The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.

Isaiah 40.8
For 182 years—since December 1831—the Trinitarian Bible Society has been engaged in the publication and distribution of the Word of God. In the English language the Society publishes only the Authorised (King James) Version. This translation has been greatly used by Almighty God for the last four centuries throughout the English-speaking world, and continues to enjoy a worldwide reputation for its faithfulness and reliability. It is well known that the men who prepared this translation were blessed of God with remarkable spiritual and academic qualifications for their task; they were also privileged to base their work on the earlier labours of such men as William Tyndale. The Society continues to hold firmly to the belief that the Authorised Version is the most accurate and reliable version of the Holy Scriptures in English.

In recent years the Society has invested large amounts of time and money in Bible revision and translation projects in other languages, as it strives to publish and distribute the Holy Scriptures throughout the world in many languages. That this investment of resources is bearing fruit is evidenced by the publication in 2011 of the Nepali Bible and in 2012 of complete Bibles in Eastern Armenian, Ndebele and Maori. God willing, the Society plans to publish many more Gospels, New Testaments and Bibles in the coming years in a variety of languages covering all inhabited continents. Nevertheless, in whatever language it works, the Society seeks to promote only those Bible translations which are accurate and trustworthy, conforming to the Hebrew Masoretic Text of the Old Testament, and the Greek Textus Receptus of the New Testament, upon which texts the English Authorised Version is based.

The Society, adhering to the doctrines of historic Protestant Christianity, believes that the Holy Bible is the infallible, inerrant and authoritative Word of God. Unlike any other book, it is the Book of God.

‘All scripture’—every word in the Hebrew and Aramaic of the Old Testament and every word in the Greek of the New Testament—is ‘given by inspiration of God’ (2 Timothy 3.16). Although human authors were employed in the conveying of the Divine Revelation (and the distinctive style of these men is to be observed in their writings), these ‘holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost’ (2 Peter 1.21), resulting in a volume of which it can be truly said, ‘the words of the LORD are pure words’ (Psalm 12.6). The Society believes that the Bible, as the inspired Word of God, needs to be translated in a manner consistent with its Divine nature. For this reason the Society insists that its translations are ‘as literal as possible and only as free as is necessary’, and that they are based on the historically accepted Hebrew Masoretic and Greek Received texts, not on the critical editions which are so prevalent in translation work today. Although an often ignored point, the texts which the Society uses in its work have a history of use among the churches going back many centuries. In contrast, the Critical Texts are based on theories of textual criticism which only came to the fore in the nineteenth century. Sadly, the widespread use of such texts by other organisations has led to many omissions and changes to the text of Holy Scripture in the great majority of modern Bibles.

The Society takes its responsibilities very seriously and counts it a privilege to be engaged in the tasks of preparing, producing and publishing God’s Word in a pure form. We look to Him to enable us to continue in this work, 34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.
50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way, thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.
51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him saying, Thy son liveth.

Westminster Reference Bible
Authorised (King James) Version

The result of several years’ diligent work, the Westminster Bible contains more than two hundred thousand references from the Concord Bible and from John Brown of Haddington’s Self-interpreting Bible—references which allow Scripture to interpret Scripture.

Launched in 2012, the Westminster is proving very popular, with many mentioning its usefulness in their study of the Scriptures.

Hebrew and Greek Bible

The Hebrew and Greek texts underlying the Authorised Version

Page size: 174 x 117mm (6.9" x 4.6"); thickness: 39mm (1.5")
Print size: 9 points

God inspired His Word to be written in Hebrew and Aramaic in the Old Testament and Koiné Greek in the New Testament. The Trinitarian Bible Society is pleased to publish the Bible in these Biblical languages, providing in one volume the Scriptures in the tradition of those used during the Reformation. The text of the Old Testament is the Ginsburg/Bomberg Hebrew Text; the New Testament is the Greek Textus Receptus of F. H. A. Scrivener. We believe that this edition of the Holy Bible in the Original Languages will be useful not only to scholars and students, but to anyone wishing to have a complete edition of the texts underlying Reformation-era Bibles.

Features:
- Two marker ribbons
- Head and tail bands

Bible Word List and Reading Plan

The Bible Word List gives brief explanations of words in the Authorised Version that are unfamiliar, no longer in everyday use, or now used with a different meaning. The Daily Reading Plan is the M’Cheyne plan for reading through the whole Bible once in two years—the Psalms and New Testament twice.

Bible Features

Bible word list; Short glossary of Biblical usage: Brief explanations of words in the Authorised (King James) Version that are unfamiliar, no longer in everyday use, or now used with a different meaning.

Black text: Scriptures in which all the text is in black print, rather than having passages in red or other colours.

Chapter summaries: Summary of the content of each chapter at its beginning.

Clear print: Print designed so that its size and type provide excellent readability.

Concordance: Alphabetical list of words, used for locating a verse or identifying related material, listing places in the text where particular words may be found, with their chapter and verse.

Daily reading plan: This is the MCcHeyne plan for reading through the whole Bible once in two years—the Psalms and New Testament twice.

Epistle Dedication: The traditional dedication to King James I written by the translators of the Authorised (King James) Version.

Family record pages: Pages for recording family details such as names, births, deaths and marriages.

Gift presentation box; Presentation sleeve: Attractive box, slipcase or sleeve available with many luxury editions of the Bible, designed to protect the Bible.

Gift presentation page: Page at the front of the Bible for recording the name of giver and recipient, date and occasion on which the Bible was given.

