Word Choice Activity #1: Minimum Wage DBQ

Write a brief paragraph that includes four (4) of the twelve words that you selected from the documents in order to help you write your essay. Although there should be no need to define the word in your writing, you should be sure to use it in the proper context.

If this is the second or third time doing this, you may not use the same words again.

Respond to the question below using the four words that you selected. Underline or circle each word when it’s used. Use your own ideas and information that you learned from the DBQ to answer the question. You do not have to cite any information since this is informal writing, but it would be helpful to support any claims that you make…

Should the United States raise the minimum wage?
(Take any position you like, you can switch with each Word Choice exercise)
Write a brief paragraph that includes four (4) of the twelve words that you selected from the documents in order to help you write your essay. Although there should be no need to define the word in your writing, you should be sure to use it in the proper context.

Words:

1.                        2.                         3.                        4.

If this is the second or third time doing this, you may not use the same words again.

Respond to the question below using the four words that you selected. Underline or circle each word when it’s used. Use your own ideas and information that you learned from the DBQ to answer the question. You do not have to cite any information since this is informal writing, but it would be helpful to support any claims that you make…

Should the United States raise the minimum wage?

(Take any position you like, you can switch with each Word Choice exercise)
Word Choice Activity #3: Minimum Wage DBQ

Write a brief paragraph that includes four (4) of the twelve words that you selected from the documents in order to help you write your essay. Although there should be no need to define the word in your writing, you should be sure to use it in the proper context.

Words:

1.
2.
3.
4.

If this is the second or third time doing this, you may not use the same words again.

Respond to the question below using the four words that you selected. Underline or circle each word when it’s used. Use your own ideas and information that you learned from the DBQ to answer the question. You do not have to cite any information since this is informal writing, but it would be helpful to support any claims that you make…

Should the United States raise the minimum wage?
(Take any position you like, you can switch with each Word Choice exercise)