PREFACE

We are pleased to present the 2011 Edition of the California Alcoholic Beverage Control Act. This compilation of selected laws incorporates all changes required by legislative enactments up to and including Chapter 733 of the second year of the 2009–2010 Regular Session and the Fifth, Sixth, and Eighth Extraordinary Sessions.

We appreciate the opportunity to work with the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to create this publication. The Department’s regulations, contained in Division 1 of Title 4 of the California Code of Regulations, are also set out in this edition.

Included herein is a Table of Sections Affected which may be utilized to facilitate research into recently enacted legislation affecting these Codes. Through the use of state-of-the-art computer software, attorney editors have created the comprehensive descriptive word index to include the enactments of the 2010 legislature.

I. IN GENERAL

Neither expressly nor impliedly was war power abrogated or limited by Twenty-first Amendment. Jatros v Bowles (1944, CA9 Mich) 143 F2d 453.

When Secretary of State of United States received duly authenticated official notice from requisite number of states, ratification of Twenty-first Amendment was consummated and became, to all intents and purposes, part of Federal Constitution; Secretary's proclamation certifying states which had ratified Amendment was official notice to world of what had happened and was conclusive upon courts, so as to preclude judicial review of validity of action of state convention called to consider Amendment. Chase v Billings (1934) 106 Vt 149, 170 A 903.

2. Effect of repeal of Eighteenth Amendment

Repeal of Eighteenth Amendment rendered National Prohibition Act unconstitutional and inoperative, even as to pre-existing offenses. Massey v United States (1934) 291 US 608, 78 L Ed 1019, 54 S Ct 532.

Qualifications placed on Tenth Amendment by adoption of Eighteenth Amendment have been abolished. United States v Constantine (1935) 296 US 287, 80 L Ed 233, 56 S Ct 223, 35-2 USTC P 9655, 36-1 USTC P 9009, 16 AFTR 1137 (wrt as stated in United States v Smith (1952, SD Cal) 106 F Supp 9, 42 AFTR 437); United States v Kesterson (1935) 296 US 299, 80 L Ed 241, 56 S Ct 229, 35-2 USTC P 9656, 36-1 USTC P 9010, 16 AFTR 1143.

Repeal of Eighteenth amendment by Twenty-first Amendment deprived Congress of power to legislate on subject of Eighteenth Amendment or to continue in force statutes based thereon, and repeal being without savings clause, pending prosecutions, either in trial court or on appeal, were suspended. Green v United States (1933, CA9 Idaho) 67 F2d 846.

Conviction under count not based on National Prohibition Act was not annulled by repeal of Eighteenth Amendment. Kajander v United States (1934, CA5 Fla) 69 F2d 222; Shelton v United States (1934, CA5 Fla) 69 F2d 223, cert den (1934) 293 US 574, 79 L Ed 672, 55 S Ct 86.

Repeal of Eighteenth Amendment pending appeal from conviction for violating National Prohibition Act required reversal of conviction.
There is no provision in Twenty-first Amendment which restricts power of Congress over commerce in intoxicating liquors carried on without violation of state laws, or which denies to Congress power to legislate in aid of state prohibitions. Arrow Distilleries, Inc. v. Alexander (1940, CA9) 109 F2d 397, cert den (1940) 310 US 646, 84 L Ed 1412, 60 S Ct 1095.

Twenty-first Amendment does not deprive national government of all authority to legislate in respect to interstate commerce in intoxicants. Washington Brewers Institute v United States (1943, CA9 Wash) 137 F2d 964, cert den (1943) 320 US 776, 88 L Ed 465, 64 S Ct 89, Jatros v Bowles (1944, CA6 Mich) 143 F2d 453; State v Hall (1944) 224 NC 314, 40 SE2d 158.

The repeal of Eighteenth Amendment did not utterly deprive Congress of power to legislate in field of intoxicating liquors. Old Monastery Co. v United States (1945, CA4 SC) 147 F2d 905, cert den (1945) 326 US 734, 90 L Ed 437, 66 S Ct 44.

Congress has power to regulate intrastate activities in alcoholic liquor trade because such activities substantially affect interstate commerce. Haen v United States (1956, CA8 Minn) 235 F2d 710, cert den (1956) 352 US 880, 89 L Ed 437, 66 S Ct 102.

Twenty-first Amendment simply withdraws exclusive control of Congress, under Commerce Clause, over commerce in intoxicating liquors; since police powers of Virgin Islands remain limited by 15 USC § 3, which is based on plenary power of Congress to govern territories, Virgin Islands Alcoholic Beverages Fair Trade Law which conflicts with 15 USC § 3 is invalid. Norman's on the Waterfront, Inc. v Wheatley (1971, CA3 VI) 444 F2d 1011, 1971 CCH Trade Cases P 73606, 15 FR Serv 2d 184 (criticized in Kendall-Jackson Winery, Ltd. v Branson (2000, CA1 Ill) 212 F3d 995).

Eleventh Amendment did not bar liquor store's suit seeking declaration that Maryland's regulatory scheme for liquor wholesales violated Sherman Act since plaintiff was not seeking damages but declaratory and injunctive relief on basis of violation of federal law, and complaint was sufficiently narrow that it did not impinge on state's sovereignty under Twenty-first amendment. TPWS, Inc. v Schaefer (2001, CA4 Md) 242 F3d 198, 2001-1 CCH Trade Cases P 73183.

Twenty-first Amendment does not surrender power of Congress to prohibit or regulate transportation of intoxicating liquor in interstate commerce, and Congress has power to enact legislation to execute Amendment and to penalize its violations. Duckworth v State (1941) 201 Ark 1123, 148 SW2d 656, affd (1941) 314 US 390, 86 L Ed 294, 64 S Ct 1131, 138 ALR 1144.

II. STATE POWER TO REGULATE INTOXICATING LIQUORS

A. In General

4. Generally

Twenty-first Amendment conferred upon state power to forbid all intoxicating liquor imports which do not comply with conditions which state prescribes; state may adopt lesser degree of regulation than total prohibition, State Bd. of Equalization v Young's Market Co. (1936) 299 US 59, 89 L Ed 38, 55 S Ct 77, reh den (1936) 299 US 623,
Amend. 21

CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

Although case for upholding state regulation in area covered by Twenty-first Amendment is undoubtedly strengthened by Amendment, other constitutional provisions are not rendered inapplicable by amendment. White v Fleming (1975, CA7 Wis) 522 F2d 730, 11 BNA FEP Cas 619, 10 CCH EPD P 10313.

Analysis of validity of state law regulating liquor does not proceed via traditional route for testing constitutionality of state statutes, rather courts must proceed from vantage point of presumed state power and then ask whether there are any limitations to that power, always keeping in mind that where intoxicating liquors are concerned, great deference must be accorded comprehensive state regulatory scheme; federal laws have prevailed over state regulation of intoxicating liquors in only 2 circumstances: (1) where state regulation was repugnant to overriding national concern with due process and equal protection, and (2) where state had sought to invade area of exclusive federal concern such as federally owned installations, regulation of commerce with foreign nations, and taxation of imports from foreign countries. Castlewood International Corp. v Simon (1979, CA9 Fla) 596 F2d 638, vacated on other grounds (1980) 446 US 949, 64 L Ed 2d 806, 100 S Ct 2914.

State law dealing with sale of alcoholic beverages has priority, under Twenty-First Amendment, when in conflict with federal regulation placing burden on commerce and alcohol which state wishes to avoid, absent federal interest of sufficient magnitude. Wine Industry of Florida, Inc. v Miller (1980, CA5 Fla) 609 F2d 1167.

Police power of states over intoxicating liquors was extremely broad prior to Twenty-first Amendment, and broad sweep of that Amendment has been recognized as conferring something more than normal state authority over public health, welfare, and morals. Arizona State Liquor Bd. v Poulos (1975) 112 Ariz 119, 558 P2d 393.

State may absolutely prohibit manufacture, transportation, sale, or possession of intoxicants, and may adopt measures reasonably appropriate to effectuate these inhibitions and exercise full police authority in respect to them. Francis v Fitzpatrick (1943) 129 Conn 619, 30 A2d 552, 145 ALR 505.

On account of inherent and potential menace to public welfare caused by liquor business, police power to regulate it is of far greater scope and power than is directed toward ordinary business activity; Twenty-first Amendment allows exercise of very broad police powers by states with respect to alcoholic liquors; under Twenty-first Amendment, states may either absolutely prohibit manufacture, sale, or possession of such liquors within their borders or may permit these activities under conditions prescribed by their legislatures. Ruppert v Liquor Control Com'n. (1952) 138 Conn 669, 88 A2d 388.

Under Twenty-first Amendment, state may absolutely prohibit manufacture, transportation or importation, sale, or possession of alcoholic liquors irrespective of when or where produced, or use to which they may be put, and may adopt measures reasonably appropriate to effectuate these inhibitions and exercise full police authority in respect to them, and this greater power to prohibit includes lesser power to permit under definitely prescribed conditions. State v Payne (1958) 183 Kan 396, 327 P2d 1071.

State or local regulation in field of alcoholic beverages under Amendment 21 must not be discriminatory and must not conflict with other provisions of Constitution. Baxter Springs v Bryant (1979) 226 Kan 383, 598 P2d 1051.

Under Twenty-first Amendment, state has full and complete control over all matters relating to intoxicating liquors within its borders; it is purely within prerogative of state to say whether or not citizen shall possess or use intoxicating liquor; regulation pertaining to sale, possession, or use of intoxicating liquors does not violate constitutional rights of any citizens. State v Wood (1966, Miss) 187 So 2d 820.

Under § 2 of Twenty-first Amendment, any state can prohibit transportation or importation of intoxicating liquors into its territory. State v Epps (1938) 213 NC 708, 197 SE 580.

Since adoption of Twenty-first Amendment, states may prohibit inhabitants from importing intoxicating liquor for their own use. Riggins v District Court (1955) 89 Utah 183, 51 P2d 645.

5. Effect of commerce clause

Like other provisions of Federal Constitution, Twenty-first Amendment and commerce clause must each be considered in light of other and in context of issues and interests at stake in any concrete case. Hostetter v Idlewild Bon Voyage Liquor Corp. (1964) 377 US 324, 12 L Ed 2d 350, 84 S Ct 1293.

State of New York could not prohibit sale at airport of liquor purchased outside of state to departing international travelers for delivery at their foreign destinations; although state, by virtue of provisions of Twenty-first Amendment, is totally unconfined by traditional commerce clause limitations when it restricts importation of intoxicants destined for use, distribution, or consumption within its borders, nevertheless Twenty-first Amendment does not obliterate commerce clause so far as to empower state to prohibit absolutely passage of liquor through its territory, under supervision of United States Bureau of Customs, for delivery to consumers in foreign countries; state may not totally prevent transactions carried on under agony of law passed by Congress in exercise of its explicit power under Federal Constitution to regulate commerce with foreign nations. Hostetter v Idlewild Bon Voyage Liquor Corp. (1964) 377 US 324, 12 L Ed 2d 350, 84 S Ct 1293.

By virtue of Twenty-first Amendment, state is totally unconfined by traditional commerce clause limitations when it restricts importation of intoxicants destined for use, distribution, or consumption within its borders. Heublein, Inc. v South Carolina Tax Comm’n (1972) 409 US 275, 34 L Ed 2d 472, 97 S Ct 483; United States v State Tax Com’n. (1973) 412 US 363, 37 L Ed 2d 1, 93 S Ct 2183.

There is no bright line between federal and state powers over liquor; although the Twenty-first Amendment grants states virtually complete control over whether to permit importation or sale of liquor and how to structure the liquor distribution system, and although the states retain substantial discretion to establish other liquor regulations under the Amendment, those controls may be subject to federal commerce power under the commerce clause of the Constitution (Article I, § 8, cl. 3 in appropriate situations, and the reconciliation of competing state and federal interests in such regard can be made only after careful scrutiny of those concerns in a concrete case. California Retail Liquor Dealers Ass’n v Midcal Aluminum, Inc. (1980) 445 US 97, 65 L Ed 2d 233, 100 S Ct 937, 1980-1 CCH Trade Cases P 63201.

Federal Government retains authority under Commerce clause to regulate even interstate commerce in liquor notwithstanding fact that Twenty-First Amendment reserves to states power to impose burdens on interstate commerce in intoxicating liquors. Capital Cities Cable, Inc. v Crisp (1984) 467 US 691, 81 L Ed 2d 580, 104 S Ct 2694, 10 Media L R 1873.

Twenty First Amendment does not entirely remove state regulation of alcoholic beverages from ambit of Commerce clause; question in determining validity of state liquor tax that discriminates against interstate commerce is whether principles underlying Twenty First Amendment are sufficiently implicated to outweigh Commerce clause principles that would otherwise be offended. Bacchus Imports v Dias (1984) 468 US 263, 82 L Ed 2d 200, 104 S Ct 3049 (criticized in Ala. Alcoholic Bev. Control Bd. v Henri-Duval Winery, L.L.C. (2003, Ala) 890 So 2d 70).

State liquor tax that imposes 20 percent excise tax on sales of liquor at wholesale, and from which certain locally produced alcoholic beverages are exempt, violates Commerce clause because it has both purpose and effect of discriminating in favor of local products, and it is not saved by Twenty First Amendment because, while it violates central tenet of Commerce clause, it is not supported by any clear concern of Twenty First Amendment in combating perceived evils of unrestricted traffic in liquor. Bacchus Imports v Dias (1984) 468 US 263, 82 L Ed 2d 200, 104 S Ct 3049 (criticized in Ala. Alcoholic Bev. Control Bd. v Henri-Duval Winery, L.L.C. (2003, Ala) 890 So 2d 70).

Twenty-First Amendment does not entirely remove state regulation of alcohol from reach of commerce clause; rather, each of these constitutional provisions must be considered in light of other and in context of issues and interests at stake in any concrete case. Brown-Forman Distillers Corp. v New York State Liquor Authority (1986) 476 US 573, 90 L Ed 2d 552, 106 S Ct 2080 (criticized in Grant’s Dairy -- Maine, LLC v Commissioner of Me. Dep’t of Agric., Food & Rural Resources (2000, CA1 ME) 232 F3d 8).

Although Twenty-First Amendment to Federal Constitution grants states virtually complete control over whether to permit importation or sale of liquor and how to structure liquor distribution system, states’ powers under Amendment are circumscribed by other provisions of Constitution, such as commerce clause; in harmonizing state and federal powers, question is whether interests implicated by state regulation are so closely related to powers reserved by Amendment that regulation may prevail, notwithstanding that its requirements directly conflict with express federal policies. 324 Liquor Corp. v Duffy (1987) 479 US 335, 95 L Ed 2d 667, 107 S Ct 720, 1986-2 CCH Trade Cases P 67391.

Twenty-first Amendment did not immunize state laws from invalidation under Commerce Clause (Art I, § 8, cl. 3) when those laws have practical effect of regulating liquor sales in other states, for purposes of state statute requiring brewers and importers of beer to affirm that their posted prices for products sold to in-state wholesalers were as of time of posting no higher than prices at which they sold those products in bordering states. Healy v Beer Inst. (1989) 491 US 324, 105 L Ed 2d 275, 109 S Ct 2491.

States’ power to regulate importation of intoxicating liquor under U.S. Const. amend XXI, § 2, does not allow states to ban, or severely limit, direct shipment of out-of-state wine while simultaneously authorizing direct shipment by in-state producers in violation of prohibition against discrimination in interstate commerce under U.S. Const. art. I, § 8, cl. 3. Granholm v Heald (2005, US) 161 L Ed 2d 796, 125 S Ct 1885, 18 FLW Fed S 263.

Twenty First Amendment protects state which chooses to impose burden on sale of alcohol which would be impermissible under on Commerce Clause if item burdened was not alcohol. Wine Industry of Florida, Inc. v Miller (1980, CA5 Fla) 609 F2d 1167.

State law authorizing sale of newly defined wine product in grocery stores if produced exclusively from grapes grown in state is clearly protectionist measure which violates commerce clause and which cannot be saved by § 2 of Twenty-first Amendment. Loretto Winery, Ltd. v Duffy (1985, CA9 NY) 761 F2d 140.

North Carolina’s regulatory preference of in-state wine manufacturers discriminates against out-of-state wine manufacturers and sellers, in violation of dormant Commerce Clause and preference is not supported by any clear concern of Twenty-first Amendment, and therefore, is not saved by Twenty-first Amendment. Beskind v Eaaley (2003, CA4 NC) 325 F3d 506, 116 ALR5th 665 (criticized in Swedenburg v Kelly (2004, CA2 NY) 358 F3d 223).

Because of absence of identical restriction on Texas wineries, Texas’s statutory prohibition against out-of-state wineries directly selling and shipping wine to Texas consumers was constitutionally defective under Commerce Clause, and enjoinement of administrator of Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission from enforcing challenged provisions was appropriate remedy. Dickerson v Bailey (2003, CA5 Tex) 336 F3d 388 (criticized in Swedenburg v Kelly (2004, CA2 NY) 358 F3d 223).

Second Circuit considers scope of grant of authority of U.S. Const. amend. XXI, § 2, to states to determine whether challenged state is within ambit of that authority such that it is exempted from effect of dormant Commerce Clause, U.S. Const. art. I, § 8, cl. 3; inquiry should not allow protective doctrine of dormant Commerce Clause to subordinate plain language of Twenty-first Amendment and should instead be sensitive to manner in which these two constitutional forces interact in light of impact Twenty-first Amendment has on dormant Commerce Clause concerns. Swedenburg v Kelly (2004, CA2 NY) 358 F3d 223, revd, remanded (2005, US) 2005 US LEXIS 4174.

District court improperly granted summary judgment to out-of-state winery proprietors in their action seeking declaration that N.Y. Alco. Bev. Cont. Law § 102(1)(c), (d), was facially unconstitutional under Commerce Clause, U.S. Const. art. I, § 8, cl. 3, where state’s alcohol regulatory regime, insofar as N.Y. Alco. Bev. Cont. Law § 102(1) (c), (d), related to direct shipment of wine to New York consumers, was properly within scope of U.S. Const. amend. XXI, § 2, such that it was exempted from normal operation of Commerce Clause, U.S. Const. art. I, § 8, cl. 3, or, more precisely, from dormant Commerce Clause. Swedenburg v Kelly (2004, CA2 NY) 358 F3d 223, revd, remanded (2005, US) 2005 US LEXIS 4174.
Because Twenty-first Amendment grants states virtually complete control over whether to permit importation or sale of liquor and how to structure liquor distribution system, and because dormant Commerce Clause only prevents state from enacting regulation that favors in-state producers and thus discriminates against interstate commerce. Personal Import Exception to state's Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, Va. Code Ann. § 4.1-100 et seq., does not violate Commerce Clause. Brooks v Vassar (2006, CA Va) 462 F3d 341.

Personal Import Exception to state's Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, Va. Code Ann. § 4.1-100 et seq., is not economic protectionism but part of state's import regulation, as it provides de minimis exception to state's import regulations, allowing consumers to import one gallon or four liters of wine for personal consumption (under no economic construct could such provision be considered economic protectionism of local industry because it actually amounts to disadvantage local wineries whose wine may only be purchased through retailers); accordingly, Personal Import Exception does not violate dormant Commerce Clause. Brooks v Vassar (2006, CA Va) 462 F3d 341.

Regulating alcoholic beverage retailing was largely State's prerogative under Twenty-first Amendment, and limited rights Texas gave state-licensed alcoholic beverage retailers to make deliveries did not transgress Dormant Commerce Clause by requiring that only retailers with physical presence in Texas could deliver to consumers in Texas; challenge by plaintiff out-of-state wine retailers against Tex. Alco. Beh. Code Ann. §§ 100(1), 102(1)(a), and 102(1)(b), which prohibit out-of-state wine retailers from selling and delivering wine directly to New York consumers, are valid exercise of state's rights under Twenty-first Amendment, U.S. Const. amend. XXI, § 2, and are not state's Commerce Clause, U.S. Const. art. I, § 8. Because regulatory scheme mandates that both in-state and out-of-state liquor pass through same three-tier system before ultimate delivery to consumer, Arnold's Wines, Inc v Boyle (2009, CA2 NY) 571 F3d 185.

State's exercise of its power under Twenty-first Amendment to regulate transportation through its territory of intoxicating liquors destined for another state. Atkins v Manning (1949) 206 Ga 219, 56 SE2d 260.

Kan. statutes which do not prohibit but only reasonably regulate transportation of intoxicating liquors across state and are not in conflict with any federal statutes regulating interstate shipments of intoxicating liquors, do not violate Commerce Clause or Twenty-first Amendment. State v Goldberg (1946) 161 Kan 174, 166 P2d 664.

State has power under Twenty-first Amendment to forbid all importations of liquor which do not comply with state regulations, and state is relieved of limitations of Commerce Clause. Ruppert v Morrison (1952) 117 Vi 83, 85 A2d 584.

6. Effect of Supremacy Clause

When state regulations squarely conflict with accomplishment and execution of full purposes of federal law, and state's central power under Twenty-first Amendment for regulating times, places, and manner at import exception may be imported and sold is not directly implicated, balance between state and federal power tips decisively in favor of federal law, and enforcement of state statute requiring cable television operators to delete all advertisements for alcoholic beverages contained in out-of-state signals that are retransmitted is barred by Supremacy clause. Capital Cities Cable, Inc v Crisp (1984) 467 US 691, 81 L Ed 2d 580, 104 S Ct 2694, 10 Media L R 1873.

7. Effect of equal protection clause

Since adoption of Twenty-first Amendment, equal protection clause of Fourteenth Amendment is not applicable to intoxicating liquor; under Twenty-first Amendment, discrimination against imported liquor is permissible even if it is not incident of reasonable regulation of liquor traffic. Mahoney v Joseph Triner Corp. (1938) 304 US 401, 82 L Ed 1424, 58 S Ct 952 (ovrd as stated in Bacchus Imports v Dias (1984) 468 US 263, 82 L Ed 2d 200, 104 S Ct 3049) and (criticized in Granholm v Heald (2005, US) 2005 US LEXIS 4174).

Invidious gender-based discrimination against males 18-20 years of age contained in state statutes prohibiting sale of 3.2 percent beer to males under age of 21 and to females under age of 18 is not saved from invalidation as denial of equal protection of the laws in violation of Fourteenth Amendment by virtue of power of states to regulate alcoholic beverages under Twenty-first Amendment, which does not recognize, even indirectly, classifications based upon gender. Craig v Boren (1976) 429 US 1124, 51 L Ed 2d 574, 97 S Ct 1161 and (ovrd as stated in Wilson v McBeath (1991, WD Tex) 1991 US Dist LEXIS 21124) and (criticized in UPS Worldwide Forwarding v United States Postal Serv. (1995, CA3 Del) 66 F3d 621) and (criticized in North Shore Concrete & Assoc. v City of New York (1998, ED NY) 1998 US Dist LEXIS 6785).

State statute imposing on nonresident brewers requirements which were not imposed on brewers who resided within state did not violate equal protection clause; classification recognized by Twenty-first Amendment cannot be deemed forbidden by Fourteenth Amendment. Ruppert v Liquor Control Com. (1932) 138 Conn 669, 88 A2d 388.

Twenty-first Amendment does not empower state to invade constitutional rights guaranteed by equal protection clause of Fourteenth Amendment; however, failure of state statute dealing with sales of liquor to include wines and malt beverages did not constitute invidious discrimination in violation of equal protection clause. Federal Distillers, Inc v State (1975) 304 Mins 28, 229 NW2d 144, app dismd (1975) 423 US 908, 46 L Ed 2d 137, 96 S Ct 2099, 96 S Ct 210.

8. Effect of due process clause

State's exercise of its power under Twenty-first Amendment to prohibit or regulate liquor traffic within its borders, insofar as such regulations discriminate against or impose special burdens on activities and persons involved in such traffic, is not generally limited by due process clause of Fourteenth Amendment, at least where state's regulations are reasonably appropriate to effectuate its Twenty-first Amendment powers. Indianapolis Brewing Co v Liquor Control Com. (1939) 305 US 391, 83 L Ed 243, 59 S Ct 254 (criticized in Granholm v Heald (2005, US) 2005 US LEXIS 4174); Ziffrin, Inc v Reeves (1939) 308 US 132, 84 L Ed 128, 60 S Ct 163 (criticized in Granholm v Heald (2005, US) 2005 US LEXIS 4174); State v Payne (1958) 183 Kan 396, 327 P2d 1071.

Twenty-first Amendment does not prevent Congress from exercising its spending power in conditioning a portion of state's... federal highway funds on state's adoption of minimum drinking age of 21; while amendment in no way increased Congress' authority to legislate with respect to liquor, amendment did not limit or withdraw Congress' ability to exercise authority over its existing delegated powers, including spending power. South Dakota v Dole (1986, CA8 SD) 791 F2d 628, affd (1987) 483 US 269, 97 L Ed 2d 171, 107 S Ct 2793.

Twenty-first Amendment does not empower states to invade constitutional rights guaranteed by due process clause of Fourteenth Amendment; however, statute regulating sale of liquor did not employ constitutionally impermissible presumption violative of due process. Federal Distillers, Inc. v State (1975) 304 Minn 28, 229 NW2d 144, app dismd (1975) 423 US 908, 46 L Ed 2d 137, 96 S Ct 209, 96 S Ct 210.

9. Power over lands subject to federal jurisdiction

Though Twenty-first Amendment may have increased power of states as to regulation of importation of intoxicating liquors, it did not increase jurisdiction of state so as to extend to possession of national government lying within state, jurisdiction over which possession is in national government. Collins v Yosemite Park & Curry Co. (1938) 304 US 518, 82 L Ed 1502, 58 S Ct 1009; Johnson v Yellow Cab Transit Co. (1945, CA10 Okla) 137 F2d 274, affd (1944) 321 US 383, 88 L Ed 814, 64 S Ct 622.

With respect to concessionaire which operated hotels, camps, and stores in national park, exclusive jurisdiction was in United States, so that state was without power to regulate alcoholic beverages and Twenty-first Amendment was not applicable. Collins v Yosemite Park & Curry Co. (1938) 304 US 518, 82 L Ed 1502, 58 S Ct 1009.

Section 2 of Twenty-first Amendment was designed only to augment powers of state to regulate importation of liquor destined for use, distribution or consumption in its own territory, not to increase its jurisdiction; absent appropriate express reservation, Twenty-first Amendment confers no power on state to regulate, whether by licensing, taxation, or otherwise, importation of distilled spirits into territory over which United States exercises exclusive jurisdiction; state's interest in regulating importation into state of liquor purchased by individuals on military bases did not extend its territorial jurisdiction so as to permit regulation of transactions between distillers and post exchanges, ship stores, and officers' clubs; thus, state lacked power to regulate liquor sold to officers' clubs, ship stores, and post exchanges located on military bases within state under exclusive jurisdiction of United States. United States v State Tax Com. (1973) 412 US 363, 37 L Ed 2d 1, 93 S Ct 2183.

Twenty-first Amendment does not preclude imposition of state sales tax on liquor sales on military installations within state over which state shares concurrent jurisdiction with United States. United States v Tax Comm’n of Mississippi (1975) 421 US 599, 44 L Ed 2d 404, 95 S Ct 1872.

B. Particular Regulations

10. State monopoly on importation or sale

Twenty-first Amendment completely removed any possible doubt as to constitutionality of state statute vesting in state liquor control commission power to import liquor into state, and permitting no person to buy or sell liquor except by or through commission. State v Arluno (1936) 222 Iowa 1, 268 NW 179.

In view of Twenty-first Amendment, commerce clause of Constitution was not violated by state statute prohibiting sale of intoxicating liquor by private individuals or corporations, and providing for sale thereof by state through system of stores. State v Andre (1936) 101 Mont 366, 54 P2d 566.

11. Licenses, permits, fees or taxes

Under Twenty-first Amendment, state could constitutionally enact legislation providing that only common carriers licensed by state would have right to transport locally manufactured intoxicating liquors out of state. Ziffrin, Inc. v Reeves (1939) 308 US 132, 84 L Ed 128, 60 S Ct 163 (criticized in Granholm v Heald (2005, US) 2005 US LEXIS 4174).

State statute confining business of transporting intoxicating liquors through state to those who are licensed as common carriers is reasonable regulation. Cartlidge v Rainey (1948, CA5 Tex) 168 F2d 841, cert den (1948) 335 US 885, 93 L Ed 424, 69 S Ct 237.

Although state was operating in its "core" power under § 2 of Twenty-First Amendment to Constitution, it did not retain power to implement laws governing transfer of liquor license despite existence of prior federal tax lien; issue involved primacy of federal tax over state license rather than regulation of liquor, and state's ability to regulate delivery or sale of liquor in state, as opposed to licenses, was not impinged. In re Kimura (1992, CA9) 969 F2d 806, 92 CDOS 6090, 92 Daily Journal DAR 9646, CCH Bankr L Rptr P 74773, 92-2 USTC P 50937, 70 AFTR 2d 5414.

Amendment did not give state right to condition transfer of liquor license upon satisfaction of claims of trade creditors prior to federal tax lien; case involved primacy of federal tax lien over state tax and fact that license happened to regulate liquor establishment was coincidental. United States v Stone (In re Stone) (1993, CA9) 6 F3d 581, 95 CDOS 7049, 93 Daily Journal DAR 12042, 93-2 USTC P 50635, 72 AFTR 2d 6103, 93 TNT 202-15.

Since state may, under Twenty-first Amendment, prohibit sale, transportation, and storage of liquors altogether, it may fix license which, if burden on interstate commerce at all, is less burden than prohibiting sale and transportation altogether. McCormall v Clyde Collins Liquors, Inc. (1939) 198 Ark 896, 132 SW2d 19.

Arkansas statute requiring that persons transporting intoxicating liquor through or across state have state permit, and providing for confiscation in event of noncompliance, is valid under Twenty-first Amendment to Constitution of United States. Welborn v Morley (1951) 219 Ark 569, 41 SW2d 635.

State statute prohibiting liquor permittees and permittee backers of one class from being permittees and backers of any other class was constitutional exercise of state's legislative power under Twenty-first Amendment. Ruppert v Liquor Control Com. (1952) 138 Conn 609, 82 A2d 388.

Under Twenty-first Amendment, state could enact statute making it unlawful for any person to evade or attempt to evade payment of tax or duty on alcoholic liquor or to possess any cask or package of such liquor without having thereon each mark or stamp required by law; even if statute was designed only to effectuate collection of taxes and had no relation to protection of public health, safety, or morals, state could, under Twenty-first Amendment, discriminate in favor of alcoholic liquor processed within state as against alcoholic liquor processed elsewhere, and such discrimination was permissible although it was not incident to reasonable regulation of liquor traffic or to protection of health, safety, or general welfare of its citizens. State v Payne (1958) 185 Kan 386, 327 P2d 1071.

Under Twenty-first Amendment, state legislatures, subject to constitutional restrictions, may lawfully grant right to engage in traffic of liquor to certain class or classes of persons and withhold it from others, and no one may complain because liquor legislation has denied him privilege of engaging in liquor traffic. Brown Distributing Co. v Oklahoma Alcoholic Beverage Control Board (1979, Okla) 597 P2d 324.

Statute establishing special exemption to quota restrictions on liquor licenses was reasonable decision by legislature to increase number of available liquor licenses, within scope of state's broad power over regulation of liquor traffic under Twenty First Amendment. Modern v McCrory (1975) 70 Wis 2d 1056, 236 NW2d 240.

Unpublished Opinions

Unpublished: District court’s determination that certain Maryland liquor regulations did not promote temperance because they did not raise liquor and wine prices was clearly erroneous; determination was based on comparison of wholesale and retail liquor prices in Maryland and Delaware, but district court failed to take into account whether difference in two states’ excise tax rates affected price comparison analysis. TFWS, Inc. v Schaefer (2005, CA4 Md) 147 Fed Appx 330, 2005-2 CCH Trade Cases ¶ 74885.

Unpublished: Where petitioner attorney challenged forfeiture of defendant’s liquor license and argued district court erred in finding attorney had no standing under Twenty-First Amendment, argument was rejected because attorney’s injury, if any, stemmed from his failure to establish right to license in first instance, not state’s inability to regulate alcohol within its borders and attorney’s claim fell under 21 USC § 853, out of Twenty-First Amendment’s zone of interests, which was state’s interests. United States v Carrie (2006, CA11 Fla) 2006 US App LEXIS 28500.

12.—Effect of export-import clause

State of Kentucky could not require importer of Scotch whiskey to pay tax of ten cents on each proof gallon of whiskey which it imported from Scotland, which tax was collected while whiskey remained in unbroken packages in hands of original importer and prior to resale or use by importer; export-import clause of Federal Constitution (Art I, § 10, cl 2), which prohibits states from imposing duties or imposts on imports or exports, except as may be absolutely necessary for executing state inspection laws, precludes state from exercising its Twenty-First Amendment powers over intoxicating liquors by imposing tax on imported liquors while in hands of importer in unbroken, original packages, prior to resale or use by importer within state. Department of Revenue v James B. Beam Distilling Co. (1964) 377 US 341, 12 L Ed 2d 362, 84 S Ct 1247.

13. Place of sale

Twenty-First Amendment does not justify state statute which vests in governing bodies of churches and schools power effectively to veto or grant liquor licenses within 500 foot radius of church or school, where state has delegated to churches power relating to liquor sales; state can not exercise its power under Twenty-First Amendment in way that impinges upon establishment clause of First Amendment. Larkin v Grendel’s Den, Inc. (1982) 459 US 116, 74 L Ed 2d 297, 103 S Ct 505.

14.—Employment of women

Statute prohibiting women from tending bar except when they are licensees, wives of licensees, or, singly or with their husbands, sole shareholders of corporation holding license, has nothing to do with flow of alcoholic beverages into state and therefore does not fall within literal language of Twenty-First Amendment; notwithstanding Twenty-First Amendment, state may not prohibit employment of women bartenders, because to do so would violate provision of Federal Civil Rights Act (42 USC § 2000-2(a)) prohibiting discrimination in employment on basis of gender. United States v Carrie (2006, CA11 Fla) 2006 US App LEXIS 28500.

City ordinance prohibiting performance of nude or nearly nude dancing on premises of business establishment licensed to sell liquor for consumption on premises is constitutional under Federal Constitution’s Twenty-first Amendment, even where it is local voters rather than city or state who have authority under state constitution to determine whether liquor may be sold in city; fact that state has delegated one portion of its regulatory power under Twenty-first Amendment to electorate—power to decide if liquor may be served in local establishments—does not mean that each liquor licensing decision must be made by plebiscite. New York State Liquor Authority v Bellanca (1988) 452 US 714, 69 L Ed 2d 357, 101 S Ct 2599, 7 Media L R 1500 (ovrd in part by 44 Liquorart v Rhode Island (1996) 517 US 484, 134 L Ed 2d 113, 116 S Ct 1495, 96 CDOS 3338, 24 Media L R 1500, 9 FLW Fed S 569) and (ovrd in part as stated in Salt Lake City v Wood (1999, Utah App) 991 P2d 595, 381 Utah Adv Rep 33) and (ovrd in part as stated in El Marrocio Club, Inc. v Richardson (2000, RI) 746 A2d 1228) and (ovrd in part as stated in Rising Sun Entm’t, Inc. v Bureau of Liquor Control Enforcement (2003, PA Cmwlth) 829 A2d 1214). Municipal ordinance, banning topless dancing in every “cabaret, bar or lounge, dance hall, discotheque, restaurant or coffee shop within municipal boundaries,” was not adequately limited in its impact so as to be validated by Twenty-first Amendment; Amendment does not justify regulatory control over places that serve only food or which provide entertainment but not alcoholic beverages. Salem Inn, Inc. v Frank (1975, CA2 NY) 522 F2d 1045.

County commission had authority to enact ordinance prohibiting nude or seminude dancing under state’s delegation of Twenty-first Amendment powers to municipalities and counties; presumption exists in favor of validity of regulation under Twenty-first Amendment, and by enacting ordinance county commissioners did not act with total irrationality or invidious discrimination in controlling distribution and dispensation of liquor within their jurisdiction. Fillingim v Boone (1988, CA11 Fla) 835 F2d 1389.

Under Twenty-First Amendment, ordinance prohibiting topless dancing in establishments dealing in alcoholic beverages is constitutional; town council’s findings provided sufficient rationale for ordinance. Lanier v Newton (1988, CA11 Ala) 842 F2d 253.
Ordinance prohibiting topless dancing in establishments dealing in alcoholic beverages falls within ambit of Twenty-first Amendment and is not unconstitutionally overbroad. Lanier v Newton (1988, CA11 Ala) 842 F2d 253.

Because of state's broad powers under Twenty-first Amendment, ordinance prohibiting erotic dancers in bar did not violate bar owner's First Amendment rights, for purposes of action by bar owner seeking zoning classification which would permit him to display go-go-girls in drinking establishment. Walker v Kansas City (1990, CA8 Mo) 911 F2d 80, reh den, en banc (1990, CA8) 919 F2d 1339 and cert den (1991) 500 US 941, 114 L Ed 2d 476, 111 S Ct 2234.

Ordinance prohibiting exposure of certain body parts in establishments dealing in alcohol was properly analyzed under Twenty-First Amendment rather than First Amendment, under municipality's broad powers to exercise regulatory power under Twenty-First Amendment. Geanese v Willets (1990, CA11 Fla) 911 F2d 579, cert den (1991) 499 US 955, 113 L Ed 2d 484, 111 S Ct 1431.

County ordinance regulating nude dancing in businesses selling liquor was not unconstitutionally overbroad because it required more clothing be worn by erotic dancers in establishment selling liquor than by citizens on street or beaches; state's power to regulate alcohol is broad and outweighs marginal First Amendment interest in totally nude dancing. Dodger's Bar & Grill v Johnson County Bd. of County Comm'rs (1994, CA10 Kan) 32 F3d 1436.

Resolution of board of county commissioners regulating entertainment within 1000 feet of premises licensed to serve alcoholic beverages was within ambit of Twenty-First Amendment and state's police power since there is reasonable relationship between area immediately adjacent to licensed premises and licensed premises. Dodger's Bar & Grill v Johnson County Bd. of County Comm'rs (1996, CA10 Kan) 98 F3d 1262.

Twenty-first Amendment has been recognized as conferring on states something more than normal authority inherent in public power; although amendment did not nullify other provisions of Constitution whenever state seeks to regulate sale of liquor, it did serve to "strengthen" state's authority in that particular area; however state's authority to control and regulate sale of alcoholic beverages is designed to protect from abuses relating to alcohol consumption and is not license to censor whatever occurs at premises authorized to sell alcohol; therefore, state statute prohibiting topless dancing in licensed drinking establishment is not authorized by state's authority under Amendment. Bellanca v New York State Liquor Authority (1980) 50 NY2d 524, 429 NY2d 616, 407 NE2d 460, reh den (1980) 51 NY2d 879 and rev'd (1981) 452 US 714, 69 L Ed 2d 557, 101 S Ct 2359, 7 Media L R 1500 (ovrd in part by 44 Liquormart v Rhode Island (1996) 517 US 484, 114 L Ed 2d 711, 116 S Ct 1495, 96 CDOS 3338, 24 Media L R 1673, 9 FLW Fed S 569) and (ovrd in part as stated in J&B Social Club # 1 v City of Mobile (1996, SD Ala) 966 F Supp 1151).

In view of grant to states by Twenty-first Amendment of substantial power to regulate liquor industry, suspension of tavern liquor license by state liquor control commission for improper conduct in violation of commission regulation, in permitting female to dance with insufficient attire, consisting of pasties which covered only nipple and areola portion of her breasts, overall effect of which was to portray female as dancing in topless state, did not violate licensee's First Amendment rights of free expression. Salem v Liquor Control Com. (1973) 34 Ohio St 2d 244, 63 Ohio Ops 2d 387, 298 NE2d 138 (criticized in Dayton Tavern v Liquor Control Comm'n (1999, Ohio App, Montgomery Co) 1999 Ohio App LEXIS 4006).

16. Prices

Commerce Clause is violated through operation of beer price affirmation provisions of state liquor control act which prevent brewer from selling below state wholesale price to any wholesaler in any neighboring state since effect of provisions is to control minimum price that may be charged by non-state brewer to non-state wholesaler in any sale outside of state; nothing in Twenty-First Amendment permits state to set minimum prices for sale of beer in any other state. United States Brewers Asso. v Healy (1982, CA2 Conn) 692 F2d 275, 1982-83 CCH Trade Cases P 65023, affd (1983) 464 US 909, 78 L Ed 2d 248, 104 S Ct 265, 1983-2 CCH Trade Cases P 65661.

Under 21st Amendment, state, as part of its regulatory scheme for sale of liquor, may constitutionally insist that liquor prices to domestic wholesalers and retailers be as low as prices offered elsewhere in country. Brown-Forman Corp. v Tennessee Alcoholic Beverage Comm'n (1988, CA6 Tenn) 860 F2d 1354, vacated, remanded (1989) 492 US 902, 106 L Ed 2d 559, 109 S Ct 3208.

In action against Washington State Liquor Control Board by corporation that operated international chain of membership warehouses, district court properly held that post-and-hold scheme under Wash. Rev. Code § 66.28.1802(26)(a) and Wash. Admin. Code §§ 314-20-100(2), (5), 314-24-190(2), (5) was hybrid restraint of trade, that it was per se violation of Sherman Act, 15 USCS § 1, that restraint was subject to pre-emption under Sherman Act, and that provisions could not be saved by operation of Washington's powers under U.S. Const. amend. XXI, § 2. Costco Wholesale Corp. v Maleng (2008, CA9 Wash) 522 F3d 874, 2008-1 CCH Trade Cases P 76021.

State statute which directs liquor wholesalers to fix and maintain prices at which they will sell to retailers alcoholic liquor which has been transported in interstate commerce is constitutional under Twenty-first Amendment. Beckamstien v Liquor Control Com. (1953) 140 Conn 185, 92 AD2d 119.

Neither Commerce Clause (Art 1, § 8, cl 3) nor Twenty-First Amendment are violated by provision of state's Discrimination in Selling Act, which provides that no brand of alcoholic liquor could be sold by manufacturers to state liquor wholesalers at any price higher than price sold to any liquor wholesaler anywhere in United States or District of Columbia during immediately preceding calendar month. United States Brewers Assn v Director of New Mexico Dep't of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1983) 100 NM 216, 668 P2d 1093, 1983-2 CCH Trade Cases P 65750, app dismd (1984) 465 US 1093, 80 L Ed 2d 115, 104 S Ct 1581, 1984-1 CCH Trade Cases P 65902.

If state for its own sufficient reasons deems it desirable policy to standardize price of liquor within its borders, either by direct price-fixing statute or by permissive sanction of such price fixing, in order to discourage temptations of cheaper liquor due to cut-throat competition, Twenty-first Amendment gives state such power, notwithstanding commerce clause. Pompei Winery, Inc. v Board of Liquor Control (1957) 167 Ohio St 61, 4 Ohio Ops 2d 29, 146 NE2d 430, cert den (1958) 356 US 937, 2 L Ed 2d 813, 78 S Ct 780, reh den (1958) 357 US 915, 2 L Ed 2d 1163, 78 S Ct 1147.

17. Advertising

State's requirement that cable television operators in state delete all advertisements for alcoholic beverages contained in out-of-state signals that they retransmit by cable to their subscribers is pre-empted by federal law, and is not saved from pre-emption by Twenty-first Amendment. Capital Cities Cable, Inc. v Crisp (1984) 467 US 691, 81 L Ed 2d 580, 104 S Ct 2684, 10 Media L R 1873.

State's complete ban on liquor price advertising abridged speech in violation of First Amendment where State failed to carry burden of justifying complete ban, and ban could not be saved by Twenty-first Amendment which does not qualify First Amendment's prohibition against laws abridging freedom of speech, but rather is limit on commerce clause. 44 Liquormart v Rhode Island (1996) 517 US 484, 134 L Ed 2d 711, 116 S Ct 1495, 96 CDOS 3338, 24 Media L R 1673, 9 FLW Fed S 569.

First Amendment rights of state advertising media are not violated by intrastate ban on advertising of alcoholic beverages except for signs in interior of licensed sales premises which are not visible from exterior, since there is sufficient reason to believe that advertising

CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

Twenty-first Amendment gives state power to prohibit advertising of sale of alcoholic beverages, including advertising via television, free of limitations of commerce clause of Constitution (Article I, § 8, clause 3).

18. Containers and labels

Even if distiller of whiskey had met all federal requirements with respect to bottles and labels of liquor moving in interstate commerce, there was no sound reason why additional state regulation of bottles and labels to further legitimate local policy could be said to run afoul of commerce clause, in view of vast reservoir of power bestowed upon states, under Twenty-first Amendment, to regulate liquor traffic and protect against its evils within their borders pretty much as they see fit. Boller Beverages, Inc v Davis (1962) 38 NJ 108, 183 A2d 64.

State statute prohibiting sale of beer and ale in nonreturnable glass containers was invalid under Twenty-first Amendment, even though statute applied to all sales within state without reference to import; it is not necessary that statute contain words "import" or "importation" to come within purview of Twenty-first Amendment. Anchor Hocking Glass Corp. v Barber (1964) 118 VT 206, 105 A2d 271.

19. Retaliatory prohibition of importation or sale

Michigan statute prohibiting local dealers in beer from selling any beer manufactured in state which, by its law, discriminated against beer manufactured in Michigan, was valid; since adoption of Twenty-first Amendment, right of state to prohibit or regulate importation of intoxicating liquor was not limited by commerce clause, and discrimination between domestic and imported intoxicating liquors, or between imported intoxicating liquors, was not protected by equal protection clause. Indianapolis Brewing Co, v Liquor Control Com. (1939) 305 US 391, 83 L Ed 243, 59 S Ct 254 (criticized in Granholm v Heald (2005, US) 2005 US LEXIS 4118).

20. Prohibition of importation of liquor lacking patent registration

Under Twenty-first Amendment, state could constitutionally prohibit manufacturer or wholesaler from importing any brand of intoxicating liquors, containing more than 25 percent of alcohol by volume, ready for sale without further processing, unless such brand was duly registered in United States Patent Office; although such statute discriminated in favor of liquor processed within state as against liquor completely processed elsewhere, discrimination against imported liquor was permissible under Twenty-first Amendment even if not incident of reasonable regulation of liquor traffic. Mahoney v Joseph Triner Corp. (1938) 304 US 401, 82 L Ed 1424, 58 S Ct 952 (ovrld as stated in Bacchus Imports v Dias (1984) 468 US 263, 82 L Ed 2d 200, 104 S Ct 3049) and (criticized in Granholm v Heald (2005, US) 2005 US LEXIS 4174).

Twenty-first Amendment had no bearing on constitutional challenges to state requirements for local-option initiatives regarding whether county would be "wet" or "dry," since purpose of amendment was to create exception to commerce clause so that it is not relevant to states' power to pass laws that would otherwise violate other constitutional provisions. Wellwood v Johnson ex rel. Bryant (1999, CA8 Ariz) 172 F3d 1007.

21. Miscellaneous

Provision of state liquor control statute, stating that monthly price schedules for sales of liquor to wholesalers filed by liquor producers with state liquor authority must be accompanied by affirmation that prices are no higher than lowest price at which sales will be made anywhere in United States during same month, is not valid exercise of state's powers under Twenty-First Amendment so as to save provision from invalidation under commerce clause, since it attempts to regulate sales in other states of liquor to be consumed in other states. Brown-Forman Distillers Corp. v New York State Liquor Authority (1986) 476 US 90 L Ed 2d 552, 106 S Ct 2080 (criticized in Grant's Dairy - Maine, LLC v Commissioner of Me. Dept of Agric., Food & Rural Resources (2000, CA1 Me) 232 F3d 8).

Federal Constitution's Twenty-First Amendment, which reserves power to states to impose restrictions on sale of liquor, does not provide independent constitutional bar to national minimum drinking age statute (23 USC § 158) which directs Federal Secretary of Transportation to withhold percentage of otherwise allocable federal highway funds from states in which it is lawful for person who is less than 21 years of age to purchase or publicly possess any alcoholic beverage, where statute is otherwise valid exercise of Congress' power under Federal Constitution's spending clause; Twenty-First Amendment does not bar such conditional grant of federal funds, since (1) statute does not induce states to engage in unconstitutional activities, and (2) percentage of highway funds that are withheld from state with drinking age below 21 is relatively small, so that Congress' program does not coerce states to enact higher minimum drinking ages than they would otherwise choose. South Dakota v Dole (1987) 483 US 203, 97 L Ed 2d 171, 107 S Ct 2793.

Commerce Clause (Art 1, § 8, cl 3) is not violated by portion of state alcoholic beverage code which prohibits holder of package store permit and retail dealer's off-premise license, from selling wholesale quantities of beer to out of state customers for resale out of state, since provisions are consistent with state's authority under Twenty-First Amendment. S.A. S.A. Discount Liquor, Inc v Texas Alcoholic Beverage Com. (1983, CA5 Tex) 709 F2d 291.

Ohio statutes permitting "local option" elections whereby local voters, via initiative and referendum, may forbid certain sales of alcoholic beverages otherwise authorized by licenses issued by state department of liquor control, did not violate due process and equal protection since no notice or opportunity to be heard need proceed any legislative action of general applicability; local voters possess legitimate interest in regulating types, modes, and circumstances of alcohol sales in their neighborhoods, and local option statutes and referenda which may be adopted under them create sensible legislative distinctions which rationally further legitimate public interests. 37712, Inc v Ohio Dept of Liquor Control (1997, CA6 Ohio) 113 F3d 614, 1997 FED App 158P.

Indiana statute, which makes unlawful all direct shipments from out of state to in-state consumers by any person in business of selling alcoholic beverages in another state or country, is not unconstitutional. Bridenbaugh v Freeman-Wilson (2000, CA7 Ind) 227 F3d 848, cert den, motion gr (2001) 522 US 1002, 149 L Ed 2d 652, 121 S Ct 1672 and (criticized in Belick v Roberts (2001, ED Va) 199 F Supp 2d 397) and (criticized in Dickerson v Bailey (2002, SD Tex) 212 F Supp 2d 673) and (criticized in Swedenburg v Kelly (2002, SD NY) 234 F Supp 2d 231).

Although provision in contract between brewer and beer distributor requiring that all disputes be arbitrated in Poland was invalid under Illinois Beer Industry Fair Dealing Act, 815 Ill. Comp. Stat. Ann. 720/1 -7209, provision was valid and enforceable under Federal Arbitration Act and Convention on Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards, Dec. 29, 1970, 21 U.S.T. 2517, implemented by 9 USCS §§ 201-208, and Twenty-first Amendment did not give state authority to disregard federal statutes or international treaties with respect to liquor business; consequently, forum selection clause was enforceable and district court erred in denying brewer’s request to stay litigation while matter was arbitrated in Poland. Stawski Distrib. Co. v Browary Zywiec S.A. (2003, CA7 Ill) 349 F3d 1023, reh den, reh, en banc, den (2003, CA7 Ill) 2003 US App LEXIS 25407 and cert den (2004) 541 US 1010, 158 L Ed 2d 620, 124 S Ct 2069.

R.I. Gen. Laws § 3-5-11.1(a), enacted under defendant Rhode Island’s power under Twenty-First Amendment to protect consumer choice and ensure equitable pricing of retail liquor products, was economic in nature and did not utilize suspect classifications or trench upon fundamental rights; plaintiff package store franchisor failed to show it was irrational for defendant Rhode Island to enact measures aimed at preventing anticompetitive practices by ensuring that holders of Class A liquor licenses operated independently and, thus, district court’s denial of preliminary injunction prohibiting enforcement of statute was upheld. Wine & Spirits Retailers, Inc. v Rhode Island (2005, CA1 RI) 418 F3d 36.

In contract case in which beer wholesaler appealed district court’s dismissal of its case against Russian brewer based on forum selection clause in parties’ agreement, wholesaler, on appeal, obliquely suggested that N.Y. Alco. Bev. Cont. Law § 55-c § 55-c was enacted pursuant to powers reserved to states under U.S. Const. Amend. XXI, to promote public’s interest in fair, efficient and competitive distribution of malt beverage products via regulating relationship between brewer and distributor; wholesaler’s contention concerning Twenty-first Amendment consisted of only one sentence, which was not sufficient to preserve argument for appellate review. S.K.I. Beer Corp. v Baltika Brewery (2010, CA2 NY) 612 F3d 705.

Supremacy clause of United States Constitution made tax lien priorities accorded United States under 26 USCS § 6323 control over any priority scheme established by state law; statute providing scheme of priorities among private creditors of liquor licensees in no way related to state’s interest in regulating consumption and distribution of alcohol, with respect to which Twenty-first Amendment exempted states from traditional commerce clause limitations. Business Title Corp. v Division of Labor Law Enforcement (1976, App) 17 Cal 3d 878, 132 Cal Rptr 454, 553 P2d 614, 76-2 USTC P 9644, 38 AFTR 2d 5734.

The Director of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall be the head of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, shall be appointed by the Governor subject to confirmation by a majority vote of all of the members elected to the Senate, and shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor. The director may be removed from office by the Governor, and the Legislature shall have the power, by a majority vote of all members elected to each house, to remove the director from office for dereliction of duty or corruption or incompetency. The director may appoint three persons who shall be exempt from civil service, in addition to the person he is authorized to appoint by Section 4 of Article XXIV. The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall have the exclusive power, except as herein provided and in accordance with laws enacted by the Legislature, to license the manufacture, importation and sale of alcoholic beverages in this State, and to collect license fees or occupation taxes on account thereof. The department shall have the power, in its discretion, to deny, suspend or revoke any specific alcoholic beverage license if it shall determine for good cause that the granting or continuance of such license would be contrary to public welfare or morals, or that a person seeking or holding a license has violated any law prohibiting conduct involving moral turpitude. It shall be unlawful for any person other than a licensee of said department to manufacture, import or sell alcoholic beverages in this State. The Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board shall consist of three members appointed by the Governor, subject to confirmation by a majority vote of all of the members elected to the Senate. Each member, at the time of his initial appointment, shall be a resident of a different county from the one in which either of the other members resides. The members of the board may be removed from office by the Governor, and the Legislature shall have the power, by a majority vote of all members elected to each house, to remove any member from office for dereliction of duty or corruption or incompetency. When any person aggrieved thereby appeals from a decision of the department ordering any penalty assessment, issuing, denying, transferring, suspending or revoking any license for the manufacture, importation, or sale of alcoholic beverages, the board shall review the decision subject to such limitations as may be imposed by the Legislature. In such cases, the board shall not receive evidence in addition to that considered by the department. Review by the board of a decision of the department shall be limited to the questions whether the department has proceeded without or in excess of its jurisdiction, whether the department has proceeded in the manner required by law, whether the decision is supported by the findings, and whether the findings are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record. In appeals where the board finds that there is relevant evidence which, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, could not have been produced or which was improperly excluded at the hearing before the department it may enter an order remanding the matter to the department for reconsideration in the light of such evidence. In all other appeals the board shall enter an order either affirming or reversing the decision of the department. When the order reverses the decision of the department, the board may direct the reconsideration of the matter in the light of its order and may direct the department to take such further action as is specially enjoined upon it by law, but the order shall not limit or control in any way the discretion vested by law in the department. Orders of the board shall be subject to judicial review upon petition of the director or any party aggrieved by such order.

A concurrent resolution for the removal of either the director or any member of the board may be introduced in the Legislature only if five Members of the Senate, or 10 Members of the Assembly, join as authors.

Rule that State may not tax liquor merely passing through State advertising foreign imported liquor as well as to liquor in interstate commerce; with exception of taxes needed to execute State inspection laws. Federal Government has sole, exclusive and plenary taxing power over imports and exports. Parrott & Co. v. San Francisco (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 131 Cal App 2d 332, 280 P2d 581, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 2055.

The 1967 Amendments to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act (B & P §§ 23089 et seq.), divesting superior courts of jurisdiction to review or stay the operation of a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, are not unconstitutional as an unauthorized legislative attempt to curtail the constitutional jurisdiction of the superior courts, where Art XX § 222, providing that orders of the Board shall be subject to judicial review upon petition of the director or any party aggrieved, does not specify the court in which review is to be obtained nor the procedure therefor, and where the new provisions on judicial review do not burden or impair the right of an aggrieved party to obtain the judicial review guaranteed by the Constitution. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Superior Court of Orange County (1968, Cal App 4th Dist) 268 Cal App 2d 67, 73 Cal Rptr 780, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 12724.

A city ordinance requiring retailers to collect deposits on certain refillable and nonrefillable beer containers was not preempted by provisions of the state Constitution reserving to the state the exclusive right to regulate the sale of alcoholic beverages (Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22), as amended in 1934, the words, having no technical meaning, will be taken in the ordinary and generally accepted sense: “saloon” and “barroom” as used in connection with the sale of intoxicating liquors import a place where such liquors are sold for consumption on the premises; a restaurant is “a public eating house,” and so regarded in the constitutional provision, for the enumeration including it is there followed by the words, “no other public eating place.” Hammond v. McDonald (1942, Cal App) 49 Cal App 2d 671, 122 P2d 332, 1942 Cal App LEXIS 866.

In an action to abate a liquor nuisance, even though the sales of intoxicating liquor by defendants in their restaurant were not in violation of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, the nuisance caused by the right of an aggrieved party to obtain the judicial review guaranteed by the Constitution. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Superior Court of Orange County (1968, Cal App 4th Dist) 268 Cal App 2d 67, 73 Cal Rptr 780, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 12724.

2. Construction

Art XX § 22 by its terms does not become effective until the Wright Act is repealed; and the repeal of the Wright Act alone was not sufficient to make such section operative. People v. Draper (1933, Cal App DeP't Super Ct) 134 Cal App 787, 134 Cal App 4th Supp 787, 22 P2d 604, 1933 Cal App LEXIS 854.

The question whether a sandwich, consumed or unconsumed, when served with wine or beer, is a meal as contemplated by Art XX § 22 and the Act of 1933 is one of fact depending on the circumstances: if the sandwich be served as a mere subterfuge for a meal it is not such a meal, but if it is served in good faith as a meal the fact that it is not consumed does not as a matter of law classify it as lacking the essential characteristics of a meal. Sandelin v. Collins (1934) 1 Cal 2d 147, 22 P2d 1009, 1934 Cal LEXIS 343, 93 ALR 596.

The initiative measure which added Art XX § 22 by its own terms did not become effective until the happening of certain events, and where one of said events had not taken place, the provisions of said section could not be held to declare the public policy of the State or the intention of the people adopting it, until its operative date. Los Angeles Brewing Co. v. Los Angeles (1935, Cal App) 8 Cal App 2d 379, 48 P2d 65, 1935 Cal App LEXIS 670.

The initiative measure which added Art XX § 22 by its own terms did not become effective until the happening of certain events, and where one of said events had not taken place, the provisions of said section could not be held to declare the public policy of the State or the intention of the people adopting it, until its operative date. Los Angeles Brewing Co. v. Los Angeles (1935, Cal App) 8 Cal App 2d 379, 48 P2d 65, 1935 Cal App LEXIS 670.

3. Alcoholic Beverages

A city ordinance, adopted in 1922, which provides that it shall be unlawful for any person to sell any spirituous, vinous, malt or other alcoholic liquor within the city, was not invalid when adopted because of uncertainty in its meaning in failing to define “alcoholic liquor,” and “spirituous, vinous, malt or other alcoholic liquor” have not become obsolete during the years since passage of the ordinance that its provisions have become uncertain. People v. Draper (1933, Cal App DeP't Super Ct) 134 Cal App 787, 134 Cal App 4th Supp 787, 22 P2d 604, 1933 Cal App LEXIS 854.

