WONDER WHAT’S GOING ON IN FREDERICKSBURG?
FOLLOW THE "CALL ME FRED" BLOG AT VISITFRED.COM
WITNESS MULTIPLE ERAS – FREDERICKSBURG and FALMOUTH were important Colonial ports on the Rappahannock River. The region manufactured munitions for the Revolutionary War, and Stafford’s Government Island supplied the sandstone used to build the U.S. Capitol and White House. During the Civil War, important battles in FREDERICKSBURG, CHANCELLORSVILLE, SPOTSYLVANIA COURTHOUSE and the WILDERNESS brought bloodshed and destruction to this area. George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln, Walt Whitman, Clara Barton and Robert E. Lee are just a few notable figures who spent time here.

SPEND A DAY OUTDOORS and do everything on your list. – Who says you have to choose golf, fishing, boating or hiking? If you’ve got a day or two to spend in the FREDERICKSBURG REGION, you’ll find all of these activities within an easy drive of each other, whether you’re planning a tubing trip on the RAPPAHANNOCK, a pontoon float on LAKE ANNA, 18 holes at the GAUNTLET GOLF CLUB or a scenic stroll along FREDERICKSBURG’S RAPPANNOCK RIVER HERITAGE TRAIL.

SEE ART IN NEW WAYS – You’ll find art everywhere you look in the Fredericksburg region. Visit BELMONT and learn about 20th-century painter GARI MELCHERS, who fell so in love with this area that his wife gave the couple’s impressive Georgian home to the state of Virginia to serve as a showplace of his work. Wander the streets of Downtown Fredericksburg on the first Friday evening of any month and discover the newest offerings from area artists in galleries, restaurants and shops. Take classes at area galleries or experience a show at RIVERSIDE CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS. Fredericksburg is truly an art-lover’s town.

BE AN ADVENTUROUS FOODIE – The Fredericksburg region is home to a highly creative community of chefs, many of whom own their own restaurants. The region is also filled with innovative ways to enjoy modern food and drink. You can dine on a rooftop at Downtown Fredericksburg’s VIVIFY, take a kayak tour with POTOMAC POINT WINERY or take a farmhouse cooking class at SPOTSYLVANIA’S MILLER FARMS MARKET.

THE FREDERICKSBURG REGION IS A PLACE TO FIND AUTHENTIC EXPERIENCES, ENDURING STORIES AND EXTRAORDINARY CONNECTIONS BETWEEN THE EVENTS OF THE PAST AND THE TASTES OF TODAY. HERE IS A LIST OF EXPERIENCES THAT TRULY DISTINGUISH A TRIP HERE FROM ANY OTHER JOURNEY.

ONLY IN FREDERICKSBURG

HISTORIC KENMORE
1201 Washington Ave., Fredericksburg, VA 22401

Kenmore, one of the most elegant colonial mansions in America, lies in the heart of historic Fredericksburg. Built by patriot Fielding Lewis and his wife, Betty (the sister of George Washington), the house contains some of the most elaborate plasterwork from Colonial America. It was crafted by an unknown artist who also completed plasterwork at Mount Vernon. Admission fee.

Hours: Open daily Mar - Dec except Easter Sunday, Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day and New Year's Eve.

Info: 540-373-3381 | www.kenmore.org

JAMES MONROE MUSEUM
908 Charles St., Fredericksburg, VA 22401

Our nation’s fifth president, James Monroe, began his illustrious career practicing law in Fredericksburg. The building, which dates to 1815, houses an amazing array of furnishings, artwork, and personal possessions of the nation’s fifth president and his family, displayed in an inspiring set of interpretive exhibits. Among the highlights of the collection is the famous “Monroe Doctrine Desk”, purported to be where Monroe wrote the doctrine that now carries his name. Admission fee.

Hours: Open daily except Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, New Year’s Eve and New Year’s Day.

Info: 540-654-1043 | jwmonroemuseum.umw.edu

MARY WASHINGTON HOUSE
1200 Charles St., Fredericksburg, VA 22401

George Washington bought this home for his mother in 1772 and she lived here near her daughter Betty’s home, Kenmore, the last 17 years of her life. Among the period furnishings are some of Mary’s personal possessions, including her “best dressing glass,” which she willed to her son George. Admission fee.

Hours: Open daily except Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, New Year’s Eve and New Year’s Day. Please allow 45 minutes for your visit.

