“Special Tribunal” means the Special Tribunal established by section 21(1) of the Civil Service Act;

“spouse” includes a cohabitant;

“trainee” means a person who is undergoing initial training with a view to becoming a police officer.

PART II

ESTABLISHMENT AND STRUCTURE OF THE POLICE SERVICE

4. (1) The Trinidad and Tobago Police Service is hereby established constituting the public offices as set out in the Third Schedule.

(2) Every person who immediately before the commencement of this Act held or was acting in an office in the Police Service constituted under the former Act shall, as from the commencement of this Act, continue to hold or act in the like office in the Police Service constituted under subsection (1), by whatever title called.

(3) A reference to the Police Service or to any member thereof in any written law in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, as from the commencement of this Act, be read and construed as a reference to the Police Service constituted by this Act or to a member thereof.

5. The President may issue arms and ammunition to the Police Service, and any member thereof may carry and use the same for lawful purposes.

6. (1) The President may, by Order, amend the classification of offices set out in the Third Schedule.
(2) The classification of offices set out in the Third Schedule shall be the basis for any classification Order made under this section.

(3) The classification of offices set out in the Third Schedule shall be observed in all records and communications of the Commission, Commissioner, Auditor General, Treasury and in all departmental estimates and parliamentary returns and appropriations.

7. (1) The Police Service shall consist of two Divisions, that is to say—

(a) the First Division; and

(b) the Second Division.

(2) The First Division shall be the offices specified in the First Schedule and include such other offices as the President may, by Order, determine.

(3) The Second Division shall be the offices specified in the Second Schedule and include such other offices as the President may, by Order, determine.

8. (1) The President may, by Order—

(a) determine the pay in respect of an office in a grade;

(b) establish the allowances that may be paid in addition to pay;

(c) give effect to any agreement entered into between the Chief Personnel Officer on behalf of the Minister of Finance and the appropriate recognized association; and

(d) give effect to an award made by the Special Tribunal.

(2) An Order made in respect of matters specified in subsection (1)(a) and (b) shall be referred to as a Remuneration Order.
9. Except where the contrary is provided in a Remuneration Order, increases of pay that may be granted in respect of an office in a grade in accordance with the Remuneration Order shall be annual, but no increase of pay shall be made in respect of an office in a grade in which the police officer performing the duties of the office has not completed a period of twelve months continuous duty in that office.

PART III

APPOINTMENT OF TRAINEES

10. A person seeking to be a trainee may apply to the Commissioner in the form and manner prescribed.

11. A person making an application under section 10 shall satisfy the requirements prescribed.

12. (1) The Commissioner may appoint as a trainee a person applying under section 10, who satisfies the requirements prescribed.

(2) Subject to the regulations, a trainee shall be under the control of the Commissioner.

(3) Without prejudice to subsection (2), for the purpose of any law relating to the functions or vicarious liability of an employer, the Commissioner shall be treated as the employer of any trainee undergoing training with the Police Service.

(4) A trainee is not a worker as defined in the Industrial Relations Act.

13. Where a trainee fails to complete successfully a course of training approved by the Commissioner or for any reason is otherwise considered unfit to be a member of the Police Service, the Commissioner may summarily terminate his status as a trainee.
14. The Commissioner may make regulations as to the management and conditions of service of a trainee.

15. A trainee who successfully completes the approved course of training is eligible to be appointed as a constable on probation for the period prescribed.

PART IV

APPOINTMENT AND PROMOTION OF POLICE OFFICERS

16. (1) In the exercise of the powers vested in him by section 123A(2)(a) of the Constitution, the Commissioner shall take into account—

   (a) in the case of promotion to and within the First Division, the results of the Assessment Centre; or

   (b) in the case of promotion in the Second Division, the recommendations of the Promotion Advisory Board, when he makes an appointment on promotion.

17. (1) There is established an Assessment Centre, the members of which shall be prescribed.

   (2) There is established a Promotion Advisory Board which shall comprise five members as follows:

   (a) the Deputy Commissioner of Police with responsibility for Administration;

   (b) an Assistant Commissioner of Police;

   (c) the Human Resources Director of the Police Service;

   (d) a senior officer, who is not a police officer, from the Ministry of National Security, selected by the Minister; and

   (e) an independent management consultant, appointed by the Commissioner.
(3) The Commissioner shall engage a person who is not a police officer as Secretary to the Board.