Under the plain terms of Art XX § 22 intoxicating liquors, other than wine and beer, may not under any circumstances lawfully be consumed in hotel dining rooms or other public drinking places, in whatsoever manner said liquor may be supplied, and wine and beer may be consumed in the public places specified by the Liquor Control Act of 1933 only with meals. Sandelin v. Collins (1934) 1 Cal 2d 147, 22 P2d 1009, 1934 Cal LEXIS 343, 93 ALR 596.

Should the Liquor Control Act nor by legal definition, nor by common understanding of the word, can beverages sought to be sold as “wines,” but consisting of a combination of wine, alcohol, flavoring and water, with the added alcohol being three times as much as the wine, be fairly or properly designated as “wines.” Tux Ginger Ale Co. v. Davis (1936, Cal App) 12 Cal App 2d 73, 54 P2d 1122, 1936 Cal App LEXIS 979.

Alcoholic concoctions resulting from mixture of fruits juices and certain other ingredients such as alcohol or brandy are “distilled spirits” rather than wine, and are taxable as such. People v. Tux Winery Co. (1937, Cal App) 21 Cal App 2d 586, 69 P2d 876, 1937 Cal App LEXIS 329.

B & P C § 2420.5, authorizing revocation of a liquor license if the licensee employs or permits any person “to solicit or encourage others, ... to buy them drinks in the licensed premises ...” for compensation, authorizes the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to revoke a liquor license although the drink solicited is orange juice, since the statute refers to “drinks” and makes no requirement that they be “alcoholic.” Greenblatt v. Martin (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 177 Cal App 2d 738, 2 Cal Rptr 508, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2540.

4. State Board of Equalization

Art XX § 22 gives the State Board broad discretionary powers in the matter of granting or refusing liquor licenses; whether or not “good faith” for denial of a license is a matter to be determined by the board, and not by the courts. Hansen v. State Board of Equalization (1941, Cal App) 43 Cal App 2d 176, 110 P2d 453, 1941 Cal App LEXIS 632.

The Unlawful Liquor Sales Abatement Act of 1915 was either expressly or impliedly repealed, either by Art XX § 22 or by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act of 1933. Hammond v. McDonald (1939, Cal App) 32 Cal App 2d 187, 89 P2d 407, 1939 Cal App LEXIS 334.

In the absence of any definition of the terms used in Art XX § 22, as amended in 1934, the words, having no technical meaning, will be taken in the ordinary and generally accepted sense: “saloon” and “barroom” as used in connection with the sale of intoxicating liquors import a place where such liquors are sold for consumption on the premises; a restaurant is “a public eating house,” and so regarded in the constitutional provision, for the enumeration including it is there followed by the words, “no other public eating place.” Hammond v. McDonald (1942, Cal App) 49 Cal App 2d 671, 122 P2d 332, 1942 Cal App LEXIS 866.
Art XX, § 22

CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Art XX § 22 vests the regulation of the liquor traffic exclusively in the State Board of Equalization, except for Railway & State Board of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal 2d 157, 173 P2d 551, 174 P2d 4, 1946 Cal LEXIS 284.

In exercising power which State Board of Equalization has under this section to deny, in its discretion, "any specific liquor license if it shall determine for good cause that the granting ... of such license would be contrary to public welfare or morals," the board performs a quasi judicial function similar to local administrative agencies. Weiss v. State Board of Equalization (1953) 40 Cal 2d 772, 256 P2d 1, 1953 Cal LEXIS 236; Chosick v. Reilly (1954, Cal App) 125 Cal App 2d 334, 270 P2d 264, 1954 Cal LEXIS 1886.

Since the State Board of Equalization with respect to its functions in controlling and regulating the sale and use of intoxicating beverages is a constitutional agency (prior to the amendment of this section in 1954), the scope of review of its decisions is limited to determining whether or not there is substantial support therefor to be found in the record, and both the superior court in mandate proceedings and the District Court of Appeal on appeal are without authority to reweigh the evidence. Marucci v. Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 3d Dist) 138 Cal App 2d 695, 292 P2d 264, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 2407.

Under the Constitution and B & P § 25750, the Board of Equalization has the broad power to determine what is contrary to public welfare or morals and to prohibit a licensee from doing or permitting any such acts on the licensed premises. Mercurio v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1773.

It was within the State Board of Equalization's former powers over the sale of alcoholic beverages to determine that a liquor licensee's conduct with reference to low performances on premises other than the licensed premises was of such a nature as to make his holding of the license contrary to the public welfare or morals; such conduct cannot be reconciled with good moral character. Jacques, Inc. v. State Board of Equalization (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 448, 318 P2d 6, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1307.

5. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control

Under Gov C § 11517 subd (c) the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control has the right to set aside a proposed decision by a hearing officer that the premises for which a license is sought are not in such proximity to churches as adversely to affect the activities of the churches or as to be contrary to public welfare and morals, and to decide the case on the record without taking additional evidence. Schaub's, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 858, 315 P2d 459, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1570.

In view of 1954 amendment to Art XX § 22, vesting in the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control "exclusive power" to issue or deny licenses "in its discretion" and denying to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board any power to "limit or control in any way the issuance of such liquor licenses", the Appeals Board is not empowered to exercise full discretion and its independent judgment on conflicting evidence, but rather its powers are strictly limited and no greater than those previously exercised by the courts on judicial review of the decisions of the State Board of Equalization. Martin v. Alcoholic Bever. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 238, 340 P2d 1, 1959 Cal LEXIS 197.

Discretion to be exercised by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under Art XX § 22 is not absolute but must be exercised in accordance with the law, and provision that it may revoke or deny a license for "good cause" necessarily implies that its decisions should be based on sufficient evidence and that it should not act arbitrarily in determining what is contrary to public welfare or morals. Martin v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1961) 55 Cal 2d 867, 13 Cal Rptr 513, 362 P2d 337, 1961 Cal LEXIS 268; Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 531, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 711; Harris v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

Under B & P § 24755.1, providing that punishment for retail sale of alcoholic beverages at less than the minimum price shown in schedules filed with the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall consist solely of monetary penalties in amounts as set forth, is not unconstitutional as an infringement of the Legislature on the power vested in the Department by Art XX § 22, to impose revocation, suspend or revoke liquor licenses; such power of the Department is subject to reasonable legislative enactment, including the addition of mandatory fines as penalty assessments. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969) Cal 2d 1200, 81 Cal Rptr 241, 459 P2d 657, 1969 Cal LEXIS 341.

Though Art XX § 22, appears to give the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control exclusive control over alcoholic beverage licenses, it cannot interfere with the duty cast on the State Personnel Board by Art XXIV § 3, to administer and enforce any and all laws relating to civil service, including Gov C § 19572, which establishes dishonesty and other failure of good behavior either during or outside of duty hours as cause for discipline of a civil service employee; that an employee's conduct might also be cause for discipline under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act cannot detract from the board's power to enforce § 19572. Gee v. California State Personnel Board (1970, Cal App 1st Dist) 5 Cal App 3d 713, 85 Cal Rptr 762, 1970 Cal LEXIS 1474.

Revocation of liquor license under B & P C §§ 24200 and 25601, purportedly in violation of licensee's federal constitutional rights in that, allegedly, sole ground for revocation was presence of homosexual clientele at bar, was res judicata for purposes of injunction action under §§ 1858 & 1859, as the department is a state court of limited jurisdiction. Francisco Enterprises, Inc. v. Kirby (1973, 9th Cir Cal) 482 F2d 481, 1974 US App LEXIS 8706, cert den (1974) 94 St Ct 1413, 39 L Ed 2d 471, 415 US 916, 1974 US LEXIS 1176.

Under constitutional and statutory provisions governing judicial review of orders of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board (Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22; Bus. & Prof. Code, §§ 23090, 23090.3, and 23090.4), the right of review of a decision of the board holding resale price maintenance provisions (Bus. & Prof. Code, § 24755) invalid under the Sherman Antitrust Act was limited to parties who appeared in proceedings before the board. Rice v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1978) 21 Cal 3d 431, 146 Cal Rptr 585, 579 P2d 476, 1978 Cal LEXIS 466.

Under Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22 and Bus. & Prof. Code, § 24200, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is expressly empowered to either suspend or revoke an issued license. The propriety of the penalty to be imposed rests solely within the discretion of the department whose determination may not be disturbed in the absence of a showing of palpable abuse. The fact that unconditional revocation may appear too harsh a penalty does not entitle a reviewing agency or court to substitute its own judgment therein; nor does the circumstance of forfeiture of the interest of an otherwise innocent licensee sanction a different and less drastic penalty. Rice v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1979, Cal App 1st Dist) 89 Cal App 3d 30, 152 Cal Rptr 494, 1979 Cal LEXIS 1356.

It is the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, and not the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board or the courts, which must determine whether "good cause" exists for denying an alcoholic beverage license to an applicant as a consequence upon the ground that its issuance would be contrary to the public welfare or morals. The reviewing body determines whether or not the department acted arbitrarily in making its decision. If the decision is without reason under the evidence, the action of the department constitutes an abuse of discretion and may be set aside. But where the decision is the subject of a choice within reason, the department is vested with the discretion of making the selection which it deems proper, its action is within the scope of a valid exercise of the constitutionally conferred discretion (Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22), and neither the board nor the courts may interfere therewith. Department of Alcoholic Bever. v. Alcoholic Bever. etc. Appeals Bd. (1982, Cal App 2d Dist) 133 Cal App 3d 814, 184 Cal Rptr 367, 1982 Cal App LEXIS 1759.

Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22 (alcoholic beverage control), vests the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control with broad discretion to revoke or suspend a liquor license for good cause if continuing the license would be contrary to public welfare or morals. In the absence of clear abuse of discretion, the courts will uphold the department's decision to suspend a license for violation of the liquor laws. Provigo v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1994) 7 Cal 4th 561, 28 Cal Rptr 2d 636, 869 P2d 883, 1994 Cal LEXIS 1381.

It is well within the authority conferred on the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control by Cal Const Art XX § 22, par. 9, B & P C § 23049 for the Department to deny, suspend or revoke the issuance of an alcoholic beverage license, a decision under B & P C § 23052 applies to certain transactions but not to others. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal App 1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.
6. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board

Where a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending and revoking an on-sale liquor license was not appealed within the time allowed by law to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, the licensees failed to exhaust their administrative remedies and were not entitle to judicial review of the order complained of. Van De Veer v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 817, 318 P2d 666, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1361, overruled Pesce v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

Under the 1954 amendment of Art XX § 22, creating the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board and prescribing the powers of each, the Appeals Board ordinarily may enter only an “order either affirming or reversing the decision of the department,” depending on its determination of the questions of excess of jurisdiction by the department and sufficiency of evidence and findings to support the decision of the department. Martin v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 238, 340 P2d 1, 1959 Cal Lexis 197. Provision in the 1954 amendment of Art XX § 22, that the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board shall determine “whether the findings (of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control) are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record,” is applicable to the power of the Alcoholic Control Appeals Board in reviewing the propriety of a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control on the penalty, which the 1954 amendment of Art XX § 22, has placed in the discretion of the department. Martin v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 287, 341 P2d 296, 1959 Cal Lexis 203. (B & P C § 23084 applies to the Department’s discretionary powers to determine whether there is good cause to suspend a license because all of the Department’s powers derive from Cal Const Art XX § 22. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.)

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control’s practice of allowing its ultimate decisionmaker to have access to prosecuting attorney’s reports of hearing violates statutory prohibitions against ex parte communications. The practice is improper regardless of whether the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board adopts the Department’s decision. Rondon v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2007, Cal App 6th Dist) 151 Cal App 4th 1274, 60 Cal Rptr 3d 285, 2007 Cal App LEXIS 953.

7. Licenses and Licensees Generally

A seasonal business within the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, is a business located in a seasonal area in which consumer demand for alcoholic beverages varies during different periods of the year, and where the business licenses issued to one for each 1,000 inhabitants, the business need not be closed and locked during any part of the year. Johnstone v. Richardson (1951, Cal App) 103 Cal App 2d 41, 229 P2d 9, 1951 Cal LEXIS 1121.

Each applicant for a liquor license must provide the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control with certain information with reference to the applicant’s background, crime record, status and other data (B & P C §§ 23950-23958), and must subject himself and the premises where the business will be conducted to a thorough investigation. Duke Molner Wholesale Liquor Co. v. Martin (1960, Cal App 2d Dist) 180 Cal App 2d 873, 4 Cal Rptr 904, 1960 Cal LEXIS 2413, cert den (1960) 364 US 870, 81 S Ct 112, 5 L Ed 2d 92, 1960 US LEXIS 325.

Under the 1954 amendment of Art XX § 22, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board and prescribing the powers of each, the Appeals Board ordinarily may enter only an “order either affirming or reversing the decision of the department,” depending on its determination of the questions of excess of jurisdiction by the department and sufficiency of evidence and findings to support the decision of the department. Martin v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 287, 341 P2d 296, 1959 Cal Lexis 203. Art XX, § 22

9. Proper and Improper Denial of License

The exercise of discretion of the State Board in denying a liquor license was not abused where applicant proposed to sell liquor in a community the deeds in which contained restrictive covenants against public morals and welfare. Schaub's, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 688, 315 P2d 459, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1570.

Provision in the 1954 amendment of Art XX § 22, that the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board shall determine "whether the findings (of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control) are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record," signifies no more than adoption of the "substantial evidence" rule, as generally applied in judicial proceedings in this state, rather than the "scintilla" rule which has been applied in judicial proceedings in some other jurisdictions. Martin v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 238, 340 P2d 1, 1959 Cal LEXIS 197.

Ordinarily the ultimate fact for determination by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in passing on an application for a license, or for transfer of a license, is whether the granting "would be contrary to public welfare or morals," if the department makes a finding that the granting of the application "would be contrary to public welfare," and there is substantial evidence to show "good cause" for such determination, the finding must be sustained. Martin v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1961) 55 Cal 2d 239, 341 P2d 291, 1960 Cal LEXIS 193.

In considering sufficiency of evidence in proceeding to review decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control respecting denial of license, court is governed by substantial evidence rule generally applied in appeal proceedings; any conflict in evidence is resolved in favor of the decision, and every reasonably deductible inference in support thereof will be indulged. Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 521, 1961 Cal LEXIS 171.

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control may consider presence of schools or playgrounds in vicinity of premises seeking either an on-sale or off-sale liquor license in determining whether issuance of license would be contrary to public welfare or morals, regardless of any legislative expression of policy on subject. Bailey v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 4th Dist) 201 Cal App 2d 348, 20 Cal Rptr 264, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2599.

Adm C C § 61.1, promulgated by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and providing that no on-sale general license or on-sale beer and wine license shall be issued within 1 mile of a university unless the Department is satisfied that the location of the licensed business is such that it will not be patronized by students, is void, being in conflict with Penal C § 172e, removing the restriction against sale of alcoholic beverages in proximity to universities as to business facilities; nevertheless proximity of the proposed premises from early morning until well into the evening to public welfare and morals were supported by substantial evidence that the issuance of the license would be contrary to public welfare and morals, where, although the store was only 115 feet from the playground fence of an elementary school, it was 400 feet from the school entrance by "lawful pedestrian feet," where an afternoon check showed that only 17 of 139 pupils visited the store, where the supermarket chain carried no exterior signs distinguishing it as a liquor outlet, where the store did not display signs of beer or wine, trained its personnel on the prohibition of its sale to minors and at a nearby store had experienced no infractions of such law. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 250 Cal App 2d 673, 58 Cal Rptr 788, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 2150.

As a ground for denying a liquor license, the Alcoholic Beverage Control Department’s finding that "some of the school children pass by, as well as frequent," the applicant’s supermarket was not in itself substantial evidence that the issuance of the license would be contrary to public welfare and morals, where, although the store was only 115 feet from the playground fence of an elementary school, it was 400 feet from the school entrance by "lawful pedestrian feet," where an afternoon check showed that only 17 of 139 pupils visited the store, where the supermarket chain carried no exterior signs distinguishing it as a liquor outlet, where the store did not display signs of beer or wine, trained its personnel on the prohibition of its sale to minors and at a nearby store had experienced no infractions of such law. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 255 Cal App 2d 46, 62 Cal Rptr 778, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1237.

There was no substantial evidence that the issuance of an off-sale beer and wine license to a supermarket should be denied, as being contrary to public welfare and morals, where, although the Alcoholic Beverage Control Department found that an elementary school in the immediate vicinity (a purely commercial district) had a present problem with persons consuming alcoholic beverages nearby and that the license would aggravate the problem, the evidence was sufficient to support the department’s determination that issuance of an off-sale beer and wine license would create a law enforcement problem and would be contrary to public welfare and morals, where, although the store was only 115 feet from the playground fence of an elementary school, it was 400 feet from the school entrance by "lawful pedestrian feet," where an afternoon check showed that only 17 of 139 pupils visited the store, where the supermarket chain carried no exterior signs distinguishing it as a liquor outlet, where the store did not display signs of beer or wine, trained its personnel on the prohibition of its sale to minors and at a nearby store had experienced no infractions of such law. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 255 Cal App 2d 46, 62 Cal Rptr 778, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1237.

The findings of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that issuance of an off-sale beer and wine license to a convenience-type market would be contrary to public welfare or morals were supported by substantial evidence and it did not act arbitrarily or abuse its discretion in denying the issuance of the license, where the proposed premises were located some 300 to 400 feet from a school with an approximate attendance of 775 pupils ranging in age from 5 through 14 years, where a substantial number of children would pass directly by the proposed premises from early morning until well into the evening each day, where there was testimony that issuance of the license would create or intensify various problems, such as increased traffic hazards, increased litter on the school grounds, obtaining of alcoholic beverages by children, and increased class cutting, where there were already 11 licensed outlets of the off-sale type within a mile of the school, and where the applicant’s beer and wine departments would not be segregated from items attractive to school children which it also intended to handle. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 119, 67 Cal Rptr 628, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1725.

On administrative review of a denial by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control of an application by a "disco" music establishment for a beer and wine license, the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board properly concluded the department’s determination that issuance of a license would create a law enforcement problem and would be contrary to public welfare and morals was not supported by the department’s findings that “disturbances would sometimes occur when several hundred young persons were gathered together in the described surroundings,” despite the establishment’s employment of a security force. Whatever the precise parameters of the law enforcement problems contemplated by the statute permitting the denial of a license that would tend to create a law enforcement problem, the department’s reliance on a finding that “disturbances” of undetermined severity would “sometimes” in the indefinite future occur reflected too sweeping a view of what constitutes “good cause” within the meaning of Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, requiring “good cause” for the denial of a license. Also, the department’s finding that police officers could not respond quickly to the establishment due to its remote location and the limited number of officers was not supported by the evidence. Department of Alcoholic Bev. Control v. Alcoholic Bev. et al. Appeals Bd. (1981, Cal App 3d Dist) 122 Cal App 3d 549, 175 Cal Rptr 342, 1981 Cal App LEXIS 2048.

10. Suspension of Licenses Generally

A liquor license does not automatically become void, beyond any possibility of revocation, whenever licensee fails to sell food on the premises as the language of XX § 22 indicates that some action by an licensee is necessary before a license is terminated, under such § 22, the Board is empowered to suspend as well as to revoke a license. Reynolds v. State Board of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal 2d 137, 173 P2d 561, 174 P2d 4, 1946 Cal LEXIS 259.

The fact that when a hearing officer recommended suspension of a liquor license he was an employee of the State Board of Equalization did not deprive the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, to which he reported, of the power to adopt his findings and to order suspension of the license. Brice v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 315, 314 P2d 807, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1783.

In the exercise of its discretion the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control can properly consider violations of statutory provisions concerning alcoholic beverages or of rules of the department as good cause for suspension of licenses. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

In a proceeding to suspend a liquor license, the interpretation placed on a written instrument by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, where extrinsic evidence has not been resorted to though not binding on appeal, will be accepted by the appellate court where such interpretation is reasonable, or where such interpretation is one of two or more reasonable constructions of the instrument; moreover, where no extrinsic evidence is considered by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in aid of its interpretation of a written instrument, the construction is one of law, and the appellate court is not bound by the Department’s interpretation of the instrument. Cohen v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 332, 32 Cal Rptr 723, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1783.

In a proceeding to suspend a corporation’s liquor license, a finding that the corporation, its sole stockholder and president, “is” an unfit and improper person to hold an alcoholic beverage license by reason of his record of arrests and convictions sufficiently established, for review purposes, that the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not believe the defendant was rehabilitated or fit at the time of decision, to hold a license. Jack P. Meyers, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 869, 48 Cal Rptr 259, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1208.

§ 22. B & C P C § 24755.1, providing that punishment for retail sale of alcoholic beverages at less than the minimum price shown in schedules filed with the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall consist solely of monetary penalties in amounts as set forth, is not unconstitutional as an infringement by the Legislature on the power vested in the Department by Art XX § 22, to deny, suspend or revoke liquor licenses; such power of the Department is subject to reasonable legislative enactment, including the addition of mandatory fines as penalty assessments. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969) 71 Cal 2d 1200, 81 Cal Rptr 241, 459 P2d 657, 1969 Cal LEXIS 314.

An attack under Rule 35, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, relating to correction or reduction of sentence, goes only to the sentence not to the fact of conviction, and such an attack was irrelevant in determining the finality of an alcoholic beverage licensee’s conviction in Federal District Court of defrauding the government through the filing of knowingly false income tax returns for two years, where the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals’ affirmation of the District Court’s action had long since become final and petition for writ of certiorari had been denied by the United States Supreme Court, and particularly where the circuit court refused to interfere with the investigation by the District Court. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 5th Dist) 270 Cal App 2d 535, 75 Cal Rptr 823, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1555.

11. Warranted and Unwarranted Suspensions

An on-sale liquor license was properly suspended where under a “conviction” agreement (real estate note) the object of the closing was the oft-mentioned fully-equipped restaurant room to another, and food sold together with liquor were served on both premises, when licensee did not operate or have any interest in the restaurant. Harem Corp. v. State Board of Equalization (1948, Cal App) 87 Cal App 2d 915, 198 P2d 48, 1948 Cal LEXIS 1419.

A liquor licensee established a defense under B & P C § 25660, to a charge of selling to a minor, where the licensee showed that he relied on a draft card from which it appeared that the minor was 21, and where, notwithstanding the birth date on the card had been altered, there was no substantial support for the State Board of Equalization’s suspension based on finding that the alteration should have been apparent from a reasonably careful inspection, where there was no finding that the licensee acted in bad faith or discovered the alteration, where the card accurately described the minor, and where his physical appearance was that of a person who might be under or over 21. DeHelferson v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 3d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 561, 303 P2d 7, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1376.

In a proceeding for suspension of a liquor license for sale of intoxicating beverages to a minor and allowing the minor to consume them, evidence that licensee was sufficiently concerned of suspending the license where it showed that the minor was too young in appearance to be 21 years old, that she weighed 19 pounds more than the person described in the identification which she presented, that she was three and one-half years younger than such person, and had blue eyes instead of hazel. 5501 Hollywood, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 748, 318 P2d 820, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1351.

Although bookmaking and gambling are not specifically set as grounds for suspension and revocation of a liquor license, a finding that a single act of bookmaking by a bartender has taken place on the licensed premises is sufficient to support revocation; revocation and suspension were supported by evidence that the licensee’s bartender was engaged in taking bets on horse races and that he was paying off in cash on winning combinations on mechanical gambling devices, since the bartender’s knowledge of such illegal gambling activities on the licensed premises was imputed to the licensees and they were responsible for his acts, it being immaterial that the licensees may have had no actual knowledge of such illegal activities. Mack v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 2d Dist) 178 Cal App 2d 149, 2 Cal Rptr 629, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2573.

It is not the past conduct, immoral character or bad reputation of a patron that subjects an on-sale licensee to discipline, but the patron’s present act and condition that offends both the law and public decency; presence of drunkard in a public tavern is an illegal act, and as such mere fact that intoxicated persons were arrested on licensed premises for police “roundups” was evidence of violations of the law though the police were not summoned by the licensee or for any disturbance by employees. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

In a proceeding to suspend a liquor license, for retail sales at less than the fair trade price, a finding of the hearing officer that the fair trade contracts were duly filed with the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control raised a presumption that “fair and open” competition was ascertained and found by the Department. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2588, overruled Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

The suspension of a liquor license by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control was proper where a relief bartender employed by the licensee accepted a bet on a horse race while employed on the licensed premises, despite the fact that there was no evidence that the act was anything but an isolated transaction which occurred at a time when the general manager of the licensed premises, who was in charge of the cocktail lounge, was not on the premises, and neither the general manager nor any other responsible officer of the licensee had actual knowledge of the bartender’s offense; evidence of the offense being imputed to the licensee, and evidence that the bartender committed the act of bookmaking being “substantial evidence” that the licensee “permitted, if not employed to commit that act.” Rovsky v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 252 Cal App 2d 520, 60 Cal Rptr 841, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1530.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control correctly decided that a licensee’s license to conduct a bar should be suspended for the period...

Art XX, § 22

12. Revocation of Licenses Generally

A liquor license does not automatically become void, beyond any possibility of revival, whenever licensee fails to sell food on the premises, as the language of Art XX § 22 indicates that some action by the State Board is necessary before termination. Reynolds v. State Board of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal 2d 137, 173 P2d 551, 174 P2d 4, 1946 Cal LEXIS 284.

A revocation of liquor licenses, as expressly stated in Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, may be based on protecting the public welfare and morals, of one year pursuant to B & P C § 24200, subd (d), providing for suspension of license upon conviction of a public offense involving moral turpitude, where the department properly found, after a formal hearing, that the licensee's conviction in the United States District Court of defrauding the government through the filing of knowingly false income tax returns involved moral turpitude, and that the judgment of conviction had become final after appeal in the federal courts. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 5th Dist) 270 Cal App 2d 535, 75 Cal Rptr 823, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1555.

A revocation of liquor licenses, as the language of Art XX § 22 indicates that some action by the department pursuant to its exclusive power to license and regulate the sale of alcoholic beverages in the state under Cal Const, art. XX, § 22, which regulated “topless” and “bottomless” exposure on licensed premises, was valid and did not conflict with Pen. Code, §§ 318.5 and 318.6, which permit cities and counties to adopt penal ordinances regulating “topless” and “bottomless” exposure in establishments serving food or beverages, and other public places. Furthermore, the rule did not nullify the effect of the legislative enactment, since the rule was promulgated pursuant to the department’s constitutional authority to regulate the sale of drinks in premises with licenses, and thus no issue of preemption was involved. Accordingly, decisions of the department suspending the on-sale liquor licenses of nightclubs for violations of the department rule were valid. Kirby v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1975, Cal App 1st Dist) 47 Cal App 3d 360, 120 Cal Rptr 847, 1975 Cal App LEXIS 1027.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board did not abuse its discretion in upholding the suspensions of the liquor licenses of two grocery stores for selling alcohol to minors in violation of Bus. & Prof. Code, § 25658, subd. (a), where the stores had sold alcoholic beverages to minors acting as police decoys. Although Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, prohibits the sale to or purchase by, minors of alcoholic beverages, the Constitution does not preclude the sale or purchase by minors as decedents. The interpretation allowing the use of decoys promotes the intent of the constitutional provision to protect minors from harm associated with the consumption of alcohol. To provide licensees a defense based on the use of underage decoys would produce an absurd result. Also, although the Legislature rejected a proposal that would have granted immunity to minors acting as police decoys. Although Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, may be based on protecting the public welfare and morals, of preemption was involved. Accordingly, decisions of the department suspending the on-sale liquor licenses of nightclubs for violations of the department rule were valid. Kirby v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1975, Cal App 1st Dist) 47 Cal App 3d 360, 120 Cal Rptr 847, 1975 Cal App LEXIS 1027.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board abused its discretion in affirming a suspension of a market's liquor license based on a single illegal act unrelated to the sale of alcohol by an on-duty employee of the market within the market's knowledge. The single criminal act of food stamp sales was insufficient to justify the suspension based on the employee's knowledge of her own criminal act, which was imputed to the market. To be reasoned and not arbitrary, license suspensions must further the goal of the constitutional and statutory provisions. That goal in general is to protect public welfare and morals, but it must be viewed in the context in which it arose, i.e., the sale of alcoholic beverages. Where a licensee's employee commits a single criminal act unrelated to the sale of alcohol, the licensee has taken strong steps to prevent and deter such crime and is unaware of it before the fact, suspension of the license simply has no rational effect on public welfare or public morals. Santa Ana Food Market, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1984) 7 Cal 4th 561, 28 Cal Rptr 2d 1163, 907 P2d 1379, 1984 Cal LEXIS 1391.

A decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking a liquor license on each of the several counts of the accusation is a valid revocation if any single count can be sustained. Maloney v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 172 Cal App 2d 204, 342 P2d 520, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 131; Presto v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1960, Cal App 3d Dist) 179 Cal App 2d 262, 3 Cal Rptr 742, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2228.

In liquor license revocation proceedings, complaint charging that “On or about [a certain date the licensee], at his above-mentioned licensed premises, did employ or permit woman known only as Brownie, to solicit or encourage other persons to buy her alcoholic beverages, to-wit, beer, on above-mentioned premises” was sufficient to state offense, since it gave licensee fair notice of acts or omissions with which he was charged so that he could prepare his defense, licensee indicating no lack of preparation of his case before hearing officer and no surprise appearing in transcript as to charge or evidence produced against him. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

Where the evidence amply supports an order revoking a liquor license, it is against public policy to reduce the penalty to a suspension of the license on the basis that the licensee informed an agent of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control who was taking bribes and assisted in securing the agent’s conviction, Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

B & P C § 24755.1, providing that punishment for retail sale of alcoholic beverages at less than the minimum price shown in schedules filed with the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall consist solely of monetary penalties in amounts as set forth, is not unconstitutional as an infringement by the Legislature on the power vested in the Department by Art XX § 22, to deny, suspend or revoke liquor licenses, such power of the Department is subject to reasonable legislative enactment, including the addition of mandatory fines as penalty assessments. 13. Appropriate and Inappropriate Revocations

A revocation of a corporation's liquor license on the ground that the corporation was managed by two persons who, because of police records (a history of arrests or convictions occurring over approximately 12 years in the case of one, and approximately 19 years in the case of the other), could not themselves qualify as licensees, was sustained by evidence that both persons were authorized to sign checks and contracts for the corporation, that one owned one-third of the corporation stock and that the other's son, the vice-president of the corporation, had given the father a power of attorney to do anything in relation to ownership of the corporation. Ciro's of San Francisco v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 636, 299 P2d 703, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 2028.

A liquor license held in the name of a corporation may be revoked for the illegal conduct of two individuals as sole stockholders, though their act was conducted off the licensed premises where no misconduct of the corporation was kept, no meetings were held by the stockholders or any officers of the corporation, and the two individuals considered themselves as the only owners and that they could do as they pleased in the management and control of the licensed business, since they were the real parties involved and were the alter ego of the corporation, and their acts were also the acts of the corporation. Jacques, Inc. v. State Board of Equalization (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 448, 318 P2d 6, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1307.

A corporation's liquor license was not under a misapprehension as to the facts or the law in finding that the licensee was convicted of taking bets on the licensed premises in "violation of Penal Code § 357a subd 3 ..., a felony, and in the information," it did not appear that any such misapprehension entered into the determination that the continued holding of a license by the corporation would be contrary to public welfare or morals, that it contributed to the decision that the license should be revoked rather than suspended, where the Department's decision was based on the acts committed by the licensee which constituted a violation of the code section and on the fact that he had been convicted of the violation rather than on any determination that the crime was a felony or a misdemeanor. Macfarlane v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 84, 330 P2d 769, 1958 Cal LEXIS 210.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not abuse its discretion in revoking the general on-sale liquor license of a licensee where the conduct for which the license was revoked, namely, the taking of unlawful bets on horse races at the licensed premises, constituted a crime under state laws and was thus technically contrary to public welfare or morals. Maloney v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 172 Cal App 2d 104, 342 P2d 520, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1931.

A revocation of a liquor license authorizing revocation for employing or permitting persons to solicit drinks on the licensed premises for compensation, was supported by evidence that a bar girl asked agents of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to buy her drinks, which they consented to do and that drinks at exorbitant prices were served to her; revocation was supported by further evidence that the licensee paid the bar girl who solicited the drinks a salary, permitted her to solicit drinks from patrons, and kept track roughly of the solicited drinks for the purpose of making that the girl had "friends." Greenblatt v. Martin (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 177 Cal App 2d 738, 2 Cal Rptr 508, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2540.

A claim of licensees that revocation of their license was arbitrary because "legions" of similar violations have resulted in penalties less severe is not meritorious where proceedings against other licensees are not a part of the record before the appellate court and there is nothing to show what charges were made or what evidence produced in the other cases; in any event, there is no requirement that charges similar in nature must result in identical penalties. Coleman v. Harris (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 496, 68 Cal Rptr 175, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1791.

In proceeding to revoke an on-sale liquor license, findings that there had been misconduct on the licensed premises in violation of B & P § 23779, concerning the keeping of a disorderly house, need not specify that the misconduct occurred within the, consciousness of the presence of the licensee or his employees. Art XX, § 22

The structuring of a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking a liquor license resulted in a failure to make any findings as to the portion of the accusation alleging a separate cause for discipline on the ground that continuance of the license would be contrary to public welfare and morals (B & P C § 24200, subd (a)) where, though the findings sufficiently set forth facts supported by independent evidence that the licensee knowingly bought and received stolen merchandise, such factual recitation was prefaced by the introductory statement that the licensee had “been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, as follows”; findings by implication cannot be substituted for specific findings when they are required. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 2d Dist) 25 Cal App 3d 331, 101 Cal Rptr 1, 1970 Cal Lexis 258.

The employment of “topless” waitresses and the distribution of their photographs to a liquor licensee’s patrons was not illegal per se or in violation of any duly issued rule or regulation of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control; and though it is not entirely implausible that “topless” waitresses present the same danger of exploitation of customers that “B-Girls” did, it is insufficient as a ground for revocation of a license where there is no evidence that the waitresses solicited customers to purchase drinks for them or accepted drinks from the patrons. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal Lexis 258.

In revoking an on-sale, general bona fide eating place license, for a violation of B & P C § 25601, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control could not properly base its decision on the keeping of a house that disturbed the neighborhood or the keeping of a house to which people resorted for purposes that injured public morals, where there was no evidence that the licensed premises disturbed the neighborhood or that people resorted to such premises for any of the purposes condemned by the statute. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal Lexis 258.

In revoking a liquor license for the licensee’s conduct contrary to public welfare and morals under Art XX § 22 and B & P C § 24200, subd (a), the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not err in failing to make an express determination as to a violation of those sections, where identical considerations were involved in the Department’s determination that illegal and immoral acts on the premises constituted the conduct of a disorderly house on the licensed premises in violation of B & P C § 25601. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1972, Cal App 2d Dist) 25 Cal App 3d 331, 101 Cal Rptr 815, 1972 Cal Lexis 1034.

Revocation of liquor license under B & P C §§ 24200 and 25601, purportedly in violation of licensee’s federal constitutional rights in the ground without for revocation was presence of homosexual clientele at bar, was res judicata for purposes of injunction action under 42 USC § 1983, as the Department is a state court of limited jurisdiction. Francisco Enterprises, Inc. v. Kirby (1973, 9th Cir Cal) 482 F2d 481, 1973 Us App Lexis 8706, Cert den (1974) 94 S Ct 1431, 39 L Ed 2d 471, 1974 Us 916, 1974 Us Lexis 1176.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control properly determined to revoke the license of a business establishment licensed to sell liquor on public premises based on a finding that the licensee had engaged in a sexually discriminatory admittance policy. Apart from testimony of the licensee’s own personnel which chronicled their conceded attempts to dissuade potential male customers, the testimony of the department investigators and the licensee’s advertisements placed in a newspaper clearly constituted substantial evidence upon which to base a finding of a sexually discriminatory admittance policy. Such discrimination having been established, the department’s authority to revoke the liquor license is confirmed by the Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, vesting in the Legislature the power to revoke “any specific alcoholic beverage license if it shall determine for good cause that … continuance of such license would be contrary to the public welfare ….” The respective public policy is set forth in Civ. Code, § 313 (the Unruh Civil Rights Act) which provides that “[a]ll persons within the jurisdiction of this state are free and equal, and no matter what their sex… are entitled to the full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities, privileges, or services in all businesses of every kind of every person, firm, corporation, business, public or private, in this state, without discrimination whatsoever.” Each business, whether a licensed alcoholic beverage to the licensee’s premises, the licensee may assert reliance on the original demand and exhibition of evidence of majority and identity, on entry upon the premises, in selling, furnishing or permitting the consumption of an alcoholic beverage imported into California, as prescribed by federal law, are controlled by and all subsequent revisions to the referenced federal law. Somermeier v. District Director of Customs (1971, 9th Cir Cal) 448 F2d 1243, 1971 Us App Lexis 7931.

15. Regulation of Sales Generally

Where it appeared that the discrepancy between the disbursements and the returns of liquor amounted to 1,290 cases per annum, the plaintiff’s manager testified he could not give the name, place, and time of a single transfer, the State Board was not bound by such testimony to the extent that the court could say as a matter of law that the Board’s finding that sales were made without necessary registration, that claims and exchanges, was arbitrary and capricious. Empire Vintage Co. v. Collins (1940, Cal App) 40 Cal App 2d 12, 105 Cal Rptr 391, 1940 Cal Lexis 149.

The provision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control Rule 28, relating to minimum requirements for issuance of a wholesaler’s liquor license was intended to give every retailer a chance to buy from anyone in licensed class with whom he must deal and thereby to prevent recurrence of the “tied-house” which protected restrictions of trade during pre-prohibition times. Duke Molner Wholesale Liquor Co. v. Martin (1960, Cal App 2d Dist) 180 Cal App 2d 573, 4 Cal Rptr 904, 1960 Cal Lexis 2413, Cert den (1960) 364 Us 870, 81 S Ct 112, 5 L Ed 2d 92, 1962 Us Lexis 325.

16. Distribution to Minors

If a liquor licensee delegates to an employee, such as a waitress, the task of ascertaining the bona fides of documentary evidence of majority and identity, required by B & P C § 25660, as a defense to a proceeding for suspension of a license for selling intoxicating liquor to a minor, he is bound by her conduct as if he had acted in person. 5501 Hollywood, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 748, 318 P2d 820, 1957 Cal Lexis 1391.

A licensee has no inherent right to sell liquor and his engaging in the business may legitimately be subject to rigid conditions that will limit the possibilities of sales to children under 21; the words “immediately prior,” as used in B & P C § 25660, are words of limitation in time, and the act of questioning a minor and seeing some proof of age two or three weeks before a sale is not “immediately prior” to the sale. Farah v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 35, 324 P2d 96, 1959 Cal Lexis 2803.

In proceedings for suspension of a license under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act for violation of B & P C § 25658(a), (b), by selling and furnishing an alcoholic beverage to a minor and by permitting the consumption of an alcoholic beverage by a minor, the court should consider the character of the premises and the business conducted thereon, the possible extent of the harm done and the risk of its recurrence, the reason for permitting the violation, and the extent of the injury, if any, done by the violation. E. C. Olivo v. Department of Motor Vehicles (1970, Cal App 2d Dist) 12 Cal App 2d 356, 90 Cal Rptr 657, 1970 Cal Lexis 1632.

Provisions of B & P C § 23661, exempting from taxation quantities of alcoholic beverages imported into California, as prescribed by federal law, are controlled by any and all subsequent revisions to the referenced federal law. Somermeier v. District Director of Customs (1971, 9th Cir Cal) 448 F2d 1243, 1971 Us App Lexis 7931.

On appeal to this court by the defendant, B & P C § 24200, subd (a), is a violation of Art XX, § 22, giving the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control the exclusive power and control over alcoholic beverage licenses, did not prohibit the Department of Corrections and the State Personnel Board from promulgating and enforcing a rule prohibiting correctional officers from owning, operating, or working in a liquor store, even though the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not prohibit such officers from obtaining liquor licenses. The classification made by the Legislature in regulating retail prices in the fair trade provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act by having each producer or wholesaler establish the retail price of his own brand, and the Legislature may reasonably proceed on the theory that the public will be adequately protected against excessive prices, by the ordinary play of competition between manufacturers. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

The legislative purpose of preventing price cutting and price wars among retailers is effectively attained under the fair trade provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act by having each producer or wholesaler establish the retail price of his own brand, and the Legislature may reasonably proceed on the theory that the public will be adequately protected against excessive prices, by the ordinary play of competition between manufacturers. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

The fact that the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act requires, rather than permits, producers and wholesalers to set retail prices does not render the function of a producer or wholesaler legislative in character but, to the contrary, decreases his discretion since he is not free to determine whether fair trading should occur; nor does it fact that the Act’s fair trade provisions provide for administrative and criminal sanctions for price discrimination involve any delegation of power, the sanctions being prescribed by the Legislature, not by the producers or wholesalers. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

Price regulation by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control of quantity of sales of distilled spirits to retailers does not come within the meaning or purview of “public welfare or morals” as that term is used in Art XX § 22. 17. Price Controls

The General Fair Trade Act, although designed in part to reduce cut-throat competition, is primarily intended to protect the property rights of producers and wholesalers, whereas the primary purpose of the fair trade provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is to promote orderly marketing conditions and temperance; this difference in primary purpose has no significant bearing on the question of delegation of legislative power because it does not change the functions of the persons to whom a delegation is assertedly made. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

generally sanctioned to employ topless or other similarly undressed waitresses and do not enjoy general immunity from disciplinary action if they do; where such purveying of liquor is attended by deleterious consequences, the Department should establish good cause and make out its case for revocation or, alternatively, the Department can adopt regulations covering the situation. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Depart-

A county ordinance proscribing the presence in model studios of persons possessing, consuming, using, or under the influence of alcohol beverages, as applied to a model studio operated in conjunction with a cocktail bar could not be said to conflict with Art XX § 22, giving the State the exclusive right to regulate in the, field of alcoholic beverages; several opinions of the Attorney General have upheld the right of local authorities to regulate places of public entertainment including premises licensed for the sale of liquor, and amendments to the constitutional provision adopted after the issuance of such opinions have made no significant change in its language; thus it is reasonable to conclude that the Attorney General’s opinions correctly interpreted the intent of the legislature and that such intent remains unchanged. 11. Zoning Restrictions

The provision in B & P § 23790, which exempts a nonconforming use, such as an on-sale liquor establishment, from a zoning ordinance does not include a use which had ceased four years before the effective date of the ordinance and eleven years before a renewal application was made; granting an on-sale intoxicating liquor license to an establishment operating with only a beer and wine license under a nonconform-

“Campus,” as used in Penal C § 172a, prohibiting the sale of intoxicants within a certain distance of a university campus, includes more than the areas actually occupied by the principal administrative office, and includes the lands surrounding the offices and buildings used for educational purposes. Yanolo v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 147 Cal App 2d 179, 304 P2d 722, 1956 Cal LEXIS 1260.

City zoning ordinance prohibiting establishment of cocktail bar or lounge within 500 feet of residential district without use permit did not covertly design local option, since it did not seek to eliminate use of alcoholic beverages by city’s residents, but permitted sale of liquors and presence of cocktail bars elsewhere in city. Floresta, Inc. v. City Council of San Leandro (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 190 Cal App 2d 599, 12 Cal Rptr 182, 1961 Cal LEXIS 2345.

Cal Adm Ct t 4 § 61.1, promulgated by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and providing that no on-sale general license or on-sale beer and wine license shall be issued within 1 mile of a university unless the Department is satisfied that the location of the premises is sufficiently distant from the campus and the nature of the licensed business is such that it will not be patronized by students, is void, being in conflict with Penal C § 1726, remanding the restriction against sale of alcoholic beverages in proximity to universities as to bona fide public eating places. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 1st Dist) 235 Cal App 2d 479, 45 Cal Rptr 450, 1965 Cal LEXIS 947.

A city’s ordinance imposing a plan approval process for the rebuilding of businesses destroyed or damaged during a civil disturbance and providing for revocation hearings as to businesses that had become or were going to become a nuisance under Penal C § 1726, remanding the restriction against sale of alcoholic beverages; instead, it focused on abating or eradicating nuisance activities in a particular geographic area by imposing condi-

20. Possession and Intoxication

It was not only the right of a police officer but his duty to check any suspicious activity and it was proper that the officer should find out what was going on about a panel truck, which had been seen before in the middle of the night parked in a questionably illegal way in an alley located in a home area; the officer had the right to stop the car and require identification, and when he discovered that there was an active breach of the law by the minor occupants, under circumstances which prima facie made them guilty of an offense through the use of an open jug of wine, he was not remiss in ordering their arrest. Bramlette v. Superior Court of Merced County (1969, Cal App 5th Dist) 273 Cal App 2d 759, 78 Cal Rptr 532, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 2228.

Defendant, placed under arrest for possession of alcohol by a minor, could not be arrested or prosecuted under B & P § 25662, relating to possession of an alcoholic beverage by a minor in a public place, but was charged, under Veh C § 23123.5, covering such possession “in a motor vehicle”; defendant was not only subject to the extra penalties imposed by that section but was also entitled to the rights of a person charged thereunder, including the right to be taken before a magistrate so that he might be admitted to bail. People v. Superior Court (1971, Cal App 1st Dist) 14 Cal App 3d 935, 92 Cal Rptr 545, 1971 Cal LEXIS 1043.

A complaint in a personal injury action against the employer of an allegedly intoxicated minor whose automobile collided with an automobile in which plaintiffs were riding stated a cause of action, where it was alleged that the minor’s intoxication was induced by his employer as the result of a Christmas party where the employer knowingly made available to minor copious amounts of liquor with knowledge he would eventually depart in an auto. Brockett v. Kitchen Boyd Motor Co. (1972, Cal App 5th Dist) 24 Cal App 3d 87, 100 Rptr 752, 1972 Cal App LEXIS 1120.

The trial court properly dismissed charges that defendant violated a city’s municipal code by possessing an open container of an alcoholic beverage in public with intent to consume the contents in public, since the local ordinance was an improper attempt to regulate possession of an alcoholic beverage (Pen. Code, § 647e(d)), which does not authorize such broad regulation. Although Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, provides that the state shall have the exclusive right and power to regulate the possession of alcoholic beverages within the state, the wording of the local ordinance clearly showed that it sought to prohibit possession of an alcoholic beverage under certain circumstances. The fact that the person with the alcoholic beverage must also intend to consume some part of it in public did not change the act (possession) that was prohibited by the ordinance. People v. Duran (1995, Cal App 2d Super Ct) 43 Cal App 4th Supp 1, 52 Cal Rptr 2d 79, 1995 Cal LEXIS 1295.

21. Taxation

Art XX § 22 does not exempt the owner of liquors from paying a personal property tax thereon levied by local tax agencies, such as a city, school district and water district. Three G Distillery Corp. v. County of Los Angeles (1941, Cal App) 46 Cal App 2d 498, 116 P2d 143, 1941 Cal LEXIS 1419.

Liquor licenses are not subject to ad valorem taxation as personal property, since they are not included in the list of intangibles specified in Art XII § 14 and Rev & Tax C § 111. Rohem v. County of Orange (1945) 32 Cal 2d 280, 196 P2d 550, 1948 Cal LEXIS 223.

An ordinance of the City and County of San Francisco imposing an excise tax of one-half of 1 percent on the retail purchase of wine, v. personal property does not, when applied to the sale of intoxicating liquors, enter into the field of taxation pre-empted by the State commensurate with its exclusive power to levies on the possession of intoxicants thereon, and hence does not violate Art XX § 22. Ainsworth v. Bryant (1949) 34 Cal 2d 465, 211 P2d 564, 1949 Cal LEXIS 180.

Application of a payroll expense tax ordinance adopted by a chartered city and county to wholesale liquor and beer distributors doing business in the city was not precluded by the provision of Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, giving the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control the exclusive power to tax alcoholic beverage sales, and a local tax on alcoholic beverage sales preempted by state law. However, alcoholic beverages retailers may properly be required to pay their fair share of the cost of government. If a business imposes an unusual burden on city services, a municipality may properly impose fees pursuant to its police powers, but may not impose a tax on alcoholic beverage retailers under the guise of a fee. City of Oakland v. Superior Court (1996, Cal App 1st Dist) 45 Cal App 4th 740, 53 Cal Rptr 2d 120, 1996 Cal App LEXIS 446.

22. Penalty Assessments

The amount of penalty to be assessed against a licensee who violates a provision of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is solely within the discretion of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control; it is beyond the jurisdiction of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board to order the department to reconsider a specific penalty imposed by it, such action amounting to an attempt to limit and control the department's discretion. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 169 Cal App 2d 294, 337 P2d 83, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2068.

B & P C § 24755.1, providing that punishment for retail sale of alcoholic beverages at less than the minimum price shown in schedules filed with the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall consist solely of monetary penalties in amounts as set forth, is not unconstitutional as an infringement by the Legislature on the power vested in the Department by Art XX § 22, to deny, suspend or revoke liquor licenses; such power of the Department is subject to reasonable legislative enactment, including the addition of mandatory fines as penalty assessments. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969) 71 Cal 2d 1200, 81 Cal Rptr 241, 459 P2d 657, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 314.

23. Conduct of Proceedings

The provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, relating to notice and hearing prior to revocation of licenses, merely prescribe the procedure by which jurisdiction of the State Board is to be exercised, and merely regulate procedure and are not designed to, nor do they in any way, limit or prevent the constitutional power of said Board or even remotely attempt to regulate or define what jurisdiction that Board shall possess, and do not conflict with Art XX § 22; while § 22 does not provide for any notice and hearing as a prerequisite to revocation of a license, the Board cannot claim that, when it acts independently and without any verified complaint being filed with it, no notice of such hearing is required, and that the license may be revoked without notice to the licensee and without affording him an opportunity to be heard. Irvine v. State Board of Equalization (1945, Cal App) 40 Cal App 2d 290, 104 P2d 847, 1940 Cal App LEXIS 103.

The Board must afford an opportunity for a full hearing when revoking a liquor license. Covert v. State Ed. of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal 2d 125, 173 P2d 545, 1946 Cal LEXIS 293.

Constitutional guarantees are not violated by revocation of a liquor license without notice or hearing. Saso v. Furtado (1951, Cal App) 104 Cal App 2d 759, 222 P2d 583, 1951 Cal App LEXIS 1684.

A liquor licensee accused of suffering his premises to be used as a disorderly house was not denied the right to counsel of his choice where the notice of hearing, served on him pursuant to Gov C § 11509, stated that “You may be present at the hearing, but may be but need not be represented by counsel.” Givens v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 176 Cal App 2d 529, 1 Cal Rptr 446, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1513.

In an administrative proceeding against a liquor licensee accused of suffering his premises to be used as a disorderly house, there is no right to counsel of his choice in view of the provisions of Gov C § 11524, for continuances in such proceedings at the discretion of the hearing officer and for “good cause shown.” Givens v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 176 Cal App 2d 529, 1 Cal Rptr 446, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1511.

In liquor license revocation proceeding, complaint charging that “On or about [a certain date the licensee], at his above-mentioned licensed premises, did employ or permit woman known only as Brownie, to solicit or encourage other persons to buy her alcoholic beverages, to-wit, beer, on above-mentioned premises” was sufficient to state offense, since it gave licensee fair notice of acts or omissions with which he was charged so that he could prepare his defense, licensee indicating no lack of preparation of his case before the hearing officer and no surprise appearing in transcript as to charge or evidence produced against him. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

In a proceeding to revoke a liquor license, the principal objective of Gov C § 11563, specifying the form of accusation in administrative proceedings, is to safeguard the licensee against an accusation that does not sufficiently enable him to prepare his defense; adherence to technical rules of pleading is not required. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

In a proceeding to revoke a liquor license, the accusation, in addition to being sufficiently alleged, must contain such facts relating to discipline on the ground that continuation of the license would be contrary to public welfare and morals (B & P C § 24200, subd (a)) where the allegation, based on the involvement of the licensee in illegal activity, preceded the allegation dealing with the criminal court proceedings relating to the same activity, where the substantive content of the paragraph, the punctuation, and the use of the conjunctive “and” to precede the allegation detailing the criminal court proceedings were all indicative of the several nature of the allegations, and where the licensee indicated no lack of preparation of his case before the hearing officer and the record showed no surprise on his part as to the charges or evidence produced against him. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 2d Dist) 3 Cal App 3d 209, 83 Cal Rptr 89, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1373.

Business challenging a suspension of its license to sell beer and wine by the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under B & P C § 23090 made a prima facie case of a California Administrative Procedure Act (APA), Gov C § 11340 et seq., violation where it was undisputed that it was standard Department procedure for the Department's prosecuting attorney to furnish a report of hearing ex parte to the Department’s decision-maker, and where the Department fails to meet its burden to show a change in departmental practice. Although the Department asserted that it did not use the condemned practice, it failed to adduce evidence substantiating its assertion before the California Constitution Appeals Control Appeals Board and could not do so for the first time in the appellate court. Chevron Stations, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2007, Cal App 3d Dist) 149 Cal App 4th 116, 57 Cal Rptr 3d 6, 2007 Cal App LEXIS 468.

Although the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control's decision-maker rejected an administrative law judge's (ALJ) proposed decision in a recent California Supreme Court case that held that the California Administrative Procedure Act (APA), Gov C § 11340 et seq., was violated by the Department’s practice of having the Department’s prosecuting attorney send a “report of hearing” to the Department's decision-maker before a final decision was made, the APA is also violated even where the Department’s decision-maker decides to adopt the ALJ’s proposed decision. Chevron Stations, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2007, Cal App 3d Dist) 149 Cal App 4th 116, 57 Cal Rptr 3d 6, 2007 Cal App LEXIS 468.

24. Reconsideration Determinations

It is not the province of a court reviewing the proceedings of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to substitute its judgment for the Department’s discretion. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (2007, Cal App 3d Dist) 149 Cal App 4th 116, 57 Cal Rptr 3d 6, 2007 Cal App LEXIS 468.
for the Department’s as to whether a license should issue or as to whether there has been, since a prior hearing and order, a change in circumstances that justifies a change in decision, providing there is substantial evidence for the change. Hasselbach v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 167 Cal App 2d 662, 334 P2d 1058, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2386.

When Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control granted liquor license to grocery store after having previously refused to issue such license, fact that Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, in affirming order granting application for license, may have erroneously held that res judicata was under no circumstances applicable in such proceeding, did not affect validity of its decision since such, statement was not finding of fact, Appeals Board having no power to make findings of fact, and since there was a change of conditions which was found to exist by Department, and by affirming Department’s order, Appeals Board ruled that findings supported Department’s decision and order; Appeals Board’s decision was thus correct and it was immaterial that its reasons were erroneous. Hasselbach v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 167 Cal App 2d 662, 334 P2d 1058, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2386.

25. Judicial Review Generally

The rule that no appeal lies from findings or conclusions is based on CCP § 664 which provides that no judgment is effectual until entered, and on the rule that until entry the judge can change his previously rendered judgment. Brice v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 315, 314 P2d 807, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1494.

It was not error to sustain, without leave to amend, a demurrer to a complaint in mandamus to review proceedings of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board in which it had properly dismissed, for lack of jurisdiction, a petition for certiorari. Hasselbach v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 167 Cal App 2d 662, 334 P2d 1058, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2386.

Under CCP § 1194.5, mandamus in the superior court is a proper remedy at law, despite the fact that the licensees alleged that they had exhausted all remedies provided by applicable laws and had no further adequate remedy at law, provided there was no right to seek judicial review of such decision under Gov C § 11523 without first filing an appeal with the appeals board of the department. Fiscus v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 234, 317 P2d 993, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1271.

A party aggrieved by a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control authorizing the issuance of an on-sale liquor license, has no right to seek judicial review of such decision under Gov C § 11523 without first filing an appeal with the appeals board of the department. Martin v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

The rule that exhaustion of the administrative remedy is a jurisdictional prerequisite to resort to the courts is applicable even where the statute sought to be applied and enforced by the administrative agency is challenged on constitutional grounds. Miller v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

26. Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies

Gov C § 11523, relating to judicial review of administrative decisions, does not authorize an appeal to the courts directly from the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control’s revocation of a liquor license; to secure a judicial review, the licensee must first appeal to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, pursuant to B & P C § 23081, and then may seek judicial review of the board’s decision. Brice v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 523, 314 P2d 1007, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1267.

Where Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board has reversed decision of the Department of Alcohol in a proceeding to obtain a writ of mandamus commanding the department. Fiscus v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 234, 317 P2d 993, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1271.

Where an appeal from an order of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking a liquor license was filed before the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board after expiration of the time limit set in B & P C § 23081, the Board had no jurisdiction over the proceeding, the Department’s decision became final, and the courts had no jurisdiction to review the proceeding. Van De Veer v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

The rule that exhaustion of the administrative remedy is a jurisdictional prerequisite to resort to the courts is applicable even where the statute sought to be applied and enforced by the administrative agency is challenged on constitutional grounds. Miller v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

The rule that exhaustion of the administrative remedy is a jurisdictional prerequisite to resort to the courts is applicable even where the statute sought to be applied and enforced by the administrative agency is challenged on constitutional grounds. Miller v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.
Control Appeals Board affirming the suspension, where, although the alleged violations on which the suspension was based occurred prior to the effective date of § 29090.5, reversing a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control respecting a liquor license, was a denial of an opportunity to take advantage of the benefits of the revised procedures.

27. Scope and Standards of Judicial Review

In determining whether or not a particular establishment qualifies as a bona fide eating place under Art XX § 22, it is the province of the State Board to ascertain the facts, such as physical aspects, equipment and supplies, amount of food and liquor sold, and the manner in which the business is conducted: after the probative facts have been settled, the construction and application of the Constitution and pertinent statutes are questions of law for the courts to decide. Covert v. State Bd. & Supplies, amount of food and liquor sold, and the manner in which

A decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control respecting a liquor license is final, subject to review for excess of jurisdiction, errors of law, abuse of discretion and insufficiency of evidence, and where there is error the matter ordinarily should be remanded to the Department for further proceedings. Macfarlane v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 94, 330 P2d 769, 1958 Cal LEXIS 210.

Neither the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board nor the courts may disregard or overturn a finding of fact that the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control respecting a liquor license is final, subject to review for excess of jurisdiction, errors of law, abuse of discretion and insufficiency of evidence, and where there is error the matter ordinarily should be remanded to the Department for further proceedings. Macfarlane v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 94, 330 P2d 769, 1958 Cal LEXIS 210.

Feeds imposed by a city ordinance on liquor retailers to pay for the costs of regulating nuisance and criminal activities associated with alcoholic beverage sales establishments, was not precluded by Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, which grants the State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control the exclusive power to collect license fees or occupancy taxes related to alcoholic beverage sales. That the ultimate result of a failure to pay the city’s required fee might be abatement or revocation of the state liquor license did not transform the regulatory fee into a prohibited license tax. City of Oakland v. Superior Court (1996, Cal App 1st Dist) 45 Cal App 4th 740, 53 Cal Rptr 2d 120, 1996 Cal App LEXIS 446.

Feeds imposed by a city ordinance on liquor retailers to pay for the costs of regulating nuisance and criminal activities associated with alcoholic beverage sales establishments, was not precluded by Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, which grants the State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control the exclusive power to collect license fees or occupancy taxes related to alcoholic beverage sales. City showed that the annual operating budget for the program would be recovered in fees charged to alcoholic beverage retail establishments pursuant to the ordinance. Reinspection fees would be charged only to establishments that were found not to be in compliance with the terms of the ordinance. The estimated revenues derived from the fees matched the program’s proposed budget, and the ordinance’s revenue was intended to pay the administrative costs of its programs. The ordinance’s primary purpose was regulatory, to create an environment in which nuisance and criminal activities associated with alcoholic beverage retail establishments may be reduced or eliminated. Thus, the fee imposed pursuant to the ordinance was not a tax imposed to pay for revenue to the local governmental entity, but was intended to defray the cost of providing and administering the hearing process set out in the ordinance. City of Oakland v. Superior Court (1996, Cal App 1st Dist) 45 Cal App 4th 740, 53 Cal Rptr 2d 120, 1996 Cal App LEXIS 446.