Info: 540-373-1569 | www.washingtonheritagemuseums.org

RISING SUN TAVERN

1304 Caroline St., Fredericksburg, VA 22401

Built by Charles Washington in 1760 as his home, this building was later operated as a tavern – the only “proper” tavern in the bustling port of Fredericksburg. Today the “tavern wenches” and indentured servants at the Rising Sun entertain visitors as though they have just stepped off a stagecoach in a lively interpretation of 18th century tavern life.

Admission fee.

Hours: Open daily except Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, New Year’s Eve and New Year’s Day. Please allow 45 minutes for your visit.

Info: 877-371-1494 | www.washingtonheritagemuseums.org

HERE’S ONE THING YOU SHOULD NEVER FORGET TO BRING ON A TRIP TO THE FREDERICKSBURG REGION — YOUR APPETITE. THE LIST OF FOODIE-WORTHY RESTAURANTS AND FOOD STANDS IN THIS REGION GROWS EVERY YEAR. WHATEVER YOU’RE LOOKING FOR — FARM-TO-TABLE DINING, ETHNIC CUISINES, KID-FRIENDLY CAFÉS OR CLASSIC COMFORT FOOD — YOU’LL FIND IT HERE.

5 FAVORITE LOCAL HAUNTS

Eat like a local at these favorite hangouts, which have won loyal followings with their reliably good food and comfortable atmosphere.

1. AMY’S CAFÉ is a scenic retreat where you can ponder the glory days of the Colonial port of Falmouth while eating a crab-cake sandwich just steps from the Rappahannock River. The outdoor terrace is a great place to stop for a bite to eat or a draught beer.

   103 W. Cambridge St., Stafford 22405 | 540-373-3663

2. BASILICO has won over many a Fredericksburg eater with its artisan deli sandwiches and salads. Be sure to save room for dessert, though, as the cabinet full of Italian cakes, pastries and gelato offers some of the best sweet treats in Fredericksburg.

   www.basilicodeli.com | 2557 Cowan Blvd., Fredericksburg, 22401

3. GEORGE’S PIZZA has been a Spotsylvania tradition for decades. Sit down to a table in the no-frills dining room and prepare to be wowed by the amount of cheese on these pies, which lies somewhere between deep-dish Chicago and New York pizza styles. Try the baklava.

   www.georgespizzaplace.com | 5306 Plank Rd., Spotsylvania, 22407

4. THE LOG CABIN is a classic steakhouse, offering great seafood, a salad bar and cozy fireside dining. Housed in a log cabin on U.S. 1 in Stafford, this has been a local tradition since 1942. A great choice for a romantic meal.

   www.thelogcabinrestaurant.com
   1749 Jefferson Davis Hwy., Stafford, 22554

5. SUNKEN WELL TAVERN is a true local gathering spot, nestled in one of Downtown Fredericksburg’s charming neighborhoods. You’ll find a modern array of appetizers and farm-to-table dishes, quirky décor, a great brunch and popular Sunday-evening bluegrass jam.

   www.sunkenwelltavern.com
   720 Littlepage St., Fredericksburg, 22401

5 FAMILY-FRIENDLY EATERIES

Dining with kids? You’ve got some great options in the Fredericksburg region that have plenty to please parents, as well.

1. EILEEN’S BAKERY & CAFÉ serves breakfast and lunch in a restored 1833 church. This Downtown Fredericksburg café is a favorite among families with young children, known for its kids’ meals that feature julienned Granny Smith apples, kid-friendly seating areas and delicious food and pastries to please all ages.

   www.eileensbakeryandcafe.com | 1115 Caroline St., Fredericksburg, 22401

2. SAMMY T’S is an excellent choice for any group that includes diverse diets. You can get a great burger and fries here, but they’re also known for their wide selection of vegetarian and vegan dishes, many of which will appeal to omnivores, as well.

   www.sammyts.com | 801 Caroline St., Fredericksburg, 22401

3. UMI JAPANESE CUISINE is a good stop for those who eschew traditional kids’ menus. The bento meals here are excellent opportunities for kids to try a variety of new foods, and between fried tempura items and chicken teriyaki, there’s plenty to please any palate.

   www.umisushiva.com
   20 Dunn Dr., Stafford, 22556
   540-628-2086
   1500 Jefferson Davis Hwy, Fredericksburg, 22401
   540-373-3886

4. VINNY’S ITALIAN GRILL feels as welcoming as an Italian family kitchen, and has won over locals with its New York-style pizza and pasta, salads, soups and sandwiches. This is a crowd-pleaser with multiple locations in the region.

   www.vinnysofstafford.com
   397 Garrisonville Rd., Stafford, 22554;
   20 Plantation Dr. #135, Stafford, 22408;
   201 Kings Hwy., Stafford, 22405;
   11105 Leavells Road, Spotsylvania, 22407

5. VIRGINIA BARBECUE has all the makings of a classic Southern family supper. You’ll find several styles of barbecue, along with traditional slaw, potato salad, baked beans, corn bread muffins and much more.

   www.virginiabbq.com
   451 Jefferson Davis Hwy, Fredericksburg, 22401

5 BRUNCH AND BREAKFAST SPOTS

Mornings are delicious in the Fredericksburg region. Here are some great options for the most important meal of the day.