(4) The appropriate recognized association may nominate a representative to be present as an observer at sittings of the Board.

(5) The Board shall sit as often as it thinks necessary, but at least twice per year, to consider promotions and notice of each sitting shall be given in a timely manner to the representative referred to in subsection (4).

18. (1) The Assessment Centre shall conduct an assessment of the suitability for promotion of a police officer in the First Division from the rank of Assistant Superintendent through and to Assistant Commissioner and shall submit its results to the Commissioner in relation to his functions under section 123A(2)(a) of the Constitution.

(2) The Board shall make recommendations to the Commissioner in relation to his functions under section 123A(2)(a) of the Constitution.

(3) The Commissioner may discuss with the Assessment Centre any results submitted under subsection (1) or with the Board any recommendation made under subsection (2).

19. (1) For the purpose of assessing the suitability for promotion to the rank of Assistant Superintendent through to Assistant Commissioner, the Assessment Centre shall take into account the procedure prescribed.

(2) At the conclusion of each sitting of the Board, the Chairman shall submit to the Commissioner the Board’s recommendations in the form of an Order of Merit List.
(3) The Secretary to the Board shall keep a record of the ratings given to every police officer who appears before the Board.

(4) A police officer is entitled to apply to the Board to be informed in writing of his ratings.

20. (1) To be eligible for promotion to the rank of—

(a) Assistant Superintendent through and to Assistant Commissioner, a police officer shall be assessed by the Assessment Centre taking into account the criteria prescribed;

(b) Constable through to Inspector a police officer is required to pass a qualifying examination.

(2) In considering the suitability for promotion of a police officer of the rank of Constable through to Inspector, the Board shall conduct an interview and take into account the criteria prescribed.

(3) In considering the suitability for promotion of a police officer of the rank of Constable through to Inspector, the Commissioner shall take into account the criteria prescribed.

21. (1) A police officer on first appointment shall serve the prescribed period of probation.

(2) If at any time before the end of the probationary period of a constable, the Commissioner has reasonable grounds to believe that the interest of the Police Service will not be served by retaining the constable, the Commissioner may summarily dismiss him.

(3) A constable who successfully completes his period of probation and who satisfies all other prescribed requirements is eligible to be confirmed as a constable.
(4) A police officer who is promoted shall serve the prescribed period of probation.

22. (1) The Commission may, having regard to the qualifications, experience, skills and merit of a person who is not in the Service, appoint on contract such a person as a police officer to the rank of Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner for any specified period.

(2) The Commissioner may, having regard to the qualifications, experience, skills and merit of a person who is not in the Service, appoint on contract such a person as a police officer for any specified period.

(3) The Commissioner may appoint on contract for any specified period and purpose a person who is not a police officer.

PART V

DISCIPLINE

23. (1) In the exercise of the powers vested in him by section 123A(2)(c) of the Constitution, the Commissioner shall comply with the procedures set out in the regulations.

(2) An appeal shall lie to the Commission from any decision of the Commissioner, or of any person to whom the powers of the Commissioner have been delegated, as a result of disciplinary proceedings brought against a police officer appointed by the Commissioner.

PART VI

DUTIES OF THE PERSONNEL DEPARTMENT IN RELATION TO THE POLICE SERVICE

24. (1) In addition to any duties or powers imposed or conferred by any other written law, the Personnel Department shall, in relation to the Police Service, carry out such duties as are imposed on it by this Act and without limiting the generality of the foregoing shall have the following duties:

(a) to maintain the classification of the Police Service;

(b) to keep under review the remuneration of police officers; and

(c) to provide for and establish procedures for consultation and negotiation between the Department and the appropriate recognized association in respect of—
   (i) the classification of offices;
   (ii) any grievances; and
   (iii) the terms and conditions of employment.

(2) The Minister of Finance may make recommendations with regard to the remuneration to be paid to police officers.

(3) The Minister of Finance shall, before making recommendations pursuant to subsection (2)—

(a) consider the requirements of the Police Service;

(b) take into account the rates of pay and other terms and conditions of employment prevailing in Trinidad and Tobago for similar work outside the Police Service and the relationship of the duties of the various grades within the Police Service; and

(c) be guided by the considerations set out in section 20(2)(a) to (f) of the Industrial Relations Act.