Feeds imposed by a city ordinance on liquor retailers to pay for the costs of regulating nuisance and criminal activities associated with alcoholic beverage sales establishments, derived solely from the city’s police power under Cal. Const., art. XI, § 7, and the fees were therefore valid. A city’s police powers are as broad as the police power that may be exercised by the Legislature itself. However, in its proper exercise of its police powers, the city could not also violate Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, which grants the State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control the exclusive power to tax alcoholic beverage sales. Generally, the constitutional provision will not preempt a local ordinance when the ordinance does not directly affect the licensee’s ability to sell alcoholic beverage to a willing purchaser. The Legislature did not intend that a person licensed to sell alcoholic beverages be immune from local supervision of any activity that the licensee may pursue in conjunction with sale of alcoholic beverages. An ordinance prohibiting nuisance and criminal activities from being conducted on or near the premises of liquor licensees falls within the legitimate scope of a city’s police power. Thus, since the ordinance was not intended to control the sale of alcoholic beverages, but to eliminate nuisances and criminal activities from being conducted on or near the premises of liquor licensees, it did not conflict with the state’s authority to regulate alcoholic beverage sales. City of Oakland v. Superior Court (1996, Cal App 1st Dist) 45 Cal App 4th 740, 53 Cal Rptr 2d 120, 1996 Cal App LEXIS 446.

A municipal code provision prohibiting the possession of alcoholic beverages in public buildings and parks was void, and thus defendant’s conviction under the provision, based on his possessing a six-pack of beer in a park within the city, was invalid. Local legislation that contracts general law is void, and under Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, the state has the exclusive right and power to license and regulate the possession of alcoholic beverages. Although there is case law approving the local regulation of places of entertainment where alcohol is sold, the issue in such cases concerns the regulation of the licensee, not the person in possession of the alcohol. People v. Ramirez (1994, Cal App 1st Super Ct) 25 Cal App 4th 740, 53 Cal Rptr 2d 120, 1996 Cal App LEXIS 795.

NOTES OF DECISIONS
1. Legislative Intent
2. Constitutionality
3. Construction
4. Penalties

1. Legislative Intent
The short title of this act, and the provisions of its full title, indicated at the outset an intention to tax alcoholic liquors used for beverage purposes, and disclosed no intent to tax industrial alcohol as such. Commercial Solvents Corp. v. Riley (1936) 7 Cal 2d 731, 62 P2d 588, 1306 Cal LEXIS 702.

2. Constitutionality
Price regulating provisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act do not violate due process clause of US Const 14th Amend; power of states to control traffic in liquor is unconditional and includes complete prohibition, as well as any restriction falling short of prohibition, even if discriminatory in nature and unconnected to public health, safety or morals. Dave’s Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 222 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 348, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1711.

There is no inherent right in a citizen to engage in the business of selling alcoholic beverages, and the governing authority may, in the exercise of the police power for the protection of the public morals, health and safety, grant the privilege of selling alcoholic beverages on such terms and conditions as it may determine. Reimel v. House (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 259 Cal App 2d 511, 66 Cal Rptr 434, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1994, appeal dismissed Westside Liquor Co. v. Kirby (1968) 393 US 17, 89 S Ct 48, 21 L Ed 2d 17, 1968 US LEXIS 588.

Regulation prohibiting certain sexually explicit live entertainment or films in licensed bars and nightclubs upheld notwithstanding that regulations prescribe some forms of visual presentation not obscene, considering the states’ broad authority under the Twenty-First Amendment to control intoxicating liquors, and evidence before the Board showing a greater incidence of prostitution, rape, indecent exposure, and assaults near liquor-vending premises. California v. La Rue (1972) 409 US 109, 34 L Ed 2d 342, 93 S Ct 390, 1972 US LEXIS 128, rehearing denied (1973) 410 US 948, 93 S Ct 1351, 35 L Ed 2d 615, 1973 US LEXIS 3546.

3. Construction
Alcoholic Beverage Control Act contains special provisions regulating fair trade contracts relating to alcoholic beverages, and such provisions, though similar to, are separate from general provisions for fair trade contracts found in Fair Trade Act. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

4. Penalties
Penalty for breach of price fixing regulation of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is both civil and penal, and Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control may suspend or revoke licenses, or institute criminal action. Peck’s Liquors, Inc. v. Superior Court of San Francisco (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 221 Cal App 2d 772, 34 Cal Rptr 735, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2245, overruled Sail’er Inn, Inc. v. Kirby (1971) 5 Cal 3d 1, 95 Cal Rptr 329, 485 P2d 529, 1971 Cal LEXIS 230, 46 ALR3d 351.

§ 23001. Purposes of division; Construction
This division is an exercise of the police powers of the State for the protection of the safety, welfare, health, peace, and morals of the people of the State, to eliminate the evils of unlicensed and unlawful manufacture, selling, and disposing of alcoholic beverages, and to promote temperance in the use and consumption of alcoholic beverages. It is hereby declared that the subject matter of this division involves in the highest degree the economic, social, and moral well-being and the safety of the State and of all its people. All provisions of this division shall be liberally construed for the accomplishment of these purposes.

6. Regulation
A state may, in exercise of its police power, and without offending commerce clause of Federal Constitution, regulate or control traffic in intoxicating liquors, within its own borders, to extent either of regulating or altogether preventing business of soliciting proposals in such state for purchase of liquors, which proposals are to be consummated outside of state, and liquors to which such proposals relate are also situated outside state. In re Application of Anixter (1933, Cal App) 22 Cal App 117, 134 P 193, 1933 Cal App LEXIS 47.

Under Const Art XX § 22, State, subject to certain federal laws, has exclusive right and power to control, license and regulate the manufacture, sale, purchase, possession, transportation and disposition of intoxicating liquors within this State, and may prohibit entirely manufacture and traffic of intoxicating liquor; this can also be under the police power of State, and State, having power to prohibit entirely, can impose such conditions and regulations as it may deem proper. Sandelin v. Collins (1934) 1 Cal 2d 147, 33 P 2d 1009, 1934 Cal LEXIS 343, 93 ALR 956.

Retail sale of intoxicating liquors is business attended with danger to community, and it may be entirely prohibited or permitted under such conditions as will limit to utmost its evils, and manner and extent of regulation rest in discretion of governing authority. Schaub's, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 858, 315 P 2d 459, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1570.

The business of selling intoxicating liquor is one attendant with dangers, and under the police power the state may limit the operation of such business to conditions which will minimize its evils. § 23001.5. Severability of provisions of division
If any provision of this division or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this division that can be given effect without the invalid portion or application, and to this end the provisions of this division are severable. It is the intent of the Legislature that this division would have been adopted regardless if such invalid provision had not been included or any invalid application had not been made.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is given power to administer and enforce the liquor laws throughout the state (Cal Const, art XX, § 22, B & P C §§ 23049–23051), and it is the department’s duty to administer and enforce the retail price maintenance provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act. Samson Market Co. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1969) 71 Cal 2d 1215, 81 Cal Rptr 251, 459 P2d 667, 1969 Cal LEXIS 315.

§ 23052. Application of specified Government Code provisions

The provisions of Chapter 2, Part 1, Division 3, Title 2 of the Government Code shall govern and apply to the conduct of the department in every respect the same as if such provisions were herein set forth at length, and wherever in that chapter the term “head of the department” or similar designation occurs, for the purposes of this section it shall mean the director.

§ 23053. Power of director to appoint employees; Responsibility of employees to director

The director shall be the appointing power of all employees within the department, and all heads of divisions, bureaus and other employees in the department shall be responsible to the director for the proper carrying out of the duties and responsibilities of their respective positions.

§ 23053.1. Injunctive relief

The director may bring an action to enjoin a violation or the threatened violation of any provision of this division, including, but not limited to, subdivision (e) of Section 24200 regarding a licensee’s failure to correct objectionable conditions following notice, or any rule promulgated pursuant to the provisions of this division. The action may be brought in the county in which the violation occurred or is threatened to occur. NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Construction
2. Constitutionality

1. Construction

B & P C § 23053.1, construed so as to allow the issuance of an injunction only when a licensee continues to violate the same rules after its license has been revoked by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control after an administrative hearing concerning violation of such rules, is a valid legislative addition to the remedies of the department in the exercise of its alcoholic beverage control activities, and thus the superior court did not lack jurisdiction to issue an injunction restraining a licensee from violating Cal. Admin. Code (now Cal Code Reg), tit. 4, § 143.3 (prohibiting holding of on-sale license at any premises where specified sexually oriented live entertainment occurs), once the department had revoked the licensee’s license for violating that section, notwithstanding the licensee’s contention that previously enacted statutes granting the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeal exclusive jurisdiction to review or otherwise determine the propriety of departmental activities precluded operation of § 23053.1. Stroh v. Midway Restaurant Systems, Inc. (1986, Cal App 4th Dist) 180 Cal App 3d 1040, 226 Cal Rptr 153, 1986 Cal App LEXIS 1572.

There are no unresolvable inconsistencies between B & P C § 23053.1 (permitting Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to bring action to enjoin violations by licensee once department has adopted decision after administrative hearing to revoke licensee’s license), and B & P C §§ 23082-23089 (pertaining to appeals from decisions of department); § 23053.1 gives the department no power to revoke a license or otherwise interfere with a licensee’s license, but only a limited power to ask the court to enjoin continued violations of the license. Further, operation of the statute is not restricted to the period after the appellate process is completed; such restriction would render the statute almost superfluous, since the license revocation is then final. Stroh v. Midway Restaurant Systems, Inc. (1986, Cal App 4th Dist) 180 Cal App 3d 1040, 226 Cal Rptr 153, 1986 Cal App LEXIS 1572.

2. Constitutionality

Issuance of an injunction under B & P C § 23053.1 (permitting Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to bring action to enjoin violations by licensee once department has adopted decision after administrative hearing to revoke licensee’s license), did not violate the Equal Protection Rights of a licensee whose license the department had decided to revoke for violation of Cal. Admin. Code (now Cal Code Reg), tit. 4, § 143.3 (prohibiting holding of on-sale license at any premises where specified sexually oriented live entertainment occurs), even though only the department has access to the superior court under § 23053.1. A licensee and the department are not similarly situated, and even if they were, the state has sufficiently compelling interests to counteract the imposition of distinct treatment, including the need to enforce rules once violations have been established. Further, the department still must establish both the facts underlying the need for the injunction and the danger of irreparable harm without it. Stroh v. Midway Restaurant Systems, Inc. (1986, Cal App 4th Dist) 180 Cal App 3d 1040, 226 Cal Rptr 153, 1986 Cal App LEXIS 1572.

Application of B & P C § 23053.1 (permitting Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to bring action to enjoin violations by licensee once department has adopted decision after administrative hearing to revoke licensee’s license), to a licensee whose license the department had decided to revoke on the basis of violations occurring before passage of that statute did not violate ex post facto principles. The § 23053.1 remedy was invoked exclusively because of violations taking place after passage of the statute and after the decision to revoke. Further, the licensee could continue to sell alcoholic beverages and was only prevented from continuing to violate proscriptions brought forth in the statutes and rules during the period between initial revocation and final action on its appeal. Stroh v. Midway Restaurant Systems, Inc. (1986, Cal App 4th Dist) 180 Cal App 3d 1040, 226 Cal Rptr 153, 1986 Cal App LEXIS 1572.

Issuance of an injunction pursuant to B & P C § 23053.1 (permitting Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to bring action to enjoin violations by licensee once department has adopted decision after administrative hearing to revoke licensee’s license), did not constitute an unconstitutional prior restraint on the free expression rights of a liquor licensee whose license the department had decided to revoke for violations of Cal. Admin. Code (now Cal Code Reg), tit. 4, § 143.3 (prohibiting holding of on-sale license at any premises where specified sexually oriented live entertainment occurs). The constitutional rights of free expression are not called into play as they might otherwise be when violation of state regulations concerning alcoholic beverages is involved. Further, the remedy under § 23053.1 is not automatic; the court has inherent discretion to grant or deny relief, and the department must make the showing required for injunctive relief. Stroh v. Midway Restaurant Systems, Inc. (1986, Cal App 4th Dist) 180 Cal App 3d 1040, 226 Cal Rptr 153, 1986 Cal App LEXIS 1572.

The free expression rights of a liquor licensee whose license the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control had decided to revoke for violations of Cal. Admin. Code (now Cal Code Reg), tit. 4, § 143.3 (prohibiting holding of on-sale license at any premises where specified sexually oriented live entertainment occurs), were not violated by issuance of an injunction under B & P C § 23053.1 (permitting the department to bring action to enjoin violations by licensee once the department has decided to revoke an administrative hearing to revoke licensee’s license), without a demonstration that the specific dance violations were grossly sexual or rose to a level of bacchanalian revelry; it is not necessary to make such a demonstration in order to § 23053.5. Investigation of violations; Fees from licensees
The department shall have the function of investigation of violations of Chapters 10, 11 and 15 of this division and rules of the department relating thereto. To the end that such provisions are more adequately and strictly enforced, funds of support of this program shall be derived as follows: In addition to fees otherwise provided for in this division, the following amounts shall be paid to the department by holders of the following types of licenses:

(a) Retail package off-sale general license .......................... $24 per year
(b) Rectifier's license .......................... $52 per year
(c) Distilled spirits wholesaler's license .......................... $52 per year
(d) Distilled spirits manufacturer's agent's license ............... $52 per year
(e) Distilled spirits manufacturer's license .......................... $52 per year
(f) Distilled spirits importer's general license ...................... $52 per year
(g) California winemaker's agent's license .......................... $52 per year

Payment of those amounts shall be made upon issuance or transfer of these types of licenses, and shall be made by the holders of these types of licenses at the time specified in this division for payment of annual renewal fees therefor.

The provisions of Section 23322 shall apply to the amounts to be paid under this section. All money collected from the fees provided for in this section shall be deposited in the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund as provided in Section 25761.

(a) The amount of funds allocated and spent by the department for licensing, enforcement, and administration.
(b) The number of licenses issued, renewed, denied, suspended, and revoked, by license category.
(c) The average time for processing license applications, by license category.

ment for legislation to improve the ability of the department to expediently and effectively administer this division."

Note—Stats 1992 ch 900 provides:
SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the regulation of the sale and use of alcoholic beverages is among the highest priorities of state government. The abuse of alcohol can lead to a myriad of other criminal, legal, social, and economic problems. The fair, stable, and effective administration and enforcement of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act and related laws, therefore, must be insured.

Appeals From Decisions of the Department

[Added Stats 1st Ex Sess 1954 ch 20 § 3, operative January 1, 1955.]

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

There are no unresolvable inconsistencies between B & P C § 23053.1 (permitting Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to bring action to enjoin violations by licensee once department has adopted decision after administrative hearing to revoke licensee's license), and B & P C §§ 23082-23089 (pertaining to appeals from decisions of department); § 23053.1 gives the department no power to revoke a license or otherwise interfere with a licensee's license, but only a limited power to ask the court to enjoin continued violations of the license. Further, operation of the statute is not restricted to the period after the appellate process is completed; such restriction would render the statute almost superfluous, since the license revocation is then final. Stroh v. Midway Restaurant Systems, Inc. (1986, Cal App 4th Dist) 180 Cal App 3d 1040, 226 Cal Rptr 153, 1986 Cal LEXIS 1572.

§ 23080. “Decision”

As used in this article “decision” means any determination of the department imposing a penalty assessment or affecting a license which may be appealed to the board under Section 22 of Article XX of the Constitution.

§ 23081. Perfecting appeal; Time for filing; Procedure; Right to appeal despite failure to seek reconsideration

On or before the tenth day after the last day on which reconsideration of a final decision of the department can be ordered, any party aggrieved by a final decision of the department may file an appeal with the board from such decision. The appeal shall be in writing and shall state the grounds upon which a review is sought. A copy of the appeal shall be mailed by the appellant to each party who appeared in the proceeding before the department, including the department which shall thereafter be treated in all respects as a party to the appeal. The right to appeal shall not be affected by failure to seek reconsideration before the department.

Amendments:

1959 Amendment: (1) Amended the first sentence by substituting (a) “On or before the tenth day after the last day on which reconsideration of a final decision of the department can be ordered” for “Within 40 days after the decision of the department is delivered or mailed to the applicant” and (b) “file an appeal with the board” for “appeal to the board”; and (2) added the last sentence.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Time For Appeal
3. Extension of Time to Appeal
4. Failure To Appeal Within Time Specified
5. Appeal as Prerequisite to Judicial Review

1. Generally

This section reasonably permits construction which would include application of CCP § 1013, relating to service of notices by mail, in its entirety to filing of notice of appeal from decision of department. Pesce v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

2. Time For Appeal

Mailing of notice of appeal was not equivalent of constructive filing, under prior section. Anderson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 4th Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 410, 324 P2d 24, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2064.

3. Extension of Time to Appeal

CCP § 1013 relating to service of notices by mail, applied to extend forty-day period prescribed by former section. Pesce v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

Fact that licensee subsequently petitioned for reconsideration of decision, which was denied, does not extend time for appeal from original decision. Anderson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 4th Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 410, 324 P2d 24, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2064.

Though it had been consistent practice of Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, both before and after 1959 amendment of this section, providing for time to file appeal, to apply CCP § 1013 to extend time within which appeal could be filed, and though construction of statute by state board is entitled to weight, practice of board cannot grant jurisdiction in face of jurisdictional limitation. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 223 Cal App 2d 563, 35 Cal Rptr 865, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1569.

4. Failure To Appeal Within Time Specified

Where appeal from department’s revocation of liquor license was filed before appeals board after expiration of time limit set in this section, appeals board had no jurisdiction over proceeding, department’s decision became final, and superior court had no jurisdiction to review proceeding in mandamus. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

An appeal to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board from a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending the license of a licensee was not timely filed, where it was not filed on or before the 10th day after the last day on which reconsideration could be ordered (B & P C § 23081)—that is, on or before the 10th day following the 30th day after the mailing of the decision to the licensee (Gov C § 11521), where the decision contained no effective date, and where no application was made by the licensee for a stay of the effective date nor a stay ordered by the department. Reime v. House (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 264 Cal App 2d 173, 70 Cal Rptr 224, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 2064.

Where department's decision suspending and revoking on-sale liquor license was not appeal within time allowed by law to appeals board, licensees failed to exhaust their administrative remedies and were not entitled to judicial review of order complained of. Miller v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 160 Cal App 2d 658, 325 P2d 601, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2169, cert den (1958) 358 US 907, 79 S Ct 234, 3 L Ed 2d 229, 1958 US LEXIS 76.

5. Appeal as Prerequisite to Judicial Review

Gov C § 11523, relating to judicial review of administrative decisions, does not authorize appeal to courts directly from department's revocation of liquor license; but to judicial review, licensee must first appeal to appeals board, pursuant to this section, and then may seek judicial review of board's decision. Hollywood Circle, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 523, 314 P2d 1007, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1526, cert den (1958) 356 US 902, 78 S Ct 562, 2 L Ed 2d 580, 1958 US LEXIS 1595.

Party aggrieved by decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control authorizing issuance of on-sale liquor license has no right to seek judicial review of such decision without first filing appeal with appeals board of department. Fiscus v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 234, 317 P2d 993, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1271.

Only decision from which liquor licensee whose license was revoked can appeal is decision of department of alcoholic beverage control revoking his license, and timely appeal to alcoholic beverage control appeals board is necessary to exhaust administrative remedies. Anderson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 4th Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 413, 324 P2d 24, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2014, overruled Pesce v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

There was no jurisdiction for judicial review of department's order revoking license where appeal from such order was not taken to appeals board within time allowed by law, despite fact that licensees alleged that they had exhausted all remedies provided by applicable laws and had no further adequate remedy at law or further right of appeal except to file petition for writ of mandate, and such allegation was admitted in department's return. Miller v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 160 Cal App 2d 658, 325 P2d 601, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2169, cert den (1958) 358 US 907, 79 S Ct 234, 3 L Ed 2d 229, 1958 US LEXIS 76.

Before party to proceeding before department of alcoholic beverage control can seek judicial review of decision of that department, he must prosecute appeal before alcoholic beverage control appeals board. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 596, 326 P2d 928, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1778.

Licensee may not seek court review of decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control Board revoking license without first appealing to Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board. Cardoso v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 162 Cal App 2d 277, 327 P2d 501, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1870.

A notice of appeal to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board from a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control imposing disciplinary action on a licensee, filed 46 days after the decision was made and mailed was not timely filed within the provisions of this section, requiring filing of the appeal on or before the 10th day after the last day on which reconsideration could be ordered, where the department had not granted a stay of the 30-day reconsideration period as permitted by Gov C § 11521. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 254 Cal App 2d 340, 62 Cal Rptr 54, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1400.

The trial court erred in denying a writ of mandamus to compel the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board to dismiss an appeal from the issuance of an off-sale liquor license by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, where the department, pursuant to B & P C § 24013, had rejected a protest and ordered a later hearing to revoke the license issued, and where the protests appeared before any such hearing was held. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 263 Cal App 2d 706, 69 Cal Rptr 744, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 2260.

§ 23083. Determination of appeal by board

(a) The board shall determine the appeal upon the record of the department and upon any briefs which may be filed by the parties. If any party to the appeal requests the right to appear before the board, the board shall fix a time and place for argument. The board shall not receive any evidence other than that contained in the record of the proceedings of the department.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 11425.10 of the Government Code, Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 11400) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code does not apply to the determination.

Amendments:

1995 Amendment: (1) Designated the former section to be subd (a); and (2) added subd (b).

Note—Stats 1995 ch 938 § 98, in part, provides: SEC. 98. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), this act shall be operative on July 1, 1997.
SEC. 100. The provisions of this act are severable. If any provision of this act or its application is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.

Law Revision Commission Comments:

1995—Section 23083 is amended to add subdivision (b). Subdivision (b) makes the general administrative adjudication provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act inapplicable to determination of an appeal by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board. Exemption of the agency's hearings from the Administrative Procedure Act does not exempt the hearings from the language assistance requirements of that act. Govt Code 11435.15(d). Although Section 23083 is silent on the question, the formal hearing provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code) do not apply to determination of an appeal by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, CF. Govt Code 11501 (application of chapter). Nothing in Section 23083 excuses compliance with procedural protections required by due process of law.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

Business challenging a suspension of its license to sell beer and wine by the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under B & P C § 23080 made a prima facie case of a California Administrative Procedure Act (APA), Gov C § 11340 et seq., violation where it was undisputed that it was standard Department procedure for the Department’s prosecuting attorney to furnish a report of hearing ex parte to the Department’s decision-maker, and where the Department did not meet its burden to show a change in departmental practice. Although the Department asserted that it did not use the condemned practice, it failed to adduce evidence substantiating its assertion before the California Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board and could not do so for the first time in the appellate court. Chevron Stations, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2007, Cal App 3d Dist) 149 Cal App 4th 116, 57 Cal Rptr 3d 6, 2007 Cal App LEXIS 468.

§ 23083.5. Surcharge on annual license fee; Amount; Deposit in Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Fund

(a) The board shall establish a surcharge applicable to the annual fees provided for in Section 23320.

(b) The surcharge set by the board shall be proportionate to the fee charged to each licensee pursuant to Section 23320 and shall provide an amount which is sufficient to pay the actual costs of the board in carrying out its duties commencing July 1, 1982. The surcharge shall not exceed 3 percent applied to the annual fees provided for in Section 23320, but shall otherwise be adjusted periodically to ensure that sufficient amounts are collected to pay these costs. The surcharge shall be collected on behalf of the board by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control at the same time the department makes its regular collections of annual fees pursuant to Sections 23320 and 23320.2.

(c) All surcharges collected by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control on behalf of the board pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Fund, which is hereby created. All moneys in the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Fund shall be available to the board, when appropriated by the Legislature, to pay the actual costs of the board in carrying out its duties, commencing July 1, 1982, under this chapter.

Editor's Notes—Section 23320.2 of the Business and Professions Code, referred to in this section, was repealed by Stats 2001 ch 488 § 4 (AB 1248).

Amendments:

1983 Amendment: (1) Substituted subds (a) and (b) for former subds (a) and (b) which read: “(a) The board shall establish a fee for the filing of an appeal. No appeal may be filed with the board for any new case arising on or after 60 days after the operative date of this section unless the fee has been paid to the board.

(b) The fee set by the board shall be in an amount which is sufficient to pay the actual costs of the board in carrying out its duties under this chapter. The fee shall be adjusted periodically to ensure that sufficient amounts are collected to pay these costs.”; and (2) amended subd (c) by (a) substituting “surcharges collected by the Department of Alcoholic Beverages Control on behalf of” for “fees collected by” near the beginning of the subdivision; and (b) adding , commencing July 1, 1982,” near the end of the subdivision.
§ 23084. Questions to be considered by board on review

The review by the board of a decision of the department shall be limited to the questions:

(a) Whether the department has proceeded without, or in excess of, its jurisdiction.

(b) Whether the department has proceeded in the manner required by law.

(c) Whether the decision is supported by the findings.

(d) Whether the findings are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record.

(e) Whether there is relevant evidence, which, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, could not have been produced or which was improperly excluded at the hearing before the department.

Note—Stats 1983 ch 4 provides:

SEC. 3. All filing fees which were collected pursuant to Section 23083.5 of the Business and Professions Code prior to the effective date of this act, shall be returned to the appellants who paid them. Each timely appeal which had been delivered to the board for filing after August 29, 1982, without payment of the filing fee specified by Section 23083.5 of the Business and Professions Code prior to its amendment by this act at the 1983-84 Regular Session of the Legislature, shall be filed by the board.

SEC. 4. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

Attorney General’s Opinions:

The provisions of Cal Const Art III § 3.5 apply to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board in the exercise of its authority under Cal Const Art XX § 22, and B & P C §§ 23080 through 23087, 62 Ops. Cal. Atty. Gen. 788.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

Decisions of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control are final except as they are subject to review for excess of jurisdiction, errors of law, abuse of discretion, and insufficiency of evidence. Schaub’s, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 858, 315 P2d 459, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1570.

Section merely enacts in statutory form the same provisions for “limited” review by appeals board as are found in 1954 amendment. Martin v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 238, 340 P2d 1, 1959 Cal LEXIS 197.

Powers conferred on Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board under Cal Const Art XX § 22, and this section are strictly limited and no greater than those previously exercised by courts on judicial review of decisions of State Board of Equalization. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control’s practice of allowing its ultimate decisionmaker to have access to prosecuting attorneys’ reports of hearing violates statutory prohibitions against ex parte communications. The practice is improper, regardless of whether the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board adopts the Department’s decision. Rondon v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2007, Cal App 6th Dist) 151 Cal App 4th 1274, 60 Cal Rptr 3d 295, 2007 Cal App LEXIS 953.

2. Scope of Review of Department’s Decisions

Scope of review of decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is limited to determining whether there is substantial support to be found in record, and both superior court in mandate proceedings, and district court of appeals on appeal are without authority to reweigh evidence. Oxman v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 740, 315 P2d 484, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1551.

With minor exceptions, review of decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control by appeals board is limited to whether department proceeded with jurisdiction and as required by law, whether decision is supported by findings, and whether findings are supported by substantial evidence. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 24, 47 Cal Rptr 424, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1106.

The scope of review by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board of findings of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is limited to a determination whether there is substantial evidence to support the findings. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1966, Cal App 4th Dist) 245 Cal App 2d 919, 54 Cal Rptr 346, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1535.

The scope of review, by the Appeals Board and the courts, of decisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Department, is limited, under Cal Const Art XX § 22, and B & P C § 23084, to whether the department’s “findings are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record”; in other words, the scope of review is governed by the substantial evidence rule as generally applied in judicial proceedings in this state. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 255 Cal App 2d 40, 62 Cal Rptr 778, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1237.

With minor exceptions, the review by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board of the decisions of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is limited to the questions whether the department has proceeded without jurisdiction, whether it has proceeded in the manner required by law, whether the decision is supported by the findings, and whether the findings are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record viewed in its entirety, including the body of evidence opposed to the department’s findings. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 263 Cal App 2d 706, 69 Cal Rptr 744, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 2290.

The power of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, in reviewing a licensing decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, is limited to the questions whether the department has proceeded without or in excess of its jurisdiction, whether the department has proceeded in the manner required by law, whether the decision is supported by the findings, and whether the findings are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record. (Cal Const Art XX § 22; B & P C §§ 23080, 23085). Rice v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1978, Cal App 1st Dist) 79 Cal App 3d 372, 144 Cal Rptr 851, 1978 Cal App LEXIS 1381.

3. Discretion

In view of 1954 amendment of Cal Const Art XX § 22, appeals board is not empowered to exercise full discretion and its independent judgment on conflicting evidence, but rather its powers are strictly...
§ 23084 BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE

If it be conceded that reasonable minds might differ as to whether granting a license would or would not be contrary to public welfare, such concession merely shows that determination of question falls within broad area of discretion which Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is empowered to exercise. Martin v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1961) 55 Cal 2d 867, 13 Cal Rptr 513, 362 P2d 337, 1961 Cal LEXIS 268.

Under Cal Const Art XX § 22 and §§ 24200, 23084, 23095.2 of this code, propriety of penalty for misuse of liquor license is matter vested in discretion of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control; its determination may not be disturbed unless there is clear abuse of discretion. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 859, 43 Cal Rptr 631, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

Same deferential standard of review applicable to revocations, grants, or denials of alcoholic beverage licenses by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under B & P C §§ 23084, 23095.2 apply to the Department's discretionary powers to determine whether there is good cause to suspend a license because all of the Department's powers derive from Cal Const Art XX § 22. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal App 1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.

4. Evidence

In a proceeding to suspend a liquor license, neither the trier of fact nor the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board was required to weigh the evidence in accordance with the provisions of Ev C §§ 412, 413; or under Gov C § 13513, technical rules of evidence do not apply to administrative hearings. Big Boy Liquors, Ltd. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1969) 71 Cal 2d 1228, 81 Cal Rptr 258, 459 P2d 674, 1969 Cal LEXIS 316.

5. Substantial Evidence Rule

Constitutional and statutory provisions providing for review of decisions of department of alcoholic beverage control to determine whether “findings are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record” signify no more than adoption of substantial evidence rule as generally applied in judicial proceedings in this State. Rosales v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 171 Cal App 2d 624, 341 P2d 366, 1959 Cal LEXIS 1875.

Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board is governed by substantial evidence rule in its review of sufficiency of evidence to support administrative findings of department concerning revocation of on-sale beer and wine license. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 859, 43 Cal Rptr 631, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

6. Hearsay

On review by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board of suspension of a liquor license by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, the license could not properly raise a hearsay objection to testimony received by the department, where no hearsay objection was interposed at the hearing on which the department's decision rested, and where an appropriate objection, if sustained, would have enabled the department to elaborate on the issue involved; in such a proceeding, the contrary, that is, unless objected to, such evidence will serve to shift the burden of producing evidence of the existence or nonexistence of the fact disclosed. Kirby v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1970, Cal App 1st Dist) 8 Cal App 3d 1069, 87 Cal Rptr 908, 1970 Cal App LEXIS 2117.

7. Entrapment

The action of the appeals board in reversing the department's suspension of a liquor license on the ground that the department's investigators, by inviting the waitress concerned to have drink with them, investigated and transgressed the bounds of sound public policy as to enforcement measures was ultra vires where there was no showing of entrapment as a matter of law. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1966, Cal App 4th Dist) 245 Cal App 2d 919, 54 Cal Rptr 346, 1966 Cal LEXIS 1535.

The action of the Appeals Board, in reversing, on grounds of entrapment, the revocation of a liquor license by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not violate the rule that a party may not deprive the government of an opportunity to meet an issue at the trial by changing his theory on appeal, where, although entrapment was not raised as an affirmative defense at the initial hearing, the board determined the undisputed facts to show entrapment as a matter of law. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1966, Cal App 4th Dist) 245 Cal App 2d 919, 54 Cal Rptr 346, 1966 Cal LEXIS 1535.

8. Relief and Review

Since Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is vested with “power, in its discretion to deny” liquor license on its determination “for good cause that the granting . . . would be contrary to public welfare,” finding by department of ultimate fact that granting “would be contrary to public welfare” is unassailable on appeal to appeals board if there is substantial evidence in record to show that such determination was made “for good cause.” Martin v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1961) 55 Cal 2d 867, 13 Cal Rptr 513, 362 P2d 337, 1961 Cal LEXIS 268.

Neither Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board nor trial court in mandamus proceeding erred in concluding that there was no substantial evidence to sustain determination of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that good cause existed for denying application for transfer of on-sale beer and wine license to premises operated as restaurant across street from church and within block from school where evidence tended to establish that applicants were law-abiding persons who operated superior restaurant and were endeavoring to make its services still better and attractive to a larger number of patrons, and that proximity of church, when considered in light of facts that church did not protest issuance of license to applicants and that within 600-foot radius of premises there already existed eight licensed premises, of which only one held on-sale beer and wine license, did not appear of such significance as to support department's decision. Martin v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1961) 55 Cal 2d 867, 13 Cal Rptr 513, 362 P2d 337, 1961 Cal LEXIS 268.

Since the power to determine the facts in licensing matters is vested in the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, and not in the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board or the courts, a review of the Department's action is governed by the rule that where there is reasonable difference of opinion with respect to the correctness of a finding of fact it will not be disturbed by the receiving tribunal. Reime l v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 256 Cal App 2d 673, 58 Cal Rptr 788, 1967 Cal LEXIS 2150.

Neither the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeal Board nor the courts may disregards or overturn a finding of fact of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control for the reason that it is considered that a contrary finding would have been equally or more reasonable. Reime l v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 256 Cal App 2d 673, 58 Cal Rptr 788, 1967 Cal LEXIS 2150.

On review, under B & P C § 23090, of an order of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board reversing a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control denying an off-sale beer and wine license, the issue before the court is the same as it was before the Appeals Board, namely, whether the department's ultimate finding that issuance of the license would be contrary to public welfare was supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record (Cal Const Art XX § 22; B & P C §§ 23084, 23090). Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 119, 67 Cal Rptr 625, 1968 Cal LEXIS 1725.

To: [Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board]

In support of appellant's contentions, under subdivision (e) of Section 23084 of the Business and Professions Code of the State of California, that there is relevant evidence, which in the exercise of reasonable diligence could not have been produced at the hearing before the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, hereby alleges the following:

(set forth newly discovered evidence and the reasons why it could not in the exercise of reasonable diligence have been presented at the original hearing before the Department).

§ 23085. Remand to department for reconsideration; Grounds; Reversal; Effect

In appeals where the board finds that there is relevant evidence which, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, could not have been produced or which was improperly excluded at the hearing before the department, it may enter an order remanding the matter to the department for reconsideration in the light of such evidence. In all other appeals the board shall enter an order either affirming or reversing the decision of the department. When the order reverses the decision of the department, the board may direct the reconsideration of the matter in the light of its order and may direct the department to take such further action as is specially enjoined upon it by law, but the order shall not limit or control in any way the discretion vested by law in the department.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Findings of Fact
3. Procedure
4. Penalties

1. Generally

The power of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, in reviewing a licensing decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, is limited to the questions whether the department has proceeded without or in excess of its jurisdiction, whether the department has proceeded in the manner required by law, whether the decision is supported by the findings, and whether the findings are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record (Cal Const Art XX § 22; B & P C §§ 23084, 23085). Rice v. Alcoholic Beverages Bd. Appeals Bd. (1978, Cal App 1st Dist) 167 Cal App 2d 662, 334 P2d 1058, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2386.

2. Findings of Fact

Where Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control granted liquor license to grocery store after having previously refused to issue such license, fact that Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, in affirming order granting application for license, erroneously held (if such holding was erroneous) that res judicata was under no circumstances applicable in such proceeding, did not affect validity of its decision since such statement was not finding of fact, Appeals Board having no power to make findings of fact, and since there was a change of conditions which was found to exist by Department, and by affirming Department’s order Appeals Board ruled that findings supported Department’s decision and order; Appeals Board’s decision was thus correct and it was immaterial that its reasons were erroneous. Hasselbach v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 167 Cal App 2d 662, 334 P2d 1058, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2386.

Neither Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board nor courts may disregard or overturn finding of fact by department for reasons that contrary finding would have been equally or more reasonable. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

3. Procedure

Where Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board reversed order of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control denying application for on-sale beer license, Appeals Board could appeal from judgment of trial court in mandamus proceeding permitting it to affirm department’s order. Martin v. Alcoholic Beverages Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 239, 340 P2d 1, 1959 Cal LEXIS 197.

4. Penalties

Under Cal Const Art XX § 22 and §§ 24200, 23084, 23085 of this code, propriety of penalty for misuse of liquor license is matter vested in discretion of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control; its determination may not be disturbed unless there is clear abuse of discretion. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

§ 23086. Order; Time for entering

In all cases, the board shall enter its order within 60 days after the filing of an appeal.

Note—Stats 1975 ch 782 provides: SEC. 2. The Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board is requested to comply with the provisions of Section 23086 of the Business and Professions Code.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Construction

1. Generally

Mandamus in superior court was proper procedure to review decision of Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board reversing order of State Board of Equalization indefinitely suspending liquor license; judicial review of Appeals Board’s acts was not limited to certiorari in district courts of appeal. Koehn v. State Board of Equalization (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 166 Cal App 2d 109, 333 P2d 125, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1377.

2. Construction

In “final orders of the board shall be subject to judicial review as provided by law” the word “law” refers to CCP § 1094.5 and §§ 1067–1077; and both district courts of appeal and Supreme Court have jurisdiction to issue writs of mandamus and certiorari. § 23087. Remand on stipulation
Whenever any matter is pending before the board or a court of record involving a dispute between the department and a licensee, petitioner or protestant and the parties to such a dispute agree upon a settlement or adjustment thereof, the tribunal shall upon the stipulation by the parties that such an agreement has been reached, remand the matter to the department.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

1. Generally

The 1967 Amendments divesting superior courts of jurisdiction to review or stay the operation of a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, are not unconstitutional as an unauthorized legislative attempt to curtail the constitutional jurisdiction of the superior courts, when Cal Const Art XX § 22, providing that orders of the board shall be subject to judicial review upon petition of the director or any party aggrieved, does not specify the court in which review is to be obtained nor the procedure therefor, and where the new provisions on judicial review do not burden or impair the right of an aggrieved party to obtain the judicial review guaranteed by the Constitution. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Superior Court of Orange County (1968, Cal App 4th Dist) 268 Cal App 2d 67, 73 Cal Rptr 780, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1274.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Scope of Review
3. Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies
4. Appeal and Error

1. Generally

Both superior court in mandate proceedings and district court on appeal are without authority to reweigh evidence in reviewing board's decision. Oxman v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 740, 315 P2d 484, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1551.

Department’s decisions should be affirmed by courts when supported by substantial evidence. Farah v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 335, 324 P2d 98, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2003.

In a mandamus proceeding to review an order of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending a liquor license, the superior court properly sustained the department's demurrer on the ground of lack of showing, and stay of the suspension order was improperly granted by a judge of the same superior court, where the licensee failed to seek judicial review in accordance with B & P C § 23090, within 30 days after the final order of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board affirming the suspension, where, although the alleged violations on which the suspension was based occurred prior to the effective date of B & P C § 23090.5, divesting superior courts of jurisdiction to review decisions of the department, the right to judicial review of the order of suspension did not mature until some six months after the effective date, and where application of the revised review procedures involved no impairment of the licensee's right to judicial review nor a denial of an opportunity to take advantage of the benefits of the revised procedures. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Superior Court of Orange County (1968) Cal App 4th Dist 289 Cal App 2d 67, 73 Cal Rptr 780, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1274.

Under constitutional and statutory provisions governing judicial review of orders of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board (Cal Const Art XX § 22; B & P C §§ 23090, 23090.3, and 23090.4), the right of review of a decision of the board holding resale price maintenance provisions invalid under the Sherman Antitrust Act was limited to parties who appeared in proceedings before the board. Rice v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1978) 21 Cal 3d 431, 146 Cal Rptr 585, 579 P2d 476, 1978 Cal LEXIS 238, 96 ALR3d 613.

2. Scope of Review.

Scope of review of board's decisions is limited to determining whether or not there is substantial support to be found in record. Oxman v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 740, 315 P2d 484, 1957 Cal LEXIS 1551.

3. Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies.

Only decision from which liquor licensee whose license was revoked can appeal is decision of department of alcoholic beverage control revoking his license, and timely appeal to alcoholic beverage control appeals board is necessary to exhaust administrative remedies. Anderson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 4th Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 413, 324 P2d 24, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2015, overruled Pesce v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

There was no exhaustion of administrative remedy. The sole ground for the reversal order was the board's finding that the licensee failed to exhaust administrative remedies by appealing to the board before seeking judicial review. Garcia v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 425, 326 P2d 894, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1753.

4. Appeal and Error.

Party aggrieved by decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control authorizing issuance of on-sale liquor license has no right to seek judicial review of such decision without first filing appeal with appeals board of department. Fiscus v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 234, 317 P2d 993, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1271.

Where respondent did not appeal from judgment annulling revocation of liquor license on one count of charges against licensee, that count was not before appellate court and claim that it was erroneously annulled by trial court could not be considered, on appeal by licensee in mandamus proceedings to review determination by department. Garcia v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 425, 326 P2d 894, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1753.

Where licensee was charged by department in two counts in almost identical language with permitting female employee to solicit purchase of alcoholic beverages for another, the department's order revoking liquor license was not appealable on ground that there had been violation of Pen C § 303a, making it unlawful for any person to loiter in licensed premises to solicit purchase of alcoholic drinks, where licensee was not charged with violation of section himself or with permitting his employee to violate section, there was no finding that employee loitered about premises, and where it could not be assumed that department had properly dismissed, for lack of jurisdiction, purported appeal to mandate proceedings to review determination of department. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 425, 326 P2d 894, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1778.

erroneous ruling the department’s compliance with the licensee’s demand for the documents was required by due process of law and by the statute forbidding the department to decide any case without affording the parties the opportunity to present argument before the department (Gov C § 11517). The material the licensee had demanded was totally irrelevant to the proceedings for which it was sought and was irrelevant to the record to which the board was limited in its review of the department’s decision. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1981, Cal App 2d Dist) 118 Cal App 3d 729, 173 Cal Rptr 582, 1981 Cal App LEXIS 1604, superseded by statute as stated in Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2006) 40 Cal 4th 1, 50 Cal Rptr 3d 585, 145 P3d 462, 2006 Cal LEXIS 13519.

Court issued a writ and reinstated the decision of the ABC to suspend a store’s liquor license after a clerk sold an alcoholic beverage to a minor acting as a police decoy. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2003, Cal App 4th Dist) 109 Cal App 4th 1687, 1 Cal Rptr 3d 339, 2003 Cal App LEXIS 972.

Business challenging a suspension of its license to sell beer and wine by the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under B & P C § 23090 et.seq., violation of a California Administrative Procedure Act (APA). Gov C § 11340 et seq., violation where it was undisputed that it was standard Department procedure for the Department’s prosecuting attorney to furnish a report of hearing ex parte to the Department’s decision-maker, and where the Department did not meet its burden to show a change in departmental practice. Although the Department asserted that it did not use the condemned practice, it failed to adduce evidence substantiating its assertion before the California Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board and could not do so for the first time in the appellate court. Chevron Stations, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2007, Cal App 3d Dist) 149 Cal App 4th 116, 57 Cal Rptr 3d 6, 2007 Cal App LEXIS 468.

§ 23090.1. Time and place for return of writ; New evidence; Hearing on certified record

The writ of review shall be made returnable at a time and place then or thereafter specified by court order and shall direct the board to certify the whole record of the department in the case to the court within the time specified. No new or additional evidence shall be introduced in such court, but the cause shall be heard on the whole record of the department as certified to by the board.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

1. Generally

B & P C § 23090.1’s limitation on the introduction of new or additional evidence is in keeping with the typical practice for writs of review. However, an exception to that limitation applies where the evidence is not offered to undermine the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control’s substantive factual findings, but is intended to shed light on whether an illegal practice in fact took place. Rondon v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2007, Cal App 6th Dist) 151 Cal App 4th 1274, 60 Cal Rptr 3d 295, 2007 Cal App LEXIS 953.

Business challenging a suspension of its license to sell beer and wine by the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under B & P C § 23090 made a prima facie case of a California Administrative Procedure Act (APA). Gov C § 11340 et seq., violation where it was undisputed that it was standard Department procedure for the Department’s prosecuting attorney to furnish a report of hearing ex parte to the Department’s decision-maker, and where the Department did not meet its burden to show a change in departmental practice. Although the Department asserted that it did not use the condemned practice, it failed to adduce evidence substantiating its assertion before the California Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board and could not do so for the first time in the appellate court. § 23090.2. Extent of review; Trial de novo

The review by the court shall not extend further than to determine, based on the whole record of the department as certified by the board, whether:

(a) The department has proceeded without or in excess of its jurisdiction.
(b) The department has proceeded in the manner required by law.
(c) The decision of the department is supported by the findings.
(d) The findings in the department’s decision are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record.
(e) There is relevant evidence which, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, could not have been produced or which was improperly excluded at the hearing before the department.

Nothing in this article shall permit the court to hold a trial de novo, to take evidence, or to exercise its independent judgment on the evidence.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

On review, under B & P C § 23090, of an order of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board reversing a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control denying an off-sale beer and wine license, the issue before the court is the same as it was before the Appeals Board, namely, whether the department’s ultimate finding that issuance of the license would be contrary to public welfare or morals is supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record (Cal Const Art XX § 22; B & P C §§ 23084, 23090.2). Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 119, 67 Cal Rptr 628, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1725.

The findings of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control must be sustained if they are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record; and neither the appeals board nor a reviewing court may disregard or overturn a finding of fact of the department because it is considered that a contrary finding would have been equally or more reasonable. 2. Construction with Other Law

In accumulating evidence of recurring sales of distilled spirits below established minimum retail prices in violation of B & P C § 24755
[repealed], before filing its accusation charging the licensee with the whole series of violations and assessing the concomitant cumulative penalties provided by B & P C § 24755.1 (repealed), the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control failed to proceed “in a manner required by law,” thus subjecting its action to judicial review and intervention under B & P C § 23090.2. The purpose of the penalty statute is to induce conformance with the fair trade requirements, and a practice subject to whether the Department’s findings were supported by substantial evidence, and the appellate court was obliged to accept the Department’s findings of fact. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2004, Cal App 1st Dist) 118 Cal App 4th 1116, 123 Cal Rptr 3d 6, 2007 Cal App LEXIS 468. Cal. § 23090.3. Findings on questions of fact; Entry of judgment

The findings and conclusions of the department on questions of fact are conclusive and final and are not subject to review. Such questions of fact shall include ultimate facts and the findings and conclusions of the department. The board, the department, and each party to the action or proceeding before the board shall have the right to appear in the review proceeding. Following the hearing, the court shall enter judgment either affirming or reversing the decision of the department, or the court may remand the case for further proceedings before or reconsideration by the department.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

B & P C § 23090.5, divesting superior courts of jurisdiction to review decisions or orders of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control or to interfere with the operation or execution of such decisions or orders, does not unconstitutionally curtail the jurisdiction of the superior court to issue writs of mandamus. Kirby v. Superior Court of Santa Clara County (1969, Cal App 1st Dist) 275 Cal App 2d 975, 80 Cal Rptr 381, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1.

B & P C § 23090.5, restricting judicial review of the actions of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to only the Supreme Court and courts of appeal, is not limited in application to only the review of adversary (quasi-judicial) proceedings in which a transcript of an administrative hearing is compiled as a basis for judicial review; the section also applies, as in the instant case, to a rule-making (quasi-legislative) action. Shenley Affiliated Brands Corp. v. Kirby (1971, Cal App 3d Dist) 21 Cal App 3d 177, 98 Cal Rptr 609, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1063.

Although Gov C § 11440, permits declaratory relief actions in superior court to review regulations adopted under the Administrative Procedure Act, that provision is partially limited and superseded by B & P C § 23090.5, restricting judicial review of the actions of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to only the Supreme Court and courts of appeal. Shenley Affiliated Brands Corp. v. Kirby (1971, Cal App 3d Dist) 21 Cal App 3d 177, 98 Cal Rptr 609, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1063.

B & P C § 23090.5, restricting judicial review of the actions of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to only the Supreme Court and courts of appeal, does not unconstitutionally interfere with petitioner's access to the courts. Shenley Affiliated Brands Corp. v. Kirby (1971, Cal App 3d Dist) 21 Cal App 3d 177, 98 Cal Rptr 609, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1063.

A liquor licensee was not entitled to judicial consideration of its challenge to the procedure of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control whereby it had accumulated evidence of successive sales of distilled spirits below minimum retail prices and then, in a single accusation, imposed cumulative penalties, each based on a single sale, but measured in severity by the prior number of illegal sales in the series, where the licensee had not exhausted its administrative remedy of appeal to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board and had not demonstrated that its situation was unique or distinctive or cited any authority supporting its claim of inadequacy of the administrative remedy. B & P C § 23090.5, expressly withholds from the courts jurisdiction to review or otherwise to interfere with the department or its decision except to the extent specified in B & P C §§ 23090–23090.7, and, § 23090, in specifying the conditions under which applications may be made for a writ of review, limits such applications to those persons affected by a “final order of the board.” Top Hat Liquors, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1974) 13 Cal 3d 107, 118 Cal Rptr 10, 529 P2d 42, 1974 Cal LEXIS 196.

Neither Cal Const Art III § 3.5 nor B & P C § 23090.5 preclude state courts from determining constitutional issues arising from administrative discipline of liquor licensees, regardless of whether the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control or the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board has jurisdiction to determine said issues. Shenley Affiliated Brands Corp. v. Superior Court, 95 Cal Rptr 5, 529 P2d 920, 1975 Cal App LEXIS 1280.

Cal Const Art III § 3.5, prohibiting administrative bodies from declaring statutes unconstitutional or refusing enforcement of statutes on the basis of claims that the statutes are unconstitutional, and B & P C § 23090.5, restricting review of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control determination to petitions for writ of review in state appellate court, did not deny liquor licensees due process of law by forcing them to submit to revocation by an administrative body which could not act on constitutional defenses, while limiting review of the decision to a discretionary petition for writ of review. Dash, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1982, 9th Cir Cal) 683 F2d 3229, 1982 US App LEXIS 16721.

In an action for declaratory and injunctive relief, brought by a holder of a liquor license to preclude the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control from imposing discipline for the licensee's alleged sales of alcohol to minors, the superior court properly sustained the department’s demurrer without leave to amend. The exclusive jurisdiction for judicial review of such disciplinary actions is in the Supreme Court, and appellate courts by way of writ review (B & P C § 23090.5). Although the case was filed before a disciplinary order was entered, jurisdictional limitations cannot be circumvented by a preemptive lawsuit. Although declaratory relief is a cumulative remedy and the superior court ordinarily has jurisdiction to entertain declaratory relief actions, an action seeking a judgment which will interfere with the department’s prospective disciplinary orders is beyond the jurisdiction of the superior court. American Drug Stores, Inc. v. Stroh (1992, Cal App 4th Dist) 10 Cal App 4th 1446, 13 Cal Rptr 2d 432, 1992 Cal App LEXIS 1319.

2. Mandamus

In a proceeding seeking review of an order of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control denying petitioner-liquor license holder an extension of time before cancellation of the license became effective and within which to conclude a transfer of the license (Adm Code, tit 4, Rule 65(d)), the appellate court and not the superior court could exercise jurisdiction to grant relief by a writ of mandate, where, though the applicable statute (B & P C § 23090.5) related to the power of the courts to review, affirm, reverse, correct, or annul any order of decision of the department, the legislative intention when adopting the statute was not to establish an alternative procedure for judicial review of the exercise of the limited judicial powers of the department, but was to provide for judicial review only by the Supreme Court or the courts of appeal of the orders, rules or decisions or other acts of the department in the performance of its duties when acting in its administrative capacity. Samson Market Co. v. Kirby (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 577, 68 Cal Rptr 130, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1779, cert den (1968) 393 US 11, 89 S Ct 49, 21 L Ed 2d 18, 1968 US LEXIS 578.

In the determination of the propriety of granting a writ of mandate to compel the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to grant an extension of time for the cancellation of a liquor license under Adm Code, tit 4, Rule 65(d), the writ must be denied, where no clear abuse of discretion on the part of the department was shown by petitioner, though the license would expire under the rule before three disciplinary actions respecting the license could be heard. Samson Market Co. v. Kirby (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 577, 68 Cal Rptr 130, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1779, cert den (1968) 393 US 11, 89 S Ct 49, 21 L Ed 2d 18, 1968 US LEXIS 578.

In a mandamus proceeding to review an order of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending a liquor license, the superior court properly sustained the department’s demurrer on the ground of lack of jurisdiction, and stay of the suspension order was thereafter improperly granted by a judge of the same superior court, where the licensee failed to seek judicial review in accordance with B & P C § 23090, within 30 days after the final order of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board affirming the suspension, where, although the alleged violations on which the suspension was based occurred prior to the effective date of B & P C § 23090.5, divesting superior courts of jurisdiction to review decisions of the department, the right to judicial review of the order of suspension did not mature until some six months after the effective date, and where application of the revised review procedures involved no impairment of the licensee’s right to judicial review nor a denial of an opportunity to take advantage of the benefit of the revised procedures. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Superior Court of San Francisco (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 268 Cal App 2d 7, 73 Cal Rptr 671, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1267.

Under B & P C § 23090.5, only the Supreme Court and the courts of appeal have jurisdiction to review decisions of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, and, in a mandamus proceeding attacking the revocation of a liquor license filed in a superior court after the effective date of the statute, the superior court should have sustained the department’s demurrer based on lack of jurisdiction, even though the departmental hearing on the license revocation was held prior to the effective date of the statute. The constitutional proscription against ex post facto laws applied only to criminal statutes and the fact that jurisdiction is taken away from a particular court to hear one kind of case does not in itself deprive anyone of a vested right; under present law the Supreme Court and the Courts of Appeal have all of the powers of review formerly exercisable by the superior court. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Superior Court of Orange County (1968, Cal App 4th Dist) 268 Cal App 2d 67, 73 Cal Rptr 780, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1274.

§ 23090.6. Stay of proceedings

The filing of a petition for, or the pendency of, a writ of review shall not of itself stay or suspend the opera-sum of money will achieve the desired disciplinary purposes.

(2) The books and records of the licensee are kept in such a manner that the loss of sales of alcoholic beverages that the licensee would have suffered had the suspension gone into effect can be determined with reasonable accuracy therefrom.

(d) The offer in compromise for retail licensees shall be the equivalent of 50 percent of the estimated gross sales of alcoholic beverages for each day of a proposed suspension, subject to the following limits:

1. The offer in compromise may not be less than seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) nor more than three thousand dollars ($3,000).

2. If the petitioning retailer has had any other accusation filed against him or her by the department during the three years prior to the date of the petition that has resulted in a final decision to suspend or revoke the retail license concerned, the offer in compromise may be not less than one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) nor more than six thousand dollars ($6,000).

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), a licensee may petition the department for an offer in compromise for a second violation of Section 25658 that occurs within 36 months of the initial violation without regard to the period of suspension. In these cases, the offer in compromise shall be the equivalent of 50 percent of the estimated gross sales of alcoholic beverages for each day of the proposed suspension, and the offer in compromise may be not less than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) nor more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).

(f)(1) The offer in compromise for nonretail licensees shall be the equivalent of 50 percent of the estimated gross sales of alcoholic beverages for each day of the proposed suspension, and the offer in compromise may not be less than seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) and may not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) unless the nonretail licensee has violated Section 25500, 25502, 25503, or 25600 by giving to any licensee illegal inducements, secret rebates, or free goods amounting to more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in value, in which case the offer in compromise shall be equal to the value of the illegal inducements, secret rebates, or free goods given.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), any nonretail licensee who pays an offer in compromise based upon a violation in the exercise of any retail privileges of that license shall have the offer in compromise computed on estimated retail gross sales only pursuant to subdivision (d).

(3) All moneys collected as a result of penalties imposed under this subdivision shall be deposited directly in the General Fund in the State Treasury, rather than the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund as provided for in Section 25761.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, the department may accept an offer in compromise from a retail licensee in the equivalent of 50 percent of the estimated gross sales of alcoholic beverages for each day of a proposed suspension and the offer in compromise shall be not less than seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) or more than three thousand dollars ($3,000), provided the petitioner has had no other accusation filed against him or her by the department during the prior three years from the date of the petition that has resulted in a final decision to suspend or revoke the retail license concerned.”; (5) added subd (e); (6) redesignated former subd (c) to be subd (f); and (7) amended subd (f)(1) by (a) deleting “Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a),” at the beginning of subd (f)(1); (b) substituting “may not be” for “shall be not” after “offer in compromise” the second time it appears; and (c) substituting “may” for “shall” after “($750)” and; and (8) substituted “subdivision (d)” for “subdivision (a) or (b)” at the end of subd (f).

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control's refusal to consider an offer of compromise from a licensee whose license was suspended for 45 days, based on the provision in B & P C § 23095 that limited such compromises to licensees whose licenses were suspended for 30 days or less, was not a denial of due process or of equal protection. Woods v. Alcoholic Beverage Appeals Board (1980, CD Cal) 502 F Supp 528, 1980 US Dist LEXIS 15261.

§ 23097. Limitations on authority of department in connection with petition

In connection with any such petition, the authority of the department is limited to the granting of such stays as are necessary for it to complete its investigation and make its findings and, if it makes such findings, to the granting of an order permanently staying the imposition of the entire suspension or of that portion of the suspension not otherwise conditionally stayed by the decision of the department. If the suspension was imposed as a result of an accusation filed by another public officer acting in his official capacity, the department shall not order such permanent stay of suspension without the written concurrence of such other public officer.

§ 23104.1. Return of wine by retailer to seller
A retailer may return wine to the seller or to the successor of the seller and the seller or his or her successor may accept the return thereof, except that the seller or his or her successor may not sell wine to the retailer for a period of one year after the date the returned wine is accepted or received unless any of the following exists:

(a) The wine is returned in exchange for the identical quantity, brand, and item of wine.
(b) The wine is returned pursuant to court order.
(c) The returned wine is a brand or item of wine that has been discontinued by the seller or his or her successor, and the wine is exchanged for the identical quantity of a brand or item of similar quality.
(d) The wine delivered was other than that ordered by a retailer or was in a quantity other than that ordered. In these cases, the retailer may, within 15 days after delivery, return the wine to the seller or his or her successor for exchange for the wine actually ordered, or may return the wine delivered in excess of the wine actually ordered. Returns under this subdivision may also be made after 15 days from the date of delivery upon written approval of the department.
(e) The wine has deteriorated in quality or the container thereof has been damaged, or the label or container for the wine has been changed, and the wine is returned and exchanged for the identical quantity of the same brand and type of wine and size of container. For the purpose of this subdivision, “wines of the same type” means wines that are within the same class as provided in Article 14 (commencing with Section 17001) of Title 17 of the California Code of Regulations and bear the same rate of state wine excise tax.

If wine or the container thereof is damaged or deteriorated, and the seller thereof has ceased to carry on a business licensed under this division and there is no successor to the business, the wine may be returned by a retailer to a winegrower or wholesaler who handles the same brand or item of wine, upon the same terms and conditions provided in this section for the return of wine to a seller or his or her successor, after receiving approval from the department.
The approval of the department shall be required only for returns made after 15 days from the date of delivery under the provisions of subdivision (d), or returns made under the provisions of the immediately preceding paragraph.

(f) As used in subdivisions (a), (c), and (e), the term "identical quantity" includes wine in metric measure containers and wine in United States standard measure containers that contain substantially the same amount of wine.