1. BUTTERNUT & BLUE BISTRO & BAKERY serves breakfast Tuesday through Saturday until 11 a.m. and Sunday brunch all day in Spotsylvania’s Courthouse Village. Enjoy hearty omelets, breakfast sandwiches and locally raised Papa Weaver’s pork in the sausage gravy and biscuits platter. Don’t forget to check out the goodies in the pastry case.

   7610 Heths Salient St., Ste. 104, Spotsylvania, 22553

2. CORNBREAD & CAVIAR begins serving breakfast at 8 a.m. on Sundays, and then opens up a larger brunch menu at 11 a.m. This family-owned eatery serves up home-style Southern favorites, including its own spin on eggs Benedict. Check the chef’s specials, which usually include some innovative dishes.

   570 Celebrate Virginia Pkwy., Ste. 103, Stafford, 22406  | 540-684-1300

3. COURTHOUSE CAFÉ serves classic diner food from the heart of historic Spotsylvania Courthouse. This is the place to go for a big breakfast, a bottomless cup of coffee and lots of local flavor.

   8955 Courthouse Rd., Spotsylvania, 22553

4. MASON-DIXON CAFÉ fills up for its weekend brunch offerings, which range from decadent shrimp and grits to the imaginatively named “Breakfast Club,” a sandwich made with two Belgian waffles, scrambled eggs, cheese, sausage and bacon.

   www.mason-dixoncafe.com | 2100 Princess Anne St., Fredericksburg, 22401

5. MERCANTILE is the second restaurant opened by chef Joy Crump, former contestant on Bravo’s Top Chef. With an interior embellished by local artist Gabriel Pons, artisan pour-over coffee and imaginative locally-sourced dishes, this is a foodie’s breakfast joint.

   205 William St., Fredericksburg, 22401
5 PLACES FOR PORTABLE FOOD

It’s true—the Fredericksburg region’s diverse array of attractions will keep you moving. Stay in motion with these foods you can take along for the adventure.

1. AGORA DOWNTOWN COFFEE SHOP makes a great cup of coffee, but don’t miss the bakery case in front, which is filled with hand-made muffins, pastries and sandwiches, many of them vegan and gluten-free (but far from flavor-free). Don’t miss the macarons.
   www.agoradowntown.com | 520 Caroline St., Fredericksburg, 22401

2. CARL’S FROZEN CUSTARD allows you to satisfy your sweet tooth while also visiting a National Historic Landmark. This retro frozen treat stand has been featured on national television programs. Try a soft-serve cone, shake or malt.
   2200 Princess Anne St., Fredericksburg, 22401

3. BENNY VITALI’S may be the only place where you can make an entire meal out of a single slice of pizza. The “Virginia Slice” has become a popular accessory for strolling downtown ever since this quirky and delicious place opened. Warning: If you purchase an entire 28-inch pie, you’ll need a large SUV to take it home.
   www.bennysva.com | 722 Caroline St., Fredericksburg, 22401

4. THE ICING BAKING CO. has a schedule for its cupcake flavors. Mondays and Tuesdays are the time to find S’mores and Caramel Apple versions of these handheld treats, and by the time the weekend hits, you’ll find the “Big Oink” bacon-maple combo, and the Girl-Scout-cookie-inspired Samoa. That’s just a small sampling of the entire list, so take your sweet tooth and find your favorite.
   www.theicingcakes.com | 261 Garrisonville Rd., Ste. 110, Stafford, 22554

5. SNACK SHACK is a throwback to the days before fast food was dominated by national chains. Belly up to the window and order a thick shake, fries and a Royal Burger to take with you on the road or enjoy at one of their picnic tables.
   8901 Courthouse Rd., Spotsylvania, 22553

Word is getting out. This is a great place to eat. Fredericksburg was named one of the state’s top foodie towns by VIRGINIA.ORG in 2015. Among the must-visit stops on their list were Downtown FREDERICKSBURG’S HYPERION ESPRESSO and BISTRO BETHEM and Stafford County’s ZUM RHEINGARTEN, a German restaurant.