(4) Before making any recommendation under subsection (2), the Minister of Finance may require the Personnel Department to consult with representatives of the appropriate recognized association with respect to the matters specified in subsection (1).

25. Where the representatives of the appropriate recognized association request a consultation with respect to matters specified in section 24(1) or the Minister of Finance directs that such consultation is necessary and desirable, the Personnel Department shall consult with the representatives of such association in respect of those matters.

26. Where the Personnel Department consults and negotiates with representatives of the appropriate recognized association with respect to matters specified in section 24 at the request of such representatives, the Personnel Department and the appropriate recognized association are, within twenty-one days of the commencement of such consultation and negotiation, or within such further period as may be agreed upon, unable to reach agreement on any matter, the Personnel Department or the appropriate recognized association shall report the matter on which no agreement has been reached to the Minister of Finance, and on such report being made a dispute is deemed to exist as to the matter.

27. (1) Where the Personnel Department, before making proposals with respect to matters specified in section 24, does not consult with representatives of the appropriate recognized association, the Personnel Department shall submit the proposals to the appropriate recognized association for consideration and agreement.

(2) Where the Personnel Department and the appropriate recognized association are, within twenty-one days of the submission of the proposals as mentioned in subsection (1), or within such further period as may be agreed upon, unable to reach agreement on any matter, the Personnel Department or the appropriate recognized association shall report the matter on which no agreement has been reached to the Minister of Finance, and on such report being made a dispute is deemed to exist as to the matter.
28. (1) Where the Personnel Department and the appropriate recognized association reach agreement on any of the matters specified in section 24(1) after consultation and negotiation in accordance with section 26 or 27, the agreement shall be recorded in writing and shall be signed by the Chief Personnel Officer on behalf of the Minister of Finance and by a person designated by the appropriate recognized association on behalf of the association.

(2) An agreement recorded and signed in accordance with subsection (1) shall be binding upon the State and the police officers to whom the agreement relates.

29. Notwithstanding section 13(1) of the Civil Service Act, in the exercise of its duties and functions under sections 24, 25, 26, 27 and 28 of this Act, the Personnel Department shall be subject to the directions of the Minister of Finance.

30. (1) Where a dispute is deemed to exist under section 26 or 27, the Minister of Finance shall refer the dispute for settlement to the Special Tribunal within twenty-one days from the date on which the dispute was reported to him.

(2) Where the Minister fails to refer the dispute to the Special Tribunal within the time specified in subsection (1), the appropriate recognized association that is a party to the dispute may do so within twenty-one days from the date of the expiration of the time specified in subsection (1).

(3) For the purpose of this Act, the parties to a dispute shall be the Chief Personnel Officer and the appropriate recognized association.
31. (1) The Special Tribunal shall hear and determine any dispute referred to it under section 30 and shall make an award on the dispute.

(2) An award made by the Special Tribunal shall be final.

(3) In addition to taking into account any submission, argument and evidence presented or tendered by or on behalf of the appropriate recognized association and the Chief Personnel Officer, the Special Tribunal in its judgment shall be guided by the considerations set out in section 20(2)(a) to (f) of the Industrial Relations Act.

32. (1) An award made by the Special Tribunal under section 31 shall be binding on the parties to the dispute and all police officers to whom the award relates and shall continue to be binding for a period to be specified in the award, but not less than five years from the date upon which the award takes effect.

(2) The Special Tribunal may, with the agreement of the parties to an award, review such award at any time after the third anniversary of the making of such award.

PART VII
POLICE SERVICE ASSOCIATIONS

33. A police officer shall not be a member of any trade union, or any body or association registered under the Trade Unions Act.

34. Police officers may form associations, and such associations shall, subject to this Act, be recognized by the Minister of Finance as appropriate associations for consultation and negotiation in respect of any of the matters specified in section 24 and any other matters concerning police officers.
35. The President may make regulations setting out the conditions to be satisfied and the procedure to be adopted for the recognition by the Minister of Finance of associations formed pursuant to section 34.