(g) Notwithstanding the above provisions, a seller may accept the return of wine from a seasonal or temporary licensee if, at the termination of the period of the license, the seasonal or temporary licensee has wine remaining unsold, or from an annual licensee operating on a temporary basis if, at the termination of the period of the license, the seasonal or temporary licensee has wine remaining unsold.

1985 Amendment: In addition to making technical changes, (1) substituted “The wine” for “It” at the beginning of subd (b); (2) amended subd (e) by (a) substituting "provided in Article 14 (commencing with Section 17001) of Title 17 of the California Code of Regulations" for “defined in Sections 17005 to 17050, inclusive, by the Standards of Identity and Quality, Title 17, California Administrative Code”; and (b) deleting the former last sentence which read: “Wines returned and exchanged pursuant to this subdivision shall have the same current posted price to retailers.”; and (3) added subd (g).

1996 Amendment: Made technical changes.

§ 23104.2. Authority of retailer to return and seller to accept beer; Conditions

(a) Subject to the exceptions specified in subdivision (b), a retail licensee may return beer to the wholesaler or manufacturer from whom the retail licensee purchased the beer, or any successor thereto, and the wholesaler, manufacturer, or successor thereto may accept that return if the beer is returned in exchange for the identical quantity and brand of beer. No wholesaler or manufacturer, or any successor thereto, shall accept the return of any beer from a retail licensee except when the beer delivered was not the brand or size container ordered by the retail licensee or the amount delivered was other than the amount ordered, in which case the order may be corrected by the wholesaler or manufacturer who sold the beer, or any successor thereto. If a package had been broken or otherwise damaged prior to or at the time of actual delivery, a credit memorandum may be issued for the returned package by the wholesaler or manufacturer who sold the beer, or any successor thereto, in lieu of exchange for an identical package when the return and corrections are completed within 15 days from the date the beer was delivered to the retail licensee.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a wholesaler or manufacturer, or any successor thereto, may accept the return of beer purchased from that wholesaler, manufacturer, or successor thereto, as follows:

(1)(A) From a seasonal or temporary licensee if at the termination of the period of the license the seasonal or temporary licensee has beer remaining unsold, or from an annual licensee operating on a temporary basis if at the termination of the temporary period the annual licensee has beer remaining unsold.

(B) For purposes of subparagraph (A), an annual licensee shall be considered to be operating on a temporary basis if he or she operates at seasonal resorts, including summer and winter resorts, or at sporting or entertainment facilities, including racetracks, arenas, concert halls, and convention centers. Temporary status shall be deemed terminated when operations cease for 15 days or more. No wholesaler or manufacturer, or successor thereto, shall accept the return of beer from an annual licensee considered to be operating on a temporary basis unless the licensee notifies that wholesaler or manufacturer, or successor thereto, within 15 days of the date the licensee’s operations ceased.

(2)(A) Subject to subparagraph (B), a wholesaler or manufacturer, or any successor thereto, may, with department approval, accept the return of a brand of beer discontinued in a California market area or a seasonal brand of beer from a retail licensee, provided that the beer is exchanged for a quantity of beer of a brand produced or sold by the same manufacturer with a value no greater than the original sales price to the retail licensee of the returned beer. For purposes of this subparagraph, “seasonal brand of beer” means a brand of beer, as defined in Section 23006, that is brewed by a manufacturer to commemorate a specific holiday season and is so identified by appropriate product packaging and labeling.

(B) A discontinued brand of beer may not be reintroduced for a period of 12 months in the same California market area in which a return and exchange of that beer as described in subparagraph (A) has taken place. A seasonal brand of beer may not be reintroduced for a period of six months in the same California market area in which a return and exchange of that beer as described in subparagraph (A) has taken place.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a wholesaler or manufacturer, or any successor thereto, may accept the return of beer purchased from that wholesaler or manufacturer, or any successor thereto, by the holder of a retail license following the revocation of, suspension of, voluntary surrender of, or failure to renew the retail license.

(d) A wholesaler or manufacturer, or any successor thereto, may credit the account of the retailer identified in subdivision (c) in an amount not to exceed the original sales price to the retailer of the returned beer, provided that the beer has been paid for in full.

(e) Notwithstanding the 15-day time limit for the return of beer described in subdivision (a), beer that is recalled for health or safety issues may be accepted for return at anytime from a retailer and be picked up by the seller of beer. The seller of beer may exchange the returned beer for identical product, if safe inventory is available, issue a deferred exchange memorandum showing the beer was picked up and is to be replaced when inventory is available, or issue a credit memorandum to the retailer for the returned beer.

Amendments:
1965 Amendment: Added “or from an annual licensee operating on a temporary basis if at the termination of such temporary period he has beer remaining unsold” at the end of the second paragraph.
1974 Amendment: (1) Designated the first paragraph to be the first sentence of subd (a); (2) added the second sentence of subd (a); (3) added subdivision designation (b); and (4) added “Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a),” at the beginning of subd (b).
1995 Amendment: In addition to making technical changes, (1) substituted “. If” for “; or if” at the end of the second sentence in subd (a); (2) added subdivision designation (b)(2); and (3) added subd (b)(2).

No licensee authorized to sell beer to retailers shall accept the return of any beer from a retailer except when the beer delivered was not the brand or size container ordered by the retailer or the amount delivered was other than the amount ordered, in which case the order may be corrected. If a package had been broken or otherwise damaged prior to or at the time of actual delivery, a credit memorandum may be issued for the returned package in lieu of exchange for an identical package when the return and corrections are completed within 15 days from the date the beer was delivered to the retailer.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), a seller may accept the return of beer from a seasonal or temporary licensee if at the termination of the period of the license the seasonal or temporary licensee has beer remaining unsold, or from an annual licensee operating on a temporary basis if at the termination of the temporary period the annual licensee has beer remaining unsold.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, an annual licensee shall be considered to be operating on a temporary basis if he or she operates at seasonal resorts, including summer and winter resorts, or at sporting or entertainment facilities, including racetracks, arenas, and concert halls. Temporary status shall be deemed terminated when operations cease for 15 days or more. NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Constitutionality
3. Sale Without License
4. Transfer of License

1. Generally

This statute is unenforceable in a national park which the state has ceded to the United States with a reservation only to the right to “tax persons and corporations therein.” Collins v. Yosemite Park & Curry Co. (1908) 304 US 518, 58 S Ct 1099, 82 L Ed 1502, 1938 US LEXIS 1030.

There is no inherent right in citizen to sell intoxicating liquors by retail; it is not privilege of citizen of state or of United States, and since it is business attended with danger to community, it may be prohibited or be permitted under such conditions as will limit to utmost its evils. Jacques, Inc. v. State Board of Equalization (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 448, 318 P2d 6, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1307.

This section had no application as to right of original licensee to have license retransferred pursuant to lease agreement. Cavalli v. Macaire (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 714, 324 P2d 336, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2060.

Department’s determination that liquor business was owned in part by licensee’s husband and that license should be suspended indefinitely was not supported by substantial evidence where, among other things, both real property on which premises were located and license were purchased in wife’s name as sole owner and improvements, even if made by husband on wife’s property out of community funds, gave him no interest therein. Ciambetti v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 3d Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 340, 326 P2d 535, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1739.

The validity of a caterer’s permit issued pursuant to Bus. & Prof. Code, § 23399 and Cal. Admin. Code (now Cal Code Reg), tit. 4, reg. 60.5, is dependent upon the existence of a valid, effective and unrevoked onsite alcoholic beverage license. Therefore, alcoholic beverage sales by individuals displaying a caterer’s permit after revocation of their onsite license were without authority and were in violation of Bus. & Prof. Code, § 23300, prohibiting individuals from operating as licensees without a license. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Locke (1982, Cal App 2d Dist) 129 Cal App 3d 381, 181 Cal Rptr 55, 1982 Cal App LEXIS 1330.

2. Constitutionality

Right to possess, make or deal in intoxicating liquor is not a privilege or such property right that state legislation prohibiting, restricting or regulating its manufacture, use, possession, distribution or sale violates US Const, Fourth Amendment. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

Liquor license has certain attributes of property, but it is type of property which state, under police power, has power to control and regulate. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 157 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

Governing authority may, in exercise of police power for protection of public morals, health and safety, grant privilege of selling alcoholic beverages on such terms and conditions as it may determine. Kirchhuelb v. Munro (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 243, 308 P2d 432, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2024.

In a proceeding for the suspension of a bar owner’s on-sale general license to sell alcoholic beverages, the introduction in evidence of the bar owner’s written admission that he had purchased a quantity of beer from an unlicensed vendor for resale in his business did not deprive the bar owner of due process of law, since such license to sell intoxicants is not a proprietary right within the meaning of due process. Mumford v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 4th Dist) 258 Cal App 2d 49, 65 Cal Rptr 495, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 2386.

3. Sale Without License

A person who sells without a license is guilty of a violation, even though the sale was one that could not lawfully be made by a licensee. People v. Minter, 73 Cal App 2d Supp 994, 167 P2d 11.

In a prosecution for selling whiskey without a license, where the defendant was asked if he would sell some good whiskey and he produced a bottle bearing the label “Old Crow Whisky, 100 Proof” upon which were unbroken United States Government revenue stamps, although the bottle was never opened and sampled, it was presumed that the statutes prohibiting misbranding had been obeyed and the bottle contained whiskey. People v. Minter, 73 Cal App 2d Supp 994, 167 P2d 11.

In a prosecution for selling alcoholic beverages without a license (B & P C, § 23300) the trial court correctly ruled, and instructed the jury, that the statute defined a strict liability, malum prohibitum offense wherein neither guilty knowledge nor intent need be shown, and that a good faith belief that one has a legal right to sell alcoholic beverages is not a legal defense to violations alleged if one, in fact, has no then valid license to sell alcoholic beverages. People v. Guinn (1983, Cal App 2d Dept’s Super Ct) 149 Cal App 3d Supp 1, 196 Cal Rptr 696, 1983 Cal App LEXIS 2471.

4. Transfer of License

Where contract for purchase of partner’s interest in on-sale liquor license, business and assets provided that purchaser and remaining partner should form partnership to operate new business, that all parties should seek transfer of license to new firm, and that title should pass to purchaser on issuance of new license, purchaser had no interest in business, its assets or profits pending transfer of license, and he was precluded from seeking appointment of receiver. Rondos v. Superior Court of Solano County (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 151 Cal App 2d 190, 311 P2d 113, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1743.

If contract for purchase of interest in on-sale business is silent as to when title is to pass, provisions of this section will be read into agreement and prevent transfer of title except coincidentally with transfer of liquor license. Rondos v. Superior Court of Solano County (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 151 Cal App 2d 190, 311 P2d 113, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1743.

§ 23301. Penalties for violation of law.

Any person violating Section 23300 is guilty of a misdemeanor, except that any person, without having a still license, exercising the privileges or performing any act which a still licensee may exercise or perform is guilty of a felony.

b) Beginning January 1, 2009, each fee specified in subdivision (a) shall be increased by 11.78 percent, in lieu of any annual fee adjustment that could have been imposed for the previous four years. The increase to each fee shall be rounded to the nearest whole dollar.

c) Beginning January 1, 2010, and each January 1 thereafter, the department may adjust each of the fees specified in this section by increasing each fee by an amount not to exceed the percentage that the Consumer Price Index (United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, West Region, All Urban Consumers, All Items, Base Period 1982-84 = 100) for the preceding April 2008, and each April annually thereafter, has increased under the same index over the month of April 2007, which shall be the base period. No fee shall be decreased pursuant to this adjustment below the fee currently in effect on each December 31. In the event that this index is discontinued, the department shall consult with the Department of Finance to convert the increase calculations to an index then available. When approved by the Department of Finance, the new index shall replace the discontinued index.

d) The department shall calculate the percentage increase as specified in subdivision (c) and shall apply this increase to each fee. The increase to each fee shall be rounded to the nearest whole dollar. The adjusted fee list shall be published by the department and transmitted to the Legislature for approval as part of the department’s budget submission for the fiscal year in which the adjusted fees would be implemented. This adjustment of fees and publication of the adjusted fee list is not subject to the requirements of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

4. Seasonal Business

1. Generally
Where the prescribed fee is not tendered with an application for a license and the license is issued or renewed without its payment because of an injunction prohibiting collection pending ultimate determination of the validity of the licensing statute, an action to collect the fee may be brought following the reversal of the judgment in the injunction suit. People v. Schmidt (1941, Cal App) 48 Cal App 2d 255, 119 P2d 766, 1941 Cal App LEXIS 788.

This statute provides for a complete scheme of beer licensing, and the board of equalization may not add to that scheme a license not contemplated or directly or indirectly authorized by the legislature. Blatz Brewing Co. v. Collins (1948, Cal App) 88 Cal App 2d 438, 199 P2d 34, 1948 Cal App LEXIS 1497.

2. Applicability
 Requirement of license for sale of intoxicating liquor is unenforceable in national park which state has ceded to United States with reservation only of right to “tax” persons and corporations therein. Collins v.
§ 23320.1 BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE

3. Legislative Intent

By providing for types of licenses to be issued legislature demonstrated its intent to keep clubs separate and apart from public eating places and public premises that may obtain on-sale general licenses for alcoholic beverages. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 201 Cal App 2d 567, 20 Cal Rptr 227, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2628.

Legislature demonstrated its recognition of bona fide club as distinct type of licensee when it provided for annual fees of each type of license. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 201 Cal App 2d 567, 20 Cal Rptr 227, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2628.

4. Seasonal Business

The constitution and the statutes use the terms “seasonal business” and “seasonal license” to mean the same thing. Johnstone v. Richardson (1951, Cal App) 103 Cal App 2d 41, 229 P2d 9, 1951 Cal App LEXIS 1121.

A seasonal business is a business located in a seasonal area in which consumer demand fluctuates during different periods of the year, and the business need not be closed and locked during any part of the year. Johnstone v. Richardson (1951, Cal App) 103 Cal App 2d 41, 229 P2d 9, 1951 Cal App LEXIS 1121.

§ 23320.1. Special on-sale general licenses

§ 23320.6. Wine Safety Fund

(a) The Wine Safety Fund is hereby created as a special fund in the State Treasury, in trust, to the State Department of Health Services for the purpose of providing funds to better enable its Food and Drug Branch to carry out and supervise a statistically valid testing program to ensure that levels of lead in wine sold in this state remain safe and within tolerances established by applicable laws and regulations, for the health and safety of the consuming public upon appropriation by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act. The fees collected pursuant to Section 23320.7 shall be sufficient to cover, but shall not exceed, the costs of administering the testing program, including the reimbursement of any importer or retailer for the wholesale cost of any wine tested, conducted pursuant to this section. All moneys collected under Section 23320.7, including any interest accrued thereon, shall be deposited in the Wine Safety Fund.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature to appropriate moneys in the Wine Safety Fund in equal amounts of fifty–five thousand three hundred dollars ($55,300) over five years to the State Department of Health Services for expenditure exclusively for the purposes set forth in subdivision (a).

Amendments:
1999 Amendment: (1) Designated the former section to be subd (a); (2) amended subd (a) by adding “statistically valid testing” after “and supervise a” in the first sentence; and (b) “, including the reimbursement of any importer or retailer for the wholesale cost of any wine tested,” in the second sentence; and (3) added subd (b).

Note—Stats 1993 ch 1025 provides:
SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:
(a) The wine industry plays a significant role in California’s economy, providing jobs and revenue, attracting foreign investment, promoting exports and tourism, and enhancing the state’s image around the world.
(b) California’s wine industry is a world leader in quality and production techniques, with California wines enjoying increasing popularity throughout the world.
(c) Past reports concerning minute traces of lead detectable in a handful of wines produced in other states and regions have prompted consumer concerns about the safety of wines generally.
(d) Testing by state and federal regulators has since demonstrated that the vast majority of wine sold in California contains lead at levels no higher than those often seen in many fresh fruits, vegetables, and other wholesome agricultural products, and that the levels of lead, if any, in California’s wines are generally among the world’s lowest.
(e) An industry–funded program already provides warnings advising pregnant women not to drink, utilizing point–of–sale and point–of–display notices that convey a uniform clear and reasonable warning message specified by the state’s “Proposition 65” regulations.
(f) Compliance with a new more stringent limit on lead levels in wine will obviate any need for new warnings concerning lead that might dilute the impact and undermine the effectiveness of the uniform warnings now provided pursuant to existing federal laws and the state’s “Proposition 65” regulations.
(g) This act, which shall be known, and may be cited, as the “Wine Safety Act” shall establish the world’s most stringent limit on the maximum allowable levels of lead in wines sold in California, and shall establish a mechanism whereby the cost of ensuring industry compliance with the new standard is funded by California’s wine producers and importers.
(h) To minimize the burden on interstate and foreign commerce, it is the intent of the Legislature that the sampling method and testing protocol used by the State Department of Health Services to quantify levels of lead in wine shall be consistent with the testing protocol and, to the extent practicable, the sampling method that may be used by the federal Food and Drug Administration or the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms to quantify levels of lead in wine.

Each license issued under this section shall be used only in the county where issued, but a vessel qualified under this section may be issued such a license in more than one county. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 23397, the licensee under each such license shall be authorized to sell alcoholic beverages to the general public aboard the vessel respecting which the license is issued when the vessel is securely lashed on berth in the county for which the license is issued, provided that such sales are incidental to the passenger operations of such vessel and such beverages are purchased from persons licensed to sell alcoholic beverages for resale in this state. In no event shall the rights under any such license be exercised in any county during more than 100 calendar days in any calendar year. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 23815) of Chapter 5 of this division, there shall be no limitation, other than provided in this section, on the number of licenses that may be issued under this section to applicants who meet its requirements. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this section, all provisions of this division shall apply to any license issued under this section in the same manner as such provisions apply to an on–sale general license issued for a bona fide public eating place, provided that no caterer’s permit may be issued pursuant to Section 23399 with respect to any license issued hereunder, and provided further that any duplicate license issued pursuant to Section 24042 respecting such vessel shall bear the same fee specified by subdivision (35) of Section 23320.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Constitutionality
3. Applicability
4. Evidence
5. Responsibility of Licensee

1. Generally
Finding of department that licensee had repeatedly violated section was tantamount to finding that continuance of license would be “contrary to public welfare.” Martin v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal. 2d 287, 341 P2d 296, 1959 Cal LEXIS 203.

The fact that the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control properly filed charges against partners who had entered into an agreement requiring an independent concessionaire to operate a bar and restaur- ant under its own name, using the partners' liquor license, and that the partners admitted the guilt and paid a fine, did not establish any relationship of principal and agent between the partners and the concessionaire so as to make the partners liable for the debts of the concessionaire to food and liquor wholesalers who had sold to the concessionaire. Associated Creditors Agency v. Davis (1975) 13 Cal 3d 374, 118 Cal Rptr 772, 530 P2d 1084, 1975 Cal LEXIS 175.

2. Constitutionality
Right to possess, make or deal in intoxicating liquor is not a privilege or such property right that state legislation prohibiting, restricting or regulating its manufacture, use, possession, distribution or sale violates US Const, Fourteenth Amendment. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

Liquor license has certain attributes of property, but it is type of property which state, under police power, has power to control and regulate. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

3. Applicability
This section had no application as to right of original licensee to have license retransferred pursuant to lease agreement. Cavalli v. Macaire (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 714, 324 P2d 336, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2060.

4. Evidence
Department’s determination that liquor business was owned in part by licensee’s husband and that license should be suspended indefinitely was not supported by substantial evidence where, among other things, both real property on which premises were located and license were purchased in wife’s name as sole owner and improvements, even if made by husband on wife’s property out of community funds, gave him no interest therein. Ciambetti v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 3d Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 340, 326 P2d 535, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1739.

5. Responsibility of Licensee
Owner of liquor license has responsibility to see to it that license is not used in violation of law, and as matter of general law knowledge and acts of employee or agent are imputable to licensee. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

(2) Prior to providing a key, magnetic card, or other similar device required to attain access to the controlled access alcoholic beverage cabinet in a particular guestroom to the registered guest thereof, or prior to otherwise providing access thereto, the licensee shall verify, in accordance with Article 3 (commencing with Section 25657), of Chapter 16 of this division, that each registered guest to whom a key, magnetic card, or similar device is provided, or to whom access is otherwise provided, is not a minor.

(3) All employees handling the alcoholic beverages to be placed in the controlled access alcoholic beverage cabinet in any guestroom, including, but not limited to, any employee who inventories or restocks and replenishes the alcoholic beverages in the controlled access alcoholic beverage cabinet, shall be at least 21 years of age.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, a licensed wholesaler or importer may be issued and may hold retail package off-sale beer and wine licenses if the wholesaler or importer sells wine and no other alcoholic beverages at or from the retail premises.

Note—Stats 1988 ch 284 provides:

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Chapter 68 of the Statutes of 1987 inadvertently removed longstanding statutory authority for delicatessens and groceries holding off-sale beer and wine licenses to wholesale wine in gift packs with food products. As a result, unless this defect is reversed by June 30, 1988, many small markets will be forced to divest themselves of their wine wholesale businesses. Therefore, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Construction with Other Law

1. Generally
Samples of distilled spirits given away by wholesaler, rather than sales of liquor to another to be used by purchaser for samples, are not gratuitous in true sense, as use of samples is for purpose of encouraging sale of product, and Board of Equalization acted within its rule-making power in adopting rule requiring stamps to be attached to such samples. Tenkin Distributing Co. v. Collins (1942, Cal App) 50 Cal App 2d 790, 123 P2d 938, 1942 Cal App LEXIS 1009.

2. Construction with Other Law
B & P C § 25600 prohibits any licensee from giving any premium, gift, or free goods in connection with the sale or distribution of any alcoholic beverage except as provided by rules, and the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control's Rule 52(b) prohibits gifts of alcoholic beverages in connection with the sale of any alcoholic beverage. B & P C § 23386 authorizes wholesalers to give away samples in accordance with rules as shall be prescribed by the Department, and one such rule (Rule 52(a)), allows free samples only to other licensees, and not to consumers. Accordingly, the practice by which a beer brewer purchased its own products in bars or other drinking establishments, and offered customers the opportunity to exchange its product for whatever brand they were currently drinking (a practice commonly known as “trade sampling”), was unlawful. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1999, Cal App 4th Dist) 71 Cal App 4th 1518, 84 Cal Rptr 2d 621, 1999 Cal App LEXIS 466, review denied (1999) 1999 Cal. LEXIS 5470.

§ 23387. Sales by wholesalers or rectifiers for out-of-State delivery and use

In addition to the other privileges exercised under a wholesaler's or rectifier's license, a wholesaler or rectifier may sell the alcoholic beverages mentioned in his or her license to persons who take delivery of the alcoholic beverages within this state for delivery or use outside of the state within 90 days from the date of the sale in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the department.

Amendments:
1955 Amendment: Substituted “department” for “board” at the end of the section.
2006 Amendment: Amended section by (1) adding “or her” after “mentioned in his”; (2) substituted “such” for “the” after “who take delivery of”; (3) substituted “state for delivery or use outside of the state” for “State for delivery or use without the State”; and (4) substituted “the” for “such” after “90 days from the date of”.

A licensed beer manufacturer may sell and deliver beer from branch offices located away from his or her place of manufacture and exercise all his or her license privileges, other than manufacture, from the branch offices. The department shall upon request issue to a beer manufacturer a duplicate of his or her original license which shall authorize the maintenance and operation of each branch declared and designated by him or her, upon the payment for each duplicate of the fee specified in Section 23320.

Notwithstanding the provisions of any other section of this division, the duplicate license shall be issued forthwith upon the application therefor. In the event any protest is received by the department concerning the issuance of the duplicate license, the protest shall be considered as an accusation against the licensee and a hearing had thereon as if an accusation had been filed.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

1. Generally

No separate proceedings were required to revoke the caterer’s permit of persons whose alcoholic beverage on-sale license was revoked; the permit became void upon revocation of the on-sale license. Thus, there was no violation of the individuals’ administrative due process rights by the absence of proceedings to invalidate their caterer’s permit. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Locker (1982, Cal App 2d Dist) 129 Cal App 3d 381, 181 Cal Rptr 55, 1982 Cal App LEXIS 1330.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

1. Generally

The validity of a caterer's permit issued pursuant to B & P C § 23399 and Cal. Admin. Code (now Cal Code Reg), tit. 4, reg. 60.5, is dependent upon the existence of a valid, effective and unrenewed onsale alcoholic beverage license. Therefore, alcoholic beverage sales by individuals displaying a caterer's permit after revocation of their onsale license were without authority and were in violation of B & P C § 23300, prohibiting individuals from operating as licensees without a license. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Locker (1982, Cal App 2d Dist) 129 Cal App 3d 381, 181 Cal Rptr 55, 1982 Cal App LEXIS 1330.

§ 23399.1. When license or permit not required for serving and otherwise disposing of alcoholic beverages.

No license or permit shall be required for the serving and otherwise disposing of alcoholic beverages where all of the following conditions prevail:

1. That there is no sale of an alcoholic beverage.
2. That the premises are not open to the general public during the time alcoholic beverages are served, consumed or otherwise disposed of.
3. That the premises are not maintained for the purpose of keeping, serving, consuming or otherwise disposing of alcoholic beverages.

Provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be construed to permit any person to violate any provision of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act.

Added Stats 1955 ch 1801 § 3.

1. Generally
There is no transportation into California for delivery or use therein where delivery and use is in a national park, under the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States. Collins v. Yosemite Park & Curry Co. (1936) 304 US 518, 58 S Ct 1099, 82 L Ed 1502, 1936 US LEXIS 1030. Distillers and wholesalers are not authorized to adopt a regulation allowing a retail licensee to require out-of-state liquor distillers and suppliers to collect and remit to the state a wholesale markup on liquor sold to officers’ clubs and post exchanges located on military bases within the state over which the state does not exercise either exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction. United States v. State Tax Com. (1973) 412 US 363, 37 L Ed 2d 1, 93 S Ct 2183, 1973 US LEXIS 126.

2. Constitutionality
A state alcoholic beverage control statute, which provides that a licensed importer must not purchase or accept delivery of any brand of distilled spirits unless he is designated as an authorized importer of such brand by the brand owner or his authorized agent, is not illegal under federal law. Somermeier v. District Director of Customs (1971, 9th Cir Cal) 448 F2d 1243, 1971 US App LEXIS 7931. Under California law, when, by statute, reference is made to a specific statute, the adopted laws are taken not only in their contemporary form but also as they may be changed from time to time. Therefore the amount of liquor which a person flying in from a foreign country may bring in, without a license, is one quart. Rice v. Somermeier v. Such alcoholic beverages shall be exempt from state licensing restrictions. No person shall bring in more than one quart of alcoholic beverages during any calendar year pursuant to the authority granted in this section.

NOTES OF DECISIONS
1. Constitutionality
2. Construction with Other Law

1. Constitutionality
A state alcoholic beverage control statute, which provides that a licensed importer must not purchase or accept delivery of any brand of distilled spirits unless he is designated as an authorized importer of such brand by the brand owner or his authorized agent, and, accordingly, on its face is not invalid pursuant to the supremacy clause of the United States Constitution (Art VI, cl 2), where the statute merely enforces a distiller’s decision to restrain intrabrand competition and does not require the distiller to impose vertical restraints of any kind and does not limit the number of importers which may be designated by the distiller, any anticompetitive effect the statute might have when applied in concrete factual situations being insufficient to declare the statute itself void on its face. Rice v. Norman Williams Co. (1982) 458 US 654, 102 S Ct 3294, 93 L Ed 2d 1042, 1982 US LEXIS 156.

A violation of this section shall be remediable only by a civil action for damages or an action to enjoin a brand owner or his agent from continued violation brought by any person suffering loss as a result of such violation. A judgment in any such action rendered against a licensee shall be deemed grounds for the suspension or revocation of the violator’s license pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 24200) of this division.

For the purposes of this section, “distilled spirits” does not include brandy produced in California. No California brandy manufacturer or his agent shall be required to file an affidavit pursuant to this section for California brandy.

A state alcoholic beverage control statute, which provides that a licensed importer must not purchase or accept delivery of any brand of distilled spirits unless he is designated as an authorized importer of such brand by the brand owner or his authorized agent is not per se illegal under the Sherman Act (15 USCS §§ 1 et seq.) and, accordingly, on its face is not invalid pursuant to the supremacy clause of the United States Constitution (Art VI, cl 2), where the statute merely enforces a distiller’s decision to restrain intrabrand competition and does not require the distiller to impose vertical restraints of any kind and does not limit the number of importers which may be designated by the statute, any anticompetitive effect the statute might have when applied in concrete factual situations being insufficient to declare the statute itself void on its face. Rice v. Norman Williams Co. (1982) 458 US 654, 102 S Ct 3294, 73 L Ed 2d 1042, 1982 US LEXIS 156.

A state liquor control designation statute, which prohibits a licensed importer from purchasing or accepting delivery of any brand of distilled spirits unless he is designated as an authorized importer of such brand by the brand owner or his authorized agent, does not violate the equal protection clause as discriminating between designated and nondesignated wholesalers, the statute being rationally related to the statute’s legitimate purposes of enabling the distiller to place restraints on intrabrand competition in order to foster interbrand competition. Rice v. Norman Williams Co. (1982) 458 US 654, 102 S Ct 3294, 73 L Ed 2d 1042, 1982 US LEXIS 156.

2. Construction with Other Law
A state liquor control designation statute which prohibits a licensed importer from purchasing or accepting delivery of any brand of distilled spirits unless he is designated as a authorized importer of such brand by the brand owner or his authorized agent is not preempted by § 5(a) of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 USCS § 205(a))—which prohibits a distiller or wholesaler from establishing exclusive retailer outlets and prohibits a distiller or wholesaler from requiring a retailer to buy only the distiller’s or wholesaler’s products to the exclusion of the products of other distillers or wholesalers, but does not prohibit a distiller from requiring its wholesalers to purchase the distiller’s products from the distiller itself rather than from a third party—where the state statute in no way requires exclusive retailer outlets or even exclusive wholesale arrangements; although one might be able to hypothesize an arrangement enforced by the designation statute that might be prohibited by § 5(a), is insufficient to invalidate a state statute pursuant to the supremacy clause, of the Federal Constitution (Art VI, cl 2); Rice v. Norman Williams Co. (1982) 458 US 654, 102 S Ct 3294, 73 L Ed 2d 1042, 1982 US LEXIS 156.
§ 23770. Winegrower’s license

A winegrower’s license, or a wine blender’s license, whichever is appropriate to the operations to be conducted on the licensed premises, shall be issued only to, or held by, a person qualified to operate or operating a winery or wine cellar bonded under the internal revenue laws of the United States, or to any officer, director, employee, or agent of such person, and a person who holds any ownership or interest, directly or indirectly, by stock ownership, interlocking directors, trusteeship, loan, mortgage, or lien on any personal or real property, or otherwise, in any distilled spirits manufacturer’s or a distilled spirits manufacturer’s agent’s license; Exceptions

1. Legislative Intent

Where licensed manufacturer of distilled spirits which also held distilled spirits wholesaler’s license under § 23774, exempting certain persons from provisions of this section and § 23772, was acquired by merger by another manufacturer of distilled spirits not otherwise able to possess wholesaler’s license, latter manufacturer was not, through such merger, entitled to possess wholesaler’s license; legislature intended to establish uniform system of regulation whereby through process of natural attrition those qualified for exemption would gradually diminish in number until no more existed; while licenses themselves may be transferable, it was never intended that right of dual licensing would be transferable. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1964) 61 Cal 2d 305, 38 Cal Rptr 409, 392 P2d 1, 1964 Cal LEXIS 202.

2. Construction with Other Law

Grant of dual licenses to one falling within “grandfather” clause of § 23774, exempting certain persons from the provisions of this section and § 23772, was not predicated on desirability of such dual licensing, but rather despite lack of desirability thereof to prevent inequitable results; exception creates a current and undesirable nonuniformity in legislative scheme of regulation, and perpetuation thereof through transfers and business rearrangements would defeat ultimate legislative objective of keeping distinct and apart all persons engaged in handling of alcoholic beverages, whether manufacturing, wholesaling, importing or retailing. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1964) 61 Cal 2d 305, 38 Cal Rptr 409, 392 P2d 1, 1964 Cal LEXIS 202.

§ 23772. Distilled spirits manufacturer’s or manufacturer’s agent’s license; Exceptions

No distilled spirits manufacturer’s or distilled spirits manufacturer’s agent’s license shall be held by any person who holds any ownership or interest, directly or indirectly, by stock ownership, interlocking directors, trusteeship, loan, mortgage, or lien on any personal or real property, or otherwise, in any distilled spirits wholesaler’s rectifier’s, or retailer’s license.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the financial or representative relationship between a manufacturer, wine grower, manufacturer’s agent, rectifier, distiller, bottler, importer, or wholesaler, or any officer, director, or agent of such person, and a person holding only one of the following types of licenses:

(a) On–sale general license for a bona fide club.
(b) Club license (issued under Article 4 (commencing at Section 23425) of Chapter 3 of this division).
(c) Veterans’ club license (issued under Article 5 (commencing at Section 23450) of Chapter 3 of this division).
(d) On–sale license for boats, trains, sleeping cars or airplanes where the alcoholic beverages produced or sold by such manufacturer, wine grower, manufacturer’s agent, rectifier, bottler, importer, or wholesaler or any officer, director, or agent of such person are not sold, furnished or given, directly or indirectly to the on–sale licensee.

1. License Properly Denied

The findings of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that issuance of an off-sale beer and wine license to a convenience–type market would be contrary to public welfare or morals were supported by substantial evidence and it did not act arbitrarily or abuse its discretion in denying the issuance of the license, where the proposed premises were located some 300 to 400 feet from a school with an approximate attendance of 775 pupils ranging in age from 5 through 14 years, where a substantial number of children would pass directly by the proposed premises from early morning until well into the evening each day, where there was testimony that issuance of the license would create or intensify various problems, such as increased traffic hazards, increased litter on the school grounds, obtaining of alcoholic beverages by children, and increased class cutting, where there were already 11 licensed outlets of the off–sale type within a mile of the school, and where the applicant's beer and wine departments would not be segregated from items attractive to school children which it also intended to handle. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal. App. 2d Dist.) 261 Cal. App. 2d 119, 67 Cal. Rptr. 629, 1968 Cal. App. LEXIS 1725.

NOTES OF DECISIONS
1. Generally
2. Construction
3. Purpose
4. Revocation of License

1. Generally
Administrative rule (4 Cal Adm C § 65) did not justify granting wholesaler's license to licensee already holding one for premises in same city, or to person who does not, in good faith, actually carry on or intend to carry on bona fide wholesale business. Joseph George, Distributor v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 702, 308 P2d 773, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2089.

Wholesaler's license was “issued” within meaning of former section notwithstanding that State Board of Equalization retained physical possession of license as inactive license, under its misinterpretation of administrative rule, where licensee already held one such license for other premises in same city, did not intend to conduct business at premises covered by second license, but benefited therefrom in that it was counted in county quota, and thus effectively reduced competition. Joseph George, Distributor v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 702, 308 P2d 773, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2089.

Section concerns public interest in industry requiring close supervision, and it is important part of integrated and rather complex licensing and price regulating system. Louis Stores, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962) 57 Cal 2d 749, 22 Cal Rptr 14, 1962 Cal LEXIS 223.

While a licensed wholesaler is strictly prohibited from dealing exclusively with just one retailer (Bus. & Prof. Code, § 23779), there is nothing in the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act which prevents a winemaker, who also holds an off-sale general license, from dealing exclusively with himself as a retailer. Pronto Market No. 1, Inc. v. Alcoholic Bever. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1976, Cal App 2d Dist) 61 Cal App 3d 545, 132 Cal Rptr 230, 1976 Cal App LEXIS 1833.

2. Construction
By use of word “shall,” this section flatly prohibits issuance of beer or wine wholesale license to any person who does not in good faith intend to make the sale to retail licensees other than himself; such provision, together with permissive power of revocation given by section to Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control with respect to persons who already hold such licenses, establishes legislative policy against method of operation such as those employed by retail grocery chain in purchasing beer and wine “at wholesale” from manufacturer, bringing beverage to warehouse which it maintained, and subsequently delivering beverages to retail stores owned by chain for sale to consumers, without selling or attempting to sell at wholesale to any retail licensees other than its stores. Louis Stores, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962) 57 Cal 2d 749, 22 Cal Rptr 14, 1962 Cal LEXIS 223.

Section contains no requirement that, before Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control can revoke license, there must be evidence showing that such method of operation is contrary to general welfare, and there is no basis for reading into provision that restriction on power of department. Legislature may properly, as it has here, provide that certain conduct is contrary to public welfare, and department may rely on legislative declaration without taking evidence as to detrimental effect on public welfare. Louis Stores, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962) 57 Cal 2d 749, 22 Cal Rptr 14, 1962 Cal LEXIS 223.

Section contains no requirement that, before department can revoke license, there must be evidence showing that such method of operation is contrary to general welfare, and department may rely on this legislative declaration that prohibited conduct is contrary to public welfare. Borun Bros. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 2d Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 503, 30 Cal Rptr 175, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2526.

3. Purpose
Section is part of general system of liquor regulation, which includes establishment of orderly marketing conditions; this basic purpose of liquor law furnishes general standard for guiding Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in determining whether persons holding wholesale liquor licenses should be permitted to continue, for more than 45 days, making wholesale deliveries solely to their own retail outlets. Louis Stores, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962) 57 Cal 2d 749, 22 Cal Rptr 14, 1962 Cal LEXIS 223.

Determination of Board of Equalization that failure of retail grocery chain under its wholesale license to sell beer or wine to retail licensees other than its stores presents no problem which was contrary to public welfare and morals, thus rendering such method of wholesaling licensees permissible, was contrary to language of this section, and Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, as successor to board, correctly interpreted statute as granting discretionary power of revocation. Louis Stores, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962) 57 Cal 2d 749, 22 Cal Rptr 14, 1962 Cal LEXIS 223.

Both public interest and effect on third persons strongly indicated that determination of Board of Equalization sustaining validity of grocery chain's wholesale beer and wine license, in prior proceeding to revoke such license on ground that licensee had failed to engage in business of wholesaling beer and wine for 45-day period as required by this section, should not operate to preclude either successor Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control or courts from reexamining statute and applying correct interpretation, whether or not different from that of board, to retail grocery chain. Louis Stores, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962) 57 Cal 2d 749, 22 Cal Rptr 14, 1962 Cal LEXIS 223.

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not abuse discretion given by this section, in revoking retail grocery chain’s wholesale beer and wine license for failure to make, for 45-day period, any sales of alcoholic beverages to retail licensees other than itself, where department found on sufficient evidence that any reliance by grocery chain on prior erroneous administrative ruling was insufficient to justify continuance of stores’ method of operation when considered in light of adverse effect of this method on other retailers who could not purchase same beverages at lower price available to grocery chain. Louis Stores, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962) 57 Cal 2d 749, 22 Cal Rptr 14, 1962 Cal LEXIS 223.

Revocation, which gives Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control power to revoke wholesale license whenever licensee fails for period of 45 days to make sales to retail licensees other than himself, constituted ground for revocation of wholesale beer and wine license and wine portion of license of wholesaler’s corporation that solely engaged in independently operated retail licensee, of which it was wholly owned subsidiary, having to substantial extent the same officers and directors as such retail licensee. Borun Bros. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control
§ 23780. Distilled spirits wholesaler’s license or rectifier’s license

No distilled spirits wholesaler’s license or rectifier’s license shall be issued or renewed to any person who holds on deposit funds obtained from any retailer, which funds were obtained for the purpose of applying them, either in whole or in part, toward the payment of any future delivery of distilled spirits to the retailer.

Nothing in this section shall preclude the renewal, transfer, or issuance of an on-sale general license to any premises equipped and maintained in good faith for sales to and consumption by members of the public of meals upon the premises even though the operation of such premises is limited solely to the service of meals and beverages at prearranged events of a social or business nature and where admission is by ticket only.

A hotel or motel of 75 rooms or more or a bowling center of 12 lanes or more, or any other bona fide public eating place, which hotel, motel, bowling center or bona fide public eating place is licensed and so equipped and maintained may sublet the sale and service of the meals required by Section 23038 upon notification to the department. The fair, stable, and effective administration and enforcement of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act and related laws, therefore, must be insured.

2. Licensee/Manager Relationship

Attorney General’s Opinion:

Although a liquor licensee who permits his license to be used by another will not be held absolutely liable for debts to the user’s suppliers, the fact that the license is so used is one factor to be considered in determining whether there was an ostensible agency between the licensee and the user; the maxim “the law has been obeyed,” may be applied to protect third persons who deal with another person in reliance upon what appears to be a legal relationship between him and a second person, so that creditors of a concessionaire who operated a bar and restaurant under his own name, but used the liquor license of the partners from whom he leased the premises, were entitled to rely on the appearances created by the use of the license and assume that, rather than the illegal relationship established by the agreement, there was a relationship of licensee and manager. Associated Creditors’ Agency v. Davis (1975) 13 Cal 3d 374, 118 Cal Rptr 772, 530 P2d 1084, 1975 Cal LEXIS 175.

§ 23789. On-sale retail license for premises located near church, hospital, schools and public playgrounds, or nonprofit youth facilities

(a) The department is specifically authorized to refuse the issuance, other than renewal or ownership transfer, of any retail license for premises located within the immediate vicinity of churches and hospitals.

(b) The department is specifically authorized to refuse the issuance, other than renewal or ownership transfer, of any retail license for premises located within at least 600 feet of schools and public playgrounds or nonprofit youth facilities, including, but not limited to, facilities serving Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, or Campfire Girls. This distance shall be measured pursuant to rules of the department.

1. Generally

Department’s investigations in connection with applications for liquor licenses must be made with view to public welfare and morals. Schaub’s, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 858, 315 P2d 459, 1957 Cal LEXIS 1570.

Any regulations of liquor traffic by way of exceptions in respect to churches and schools should be liberally construed in favor of such regulations and against applicants for license to sell liquor within prescribed areas. Schaub’s, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 858, 315 P2d 459, 1957 Cal LEXIS 1570.

Decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to issue general off-sale liquor license to super market located in close proximity to high school, church, public swimming pool, proposed children’s playground and location on which YMCA building was to be erected, and that such action was not contrary to public welfare and morals, was supported by substantial evidence, despite conflicting testimony by witnesses for school, church and YMCA, since ultimate question was peculiarly question for departmental resolution and there was no abuse of discretion in its determination. Board of Trustees v. Munro (1958, Cal App 3d Dist) 163 Cal App 2d 440, 329 P2d 765, 1958 Cal LEXIS 1518.

In determining whether issuance of liquor license would be inimical to general welfare or public morals, Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is entitled to consider applicant’s integrity as shown by his previous business experience, kind of business to be conducted on licensed premises, probable manner in which it will be conducted, type of goods and probability that their consumption of alcoholic beverages will be moderate, nature of protest made to issuance of license, and any conflict that use of license might have with church in area and activities that it conducts. Koss v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 4th Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 489, 30 Cal Rptr 219, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2524.

2. Churches and Hospitals

There is no provision, or regulation by department, that department may refuse “off-sale” license in immediate vicinity of church, but nevertheless proximity of license premises to church may supply adequate basis for denial of such license as being inimical to public morals and welfare. Schaub’s, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 858, 315 P2d 459, 1957 Cal LEXIS 1570.

Fact that when church was seeking zoning ordinance so that its edifice could be constructed was held to be without merit if granted grants to church are in unclean areas where liquor may be sold in such premises. Martin v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1956) 55 Cal 2d 867, 13 Cal Rptr 513, 362 P2d 101, 1957 Cal LEXIS 268.

Location of church near premises for which liquor license is proposed does not require finding, as matter of law, that issuance of license therefor would be contrary to public welfare or morals. Koss v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1953, Cal App 4th Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 489, 30 Cal Rptr 219, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2524.

3. Schools and Playgrounds

A distance of 80 feet between school buildings and a proposed off-sale liquor distribution place constitutes sufficient proximity for the denial of a license. Weiss v. State Board of Equalization (1953) 40 Cal 2d 772, 250 P2d 1, 1953 Cal LEXIS 226.

The denial of an application for an off-sale beer and wine license for a store across the street from a school is proper, and the fact that the neighborhood is composed mainly of persons of the Jewish faith who purchase wine for sentimental purposes does not constitute altering circumstances. Weiss v. State Board of Equalization (1953) 40 Cal 2d 772, 256 P2d 1, 1953 Cal LEXIS 236.

Findings by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that there is amusement center within 400 feet of premises seeking a liquor license, that there is swimming pool between the center and proposed premises, that children frequent center and pool, that all related enterprises are privately owned, and that none of them is children’s public playground within meaning of this section, refute any contention that location of premises in relation to enterprises was not considered by department in determining that granting of liquor license would not be contrary to public welfare and morals. Bailey v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 4th Dist) 201 Cal App 2d 348, 20 Cal Rptr 284, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 5599.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not act arbitrarily, nor abuse its discretion, in finding that the issuance of an off-sale license to sell beer and wine was contrary to public welfare and morals based on evidence, as to which there could be a reasonable difference of opinion, that the applicant’s store, which was 200 feet from a school and which was patronized by approximately 20 children a day, was proposed to change its operation to selling take-out food, including beer and wine to customers, including children who were permitted to leave the school premises for lunch, during several hours a day that the school was open. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 250 Cal App 2d 673, 58 Cal Rptr 788, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 2150.

Mere proximity of a liquor license applicant’s premises to a school or church is not, as a matter of law, “good cause” which will constitute-ally sustain the Alcoholic Beverage Control Department's denial of the license, and it was improper to deny a supermarket's application for an off-sale beer and wine license, where, although the store was located in the immediate vicinity of an elementary school, the department's finding on the essential, ultimate fact upon which the denial could properly be made, namely, that issuance of the license would contravene public welfare and morals, was unsupported by substantial evidence. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 255 Cal App 2d 40, 62 Cal Rptr 778, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1237.

As a ground for denying a liquor license, the Alcoholic Beverage Control Department’s finding that "some of the school children pass by, as well as frequent," the applicant's supermarket was not in itself substantial evidence that the issuance of the license would be contrary to public welfare and morals, where, although the store was only 115 feet across the street from the playground fence of an elementary school, it was 400 feet from the school entrance by "lawful pedestrian feet," where an afternoon check showed that only 17 out of 139 pupils visited the store, where the supermarket chain carried no exterior advertisements on liquor, experienced no problem of thefts by children of beer or wine, trained its personnel on the prohibition of its sale to minors and at a nearby store had experienced no infractions of such law. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 255 Cal App 2d 40, 62 Cal Rptr 778, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1237.

There was no substantial evidence that the issuance of an off-sale beer and wine license to a supermarket should be denied, as being contrary to public welfare and morals, where, although the Alcoholic Beverage Control Department found that an elementary school in the immediate vicinity (a purely commercial district) had a present problem with persons consuming alcoholic beverages nearby and that the license would aggravate the problem, no eyewitness or expert testimony was adduced, where the testimony that the school grounds were sometimes littered with empty liquor bottles, beer cans and wine bottles failed to show how the litter was attributable to the store, not then licensed, or even to the two licensed stores within 900 feet of the school, and where testimony of the dangers to be expected from such undesirables as drunks in cars was conjectural, at best. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 255 Cal App 2d 40, 62 Cal Rptr 778, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1237.

The finding of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that issuance of an off-sale beer and wine license to a convenience-type market would be contrary to public welfare or morals would be supported by substantial evidence and it did not act arbitrarily or abuse its discretion in denying the issuance of the license, where the proposed premises were located some 300 to 400 feet from a school with an approximate attendance of 775 pupils ranging in age from 5 through 14 years, where a substantial number of children would pass directly by the proposed premises from early morning until well into the evening each day, where there was testimony that issuance of the license would create or intensify various problems, such as increased traffic hazards, increased litter on the school grounds, obtaining of alcoholic beverages by children, and increased class cutting, where there were already 11 licensed outlets of off-sale type within a mile of the school, and where the applicant's beer and wine departments would not be segregated from items attractive to school children which it also intended to handle. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 119, 67 Cal Rptr 629, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1725.

§ 23790. Issuance of retail license contrary to zoning ordinance

No retail license shall be issued for any premises which are located in any territory where the exercise of the rights and privileges conferred by the license is contrary to a valid zoning ordinance of any county or city. Premises which had been used in the exercise of those rights and privileges at a time prior to the effective date of the zoning ordinance may continue operation under the following conditions:

(a) The premises retain the same type of retail liquor license within a license classification.

(b) The licensed premises are operated continuously without substantial change in mode or character of operation.

For purposes of this subdivision, a break in continuous operation does not include:

(1) A closure for not more than 30 days for purposes of repair, if that repair does not change the nature of the licensed premises and does not increase the square footage of the business used for the sale of alcoholic beverages.

(2) The closure for restoration of premises rendered totally or partially inaccessible by an act of God or a toxic accident, if the restoration does not increase the square footage of the business used for the sale of alcoholic beverages.

1. Generally

Section confers upon counties and cities the right to control districts in which various types of liquor business could be carried on by enactment of valid zoning ordinances, and even though excluding of liquor business of any type in certain zone does have effect of denying in advance all applications for liquor licenses in that zone, such result is expressly authorized by section, which in turn is legislation authorized by Cal Const Art XX § 22. Town Council of Los Gatos v. State Bd. of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 344, 296 P2d 909, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1561.

Section only requires that there be a valid zoning ordinance and that exercise of rights and privileges of license sought to be issued would be contrary to provisions; section does not require specific limitation against sale of alcoholic beverages in designated area. Town Council of Los Gatos v. State Bd. of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 344, 296 P2d 909, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1561.

In granting off-sale liquor license to super market located on tract subject to restrictive covenant against sale of intoxicating liquors, Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control properly determined that existence of covenant did not justify board in holding that its violation would cause harm affecting public welfare and morals and left parties to covenant to resort to courts if so advised, since only legislative enactment restricting licensing power of department for issuance of license to premises located in territory where exercise of rights thereof would be contrary to valid zoning ordinance. Board of Trustees v. Munro (1958, Cal App 3d Dist) 163 Cal App 2d 440, 329 P2d 765, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1518.

2. Legislative Intent

Legislature has expressly negated its intent to extend state control to zoning matters through exercise of its liquor license authority under this section and § 23791; local zoning ordinance may validly prohibit use of property for business of selling liquor. Jen-Mar Co. v. Anaheim (1962, Cal App 4th Dist) 201 Cal App 2d 832, 20 Cal Rptr 350, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2684.

3. Construction

In an action against a city by the owners of two stores selling alcoholic beverages, challenging the validity of an ordinance requiring them to obtain conditional use permits in order to continue to sell alcoholic beverages, the trial court properly dismissed those of plaintiffs' causes of action premised on the assertions that the conditions imposed thereon were an impermissible attempt to regulate the sale of alcohol and that the ordinance duplicated or contradicted state law in the exercise of its liquor license authority under nonconforming use is expressly authorized by section, which in turn is legislation authorized by section which exempts nonconforming use, such as subject to restrictive covenant against sale of intoxicating liquors, since ordinance in question was valid exercise of city's right to control districts in which various types of liquor business could be carried on. Floresta, Inc. v. City Council of San Leandro (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 190 Cal App 2d 599, 12 Cal Rptr 182, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2345.

4. Due Process

A city's procedure in deeming the 60-day suspension of plaintiff's Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC) license to terminate automatically her existing legal nonconforming use of her property as a liquor store under B & P C § 23790 violated her due process right to notice and the opportunity to be heard. The Court of Appeal reversed with directions to the superior court to grant a writ mandating the city to hold a new administrative hearing including adjudication of the grandfathered right termination issue before applying its 1995 zoning ordinance to require plaintiff to obtain a conditional use permit to resume selling alcoholic beverages at her business. Bauer v. City of San Diego (1999, Cal App 4th Dist) 75 Cal App 4th 1281, 89 Cal Rptr 2d 795, 1999 Cal App LEXIS 851.

5. Exemptions

Provision of section which exempts nonconforming use, such as on-sale liquor establishment, from zoning ordinance does not include use which has ceased for years before effective date of ordinance and eleven years before renewal application was made. Town Council of Los Gatos v. State Bd. of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 344, 296 P2d 909, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1561.

6. Zoning Ordinance Improper

Zoning ordinances cannot single out and prohibit sale of liquor as such; there must be reasonable classification of districts and in any zoning district in which other retail businesses are allowed to be conducted, it might and probably would be unreasonable and arbitrary to exclude sale of liquor. Town Council of Los Gatos v. State Bd. of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 344, 296 P2d 909, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1561.

7. Zoning Ordinance Valid

City zoning ordinance prohibiting establishment of cocktail bar or lounge within 200 feet of residential district without use permit did not invade field preempted by state under statutes dealing with licensing of sale of intoxicating liquors, since ordinance in question was valid exercise of city's right to control districts in which various types of liquor business could be carried on. Floresta, Inc. v. City Council of San Leandro (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 190 Cal App 2d 599, 12 Cal Rptr 182, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2345.

8. License Improper

Granting on-sale intoxicating liquor license to establishment operating with only beer and wine license under nonconforming use is unwarranted enlargement of use. Town Council of Los Gatos v. State Bd. of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 344, 296 P2d 909, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1561.

9. Nuisance Abatement Ordinance

The trial court erred in granting the petition of the licensed owners of a retail liquor store for a writ of mandate requiring a city to set aside its imposition of restrictions and conditions on the continued operation of the owners' liquor store, and in ordering that the city refrain from applying its nuisance abatement ordinance so long as the nature and operation of the owners' business remained unchanged. The city had imposed the restrictions and conditions on certain activities around the store after the store became a police problem during a civil disturbance. City zoning ordinance prohibiting establishment of cocktail bar or lounge within 200 feet of residential district without use permit did not have a preemptive effect on the ordinance at issue in this case, since the purpose and effect of the ordinance was the abatement of specific nuisance activities at or near the offending location and the city ordinance was not limited to businesses selling alcoholic beverages, but applied to any business, as long as the business, as operated or maintained, constituted a nuisance. Further, the ordinance was not a forward-looking zoning ordinance; instead it looked to the past and operated only in response to a specific business with a documented history of nuisance problems. There is no legal impediment to retroactive application of a nuisance abatement ordinance based on the difference between the object and scope of nuisance ordinances and the compelling public necessity to abate nuisances wherever found. Suzuki v. City of Los Angeles (1996, Cal App 2d Dist) 44 Cal App 2d 283, 51 Cal Rptr 2d 880, 1996 Cal App LEXIS 306, review denied (1996) 1998 Cal. LEXIS 3879.

B & P C § 23790 (issuance of retail license contrary to zoning ordinance), did not preempt a city's imposition, pursuant to its nuisance abatement ordinance, of restrictions and conditions on the owners of a licensed liquor store in response to nuisance activity around the store. Although § 23790 protects licensed retail liquor store owners from later enacted ordinances, the plain language of the statute only exempts existing nonconforming uses from compliance with later enacted zoning ordinances, and then only when the business has continuously existed without substantial change in either mode or character of operation. Neither the purpose nor the effect of the city's nuisance abatement ordinance was that of a zoning ordinance. Also, neither the language of § 23790 nor anything in the legislative history indicates that the statute was intended to operate to exempt a nonconforming licensee from compliance with nuisance abatement ordinances whenever enacted. In the absence of a clear legislative mandate to the contrary, there was no valid reason why business owners, such as the owners in the present case, should be exempted from the valid exercise of the city's police power to eradicate an existing nuisance. Thus, § 23790 does not exempt a licensee who allows his or her business to be maintained as a nuisance from a city's administrative procedures to abate what has been found, after proper notice and a hearing, to constitute a nuisance. Suzuki v. City of Los Angeles (1996, Cal App 2d Dist) 44 Cal App 4th 269, 53 Cal Rptr 2d 880, 1996 Cal App LEXIS 306, review denied (1996) 1996 Cal. LEXIS 3879. B & P C § 23790, which permits alcoholic beverage licensees operating in an area before the enactment of restrictive zoning ordinances to remain in business, did not preempt or otherwise preclude enforcement of a city's ordinance addressing nuisance problems associated with alcoholic beverage sale establishments. A city may properly enact a local ordinance to control and abate nuisance activities, despite the fact that the business that would be regulated by the ordinance possessed grandfather rights that might ordinarily render it immune from compliance with local ordinances. The ordinance did not create any new authority empowering the city to halt operation of an alcoholic beverage sales establishment. It merely created an administrative mechanism that might have resulted in a third party taking action against the alcoholic beverage seller—abatement by a court or license revocation by the State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control. The conduct that is regulated by the ordinance, the control and abatement of nuisances and criminal activities, did not fall within the ambit of § 23790. City of Oakland v. Superior Court (1996, Cal App 1st Dist) 45 Cal App 4th 740, 53 Cal Rptr 2d 120, 1996 Cal App LEXIS 446.

§ 23790.5. Sale of beer and wine in conjunction with sale of motor vehicle fuel

(a) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to ensure that local government shall not be preempted in the valid exercise of its land use authority pursuant to Section 23790, including, but not limited to, enacting an ordinance requiring a conditional use permit. It is also the intent of the Legislature to prevent the legislated prohibition of the concurrent retailing of beer and wine for off-premises consumption and motor vehicle fuel where the retailing of each is otherwise allowable.

(b)(1) No city, county, or city and county shall, by ordinance or resolution adopted on or after January 1, 1988, legislatively prohibit the concurrent retailing of motor vehicle fuel and beer and wine for off-premises consumption in zoning districts where the zoning ordinance allows motor vehicle fuel and off-premises beer and wine to be retailed on separate sites.

(2) On and after January 1, 1989, no city, county, or city and county ordinance or resolution adopted prior to May 5, 1987, shall have legal effect if it legislatively prohibits the concurrent retailing of motor vehicle fuel with beer and wine for off-premises consumption in zoning districts where the zoning ordinance allows beer and wine and motor vehicle fuel to be retailed on separate sites.

(3) On and after July 1, 1988, no city, county, or city and county ordinance or resolution adopted on or after May 5, 1987, shall have legal effect if it legislatively prohibits the concurrent retailing of motor vehicle fuel with beer and wine for off-premises consumption in zoning districts where the zoning ordinance allows beer and wine and motor vehicle fuel to be retailed on separate sites.

(4) This section shall not apply to a prohibition by a city, county, or city and county of the sale of beer and wine in conjunction with the sale of motor vehicle fuel if that prohibition occurs as a result of the prohibition of the combining of the sale of motor vehicle fuel with a broader class of products or uses which includes alcoholic beverages or beer and wine as a named or unnamed part of that larger class, if that prohibition was enacted before August 1, 1985.

(c) Subject to the restrictions and limitations of subdivision (b), this section shall not prevent a city, county, or city and county from denying permission, or granting conditional permission, to an individual applicant to engage in the concurrent retailing of motor vehicle fuel with beer and wine for off-premises consumption pursuant to a valid conditional use permit ordinance based on appropriate health, safety, or general welfare standards contained in the ordinance if that conditional use permit ordinance contains all of the following:

(1) A requirement for written findings.

(2) A provision for an administrative appeal if the governing body has delegated its power to issue or deny a conditional use permit.

(3) Procedures for notice of a hearing, conduct of a hearing, and an opportunity for all parties to present testimony.

(4) A requirement that the findings be based on substantial evidence in view of the whole record to justify the ultimate decision.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, establishments engaged in the concurrent sale of motor vehicle fuel with beer and wine for off-premises consumption shall abide by the following conditions:

(1) No beer or wine shall be displayed within five feet of the cash register or the front door unless it is in a permanently affixed cooler as of January 1, 1988.

(2) No advertisement of alcoholic beverages shall be displayed at motor fuel islands.

(3) No sale of alcoholic beverages shall be made from a drive-in window.

