity with business matters and be cognizant of community and economic development issues within the County.

Interested persons should send a letter of interest and statement of qualifications to AnnMarie Martin, Clerk to the Legislature, Sullivan County Government Center, 100 North Street, P.O. Box 5012, Monticello, New York, 12701, or by email to: AnnMarie.Martin@co.sullivan.ny.us by February 5, 2014.

Vacancy on the Sullivan County Revolving Loan Fund Advisory Board
To be Posted on Sullivan County Website

The Sullivan County Revolving Loan Fund Advisory Board (RLFAB) is responsible for reviewing applications and business plans to determine eligible program participants for four loan programs administered by the Division of Planning & Environmental Management (DPEM) known as the Sullivan County Revolving Loan Fund (RLF).

The Sullivan County Revolving Loan Fund provides seed capital and early stage loans to eligible entrepreneurial companies who want to establish or expand businesses in various sectors in Sullivan County. Special consideration shall be given to assisting businesses owned and operated by persons of low-to moderate-income, as required by the program.

DPEM administers four different revolving loan program funds that assist various entrepreneurs looking to establish or expand businesses. The four programs are:
1. Agri-Business RLF
2. Agri-Business Micro-Enterprise RLF
3. Main Street Business RLF
4. Main Street Micro-Enterprise RLF

The RLFAB meets on an as needed basis, as applications are received on a rolling basis throughout the fiscal year. Meetings are generally held from 8AM – 9AM in the DPEM office. Meeting notice is generally two weeks prior but is dependent on Board member’s availability.

At this time there is one open position on the Sullivan County Revolving Loan Fund Advisory Board. Potential board members should have familiarity with business and financial planning and be cognizant of community and economic development issues within the County. Knowledge of agricultural issues and business is also a plus.

Interested persons should send a letter of interest and statement of qualifications to AnnMarie Martin, Clerk to the Legislature, Sullivan County Government Center, 100 North Street, PO Box 5012, Monticello NY 12701 by September 13, 2013.
Vacancies on the Sullivan-Wawarsing Rural Economic Area Partnership Board
To be Posted on the Sullivan County Website

The Sullivan-Wawarsing Rural Economic Area Partnership (REAP) Zone was established in 1999 by the United States Department of Agriculture and the United States Congress to address critical economic and community development needs in Sullivan County and the Town of Wawarsing. The REAP Zone works to address issues such as stagnant or declining employment, low-density settlement patterns, geographic isolation and disconnection from markets and centers of finance, continued population loss, and economic distress.

Currently there are vacancies on the Sullivan-Wawarsing REAP Board of Directors. The REAP Board generally meets quarterly, and terms are for three years. Membership on the Board is open to all residents of Sullivan County and the Town of Wawarsing who are over the age of 18. All interested persons must submit name and resume by September 13, 2013 to AnnMarie Martin, Clerk to the Legislature, 100 North Street, Monticello NY 12701. Sullivan-Wawarsing REAP is an Equal Opportunity Organization.