36. (1) Every appropriate recognized association shall make rules providing for the administration of the association and for carrying out the objects of the association, and with respect to such rules the following provisions shall have effect:

(a) the rules shall contain provisions in respect of the several matters mentioned in the Fourth Schedule; and

(b) a copy of the rules and any amendment shall be delivered by the association to every police officer who is a member of that association on demand and on payment of the prescribed sum.

(2) The rules, including any amendment to such rules, of an association shall be filed with the Registrar General and have effect from the date on which they are filed unless some later date is specified from which they shall have effect.

37. (1) On any complaint in writing signed by not less than fifty financial members of an association representing police officers in the Second Division or, in the case of an association representing police officers in the First Division, not less than five financial members, respecting the rules or business of the association, the Registrar General shall inquire into the complaint and may either dismiss it or if, after giving the complainants and the association an opportunity of being heard, he finds the complaint to be justified may either—

(a) so declare, but make no order under this subsection; or

(b) make an order specifying the steps which the association must take to remove the cause for complaint.
(2) The Registrar General shall furnish to the appropriate recognized association a written statement, with reasons, for any decision which he gives under this section.

(3) A decision made by the Registrar General shall be binding on the association and failure to comply with such a decision shall render the association liable to withdrawal of recognition by the Minister of Finance.

(4) The Registrar General may order—

(a) the association to pay the complainant a specified sum out of the funds of the association; or

(b) a complainant to pay to the association a specified sum, in respect of the costs incurred by the complainant or the association, as the case may be, and such sum shall be recoverable summarily as a civil debt.

(5) In this section, “complainant” means a financial member who signs the complaint.

38. On the commencement of this Act, the police associations established under the former Act shall continue under this Act as if they were established under this Act.

PART VIII

GENERAL FUNCTIONS AND OBLIGATIONS OF MEMBERS OF THE POLICE SERVICE

39. A police officer shall not be debarred from voting at any election if, under the laws governing the said election, he has the right to vote.

40. A police officer is disqualified from membership of the Senate, the House of Representatives, the Tobago House of Assembly, or a Municipal Corporation.
41. (1) Subject to this section, a police officer shall not—

(a) in any public place or in any document or any other medium of communication, whether within Trinidad and Tobago or not, publish any information or express any opinion on matters of national security interest or national or international political controversy;

(b) be a scrutineer under the Representation of the People Act or the Tobago House of Assembly Act, 1996 or an election agent or an assistant to an election agent of a Parliamentary, Tobago House of Assembly, or Municipal candidate.

(2) Subsection (1)(a) shall not apply where—

(a) a police officer is acting in the execution of his official duties;

(b) the information or opinion is published in the course of a lecture or address, the subject matter of which is approved by the Commissioner, made or given at any educational institution in the bona fide pursuit of the professional activity of the police officer; or

(c) the information or opinion is expressed in an article or other literary contribution, the subject matter of which is approved by the Commissioner, to a journal or other periodical or document prepared in the bona fide pursuit of the professional activity of the police officer.

(3) In this section, “publish” means to communicate the information or opinion to any other person whether orally or in writing and includes the broadcasting of words and pictures by wireless telegraphy or any other means; and in relation to any writing means exhibiting in public or causing to be read or seen or showing or delivering or causing to be shown or delivered in order that the writing may be read or seen by any person.

42. (1) Every police officer of the First Division and every Inspector shall ex officio be a Justice of the Peace for Trinidad and Tobago, and shall take the oath of such a Justice.

(2) A police officer who is a Justice of the Peace shall at all times act ministerially for the purposes of the preservation of the peace, the prevention of crime and the detection and committal of offenders, and for carrying out the other objects of this Act, but he shall not in any way act as a judicial officer, either in any court or in any other manner, except when specially appointed so to act.

43. Every police officer shall have all such rights, powers, authorities, privileges and immunities, and is liable to all such duties and responsibilities, as any constable duly appointed now has or is subject or liable to, or may have or be subject or liable to under any written or unwritten law.

44. Where in any written law power is conferred upon a police officer of a certain grade, such power may lawfully be exercised by a police officer of a higher grade.