(4) No display or sale of beer or wine shall be made from an ice tub.

(5) No beer or wine advertising shall be located on motor fuel islands and no self-illuminated advertising for beer or wine shall be located on buildings or windows.

(6) Employees on duty between the hours of 10 p.m. and 2 a.m. who sell beer or wine shall be at least 21 years of age.

The standards contained in this subdivision are minimum state standards which do not limit local regulation otherwise permitted under this section.

(e) If there is a finding that a licensee or his or her employee has sold any alcoholic beverages to a minor at an establishment engaged in the concurrent sale of motor vehicle fuel with beer and wine for off-premises consumption, the alcoholic beverage license at the establishment shall be suspended for a minimum period of 72 hours. For purposes of Section 23790, the effect of such a license suspension shall not constitute a break in the continuous operation of the establishment nor a substantial change in the mode or character of operation.

(f) The provisions of this section apply to charter cities.

Amendments:
1981 Amendment: Substituted "January 1, 1994" for "January 1, 1990" wherever it appears in subds (d) and (e).
1994 Amendment: (1) Deleted ", until January 1, 1994," after "consumption shall" in the introductory clause of subd (d); (2) amended subd (d)(6) by (a) adding "who sell beer or wine"; and (b) deleting "to sell beer and wine" at the end; and (3) deleted "Until January 1, 1994," in the beginning of subd (e).

2. Generally
Legislature has expressly negatived its intent to extend state control to zoning matters through exercise of its liquor license authority under § 23790 and this section; local zoning ordinance may validly prohibit use of property for business of selling liquor. § 23792. Licenses for rural premises near construction work
No license, other than an on–sale beer license, shall be issued to any applicant for any premises situated more than one mile outside the limits of an incorporated city and within two miles of any camp or establishment of men, numbering 25 or more, engaged upon or in connection with the construction, repair, or operation of any work, improvement, or utility of a public or quasi–public character. This section does not apply to the renewal of any licenses for any premises which have been established and licensed under this division at least six months prior to the establishment of the camp or establishment of men, and such licenses, whether held by the original license to whom first issued or a subsequent holder thereof, shall be subject to transfer as to person and premises, or either, in the same manner as any other license of the same type and character issued by the department.

§ 23800. Placing conditions on retail licenses; situation in which authorized

The department may place reasonable conditions on retail licenses or upon any licensee in the exercise of retail privileges in the following situations:

(a) If grounds exist for the denial of an application for a license or where a protest against the issuance of a license is filed and if the department finds that those grounds may be removed by the imposition of those conditions.

(b) Where findings are made by the department which would justify a suspension or revocation of a license, and where the imposition of a condition is reasonably related to those findings. In the case of a suspension, the conditions may be in lieu of or in addition to the suspension.

(c) Where the department issues an order suspending or revoking only a portion of the privileges to be exercised under the license.

(d) Where findings are made by the department that the license has failed to correct objectionable conditions within a reasonable time after receipt of notice to make corrections given pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 24200, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 24200.1.

(e)(1) At the time of transfer of a license pursuant to Section 24071.1, 24071.2, or 24072 and upon written notice to the licensee, the department may adopt conditions that the department determines are reasonable pursuant to its investigation or that are requested by the local governing body, or its designated subordinate officer or agency, in whose jurisdiction the license is located. The request for conditions shall be supported by substantial evidence that the problems either on the premises or in the immediate vicinity identified by the local governing body or its designated subordinate officer or agency will be mitigated by the conditions. Upon receipt of the request for conditions, the department shall either adopt the conditions requested or notify the local governing body, or its designated subordinate officer or agency, in writing of its determination that there is not substantial evidence that the problem exists or that the conditions would not mitigate the problems identified. The department may adopt conditions only when the request is filed. Any request for conditions from the local governing body or its designated subordinate officer or agency pursuant to this provision shall be filed with the department within the time authorized for a local law enforcement agency to file a protest or proposed conditions pursuant to Section 23987.

(2) If the license to be transferred subject to paragraph (1) is located in an area of undue concentration as defined in Section 23958.4, the period within which the local governing body or its designated subordinate officer or agency may submit a written request for conditions shall be 40 days after the mailing of the notices required by Section 23987. For purposes of this provision only, undue concentration shall be established when the requirements of both paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) and either paragraph (2) or paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 23958.4 exist. Pursuant to Section 23987, the department may extend the 40-day period for a period not to exceed an additional 20 days upon the written request of any local law enforcement agency or local government entity with jurisdiction. Nothing in this paragraph is intended to reduce the burden of the local governing body or its designated subordinate officer or agency to support any request for conditions as required by paragraph (1). Notwithstanding Section 23987, the department may not transfer any license subject to this paragraph until after the time period permitted to request conditions as specified in this paragraph.

(f) At the time of a transfer of a license pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 24070) of Chapter 6.

Amendments:

1969 Amendment: (1) Amended subd (a) by (a) substituting “If grounds exist for the denial of an application” for “In any proceedings upon a petition”; (b) adding “where” after “license or”, (c) adding “is filed and”; (d) adding “such” before “grounds”; and (e) deleting “exist” for the denial of the application for the license which “before” may be removed”; (2) amended subd (b) by (a) substituting “Where” for “In any proceedings for the suspension or revocation of a license, if” (b) adding “by the department” (c) substituting “a” for “such” after “would justify” and (d) adding “of a license” after “revocation”; and (3) deleting “a” after proceedings to suspend or revoke a license, before “the department of enforcement of statute.”

1994 Amendment: (1) Deleted “Upon request of the licensee or applicant for a license” in the beginning of the introductory clause; and (2) added subd (d).

§ 23801. Matters which conditions may cover

The conditions authorized by Section 23800 may cover any matter relating to the privileges to be exercised under the license, the personal qualifications of the licensee, the conduct of the business or the condition of the premises, which will protect the public welfare and morals, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Restrictions as to hours of sale.
(b) Display of signs.
(c) Employment of designated persons.
(d) Types and strengths of alcoholic beverages to be served where such types or strengths are otherwise limited by law.

(e) In cases under subdivision (c) of Section 23800, the portion of the privileges to be exercised under the license.

(f) The personal conduct of the licensee.

(g) In cases under subdivision (f) of Section 23800, restrictions on the presence of the license transferor on the licensed premises without lawful business if that license transferor has multiple violations of this division when in possession of the license. § 23803. Removal or modification of conditions; Notice and hearing

The department, upon its own motion or upon the petition of a licensee or a transferee who has filed an application for the transfer of the license, if it is satisfied that the grounds which caused the imposition of the conditions no longer exist, shall order their removal or modification, provided written notice is given to the local governing body of the area in which the premises are located. The local governing body has 30 days to file written objections to the removal or modification of any condition. The department may not remove or modify any condition to which an objection has been filed without holding a hearing as provided in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

Any petition for the removal or modification of a condition pursuant to this section shall be accompanied by a fee of one hundred dollars ($100).

Amendments:
1983 Amendment: Added the second paragraph.

Amendments:
1969 Amendment: Amended subdivision (c) to add the following: “and (d) shall be conducted in the same manner as is required for other proceedings involving petitions, protests or accusations, and the right of a respondent in the proceedings to appeal shall include the right to appeal from an order imposing conditions upon the licenses involved in the proceedings. If the department gives notice of conditions pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 23800 or denies a petition filed under Section 23803, the licensee or transferee may, within 10 days after the mailing of the denial, make a written request for a hearing. The proceedings at the hearing shall be conducted as provided in Section 24300, and the re-

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Construction with Other Law
3. Public Welfare

1. Generally

In computing the number of licenses, seasonal on-sale liquor licenses should not be included. Johnstone v. State Bd. of Equalization (1950, Cal. App. 95 Cal App 2d 527, 213 P2d 429, 1950 Cal App LEXIS 994). Alcoholic Beverage Control Act § 7.1, B & P C § 24050 [repealed], providing for reinstatement of licenses to persons of Japanese ancestry, would not accomplish its purposes if limitations of § 38f, B & P C §§ 23815–23823 to apply to licenses formerly held by persons of Japanese ancestry, and restoration of such licenses should be effected automatically wherever neighborhood in question has remained substantially the same as when licenses were revoked. Taenaka v. State Board of Equalization (1954) 42 Cal 2d 657, 268 P2d 472, 1954 Cal LEXIS 194.

2. Construction with Other Law

Authority of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to deny granting of license on ground its issuance would be contrary to public welfare or morals is derived from self-executing provisions of Constitution, exists independently of any legislation and may not be restricted by statute. Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 531, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1971.

3. Public Welfare

Decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control denying on-sale beer license directed toward limiting number of licenses to be issued in particular area having law enforcement problems was not contrary to law and thus unreasonable, on ground that Legislature excluded beer from laws respecting limitations on number of licensed premises, where denial was based on fact that granting license would be contrary to public welfare or morals. On and after July 1, 1963, the number of premises for which an offsale general license is issued shall be limited to one for each 2,500, or fraction thereof, inhabitants of the county in which the premises are situated; and no additional offsale general license, other than a renewal or transfer or as permitted by Section 23821, shall be issued in any county where the number of premises for which all offsale general licenses are issued is more than one for each 2,500, or fraction thereof, inhabitants of the county.

Amendments:
1961 Amendment: (1) Added “Until July 1, 1963,”; (2) substituted “2,000” for “1,000” after “for each” wherever it appears; (3) added “and” after “situated;”; (4) substituted “Section 23821” for “Sections 23821 and 23822”, (5) added “general” after “offsale”, and (6) added the second paragraph.

Decisions Under Former Law

1. Construction

1. Construction

Former section was properly interpreted to include in computation of total number of off-sale general licenses, the number of existing off-sale beer and wine licenses, and where such total number exceeded statutory maximum, State Board of Equalization had no jurisdiction to issue new off-sale general licenses, and hearing for such purpose was not required, since board could not be compelled to do something law prohibited. Lukin v. State Board of Equalization (1953, Cal App) 120 Cal App 2d 261, 269 P2d 1046, 1953 Cal App LEXIS 1925.

Alcoholic Beverage Control Act § 7.1, B & P C § 24050 [repealed], providing for reinstatement of licenses to persons of Japanese ancestry, would not accomplish its purpose if limitations of § 38f, B & P C §§ 23815–23823, were to apply to licenses formerly held by persons of Japanese ancestry, and restoration of such licenses should be effected automatically wherever neighborhood in question has remained substantially the same as when licenses were revoked. § 23817.5. Limit on off-sale beer and wine licenses in proportion to number of residents; Retail off-sale beer and wine replacement licenses

(a)(1) The number of premises for which an off-sale beer and wine license is issued shall be limited to one for each 2,500, or fraction thereof, inhabitants of the city or county in which the premises are situated. No additional off-sale beer and wine license, other than a renewal or transfer or as permitted by Section 23821, shall be issued in any city and county where the number of premises for which all off-sale beer and wine licenses in combination with off-sale general licenses are issued is more than one for each 1,250, or fraction thereof, inhabitants of the city and county.

(1) The replacement license is only for use at a premises which was licensed and operated within the past 90 days.

For purposes of this paragraph, “abandoned” means that the prior license has not been transferred to a new location and the prior licensee is not exercising dominion or control over the premises. “Abandoned” does not mean a license which has been voluntarily surrendered pursuant to department rule.

(3) The application for a replacement license shall be accompanied by a fee of one hundred dollars ($100).

(1) The replacement license shall not be transferred to another premises.

(2) All conditions imposed on the original license shall apply to the replacement license.

(3) The original license shall be canceled by operation of law upon the issuance of the replacement license.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

2. Construction

3. Evidence

1. Generally

The power given by this statute to issue licenses exists subject only to the conditions set forth, and it is not necessary for licensed applicants to allege or prove matters mentioned in former Stats 1945 ch 1401 § 38f, paragraph 6 (now § 23822) [repealed]. San Diego v. State Board of Equalization (1947, Cal App) 82 Cal App 2d 453, 186 P2d 166, 1947 Cal App LEXIS 1226.

2. Construction

The words “do not then exceed the maximum specified” clearly relate to the situation that will exist after the additional licenses are issued, and not to whether or not an excess has previously existed or to the number outstanding before the determination of an increase in population is made. San Diego v. State Board of Equalization (1947, Cal App) 82 Cal App 2d 453, 186 P2d 166, 1947 Cal App LEXIS 1226.

3. Evidence

The elements of increase of population and discrimination set forth in this statute, are both questions of fact, but can involve opinion; and when the board at its hearings considers census data, commercial and newspaper reports, other pertinent documentary evidence, and a full report of the State Liquor Administrator, the evidence is legally sufficient to sustain its findings and determination. San Diego v. State Board of Equalization (1947, Cal App) 82 Cal App 2d 453, 186 P2d 166, 1947 Cal App LEXIS 1226.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Power of Board
2. Required Information
3. Application Not Required

1. Power of Board
Board of Equalization had power to determine suitability and fitness of premises where proposed “on-sale” dispositions were to be made. Parente v. State Board of Equalization (1934, Cal App) 1 Cal App 2d 238, 36 P2d 437, 1934 Cal LEXIS 1257.

In determining suitability and fitness of premises where proposed on-sale license is to be granted, State Board of Equalization was not confined to consideration of structural features of building, such as whether it was constructed of wood, brick, concrete, was weatherproof, properly heated, inviting or uninviting, but it could consider location of structure or building, irrespective of materials of which it was composed, as affecting questions of peace, safety and good order of whatever surrounded place in question. Parente v. State Board of Equalization (1934, Cal App) 1 Cal App 2d 238, 36 P2d 437, 1934 Cal App LEXIS 1257.

Discretion vested in Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control by Constitution (Cal Const Art XX § 22) is not absolute, but must be exercised in accordance with law. Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 531, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1971.

2. Required Information
Each applicant for liquor license must provide department of alcoholic beverage control with certain information with reference to applicant’s background, crime record, status and other data, and must subject himself and premises where business will be conducted to full investigation. Duke Molner Wholesale Liquor Co. v. Martin (1960, Cal App 2d Dist) 180 Cal.App 2d 873, 4 Cal Rptr 904, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2413, cert den (1960) 364 US 870, 81 S Ct 112, 5 L Ed 2d 92, 1960 US LEXIS 325.

3. Application Not Required

(b) For a general partnership, the names of the individual partners.

NOTES OF DECISIONS
1. Generally
2. Partnership Application
3. No Partnership Found
§ 23952 BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE

1. Generally
Demurrer to petition for mandamus to compel State Board of Equalization to issue to petitioner an on-sale beer and wine license should have been sustained, where petition in effect alleged compliance with requirements of § 12 of former State Liquor Control Act, but said nothing about compliance with any other requirements except those relating to form of application for a license, and it did not on its face sufficiently negative existence of circumstances in which board was by such statute itself expressly authorized to deny license sought. San Diego Cotton Club, Inc. v. State Board of Equalization (1934, Cal App) 139 Cal App 655, 34 P2d 749, 1934 Cal App LEXIS 660.

This section and § 23953 are not limited to original applications, and partner's failure to sign application for renewal is violation of those sections. Martin v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1959) 52 Cal 2d 287, 341 P2d 296, 1959 Cal LEXIS 203.

2. Partnership Application
Where saloon business, illegally conducted by partnership because license was not procured in name of both partners as required by law, has been so held, and one partner has orally agreed to divide assets of business in his possession, other partner is entitled to maintain suit for accounting of such assets because it does not necessarily involve legality of the partnership agreement to conduct saloon, but depends on oral agreement to divide the property. Denning v. Talber (1945, Cal App) 70 Cal App 2d 253, 160 P2d 900, 1945 Cal App LEXIS 1067. Partnership application should be denied if one of partners is unable to qualify. Coletti v. State Bd. of Equalization (1949, Cal App) 94 Cal App 2d 61, 209 P2d 984, 1949 Cal App LEXIS 1490.

Where two or more persons apply for partnership license, each of them necessarily assumes responsibility for acts of others with relation to conditions under which license is held. Coletti v. State Bd. of Equalization (1949, Cal App) 94 Cal App 2d 61, 209 P2d 984, 1949 Cal App LEXIS 1490.

3. No Partnership Found
Department's determination that liquor business was owned in part by licensee's husband and that license should be suspended indefinitely was not supported by substantial evidence where, among other things, both real property on which premises were located and license were purchased in wife's name as sole owner and improvements, even if made by husband on wife's property out of community funds, gave him no interest therein. Ciambetti v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 3d Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 340, 326 P2d 535, 1958 Cal LEXIS 1739.

§ 23952. Additional contents
The application shall also contain a statement to the effect that the applicant has not been convicted of a felony and has not violated and will not violate or cause or permit to be violated any of the provisions of this division or any rule of the department applicable to the applicant or pertaining to the manufacture, sale, or distribution of alcoholic beverages, particularly any of the provisions of Sections 25500 to 25504, inclusive, or Sections 25611 to 25615, inclusive. If the applicant cannot make this statement the application shall contain a statement of the violation, if any, or reasons which will prevent the applicant from being able to comply with the requirements with respect to the statement.

In the case of a partnership the application shall be signed by each of the partners, and for the purposes of this division such partners shall be deemed the applicant for any such license and the licensees under any license issued pursuant to such application; provided, however, that in the case of a limited partnership which is required by law to file periodic reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the application for any license other than a retail license shall be signed by each of the general partners, and for purposes of this division such general partners shall be deemed to be the applicant for any such license and the licensees under any license issued pursuant to said application; and provided, further, that in the case of a limited partnership which is applying for a license authorized under Section 23405.2, the application for such license shall be signed by each of the general partners and by each limited partner who owns 10 percent or more of the capital or profits of such limited partnership. In the case of a corporation the application shall be signed by an officer and under the seal of the corporation.”

1998 Amendment: (1) Substituted “For” for “In the case of” in subds (b)–(d) and in the introductory clause of subd (e); (2) amended subd (c) by deleting (a) “required by law to file periodic reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission” after “partnership”; and (b) the former last sentence which read: “In the case of any other limited partnership, the application for the license shall be signed by each of the general partners and by each limited partner who owns 10 percent or more of the capital or profits of the limited partnership,”; and (3) amended subd (e) by (a) substituting “two officers of the corporation, one from each of the following categories:” for “an officer and under the seal of the corporation.” in the introductory clause; and (b) adding subds (e)(1) and (e)(2).

The department shall deny an application for a license or for a transfer of a license if either the applicant or the premises for which a license is applied do not qualify for a license under this division.

The department further shall deny an application for a license if issuance of that license would tend to create a law enforcement problem, or if issuance would result in or add to an undue concentration of licenses, except as provided in Section 23958.4.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Construction
3. “Good Cause”
4. Discretion
5. Application Approved
6. Application Properly Denied
7. Application Improperly Denied

1. Generally
A partnership application should be denied if one of the partners is unable to qualify. Coletti v. State Bd. of Equalization (1949, Cal App) 94 Cal App 2d 61, 209 P2d 984, 1949 Cal App LEXIS 1490.

All alcoholic beverage licenses are issued only to specific individuals for use at specific locations (B & P C § 24040), and all transfers are subject to official investigation and approval in the same manner as the initial issuance of the license. (B & P C §§ 24070, 23958, 23967, 23988.) Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

2. Construction
B & P C § 23958, appears to authorize issuance of a liquor license on some requisite showing of public convenience or necessity even though it is determined that issuance would otherwise “result in or add to an undue concentration of licenses.” Principles of deference to the legislative branch and established rules of statutory construction require courts to construe apparently contradictory provisions in such a way as to achieve harmony rather than find there is an irreconcilable inconsistency. Accordingly, the assumption must be that the Legislature intended by the phrase “public convenience or necessity” to invoke criteria different from those utilized in determining “undue concentration,” and intended to permit the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control on the basis of such criteria to grant an application for issuance or transfer of such a license even where undue concentration is found to exist. Sepatis v. Alcoholic Bever. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1980, Cal App 1st Dist) 110 Cal App 3d 93, 167 Cal Rptr 729, 1980 Cal App LEXIS 2229.

3. "Good Cause"

Whether "good cause" for denial of license existed was matter for determination by State Board of Equalization, not by courts. Hansen v. State Board of Equalization (1941, Cal App) 43 Cal App 2d 176, 110 P2d 453, 1941 Cal App LEXIS 632.

On administrative review of a denial by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control of an application by a "disco" music establishment for a beer and wine license, the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board properly concluded the department's determination that issuance of a license would create a law enforcement problem and would be contrary to the public welfare and morals was not supported by the department's findings that "disturbances would sometimes occur when several hundred young persons were gathered together in the described surroundings," despite the establishment's employment of a security force. Whatever the precise parameters of the law enforcement problems contemplated by the statute permitting the denial of a license that would tend to create a law enforcement problem, the department's reliance on a finding that "disturbances" of undetermined severity would "sometimes" in the indefinite future occur reflected too sweeping a view of what constitutes "good cause" within the meaning of Cal Const Art XX § 22, requiring "good cause" for the denial of a license. Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Bever. etc. Appeals Bd. (1981, Cal App 3d Dist) 122 Cal App 3d 549, 175 Cal Rptr 342, 1981 Cal App LEXIS 2048.

4. Discretion

Exercise of discretion of State Board of Equalization in denying a liquor license was not abused, where the applicant proposed to sell liquor in community the deeds in which contained restrictive covenants against selling liquor, and where city was purely residential center in which people made their homes because of unusual recreational development and its general moral tone. Hansen v. State Board of Equalization (1941, Cal App) 43 Cal App 2d 176, 110 P2d 453, 1941 Cal App LEXIS 632.

The mere fact that churches are in the immediate vicinity of premises did not establish an abuse of discretion by the board in granting an on-sale general liquor license for such premises. Altadena Community Church v. State Board of Equalization (1952, Cal App) 109 Cal App 2d 99, 240 P2d 322, 1952 Cal App LEXIS 1803.

Whether the Board of Equalization abused its discretion in exercising the power to regulate enjoyment of the rights to manufacture, sell, purchase or consume alcoholic beverages could be determined only by examining all the facts and circumstances. Altadena Community Church v. State Board of Equalization (1952, Cal App) 109 Cal App 2d 99, 240 P2d 322, 1952 Cal App LEXIS 1803.

5. Application Approved

In a hearing on an application for transfer of an on-sale retail liquor license for operation of a bar, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control's finding that the proposed premises would appeal to all segments of the community including many residents and business people in the area who were presently reluctant to enter other bars in the vicinity was supported by substantial evidence, and it could not be said on judicial review that the department abused its constitutional or statutory discretion in considering that fact as an aspect of public convenience (B & P C § 23958), or in concluding that, on balance, the sale of alcoholic beverages at the proposed premises would not be contrary to public welfare or public morals as that term is used in the agency's constitutional mandate. Sepatis v. Alcoholic Bever. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1980, Cal App 1st Dist) 110 Cal App 3d 93, 167 Cal Rptr 729, 1980 Cal App LEXIS 2229.

6. Application Properly Denied

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control properly denied an application for an off-sale beer and wine license where substantial evidence supported its conclusion that issuance of an off-sale license would be contrary to public welfare and morals in that it would add to an undue concentration of licenses (B & P C § 23958; Cal. Admin. Code [now Cal Code Regl], tit. 4, § 61.3). The applicant-premises were located in a high crime district, and the population of the applicable census tract permitted only four off-sale retail licenses whereas ten such licenses had already been granted. The department further determined it was not established that public convenience and necessity required the issuance of a license to the applicant-premises, a Cuban grocery store, in that its customers could easily avail themselves of alcoholic beverages from licensees in close proximity to the applicant premises. These conclusions, which were supported by the department's findings and by substantial evidence in the record, constituted good cause for its determination. Department of Alcoholic Bever. Control v. Alcoholic Bever. etc. Appeals Bd. (1982, Cal App 2d Dist) 133 Cal App 3d 814, 184 Cal Rptr 367, 1982 Cal App LEXIS 1759.

7. Application Improperly Denied

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control abused its discretion in denying an application for an off-premises liquor license where the application was denied because the reporting area in which the applicant's premises were located had 20 percent more crimes than the average in the city as a whole and the ratio of liquor licenses to population was greater than in the county as a whole, but where there was no evidence of a police problem or undue concentration within the immediate vicinity of the applicant's premises. The department may deny a license under B & P C § 23958, if its issuance "would result in or add to an undue concentration of licenses," and Cal. Admin. Code [now Cal Code Regl], tit. 4, § 61.3, states an "undue concentration" exists when the reported crimes and the ratio of licenses to population existed or add to an undue concentration of licenses within the city averages. Although, in most instances, the mere existence of facts which are deemed to constitute undue concentration under § 61.3 is sufficient for denial of a license without any showing the particular license would adversely affect the particular neighborhood, in those rare instances where, because of the size of a reporting or census tract or the vagaries of geographical topography, the applicant's location, albeit located in a reporting area subject to § 61.3, is itself free of the adversities directing a denial under § 61.3, then it is necessary to present evidence to establish or rebut the effect of the particular license. Department of Alcoholic Bever. Control v. Alcoholic Bever. etc. Bd. (1982, Cal App 4th Dist) 136 Cal App 3d 315, 186 Cal Rptr 189, 1982 Cal App LEXIS 2016.

§ 23958.3. [Section repealed 1984.]

Editor's Notes—There was another section of this number which was added by Stats 1980 ch 445 § 2 and repealed by Stats 1981 ch 714 § 44.
§ 23958.4. “Undue concentration”; Requirements for issuance of license; Number of licenses issued

(a) For purposes of Section 23958, “undue concentration” means the case in which the applicant premises for an original or premises-to-premises transfer of any retail license are located in an area where any of the following conditions exist:

1. The applicant premises are located in a crime reporting district that has a 20 percent greater number of reported crimes, as defined in subdivision (c), than the average number of reported crimes as determined from all crime reporting districts within the jurisdiction of the local law enforcement agency.

2. As to on-sale retail license applications, the ratio of on-sale retail licenses to population in the census tract or census division in which the applicant premises are located exceeds the ratio of on-sale retail licenses to population in the county in which the applicant premises are located.

3. As to off-sale retail license applications, the ratio of off-sale retail licenses to population in the census tract or census division in which the applicant premises are located exceeds the ratio of off-sale retail licenses to population in the county in which the applicant premises are located.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 23958, the department may issue a license as follows:

1. With respect to a nonretail license, a retail on-sale bona fide eating place license, a retail license issued for a hotel, motel, or other lodging establishment, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 25503.16, a retail license issued in conjunction with a beer manufacturer’s license, or a winegrower’s license, if the applicant shows that public convenience or necessity would be served by the issuance.

2. With respect to any other license, if the local governing body of the area in which the applicant premises are located, or its designated subordinate officer or body, determines within 90 days of notification of a completed application that public convenience or necessity would be served by the issuance. The 90-day period shall commence upon receipt by the local governing body of (A) notification by the department of an application for licensure, or (B) a completed application according to local requirements, if any, whichever is later.

If the local governing body, or its designated subordinate officer or body, does not make a determination within the 90-day period, then the department may issue a license if the applicant shows the department that public convenience or necessity would be served by the issuance. In making its determination, the department shall not attribute any weight to the failure of the local governing body, or its designated subordinate officer or body, to make a determination regarding public convenience or necessity within the 90-day period.

(c) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

1. “Reporting districts” means geographical areas within the boundaries of a single governmental entity (city or the unincorporated area of a county) that are identified by the local law enforcement agency in the compilation and maintenance of statistical information on reported crimes and arrests.

2. “Reported crimes” means the most recent yearly compilation by the local law enforcement agency of reported offenses of criminal homicide, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny theft, and motor vehicle theft, combined with all arrests for other crimes, both felonies and misdemeanors, except traffic citations.

3. “Population within the census tract or census division” means the population as determined by the most recent United States decennial or special census. The population determination shall not operate to prevent an applicant from establishing that an increase of resident population has occurred within the census tract or census division.

4. “Population in the county” shall be determined by the annual population estimate for California counties published by the Population Research Unit of the Department of Finance.

5. “Retail licenses” shall include the following: (A) Off-sale retail licenses: Type 20 (off-sale beer and wine) and Type 21 (off-sale general). (B) On-sale retail licenses: All retail on-sale licenses, except Type 43 (on-sale beer and wine for train), Type 44 (on-sale beer and wine for fishing party boat), Type 45 (on-sale beer and wine for boat), Type 46 (on-sale beer and wine for airplane), Type 53 (on-sale general for train and sleeping car), Type 54 (on-sale general for boat), Type 55 (on-sale general for airplane), Type 56 (on-sale general for vessels of more than 1,000 tons burden), and Type 62 (on-sale general bona fide public eating place intermittent dockside license for vessels of more than 15,000 tons displacement).

6. A “premises to premises transfer” refers to each license being separate and distinct, and transferable upon approval of the department.

(d) For purposes of this section, the number of retail licenses in the county shall be determined by the most recent yearly retail license count published by the department in its Procedure Manual.

(e) The enactment of this section shall not affect any existing rights of any holder of a retail license issued prior to April 29, 1992, whose premises were destroyed or rendered unusable as a result of the civil disturbances occurring in Los Angeles from April 29 to May 2, 1992, to reopen and operate those licensed premises.

(f) This section shall not apply if the premises have been licensed and operated with the same type license within 90 days of the application.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Judicial Review
2. Abuse of Discretion
3. Sufficiency of Evidence
4. Procedure

1. Judicial Review

Judicial review of denial of license by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, instituted by petition for writ of mandate attacking sufficiency of evidence and alleging abuse of discretion, is limited in scope, it does not authorize trial de novo or reweighing of evidence, but empowers court to determine only whether or not there is substantial evidence in record of proceedings before department in support of its decision, and whether or not its action was arbitrary. Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 531, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1971.

In determining whether decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control denying license was arbitrary, its action is measured by the standard set by reason and reasonable people, bearing in mind that... such standard may permit difference of opinion on same subject, and reviewing court may not substitute decision contrary to that made by department, although such decision is equally or more reasonable, if department’s determination is one that could have been made by reasonable people. Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 531, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1971.

2. Abuse of Discretion
Decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control refusing to grant license, unsupported by sufficient evidence or based on arbitrary determination that granting thereof would be contrary to public welfare or morals, constitutes abuse of discretion and will be set aside. Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 531, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1971.

It was not abuse of discretion for Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to deny on-sale beer license to operator of pool hall and lunch counter where evidence showed that pool hall was located in area in which there were 268 licensed premises within radius of 500 feet of pool hall, that such concentration of licenses in limited area gave rise to tendency to disregard regulations restricting sales and to disproportionately greater number of liquor law violations, that two of six liquor agents assigned to night duty in district in which area was located patrolled 88 licensed premises in that area at least two or three nights a week, and during some seasons of year, every night of week, and that licenses in area comprised 3.8 per cent of licenses in district but required from 9.3 per cent to 33 1/3 per cent of law enforcement services provided for night patrol. Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 531, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1971.

The enforcement and administration of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act (B & P C §§ 23000 et seq.) is vested in the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under the provisions of Cal Const Art XX 22; the department has thus been granted a broad range of power and discretion in deciding whether a particular application for a liquor license should be granted or denied; and an abuse of discretion must appear very clearly before the courts will interfere. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 531, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1971.

3. Sufficiency of Evidence

Provisions of Cal Const Art XX § 22 that Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control may deny license "for good cause" necessarily implies that its decisions should be based on sufficient evidence and that it should not act arbitrarily in determining what is contrary to public welfare or morals. Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 531, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1971.

In considering sufficiency of evidence in proceeding to review decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control respecting denial of license, court is governed by substantial evidence rule generally applied in judicial proceedings, any conflict is resolved in favor of decision, and every reasonably deducible inference in support thereof will be indulged. Torres v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1961, Cal App 4th Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 541, 13 Cal Rptr 531, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1971.

4. Procedure

The trial court erred in denying a writ of mandamus to compel the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board to dismiss an appeal from the issuance of an off-sale liquor license by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, where the department, pursuant to B & P C § 24013, had rejected a protest and ordered a later hearing to revoke the license issued, and where the protestants appealed before any such hearing was held. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) Cal App 2d 706, 69 Cal Rptr 744, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 2260.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Applicability
3. Intent
4. Suspension of License
5. Revocation of License

1. Generally
All alcoholic beverage licenses are issued only to specific individuals for use at specific locations (B & P C § 24040), and all transfers are subject to official investigation and approval in the same manner as the initial issuance of the license. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

2. Applicability
This section had no application as to right of original licensee to have license retransferred pursuant to lease agreement. Cavalli v. Macaire (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 714, 324 P2d 336, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2060.

"record purposes only" without reference to a specific location which fully qualifies with law: 23 Ops. Cal. Atty. Gen. 262.
§ 24041  BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE  170

3. Intent

Question of issuance or delivery of liquor license is one of intent, where no physical possession of certificate is transferred. Joseph George, Distributor v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 702, 308 P2d 773, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2089.

4. Suspension of License

Department's determination that liquor business was owned in part by licensee's husband and that license should be suspended indefinitely was not supported by substantial evidence where, among other things, both real property on which premises were located and license were purchased in wife's name as sole owner and improvements, even if made by husband on wife's property out of community funds, gave him no interest therein. Ciambetti v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 3d Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 340, 326 P2d 535, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1739.

5. Revocation of License

Revocation of off-sale general liquor license for nonuse within 30 days of issuance, as required by this section, was justified where owners of license had, before issuance of license, removed virtually all liquor inventory from their store, none of various licenses and permits necessary to lawful operation of liquor retail department had been obtained, owners, though experienced licensees, made virtually no attempt to supervise store subsequent to issuance of license and made no request of store manager to sell liquor on their behalf, but requested only that he retain license on premises, apply for manager's license, and keep minimal amount of liquor in stock, and no liquor was sold subsequent to issuance of license for period of three months. Gore v. Harris (1964, Cal App 1st Dist) 229 Cal App 2d 821, 40 Cal Rptr 666, 1964 Cal App LEXIS 1051.

Revocation of off-sale liquor license for nonuse within 30 days of issuance, as required by this section, was not too severe, despite subsequent amendment to eliminate requirement of automatic revocation for nonuse, where evidence of licensees' nonuse of license was not closely balanced, and Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control also found that continuation of license would be contrary to public welfare and morals and therefore based its revocation on Const Art XX § 22 and § 24209 subd (a), as well as this section. Gore v. Harris (1964, Cal App 1st Dist) 229 Cal App 2d 821, 40 Cal Rptr 666, 1964 Cal App LEXIS 1051.

§ 24041. Separate licenses for establishment having more than one location; Out-of-state businesses

A license at a public warehouse shall be required by an out-of-state business whose alcoholic beverages come to rest, are stored, and shipped from a public warehouse in California. The holder of a public warehouse license maintaining or operating more than one public warehouse in this state shall be required to obtain one license for all of his or her public warehouse establishments. A charge of one dollar ($1) shall be made by the department for each copy of a public warehouse license issued to a public warehouse-

The duplicate license may be issued to a room reserved for the exclusive use of designated patrons, provided that the department shall, in the event the license is issued, endorse upon the license the terms and conditions under which the privileges conferred by the said license may be exercised, and provided further that upon the receipt by the department of the request for the duplicate license written notice thereof which shall consist of a copy of the request shall immediately be mailed by the department to the sheriff or chief of police within whose jurisdiction the premises are situated and no duplicate license shall be issued by the department until at least 30 days after such mailing. Upon receipt by the department within 30 days of a protest by the sheriff or chief of police within whose jurisdiction the premises are situated, the department shall not issue the duplicate license until after a hearing is held by the department within the county or city affected and said hearing shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500), Part 1, Division 3, Title 2 of the Government Code and the department shall have all the powers granted therein.

§ 24044.5. On-sale general license; Fees; License issued upon renewal or transfer of license; Adjustments; Deposit of fees

(a) The department, in its discretion, may issue an interim operating permit to an applicant for any license to operate the premises during the period an application for a license at the premises is pending and when all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The application has been protested pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 24011).

(2) The department has made a determination based upon its investigation that the license should be issued.

(3) The applicant for the interim operating permit has filed with the department an application for issuance of a license at the premises to himself or herself.

(4) The application for the interim operating permit is accompanied by a fee of one hundred dollars ($100).

(b) An interim operating permit issued by the department pursuant to this section shall be for a period not to exceed 120 days. An interim operating permit may be extended at the discretion of the department for additional 120–day periods as necessary upon payment of an additional fee of one hundred dollars ($100) and upon compliance with all conditions required by this section. Any interim operating permit issued by the department shall be automatically canceled when a final determination made by the department regarding the protests becomes effective or when the application for the license is withdrawn, whichever occurs first. An interim operating permit is a conditional permit and authorizes the holder to whom issued to exercise the rights and privileges of the license for which the application has been filed with the department. Any conditions for which the applicant has petitioned pursuant to Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 23800) of Chapter 5 shall apply to any interim operating permit issued by the department.

(c) Purchase of beer and wine by the holder of an interim operating permit issued to an applicant for a retail license shall be made only upon payment before or at the time of delivery in currency or by check. Purchase of distilled spirits by the holder of an interim operating permit issued to an applicant for a retail license shall be made only upon payment before or at the time of delivery in currency or by certified check. However, the holder of an interim operating permit issued to an applicant for a retail license, who also holds one or more retail licenses and is operating under the retail license or licenses in addition to the interim operating permit, and who is not delinquent under the provisions of Section 25509 as to any retail license under which he or she operates, may purchase alcoholic beverages on credit under the interim operating permit.

(d) All checks received by a seller for beer or wine purchased by the holder of an interim operating permit issued to an applicant for a retail license shall be deposited not later than the second business day following the date the beer or wine is delivered.

A check dishonored on presentation shall not be deemed payment. The receipt by the seller or his or her agent in good faith from a holder of an interim operating permit of a check dishonored on presentation shall not be cause for disciplinary action against the seller.

(e) Issuance of the license for which the holder of an interim operating permit issued to an applicant for a retail license has filed an application shall not be approved by the department until the holder of the interim operating permit has filed with the department a statement executed under penalty of perjury that all current obligations have been discharged, and that all outstanding checks issued by him or her in payment for alcoholic beverages will be honored on presentation.

(f) It shall not be a violation of this section or grounds for disciplinary action for any licensee to extend credit to the holder of an interim operating permit issued to an applicant for a retail license or to receive payment from the holder of an interim operating permit in a manner other than authorized herein unless the seller has knowledge of the fact that the purchaser was operating under an interim operating permit. Knowledge of the fact may be established by evidence, including, but not limited to, evidence that, at the time of receipt of payment or the extension of credit, the premises operated under an interim operating permit were posted with the notice required by Section 23985, or the holder of the interim operating permit has recorded notice as required by Section 24073, or the holder of the interim operating permit has published notice as required by Section 23985, or the holder of the interim operating permit has published notice pursuant to Division 6 (commencing with Section 6101) of the Commercial Code.

(g) Refusal by the department to issue or extend an interim operating permit shall not entitle the applicant to petition for the permit pursuant to Section 24011, or to a hearing pursuant to Section 24012. Articles 2 (commencing with Section 23985) and 3 (commencing with Section 24011) shall not apply to interim operating permits.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the department may, in its discretion, cancel or suspend summarily at any time an interim operating permit if the department determines that good cause for the cancellation or suspension exists. Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 24300) shall not apply to interim operating permits.

(i) Application for an interim operating permit shall be on any form the department shall prescribe. If an application for an interim operating permit is withdrawn before issuance or is refused by the department, the fee that accompanied the application shall be refunded in full, and Section 23959 shall not apply. Fees received by the department for issuance of interim operating permits shall be deposited in the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund as provided in Section 25761.

Chapter 58 of the Statutes of 1992 inadvertently mandated the payment of duplicate annual renewal fees by licensees whose businesses are ongoing, but who are required to transfer their licenses as a result of changes in ownership occasioned by the death of a spouse, removal of a partner, reorganization or incorporation of a business, or similar circumstances. In order to alleviate the severe financial hardship to many retail businesses in this state caused by this inadvertent duplicate assessment of license fees, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

The department, in its discretion, may issue on a temporary basis a daily on-sale general license and the fee for such license shall be twenty-five dollars ($25) per day. Such license authorizes the sale of distilled spirits, wine, and beer for consumption on the premises where sold, and no off-sale privileges shall be exercised under such license. A daily on-sale general license may only be issued to a political party or affiliate supporting a candidate for public office or a ballot measure, an organization formed for a specific charitable or civic purpose, a fraternal organization in existence for over five years with a regular membership, or a religious organization. Distilled spirits sold under a daily on-sale general license shall have been purchased at retail from the holder of an off-sale general license.

The department may adopt such rules as it determines to be necessary to implement and administer the provisions of this section, including, but not limited to, limitations on the number of times during any calendar year a qualified organization may be issued a license provided for by this section.

1. Generally. Allocation of funds received from trustee’s sale of bankrupt’s liquor license, the sale being mandated by the Department as a condition to approving transfer of the license, to penalties and post-petition interest was prohibited by § 57j of the Bankruptcy Act. Transferability of licenses

Each license is separate and distinct and is transferable upon approval by the department from the licensee to another person and from one premises to another premises.

(a) All off-sale general licenses may be transferred from one county to another county, subject to the following provisions:

1. The number of off-sale general licenses in existence in any county on June 1 of any year shall not be increased by more than 25 new original off-sale general licenses during the following 12-month period, provided further that the number of new original off-sale general licenses that may be issued in any county during any 12-month period shall not increase by more than 10 percent the number of off-sale general licenses in existence in such county on the June 1 with which that 12-month period began.

2. After the department computes the number of new original off-sale licenses that may be issued in any county during any 12-month period as provided by the foregoing paragraph, if the department determines that the ratio established by Section 23817 will permit, during such 12-month period, additional off-sale general licenses in any county, off-sale general licenses may be transferred into such county in a number not to exceed by more than 10 percent the number of off-sale general licenses in existence in such county on the June 1 with which that 12-month period began, but in no event to exceed 25 such transfers during that 12-month period.

3. Under no circumstances shall the combined total number of new original off-sale general licenses that may be issued in any county during any 12-month period and the number of off-sale general licenses that may be transferred into such county during that 12-month period, exceed the limitation set forth in Section 23817.

(b) All on-sale general licenses may be transferred from one county to another county, subject to the following provisions:

1. The number of on-sale general licenses in existence in any county on June 1 of any year shall not be increased by more than 10 percent by the issuance of new original on-sale general licenses, but in no event to exceed 25 such licenses, during any 12-month period. The number of on-sale general licenses shall be limited by the provisions of Section 23816.

2. After the department computes the number of new original on-sale licenses that may be issued in any county during any 12-month period as provided by the foregoing paragraph, if the department determines that the ratio established by Section 23816 will permit, during such 12-month period, additional on-sale general licenses in any county, on-sale general licenses may be transferred into such county in a number not to exceed by more than 10 percent the number of on-sale general licenses in existence in such county on the June with which that 12-month period began, but in no event to exceed 25 such transfers during that 12-month period.

3. Under no circumstances shall the combined total number of new original on-sale general licenses that may be issued in any county during any 12-month period and the number of on-sale general licenses that may be transferred into such county during that 12-month period, exceed the limitation set forth in Section 23816.

4. The transfer fee for transfer of an on-sale general license from one county to another county shall be the same as the fee prescribed in subdivision (d) of Section 24072 for transfer of an off-sale general license from one county to another county.

(c) No retail license subject to the provisions of Section 23816 or 23817 issued as a new original license on or after June 1, 1961, and no off-sale general license or on-sale general license transferred from one county to another county on or after August 17, 1967, shall be transferable from the licensee to another person and from one premises to another premises. All retail licenses may be transferred from one county to another county, subject to the following provisions: 1. The provisions of Section 23816 or 23817, but such licenses shall be included in the number of premises used in determining application of such limitations in Sections 23816 and 23817. Before any applications for transfer of licenses are accepted, the department shall publish pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code in the county to which such licenses may be transferred notice of the department’s intention to receive applications for the transfer of such licenses setting forth the date, time, manner and place of acceptance of such applications within the county. No retail license subject to the provisions of Sections 23816 or 23817, issued on or after the effective date of this section as an original license shall be transferable from the licensee to another person, or if the licensee is a corporation a controlling interest in the stock ownership of the licensee shall not be, directly or indirectly, sold, transferred, or hypothecated unless the licensee be a corporation the stock of which is listed on a stock exchange in this state or in the City of New York, State of New York, or which is required by law to file periodic reports with the Security Exchange Commission, for a period of two years from date of issuance of the license, except as provided in Section 24071, and except when the department determines that the transfer is necessary to prevent undue hardship.

(d) No off-sale general license or on-sale general license that is transferred from one county to another county pursuant to this section shall be transferred thereafter for a purchase price or consideration to the transferor or from the transferee in excess of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), except that if the off-sale general license or on-sale general license was originally issued on or after June 1, 1961, the purchase price or consideration to the transferor or from the transferee shall not exceed six thousand dollars ($6,000), as provided by section 24079.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (d) of this section any off-sale general license or on-sale general license transferred from one county to another county pursuant to this section may be transferred with no restrictions as to the purchase price or consideration to the transferor or from the transferee after a period of five years from the date of the intercounty transfer of the license.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Construction with Other Law
3. Off-sale License
4. Official Approval

1. Generally

A legal agreement may be entered into to transfer a liquor license as a chose in action or as personal property, provided that the transfers are made in the method prescribed by the statute and subject to approval. Etchard v. Pyles (1951, Cal App) 106 Cal App 2d 549, 235 P2d 427, 1951 Cal App LEXIS 1783.

Ordinarily holders of alcoholic beverage licenses may freely contract to transfer those licenses to others subject to official approval of the transfer. Such contracts are valid and specifically enforceable. (B & P C § 24070.) Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 320.

Holders of licenses to purvey alcoholic beverages have a right, in combination, to protest the granting or transfer of a similar license, even though their protest is for the sole purpose of preventing or limiting competition. Thus, in an action by the holders of a liquor license for damages against other holders of similar licenses, who challenged plaintiffs’ application for transfer of the license, the trial court properly sustained defendants’ demurrers to the counts in the complaint alleging malicious prosecution and tortious interference with a business and abuse of process. The record indicated defendants had conceded, arguendo, the existence of a conspiratorial motive to prohibit excessive competition in their challenge to plaintiffs’ application for transfer of the license. Defendants' use of the legal process consisted of unsuccessful protests to the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and a subsequent unsuccessful appeal to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board. Matossian v. Fahmie (1980, Cal App 1st Dist) 101 Cal App 3d 128, 161 Cal Rptr 532, 1980 Cal App LEXIS 1381.

2. Construction with Other Law

Transfer of a corporation’s priority liquor licenses to a corporation owning all of the licensee’s stock and into which it had been merged, was not precluded by the provision of B & P C, § 24070, generally prohibiting the transfer of such licenses within two years after issuance, “except as provided in Section 24071, and except when the department determines that the transfer is necessary to prevent undue hardship.” Under a provision of § 24071, “a license may be transferred from a corporation to a person who owns, or whose spouse owns, the entire stock of the corporation,” and, under B & P C §§ 23002, 23008, the word “person” includes a corporation unless the context otherwise requires. The Legislature’s use of the adjective “natural” to modify “person” in another clause of § 24071, also relating to transfers to or by corporations, indicates that the unmodified noun “person” in the clause in question is not necessarily confined to natural persons. Foodmaker, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1974) 10 Cal 3d 605, 111 Cal Rptr 553, 517 P2d 817, 1974 Cal LEXIS 347.

3. Off-sale License

When department's jurisdiction to grant or refuse transfer of license depends on establishment of ultimate fact that public welfare and morals would be adversely affected by "off-sale" liquor license because of its proximity to church, reviewing court may examine evidence on which finding of department to that effect is based. Schaub's, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 858, 315 P2d 459, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1570.

4. Official Approval

All alcoholic beverage licenses are issued only to specific individuals for use at specific locations (B & P C § 24040), and all transfers are subject to official investigation and approval in the same manner as the initial issuance of the license. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

In a private agreement for transfer of an alcoholic beverage license of a provision for official approval does not affect the need for official sanction. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

In all agreements for transfer of alcoholic beverage licenses, the requirement of official approval is in the implied condition, whatever the context and whatever the nature of the consideration. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Construction with Other Law

1. Generally

A receiver may be appointed to take possession of liquor license belonging to judgment debtor and sell it to satisfy a judgment which has become final, where debtor has no property or interest of value other than such license. Molili v. Jiffy-Stitcher Co. (1954, Cal App) 125 Cal App 2d 238, 236, 270 P2d 25, 1954 Cal Lexis 1870.

2. Construction with Other Law

Transfer of a corporation’s priority liquor licenses to a corporation owning all of the licensee’s stock and into which it had been merged, was not precluded by the provision of B & P C § 24070, generally prohibiting the transfer of such licenses within two years after issuance, “except as provided in Section 24071, and except when the department determines that the transfer is necessary to prevent undue hardship.” Under a provision of § 24071, “a license may be transferred from a corporation to a person who owns, or whose spouse owns, the entire stock of the corporation,” and, under B & P C §§ 23002, 23006, the words “person” included a corporation unless the context otherwise requires. The Legislature’s use of the adjective “natural” to modify “person” in another clause of § 24071, also relating to transfers to or by corporations, indicates that the unmodified noun “person” in the clause in question is not necessarily confined to natural persons. Foodmaker, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1974) 10 Cal 3d 605, 111 Cal Rptr 553, 517 P2d 817, 1974 Cal Lexis 347.

§ 24071.1. Effect of transfer of ownership of corporation or limited partnership

(a) When the ownership of 50 percent or more of the shares of stock of a corporation, which is required to report the issuance or transfer of those shares of stock under Section 23405, is acquired by or transferred to a person or persons who did not hold the ownership of 50 percent of those shares of stock on the date the license was issued to the corporation, the license of the corporation shall be transferred to the corporation as newly constituted. When there is a new general partner or when the ownership of 50 percent or more of the capital or profits of a limited partnership, which is required to maintain a register under Section 23405.1, is acquired by or transferred to a person or persons as general or limited partners and who did not hold ownership of 50 percent or more of the capital or profits of the limited partnership on the date the license was issued to the limited partnership, the license of the limited partnership shall be transferred to the limited partnership as newly constituted. The fee for the transfer shall be equal to 50 percent of the original fee for the license, except that the minimum fee shall be one hundred dollars ($100) and the maximum fee shall be eight hundred dollars ($800). In situations involving the multiple and simultaneous transfer of licenses under this section, the regular transfer fee shall only be required for one of the licenses being transferred and the remaining of the licenses shall be transferred for a fee of one hundred dollars ($100) each. All of the transfer fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund as provided in Section 25761. Before the license is transferred, the department shall conduct an investigation pursuant to the provisions of Section 23958. Any person or persons who own 50 percent or more of the shares of stock of the corporation or who own as limited partners 50 percent or more of the capital or profits of the limited partnership, as the case may be, shall have all the qualifications required of a person holding the same type of license.

(b) No retail license shall be transferred by a corporation or a limited partnership under this section unless, before the filing of the transfer application with the department, the corporation or limited partnership initiating the transfer records in the office of the county recorder of the county or counties in which the premises to which the license has been issued are situated a notice of the intended transfer, stating all of the following:

(1) The name and address of the corporation or limited partnership.

(2) The name and address of the person or persons acquiring ownership of 50 percent or more of the stock of the corporation or capital or profits of the limited partnership.

(3) The amount of the consideration paid for the stock or limited partnership interests.

(4) The kind of license or licenses intended to be transferred.

(5) The address or addresses of the premises to which the license or licenses have been issued.
§ 24071.2

190

A copy of the notice of the intended transfer, certified by the county recorder, shall be filed with the department together with the transfer application.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division to the contrary, a corporation or limited partnership as newly constituted by transfer under this section, is not eligible for any new credit from any person named in Section 25509 until all delinquent payments owed by the entity as formerly constituted, are made, nor shall any entity retail licensee, by transferring its license under this section, avoid the provisions of Section 25509 with regard to 42-day or 30-day periods, percentage charges for unpaid balances, or cash-on-delivery basis.

Amendments:

1969 Amendment: (1) Substituted “corporation as newly constituted” for “newly constituted corporation”; (2) deleted the former last sentence of the first paragraph, which read: “The notice required to be published under Section 24073 and the escrow provisions of Sections 24074 and 24074.1 shall apply in the exchange of a license as herein provided.” and (3) added the second through fourth paragraphs.

1973 Amendment: Added (1) the second sentence in the first paragraph; (2) “or who own as limited partners 50 percent or more of the capital or profits of the limited partnership, as the case may be,” in the fifth sentence of the first paragraph; and (3) “by a corporation” after “transferred” in the second paragraph.

1992 Amendment: Amended the first paragraph by (1) substituting the third sentence for the former third sentence which read: “The fee for such transfer shall be one hundred dollars ($100) which shall be deposited as provided in Section 24072.” and (2) adding the fourth and fifth sentences.

1999 Amendment: Deleted “directly in the General Fund in the State Treasury, rather than” after “deposited” in the fifth sentence of the first paragraph.

1996 Amendment: In addition to making technical changes, (1) added subdivision designations (a)–(c); (2) substituted “except” for “provided” before “that the minimum” in the third sentence of subd (a); (3) redesignated former subds (a)–(e) to be subds (a)(1)–(a)(5); and (4) substituted “any person” for “an alcoholic beverage supplier or manufacturer” after “new credit from” in subd (c).

1998 Amendment: (1) Amended the second sentence of subd (a) by (a) adding “there is a new general partner or when” near the beginning; (b) adding “general or” after “persons as”; (c) deleting “general partners of the” after “issued to the”; and (d) deleting “general partners of the” after “transferred to the” near the end; (2) amended subd (b) by adding (a) “or a limited partnership near the beginning of the introductory clause; (b) “or limited partnership” in the introductory clause, and in subd (b)(1); (c) “or capital or profits of the limited partnership” in subd (b)(2); and (d) “or limited partnership interests” in subd (b)(3); (3) amended subd (c) by (a) adding “or limited partnership”; (b) substituting “is not for” “shall not be” before “eligible”; (c) substituting “entity” for “corporation” after “owed by the”; and (d) substituting “entity” for “corporate” after “nor shall any”.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Construction with Other Law

1. Generally
Transfer of stock of corporation does not result in transfer of liquor license held by corporation to transferee of stock. Maxwell Cafe, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 73, 298 P2d 64, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1949.

2. Construction with Other Law
Contract for purchase and sale of restaurant and bar business was not illegal because it provided that sellers would form corporation, transfer assets of business to it, issue stock and sell stock to buyers, since transfer of liquor license to corporation was duly completed by sellers, making corporation licensed to operate business with regard to sale of liquor, and operation of business by buyers was under existing license held by sellers and as their agent until transfer of license was completed. The fee for the transfer shall be equal to 50 percent of the original fee for the license, except that the minimum fee shall be one hundred dollars ($100) and the maximum fee shall be eight hundred dollars ($800). All of the transfer fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund, as provided in Section 25761. Before the license is transferred, the department shall conduct an investigation pursuant to Section 23958. Any person or persons who own 50 percent or more of the membership interests of the limited liability company shall have all the qualifications required of a person holding the same type of license.

§ 24072. Transfer fees

The following transfer fees shall be charged by the department:

(a) The fee for transfer of a license other than a retail license from a licensee to another person is a fee equal to 70 percent of the annual fee for the license, except as provided in Section 24071. Section 23322 shall not apply to this transfer fee.

(b) The fee for transfer of a retail license from a licensee to another person is a fee equal to 50 percent of the original fee for the license, but not to exceed one thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($1,250), or if no original fee is provided for by law, one hundred dollars ($100).

(c) Except as provided in Section 24082, the fee for transfer of a license from one premises to another premises is one hundred dollars ($100).

(d) Notwithstanding the other fee provisions of this section, the fee for a transfer of an off-sale general license from one county to another county shall be six thousand dollars ($6,000).

(e) The fee for transfer of an on-sale or off-sale retail license to include the mother, father, son, or daughter of a licensee, when no consideration is given for such transfer, shall be one-half of the regular fee for transfer of a license from a licensee to another person, as provided by this section.

All money collected from the fees provided for in this section shall be deposited in the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund as provided in Section 25761.

All money collected from this fee shall be deposited directly in the General Fund in the State Treasury, rather than in the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund as provided in Section 25761.” 1967 Amendment amended the section to read as at present, except for the following amendments.
1968 Amendment: (1) Added “Except as provided in Section 24082,”; and (2) deleted the former first sentence of the second paragraph which read: “In addition, a fee of three thousand dollars ($3,000) must accompany the application where the onsale general license or offsale general license is transferred from one county to another county.”

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Construction
2. Liability

1. Construction

This section neither declares transfers of licenses to be against public policy nor expressly voids contracts specifying payments of consideration before application for license is made; injunction “No. . . license. . . shall be transferred” is not directed at buyer and seller; Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, not parties, transfers licenses; parties, denominated “licensee” and “intended transferee” merely apply to department for transfer. Harriman v. Tetik (1961) 56 Cal 2d 805, 17 Cal Rptr 134, 366 P2d 486, 1961 Cal LEXIS 340.

This section and § 24074, protect interests of creditors of seller of liquor business by allowing them to satisfy their claim out of purchase price, and protect buyer from loss of his consideration if Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control does not transfer license to him; statutory purpose to protect creditors was accomplished by provision in sale agreement that they could be paid from funds in escrow; its purpose to protect buyer would be defeated if, on failure of department to transfer license to him and seller’s subsequent sale of license to his attorney, buyer could not recover seller’s unjust enrichment resulting from payments received. Harriman v. Tetik (1961) 56 Cal 2d 805, 17 Cal Rptr 134, 366 P2d 486, 1961 Cal LEXIS 340.

2. Liability

The fact that partners operating a public golf course illegally permitted their liquor license to be used by an independent concessionaire in the operation of a bar and restaurant connected with the golf course, did not create an agency relationship between the partners and the concessionaire by operation of law so as to make the partners liable to creditors who supplied alcoholic beverages and foodstuffs to the restaurant and bar. Furthermore, since the creditors who supplied liquor were charged with the duty of selling only to licensees, public policy should not permit them to blindly sell to any person operating a licensed premise, and unqualifiedly be granted a recovery as a matter of law from the licensee. Associated Creditors’ Agency v. Davis (1975) 15 Cal 3d 374, 118 Cal Rptr 772, 530 P2d 1084, 1975 Cal LEXIS 175.

Establishment of escrow

Before the filing of such a transfer application with the department, if the intended transfer of the business or license involves a purchase price or consideration, the licensee and the intended transferee shall establish an escrow with some person, corporation, or association not a party to the transfer acting as escrow holder, and the intended transferee shall deposit with the escrow holder the full amount of the purchase price or consideration. The transfer application shall be accompanied by a description of the entire consideration. The description shall include a designation of cash, checks, promissory notes, and tangible and intangible property, and the amount of each thereof. The licensee and intended transferee shall also enter into an agreement, which agreement shall be deposited with the escrow holder, directing the escrow holder, after the requirements for transfer as provided in Section 24049 are satisfied, to pay out of the purchase price or consideration, whether the consideration takes the form of cash, checks, promissory notes, or tangible or intangible property, the claims of the bona fide creditors of the licensee who file their claims with the escrow holder before the escrow holder is notified by the department of its approval of the transfer of the license or if the purchase price or consideration is not sufficient to pay the claims in full, to distribute the consideration as follows:

First, to the United States for claims based on income or withholding taxes; and thereafter for claims based on any tax other than specified in Section 24049.

Second, to the payment of claims for wages, salaries, or fringe benefits of employees of the seller or transferee earned or accruing prior to the sale, transfer, or opening of an escrow for the sale thereof.

Third, to the payment of claims of secured creditors to the extent of the proceeds which arise from the sale of the security.

Fourth, to the payment of claims on mechanics’ liens.

Fifth, to the payment of escrow fees and the payment of claims for prevailing brokerage fees for services rendered and claims for reasonable attorney’s fees for services rendered.