Headings: Informative phrases given at intervals in the text, particularly in paragraphed format editions.

Illustrated photographs; Twelve pages of line drawings: Photographs or drawings of Biblical areas or items such as animals or plants.

Maps and gazetteer: Maps of Biblical locations; the gazetteer lists place names referenced on the maps.

Metrical Psalms: Psalms arranged for singing. Our edition is that approved by the Church of Scotland in 1650.

Paragraphed text: Biblical text divided into paragraphs.

Pocket size; Pocket edition: Small Bible or New Testament that fits in pocket or handbag.

References; Bold-figure cross references: System by which verses with a similar wording or theme are linked throughout the Bible. This may be located in the centre of the page or at the side margin. Some references are indicated by bold figures in the text.

Same page numbering: Bibles that have exactly the same page layout and numbering, but in a different size.

Self-pronouncing text; List of pronunciation of words and proper names: Texts or lists incorporating a phonetic system for indicating the way difficult words and names should be pronounced.

Translators to the Reader: The translators’ original preface to the 1611 Authorised Version.

Paper and Binding Specifications

Bands: Gold, silver, blind or raised bands across the spine of the Bible. Blind bands are impressed into the spine and not coloured.

Bible paper: Thin and strong, lightweight paper which reduces the thickness of the Bible and makes pages easier to turn.

Bonded leather: A reconstituted leather material using a predominance of leather fibre, bonded together with a strong resin.

Calfskin leather: A very strong and beautiful leather with an attractive grain.

Colour washed page; Silver edges; Gift edges: Page edges covered with gold- or silver-coloured foil, or coloured to complement the colour of the cover. Art gilt has a burnished gold appearance.

Flexible vinyl cover: A hardwearing vinyl-coated paper, producing a strong ‘paperback’ book.

Genuine leather cover: Cover made of a strong, attractive leather.

Goatskin leather: A top-quality, strong and flexible leather.

Goatskin leather boards: A hardback binding covered with goatskin leather.

Hardback Rexine leathercloth hardback: Heavy cardboard covered in attractive cloth, leather or vinyl.

Head and tail bands: A decorative band of cloth at the top and bottom of the spine to enhance the appearance of the Bible.

Imitation leather; Imitation leather-grain cover; Leather-grain cloth; Grained imitation leather; Soft imitation leather: A binding material designed or grained to resemble leather. Some editions have a hand-stitched look.

Marker ribbon: A fine quality ribbon for use as a bookmark. Some have two or four marker ribbons.

Paperback: Items bound in strong, heavy paper.

Pictorial hardback; Pictorial paperback; Pictorial cover: Cover displaying an attractive photograph.

Print size; Point size: Size of the print used in the text of Bibles and other publications, given in standard typographic points.

Quality sewn binding; Reinforced sewn binding: Bible binding which is sewn rather than glued.

Semi-yapp page protection: The overlapping edges of more expensive limp bindings, designed to protect the page edges.

Stitched decorative binding: Stitched soft imitation leather-grain finish; Stitched two-tone imitation leather: Soft, flexible material decorated with visible stitching.

Thumb index: Labelled cut-outs on the outer edge of the Bible’s pages designed to help locate the start of books.

Vinyl covered hardback; Vinyl covered lightweight board cover: A hardback (casebound) binding covered with a vinyl material.

Vinyl covered paperback: A heavy paper binding covered in strong, flexible vinyl.

Zip: A zip-fastener sewn onto three edges of the Bible, providing protection to the pages when not in use.

Terms and Conditions

Ordering: Please contact your nearest Branch, or see our website or order form for local ordering information.

How to pay: Most Branches will accept the usual methods of payment including major debit and credit cards. Contact your local Branch for information.

Price increases: See Price List. The Society has always endeavoured to keep prices low. However, occasional significant increases in production costs, particularly on Bibles, along with VAT rises, and the need for financial prudence on sales and trade, sometimes necessitate price increases on some items.

Discounts: Trade, mission, church and special discounts are available on request. Non-TBS stock carries a reduced rate of discount and some products may be sold net of all discounts.

Descriptions: We endeavour to be as accurate as possible in our description of goods. However, measurements are approximate, and all specifications are subject to change without notice.

Back order: We operate a back order system. Unless instructed otherwise, all order items not in stock when ordered will be placed in our back order system and sent as soon as new stock arrives.

Colours: Scriptures available in more than one colour will be supplied, as far as possible, in equal proportions of each colour unless order specifies otherwise.

Ownership: All goods remain the property of the Trinitarian Bible Society until payment has been received in full. Return of goods is a requirement in all cases of non-payment.

Stock sold in sets: If any item within a set is no longer available or is temporarily out of stock, the Society will make up the set using duplicates from the same or another set.

Availability: Check current price list for availability of items in local branches. N/A indicates not available.

The aims of the Society

- To publish and distribute the Holy Scriptures throughout the world in many languages.
- To promote Bible translations which are accurate and trustworthy, conforming to the Hebrew Masoretic Text of the Old Testament, and the Greek Textus Receptus of the New Testament, upon which texts the English Authorised Version is based.
- To be instrumental in bringing light and life, through the Gospel of Christ, to those who are lost in sin and in the darkness of false religion and unbelief.
- To uphold the doctrines of reformed Christianity, bearing witness to the equal and eternal deity of God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, One God in three Persons.
- To uphold the Bible as the inspired, inerrant Word of God.
- For the Glory of God and the Increase of His Kingdom through the circulation of Protestant or uncorrupted versions of the Word of God.