45. A police officer—

(a) shall preserve the peace and detect crime and other breaches of the law;

(b) may arrest, charge and bring before a summary court a person found committing any offence rendering him liable to arrest without warrant, or whom he reasonably suspects of having committed any such offence;
may summon before a summary court a person whom he reasonably suspects of committing an offence;

(d) may prosecute a person who commits any offence;

(e) shall serve and execute at any time, including Sundays, all process which he may be directed to serve or execute;

(f) shall keep order in and within the precincts and in the vicinity of all courts during all sittings of such courts;

(g) shall repress internal disturbances; and

(h) shall generally do and perform all the duties appertaining to the office of a constable.

46. (1) A police officer may arrest without a warrant—

(a) a person who is charged by another person with committing an aggravated assault in any case in which such police officer believes upon reasonable ground that such assault has been committed although not within his view, and that by reason of the recent commission of the offence a warrant could not have been obtained for the apprehension of the offender;

(b) a person who commits a breach of the peace in his presence;

(c) a person who obstructs a police officer while in the execution of his duty, or who has escaped or attempts to escape from lawful custody;
(d) a person in whose possession anything is found which may reasonably be suspected to have been stolen or who may reasonably be suspected of having committed an offence with reference to such thing;

(e) a person whom he finds lying or loitering in any public or private place or building and who does not give a satisfactory account of himself;

(f) a person whom he finds in any public or private place or building and whom he suspects upon reasonable grounds of having committed or being about to commit an offence; or

(g) a person found having in his possession without lawful excuse any implement of housebreaking.

(2) Without prejudice to the powers conferred upon a police officer by subsection (1), a police officer, and all persons whom he may call to his assistance, may arrest without a warrant a person who within view of such police officer commits an offence and whose name or residence is unknown to such police officer and cannot be ascertained by him.

47. Where a warrant has been issued in respect of a person charged with an offence, a police officer shall, notwithstanding that the warrant is not in his possession, arrest the person charged with the offence, but the warrant shall, on the demand of the person arrested, be shown to him as soon as practicable after his arrest.

48. When a warrant or order of a Magistrate or Justice is delivered to a constable, he shall, if the time will permit, deliver the same to the police officer under whose immediate command he is, and such officer shall direct one or more of the police officers under his command and such assistant as he thinks proper to execute such warrant or order, and every such warrant or order may be executed by any constable.

49. (1) When an action is brought against a police officer for an act done in obedience to a warrant or order of a Magistrate or Justice, the officer shall not be responsible for any irregularity in the issuing of the warrant or order or for any want of jurisdiction in the Magistrate or Justice issuing it.

(2) In any action brought under subsection (1), the court shall give judgment for the officer if he fulfils the following conditions:

(a) he gives the warrant or order in evidence;

(b) he proves that the Magistrate or Justice signed the warrant or order; and

(c) he proves that the act complained of was done in obedience to the warrant or order.

50. A police officer may take and record for the purpose of identification the measurement, photograph or fingerprint impression of a person who is in lawful custody but if such measurement, photograph or fingerprint impression is taken of a person who has not previously been convicted of a criminal offence, and such person is discharged or acquitted by a court, all records relating to such measurement, photograph or fingerprint impression shall on request be handed over to such person, or, where no such request is made within four months, be destroyed.

51. A person who applies to the Police Service for a certificate of character shall pay the prescribed fee to the police officer in charge of the police station at which the application is made.
52. A person who applies to the Police Service for an analysis of a fingerprint impression affixed to a document shall pay the prescribed fee to the police officer in charge of the police station at which the application is made.

53. (1) A police officer who—

(a) begins, raises, abets, countenances or incites a mutiny, or terrorist act or causes or joins in any sedition amongst the members of the Police Service; or

(b) knows of any actual or intended mutiny, rebellion, insurrection or terrorist act and does not without delay give information thereof to a police officer senior in rank, commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for ten years.

(2) A police officer who—

(a) being present at any assemblage tending to riot, does not use his utmost endeavours to suppress the same;

(b) assaults a judicial officer or police officer senior in rank;

(c) draws or lifts, or offers to draw or lift, any weapon or offers any violence against any such judicial officer or police officer senior in rank;

(d) wilfully permits the escape of a prisoner;

(e) uses unnecessary violence to or ill-treats any prisoner;

(f) pawns, sells, makes away with, abandons or wilfully spoils or damages his arms, accoutrements, clothing or any public property, or fails to take action in a case where a serious offence has been committed or where he has witnessed a serious offence, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of thirty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for five years.