Sixth, to the payment of claims for goods sold and delivered to the transferee for resale at his licensed premises and the payment of claims for services rendered, performed, or supplied in connection with the operation of the licensed business, and to the payment of claims of a landlord, to the extent of proceeds on past due rent.

Seventh, to the payment of other claims which have been reduced to court-ordered judgments, including claims for court-ordered support of a minor child.

Eighth, to the payment of all other claims. The payment of these claims if sufficient assets are not available for the payment of the claim in full shall be paid pro rata.

If the transferee licensee disputes any claim, the escrow holder shall notify the claimant, and the amount of pro rata amount thereof shall be retained by the escrow holder for a period of 25 days, and if not attached shall be paid to the transferee licensee. The agreement shall also provide that the escrow holder shall make the payment or distribution within a reasonable time after the completion of the transfer of the license.

The licensee and intended transferee shall also enter into an agreement, which agreement shall be deposited with the escrow holder, directing the escrow holder, out of the purchase price or consideration, to pay the claims of the bona fide creditors of the licensee who file their claims with the escrow holder on or before the date when the purchase price or consideration is to be paid for the transfer of the license as fixed in the recorded notice of intended transfer, or if the purchase price or consideration is not sufficient to pay the claims in full, to distribute the consideration pro rata to the creditors of the licensee. The agreement shall also provide that the escrow holder shall make the payment or distribution within a reasonable time after the completion of the transfer of the license.”

If the transferee licensee disputes any claim, the escrow holder shall notify the claimant, and the amount of pro rata amount thereof shall be retained by the escrow holder for a period of 25 days, and if not attached shall be paid to the transferee licensee. Fact that escrow holder of consideration for sale of liquor license implied all creditors of transferor in interpleader action to determine rights to escrow fund did not remove case from this section, particularly where agreement between transferor and transferee specifi-

The escrow holder in a transaction for the sale of a liquor license breached its statutory duty under B & P C § 24074, creating an escrow fund-creditor protection plan, to protect the interests of the bona fide creditors of the seller of the liquor license to the escrow fund, where it distributed the buyer's promissory note to the seller only 4 days after giving notice to the creditors that it intended to do so on or before 14 days hence. The time for the creditors to protest distribution of the promissory note or to take legal action was so minimal that it bordered on the impossible. Cohn v. Gramercy Escrow Co. (1977, Cal App 2d Dist) 65 Cal App 3d 894, 135 Cal Rptr 888, 1977 Cal App LEXIS 1097.

In an interpleader action brought by an escrow holder to determine conflicting claims as to the proceeds from the sale of a liquor license as between a federal tax lien and wage claims, the trial court properly entered judgment for the wage claimant and determined that at the time of the federal tax assessment and later filing of notice of tax lien, there was no property or rights to property belonging to the seller taxpayer then being held by the escrow holder to which the federal tax lien could attach, where the escrow had been opened, notice to creditors had been recorded and published, all claims had been received, requisite state taxes had been paid, transfer of the license had occurred, and notice to claimant creditors of the amount proposed to be paid had been sent all before the federal tax assessment had occurred and the federal lien had been perfected. Whatever "property" or "rights to property" the seller may have had in the proceeds because of his power to dispute claims of creditors filed prior to transfer, were extinguished when he did not dispute any claim so filed, and the assets remaining in escrow at the time of transfer were insufficient to pay the claims in full. Business Title Corp. v. United States (1978) 21 Cal 3d 710, 147 Cal Rptr 622, 581 P2d 627, 1978 Cal LEXIS 256.

Where a federal tax lien had not come into existence at the time of the transfer of a liquor license, from that moment forward the seller had no property or rights to property in the license to which a federal lien could attach. Business Title Corp. v. United States (1978/79 Cal 3d 710, 147 Cal Rptr 622, 581 P2d 627, 1978 Cal LEXIS 256.

Whether or not a taxpayer has property or rights to property in a liquor license or the proceeds of the sale thereof to which a federal tax lien may attach, is to be decided according to state, not federal law. 2. Construction

This section and § 24074 protect interests of creditors of seller of liquor business by allowing them to satisfy their claim out of purchase price, and buyer from loss of his consideration if Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control does not transfer license to him; statutory provision relating to escrow agreements involving the transfer of a liquor license or the proceeds of the sale thereof to which a federal tax lien may attach, is to be decided according to state, not federal law. Grover Escrow Corp. v. Cole (1969) 71 Cal 2d 61, 77 Cal Rptr 21, 453 P2d 461, 1969 Cal LEXIS 233.

B & P C § 24074, governing transfers in escrow of liquor licenses and establishing rights of the transferor's creditors in escrow proceeds, represents a mandatory and exclusive scheme for payment of creditors of liquor license transferors, giving creditors who comply with that section priority over other bona fide creditors who filed timely claims with the escrow holder in accordance with the mandate of B & P C § 24074, governing transfers in escrow of liquor licenses and establishing rights of the transferor's creditors in escrow proceeds. Grover Escrow Corp. v. Cole (1969) 71 Cal 2d 61, 77 Cal Rptr 21, 453 P2d 461, 1969 Cal LEXIS 233.

The priorities for payment of creditors set forth in B & P C § 24074, relating to escrows in the transfer of liquor licenses, are not conditions to the approval of the transfer and do not confer on the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control the power to refuse the transfer unless the priorities are complied with, but instead sets forth the priorities for disbursement of the funds belonging to the seller after the transfer has been approved by the department in accordance with the prescribed escrow. Accordingly, in an interpleader action concerning priorities between a federal tax lien and wage claims with respect to funds in an escrow account set up pursuant to B & P C § 24074, for the transfer of a liquor license, the trial court properly determined that once the transfer had been approved prior to the close of escrow, title to the proceeds passed to the seller subject to applicable lien priorities, the seller held property in the escrow to which a federal tax lien could attach, and that, pursuant to the federal law, the tax lien constituted a priority lien claim for unpaid taxes that was entitled to be paid from the fund before the claims of other defendants for unpaid wages. Business Title Corp. v. Division of Labor Law Enforcement (1976) 17 Cal 3d 878, 132 Cal Rptr 454, 532 P2d 614, 1976 Cal LEXIS 329.

5. Payment Plan

Under B & P C § 24074, providing that when a transfer of a liquor license license involves a purchase price or consideration, the full amount must be deposited in an escrow account with a description of the entire consideration, including cash and promissory notes and tangible and intangible property, all of the deposited assets, not just cash, are to be distributed in a manner that will benefit creditors covered by the statute. The law, by interpleader and declaratory relief actions, provides practical methods to resolve distribution problems of promissory notes, tangible and intangible property, if the parties have not provided for a plan or method in the escrow instructions that would protect the bona fide creditors. Cohn v. Gramercy Escrow Co. (1977, Cal App 2d Dist) 65 Cal App 3d 884, 135 Cal Rptr 688, 1977 Cal App LEXIS 1097.

6. Defense
In an action by the holder of a promissory note given by a corporate restaurant and bar and payable on demand, against several parties including the corporation and a bank holding the escrow for the bulk transfer sale of the premises and its liquor license to another party, the bank, which in violation of B & P C § 24074, and the provisions thereof incorporated in the escrow instructions had disbursed the escrow funds without paying the notes, despite a timely claim thereon, was not entitled to use the defense of impossibility of performance through operation of law, where, though such nonpayment resulted from disharrangement of the funds specifically in accordance with a court order, that order had been made in a totally unrelated suit against the bank and others by private litigants, namely, by shareholders of the corporation. The defense of impossibility was precluded, moreover, by the fact every order in the unrelated suit had been participated in and stipulated to by the bank itself, which, therefore, was in no position to argue it was compelled by legal authority to act contrary to its previously undertaken escrow duties. Webster v. Southern Cal. First Nat. Bank (1977, Cal App 4th Dist) 66 Cal App 3d 407, 137 Cal Rptr 293, 1977 Cal App LEXIS 1331.

§ 24074.1. Duties of escrow holder
Any person desiring to act as an escrow holder under Section 24074 shall:
1. Comply with all the applicable provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 17000) of Division 6 of the Financial Code.
2. Not more than 10 days after receiving a claim from a creditor, said escrow holder shall acknowledge receipt of each claim; and
3. Not more than 10 days after the license has been transferred and prior to the distribution of the assets held by said escrow holder he shall advise each creditor who filed a claim against the escrow whether or not there are sufficient assets in the escrow to pay all creditors in full. If the assets in the escrow are sufficient to pay all creditors in full, said escrow holder shall also advise each creditor of the date on or before which payment will be made. If there are not sufficient assets to pay all creditors in full, he shall then advise each creditor who filed a claim of the following: (a) the total assets placed in escrow with him and the nature of each asset; (b) the name of each creditor who filed a claim against the escrow and the amount of said claim; (c) the amount he proposes to pay each creditor; and (d) the date on or before which said amount will be paid to the creditors.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
The ownership change envisioned by B & P C §§ 24074, 24074.1, occurs regardless of whether or not the buyer and seller have previously complied with instructions concerning, inter alia, consideration and executed bills of sale. Doyle v. Coughlin (1974, Cal App 4th Dist) 37 Cal App 3d 911, 112 Cal Rptr 701, 1974 Cal App LEXIS 1382.

2. Construction with Other Law
An escrow holder named in an escrow opened pursuant to B & P C § 24074, in connection with the sale and purchase of a cocktail lounge business could not be compelled to give testimony pursuant to CCP § 545 [repealed], relating to examination of garnishees, where there was no showing that the escrow holder was in possession of any personal property of the debtor-transferor not connected with the transfer and sale of the cocktail lounge and alcoholic beverage license; B & P C § 24074.1 provides the exclusive discovery procedure available to a creditor of a liquor license transferror; it makes it mandatory for an escrow holder to give the creditor of such a transferror the same type of information as is available to a creditor under CCP § 545 concerning, personal property not connected with the transfer of an alcoholic beverage license; and to require such an escrow holder to testify under oath concerning information already divulged would not only be a cumulative redundancy but also a burdensome and fruitless exercise since such property is not subject to ordinary levy or execution. Gramercy Escrow Co. v. Superior Court (1971, Cal App 2d Dist) 14 Cal App 3d 426, 92 Cal Rptr 397, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1005.

3. Notice
The notice required to be given by the escrow holder to all creditors of a seller of a liquor license under B & P C § 24074.1, providing that if there are not sufficient assets to pay all creditors in full the escrow holder shall advise each creditor of the total assets and the nature of each asset, the name of each creditor and the amount of his claim, the amount he proposes to pay each creditor, and the date on or before which said amount will be paid to the creditors, only requires the escrow holder to notify the creditors of the amount it intends to pay them and approximately when. It does not authorize distribution of an asset other than cash to the seller when the bona fide creditors are still not fully paid, and before the creditors can reasonably protect themselves. Cohn v. Gramercy Escrow Co. (1977, Cal App 2d Dist) 65 Cal App 3d 884, 135 Cal Rptr 688, 1977 Cal App LEXIS 1097.

§ 24074.2. Release of escrow funds
Any person desiring to act as an escrow holder under Section 24074 shall not release any funds in the escrow in exchange for a promissory note or in exchange for any other consideration of less value to the creditors than the funds exchanged.

§ 24074.3. Statement by transferee
(a) Within 30 days after the filing of an application for transfer of a license referred to in Section 24073, the intended transferee shall file with the department a statement executed under penalty of perjury that the purchase price or consideration as set forth in the escrow agreement required by Section 24074 has been deposited with the escrowholder. At the time such statement is filed with the department copies thereof shall be submitted by the intended transferee to the transferror and the escrowholder concerned. The 30–day period specified by this section may be extended by the department for good cause; however, the license shall not be transferred until the statement required by this section is received by the department.

(b) This section shall not apply in the case of transfers for which a guaranty of payment has been filed pursuant to Section 24074.4.

§ 24074.4. When escrow not required
(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 24074, no escrow shall be required to be established in connection with the transfer of a business or license if a corporate person files with the department a guaranty of full, prompt, and faithful payment of all claims of bona fide creditors of the licensee, and such guaranty is acceptable to the creditors. The department shall not transfer the license until the guarantor has paid all the creditors’ claims in full and the guarantor has filed with the department a statement executed under penalty of perjury that all conditions of the transfer have been satisfied. Payment of such claims by the guarantor shall be made in United States currency or by certified check in a manner acceptable to the creditors.

(b) This section shall apply only in the case of a transfer involving an off-sale beer and wine license, and in which the guarantor corporation has a net worth on a consolidated basis, according to its most recent audited financial statement, of not less than five million dollars ($5,000,000).

§ 24075. Application of specified sections
The provisions of Sections 24073 and 24074 do not apply to any transfer of a license made by an executor, administrator, guardian, conservator, trustee, receiver, except a receiver appointed under the provisions of Section 708.630 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or other person acting in the legal or proper discharge of official duty, or in the discharge of any trust imposed upon the person by law, nor to any transfer or assignment made for the benefit of creditors, nor to a surviving spouse or fiduciary or other person within the meaning of Section 24071.

6. Particular Agreements and Transactions Not Violating Section

1. Generally

A transferee’s failure to inform the State Board of Equalization of the existence of an agreement entered into prior to the enactment of this statute did not amount to a fraud on the officers of the board and the public in the absence of any showing that the withheld information was requested by the board. Etchig v. Pyles (1951, Cal App) 106 Cal App 2d 549, 235 P2d 427, 1951 Cal App LEXIS 1783.

If, in view of prohibition against pledging transfer of liquor license as security for loan or as security for fulfillment of any agreement there was any error in ordering lien on ward’s liquor license, principal asset of her estate, to secure payment of fees and expenses, or in subsequent order charging guardian with liquor license because of his transfer of it in violation of protective order, such error was in exercise of court’s jurisdiction and could have been corrected on appeal, and there could be no collateral attack on such orders, since court was acting within scope of its jurisdiction in making them. Hartocci & Indem. Co. v. Crawford (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 557, 22 Cal Rptr 424, 1962 Cal LEXIS 2277.

The fact that partners operating a public golf course illegally permitted their liquor license to be used by an independent concessionaire in the operation of a bar and restaurant connected with the golf course, did not create an agency relationship between the partners and the concessionaire by operation of law so as to make the partners liable to creditors who supplied alcoholic beverages and foodstuffs to the restaurant and bar. Furthermore, since the creditors who supplied liquor were charged with the duty of selling only to licensees, public policy should not permit them to blandly sell to any person operating a licensed premise, and unqualifiedly be granted a recovery as a matter of law from the licensees. Associated Creditors’ Agency v. Davis (1975) 13 Cal 3d 374, 118 Cal Rptr 772, 530 P2d 1084, 1975 Cal LEXIS 175.

2. Construction

This section is not directed against making of agreement by licensee only; in view of fact that it requires both transferee and transferee to verify statement excluding violation of such section, its purpose and policy is to prohibit all use of liquor license as security, and any such use is unlawful and void. Holt v. Morgan (1954, Cal App) 128 Cal App 2d 113, 274 P2d 915, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1437.

B & P C § 24076, undertakes to qualify the otherwise unlimited contractual freedom to transfer alcoholic beverage licenses by prohibiting transfer for a transfer that affects license. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

To give effect to the portion of B & P C § 24076, prohibiting an alcoholic beverage licensee from entering into an agreement in which he pledges the transfer of his license as security, the reference to “pledge” must be read as embracing all promises or undertakings. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

3. Retroactivity

This section is not retroactive as to rights that accrued before its effective date, even though not adjudicated until after its effective date. Tognoli v. Taroli (1954, Cal App) 127 Cal App 2d 426, 273 P2d 914, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1357.

Where hotel, restaurant and bar were leased for term commencing before effective date of this section, the lease providing that on-sale general liquor license be transferred to lessee, who agreed to retransfer it on termination of lease, lessor’s rights to reassignment of license at future time were fixed as of date of lease, and lessor was entitled to damages for breach when lessee, after effective date of this section, sold license to third party. Tognoli v. Taroli (1954, Cal App) 127 Cal App 2d 426, 273 P2d 914, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1357.

Application of this section is not retroactive in case of an unsecured creditor who, prior to enactment of this section, was without any right contractual or otherwise to demand security; there could only be retroactive application where, prior to enactment, transfer of liquor license had been pledged or some right to its transfer had been obtained. Holt v. Morgan (1954, Cal App) 128 Cal App 2d 113, 274 P2d 915, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1437.

This section is not only not retroactive as to rights that have accrued and have been adjudicated before effective date of section, but it is also not retroactive as to rights that have accrued but have not yet been adjudicated. Cavalli v. Macaire (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 734, 272 P2d 386, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2800.

Agreement by assignee of lease to retransfer license to original owners thereof was not deemed to have been made prior to effective date of this statute, and, therefore, outside its operation, where effect of new agreement, after this statute’s effective date, was creation of new lease and new tenancy. Citrigno v. Williams (1958, 9th Cir Cal) 255 F2d 675, 1958 US App LEXIS 4924.

Where, by contract to transfer liquor license, rights have accrued as between parties prior to effective date of this section, they enjoy constitutional immunity from legislative impairment and are not subject to deprivation by retroactive operation of statute; same rights as between parties, if accruing after such date, are unenforceable if violative of statute. Belle Isle v. Hempy (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 206 Cal App 2d 14, 23 Cal Rptr 599, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 1990.

4. Words and Phrases

All of language of statute must be given effect and purpose if that is possible, and word “pledge” must be interpreted in light of this principle. Citrigno v. Williams (1958, 9th Cir Cal) 255 F2d 675, 1958 US App LEXIS 4924.

A transfer or pledge distinguishing characteristic of a pledge is the present physical transfer of the property pledged (CC §§ 2986–2988), and a literal rendition of the word “pledge” produces an internal inconsistency in B & P C § 24076, providing in part that no alcoholic beverage license shall enter into an agreement wherein he pledges the transfer of his license as security. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

To give effect to the portion of B & P C § 24076, prohibiting an alcoholic beverage licensee from entering into an agreement in which he pledges the transfer of his license as security, the reference to “pledge” must be read as embracing all promises or undertakings. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

5. Particular Agreements and Transactions Violating Section

An agreement between creditor and liquor licensee and her husband whereby pre-existing debt for which action had been brought against such spouses was acknowledged, creditor agreed to lend them an additional sum and to dismiss action with prejudice, and spouses agreed to give promissory note and to secure such note by a chattel mortgage, a power of attorney authorizing transfer of liquor license in event of default and power of attorney to transfer lease of their business premises, and separate powers of attorney to creditor which were signed by spouses on same date and which referred to above agreements and expressly declared such powers “security” to ioduced an agreement an in which wife pledged transfer of her license as security for loan as prohibited by this section. Holt v. Morgan (1954, Cal App) 128 Cal App 2d 113, 274 P2d 915, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1437.

Agreement whereby assignee of lease and liquor license were to retransfer license to former owners after lease ended was invalid. Citrigno v. Williams (1958, 9th Cir Cal) 255 F2d 675, 1958 US App LEXIS 4924.

In transaction involving lease of real property and sale of liquor license, where lease gave lessor option to repurchase liquor license at expiration of lease, repurchase agreement was unenforceable because retransfer pursuant to this agreement would be “to fulfill an agreement entered into more than 90 days preceding the day on which the transfer application is filed...” and would be in violation of this section. Hammond v. Pasquini (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 211 Cal App 2d 540, 27 Cal Rptr 208, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2942.

6. Particular Agreements and Transactions Not Violating Section

In action for declaratory relief to decide which of parties were entitled to certain liquor licenses where plaintiff sold defendants furnishings and liquor inventory of bar, transferred to them liquor licenses for use at bar, and leased premises to them for five years, including in lease clause that on expiration, or sooner termination, of lease lessee would retransfer licenses to lessors or their successors or representatives, and where parties at end of term of first lease signed another two-year lease with option to extend term for three more years, such new lease was extension of first lease and not renewal, and, where first lease was entered into prior to enactment of this section, retransferring of licenses was not illegal and void as contrary to public policy, and plaintiffs were entitled to their return. Cavalli v. Macaire (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 714, 324 P2d 336, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2060.

Though the owners of a hotel might have sold it without assurance that they could repurchase the alcoholic beverage licenses if compelled to repossess the hotel and, to this extent, an option to repurchase the licenses in event of default of purchase of the hotel tended to "secure" or preserve the value of the sellers' interest in the hotel, the option did not function as a "security" device within the meaning of B & P C § 24076, prohibiting contracts for transfers of alcoholic beverage licenses affording "security" to one of the parties. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

B & P C § 24076, restricting contracts for the transfer of alcoholic beverage licenses, did not invalidate a contract giving the seller of a hotel an option to repurchase the alcoholic beverage licenses used at the hotel at the same price the purchaser paid for them ($5,000 could not be deemed nominal) in the event of default in the purchase of the hotel. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

The provision in B & P C § 24076, proscribing transfer of an alcoholic beverage license to fulfill an agreement entered into more than 90 days preceding the filing of the transfer application, did not render illegal the option by the seller of a hotel to repurchase alcoholic beverage licenses from the purchaser at the same price in the event of default in purchase of the hotel and afforded no defense to an action for damages, though the provision precluded specific performance of the option agreement. Greve v. Leger, Ltd. (1966) 64 Cal 2d 853, 52 Cal Rptr 9, 415 P2d 824, 1966 Cal LEXIS 320.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), any original on–sale general license or any original off–sale general license for which a fee in excess of twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) has been paid pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 23954.5 may not be transferred for one year following its initial issuance. NOTES OF DECISIONS

2. Agreement

1. Legislative Intent

In a prosecution for conspiracy to violate state liquor laws by transferring a restricted liquor license for consideration in excess of the statutory amount (B & P C § 24079), the trial court properly determined that a violation of B & P C § 24079, constitutes a crime. That statute limits the purchase price that may be paid by a transferee or received by a transferor to $6,000 for a period of five years from the date of the original issuance. B & P C § 25617, provides that any person convicted for a violation of any of the provisions of div. 9 for which another penalty or punishment is not specifically provided for is guilty of a misdemeanor, and B & P C § 24079, is contained in div. 9, and no other punishment is prescribed. The fact that the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act was enacted for the purpose of protection of the safety, welfare, health, peace and morals of the people is enough to suggest penal sanctions were intended. The Legislature obviously concluded that speculation in liquor licenses was an evil to be discouraged by including it within div. 9, as the remedies of suspension or revocation of the offender’s license were inadequate to deter bootleg sales of licenses. People v. Anderson (1991, Cal App 4th Dist 1) Cal App 4th 1084, 3 Cal Rptr 2d 247, 1991 Cal App LEXIS 1460.
2. Agreement
   In a criminal conspiracy, the question is not whether the defendant committed the underlying crime, but whether there was an agreement between two or more persons with the specific intent to agree to commit a public offense followed by overt acts committed in the state by one or more of the parties for the purpose of accomplishing the object of the agreement. People v. Anderson (1991, Cal App 4th Dist) 1 Cal App 4th 1084, 3 Cal Rptr 2d 247, 1991 Cal App LEXIS 1460.

§ 24080. Application for transfer of onsale or offsale general license
   Every application filed by the intended transferee with the department for the transfer of an onsale or offsale general license shall indicate whether the consideration, if any, to be paid to the transferor includes payment for any or all of the following:
   (a) Inventory.
   (b) Fixtures.
   (c) Transfer of the license.
   The actual amount of the consideration, if any, to be paid for items (a), (b) and (c) is to be indicated in the application.

§ 24200. Grounds for suspension or revocation

The following are the grounds that constitute a basis for the suspension or revocation of licenses:

(a) When the continuance of a license would be contrary to public welfare or morals. However, proceedings under this subdivision are not a limitation upon the department's authority to proceed under Section 22 of Article XX of the California Constitution.

(b) Except as limited by Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 25000), the violation or the causing or permitting of a violation by a licensee of this division, any rules of the board adopted pursuant to Part 14 (commencing with Section 32001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, any rules of the department adopted pursuant to the provisions of this division, or any other penal provisions of law of this state prohibiting or regulating the sale, exposing for sale, use, possession, giving away, adulteration, dilution, misbranding, or mislabeling of alcoholic beverages or intoxicating liquors.

(c) The misrepresentation of a material fact by an applicant in obtaining a license.

(d) The plea, verdict, or judgment of guilty, or the plea of nolo contendere to any public offense involving moral turpitude or under any federal law prohibiting or regulating the sale, exposing for sale, use, possession, or giving away of alcoholic beverages or intoxicating liquors or prohibiting the refilling or reuse of distilled spirits containers charged against the licensee.

(e) Failure to take reasonable steps to correct objectionable conditions on the licensed premises, including the immediately adjacent area that is owned, leased, or rented by the licensee, that constitute a nuisance, within a reasonable time after receipt of notice to make those corrections from the department, under Section 373a of the Penal Code. For the purpose of this subdivision only, "property or premises" as used in Section 373a of the Penal Code includes the area immediately adjacent to the licensed premises that is owned, leased, or rented by the licensee.

(f) Failure to take reasonable steps to correct objectionable conditions that occur during business hours on any public sidewalk abutting a licensed premises and constitute a nuisance, within a reasonable time after receipt of notice to correct those conditions from the department. This subdivision shall apply to a licensee only upon written notice to the licensee from the department. The department shall issue this written notice upon its own determination, or upon a request from the local law enforcement agency in whose jurisdiction the premises are located, that is supported by substantial evidence that persistent objectionable conditions are occurring on the public sidewalk abutting the licensed premises. For purposes of this subdivision:

1. "Any public sidewalk abutting a licensed premises" means the publicly owned, pedestrian-traveled way, not more than 20 feet from the premises, that is located between a licensed premises, including any immediately adjacent area that is owned, leased, or rented by the licensee, and a public street.

2. "Objectionable conditions that constitute a nuisance" means disturbance of the peace, public drunkenness, drinking in public, harassment of passersby, gambling, prostitution, loitering, public urination, lewd conduct, drug trafficking, or excessive loud noise.

3. "Reasonable steps" means all of the following:

(A) Calling the local law enforcement agency. Timely calls to the local law enforcement agency that are placed by the licensee, or his or her agents or employees, shall not be construed by the department as evidence of objectionable conditions that constitute a nuisance.

(B) Requesting those persons engaging in activities causing objectionable conditions to cease those activities, unless the licensee, or his or her agents or employees, feel that their personal safety would be threatened in making that request.

(C) Making good faith efforts to remove items that facilitate loitering, such as furniture, except those structures approved or permitted by the local jurisdiction. The licensee shall not be liable for the removal of those items that facilitate loitering.

4. When determining what constitutes "reasonable steps," the department shall consider site configuration constraints related to the unique circumstances of the nature of the business.

(g) Subdivision (f) does not apply to a bona fide public eating place, as defined in Section 23038, 23038.1, or 23038.2, that is so operated by a retail on-sale licensee or on-sale beer and wine licensee; a hotel, motel, or similar lodging establishment, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 25503.16; a winegrowers license; a licensed beer manufacturer, as defined in Section 23357; those same or contiguous premises for which a retail licensee concurrently holds an off-sale retail beer and wine license and a beer manufacturer's license; or those same or contiguous premises at which a retail on-sale licensee or on-sale beer and wine licensee who is licensed as a bona fide public eating place as defined in Section 23038, 23038.1, or 23038.2, a hotel, motel, or similar lodging establishment as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 25503.16, a licensed beer manufacturer, as defined in Section 23357, or a wineries license, sells off-sale beer and wine under the licensee's on-sale license.

Amendments:

1955 Amendment: (1) Substituted "department" for "board" in subd (a); (2) added "adopted pursuant to Part 14 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code or any rules of the department" in subd (b); and (3) added subds (e) and (f) which read: "(e) Where the portion of the premises of the licensee upon which the activities permitted by the license are conducted are a resort for illegal possessors or users of narcotics, prostitutes, pimps, pandarers, or sexual perverts. In addition to any other legally competent evidence, the character of the premises may be proved by the general reputation of the premises in the community as a resort for illegal possessors or users of narcotics, prostitutes, pimps, pandarers, or sexual perverts.

A. GENERALLY

1. Generally

Acquittal of bartender-manager in criminal proceeding is no bar to license revocation action against owner based on same facts. Cornell v. B & P C § 24200, subd. (b), which authorizes suspension of an alcoholic beverage license upon “the violation or the causing or the permitting of a violation by a licensee” of various rules or statutes regulating the sale, use, or possession of alcoholic beverages, is not vague and uncertain with respect to what a licensee must do to avoid permitting any prohibited conduct to occur. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 24, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

Revocation of liquor license under B & P C § 24200 and 25601, allegedly in violation of licensee’s federal constitutional rights in that purported sole ground for revocation was presence of homosexual clientele at bar, was res judicata for purposes of injunction action under 42 USCS § 1983, as the Department is a state court of limited jurisdiction. Francisco Enterprises, Inc. v. Kirby (1973, 9th Cir Cal) 482 F2d 481, 1973 US App LEXIS 8706; cert den (1974) 419 U S 133, 94 L Ed 2d 471, 415 US 916, 1974 US LEXIS 1176.

2. Constitutionality

[Former] subd e of this section is unconstitutional; to hold that by such language Legislature intended that grounds for revocation existed only where objectionable conduct took place on premises would constitute judicial legislation under guise of interpretation, which Supreme Court is not permitted to do because it would amount to invasion of field committed in its entirety to legislative branch of government. Valleroga v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 313, 1 Cal Rptr 494, 347 P2d 909, 1959 Cal LEXIS 1726; disapproving holding in Kershaw v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957) 155 CA2d 544, 318 P 2d 494, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1321, and Nickola v. Maxwell Cafe, Inc. (1957) 149 Cal 2d 326 P 2d 721, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1356.

Right to possess, make or deal in intoxicating liquor is not a privilege, nor such property right that state legislation prohibiting, restricting or regulating its manufacture, use, possession, distribution or sale violates 14th Amendment. Gardner v. State Board of Equalization (1954, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

The fact that the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act authorizes public enforcement in the form of administrative sanctions (B & P C § 24200) and criminal penalties (B & P C § 25617) does not furnish a basis for finding an unlawful delegation of legislative power. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

B & P C § 24200, subd. (b), which authorizes suspension of an alcoholic beverage license upon “the violation or the causing or the permitting of a violation by a licensee” of various rules or statutes regulating the sale, use, or possession of alcoholic beverages, is not vague and uncertain with respect to what a licensee must do to avoid finding that he has caused or permitted underaged drinking. The word “permit,” defined by case law as “abstaining from preventative action,” means abstaining from the action that in fact prevents, not abstaining from any action to try to prevent. A licensee with knowledge of underaged drinking violates § 24200, subd. (b), if he does not in fact prevent underaged drinking (subject to the defense that the licensee may rely on an apparently valid identification). The word “permit,” as in the case at hand, has a clear and plain meaning, meaning the licensee abstains from the action that in fact prevents. Maxwell Cafe, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 3d 47, 207 Cal Rptr 250, 1984 Cal LEXIS 2637.

B. DUTIES AND LIABILITIES OF LICENSEE

3. Generally

Owner of liquor license has responsibility to see that license is not used in violation of law. Maxwell Cafe, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 73, 298 P2d 64, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1849.

It is not necessary for accused to have knowledge of violation or that he was negligent in not discovering violation. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Board Appeals Board (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 154 Cal App 2d 326, 316 P2d 401, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1629. If there is evidence that violation of subd (b) of this section occurred on licensed premises, licensee is responsible for it. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Board Appeals Board (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 154 Cal App 2d 326, 316 P2d 401, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1629.

Licensee, in making sales of intoxicating liquors, is not required to act to a peril, but he must exercise caution which would be shown by reasonable and prudent man in same circumstances. 5501 Hollywood, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 748, 318 P2d 820, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1351.

There is an affirmative duty on the licensee under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act to maintain and operate his premises in accordance with law, and failure to discharge the duty may amount to permitting any prohibited conduct to occur. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal LEXIS 1730.

4. Liability for Acts of Employees

Whatever is suffered or permitted by owner and employees of liquor license is attributed to licensee. Maxwell Cafe, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 73, 298 P2d 64, 1956 Cal LEXIS 1949.

Liquor licensee is responsible for acts of his bartender in knowingly permitting illegal sales of narcotics on licensed premises, under premise that licensed employer may be disciplined to extent of revocation of his license for acts of his employees. Endo v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 143 Cal App 2d 395, 300 P2d 366, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1615.

Suspension of liquor license was warranted where repeated acts of licensee’s bartender over month in taking bets on horse races established that licensee permitted use of premises for violation of penal statute, though there was no evidence that bets were placed when he was in bar. Quilici v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 178 Cal App 2d 549, 3 Cal Rptr 49, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2627.

To revoke licensee’s liquor license because of conduct and knowledge of his employees does not deprive him of due process of law, since licensee, if he elects to operate his business through employees, must be responsible to licensing authority for their conduct in exercise of his license. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

5. Absence of Knowledge; Imputation of Knowledge

Licensee of on-sale liquor establishment is chargeable with knowledge of his bartender that girl is loitering in place for purpose of soliciting drinks from customers. Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 843, 301 P2d 997, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

Liquor licensee may be disciplined by licensing authority for unlawful acts of employees while engaged in conduct and operation of the business, though employer did not authorize them and did not have actual knowledge of the activities. Mack v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 2d Dist) 178 Cal App 2d 149, 2 Cal Rptr 629, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2573; Quilici v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 178 Cal App 2d 549, 3 Cal Rptr 49, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2627.

Revocation and suspension of liquor license were supported by evidence that licensees’ bartender was engaged in taking bets on horse races and that he was paying off in cash on winning combinations on mechanical gambling devices, since bartender’s knowledge of such illegal gambling activities on licensed premises was imputed to licensees and they were responsible for his acts, it being immaterial that licensees may have had no actual knowledge of such illegal gambling activities. Mack v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 2d Dist) 178 Cal App 2d 149, 2 Cal Rptr 629, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2573.

Owner of liquor license has responsibility to see to it that license is not used in violation of the law, and, as matter of general law, knowledge and acts of employee or agent are imputable to licensee. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 1st Dist) 181 Cal App 2d 162, 5 Cal Rptr 527, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 1975; Morrel v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1964, Cal App 2d Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 504, 22 Cal Rptr 465, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2270. In proceeding to revoke liquor license for solicitation of drinks on licensed premises by two women, knowledge of such activity was imputed to licensee by reason of fact that women were employed by him and sometimes worked as bartenders in licensed premises. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002. In proceeding to revoke liquor license for permitting female employees to accept in or on licensed premises alcoholic beverages purchased or sold there for consumption by such female employees, fact that work permit was used in complaint did not constitute volitional act, employees' knowledge as to which should not have been imputed to licensee, such rule not being changed by whether drinking was or was not furtive. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

6. Corporate Licensees

Liquor license held in name of corporation may be revoked for illegal conduct of sole stockholders, though their acts were committed off licensed premises, where they were real parties involved and were alter ego of corporation, and their acts were also acts of corporation. Jacques, Inc. v. State Board of Equalization (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 448, 319 P2d 6, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1907.

C. GROUNDS FOR SUSPENSION OR REVOCATION

7. Generally

Licenses issued under Alcoholic Beverage Control Act and the privileges thereunder are at all times subject to revocation for good cause under act and Const Art XX § 22. Taketa v. State Board of Equalization (1951, Cal App) 104 Cal App 2d 455, 231 P2d 873, 1951 Cal App LEXIS 1639.

It is not past conduct, immoral character or bad reputation of patron that subjects on-sale licensee to discipline, but patron's present act and condition that offends both law and public decency, mere presence in public of intoxicated person is illegal act. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

Liquor license is permit to do what otherwise would be unlawful, and Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control need not define by rule or law all of things that will put that license in jeopardy. Gore v. Harris (1964, Cal App 1st Dist) 229 Cal App 2d 821, 40 Cal Rptr 666, 1964 Cal App LEXIS 1051.

Giving proper scope to discretion of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under Const Art XX § 22, it cannot be said as a matter of law that finding of person being unfit to hold liquor license because of his arrest and conviction record does not decide defense to suspend and revoke license. Jack P. Meyers, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 869, 48 Cal Rptr 259, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1208.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, in its desire to reduce instances of drug sales, by law cannot resort to the expedient of revoking licenses without good cause. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

Though the mere employment of "topless" waitresses by a liquor licensee is not ground for revocation of a license, licensees are not generally sanctioned to employ topless or other similarly undressed waitresses and do not enjoy general immunity from disciplining action if in pursuing business enterprise they are subjected to disciplinary action by department because of employees the department should establish good cause and make out its case for revocation or, alternatively, the department can adopt regulations covering the situation. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

8. Continuance of License as Contrary to Public Welfare or Morals

Department has power in its discretion to revoke any liquor license if it determines for good cause that continuance of such license will be contrary to public welfare or morals. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

Evidence similar to that which supports decision and order of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking license on ground that licensee knowingly permitted woman to loiter in or about premises for purpose of begging or soliciting customer to purchase for her alcoholic beverage § 25657 will support charge that continuance of license by licensee to contrary to public welfare and morals in that he caused or permitted designated females to solicit drinks on licensed premises on certain dates. Greenblatt v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 189 Cal App 2d 787, 11 Cal Rptr 699, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2250.

Where premises licensed for sale of alcoholic beverages are operated so as to make them law enforcement problem for police, public welfare and morals are directly involved and affected; where law enforcement problem emerges from repeated instances of intoxicated patrons found on premises in violation of local ordinance, it cannot be maintained that these conditions of doing business do not offend public welfare or morals until or unless intoxicated patron has aggravatethem by performing additional improper, illegal or immoral acts on premises. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

Revocation of off-sale liquor license for nonuse within 30 days of issuance, as required by § 24040, was not too severe, despite subsequent amendment of that section to eliminate requirement of automatic revocation for nonuse, where evidence of licensees' nonuse of license was not closely balanced, and Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control also found that continuance of license would be contrary to public welfare and morals and therefore based its revocation on Const Art XX § 22, and subd (a) of this section, as well as § 24040. Gore v. Harris (1964, Cal App 1st Dist) 229 Cal App 2d 821, 40 Cal Rptr 666, 1964 Cal App LEXIS 1051.

In a disciplinary action against a liquor licensee under B & P C § 24200, subd. (a) (suspension or revocation of license when continuance of license would be contrary to public welfare or morals), licensee's knowledge of illegal or improper activity on his or her premises may be either actual knowledge or constructive knowledge imputed to the licensee from the knowledge of his or her employees. Hahn & Sons Public House (1992, Cal App 1st Dist) 2 Cal App 4th 364, 3 Cal Rptr 2d 779, 1992 Cal App LEXIS 32, rehearing denied (1992) 3 Cal. Rptr. 2d 779, 1992 Cal. App. LEXIS 133, 92 Cal. Daily Op. Service 1072, 92 D.A.R. 1722.

The word permit implies no affirmative act and involves no intent. It is mere passivity, abstaining from preventive action. However, the concept that one may permit something of which he or she is unaware does not withstand analysis. Thus, in disciplinary actions against two liquor licensees for allegedly permitting drug sales in their establishments, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board erred by holding licensees strictly liable solely because a drug transaction occurred, while neither licensee had knowledge of the drug activity. A licensee must have either constructive or actual knowledge before he or she can be found to have permitted unacceptable conduct. The imposition of strict liability is impermissible, since under B & P C § 24200, subd. (a) (grounds for suspension or revocation), and Const., art. XX, § 22 (alcoholic beverage control), a license may only be suspended for good cause. Laube v. Stroh (1992, Cal App 1st Dist) 2 Cal App 4th 364, 3 Cal Rptr 2d 779, 1992 Cal App LEXIS 32, rehearing denied (1992) 3 Cal. Rptr. 2d 779, 1992 Cal. App. LEXIS 133, 92 Cal. Daily Op. Service 1072, 92 D.A.R. 1722.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control properly revoked the off-sale beer and wine licenses of two markets for keeping a disorderly house (B & P C § 25601) and causing a law enforcement problem and a condition contrary to public welfare and morals (Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22; B & P C § 24200, subd. (a)), because of frequently occurring illegal drug transactions on the premises, without requiring proof that the licensee knowingly permitted the drug transactions or that the sale of alcohol caused or contributed to the illegal conduct. There was ample evidence that the premises had become law enforcement problems, that the owners were actually or constructively aware of the problems, and that they were not effective in controlling the rampant drug trade on the licensed premises. That the markets were located in a high-crime area was irrelevant. There was a sufficient showing the premises constituted a nuisance within the meaning of the statutes and the constitutional provision. Yu v. Alcoholic Bev. etc. Appeals Bd. (1992, Cal App 6th Dist) 3 Cal App 4th 286, 4 Cal Rptr 2d 280, 1992 Cal App LEXIS 123, review denied (1992) 1992 Cal LEXIS 2293.

9. “Public Welfare or Morals” Defined

Public welfare is not a single, platonic archetypal idea, but a construct of political philosophy embracing a wide range of goals, including the enhancement of majority interests in safety, health, education, ethics, and the political economy; intelligently conclude that a course of conduct is contrary to the public welfare, its effects must be canvassed, considered and evaluated as being harmful or undesirable. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

The term “public morals” means the moral practices or modes of conduct pertaining to a whole community. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

10. Lewdness; Nudity; Sexual Activities

State Board of Equalization had power to determine that liquor licensee’s conduct with reference to lewd performances on premises other than licensed premises was of such nature as to make his holding of license contrary to public welfare or morals. Jacobs, Inc. v. State Board of Equalization (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 448, 318 P2d 6, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1307.

Law demands that on-sale licensee so conduct his business that it meets minimum requirements of decency and morality; it is not entirely implausible that “topless” waitresses present the same danger of exploitation of customers that “B-Girls” did; it is insufficient as a ground for revocation of a license where there is no evidence that the waitresses solicited customers to purchase drinks for them or accepted drinks from the patrons. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

Though, in some cases conduct may be so extreme that the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control could conclude it to be per se contrary to public welfare or morals. Mack v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 2d Dist) 178 Cal App 2d 149, 2 Cal Rptr 629, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2573.

12. Necessity of Rational Relationship With Operation of Premises

Although the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control has discretion under Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, to determine whether continuance of a liquor license would be contrary to public welfare or morals, the constitutional demand for “good cause” necessarily implies that its decision must be based upon sufficient evidence and that it avoid arbitrariness; properly construed, the public welfare and morals clause permits license termination for law violation not involving moral turpitude but having a relational relationship with the operation of the licensed business in a manner consistent with public welfare and morals. H. D. Wallace & Associates, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1969, Cal App 3d Dist) 271 Cal App 2d 589, 76 Cal Rptr 749, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 2415, 36 ALR3d 1296.

In a proceeding by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to revoke a corporate liquor license, good cause for the revocation of the license was not shown, where it appeared the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board misapplied a rule which stated a general manager and sole shareholder had an arrest record involving the intermixture of airport licenses where there was no evidence that the illegal activity occurred on the premises and the operation of the licensed business in a manner consistent with public welfare and morals, and where there was no substantial evidence that the sale of alcohol was contrary to public welfare or morals. H. D. Wallace & Associates, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1969, Cal App 3d Dist) 271 Cal App 2d 589, 76 Cal Rptr 749, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 2415, 36 ALR3d 1296.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in revoking the on-sale, general bona fide eating place license on the basis that it was protecting the working girl from the possibility of violence and the humiliation and degradation attending exposure of her breasts in public, was not warranted, where there was no evidence the evil sought to be avoided was related to the use of “topless” waitresses or occurred on the licensee’s premises. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1969, Cal App 3d Dist) 271 Cal App 2d 589, 76 Cal Rptr 749, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 2415, 36 ALR3d 1296.

Department was not under misapprehension as to facts or law in finding that licensee was convicted of taking bets on licensed premises, constituted crime under state laws and was thus at least technically contrary to public welfare or morals. Maloney v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 172 Cal App 2d 104, 342 P2d 520, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1931.

Though bookmaking and gambling are not specifically set out in the law, it is sufficient as a basis for revocation of a license where there is no substantial evidence that the act of bookmaking or gambling as “substantial evidence” that the licensee had actual knowledge of the bartender’s bookmaking offense, knowledge of the offense being imputed to the licensee, and that the bartender committed the act of bookmaking being “substantial evidence” that the licensee permitted and suffered its employee to commit the offense. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 252 Cal App 2d 520, 60 Cal Rptr 641, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1530.

The decision must be based upon sufficient evidence and it avoid arbitrariness; properly construed, the public welfare and morals clause permits license termination for law violation not involving moral turpitude but having a relational relationship with the operation of the licensed business in a manner consistent with public welfare and morals. H. D. Wallace & Associates, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1969, Cal App 3d Dist) 271 Cal App 2d 589, 76 Cal Rptr 749, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 2415, 36 ALR3d 1296.

The rule that disciplinary action by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board is permitted only for offenses having a rational relation with the operation of the licensed premises in a manner consistent with public welfare and morals is oversimplified by construing it to deny disciplinary authority unless the act is a moral one, or in direct connection with the operation of the licensed premises. Kirby v. Alcoholic Bever. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1970, Cal App 1st Dist) 7 Cal App 3d 126, 86 Cal Rptr 433, 1970 Cal App LEXIS 2140, superseded by statute as stated in People v. Tilbury (1991) 54 Cal 3d 56, 284 Cal Rptr 288, 815 P2d 1318, 1991 Cal LEXIS 3220.

A finding by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, that a licensee assaulted department representatives acting in the scope of

13. Violation of Rules or Statutes Regulating the Sale, Use, or Possession of Alcoholic Beverages

A rule of the State Board of Equalization making a violation of the Federal laws or regulations relating to ceiling prices for alcoholic beverages a ground for revocation of a liquor license, did not state an original standard which bound the board in advance to be guided by any and every regulation which the O.P.A. might turn out touching liquor prices. Moore v. State Board of Equalization (1946, Cal App) 76 Cal App 2d 322, 174 P2d 235, 1946 Cal App LEXIS 780.

A violation of law in the sale of intoxicating liquor is a cause for revocation of a license, and it is nonetheless a cause if committed away from the licensed premises. Coletti v. State Bd. of Equalization (1949, Cal App) 94 Cal App 2d 61, 209 P2d 894, 1949 Cal App LEXIS 1349.

Subd (b) of this section authorizes suspension or revocation of license when licensee permits violation of any penal provision of law prohibiting use or possession of alcoholic beverages or intoxicating liquors. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 154 Cal App 2d 326, 316 P2d 401, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1629.

In the exercise of its discretion the department can properly consider violations of statutory provisions concerning alcoholic beverages or of rules of department as good cause for suspension of license. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

Under subd (b), any conduct constituting violation of any section of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is ground for suspension or revocation of license. Nelson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 3d Dist) 166 Cal App 2d 783, 333 P2d 771, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2547.

To constitute violation of subd (b) and of Rule 17(e) in effect before rules revision October 15, 1961, of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control there need be no evidence that delivery of liquor by licensee without accompanying delivery order be willfully or intentionally done. Day v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 686, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 599, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

In its reversal of a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control for the sale of a liquor store’s license on the ground of insufficiency of evidence to support a determination of the department that a clerk of the store had violated the statute making it a misdemeanor to sell any alcoholic beverage to any intoxicated person (B & P C § 25602, subd. (a)), the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board erred in construing B & P C § 25602, subd. (a), so as not to apply to the sale of an alcoholic beverage to an intoxicated person whose intoxication was due to marijuana and a small amount of alcohol, rather than solely to the consumption of alcohol. The purpose of B & P C § 25602, is to protect the public from the use of alcohol by a person who is already obviously intoxicated. This protection is intended whether the existing intoxication was caused by alcohol alone or by other drugs or a combination of substances. Thus, B & P C § 25602, subd. (a), forbids the sale of alcoholic beverages to any obviously intoxicated person regardless of the required condition of substances that brought on that condition. Rice v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1981, Cal App 2d Dist) 118 Cal App 3d 30, 173 Cal Rptr 527, 1981 Cal App LEXIS 1629.

It is not necessary for an alcoholic beverage licensee to knowingly allow its premises to be used in a prohibited manner in order to be found to have “permitted” its use for the prohibited act. However, if a licensee does not reasonably know of drug transactions taking place on the premises, and further has taken all reasonable measures to prevent such transactions, the licensee does not “permit” the transactions for purposes of suspending its license under B & P C § 24200. McFadden v. San Diego 1130, Inc. v. Stroh (1989, Cal App 4th Dist) 208 Cal App 3d 1384, 257 Cal Rptr 8, 1989 Cal App LEXIS 247, review denied (1989) 1989 Cal. LEXIS 3687.

14. Keeping Disorderly House; Sexual Perversion; Nudity

Under § 25601, making it a misdemeanor for liquor licensee to keep, permit to be used, or suffer to be used, in connection with licensed premises, any disorderly house, no proof of knowledge by licensee or his agent of proscribed acts is necessary, it being sufficient that evidence show that such acts took place in licensed premises, and where there is evidence sufficient to show that patrons of licensed premises engaged in homosexual activity, licensee’s license is properly revoked under subd (b), through which § 25601 operates to establish grounds for revocation. Morell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 504, 22 Cal Rptr 405, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

It is clear that revocation of on-sale liquor license did not depend solely on violation of unconstitutional subd (e) concerning use of licensed premises as resort for sexual perverts, where order or revocatory action was adopted hearing officer’s decision stating that additional grounds for suspension or revocation of license existed under subd (b), concerning violation by licensee of rules of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, and for violation of § 25601, concerning keeping of disorderly house. Stouten v. Munro (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

The employment of “topless” waitresses and the distribution of their photographs to a liquor licensee’s patrons was not illegal or in violation of any duly issued rule or regulation of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, and to establish good cause for the revocation of the licensee’s license, something more had to be shown than the employment of “topless” waitresses. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

In revoking an on-sale, general bona fide eating place license, for a violation of B & P C § 25601, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control could not properly base its decision on the keeping of a house that disturbed the neighborhood or the keeping of a house to which people resorted for purposes that injured public morals, where there was no evidence that the licensed premises disturbed the neighborhood or that people resorted to such premises for any of the purposes condemned by the statute. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

15. Sales to Minors

Licenteate conducting sale of beverages under on-sale license is charged with active duty to prevent minors from consuming intoxicating liquors and if licenteate through employee, has knowledge that such consumption is taking place there exists immediately active duty to prevent its continuance, and failure to prevent it is permitting such unlawful consumption, justifying suspension of license. Marcucci v. Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 3d Dist) 138 Cal App 2d 605, 292 P2d 264, 1956 Cal LEXIS 2407.

It was not abuse of discretion by board to order 15-day suspension of liquor license for serving whiskey to minor, though he was over 20 years of age and sole drink served to him indicated no conscious intent to violate the law. Griswold v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 807, 297 P2d 762, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1820.

Subd (b) of this section authorizes suspension or revocation of license when licensee violates penal provision in permitting minors to consume beer on licensed premises. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 154 Cal App 2d 326, 316 P2d 401, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1629.

Where girls under age of twenty-one testified that they consumed beer on premises, fact that their act was involuntary did not aid them. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 154 Cal App 2d 326, 316 P2d 401, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1629.

A licensee does not act at his peril in selling liquor and if he uses due care and acts in good faith his license is not to be jeopardized because

16. Solicitation of Drinks

It is not prerequisite to holding liquor licensees responsible under this section, § 25667 and Pen C § 303 that they personally hired “B” girls or permitted solicitation of drinks in their tavern. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 141, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1282.

In liquor license revocation proceeding, all that was required to support charge of employing or knowingly permitting woman to loiter around licensed premises for purpose of begging or soliciting patrons to purchase alcoholic beverages for her was knowledge of solicitation imputed to licensee and evidence that woman solicited drinks from three persons in premises, one of whom was alcoholic beverage control agent. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 788, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

17. Restrictions on Issuance and Ownership of Licenses

Section 23779, which gives Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control power to revoke wholesale license whenever licensee fails for period of 45 days to make sales to retail licensees other than himself, constituted ground for revocation of wholesale beer and wine license and wine importer’s license of wholesaler corporation that sold only to incorporated retail licensees, of which it was wholly owned subsidiary, having to substantial extent same officers and directors as such retail licensee. Borun Bros. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 2d Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 503, 30 Cal Rptr 175, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2526.

Section 25502, prohibiting wholesaler or any of its officers, directors, or agents from directly or indirectly holding ownership of any off-sale general license for any premises or from owning or controlling any interest in such premises, constituted ground for revocation of wholesale beer and wine license and wine importer’s license of wholesaler, where wholesaler’s officers owned such substantial amounts of stock in such licensee that they might be deemed to have ownership interest in licensed premises. Another was also wholesaler, by reason of interlocking directorships involving wholesaler and licensee, owned interest in premises covered by license. Borun Bros. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 2d Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 503, 30 Cal Rptr 175, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2526.

18. Misrepresentations by Applicant for License

Revocation of corporation’s liquor license is not abuse of discretion evidenced by corporation’s entry of a plea of nolo contendere in a prosecution for receiving stolen property did not constitute a plea, verdict, or judgment of guilty to a public offense involving moral turpitude within the meaning of B & P C § 24200, subd. (d), providing for suspension or revocation of licenses in such cases, where the imposition of sentence was suspended by the court and the licensee was placed on probation for three years, and where the offense was thereafter adjudicated a misdemeanor by the court pursuant to the provisions of Pen C § 17. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 5th Dist) 270 Cal App 2d 535, 75 Cal Rptr 823, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1555.

An attack under Rule 35, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, return of sentence, or right to correction or reduction of sentence, goes only to the sentence long since become final and petition for writ of certiorari had been denied by the United States Supreme Court, and particularly where the court refused to interfere with the penalty pronounced by the district court. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 5th Dist) 270 Cal App 2d 535, 75 Cal Rptr 823, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1555.

Convictions of the crimes of possessing cocaine or marijuana for purposes of sale, crimes whose elements include a specific intent to sell the proscribed substances, constitute moral turpitude as a matter of law within the meaning of Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, which grants the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control the power to deny, suspend or revoke an alcoholic beverage license if a person seeking or holding a license has violated any law prohibiting conduct involving moral turpitude, and within the meaning of B & P C § 24200, which authorizes the department to suspend or revoke a license on the basis of a judgment of guilt to any public offense involving moral turpitude. Conviction of such an offense justifies the imposition of administrative sanctions without a further showing of unfitness or unsuitability or its effect upon the conduct of the licensed business. Rice v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1979, Cal App 1st Dist) 89 Cal App 3d 30, 152 Cal Rptr 286, 1979 Cal App LEXIS 1356.

20. Fraud

Intent to defraud is essential element of issuing check without sufficient funds in violation of Pen C § 476a, and crime defined under such section is public offense involving moral turpitude for purpose of revoking liquor license. Copeland v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 2d Dist) 241 Cal App 2d 186, 50 Cal Rptr 452, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1232.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control correctly decided that a licensees’s license to conduct a bar should be suspended for the period of one year pursuant to B & P C § 24200, subd. (d), providing for suspension of license upon conviction of an offense involving moral turpitude, where the department properly found, after a formal hearing, that the licensees’s conviction in the United States District Court of revoking the government through the filing of knowingly

An alcoholic beverage bar licensee was convicted in Federal District Court of income tax evasion in circumstances involving moral turpitude justifying the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control’s suspension of her license to conduct a bar, where there was a federal conviction and a federal finding of fraud, irrespective of what the state court’s rule might be in order to convict of a crime involving moral turpitude. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 5th Dist) 270 Cal App 2d 535, 75 Cal Rptr 823, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1555.

In respect to suspension of liquor licenses, where a criminal conviction involves fraud, the conviction necessarily also involves moral turpitude. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 5th Dist) 270 Cal App 2d 535, 75 Cal Rptr 823, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1555.

D. PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

21. Generally

Obtaining of license revocation proceeding is protection of public, rather than punishment of licensee, and proceedings are not criminal in nature, nor governed by law applicable to criminal cases. Cornell v. Reilly (1954, Cal App) 127 Cal App 2d 178, 273 P2d 572, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1318.

Proceeding before administrative agency to determine whether license should be revoked is not criminal or quasi-criminal prosecution. Molina v. Munro (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 601, 302 P2d 818, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1982.

22. Complaint

Where accusation charged acts declared unlawful by Pen C § 303, although without mentioning that section, license could be revoked, whether evidence showed violation of that section or not, if evidence showed situation contrary to public welfare or morals. Cornell v. Reilly (1954, Cal App) 127 Cal App 2d 178, 273 P2d 572, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1318.

There is no variance between accusation charging liquor licensees with violation of this section, § 25657 and Pen C § 303, and proof of violation by licensees’ employees. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

In proceeding for suspension or revocation of license for violation of subd (b) of this section, it is not necessary to allegation violation of § 25658 subd (b) relating to purchase of alcoholic beverages by minors. Munro v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 154 Cal App 2d 326, 316 P2d 401, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1629.

Though accusations before department do not have to be as precise as those in criminal proceedings, they must disclose to licensee particulars of offense with which he is charged, at least to extent of stating essential elements of that offense. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 596, 326 P2d 929, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1778.

In proceeding to revoke liquor license, principal objective of Gov C § 11503, specifying form of accusation in administrative proceedings, is to safeguard licensee against accusation that does not sufficiently enable him to prepare his defense; adherence to technical rules of pleading is not required. Stoumen v. Munro (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

23. Sufficiently of Allegations

Charge that on-sale liquor licensee violated § 25657 subd (b) by employing or permitting designated person to loiter on premises for purpose of soliciting purchase of alcoholic beverage for solicitor, is sufficient to enable licensee to prepare defense, since in administrative proceedings the courts are more concerned with fair notice to accused than with technical rules of pleading. Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 843, 301 P2d 997, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

Accusation that “the portions of the premises of the liquor licensees, where the activities permitted by the license are conducted, have been and still are a resort for sexual perverts, to wit: Homosexuals,” is insufficient to charge licensees with conduct subjecting their license to revocation other than pursuant to [former] subd (a); to sustain revocation under Confr Const Art XX § 22, on the ground that the licensees continued to use premises that were places of amusement open to the public for purposes of prostitution, it must appear that the premises were located, fact that accusation did not specify that licensees

24. Notice and Hearing

The Legislature did not intend to recognize in this statute the right of the board to revoke a license summarily and without notice or hearing when acting on its own motion. Irvine v. State Board of Equalization (1949, Cal App) 40 Cal App 2d 280, 104 P2d 847, 1949 Cal App LEXIS 103.

In proceeding before administrative agency to determine whether license should be revoked, litigant may appear solely by his counsel to defend charges against him, and, having done so, his fortunes are linked with ensuing judgment. Molina v. Munro (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 601, 302 P2d 818, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1382.

Liquor licensees accused of suffering his premises be used as disorderly house was not denied right to counsel of his choice where notice of hearing, served on him pursuant to Gov C § 11509, stated that “you may be present at hearing, may be but need not be represented by counsel.” Givens v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 176 Cal App 2d 529, 1 Cal Rptr 446, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1513.

In proceedings to revoke liquor licenses, the hearing officer did not abuse his discretion in refusing to grant a continuance for the licensee to obtain copies of press releases issued by the department director in connection with disciplinary action taken against various licensees where the motion for continuance was made one year after the date accusations were filed and six months after commencement of the hearing and where there was no indication that the press releases would have disclosed evidence not already obtained by subpoena. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 73, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 208.
term “sexual perversion” as that term is known to average person, and testimony of psychologist in contradiction of clear, certain and completely accepted understanding of behavior in question was immaterial. Morell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 504, 22 Cal Rptr 405, 1962 Cal LEXIS 2270.

26. Evidence: Admissibility

In hearing before Board of Equalization, of accusation that liquor licensee permitted waitresses to accept alcoholic beverages purchased on premises, sufficient foundation for introduction of bottles containing drinks served to waitresses was laid by officer’s testimony that he seized drinks, poured them into bottles, sealed bottles, pasted identifying slips thereon, put bottles in storage and later delivered them to Department of Public Health for analysis. Mercurio v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 544, 318 P2d 494, 1957 Cal LEXIS 1321.