54. Unless he is specially authorized to do so by the regulations, no police officer is entitled to keep or use for his private benefit any article that has been supplied to him at the public expense, but he shall hold every such article at the order and disposal of the State.

55. (1) A police officer who is dismissed from the Police Service, or resigns his office, or otherwise leaves the Police Service, shall forthwith deliver over to the person authorized by the regulations or appointed for that purpose every article which has been supplied to him at the public expense and which he has not been expressly authorized to keep or use for his private benefit.

(2) A police officer who contravenes this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

(3) A Magistrate or Justice may issue a warrant to search for and seize any article mentioned in subsection (1) which is not so delivered, wherever it may be found.

56. A person who has in his possession any article which has been supplied at the public expense to a police officer, and which the police officer has not been expressly authorized to keep or use for his private benefit, and who does not satisfactorily account for its possession commits an offence, and may be arrested without warrant by any police officer and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.
57. (1) When a police officer dies, the person in whose custody, control or possession is any article which has been supplied at the public expense to such police officer for the execution of his office, shall, after due notice by any police officer, deliver up to the person appointed for that purpose any such article.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to any article that the officer has been expressly authorized to keep for his private benefit.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for one year.

(4) A Magistrate or Justice may issue a warrant to search for and seize any article mentioned in subsection (1) which is not so delivered over, wherever the same may be found.

58. (1) Where any property has come into the possession of the Police Service in connection with any criminal charge or under section 29 of the Pawnbrokers Act, a summary court may, on application either by a police officer or by a claimant of the property, make an order for the delivery of the property to the person appearing to the court to be the owner of it or, if the owner cannot be ascertained, make such order with respect to the property as the court thinks fit.

(2) An order under this section shall not affect the right of any person to take within six months from the date of the order legal proceedings against any person in possession of property delivered by virtue of the order for the recovery of the property, but on the expiration of those six months the right shall cease.
(3) Where property has come into the possession of the Police Service—

(a) under subsection (1); or

(b) in respect of which the owner cannot be ascertained and no order has been made with respect to it by a court,

it shall be dealt with as follows:

(i) if the property is a perishable article, or its custody involves unreasonable expense or inconvenience, it may be sold as soon as convenient after it has come into the possession of the Police Service;

(ii) if the property consists of money, it shall be dealt with as provided in this section with regard to the proceeds of a sale after it has remained in the possession of the Police Service for three months; or

(iii) in the case of any other property the same may be publicly sold at auction as soon as possible after it has remained in the possession of the Police Service for three months and has been advertised in two local daily newspapers for three consecutive days.

(4) The proceeds of the sale shall, after deduction of expenses, be paid immediately to the Comptroller of Accounts who shall deposit it to the credit of the Award Fund.
(5) Where property has been found by a person, other than a police officer, and no provision is made for it to be dealt with by law and it has not been claimed by the real owner it may be delivered to the finder on his claiming it, but such delivery to the finder shall not be made until it has remained in the possession of the Police Service for three months.

(6) Where property found under subsection (5) is of such a nature that it necessitates an immediate sale, it shall be sold immediately and the proceeds of the sale shall be deposited with the Comptroller of Accounts who shall credit it to the Award Fund.

(7) Where the owner of the proceeds mentioned in subsection (6) have not claimed it after three months, it may be delivered, less any expenses, to the finder on his claiming it.

(8) In all cases in which property deposited with the Police Service or the proceeds thereof is delivered to the finder, he may be required to execute a bond of indemnity to the Police Service in respect of the delivery.

59. A person who assaults, obstructs, or resists a police officer in the execution of his duty, or aids or incites another person so to assault, obstruct, or resist a police officer or a person assisting the police officer in the execution of his duty, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

60. If a person is called upon to assist a police officer who is, while in the execution of his duty, assaulted or resisted or in danger of being assaulted or resisted, and such person refuses or neglects to assist accordingly without reasonable cause, he is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars and to imprisonment for one year.
61. (1) A person who—

(a) knowingly harbours or entertains or, either directly or indirectly, sells or gives any intoxicating liquor to a police officer who is on duty;

(b) knowingly permits a police officer to remain in his house, except in case of extreme urgency, when on duty; or

(c) by threats or by offer of money, gift, intoxicating liquor or any other thing, induces or endeavours to induce a police officer to commit a breach of his duty, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifteen thousand dollars and to imprisonment for one year.