In proceeding to revoke liquor license on ground that known prostitutes were permitted to enter and remain on premises and solicit acts of prostitution thereon, conversations between agents of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and licensee's bartender and between agents and prostitutes were not inadmissible as hearsay, since fact in controversy was determined whether department acted within limits of its discretion in revoking license. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 25 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal LEXIS 2821.

In proceeding to revoke liquor license for sales under fair trade prices, it was not sufficient for licensee to make vague offer to prove that off-brands of distilled beverages were not in fair and open competition with other advertised brands allegedly sold by him below fair trade prices; offer of proof must be distinctly directed to some material fact, and where it is vague or fails to reveal what facts it is proposed to bring out, it is not error to reject it. Dave's Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 222 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 348, 1965 Cal LEXIS 1711.

In proceeding to revoke off-sale retail liquor license for sales under fair trade prices, it was not sufficient for licensee to make vague offer to prove that off-brands of distilled beverages were not in fair and open competition with other advertised brands allegedly sold by him below fair trade prices; offer of proof must be distinctly directed to some material fact, and where it is vague or fails to reveal what facts it is proposed to bring out, it is not error to reject it. Dave's Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 222 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 348, 1965 Cal LEXIS 1711.

Though relevant hearsay evidence that is the kind of statement on which responsible persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of their affairs (Gov C § 11513, subd (c)) may be admitted at an administrative hearing, in proceedings to revoke liquor licenses, except from a speech in a trade journal article allegedly referring to unfair practices in the sale of unspecified brands of alcoholic beverages attained neither the relevance nor the character required by the rule; and where such evidence could have furnished no more than slight corroboratory for documentary evidence already obtained by subpoena, the hearing officer did not abuse his discretion by excluding the article. Wilke & Holzheimer, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

Statements by a witness to agents of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, when they gave her free liquor on licensed premises, indicated that she had her this sort of thing before and knew that it was illegal, would have been inadmissible as evidence of the truth of the statements and on the issue ofentrapment, had this been raised, but were admissible as evidence of her disposition and readiness to violate the regulations at the time she made them. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1966, Cal App 4th Dist) 245 Cal App 2d 49, 65 Cal Rptr 495, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 2386.

Where the fact in issue was solicitation for prostitution and the truth of the girl's statements was not important, testimony by agents of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control regarding conversations with two girls was not inadmissible as "administrative" hearsay, though admitted in an administrative hearing; and the testimony was excluded under common-law rules. Since the declarants' statements were "operative facts" they were also admissible as original evidence. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 3d Dist) 246 Cal App 2d 198, 54 Cal Rptr 547, 1966 Cal LEXIS 1019.

On review by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board of suspension of a liquor license by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, the licensee could not properly raise a hearsay objection to testimony received by the department, where no hearsay objection was interposed at the hearing on which the department's decision rested, and where an appropriate objection, if sustained, would have enabled the department to elaborate on the issue involved; in such a proceeding, hearsay admitted without objection has probative value unless there is some evidence, admissible in administrative proceedings, to the contrary, that is, unless objected to, such evidence will serve to shift the burden of producing evidence of the existence or nonexistence of the fact disclosed. Kirby v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1969) 71 Cal 2d 1226, 81 Cal Rptr 258, 459 P2d 674, 1969 Cal LEXIS 316.

The constitutional provisions guaranteeing a person the right to remain silent and to counsel (U.S. Const., 5th, 6th and 14th Amend.; Cal Const., art. I, § 13) apply only to criminal prosecutions; and in a proceeding for the suspension of a bar owner's on-sale general license to sell alcoholic beverages, the bar owner's written admission that he had purchased a quantity of beer from an unlicensed vendor for resale his business was not inadmissible merely because it did not appear that the bar owner had been warned of his rights to silence and to counsel. Mundell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 4th Dist) 258 Cal App 2d 49, 65 Cal Rptr 495, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 2386.

In a proceeding for the suspension of a bar owner's on-sale general license to sell alcoholic beverages, the introduction in evidence of the bar owner's written admission that he had purchased beer from an unlicensed vendor for resale in his business did not deprive the bar owner of due process of law, such license to sell intoxicants is not a proprietary right within the meaning of due process. Mumford v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 4th Dist) 258 Cal App 2d 49, 65 Cal Rptr 495, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 2386.

In a proceeding for the suspension of a bar owner's on-sale general license to sell alcoholic beverages, the bar owner's written admission that he had purchased beer for resale from an unlicensed vendor was admissible in evidence as an exception to the hearsay rule. Mumford v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 4th Dist) 258 Cal App 2d 49, 65 Cal Rptr 495, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 2386.

Suspension of an on-sale liquor license for violation of rule prohibiting solicitation of alcoholic beverages by licensee's female employee for her consumption was supported by testimony that entertainer and customer, both employees of licensee, asked witnesses to buy them drinks, as against claim that such testimony was hearsay and inadmissible. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 595, 326 P2d 925, 1958 Cal LEXIS 1778.

Sufficiency of liquor law violation should be clear and convincing in order to justify imposition of penalty of revocation of liquor license. Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 843, 301 P2d 997, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

Evidence of liquor law violation should be clear and convincing in order to justify imposition of penalty of revocation of liquor license. Oxman v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 740, 315 P2d 484, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1551.

Suspension of on-sale liquor license for violation of rule prohibiting solicitation of alcoholic beverages by licensee's female employee for her consumption was supported by testimony that entertainer and customer, both employees of licensee, asked witnesses to buy them drinks, as against claim that such testimony was hearsay and inadmissible. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 595, 326 P2d 925, 1958 Cal LEXIS 1778.

Proof was sufficient to show that female employee was served alcoholic drink where bartender indicated that he was serving her "screwdriver," licensee testified that "screwdriver" as served in his place contained orange juice and vodka and there was no evidence that alcoholic drink was not served to female employee, in proceeding to revoke on-sale liquor license for allowing female employee to solicit alcoholic beverage from customer. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 596, 326 P2d 929, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1778.

Decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control Board that licensee, through his bartender, knowingly permitted woman to loiter in or about premises for purpose of soliciting customer to purchase alcoholic beverage for her; in violation of § 25657 subd (b), and order revoking license, were supported by substantial evidence where agent testified that two female persons were sitting at bar when he entered premises, that one approached him, said she was waitress and asked him to buy her drink, that this conversation took place in immediate presence of bartender, who fixed drink as soon as girl specified what she wanted and without waiting for order, that girl stated that drink contained vodka, and bartender, after he had furnished "double" of same drink, asserted to agent's statement that drink contained vodka, and that agent paid for both drinks. Greenblatt v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 189 Cal App 2d 787, 11 Cal Rptr 669, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2250.

Revocation of liquor license was supported by evidence that on specified date, two women each asked customer to buy her beer, which he did, and that both women were on salary paid by licensee. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

31. Sales to Minors and Intoxicated Persons

In proceeding to set aside order of Board of Equalization suspending liquor license on ground that licensee sold whiskey to minor, finding that board's decision was not supported by substantial evidence will not be disturbed on appeal where it appears that clerk in charge of cafe asked minor to show his identification as to his age, that minor exhibited registration card issued in name of another person, that minor signed piece of paper copying name of other person, and that clerk compared signatures, and made sale, there being fair resemblance between the two signatures. Young v. State Board of Equalization (1949, Cal App) 90 Cal App 2d 256, 202 P2d 587, 1949 Cal App LEXIS 969.

In mandamus proceeding to review order of board suspending liquor license, board's decision that licensee through his employee, the bartend er, committed minor to consume liquor on licensed premises in violation of subd (b) was sustained by evidence that officers observed minor sitting at bar, watched him consume bottle of beer which bartender served to adult who brought him there, and when next bottle was on him he poured part of its contents into his own glass, being reasonable inference that what officers saw was also observed by bartender. Marcucci v. Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 3d Dist) 138 Cal App 2d 605, 292 P2d 264, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 2407.

Department's findings that licensees sold intoxicating liquor to minor were sustained by minor's testimony that he purchased liquor in store operated by licensees, and by evidence that first four of seven numbers of federal stamp on bottle of liquor so purchased coincided with first four numbers on bottles of brand of liquor on shelves in store day after purchase. Brice v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 315, 314 P2d 807, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1494.

Evidence is sufficient to sustain ruling, suspending license, under § 25658, where it shows that minor was too young in appearance to be twenty-one years of age, that she weighed nineteen pounds more than person described in identification which she presented, and that she was three and one-half years younger than such person and had blue eyes instead of hazel. 5501 Hollywood, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 748, 318 P2d 820, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1251.

Liquor license for selling or furnishing alcoholic beverage to minor was sustained by evidence that waitress placed alcoholic drink on table and it was handed to minor, and it was no defense that minor ordered nonalcoholic drink and got alcoholic one through misuse of license by licensee. Nickola v. Munro (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 162 Cal App 2d 449, 328 P2d 271, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1895.

Suspension of on-sale liquor license for serving obviously intoxicated person was supported by evidence that person served walked in an unsteady manner and was unshaven, that his face was flushed and his eyes watery, that at time he slumped over bar as if asleep, that he was unshaven and yell out at one in particular and, on occasion, would laugh almost hysterically, that he would spit on floor and on himself, and that bartender shook him awake and placed beer in front of him, and by bartender's statement, when arrested, that "I didn't think he was so drunk." Samaras v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 180 Cal App 2d 542, 4 Cal Rptr 857, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2407.

Suspension of on-sale liquor license for permitting person under age of 21 years to enter and remain in licensed premises was supported by evidence that minor had been in premises for period of at least 10 minutes before investigating officer entered, that some of persons at minor's table went to bar and ordered drinks, and that bartender served drinks to persons without going to table where minor sat and without determining that persons at table were 21 years of age. Ballesteros v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d) 234 Cal App 2d 694, 44 Cal Rptr 633, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1054.

32. Keeping Disorderly House; Sexual Perversion; Nudity

The mere fact that homosexuals patronized a restaurant and bar for the purpose of illegal or immoral acts, and used it as a meeting or hangout, without proof of the illegal or immoral acts committed on the premises or resort thereto for such purposes was insufficient to show a violation of former Alcoholic Beverage Control Act § 58 (now § 25601), suspending the on-sale liquor license of the proprietor. Stoumen v. Reilly (1951) 37 Cal 2d 713, 234 P2d 969, 1951 Cal App LEXIS 325, superseded by statute as stated in Harris v. Capital Growth Investors XIV (1991) 52 Cal 3d 1142, 278 Cal Rptr 614, 805 P2d 873, 1991 Cal LEXIS 900.

Corporation's liquor license is properly revoked for violation of § 25601, prescribing use of licensed premises for purposes injurious to public morals, under evidence that numerous homosexual acts were committed on premises, liquor was sold to obviously intoxicated persons, and beer was sold to minors. Maxwell Cafe, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 73, 298 P2d 64, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 149.

Finding that licensee participated in procuring, counseling and assisting lewd shows at premises owned and controlled by him is sustained from his admitted knowledge that lewd performances had been given there on several past occasions, from his former association with man who rented place from him, from his failure at any time to do anything to stop lewd performances, and from fact that because of rental terms he was to some extent partner in enterprise. Jacques, Inc. v. State Board of Equalization (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 448, 318 P2d 1307.

Liquor license revocation for violation of subd a on a ground that continuance of license would be contrary to public welfare or morals, is sustained by evidence that, to licensee's knowledge sexual perverts met on premises and there engaged in sexual perversion without opposition from her and in more than isolated instances. Kershaw v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 544, 318 P2d 494, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 132.

Liquor license revocation for violation of § 25601, prohibiting keeping disorderly house in connection with licensed premises, is sustained by evidence that, to licensee's knowledge, sexual perversions at premises and there engaged in sexual perversion without opposition from her, may not have been punishable under Penal Code was immaterial. Nickola v. Munro (1938, Cal App 1st Dist) 102 Cal App 2d 449, 228 P2d 271, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1895.

Findings of department in revoking liquor license of taxi dance establishment that premises were permitted to be used for purposes injurious to public morals were sustained by evidence that one taxi dancer rubbed her hands against the leg of a witness and then "touching him in a public area" asked him to go home with her, that another girl demonstrated her "peek-a-boo" dress by exposing her buttocks to a customer, and that sexually suggestive dancing occurred. Adler v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 174 Cal App 2d 256, 344 P2d 336, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1693.

Even assuming that knowledge by liquor licensees or their agents of

Business and Professions Code 212
homosexual activity on licensed premises was necessary to sustain revocation of their license under subd (b), such penalty was supported by evidence that licensee's employees were on premises on all occasions when agents of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control made their investigation, that one of licensees admitted that he was present on all such occasions except one, and that much of objectionable behavior was observed in person and in full view of all present including employees. Morel v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 504, 22 Cal Rptr 405, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

Revocation of on-sale liquor license for violation of § 25601, concerning keeping of disorderly house, was supported by substantial evidence, where there was testimony that male patrons, in bartender's presence, caressed one another, that male patrons invited each other and agents to participate in lewd acts, that bartender greeted male patrons with lewd language and pantomimed unnatural sex practice, that vice agent was behind bar an employee invited officer to engage in lewd acts, and that patron invited agent to commit perversion denounced by Pen C § 225a. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

33. Violation of Department Rules, Fair Trade Laws, and Other Statutes

Finding that licensee sold and delivered alcoholic beverages to named vendor pursuant to order and failed to accompany said order with delivery orders in violation of Rule 17(e) of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in effect before rules revision October 15, 1957, finding of violation of subd (b), was supported by evidence where agent of department testified that licensee admitted to him that delivery in question had not been accompanied with delivery orders or invoices. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 797, 30 Cal Rptr 609, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

In proceeding to suspend off-sale liquor license, for retail sale of alcoholic beverages at less than fair trade price, certified copies of fair trade contracts and fair trade contract price schedules that had been duly filed with Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and that covered brands in question were in themselves sufficient evidence to support finding that beverages were in fair and open competition. United Liquors, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 450, 32 Cal Rptr 603, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

In proceeding to revoke off-sale retail liquor license for sales below fair trade prices, evidence must not be substantial, but competent and material; guilt must be established to reasonable certainty and cannot be based on surmise or conjecture, suspicion or theoretical conclusion or on uncorroborated hearsay. Dave's Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 222 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 345, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1711.

To warrant revocation of off-sale retail liquor license for sales below fair trade prices, evidence must not be substantial, but competent and material; guilt must be established to reasonable certainty and cannot be based on surmise or conjecture, suspicion or theoretical conclusion or on uncorroborated hearsay. Dave's Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 222 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 345, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1711.

The finding by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that a bar owner purchased beer for resale from an unlicensed vendor (B & P C § 22662) was supported by the evidence, where it was shown that the bar owner-respondent purchased five cases of beer from his part-time bartender, who had no resale license, and the evidence included the written admission signed by the bar owner-respondent to the effect that he had purchased such beer for resale in his business. Mumford v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 4th Dist) 258 Cal App 2d 49, 65 Cal Rptr 445, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 2386.

In a proceeding to revoke a liquor license, the record showed substantial evidence to support a finding of a violation of Pen C § 496, subd. (1) (receiving stolen property), where a quantity of merchandise belonging to a department store was found in the possession of the licensee at the time of his arrest, where he admitted receiving the property during a period of about four months, where the merchandise was received from a man never positively identified, who never produced an invoice for the goods, who never voluntarily offered a receipt of any sort for the cash payments made, and who never signed his name to a receipt prepared by the licensee, where, despite the fact that he admitted getting suspicious as early as the third sale, the licensee later purchased additional merchandise from the man, where the licensee had acquaintances take the merchandise over the Mexican border in small lots rather than as a bulk shipment. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 2d Dist) 3 Cal App 3d 209, 83 Cal Rptr 89, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1375.

34. Defenses; Estoppel Against Department

In license revocation proceeding charging acts prohibited by Pen C § 303, it was no defense that owner licensee was not shown to have specific intent assertedly required by that section, in absence of evidence that he knew or of directed acts of his manager and agent, since owner of liquor license has responsibility to see to it that license is not used in violation of law. Cornell v. Reilly (1954, Cal App) 127 Cal App 2d 178, 273 P2d 572, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1318.

Department was not estopped to revoke wholesaler's license, issued in violation of §§ 23779, 23781, notwithstanding that licensee, in addition to paying license fee, paid sum to his transferor, and that Board of Equalization retained physical possession of license but counted it in county quota, pursuant to allegedly established interpretation of administrative rule, where there was no evidence that licensee knew or of acts taken in obtaining or using the license, or that he had no evidence as to any representation, practice, custom or interpretation guaranteeing anyone fixed status as licensee. Josey George, Distributor v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 773, 308 P2d 773, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2089.

Fact that when hearing officer recommended suspension of liquor license he was employee of state board of equalization did not deprive department of power to adopt its findings and to order suspension of license. Brice v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 315, 314 P2d 807, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1494.

Assuming that defense of entrapment is available in proceeding to revoke on-sale liquor license for violation of § 25601, such defense was not established where record was without conflict that agents were solicited by patrons and employee of licensee to engage in sexual perversion, that intent to commit such acts originated in minds of those who made proposals, and that agents did no more than to afford those on premises opportunity for solicitation. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

Where liquor licensee knew that any agreement for reducing penalty of revoking his license to suspension, in return for his acting as informer, would have to be approved by director of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control for agreement to be binding on department, and where it was clear that licensee did not rely on any statement of director, but relied on alleged opinion of attorney for department that director would act in accordance with attorney's recommendation, such reliance, even if true, would not warrant application of doctrine of inchoate crime to delay agreement. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

There was no entrapment in the legal sense where the only possible claim of entrapment by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control agents rested upon the fact that they were males sitting at a bar, feignedly willing to be customers of soliciting prostitutes, and the originating intent was in the prostitutes with agile assists by bartenders. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 3d Dist) 246 Cal App 2d 198, 54 Cal Rptr 547, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1019.

35. Findings

Finding indicating that licensees were in effect promoting and conducting professional gambling operations, supported board's conclusion that licensees' participation in gambling offenses and their convictions of Pen C § 350 were contrary to public welfare and morals and constitute grounds for revocation of licenses. Jacques, Inc. v. State Board of Equalization (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 448, 318 P2d 6, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 130.

Finding that sale of alcoholic beverages at prices less than fair trade price, assuming arguendo necessity of finding that alcoholic beverages covered by fair trade contract and involved in the sales were in open and fair competition, licensee could not explain failure to prove such finding where only evidence on question was that such distilled spirits were in fair and open competition, licensees introduced no contrary evidence, and finding that stated sales were made at prices less than minimum sale

In proceeding to revoke on-sale liquor license, findings that there had been misconduct on licensed premises in violation of § 25601, concerning keeping of disorderly house, need not specify that misconduct occurred within conscious presence of licensee or his employees. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

In a proceeding to revoke a liquor license, findings may be made in the language of the accusation and need not be stated with the formality required in judicial proceedings. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 2d Dist) 3 Cal App 3d 209, 83 Cal Rptr 89, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1372.

In revoking a liquor license for the licensee’s conduct contrary to public welfare and morals under Cal Const art XX, § 22, and B & P C § 24200, subd (a), the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not err in failing to make an express determination as to a violation of those sections, where identical considerations were involved in the department’s determination that illegal and immoral acts on the premises constituted the conduct of a disorderly house on the licensed premises in violation of B & P C § 25601. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1972, Cal App 2d Dist) 25 Cal App 3d 331, 101 Cal Rptr 815, 1972 Cal App LEXIS 1034.

36. By Implication

Fair trade contracts for sale of alcoholic beverages cannot conform to requirements of § 24750, authorizing fair trade contracts fixing resale price of alcoholic beverages bearing trademark or name of producer or owner and in fair and open competition with others of same class, and cannot be filed as required by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control rule 99(b) in effect before rules revision October 15, 1961, unless alcoholic beverages covered by such contracts are in fair and open competition; therefore, finding that alcoholic beverages were in fair and open competition can be reasonably implied from finding that fair trade contracts were duly filed with department. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1965, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 777, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

In proceeding to suspend liquor license, for retail sales at less than fair trade price, finding of hearing officer that fair trade contracts were duly filed with Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control raised presumption that “fair and open” competition was ascertained and finding of hearing officer that fair trade contracts were duly filed with department was not required to make express finding that beverages were in fair and open competition; department was entitled to state its findings in language of pleadings, which made no reference to fair and open competition, and, furthermore, finding that beverages were in fair and open competition could reasonably be inferred from language in department’s finding that fair trade contracts had been duly filed with department. United Liquors, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1965, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 450, 32 Cal Rptr 603, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

In proceeding to suspend corporation’s liquor license, findings that one man was sole stockholder and president of corporate licensee after approximate date were adequate findings as to his status and duration of his relation to licensee. Jack P. Meyers, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 869, 48 Cal Rptr 259, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1208.

In proceeding to suspend corporation’s liquor license, finding that licensee’s sole stockholder and president “is unfit and improper person to hold alcoholic beverage license by reason of his record of arrests and convictions sufficiently established, for review purposes, that Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not believe that he was rehabilitated or fit, at time of decision, to hold license. Jack P. Meyers, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 869, 48 Cal Rptr 259, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1208.

E. RELIEF AND REVIEW

38. Generally

On appeal from revocation of liquor license for causing and permitting unlicensed female to dispense wine from behind permanently affixed fixture used for preparation of alcoholic beverages, there was no merit to claim that fixture was not used for “preparation” of alcoholic beverages because no drinks were mixed in premises, since preparation is broader than mixing and includes, for example, opening of container, and since such issue was raised for first time on appeal. Garcia v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 192 Cal App 2d 786, 14 Cal Rptr 59, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2002.

Where liquor licensee admitted charge in each of counts against him in proceeding to suspend his license and did not raise any question regarding sufficiency of allegations of counts or included offense of double jeopardy, it was improper for Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board to consider licensee’s contention relative to included offenses which was raised for first time on appeal from decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending his license. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 2d Dist) 197 Cal App 2d 182, 17 Cal Rptr 167, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 1328.

On appeal from judgment denying peremptory writ of mandate in proceedings for judicial review of decision to revoke off-sale retail liquor license, it was improper to order findings on record as to obscene condition each time hearing officer’s attention was directed to prior pending proceedings against licensee, officer stated he would not consider these prior matters unless they became final before he reached his decision, it must be presumed that hearing officer did as he said he would do. Dave's Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 222 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 348, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1711.

*) In proceedings to revoke liquor licenses, the validity of the hearing officer's ruling suppressing a subpoena duces tecum by which the licensee sought to compel the production of certain documents possessed by the department was rendered moot with respect to certain brands of alcoholic beverages where the counts in the accusations relating thereto were later dismissed. Wilke & Holzheimer, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 85 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 240 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

Since the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board exercises a strictly limited power of review over the exclusive power of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to issue, deny, suspend, or revoke licenses, the decisions of the department should not be defeated by reason of any error as to any matter of procedure, unless, after an examination of the entire cause, including the evidence, the appeals board shall be of the opinion that the error complained of has resulted in a miscarriage of justice (Cal. Const., art. VI, § 15). Reimel v. House (1969, Cal App 2d Dist) 268 Cal App 2d 780, 74 Cal Rptr 345, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1739, superseded by statute as stated in Chavez v. Zapata Oil Resources, Inc. (1984, 4th Dist) 155 Cal App 3d 115, 201 Cal Rptr 887, 1984 Cal LEXIS 1967.

In examining the power invested by Const. art. XX, § 22, in the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to revoke a specific alcoholic beverage license when it determines for good cause that the continuance of such license would be contrary to public morals, the Supreme Court is required to observe the distinction between private morality and public morality; therefore, the public morals, not the private morals of the officials or employees of the department must be the criteria. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board abused its discretion in affirming a suspension of a market's liquor license based on a single illegal act unrelated to the sale of alcohol by an on-duty employee of the market without the market's knowledge. The single criminal act of food stamp sales was insufficient to justify the suspension based on the employee's knowledge of her own criminal act, which was imputed to the market. To be reasoned and not arbitrary, license suspensions must further the goal of the constitutional and statutory provisions. That goal in general is to protect public welfare and morals, but it must be viewed in the context in which it arose, i.e., the sale of alcoholic beverages. Where a licensee's employee commits a single criminal act unrelated to the sale of alcohol, the licensee has taken strong steps to prevent such crime and is unaware of it before suspension, the suspension of the license simply has no rational effect on public welfare or public morals. Santa Ana Food Market, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1999, Cal App 4th Dist) 76 Cal App 4th 570, 90 Cal Rptr 2d 523, 1999 Cal App LEXIS 1034.

39. Mandamus

Department's determination as to whether license should be revoked or suspended cannot be controlled by mandamus. Joseph George, Distributor v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 702, 308 P2d 773, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2089.

In mandamus proceeding to review order of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending nonsale license for selling beer to minor, lower court erred in setting aside suspension despite the fact that five witnesses testified licensee did not make sale charged, while only one, the minor, testified that he did, the department having chosen to believe the minor. Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 177 Cal App 2d 785, 2 Cal Rptr 714, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2547.

On petition for writ of mandate to compel Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to vacate and set aside its suspension of liquor license, superior court should review evidence and findings in same fashion that appellate court reviews trial court's findings. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

Peremptory writ of mandate compelling Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to vacate its decision to suspend corporation's liquor license was improperly issued where uncontradicted evidence of arrests and convictions of licensee's sole stockholder and president supported findings of his unfitness to hold alcoholic beverage license. Jack P. Meyers, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 869, 48 Cal Rptr 259, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1208.

On appeal by licensees from the judgment in a mandamus proceeding to review a determination by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending a liquor license, the department overruled the validity of a decision finding that the licensee had established an affirmative defense to charges of permitting the entry of a minor on licensed premises where no appeal was taken from such decision. Lacalhanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

40. Finality of Department's Decision

That trial court or appellate court considers contrary finding as reasonable or more reasonable than finding made by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is not reason for either court to disregard or overturn finding made by department. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 688, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is not reason for either court to disregard or overturn finding made by department. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 688, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

Principles governing review of evidence before the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control differ from judicial review of administrative action to the extent that administrative action consists of declaring law drawn from facts found in an adjudicatory proceeding. The decision of the board is final, subject to review for excess of jurisdiction, errors of law, abuse of discretion, and insufficiency of evidence. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

41. Questions of Law

On appeal from suspension of liquor license, applicability of certain statutes to given situation presented on stipulated or uncontradicted facts is question of law, determination of which devolves on appellate court in accordance with applicable principles of law. Cohen v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 332, 32 Cal Rptr 723, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1783.

In proceeding to suspend liquor license, interpretation placed on written instrument by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, where intrinsic evidence has not been resorted to, though not binding on appeal, will be accepted by appellate court where such interpretation is reasonable, or where such interpretation is one of two or more reasonable constructions of instrument. Cohen v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 332, 32 Cal Rptr 723, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1783.

In proceeding to suspend liquor license where no extrinsic evidence was considered by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in aid of its interpretation of written instrument, construction is one of law, and appellate court is not bound by department's interpretation of instrument. Cohen v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal

On appeal from suspension of liquor license, where there is no factual issue of substantial conflict in evidence, question presented is one of law and conclusions of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control are not necessarily binding on appellate court whose duty it is to make final determination in accordance with applicable principles of law. Cohen v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 332, 32 Cal Rptr 723, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1783.

42. Questions of Fact

Decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control with reference to charges of misconduct brought against licensee must be sustained, provided department committed no error of law, if evidence is sufficient to support its findings. Mutual Reins. Co. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 332, 32 Cal Rptr 723, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1783.

43. Review of Evidence

A licensee's claim, that evidence at administrative proceedings for the suspension of its liquor licenses failed to show that beverages involved in the accusations against it were in fair and open competition, could not be upheld where it appeared that the department had submitted evidence that all brands involved were in fair and open competition with alcoholic beverages of the same general class produced by others and that the licensee, though clearly entitled to do so, failed to offer evidence in rebuttal. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

44. Record on Appeal; Notice

In proceeding to suspend liquor license, for making retail sales at less than fair trade prices, evidence that alcoholic beverages covered in fair trade agreement filed with Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control are in fair and open competition can be supplied by department's taking official notice of fact that there are countless brands of distilled spirits sold in this state that vie with each other for public favor through various outlets. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1965, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558; overruled Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

Claim of liquor licensees that revocation of their license was arbitrary because “legions” of similar violations have resulted in penalties less severe is not meritorious where proceedings against other licensees were not part of record before appellate court, nothing to show what charges were made or what evidence produced in other cases; in any event, there is no requirement that charges similar in nature must result in identical penalties. Coleman v. Harris (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 401, 32 Cal Rptr 486, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1791.

45. Weight of Evidence

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control under the Constitution exercises judicial functions and superior court cannot reweigh evidence on which department's decision suspending liquor license is based. Marini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 177 Cal App 2d 785, 2 Cal Rptr 714, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2547.

In proceeding under CCP § 1094.5 to determine validity of order of Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board affirming decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking liquor license as to two counts and reversing order as to another count, trial court's function is not that of weighing evidence, but rather of determining whether Board's findings are supported by substantial evidence. Greenblatt v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 189 Cal App 2d 787, 11 Cal Rptr 669, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2250.

In a proceeding to suspend a liquor license, neither the trier of fact nor the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board was required to weigh the evidence in accordance with the provisions of Evid C §§ 412, 413; under Gov C § 11513, technical rules of evidence do not apply to administrative hearings. Big Boy Liquors, Ltd. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1971) 71 Cal 2d 1226, 81 Cal Rptr 258, 459 P2d 674, 1969 Cal LEXIS 316.

46. Substantial Evidence Rule

In a proceeding of review of board's decision revoking liquor license was limited to determining whether decision was supported by substantial evidence. Maxwell Cafe, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 73, 296 P2d 64, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1940.

On appeal from superior court judgment in mandamus setting aside board of equalization's findings on hearing of liquor license violation charge, appellate court was required to test sufficiency of evidence to support board's decision by substantial evidence rule. Dethlefsen v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 3d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 561, 303 P2d 7, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1376.

In proceeding to suspend liquor license, court is simply called on to determine whether findings are supported by substantial evidence, in mandamus proceeding to review department's suspension of liquor license. Brice v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 315, 314 P2d 807, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1494.
48. Penalty Imposed by Department

Under Const Art XX § 22, Board of Equalization has power to suspend as well as revoke a license. Reynolds v. State Board of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal 2d 137, 173 P2d 551, 174 P2d 4, 1946 Cal LEXIS 284.

Revocation of liquor license could not be successfully assailed as deprivation of property without due process where State Board of Equalization acted within its jurisdiction, its proceedings complied with Administrative Procedure Act, there was no abuse of discretion, and its findings were supported by substantial evidence. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

When penalty of revocation of license is imposed on each of several counts of an accusation against liquor licensees, court need only find that one of several counts is sufficient. Presto v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1960, Cal App 3d Dist) 179 Cal App 2d 262, 3 Cal Rptr 742, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2228.

Where evidence amply supports order revoking liquor license, it is against public policy to reduce penalty to suspension of license on basis that licensees informed on agent of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control who was taking bribes and assisted in securing agent’s conviction. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

Since there is a public policy in favor of negotiations for compromise even in cases strictly criminal, a fortiori an alleged offer by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to a licensee of a settlement more favorable than discipline that was ultimately imposed was not, in and of itself, a ground for the setting aside by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board of the penalty ultimately adopted by the department. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Etc. Appeals Bd. (1971, Cal App 2d Dist) 17 Cal App 3d 255, 94 Cal Rptr 514, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1478.

49. Discretion

State Board of Equalization had broad discretion to determine what constituted good cause for suspension or revocation of liquor license, that licensee’s continuance of license was contrary to public welfare and morals. Jacques, Inc. v. State Board of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal 2d 448, 318 P2d 6, 1946 Cal LEXIS 1307.

Propriety of revocation of liquor license by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is matter vested in discretion of that agency and its decision thereon will not be disturbed unless there has been clear abuse of discretion. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

Propriety of revocation of liquor license by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is matter vested in discretion of that agency and its decision thereon will not be disturbed unless there has been clear abuse of discretion. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

47. Resolving Conflicts; Presumptions and Inferences

Function of both superior court and appellate court on review of decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking liquor license is merely to determine whether department’s findings are supported by substantial evidence, and the superior court is without authority to exercise its independent judgment as to the effect and weight of that evidence. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

The scope of review of evidence considered in revoking a liquor license, at each of the three levels of review, is the same and consists in the application of the substantial evidence rule to the original record of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is agency on which Constitution has conferred limited judicial powers, and its administrative determination respecting revocation of liquor license must be affirmed if there is substantial evidence to support it. Morell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 504, 22 Cal Rptr 405, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control being agency on which Constitution has conferred limited judicial powers, appellate court, in reviewing suspension of liquor license, is called on, where there are conflicts in evidence, conflicting interpretations thereof and conflicting inferences that may be drawn therefrom, to determine whether department’s findings are supported by substantial evidence; in this respect, appellate court’s function is same as that of court below. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 254, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278; Cohon v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 332, 32 Cal Rptr 723, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1785; Dave’s Market, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 222 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 345, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 171.

The decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in a disciplinary proceeding against a liquor licensee must be affirmed by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals board as well as by the courts where there is substantial evidence to support it. Reimel v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1967, Cal App 1st Dist) 252 Cal App 2d 520, 60 Cal Rptr 641, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1539.

In a proceeding for suspension of license, the findings of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control must be sustained if they are supported by substantial evidence, and the superior court is without authority to exercise its independent judgment as to the effect and weight of that evidence. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

The scope of review of evidence considered in revoking a liquor license, at each of the three levels of review, is the same and consists in the application of the substantial evidence rule to the original record of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

Where, in suspending liquor license, Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control determined that applicant for liquor license has submitted material fact under oath by omitting disclosure of his criminal record, it could be presumed on review that misstatement found was intended to be synonymous with dishonest misrepresentation required by this section as ground for license suspension, and thus presumed that applicant’s omission was purposeful, not inadvertent. Jack P. Meyers, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 238 Cal App 2d 889, 48 Cal Rptr 259, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1208.
§ 24200.1 BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE

In a proceeding to review a decision of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board reversing an order of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending a bar liquor license for one year on two counts of alleged crime conviction involving moral turpitude, the second of which was abandoned by the department as not warranting a license suspension, the abandonment of the second count did not entitle the licensee to have the cause remanded, where the suspensions as to each of the two convictions were separately imposed. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1969, Cal App 5th Dist) 270 Cal App 2d 535, 75 Cal Rptr 823, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 1555.

§ 24200.1 Additional basis for suspension or revocation of license

The following are additional bases upon which the department may suspend or revoke a license:

(a) Failure to take reasonable steps to correct objectionable conditions on the licensed premises, including the immediately adjacent area that is owned, leased, or rented by the licensee, that constitute a nuisance within a reasonable time after receipt of notice to make those corrections from a district attorney, city attorney, or a county counsel, under Section 373a of the Penal Code. For the purpose of this subdivision only, “property or premises” as used in Section 373a of the Penal Code includes the area immediately adjacent to the licensed premises that is owned, leased, or rented by the licensee.

(b) Failure to take reasonable steps to correct objectionable conditions that occur during business hours on any public sidewalk abutting a licensed premises and constitute a nuisance within a reasonable time after receipt of notice to correct those conditions from a district attorney, city attorney, or a county counsel. This subdivision shall apply to a licensee only upon written notice to the licensee from a district attorney, city attorney, or a county counsel.

(c) Notwithstanding that the licensee corrects the objectionable conditions that constitute a nuisance, the licensee has a continuing obligation to meet the requirements of subdivisions (a) and (b), and failure to do so shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action pursuant to this section.

(d) For purposes of this section:

(1) “Any public sidewalk abutting a licensed premises” means the publicly owned, pedestrian-traveled way, not more than 20 feet from the premises, that is located between a licensed premises that is owned, leased, or rented by the licensee, and a public street.

(2) “Objectible conditions that constitute a nuisance” means disturbance of the peace, public drunkenness, drinking in public, harassment of passersby, gambling, prostitution, loitering, public urination, lewd conduct, drug trafficking, excessive loud noise, or failure to comply with the minimum operating standards required by Section 25612.5.

(3) “Reasonable steps” means all of the following:

(A) Calling the local law enforcement agency. Temporarily calls to the local law enforcement agency that are placed by the licensee, or his or her agents or employees, shall not be construed by the department as evidence of objectionable conditions that constitute a nuisance.
(B) Requesting those persons engaging in activities causing objectionable conditions to cease those activities, unless the licensee, or his or her agents or employees, feel that their personal safety would be threatened in making that request.

(C) Making good faith efforts to remove items that facilitate loitering, such as furniture, except those structures approved or permitted by the local jurisdiction. The licensee shall not be liable for the removal of those items that facilitate loitering.

(4) When determining what constitutes “reasonable steps,” the department shall consider site configuration constraints related to the unique circumstances of the nature of the business.

(5) “Reasonable time” shall mean 30 days following service of notice pursuant to either subdivision (a) or subdivision (b) upon a licensee that objectionable conditions exist.

(e) Subdivision (b) does not apply to a bona fide public eating place, as defined in Section 23038, 23038.1, or 23038.2, that is so operated by a retail on-sale, or on-sale beer and wine, or a hotel, motel, or similar lodging establishment, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 25503.16; a winegrowers license; a licensed beer manufacturer, as defined in Section 23357; those same or contiguous premises for which a retail licensee concurrently holds an off-sale retail beer and wine license and a beer and wine under the licensee’s on-sale license; or a hotel, motel, or similar lodging establishment, as defined as in subdivision (b) of Section 25503.16; a winegrowers license; a licensed beer manufacturer, as defined in Section 23357; those same or contiguous premises for which a retail licensee concurrently holds an off-sale retail beer and wine license and a beer manufacturer’s license; or those same or contiguous premises at which a retail on-sale licensee or on-sale beer and wine licensee who is licensed as a bona fide public eating place as defined in Section 23038, 23038.1, or 23038.2, a hotel, motel, or similar lodging establishment, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 25503.16, a licensed beer manufacturer, as defined in Section 23357, or a winegrowers license, sells off-sale beer and wine under the licensees’ on-sale license.

(f) A hearing for a violation of this section shall be held within 60 days of an accusation being filed.

§ 24200.5. Additional grounds

Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 24200, the department shall revoke a license upon any of the following grounds:

(a) If a retail licensee has knowingly permitted the illegal sale, or negotiations for the sales, of controlled substances or dangerous drugs upon his or her licensed premises. Successive sales, or negotiations for sales, over any continuous period of time shall be deemed evidence of permission. As used in this section, “controlled substances” shall have the same meaning as is given that term in Article 1 (commencing with Section 11000) of Chapter 1 of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code, and “dangerous drugs” shall have the same meaning as is given that term in Article 2 (commencing with Section 4015) of Chapter 9 of Division 2 of this code.

(b) If the licensee has employed or permitted any persons to solicit or encourage others, directly or indirectly, to buy them drinks in the licensed premises under any commission, percentage, salary, or other profit-sharing plan, scheme, or conspiracy.

Amendments:
1955 Amendment: Substituted “department” for “board”.
1957 Amendment: Added “, or negotiations for such sales” wherever it appears in subd (a).
1963 Amendment: Added (1) “or dangerous drugs”; and (2) the last sentence of subd (a).
1984 Amendment: Substituted “controlled substances” for “narcotics” wherever it appears in subd (a).
2007 Amendment: Amended subd (a) by (1) substituting “the” for “such” after “or negotiations for” in the first sentence; (2) adding “or her” after “drugs upon his” in the first sentence; (3) deleting “such after “or negotiations for”; and (4) substituting “Article 2 (commencing with Section 4015)” for “Article 8 (commencing with Section 4210)”.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
Section is not unconstitutional as applied to liquor licensees in whose premises numerous narcotics sales took place, but as to which sales they denied personal knowledge. Kirchhubel v. Munro (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 243, 308 P2d 432, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2024.

2. Sale of Narcotics
Liquor licensee is responsible for acts of his bartender in knowingly permitting illegal sales of narcotics on licensed premises, under principle that licensed employer may be disciplined to extent of revocation of his license of acts of his employees. Endo v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 143 Cal App 2d 395, 300 P2d 366, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1615.

Subd (a) of this section is not unconstitutional as being vague and uncertain. Endo v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 143 Cal App 2d 395, 300 P2d 366, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1615.
Liquor licensee must effectively police his premises against successive sales of narcotics thereon by his employees or his patrons. Kirchhubel v. Munro (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 243, 308 P2d 432, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2024.
A search of a bar, made because of an anonymous tip indicating that narcotics sales were occurring there, which search was conducted without a warrant and pursuant to provisions of the Business and Professions Code was constitutionally reasonable. It advanced a substantial government interest in that B & P C § 24200.5, subd. (a) (revocation of liquor license for permitting illegal sales of drugs or narcotics), reflects a legislative judgment that the use of licensed premises for the purpose of drug sales poses a unique threat to the safety, welfare, health, peace, and morals of the people of the state that must be dealt with more vigorously than other illegal acts taking place on licensed premises. Further, the prerequisite of a warrant in such instances could easily frustrate inspection, and the statutes under which the search was authorized collectively provide a constitutionally adequate substitute for a warrant: B & P C §§ 25753, 25755, advise the licensee that inspections may take place during business hours and adequately limit the discretion of the inspectors as to time, place, and scope. Paulson (1990, Cal App 1st Dist) 216 Cal App 3d 1490, 265 Cal Rptr 579, 1990 Cal App LEXIS 10.

Although the use of the word “permitted” in B & P C § 24200.5 (revocation of liquor license) indicates that the statute may have been primarily directed to the situation in which a licensee allows others to sell controlled substances or dangerous drugs on its premises, it would be anomalous not to construe it to include also the situation in which the licensee himself carries out the proscribed illegal sales. People v. Paulson (1990, Cal App 1st Dist) 216 Cal App 3d 1480, 265 Cal Rptr 579, 1990 Cal App LEXIS 10.

3. Sale of Narcotics: Presumption of Knowing Permission

Petitioner whose liquor license was revoked cannot attack subd (a) of this section on ground that there was no rational relation between illegal sales of narcotics on premises by his bartender and the knowing permission presumed therefrom under that part of section declaring that successive sales of over continuous period of time shall be deemed evidence of permission. Endo v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 143 Cal App 2d 395, 306 P2d 366, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1615.

Presumption raised by provision that successive sales of narcotics on licensee’s premises shall be deemed evidence of his permission is based on natural and rational evidentiary relationship between facts proved and those presumed. Kirchhubel v. Munro (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 243, 308 P2d 432, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2024.

Liquor licensees’ employment, on week ends, of off-duty policemen to check identification cards and maintain order did not make inapplicable as to them presumption that successive sales of narcotics on premises were with licensee’s permission. Kirchhubel v. Munro (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 243, 308 P2d 432, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2024.

4. Sale of Narcotics: Evidence: Sufficiency

In proceeding to review decision of Board of Equalization revoking on-sale liquor license for violation of subd (a) of this section and § 24200.5 dispositive, Board’s finding that licensee did “knowingly permit” such sale was sustained by testimony that his bartender who managed premises made several sales of marijuana on premises within 96 hours. Endo v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 143 Cal App 2d 395, 306 P2d 366, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1615.

Findings that successive sales of narcotics over continuous period occurred at premises licensed to sell intoxicating liquors and that licensees were, under this section, presumed to know of sales were sustained by evidence of numerous sales of narcotics over two-week period and that considerable portion of patrons were marijuana users. Kirchhubel v. Munro (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 243, 308 P2d 432, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2024.

Revocation of on-sale liquor license was proper under evidence that licensee, who also operated liquor store at another location, did not personally operate licensed premises, but visited them about twice a week during afternoon when they were closed, that he hired bartender to operate business, that on numerous occasions sales of narcotics were made on premises by bartender, his wife, the cook and various patrons, and that premises had reputation as being hangout for addicts and pushers of narcotics. Fromberg v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 169 Cal App 2d 220, 347 P2d 123, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2058.

5. Solicitation of Drinks

Classification in Rule 143 of Board of Equalization forbidding female employees to solicit purchase or sale of alcoholic beverages on licensed premises is reasonable and does not arbitrarily discriminate against women, and rule has reasonable relation to legitimate ends for which board was created, is in harmony with purpose of Beverage Control Act, and is valid and constitutional as against charge that it is too broad and that Legislature had covered the field in enacting this section and § 25657. Mercurio v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1773.

To order a drink and take money from another's wallet for pay it is act of solicitation or encouragement within meaning of subd (b). Karides v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 164 Cal App 2d 549, 331 P2d 145, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1641.

Omission, in subd (b), of word “knowingly” which appears in preceding subdivision, indicates legislature did not intend to require actual knowledge by licensee in order to revoke liquor license for permitting solicitation or encouragement of others to buy drinks under any sort of profit-sharing agreement. Karides v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 164 Cal App 2d 549, 331 P2d 145, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1641.

Under subd (b), liquor license may be revoked although drink solicited is orange juice, since statute refers to “drinks” and makes no requirement that they be “alcoholic.” Greenblatt v. Martin (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 177 Cal App 2d 738, 2 Cal Rptr 508, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2540.

Evil that subd (b) is designed to meet is use of bar for purposes of commercial exploitation of customer, and it is immaterial that drink purchased for employee is nonalcoholic, particularly when price charged is exorbitant for such drinks. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1964, Cal App 1st Dist) 224 Cal App 2d 468, 36 Cal Rptr 697, 1964 Cal App LEXIS 1489, 99 ALR2d 1211.

Licensee who pays salary to female employee he permits to solicit purchase of drinks for herself has committed offense described in subd (b) of this section, statutory prohibition is not limited to solicitation of purchase of drinks for employees, but extends to direct or indirect encouragement thereof. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1964, Cal App 1st Dist) 224 Cal App 2d 468, 36 Cal Rptr 697, 1964 Cal App LEXIS 1489, 99 ALR2d 1211.

A finding that petitioner employed and permitted female entertainer to solicit and encourage patrons to buy her drinks under scheme or conspiracy by which she was to receive commission was supported as against objection that there was insufficient proof that champagne cocktails purchased for entertainer and consumed by her were alcoholic beverages, where she testified that she ordered champagne cocktails and was served what purported to be such, that she had champagne in her home and knew how it tasted, and that drinks served her in licensed premises were either champagne or cheap wine. Oxman v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 740, 315 P2d 484, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1551.

Violation of subd (b), by licensee was established by proof of conspiracy or profit-sharing plan or scheme between licensee’s bartender and entertainer whereby girl would solicit or encourage purchase of drinks by others, despite fact that bartender was acting outside scope of licensee’s orders to be very polite to customers and not to permit anyone to solicit drinks. Karides v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 164 Cal App 2d 549, 331 P2d 145, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1641.

Revocation of liquor license under subd (b) was supported by evidence that bar girl asked agents of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to buy her drinks, which they consented to do, that she expressed satisfaction at finding a “sucker,” that drinks at exorbitant prices were served to her, each containing a straw and a toothpick, and that she removed the toothpick from each drink and kept it. Greenblatt v. Martin (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 177 Cal App 2d 738, 2 Cal Rptr 508, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2540.

Suspension of liquor license for violation of subd (b) was supported by evidence that it was practice of salaried female entertainers, during off-stage hours, to mingle with customers at bar in licensed premises and accept drinks from them, that entertainers, even if invited for first drink, requested customers to purchase refills or themselves ordered refills for customer’s account, and that each expensive nonalcoholic drink served to entertainer contained pick which entertainer retained. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1964, Cal App 1st Dist) 224 Cal App 2d 468, 36 Cal Rptr 697, 1964 Cal App LEXIS 1489, 99 ALR2d 1211.

7. Notice and Hearing

In hearing on accusations charging violations of Cal Admin Code tit 4 § 143 [Cal Code Reg], prohibiting on-sale retail licensee from permitting female employee to solicit purchase of alcoholic beverage purchased or sold there, and subd (b) of this section, hearing officer properly sustained objection to questions asked of state narcotics agent called by licensee, since issue was not whether license-
§ 24200.6. Revocation or suspension of license

The department may revoke or suspend any license if the licensee or the agent or employee of the licensee violates any provision of Section 11364.7 of the Health and Safety Code. NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Mandamus

1. Generally
A writ of certiorari was not a proper remedy to compel the State Board of Equalization to cancel an illegal license permitting the sale of intoxicating liquors. Board of Trustees v. State Board of Equalization (1934) 1 Cal 2d 784, 37 P2d 84, 1934 Cal LEXIS 447, 96 ALR 775.

Former provisions merely prescribed procedure by which jurisdiction of State Board of Equalization was to be exercised, and to regulate that procedure, and were not designed to, nor did they, in any way impair constitutional power of board or even remotely attempt to regulate or define what jurisdiction that board should possess. Irvine v. State Board of Equalization (1940, Cal App) 40 Cal App 2d 280, 104 P2d 847, 1940 Cal App LEXIS 103.

While there is no inherent right in citizen to sell intoxicants, and license is merely permit to do what would otherwise be unlawful, it is policy of law that person should not be deprived even of permit to engage in legitimate business without fair and impartial hearing and without opportunity to present competent evidence for consideration by licensing authority in opposition to proposed revocation of permit. Irvine v. State Board of Equalization (1940, Cal App) 40 Cal App 2d 280, 104 P2d 847, 1940 Cal App LEXIS 103.

A partnership license must be revoked as to both partners. It cannot be valid as to one and invalid as to the other. Coletti v. State Bd.of Equalization (1949, Cal App) 94 Cal App 2d 61, 209 P2d 984, 1949 Cal App LEXIS 1490.

A partnership license must be revoked as to both partners. It cannot be valid as to one and invalid as to the other. Coletti v. State Bd.of Equalization (1949, Cal App) 94 Cal App 2d 61, 209 P2d 984, 1949 Cal App LEXIS 1490.

2. Mandamus
The right to apply for a writ of mandamus to compel the board to revoke a liquor license is not precluded on the ground that the petitioner has an adequate remedy at law under the Unlawful Liquor Sales Abatement Act. Covert v. State Bd. of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal 2d 125, 173 P2d 545, 1946 Cal LEXIS 283.
An on-sale liquor licensee had the right to appear as a party in a mandate proceeding to compel the State Board of Equalization to revoke his license, where he was named as a party by the petitioner. Covert v. State Bd. of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal.2d 125, 173 P.2d 545, 1946 Cal LEXIS 283.

A person whose complaint against an on-sale liquor licensee had been rejected by the State Board of Equalization had sufficient interest to institute proceedings for a writ of mandate to compel the board to revoke the license. Covert v. State Bd. of Equalization (1946) 29 Cal.2d 125, 173 P.2d 545, 1946 Cal LEXIS 283.

A judgment denying a writ of mandamus to compel the State Board of Equalization to annul its order indefinitely suspending plaintiff's on-sale liquor license and to reinstate the license would be reversed and the matter remanded to the board, where it appeared that the order of indefinite suspension was based on a finding that the plaintiff violated former Alcoholic Beverage Control Act §§ 58 and 61(a) (now §§ 25601, 25658), but only a violation of the latter section was established, that the plaintiff's prior record was clear, that the minor looked to be of age, and that usual punishment imposed for the violation established varied from a reprimand to a 30-day suspension. Stroumen v. Reilly (1951) 37 Cal.2d 713, 234 P.2d 969, 1951 Cal LEXIS 325, superseded by statute as stated in Harris v. Capital Growth Investors XIV (1991) 52 Cal.3d 1142, 278 Cal. Rptr. 614, 805 P.2d 873, 1991 Cal LEXIS 900.

Four years is the period of limitations within which a petition may be filed for a writ of mandate to compel the licensing authority to set aside an order revoking liquor licenses and to restore such licenses. Taketa v. State Board of Equalization (1951, Cal App) 104 Cal.App.2d 455, 231 P.2d 873, 1951 Cal App LEXIS 1639.

§ 24204. Notice of conviction under Pure Foods Act; Investigation

The Chief of the Bureau of Food and Drug Inspection shall immediately notify the department of the conviction of any licensee of any violation of the California Pure Foods Act in connection with alcoholic beverages. The department shall promptly cause an investigation to be made as to whether grounds exist for suspension or revocation of the license of such licensee.

Added Stats 1953 ch 152 § 1. Amended Stats 1955 ch 447 § 94.

Amendments:

1955 Amendment: (1) Substituted “notify the department” for “notify the State Liquor Administrator” in the first sentence; (2) deleted “and shall send a copy of the notice to the chief liquor control officer of the district in which the premises of the licensee are situated” at the end of the first sentence; and (3) substituted the second sentence for the former second sentence which read: “The respective officers shall promptly cause an investigation to be made and shall report to the board their recommendations as to suspension or revocation of the license of such licensee.”

Editor’s Notes—The “California Pure Foods Act” referred to in this Section formerly appeared as §§ 26450 et seq. of the Health and Safety Code; such sections were repealed Stats 1970 ch 1573. For disposition of the repealed sections in the “Sherman Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Law”, see table preceding § 26000 of the Health and Safety Code.

§ 24205. Automatic suspension

The license of any taxpayer shall be automatically suspended upon cancellation of his or her bond, or if the bond becomes void or unenforceable for any reason, or if the taxpayer fails to pay any taxes or penalties due under the Sales and Use Tax Law (Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code), the Bradley–Burns Uniform Local Sales and Use Tax Law (Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code), or the Transactions and Use Tax Law (Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code), when that tax liability arises in whole or in part from the exercise of the privilege of an alcoholic beverage license, or under the Alcoholic Beverage Tax Law (Part 14 (commencing with Section 32001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code). The license shall be automatically reinstated if the taxpayer files a valid bond, or pays his or her delinquent taxes, as the case may be. A suspension under this section for a tax delinquency may only be imposed if the taxpayer is at least three months delinquent.

Upon the petition of any taxpayer whose license has been suspended under this section, a hearing shall be afforded him or her after five days’ notice of the time and place of hearing.

Amendments:

1955 Amendment: Substituted “Part 14 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code” for “this division”.

1996 Amendment: In addition to making technical changes, amended the first paragraph by (1) substituting “the Sales and Use Tax Law (Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code), the Bradley–Burns Uniform Local Sales and Use Tax Law (Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code), or the Transactions and Use Tax Law (Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code), when that tax liability arises in whole or in part from the exercise of the privilege of an alcoholic beverage license, or under the Alcoholic Beverage Tax Law (Part 14 (commencing with Section 32001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code)” for “Part 14 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code (commencing with § 32001)” in the first sentence; and (2) adding the last sentence.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

1. Generally

Disciplinary action against a liquor licensee, on the ground that he permitted prostitutes to solicit in his bar (B & P C § 25601) was not precluded by unreasonable delay, where the violations charged took place within the three-year statute of limitations (B & P C § 24207), and where the delay was not shown to have been deliberate or prejudicial, but, on the other hand, could have been to the licensee’s benefit had he heeded the police warnings during that period. Munson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 248 Cal App 2d 598, 56 Cal Rptr 805, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1665.

When charges are filed within the statutory period, any delay is without legal significance. Munson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 248 Cal App 2d 598, 56 Cal Rptr 805, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1665.

§ 24208. Limitation period; Commencement

The periods of one year and three years referred to in Sections 24206 and 24207 shall commence to run as follows:

(a) If the act or omission alleged as the basis for the suspension or revocation of the license constituted a single transaction, then from the date of the transaction.

(b) If the act or omission alleged as the basis for the suspension or revocation of the license is of a continuing nature, relating to a condition, or if the occurrence of several acts or omissions is necessary for the institution of disciplinary proceedings, then from the date of the last act or omission.

(c) If the act or omission alleged as the basis for the suspension or revocation of the license involved fraud, misrepresentation, or concealment, then from the date of the discovery thereof.

(d) If the basis for the suspension or revocation of the license is a criminal conviction, then from the date such criminal conviction becomes final.

§ 24210. Delegation of power to hear and decide

(a) The department may delegate the power to hear and decide to an administrative law judge appointed by the director. Amendments:
1. Generally
2. Construction
3. Protests

1. Generally

2. Construction
Plain language of B & P C § 24210 does not limit its application to administrative hearings pertaining to the suspension and revocation of liquor licenses. Rather, the broad language of § 24210 establishes the intent to authorize the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to employ its own administrative law judges for the purpose of conducting all hearings under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act. County of San Diego v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2010, 4th Dist) 184 Cal App 4th 396, 2010 Cal App LEXIS 611.

3. Protests
Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not proceed in a manner contrary to law or in excess of its jurisdiction when it directed an administrative law judge (ALJ) to conduct an administrative hearing on a county’s protest against a casino’s liquor license application, even though the ALJ was not a judge with the Office of Administrative Hearings because B & P C § 24210 authorizes the department to employ its own ALJs for the purpose of conducting all hearings under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act. County of San Diego v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2010, 4th Dist) 184 Cal App 4th 396, 2010 Cal App LEXIS 611.

§ 24211. Reconsideration of penalty
The department may on its own motion at any time before a penalty assessment is placed into effect and without any further proceedings, review the penalty, but such review shall be limited to its reduction.

NOTES OF DECISIONS
1. Generally
2. Applicability

1. Generally
B & P C § 24211, limiting the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control’s review of a penalty assessment on its own motion to reduction of the penalty did not prevent the department’s imposition of a penalty greater than that provided by a compromise settlement it had allegedly offered a licensee prior to hearing; the section refers only to a reduction of a penalty at a time after the penalty is set by administrative action and before it is actually placed in effect by the department. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Etc. Appeals Bd. (1971, Cal App 2d Dist) 17 Cal App 3d 255, 94 Cal Rptr 514, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1478.

2. Applicability
B & P C § 24211, permitting the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control on its own motion at any time before a penalty assessment is placed into effect and without further proceedings, to review the penalty for the purpose of reducing it, cannot properly be applied to give the department discretion to impose penalties not yet conceived (much less enacted) at the time violations of the retail price statute occurred or its administrative proceedings were concluded. Liquor Sellers, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970, Cal App 1st Dist) 3 Cal App 3d 536, 83 Cal Rptr 567, 1970 Cal App LEXIS 1147.

§ 24300. Place for hearings
(a) Any hearings held on a protest, accusation, or petition for a license shall be held in the county in which the premises or licensee is located; provided, that hearings before the department itself on reconsideration or under subdivision (c) of Section 11517 of the Government Code may be held at any place in the state where the department is meeting. Except as provided in Section 24203 and in this section, the proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and in all cases the department shall have all the powers granted therein. The department, in its exclusive discretion, shall consider scheduling the hearing at a time, including evening hours, and at a place convenient to all parties to a proceeding, including those witnesses required to be present, and the public affected.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), if a protest is filed against an application for a license and the proposed premises are located within a city, the department may, in its discretion, hold the hearing within that city, unless the protest is filed by the governing body of the city, in which case the department shall hold the hearing within that city.

NOTES OF DECISIONS
1. Generally
2. Applicability
3. Abuse of Discretion
4. Evidence: Sufficient

1. Generally
In determining whether issuance of liquor license would be inimical to general welfare or public morals, Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is entitled to consider applicant’s integrity as shown by his previous business experience, kind of business to be conducted on licensed premises, probable manner in which it will be conducted, type of guests and probability that their consumption of alcoholic beverages will be moderate, nature of protest made to issuance of license, and any conflict that use of license might have with church in area and activities that it conducts. Koss v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 4th Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 489, 30 Cal Rptr 219, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2524.

2. Applicability
In determining whether facts established by substantial evidence constitute good cause for concluding that issuance of liquor license will not be contrary to public welfare or morals, Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control exercises discretion adherent to standard set by reason and reasonable people, bearing in mind that such standard may permit difference of opinion on some subject. Koss v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 4th Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 489, 30 Cal Rptr 219, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2524.