(2) If a person, who is the owner or occupier of premises licensed under the Liquor Licences Act or is employed in connection with the business of any such premises, is convicted under this section, the record of the proceedings shall be forwarded to the licensing committee which granted the licence, and the owner or occupier is, in addition to any other penalty under this section, liable to have his licence forfeited or suspended by that licensing committee.

(3) On the trial of a complaint in respect of an offence under this section, if the other facts constituting the offence are established, it shall not be necessary to prove knowledge or intention, but the onus of disproving it shall lie upon the defendant.

62. A person, other than a police officer, who without the written authority of the Commissioner—

(a) puts on or assumes, either in whole or in part, the uniform, name, designation or description of a police officer, or a uniform, name, or designation, resembling and intended to resemble the uniform, name or designation of a police officer; or
(b) in any way pretends to be a police officer for any purpose which he would not by law be entitled to do of his own authority, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of thirty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for three years.

63. (1) A person who, for the purpose of obtaining admission into the Police Service, knowingly—
   (a) uses or attempts to pass off a forged or false certificate, letter or other document; or
   (b) makes a false answer to a question which is put to him by a police officer, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars and to imprisonment for one year.

(2) A police officer may arrest without warrant a person whom he reasonably believes has committed an offence under this section.

64. Where a police officer lays an information or makes a complaint against a person, any police officer of or above the rank of sergeant may appear before the Magistrate or Justice who is trying or enquiring into the matter of the information or complaint, and shall have the same privileges as to addressing the Magistrate or Justice, and as to examining the witnesses adduced in the matter, as the police officer who laid the information or made the complaint would have had.

65. The Award Fund continued under the former Act shall continue to be kept by the Commissioner and administered in accordance with this Act, and shall be appropriated to the payment of such—
   (a) gratuities and awards as the Commissioner may direct to be paid to a police officer;
   (b) compassionate gratuities to the spouse and children of a police officer as, in exceptional circumstances, the Commissioner may allow;
(c) compassionate gratuities to any person dependent on a deceased police officer, other than his spouse and children as, in exceptional circumstances, the Commissioner may allow;

(d) award as, under section 67, a Judge of the High Court or Magistrate may grant to a police officer;

(e) special compensation as the Commissioner may award to a police officer for injuries he sustained in the performance of his function; or

(f) sums as may become payable to finders of property sold under section 58.

66. (1) The Awards Board (herein referred to as “the Board”) established under the former Act shall continue under this Act as if it is established under this Act.

(2) The Board shall meet at least once in every quarter to consider and recommend awards in accordance with section 65.

(3) The appropriate recognized association is entitled to submit recommendations for awards to the Commissioner who shall transmit them to the Board for its consideration.

67. If, during the trial of a criminal case, the Judge or Magistrate before whom the case is being tried is of the opinion that a police officer has distinguished himself in apprehending or detecting and bringing to justice the perpetrator or abettor of any crime, the Judge or Magistrate is entitled to grant an award, not exceeding five hundred dollars, to the police officer; and such an award shall be paid on the certificate of the Judge or Magistrate.
68. (1) All fines or penalties imposed upon a police officer under this Act shall be retained from his pay by the deduction of no more than half the amount which may be due to him on any day of payment until the whole be paid, and shall be paid to the credit of the Award Fund.

(2) A bribe or gift of money coming into the possession of a police officer or the value of any goods given as a bribe to a police officer shall be paid to the credit of the Award Fund.

69. (1) The Commissioner shall—

(a) keep an account of all moneys paid into and disbursed from the Award Fund;

(b) submit to the Auditor General at the end of each month a statement showing all receipts and disbursements;

(c) state in the statement the reasons and authority for each disbursement; and

(d) deposit all moneys received for the credit of the Award Fund as soon as practicable in a financial institution, approved by the Minister.

(2) When the sum standing to the credit of the Award Fund exceeds fifty thousand dollars the Commissioner shall decide to what purpose the surplus shall be put.

PART IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

70. (1) Notwithstanding any written law to the contrary, the Canteen steward of a police Canteen and the secretary of a Mess Committee may sell intoxicating liquor to police officers and honorary members in any such Canteen or Mess without having previously obtained a licence for that purpose.
The Canteen and Mess Committee shall make rules in regard to the hours during which a Canteen or Mess shall be kept open for the sale of intoxicating liquor and for the proper management and control of Canteens and Messes.

A police Canteen or Mess shall be managed by a Canteen or Mess Committee respectively, which shall consist of the Deputy Commissioner, Administration, as Chairman, and such other members as may be determined by the Chairman and the appropriate recognized association.

(2) Every police station is deemed to be a lock-up in which a person charged with an offence may be temporarily confined.

(2) In every police station there shall be provided a secure place of confinement.

A police officer shall, on his first appointment, take and subscribe the oath or affirmation of office and secrecy set out in the Fifth Schedule.

A police officer may leave the Police Service only by the modes prescribed.

(1) A police officer in the Second Division shall retire from the Police Service on his attaining the age of fifty-five years but may, with the approval of the Commissioner, be permitted to retire on his attaining the age of fifty years.

(2) A police officer in the First Division shall retire from the Police Service on his attaining the age of sixty years, but may—

(a) at his option; or

(b) at the instance of the Commissioner, retire from the Police Service at any time after he has attained the age of fifty-five years.
(3) Subject to subsection (2), a police officer in the First Division who has attained the age of fifty years may, with the approval of the Commissioner, be permitted to retire from the Police Service at anytime after he has attained that age.

(4) The functions of the Commissioner under subsections (2) and (3) shall, in relation to the Commissioner and a Deputy Commissioner, be performed by the Commission.

75. Notwithstanding section 74 and any other written law—

(a) the President may in relation to a police officer in the First Division; or

(b) the Commissioner may in relation to a police officer in the Second Division, where he considers it in the national interest, extend the years of service of the police officer after he has reached the prescribed age of retirement, for a period of one year in the first instance and thereafter, subject to an annual review, for a maximum of two further periods of one year each.

76. When a police officer dies the Minister shall order that three months salary of the officer, from the date of his death, shall be paid to his spouse, children or other next of kin.

77. (1) On the death of a police officer to whom any sum of money may then be due on account of salary or pension chargeable on the revenue of the State, the Minister may, by Order, on being satisfied of the expediency in such case of dispensing with the production of a grant of probate or letters of administration, cause such sum to be paid to a person he considers entitled to it, without requiring the production of the grant of probate or letters of administration.
(2) A payment made under subsection (1) is valid against any person and a person acting under this section is absolutely discharged from all liability in respect of any money paid to him under this section.

78. The President may make regulations, subject to the affirmative resolution of the House of Representatives, to give effect to the purpose of this Act, and in particular for the following matters:

(a) for prescribing classifications for offices in the Police Service, including qualifications, duties and remuneration;

(b) for prescribing the procedure for appointments from within the Police Service;

(c) for prescribing periods of probation;

(d) for prescribing the procedure for the recovery of any penalty from a police officer;

(e) for regulating the hours of attendance of police officers and the keeping and signing of records of attendance or for prescribing other methods of recording attendance;

(f) for regulating the duties to be performed by police officers;

(g) for regulating the granting of leave to police officers;

(h) for prescribing arrangements and procedures for providing, assisting in or co-ordinating staff development programmes;
the appointment, training and discipline of the police officers;

the description and issue of arms, ammunition, accoutrements, uniform and necessaries to be supplied to the Police Service;

for prescribing the procedures for pensions, gratuities and injury allowance to be granted in respect of the services of police officers;

for prescribing and providing for the use of powers under this Act;

for regulating generally the terms and conditions of employment, including temporary employment and employment on contract; promotion, secondment, transfer and removal from office; and generally, for the good order and management of the Police Service.

79. (1) All legal or disciplinary proceedings pending, under the former Act prior to the coming into force of this Act shall continue as if this Act had not been passed.

(2) All decisions made or issued or in force or all things done under the former Act prior to the coming into force of this Act shall continue to have full force and effect as if commenced, made, issued or done under this Act.

80. The Police Service Act is repealed.