3. Abuse of Discretion
Where decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control as to whether issuance of liquor license would be contrary to public welfare or morals is reached without reason under evidence, action of department is arbitrary, constitutes abuse of discretion, and may be set aside. Koss v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 4th Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 489, 30 Cal Rptr 219, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2524.

4. Evidence: Sufficient
There was substantial evidence to establish that Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control was entitled to conclude that issuance of liquor license would not be contrary to public welfare or morals where applicant had been in food and beverage business for number of years.
and owned four establishments licensed to sell alcoholic beverages, where he proposed to operate premises for which license was sought as family-type resort, where he intended that alcoholic beverages would be primarily served in dining room and did not intend to use bar located on premises, where he proposed to operate business in the way that would not adversely affect church or neighboring residences, and where, since his purchase of premises, there had been no disturbing noise emanating therefrom. Koss v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 4th Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 489, 30 Cal Rptr 219, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2524.

Finding by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that issuance of liquor license would not be contrary to public welfare or morals includes finding of all special facts necessary to sustain it, which are supported by substantial evidence, and constitutes adverse finding on any evidentiary fact in conflict therewith. Koss v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 4th Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 489, 30 Cal Rptr 219, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2524.

§ 24310. Payments for cost of transcript; Refund of excess fee

(a) Any person requesting a transcript from the department in a case on appeal to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board, shall pay the transcript cost specified in Section 69950 of the Government Code. Any actual cost in excess thereof shall be paid by the Appeals Board from the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Fund.

(b) A party in a case on appeal to the Appeals Board who, in 1983 or 1984, has paid that portion of the transcript fee in excess of the fee specified in Section 69950 of the Government Code shall be refunded that excess by payment from the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Fund, providing the Appeals Board has not issued a dismissal or other final decision in the case on appeal.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. In General
2. Purpose
3. Constitutionality
4. Sufficiency of Agreement
5. Fair and Open Competition
6. Filing With Department

1. In General

If there was irreconcilable conflict between Cartwright Anti-trust Law and provisions of the former Alcoholic Beverage Control Act legislation in order to control contracts in liquor industry, latter legislation was to control. Nelson v. Reilly (1948, Cal App) 88 Cal App 2d 303, 198 P2d 694, 1948 Cal App LEXIS 1466.

A manufacturer of liquor did not violate either Federal or State Fair Trade Act by its contracts with plaintiff distributor specifying that retail prices to be charged by plaintiff to retailers should be in accordance with Fair Trade Act of California, since such control by manufacturer over resale prices was in accordance with this section which prevails in event it conflicts with any other statute. A. B. C. Distributing Co. v. Distillers Distributing Corp. (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 154 Cal App 2d 175, 316 P2d 71, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1607.

Under this section and under rule 99 subds. (a), (b), (f) of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in effect before rule's revision October 15, 1961, liquor licensees are prohibited from selling distilled spirits at retail except at prices fixed in fair trade contracts. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

Though mandatory fair trading means that retailers of alcoholic beverages cannot obtain merchandise free from price restrictions, this is due to the determination of the Legislature under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, not the action of the producers and wholesalers. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

To the extent that the retail price maintenance provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act enable a producer to control the bargaining process between those who sell and those who buy his own product, the legislature could reasonably determine that competition among producers, coupled with the bargaining power of those low-overhead retailers who desire lower retail prices, would provide a safeguard against excessive prices. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1969) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

The fair trade provisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act do not unreasonably restrict freedom of contract. In suspension proceeding against off-sale licensee for making retail sales of alcoholic beverages at price below negotiated price stabilization agreement, court considered whether fair trade provision of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act without regulating wholesale prices is reasonable. Miller v. Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968) 61 Cal App 2d 405, 1948 Cal App LEXIS 1466.

2. Purpose

It was not purpose of fair trade provisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act to reduce interdependence by establishing high prices generally but only by preventing increase of consumption of alcoholic beverages resulting from retail price cutting and bargain sales, and Legislature may take reasonable measures to eliminate some of the causes of evil without attacking all of them. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

Legislative purpose of preventing price cutting and price wars among retailers is effectively attained under fair trade provisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act by having each producer or wholesaler establish retail price of his own brand, and Legislature may reasonably proceed on theory that public will be adequately protected against excessive and unfair price wars by ordinary play of competition between manufacturers. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 144 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

Purposes of fair trade agreements under Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is to establish fair trade prices; considered as such, and not as agreements of sale, are supported by valid and sufficient consideration; mutual benefits are derived therefrom by contracting parties in that manufacturer or producer obtains protection for his trademarks and brands, whereas retailer is made secure from unfair competition and, more importantly, retailer is benefited by entering into agreement, since without fair trade agreement, retailer has no one to protect his or her interests in that manufacturers or wholesalers are not legislative in character but merely facts in contemplation of which legislation acted and on existence of which provisions of enactment were to be applicable. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 144 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

It was not purpose of fair trade provisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act to reduce interdependence by establishing high prices generally but only by preventing increase of consumption of alcoholic beverages resulting from retail price cutting and bargain sales, and Legislature may take reasonable measures to eliminate some of the causes of evil without attacking all of them. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

The fact that Alcoholic Beverage Control Act requires, rather than permits, producers and wholesalers to set retail prices does not render the function of a producer or wholesaler legislative in character but, to the contrary, decreases his discretion since he is not free to determine whether fair trading should occur. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

3. Constitutionality

The fair trade provisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act do not unreasonably delegate legislative power as if so far as they provide that each producer and wholesaler must set the price at which retailers must sell their products, since determination to be made by producer and wholesaler is not legislative in character but merely facts in contemplation of which the legislature acted and on existence of which provisions of enactment were to be applicable. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

Fact that fair trade provisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act provide for administrative and criminal sanctions does not involve any delegation of power, sanction being prescribed by Legislature, not by producers or wholesalers. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

Classification made by Legislature in regulating retail prices in fair trade provisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act without regulating wholesale prices is reasonable since Legislature could reasonably conclude that competition among the relatively few producers and wholesalers would not result in disorderly marketing conditions but that price stabilization with respect to far larger number of retailers, who sell directly to consumers, was necessary to prevent selling practices tending to increase sales and consumption of alcoholic beverages. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

2. Purpose

It was not purpose of fair trade provisions of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act to reduce interdependence by establishing high prices generally but only by preventing increase of consumption of alcoholic beverages resulting from retail price cutting and bargain sales, and Legislature may take reasonable measures to eliminate some of the causes of evil without attacking all of them. Allied Properties v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 53 Cal 2d 141, 346 P2d 737, 1959 Cal LEXIS 329.

The mandatory retail price maintenance provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act (§ 24750) are constitutional. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

The mandatory retail price maintenance provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act (§ 24750) are constitutional. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

4. Sufficiency of Agreement

In suspension proceeding against off-sale licensee for making retail sales at less than fair trade price, agreements offered in evidence satisfied the requirements of agreements executed pursuant to the fair trade provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act where agreements were entitled fair trade agreements and related to sale and resale of distilled spirits bearing on their label or container the trademark or name of the producer or owner, the products covered by the agreements were declared to be those in fair and open competition with products of same class produced by others, minimum retail resale prices for such products were stipulated by seller or owner, agreements provided that buyer would not resell except at stipulated price, they bore indorsements of filing with Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control or its predecessor agency, and appended to them were sworn official certifications that they were copies of fair trade contracts required by law to be filed with department. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

5. Fair and Open Competition
Fair trade contracts for sale of alcoholic beverages cannot conform to requirements of this section authorizing fair trade contracts fixing resale price of alcoholic beverages bearing trademark or name of producer or owner and in fair and open competition with others of same class, and cannot be filed as required by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control rule 98(b) in effect before rule's division October 15, 1961, unless alcoholic beverages covered by such contracts are in fair and open competition; therefore, finding that alcoholic beverages were in fair and open competition can be reasonably implied from finding that fair trade contracts were duly filed with department. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

Recession in Alcoholic Beverage Control Act that alcoholic beverages subject to fair trade price agreements filed with department be in fair and open competition relates only to manner of competing, not to results. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

In proceeding to suspend on-sale licensee's license, for retail sale of alcoholic beverages at less than fair trade price, evidence that alcoholic beverages covered by fair trade contracts were in fair and open competition with those of same general class produced by others were substantial where it was shown that contracts were filed with Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control; under CCP § 1963 subd 15, it is presumed that official duty has been regularly performed, and therefore, it could be presumed that department had satisfied itself that products to which they related were in fact in fair and open competition; under CCP § 1963 subd 19, it is presumed that law has been obeyed, and therefore, it could be presumed that department had satisfied itself that fair trade contracts were duly filed with department. De Martini v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 787, 30 Cal Rptr 668, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2558, overruled Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965) 62 Cal 2d 589, 43 Cal Rptr 633, 400 P2d 745, 1965 Cal LEXIS 278.

In proceeding to revoke off-sale retail liquor license for sales below fair trade prices, copies of fair trade contracts, certified by custodian of records for Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control pursuant to CCP §§ 1920 of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 222 Cal App 2d 671, 35 Cal Rptr 348, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1711.

Beer Price Posting and Marketing Regulations

Section 25000. Beer price schedules; Filing
25000.2. Definitions; Compliance by successor beer manufacturer who cancels existing beer wholesaler’s rights to distribute the product; Arbitration
25000.5. Sales territorial limits
§ 25000.2. Definitions; Compliance by successor beer manufacturer who cancels existing beer wholesaler's rights to distribute the product; Arbitration

(a) For purposes of this section:

(1) “Acquire” means to purchase, receive, assume, obtain, or otherwise come into possession or control of.

(2) “Affected distribution rights” means the distribution rights to the product held by the existing beer wholesaler prior to the acquisition of the right to manufacture, import, or distribute the product by the successor beer manufacturer.

(3) “Beer manufacturer” includes any holder of a beer manufacturer’s license, any holder of an out-of-state beer manufacturer’s certificate, or any holder of a beer and wine importer’s general license.

(4) “Cancel” means to terminate, reduce, not renew, not appoint or reappoint, or cause any of the same.

(5) “Existing beer wholesaler” means a beer wholesaler that distributes a product at the time a successor beer manufacturer acquires the rights to manufacture, import, or distribute that product.

(6) “Fair market value” includes all elements of value, including, but not limited to, goodwill.

(7) “Product” means a brand or brands of beer, as defined by Section 23006.

(8) “Successor beer manufacturer” means a beer manufacturer that acquires the rights to manufacture, import, or distribute a product.

(9) “Successor beer manufacturer’s designee” means one or more distributors designated by the successor beer manufacturer to replace the existing beer wholesaler, for all or part of the existing beer wholesaler’s territory, in the distribution of the product.

(b) (1) Any successor beer manufacturer that acquires the rights to manufacture, import, or distribute a product, and who cancels any of the existing beer wholesaler’s rights to distribute the product, shall comply with this section.

(2) A successor beer manufacturer’s designee shall comply with this section.

(c) (1) The successor beer manufacturer shall notify the existing beer wholesaler of the successor beer manufacturer’s intent to cancel any of the existing beer wholesaler’s rights to distribute the product.

(2) The successor beer manufacturer shall mail the notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the existing beer wholesaler. The successor beer manufacturer shall include in the notice the name, address, and telephone number of the successor beer manufacturer’s designee or designees.

(d) The successor beer manufacturer’s designee shall negotiate with the existing beer wholesaler to determine the fair market value of the affected distribution rights and, if the existing beer wholesaler and the successor beer manufacturer’s designee agree to the fair market value of the affected distribution rights, shall compensate the existing beer wholesaler in the agreed amount. The successor beer manufacturer’s designee and the existing beer wholesaler shall negotiate in good faith.

(e) The existing beer wholesaler shall continue to distribute the product to at least the same extent that it distributed the product immediately before the successor beer manufacturer acquired rights to the product until receipt of the payment of the compensation agreed to under subdivision (d) is made or is awarded.
under subdivision (f). The successor beer manufacturer and the existing beer wholesaler shall act in good faith regarding the ongoing supply and distribution of the product.

(f) If the successor beer manufacturer’s designee and the existing beer wholesaler are unable to mutually agree on the fair market value of the affected distribution rights within 30 days of the existing beer wholesaler’s receipt of the successor beer manufacturer’s notice pursuant to subdivision (c), the successor beer manufacturer’s designee or the existing beer wholesaler shall initiate arbitration against each other to determine the issue of compensation for the fair market value of the affected distribution rights no later than 40 days after the existing beer wholesaler’s receipt of the successor beer manufacturer’s notice pursuant to subdivision (c). Upon submission to arbitration, the arbitration shall be the means of determining compensation to the existing beer wholesaler for the fair market value of the affected distribution rights, and the fair market value of the affected distribution rights shall be the purpose of the arbitration unless the parties agree otherwise.

(1) An arbitration held under this subdivision shall be held in California through a private arbitration services provider with at least three offices in California and a statewide roster of at least 70 neutral arbitrators, of which at least 30 have prior experience as a sole arbitrator in franchise, distribution, or related business litigation.

(2) The direct costs of the arbitration, including any fees charged by the arbitrator, shall be borne equally by the parties engaged in the arbitration. All other costs shall be paid by the party incurring them.

(3) The parties shall mutually agree on an arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree on the arbitrator, the arbitration provider shall select an impartial arbitrator.

(4)(A) No later than 20 days after receipt of a notification to arbitrate, the parties shall complete an initial exchange of all nonprivileged documents and other information relevant to the fair market value of the affected distribution rights in their possession and control, including, without limitation, copies of all documents and the names of individuals who may be called to testify at the arbitration hearing. No later than 45 days after receipt of notification to arbitrate, the parties shall complete an exchange of the names of any experts who may be called to testify at the arbitration hearing, together with each expert’s report that may be introduced at the arbitration hearing.

(B) The arbitrator may modify the requirements of subparagraph (A) on a showing of good cause. The arbitrator shall permit third-party discovery and additional discovery between beer wholesalers, including depositions, which the arbitrator finds appropriate for a period of time not to exceed 90 days after receipt of a notification to arbitrate. No discovery shall be permitted against a beer manufacturer.

(5) The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties unless notice of appeal is filed, within 10 business days after service of the arbitration award, with the superior court of the county in which the hearing was held. Upon filing of the appeal, the court shall review the arbitration award for errors of fact or law by determining whether the award is supported by the sufficiency of the evidence presented at the arbitration. This subdivision shall further permit any other appeal or review that is authorized by the California Arbitration Act (Title 9 (commencing with Section 1280) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure).

(6) The arbitrator’s award shall be monetary only and shall not enjoin or compel conduct.

(7) The arbitration hearing shall conclude not more than 180 days after receipt of a notification to arbitrate, unless the time period is extended by mutual agreement of the parties or by the arbitrator.

(8) The arbitrator shall render a decision not later than 15 days after the conclusion of the arbitration unless this time period is extended by mutual agreement of the parties or by the arbitrator.

(9) A party who fails to participate in the arbitration hearings waives all rights the party would have had in the arbitration and is considered to have consented to the determination of the arbitrator.

(10) The Legislature finds and declares that several unique factors in combination warrant the Legislature authorizing limited mandatory arbitration between an existing beer wholesaler and a successor beer manufacturer’s designee solely to determine the issue of compensation for the fair market value of the affected distribution rights:

(A) On the issue of the fair market value of the affected distribution rights, the parties are sophisticated and in an equal position in their knowledge of this legal issue and understand the law and their legal rights, including their jury trial rights.

(B) The parties desire a mandatory arbitration provision to resolve the question of compensation for the fair market value of the affected distribution rights if the parties are not able to reach a mutual settlement so that product distribution can be continued in an orderly manner and the determination of compensation can be made in a timely manner.

(C) The state’s regulatory interest in maintaining orderly markets for the safe and efficient transportation, distribution, and sale of beer within the state warrants the statutory authorization for mandatory arbitration as provided in this section.

(g) If the existing beer wholesaler does not receive payment of the compensation under subdivision (d) or (f) not later than 10 business days after the date of the settlement or service of the arbitration award, and if there is no appeal or review filed under paragraph (5) of subdivision (f), the existing beer wholesaler shall remain the distributor of the product in the existing beer wholesaler’s territory to at least the same extent that the existing beer wholesaler distributed the product immediately before the successor beer manufacturer acquired rights to the product, and the existing beer wholesaler is not entitled to the settlement or arbitration award.

(h) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or prohibit good faith settlements voluntarily entered into by the parties subsequent to the successor beer manufacturer’s notice pursuant to subdivision (c).

Amended Stats 2007 ch 530 § 1 (SB 574), effective January 1, 2008.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality

B & P C § 25000.2 did not violate the contract clauses of U.S. Const. art. I, § 10, or Cal Const Art I, § 9, by imposing an obligation on an existing beer distributor to arbitrate the issue of the fair market value of affected beer distribution rights when a successor manufacturer cancelled the distribution agreement. Mussetter Distrib. v. DBI Bev., Inc. (2010, ND Cal) 2010 US Dist LEXIS 9021.

§ 25000.5. Sales territorial limits

(a) Every beer manufacturer, whether located within or without the state, who sells and distributes beer in this state shall designate territorial limits in the state within which the brands of beer manufactured by him may be sold by wholesalers of beer to customers.

(b) A wholesaler of beer shall not sell any brand of beer unless the following conditions are met:

1. The wholesaler has first entered into a written agreement, with the manufacturer of that brand, which sets forth the territorial limits within which the brand shall be distributed by the wholesaler.

2. A copy of the agreement, and any amendments thereto, has been filed with the department.

Amendments:

1984 Amendment: (1) Substituted “customers” for “retail licensees” at the end of subd (a); (2) divided the former first sentence of subd (b) into the present introductory clause and subd (b)(1) by substituting “sell any brand of beer unless the following conditions are met: (1) The wholesaler shall file a written schedule of selling prices to be charged by that licensee for any brand of beer unless he”; (3) designated the former second sentence of subd (b) to be subd (b)(2); and (4) amended subd (b)(2) by substituting “the” for “such”; and (b) “has been” for “shall be”.

(b) For purposes of this section, “beer manufacturer” includes any holder of a beer manufacturer’s license, any holder of an out–of–state beer manufacturer’s certificate, or any holder of a beer and wine importer’s general license.

(a) Any beer manufacturer who unreasonably withholds consent or unreasonably denies approval of a sale, transfer, or assignment of any ownership interest in a beer wholesaler’s business with respect to that manufacturer’s brand or brands, shall be liable in damages to the beer wholesaler. Recoverable damages under this section shall not exceed the compensatory damages sustained by the wholesaler and the wholesaler’s costs of suit. The fair market value of the beer wholesaler’s business shall include, but is not limited to, its goodwill, if any.

(b) If a beer wholesaler has been paid a consideration by a successor wholesaler for the sale, transfer, or assignment of the beer wholesaler’s interest in the sale or distribution of the affected brand or brands, the beer manufacturer shall be liable only for compensatory damages in an amount reflecting the difference in the amount already paid to the beer wholesaler, and the fair market value of the beer wholesaler’s business with respect to the affected brand or brands.

(c) For purposes of this section, “beer manufacturer” includes any holder of a beer manufacturer’s license, any holder of an out–of–state beer manufacturer’s certificate, or any holder of a beer and wine importer’s general license.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Applicability
3. Legislative Intent

1. Generally

2. Applicability
A prohibition of quantity discounts of beer, effectively required by Rule 105(a) of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, constitutes, not “price-fixing” requiring explicit legislative authorization, but merely a prohibition against price discrimination, for which no explicit legislative authorization is required (disapproving, to the extent inconsistent herewith, the rationale in Schenley Industries, Inc. v. Munro (1965, Cal App 1st Dist) 237 Cal App 2d 106, 46 Cal Rptr 678, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1234, overruled Ralphs Grocery Co. v. Reimel (1968) 69 Cal 2d 172, 70 Cal Rptr 407, 444 P2d 79, 1968 Cal LEXIS 234).

Rule 105(a) of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, effectively prohibiting manufacturers, importers and wholesalers from granting discounts for quantity purchases of beer, lies within the authority delegated to the department by B & P C § 25006, to promulgate rules that “foster and encourage the orderly wholesale marketing and wholesale distribution of beer,” and reasonably effectuates the purpose of the statute. Ralphs Grocery Co. v. Reimel (1968) 69 Cal 2d 172, 70 Cal Rptr 407, 444 P2d 79, 1968 Cal LEXIS 234.

3. Legislative Intent
What constitutes promotion of “orderly wholesale marketing and distribution” of beer, required by B & P C § 25006, is clearly intended by the Legislature, by its failure to include express provisions therefor, to be committed to the expertise of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control. Ralphs Grocery Co. v. Reimel (1968) 69 Cal 2d 172, 70 Cal Rptr 407, 444 P2d 79, 1968 Cal LEXIS 234.

§ 25007. Right of choice of customers
Except as provided in Section 25000.5, no manufacturer, importer, or wholesaler mentioned in this chapter is prohibited the right of choice of customers.

Amendments:
1957 Amendment: Deleted “or prohibited from dividing his customers into functional classes and establishing different prices for the same article for the different functional classes, such different functional classes being based upon the manner in which the classes sell beer, as wholesaler or retailer” at the end of the section.
1972 Amendment: Added “Except as provided in Section 25000.5.”.

§ 25008. Actions by trade association
(a) Any trade association having as members licensed beer manufacturers or licensed beer wholesalers representing more than half of the volume of beer sold in California for three months prior to the date of a filing of any suit authorized in this chapter may maintain an action to enjoin a continuance of any act or acts in violation of this chapter or any rule adopted pursuant thereto and, if injured thereby, for the recovery of damages. If in the action the court finds the defendant is violating or has violated any of the provisions of this chapter or any rule adopted pursuant thereto, the court shall enjoin the defendant from a continuance or further violation thereof. It shall not be necessary that actual damages to the plaintiff be alleged or proved in the action, and proof of a violation of this chapter or any rule adopted pursuant thereto shall be presumptive evidence of an intention to continue to violate this chapter or any such rule.

(b) Any trade association having as members licensed beer manufacturers or licensed beer wholesalers representing more than half of the volume of beer sold in California for three months prior to the date of a filing of a petition to intervene shall, upon the filing of the petition, be permitted to intervene as a party in any proceeding, whether before the department, any other administrative agency, or any court, which involves, in whole or part, the validity of any portion of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act or of any rule adopted pursuant thereto. Intervention shall be permitted, upon petition, at any time before a final determination or adjudication has been rendered in the proceeding. In the case of an adjudicatory proceeding, an intervening trade association shall have the same right to participate in discovery and trial as any other party.

Amendments:
1984 Amendment: (1) Added subdivision designation (a); (2) amended the first sentence of subd (a) by (a) adding “or licensed beer wholesalers”; and (b) deleting “produced and” before “sold in California”; and (3) added subd (b).

Amendments:
1965 Amendment: (1) Substituted “2016, 2018, and 2019” for “2021, 2031 or 2055”; and (2) added “or Section 776 of the Evidence Code.”

§ 25240. “Napa Valley” wine label; Designation
(a) Any wine labeled with a viticultural area appellation of origin established pursuant to Part 9 (commencing with Section 9.1) of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, other than the viticultural area “Napa Valley,” and which is located entirely within a county of the 29th class, shall bear the designation “Napa Valley” on the label in direct conjunction therewith in a type size not smaller than 1mm less than that of the viticultural area designation provided neither designation is smaller than 2mm on containers of more than 187ml or smaller than 1mm on containers of 187ml or less. This requirement shall apply to all wines bottled on or after January 1, 1990.

(b) The department may suspend or revoke the license of any person who violates this section.

(c) This section shall not apply to any wine labeled with a viticultural area appellation of origin established pursuant to Part 9 (commencing with Section 9.1) of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations when the name of the appellation includes the term “Napa Valley.”

Amendments:
2007 Amendment: Added (1) subdivision designations (a) and (b); and (2) subdiv (c).

Note—Stats 1989 ch 588 provides:
SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares:
(a) That wine produced in the Napa Valley from grapes grown in the Napa Valley has national and international recognition.

(b) That Napa Valley was designated a viticultural area in 1981 by the federal government which designation authorizes growers and vintners whose wine is derived at least 80% from grapes grown in the Napa Valley, to label their wines as Napa Valley wines.

(c) That since 1981 a few smaller areas have acquired separate viticultural area designations, notwithstanding that the areas are either entirely or partially within the Napa Valley and several other areas that lie within Napa Valley are being proposed.

(d) That the proliferation of viticultural areas within the Napa Valley has the potential of diminishing the historical, agricultural, and economic importance of the Napa Valley winegrowing area and confusing consumers.

(e) That it is necessary to require wines produced within the Napa Valley to be labeled as being derived from that valley, if the wine label indicates that they are produced within a separate viticultural area within the Napa Valley, in order to preserve consumer identification and understanding of the name “Napa Valley” and to protect this important state agricultural resource and wine products derived from that area.

Stats 2007 ch 674 provides:
SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:
(a) That wine produced in Paso Robles from grapes grown in the Paso Robles region has national and international recognition.

(b) That Paso Robles was designated a viticultural area in 1983 by the federal government, and that designation authorizes growers and vintners, whose wine is derived from at least 85 percent of grapes grown in the Paso Robles region, to label their wines as Paso Robles wines.

(c) California’s Central Coast is geologically different from other California winegrowing regions. The proximity of the Pacific Ocean, orientation of numerous canyons and valleys, and varying elevations produce many different distinct microclimates, including the largest variation between high daytime and low nighttime temperatures of any region in California because of the cool marine air that flows east through the Templeton Gap and south along the Salinas River Valley from the Monterey Bay.

(d) Since the early 1990s, Paso Robles wines have proven consistent gold medal winners and have been featured regularly in the top rankings of national and international wine reviews. A milestone in the worldwide recognition of Paso Robles as a premier wine region came in 1997 when a local product was named one of the top 10 wines in the world by the Wine Spectator.

(e) In the last eight years, the number of wineries in the Paso Robles wine country has tripled from 50 to 170, mostly due to an increase of boutique and small family owned vineyards and wineries. The appellation’s burgeoning reputation has also lured a number of winemakers from France, Australia, South Africa, and Switzerland who are eager to find new applications for their winemaking skills.

(f) The likely proliferation of smaller, separate viticultural area designations, while highly desirable within the developing Paso Robles region, has the potential of diminishing the historical, agricultural, and economic importance of the Paso Robles winegrowing area and confusing consumers.

(g) Thus, it is necessary to require wines produced within the boundaries of the existing Paso Robles appellation to be labeled as being derived from that region, if the wine label indicates that they are produced within a separate viticultural area within Paso Robles wine country, to preserve consumer identification and understanding of the name “Paso Robles” and to protect this important state agricultural resource and wine products derived from that area.

§ 25241. “Napa” label on wine
(a)(1) The Legislature finds and declares that for more than a century, Napa Valley and Napa County have been widely recognized for producing grapes and wine of the highest quality. Both consumers and the wine industry understand the name Napa County and the viticultural area appellations of origin contained within Napa County (collectively “Napa appellations”) as denoting that the wine was created with the distinctive grapes grown in Napa County.
§ 25242. Restrictions on sale of wine using name of Sonoma in labeling, packaging, or advertising

(a)(1) The Legislature finds and declares that for more than a century, certain California counties have been widely recognized for producing grapes and wine of the highest quality. Both consumers and the wine industry associate the names of those counties with the distinctive wine produced from grapes grown within those counties. If producers were to use the names of these counties on labels, for packaging materials, and in advertising for wines that are not made from grapes grown in the designated counties, consumers may be confused or deceived by these practices.

(2) It is the intent of the Legislature to assure consumers that the wines produced or sold in the state with brand names, packaging materials, or advertising that mention or refer to these California counties, in fact accurately reflect the origin of the grapes used to make the referenced wine.

(b)(1) No wine produced, bottled, labeled, offered for sale or sold in California shall use, in a brand name or otherwise, on any label, packaging material, or advertising, any of the names of viticultural significance listed in subdivision (c), unless that wine qualifies under Section 4.25a of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations for the appellation of origin that is located entirely within Napa County, subject to compliance with Section 25240. Notwithstanding the above, this subdivision shall not grant any labeling, packaging, or advertising rights that are prohibited under federal law or regulations.

(c) The following are names of viticultural significance for purposes of this section:

(1) Napa.

(2) Any viticultural area appellation of origin established pursuant to Part 9 (commencing with Section 9.1) of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations that is located entirely within Napa County.

(3) Any similar name to those in paragraph (1) or (2) that is likely to cause confusion as to the origin of the wine.

(d) The appellation of origin required by this section shall meet the legibility and size-of-type requirements set forth in either Section 4.38 or Section 4.63 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, whichever is applicable.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), any name of viticultural significance may appear either as part of the address required by Sections 4.35 and 4.62 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, if it is also the post office address of the bottling or producing winery or of the permittee responsible for the advertising, or as part of any factual, nonmisleading statement as to the history or location of the winery.

(f) The department may suspend or revoke the license of any person who produces or bottles wine who violates this section. Following notice of violation to the person in possession of the wine and a hearing to be held within 15 days thereafter, if requested by any interested party within five days following the notice, the department may seize wine labeled or packaged in violation of this section regardless of where found, and may dispose of the wine upon order of the department. From the time of notice until the departmental determination, the wine shall not be sold or transferred.

§ 25242. Restrictions on sale of wine using name of Sonoma in labeling, packaging, or advertising

(a)(1) The Legislature finds and declares that for more than a century, certain California counties have been widely recognized for producing grapes and wine of the highest quality. Both consumers and the wine industry associate the names of those counties with the distinctive wine produced from grapes grown within those counties. If producers were to use the names of these counties on labels, for packaging materials, and in advertising for wines that are not made from grapes grown in the designated counties, consumers may be confused or deceived by these practices.

(2) It is the intent of the Legislature to assure consumers that the wines produced or sold in the state with brand names, packaging materials, or advertising that mention or refer to these California counties, in fact accurately reflect the origin of the grapes used to make the referenced wine.

(b)(1) No wine produced, bottled, labeled, offered for sale or sold in California shall use, in a brand name or otherwise, on any label, packaging material, or advertising, the name of viticultural significance listed in subdivision (c), unless that wine qualifies under Section 4.25 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations for an appellation of origin that is either Sonoma County or a viticultural area lying entirely within Sonoma County and includes that appellation of origin on the label, packaging material, and advertising for the wine.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), this subdivision shall not grant any labeling, packaging, or advertising rights that are prohibited under federal law or regulations.

(c) The following name is of viticultural significance for purposes of this section:

(1) Sonoma.

(2) Any similar name to that in paragraph (1) that is likely to cause confusion as to the origin of the wine.

(d) The appellation of origin required by this section shall meet the legibility and size-of-type requirements set forth in either Section 4.38 or Section 4.63 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, whichever is applicable.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), any name of viticultural significance may appear either as part of the address required by Sections 4.35 and 4.62 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, if it is also the post office address of the bottling or producing winery or of the permittee responsible for the advertising, or as part of any factual, nonmisleading statement as to the history or location of the winery.

(f) The department may suspend or revoke the license of any person who produces or bottles wine who violates this section. Following notice of violation to the person in possession of the wine and a hearing to be held within 15 days thereafter, if requested by any interested party within five days following the notice, the department may seize wine labeled or packaged in violation of this section regardless of where found, and may dispose of the wine upon order of the department. From the time of notice until the departmental determination, the wine shall not be sold or transferred.

(g) This section applies only to wine which is produced, bottled, or labeled after December 31, 2008.

(h) This section does not pertain to the use of a brand name, or otherwise, which was the name of the winery owner as established prior to 1950.

§ 25244. “Paso Robles” wine label; Designation; Exception

(a) Any wine labeled with a viticultural area appellation of origin established pursuant to Part 9 (commencing with Section 9.1) of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations that is located entirely within the “Paso Robles” viticultural area shall bear the designation “Paso Robles” on the label in direct conjunction therewith in a type size not smaller than 1mm less than that of said viticultural area designation, provided neither designation is smaller than 2mm on containers of more than 187ml or smaller than 1mm on containers of 187ml or less.

(b) The department may suspend or revoke the license of any person who violates this section.

(c) This section shall not apply to any wine labeled with a viticultural area appellation of origin established pursuant to Part 9 (commencing with Section 9.1) of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations when the name of the appellation includes the term “Paso Robles”.

(d) This section applies only to wine that is bottled on or after January 1, 2008.

Added Stats 2007 ch 674 § 3 (AB 87), effective January 1, 2008.

Note—Stats 2007 ch 674 provides:
SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) That wine produced in Paso Robles from grapes grown in the Paso Robles region has national and international recognition.

(b) That Paso Robles was designated a viticultural area in 1983 by the federal government, and that designation authorizes growers and vintners, whose wine is derived from at least 85 percent of grapes grown in the Paso Robles region, to label their wines as Paso Robles wines.

(c) California’s Central Coast is geologically different from other California winegrowing regions. The proximity of the Pacific Ocean, orientation of numerous canyons and valleys, and varying elevations produce many different distinct microclimates, including the largest variation between high daytime and low nighttime temperatures of any region in California because of the cool marine air that flows east through the Templeton Gap and south along the Salinas River Valley from the Monterey Bay.

(d) Since the early 1990s, Paso Robles wines have proven consistent gold medal winners and have been featured regularly in the top rankings of national and international wine reviews. A milestone in the worldwide recognition of Paso Robles as a premier wine region came in 1997 when a local product was named one of the top 10 wines in the world by the Wine Spectator.

(e) In the last eight years, the number of wineries in the Paso Robles wine country has tripled from 50 to 170, mostly due to an increase of boutique and small family owned vineyards and wineries. The appellation’s burgeoning reputation has also lured a number of winemakers from France, Australia, South Africa, and Switzerland who are eager to find new applications for their winemaking skills.

(f) The likely proliferation of smaller, separate viticultural area designations, while highly desirable within the developing Paso Robles region, has the potential of diminishing the historical, agricultural, and economic importance of the Paso Robles winegrowing area and confusing consumers.

(g) Thus, it is necessary to require wines produced within the boundaries of the existing Paso Robles appellation to be labeled as being derived from that region, if the wine label indicates that they are produced within a separate viticultural area within Paso Robles wine country, to preserve consumer identification and understanding of the name “Paso Robles” and to protect this important state agricultural resource and wine products derived from that area.

§ 25245. “Lodi” wine label; Violation; Exception

(a) Any wine labeled with a viticultural area appellation of origin established pursuant to Part 9 (comm-mencing with Section 9.1) of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations that is located entirely within the “Lodi” viticultural area shall bear the designation “Lodi” on the label in direct conjunction therewith in a type size not smaller than 1mm less than that of said viticultural area designation, provided neither designation is smaller than 2mm on containers of more than 187ml or smaller than 1mm on containers of 187ml or less.

(b) The department may suspend or revoke the license of any person who violates this section.

(c) This section shall not apply to any wine labeled with a viticultural area appellation of origin established pursuant to Part 9 (commencing with Section 9.1) of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations when the name of the appellation includes the term “Lodi.”

(d) This section applies only to wine that is bottled on or after January 1, 2009.

Added Stats 2008 ch 75 § 2 (AB 2397), effective January 1, 2009.

§ 25350. Beverages subject to seizure

The department may seize the following alcoholic beverages:

(a) Alcoholic beverages manufactured or produced in this State by any person other than licensed manufacturer or wine grower, regardless of where found.

(b) Beer and wine upon the sale of which the excise tax imposed by Part 14 of Division 2 [commencing with Section 32001] of the Revenue and Taxation Code has not been paid, regardless of where found.

(c) Distilled spirits except (1) distilled spirits located upon premises for which licenses authorizing the sale of the distilled spirits have been issued; (2) distilled spirits consigned to and in the course of transportation to a licensee holding licenses authorizing the sale of the distilled spirits or for delivery without this State; (3) distilled spirits upon the sale of which the excise tax imposed by Part 14 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code has been paid; (4) alcohol or distilled spirits in the possession of a person who has lawfully purchased it for use in the trades, professions, or industries and not for beverage use.

(d) Any alcoholic beverage possessed, kept, stored, or owned with the intent to sell it without a license in violation of this division.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, any alcoholic beverage acquired, exchanged, purchased, sold, delivered, or possessed in violation of Sections 23104.2, 23104.3, 23394, 23402, or 24879, or Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 24749), 11 (commencing with Section 24850), or 12 (commencing with Section 25000) of this division, except that seizures under this subdivision shall be limited to the actual package or case of alcoholic beverage acquired, exchanged, purchased, sold, delivered, or possessed in violation of the foregoing provisions. Any seizure under this subdivision shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100) of alcoholic beverages at retail price.

1. Generally
Where the owner expressly prohibits the use of his taxicabs for transporting liquor, a procedure to forfeit one of the cabs for illegal transportation of intoxicating liquor by an employee, would be abhorrent to law. § 25375. Order for seizure of license to seek forfeiture

(a) Upon 10 days notice to a person who holds a license described in this division, the Attorney General or a district attorney shall seek an order from the superior court for the seizure of a license described in this division for purposes of seeking forfeiture of the license pursuant to Sections 11470 to 11492, inclusive, of the Health and Safety Code. From the time of notice until the hearing to establish probable cause, as provided by this section, the license may not be sold or transferred. The 10-day period may be extended by the court for good cause or upon the stipulation of the parties.

(b) A petition for forfeiture pursuant to Section 11488.4 of the Health and Safety Code shall be filed within 10 days of the service of notice pursuant to this section.

(c) At the hearing, the Attorney General or district attorney shall establish probable cause that the license is subject to forfeiture pursuant to Section 11470 of the Health and Safety Code. The showing of probable cause may be established by deposition, affidavit, declaration, prior judicial testimony, or other evidence. The licensee may produce evidence to refute the showing of probable cause.

(d) If the court determines there is probable cause that the license is subject to forfeiture, it shall issue an order for its seizure by any peace officer within its jurisdiction.

(e) If probable cause is not established at the hearing, or if the hearing is neither held within the 10-day period nor continued for good cause or by stipulation of the parties, the prohibition against the sale or transfer of the license shall immediately cease and the petition for forfeiture shall be dismissed.

(f) Immediately upon seizure of the license, the peace officer shall surrender the license to the department by certified mail, along with written notice to the department of the seizure and intend to seek the initiation of forfeiture proceedings. No person who holds any interest in a license shall exercise any privileges of that license after it has been seized and during the time it is surrendered to the department pursuant to this subdivision.

However, if the licensee appears and in any manner contest the showing of probable cause required by this subdivision, the licensee shall be barred from bringing a motion pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (g) of Section 11488.4 of the Health and Safety Code.

(g) Notwithstanding Article 5 (commencing with Section 23090) of Chapter 1.5 of this division, the Attorney General or a district attorney may seek a pendente lite order as provided in Section 11492 of the Health and Safety Code or Section 186.6 of the Penal Code relating to the custody, right, title, interest, and exercise of rights and privileges as related to a license described in this division which is the subject of a forfeiture proceeding pursuant to Section 11488.4 of the Health and Safety Code or Section 186.4 of the Penal Code.

(h) Rights and privileges related to any license which is the subject of a forfeiture proceeding and which has been seized and surrendered to the department pursuant to this section may be exercised solely by a receiver appointed pursuant to Section 11492 of the Health and Safety Code or Section 186.6 of the Penal Code. No license, rights, or privileges of a license may be exercised by a receiver until that person has been found qualified to hold a license in his or her own right by the department pursuant to this division and the license has been issued to the custody of the receiver. Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 23950) of this division does not apply to a receiver appointed pursuant to this paragraph. Any receiver appointed pursuant to Section 11492 of the Health and Safety Code or Section 186.6 of the Penal Code who exercises privileges of a license issued to his or her custody shall be subject to disciplinary proceedings and may have the license suspended or revoked in the same manner as if he or she were licensed directly pursuant to this division.

(i) Upon the entry of a judgment of forfeiture pursuant to Section 11488.5 of the Health and Safety Code or Section 186.6 of the Penal Code, or a declaration of forfeiture pursuant to subdivision (j) of Section 11488.5 of the Health and Safety Code forfeiting a license described in this division, the state or local government entity shall sell and transfer the license in accordance with Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 23950) of this division. The proceeds of that sale and transfer shall be allocated as specified in Section 11472 of the Health and Safety Code or Section 186.8 of the Penal Code, as appropriate.

(j) Any alcoholic beverage which is the subject of a judgment of forfeiture pursuant to Section 11488.5 of the Health and Safety Code or Section 186.7 of the Penal Code, or a declaration of forfeiture pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 11488.4 of the Health and Safety Code may be sold, transferred, and delivered by the state or local governmental entity, as specified in Section 11489 of the Health and Safety Code or Section 186.8 of the Penal Code, to a person licensed to sell that type of alcoholic beverage pursuant to this division.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally

2. Construction

3. Applicability

1. Generally

B & P C §§ 25500(a)(2) prohibits entities that supply alcoholic beverages from furnishing, giving, or lending any money or other thing of value, directly or indirectly, to any on-sale licensee; a supplier indirectly furnishes a licensee with a thing of value by providing a marketing-cost subsidy. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2005, Cal App 1st Dist) 128 Cal App 4th 1195, 27 Cal Rptr 3d 766, 2005 Cal App LEXIS 682.

2. Construction

California has a comprehensive statutory scheme restricting “tied-house” arrangements in the distribution of alcoholic beverages (B & P C §§ 25500–25512). The laws seek to avoid the evils and excesses of disorderly marketing conditions that plagued the alcoholic beverage industry prior to prohibition. The “tied-house” prohibitions target two particular dangers: the ability of large firms to dominate local markets through vertical and horizontal integration, and the excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by the overly aggressive marketing techniques of larger alcoholic beverage concerns. The Legislature recognized that small retailers were unable to cope with the pressures exerted by larger manufacturing interests. Thus, the statutes sought to remove the manufacturer’s influence over the retailer, which could result in preference for the manufacturer’s product. Under the statutory scheme, all levels of the alcoholic beverage industry must remain separate; producers are not to be involved with, or exercise influence over, retailers. Kendall-Jackson Winery, Ltd. v. Superior Court (1999, Cal App 5th Dist) 76 Cal App 4th 970, 90 Cal Rptr 2d 743, 1999 Cal App LEXIS 1066, rehearing denied (2000) 77 Cal. App. 4th 870a, 2000 Cal. App. LEXIS 2, review denied (2000) 2000 Cal. LEXIS 1539.

3. Applicability

Alcoholic beverage wholesaler’s sponsorship of athletic events conducted by a promotional company on behalf of a licensee violated B & P C §§ 25500(a)(2), and 25503(h) because the wholesaler indirectly furnished a thing of value by providing a marketing subsidy to the licensee and promotional materials were placed in retail locations; such conduct was incompatible with the goals of California’s Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, as set forth in B & P C § 23001. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd.
§ 25500.1. Listing of on-sale retailers as not thing of value or prohibited inducement

(a) Notwithstanding Section 25500, the listing of the names, addresses, telephone numbers e-mail addresses, or Internet Web site addresses, of two or more unaffiliated on-sale retailers selling wine, brandy, or both wine and brandy and operating and licensed as bona fide public eating places pursuant to Section 23038 selling the wine, brandy, or both wine and brandy produced, distributed, imported, or both distributed and imported by a nonretail industry member in response to a direct inquiry from a consumer received by telephone, by mail, by electronic inquiry or in person does not constitute a thing of value or prohibited inducement to the listed on-sale retailer, provided:

1. The listing does not also contain the retail price of the product, and
2. The listing is the only reference to the on-sale retailers in the direct communication, and
3. The listing does not refer only to one on-sale retailer or only to on-sale retail establishments controlled directly or indirectly by the same on-sale retailer, and
4. The listing is made by, produced by, or paid for, or any combination thereof, exclusively by the nonretail industry member making the response.

(b) For the purposes of this section, “nonretail industry member” is defined as a manufacturer, winemaster, distiller of wine, brandy, or both, regardless of any other licenses held directly or indirectly by such person. Except as specifically provided above, any payment for, making or production, either directly or indirectly, listing the names, addresses, telephone numbers e-mail addresses, or Internet Web site addresses, of on-sale retailers otherwise authorized by this section by a wholesaler or by a wholesaler that also holds an importer’s license shall constitute the furnishing of a thing of value or inducement to the listed on-sale retailers in violation of this division.

1. The listing does not also contain the retail price of the product.
2. The listing is the only reference to the on-sale retailers in the direct communication.

(2) deleting “Internet” after “by electronic”.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Construction
3. Applicability
4. Construction with Other Laws
5. Authority of Department

1. Generally
Section constituted ground for revocation of wholesale beer and wine license and wine importer’s license of wholesaler, where wholesaler’s officers owned such substantial amounts of stock in such licensee that they might be deemed to have ownership interest in licensee, and where also wholesaler, by reason of such stock ownership and by reason of interlocking directorship involving wholesaler and licensee, owned interest in premises covered by license. Boron Bros. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1963, Cal App 2d Dist) 215 Cal App 2d 503, 30 Cal Rptr 175, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2526.

Narrow prohibition contained in B & P C § 25503(h), which specifically prohibits only on-premises advertising, cannot be used to nullify the general prohibitions under B & P C § 25502 and the basic objective of the tied-house statutes to erect and maintain a tripeled–tiered system of distribution and licensing of alcoholic beverages. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal App 1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.

2. Construction
While a winemaker may hold an off–sale general license, and nothing in the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act specifically prohibits a winegrower from obtaining a beer and wine importer’s license, the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board properly construed B & P C § 25502, providing that no importer shall have any interest in an off–sale general license, as prohibiting issuance of a beer and wine importer’s license to a winegrower who already held an off–sale general license. Pronto Market No. 1, Inc. v. Alcoholic Bev. Etc. Appeals Bd. (1976, Cal App 2d Dist) 61 Cal App 3d 545, 132 Cal Rptr 236, 1976 Cal App LEXIS 1833.

3. Applicability

Winegrower, a licensed supplier, violated B & P C § 25502(a)(2) when it furnished money to a publisher to pay a portion of a licensed off–sale retailer’s obligation to the publisher to produce the off–sale retailer’s exclusive sales catalog. To limit the reach of the statute’s use of “furnish” to unilateral contracts would have invited suppliers to engage in subterfuges regarding fair value exchanges as a non–proscribed activity between suppliers and retailers and would have defeated legislative intent to limit vertical and horizontal integration of the alcoholic beverage industry. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal App 1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.

Suppliers are not allowed to advertise in the catalog of a single retailer under B & P C § 25502. There is no exception in the statute to allow suppliers to advertise in a generic trade association publication even if the publication does not benefit an individual retailer. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal App 1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.

4. Construction with Other Laws

B & P C § 25506, was not drawn to limit in any way the more general policy of segregation between wholesale and retail alcoholic beverage interests expressed in B & P C § 25502. California Beer Wholesalers Asso. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1971) 5 Cal 3d 402, 96 Cal Rptr 297, 487 P2d 745, 1971 Cal LEXIS 262.

5. Authority of Department
It is well within the authority conferred on the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control by Cal Const Art XX § 22, par. 9, B & P C §§ 25500, 25304(9) for the Department to determine that the “tied-house” law, B & P C § 25502, applies to certain transactions but not to others. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal App 1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.

§ 25502.1. Listing of retailers as thing of value or prohibited inducement

(a) Notwithstanding Section 25502, the listing of the names, addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, or Internet Web site addresses, of two or more unaffiliated off–sale retailers selling the products produced, distributed or imported by a nonretail industry member in response to a direct inquiry from a consumer received by telephone, by mail, by electronic inquiry or in person does not constitute a thing of value or prohibited inducement to the listed off–sale retailer, provided all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The listing does not also contain the retail price of the product.

(2) The listing is the only reference to the off–sale retailers in the direct communication.

(3) The listing does not refer only to one off–sale retailer or only to off–sale retail establishments controlled directly or indirectly by the same off–sale retailer.
§ 25503

(4) The listing is made by, or produced by, or paid for, exclusively by the nonretail industry member making the response.

(b) For the purposes of this section, “nonretail industry member” is defined as a manufacturer, including, but not limited to, a beer manufacturer, winegrower, or distiller of alcoholic beverages, or an agent of those entities, or a wholesaler, regardless of any other licenses held directly or indirectly by that person.

(As amended Stats 2000 ch 980, compared to the section as it read prior to 2000. This section was also amended by two earlier chapters, chs 162 and 979. See Gov C § 9605.)

2001 Amendment: (1) Substituted “e-mail addresses, or Web site” for “E-mail addresses, or website” in the introductory clause; and (2) amended subd (b) by (a) substituting “of” for “and/or” after “of those entities, or a wholesaler” for “or an agent of that entity, or a wholesaler of distilled spirits or wine”; and (b) deleting the former second which read: “Except as specifically provided above, any payment for, making or production, either directly or indirectly, listing the names, addresses, telephone numbers, E-mail addresses, or website addresses, of off-sale retailers selling beer otherwise authorized by this section by a wholesaler of beer or by a wholesaler of beer that also holds an importer’s license shall constitute the furnishing of a thing of value or inducement to the listed off-sale retailers in violation of this subdivision.”

2010 Amendment: Amended the introductory clause of subd (a) by (1) adding “Internet” before “Web site”; and (2) deleting “Internet” after “by electronic.”

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Constitutionality
3. Construction
4. Applicability

1. Generally
In light of B & P C § 25503, subd. (c), prohibiting distillers and wholesalers from indirect or direct price discrimination among retailers, and in light of the presumption of validity generally attaching to an administrative regulation, a regulation promulgated by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (Cal. Admin. Code. tit. 4, § 100(f)(4)), prohibiting price discounts conditioned upon “the purchase of any specific item or items of distilled spirits in any quantity,” was valid as a proper implementation of the Department’s statutory authority. Schenley Affiliated Brands Corp. v. Kirby (1971, Cal.App.3d Dist) 21 Cal App 3d 177, 98 Cal Rptr 609, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1063.

2. Constitutionality
The state Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control’s interpretation of B & P C § 25503(h), forbidding manufacturers and distributors of alcoholic beverages from paying retail establishments to advertise their products, as prohibiting these groups from using the advertising displays of a corporation whose business consisted of leasing advertising space on supermarket carts, did not violate the corporation’s right to engage in commercial speech as guaranteed by the United States Constitution’s First Amendment. Section 25503(h) furthers the state’s purposes both of limiting the ability of large alcoholic-beverage manufacturers and wholesalers to achieve vertical and horizontal integration by acquiring influences over the state’s retail outlets and of promoting temperance among the state’s residents. Further, the proviso is not broader than necessary to achieve these purposes. Actmedia, Inc. v. Stroh (1986, 9th Cir Cal) 830 F2d 957, 1986 US App LEXIS 25087.

3. Construction
Narrow prohibition contained in B & P C § 25503(h), which specifically prohibits only on-premises advertising, cannot be used to nullify the general prohibition under B & P C § 25502 and the basic objective of the tied-house statutes to erect and maintain a triple-tiered system of distribution and licensing of alcoholic beverages. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002, Cal.App.1st Dist) 100 Cal App 4th 1066, 123 Cal Rptr 2d 278, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4471.

4. Applicability
Wholesale liquor dealers giving cash refunds from five to ten per cent of invoice price, based on the amount of the sale, to all customers alike, and in accordance with a general practice of the trade known to the Board of Equalization, were not guilty of giving secret rebates or making secret concessions. Polley v. Westover (1948, SD Cal) 77 F Supp 973, 1948 US Dist LEXIS 2782.
The payment of a dividend to the stockholder members of a cooperative corporation holding an off-sale wine and beer wholesaler’s license is not a violation of this statute. (2) Only in connection with alcoholic beverages manufactured, produced or sold by such licensee, to furnish, give, lend, rent or sell decorations and decorative materials, including holiday decorations, paintings and pictures, to an off-sale retail licensee for use in the windows and elsewhere in the interior of the retail premises in connection with advertising and promotional material or displays in the premises of such retailer; provided, that the advertising and promotional material shall have no intrinsic value other than as advertising and that the total original cost of all such decorations and decorative materials, including holiday decorations, paintings and pictures furnished by any licensee and in use at any one time in any one off-sale retail premise shall not exceed the amount established by rules of the department; and provided, that the licensee or any officer, director or agent of such licensee shall not directly or indirectly pay or credit the retailer for the display of such decorations or decorative materials or for any expense incidental to their operation.
(3) To furnish, give, lend, rent or sell to an off-sale retailer who sells the alcoholic beverages of such licensee, newspaper cuts, mats, or engraved blocks for use in the retailer’s advertisements relating to such alcoholic beverages.
(b) Anything in this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding, any holder of a wholesaler’s license may manufacture, and distribute, sell, or rent any lawful product to any person engaged in operating, owning, or maintaining any retail premises where alcoholic beverages are sold; provided, however, that such products are sold or rented by the holder of the wholesaler’s license to the licensee at a price not less than the

§ 25503.2. Authorized services with respect to off-sale retail licensees’ stock

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision in this division, any winemaker, wine blender, beer manufacturer, brandy manufacturer, distilled spirits manufacturer, distilled spirits manufacturer’s agent, rectifier, distilled spirits wholesaler, and beer and wine wholesaler, or the authorized agent or agents or representatives of that licensee, may perform any of the following services for off-sale retail licensees at or on the premises of the off-sale retail licensee with the retail licensee’s permission:

(1) Stack or arrange cases of the brand or brands of alcoholic beverages owned or sold by the licensee performing the service in the storeroom or warehouse where the off-sale retail licensee stores the brand or brands.

(2) Rotate the brand or brands owned or sold by the licensee performing the service on shelves and in refrigerated boxes, and rearrange bottles or packages of the brand or brands by moving the bottles or packages horizontally or vertically from shelf to shelf in the space and shelves allocated to the brand or brands. This paragraph does not permit the removal of any brand or brands of alcoholic beverages, except beer, which are owned or sold by the licensee performing the service, from the storeroom or other place belonging to an off-sale retailer for the purpose of replacing alcoholic beverages on or restocking shelves or refrigerated boxes.

(3) Take an inventory of an off-sale retailer’s stock of a brand or brands of alcoholic beverages which are owned or sold by the licensee performing the service and which are in the stockroom or other place belonging to the off-sale retailer.

(4) Service the brand or brands of alcoholic beverages owned or sold by the licensee performing the service which are on shelves, fixtures, or other display pieces at the off-sale retail premises, including, but not limited to dusting bottles and shelves and refrigerated boxes allocated to the brand or brands at the retail premises. The licensees authorized to render services by this section and their agents and representatives may not price-mark individual containers of the brand of alcoholic beverages, except beer, owned or sold by the licensee performing the service, except for individual bottles used on floor displays, so as to result in a violation of this division.

(5) Rotate or rearrange the brand or brands of wine or distilled spirits owned or sold by the licensee on, in, or among permanent shelves, permanent fixtures, refrigerated boxes, or floor or other displays or display pieces; stock the brand or brands onto or into floor or other displays or display pieces; and stock the brand or brands onto or into permanent shelves, permanent fixtures, or refrigerated boxes for the sole purposes of the introduction of new products, the resetting or rearrangement of existing products, or the setting or arranging of new stores. Incidental touching or rearrangement of the brand or brands of another licensee by a licensee performing any of the services authorized by this paragraph for the sole purpose of accessing permanent shelves, permanent fixtures, and other spaces allocated to the licensee performing the service shall not be deemed to be a violation of any provision of this division provided the other licensee’s brands are not removed from spaces allocated to that licensee. Nothing in this paragraph permits stocking permanent shelves, permanent fixtures, or refrigerated boxes for regular inventory replenishment.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision in this division, any beer manufacturer or beer and wine wholesaler, or the authorized agent or agents or representatives of that licensee, may perform any of the services specified in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, of subdivision (a), with respect to beer, for on-sale retail licensees at or on the premises of the on-sale retail licensees with the retail licensee’s permission.

(2) Neither that person, nor any officer, director, or agent of that person, enters into any collusive scheme, whereby he or she unfairly sells or promotes, in his or her on-sale businesses, the wine of another winegrower who manufactures, produces, bottles, processes, imports, or sells wine only, in return for his or her wine being unfairly sold or promoted in the on-sale businesses of that winegrower.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, any licensed winegrower or any winegrower who has a wholesale license, or any officer, director, or agent of that person, may hold, directly or indirectly, the ownership of any interest in an on-sale license, provided that each of the following conditions is met:

(1) The on-sale licensed premises are licensed as a bona fide public eating place as defined in Section 23038, or as a bona fide bed and breakfast inn as defined in Section 24045.11.

(3) The licensed winegrower and any officer, director, or agent of that person, whether individually or in the aggregate, do not sell and serve the wine products produced or bottled under any brand or trade name owned by that winegrower through more than two on-sale licensed premises in which any of them holds an ownership interest.

(4) The number of wine items by brand offered for sale by the on-sale licensed premises that are produced, bottled, processed, imported, or sold by the licensed winegrower or by any person holding any interest in the winegrower does not exceed 15 percent of the total wine items by brand listed and offered for sale in the licensed bona fide public eating place selling and serving that wine. This paragraph does not apply to a bona fide bed and breakfast inn.

(c) The Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to require a separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques. (a) Anything in this division to the contrary notwithstanding, any manufacturer, winegrower, manufacturer's agent, rectifier, California winegrower's agent, distiller, bottler, importer, wholesaler, or any officer, director, agent, or representative of any such person, may provide to licensed retailers and the employees of those retailers who are involved in the business decisions of those retailers, both of the following:

§ 25503.28. Ownership of licensed beer manufacture by holder of on-sale licenses
(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, the holder of no more than six on-sale licenses, or any officer, director, employee, or agent of that licensee, may own a licensed beer manufacturer holding a license pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision (1) of Section 23320, and may serve on the board of directors and as an officer or employee of a licensed beer manufacturer.

(c) The Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to require a separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques. The Legislature further finds that the exception established by this section to the general prohibition against tied interests must be limited to its expressed terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and intends that this section be construed accordingly.

§ 25503.29. Sale of license for premises that are part of motion picture or television theme park
(a) Nothing in this division shall prohibit the issuance, transfer, or renewal of any retail on-sale license to any person with respect to premises that are either an integral part of, or adjacent to, the operations of a motion picture or television production facility or an affiliated motion picture or television theme park, which premises are owned by, or operated by or on behalf of, the licensee, notwithstanding that a manufacturer, winegrower, manufacturer’s agent, California winegrower’s agent, rectifier, distiller, bottler, importer, or wholesaler has any interest, directly or indirectly, in the premises, in the retail license, or in the retail licensee, if all of the following conditions are met:

1. No more than 10 percent of the total gross annual revenues of the motion picture or television production facility and any affiliated theme park is derived from the sale of alcoholic beverages.
2. The retail licensee shall purchase no beer, wine, or distilled spirits for sale in this state other than from a wholesale licensee, and the retail licensee shall purchase no alcoholic beverages for sale in this state from any wholesale licensee that has any interest, directly or indirectly, in the premises, in the retail license, or in the retail license.
3. The retail licensee serves other brands of beer, wine, and distilled spirits in addition to the brands manufactured or distributed by the beer or distilled spirits manufacturer or produced or distributed by the winegrower which has any interest, directly or indirectly, in the premises, in the retail license, or in the retail license.
4. No more than 15 percent of the retail licensee’s purchases of alcoholic beverages for sale on its licensed premises shall be products manufactured or distributed by the beer or distilled spirits manufacturer or produced or distributed by the winegrower which has any interest, directly or indirectly, in the premises, in the retail license, or in the retail license.

(b) For purposes of this section:
1. “Motion picture or television production facility” means an establishment where motion pictures or television programs are produced.
2. “Motion picture or television theme park” means an establishment with not less than 25 contiguous acres, located in Los Angeles County, the predominant purpose of which is the entertainment of the public through activities related to motion pictures and television programs, that has an annual paid attendance of at least three million people.
3. “Adjacent to” means located on commonly owned property, or contiguous to, or in close proximity.

(c) The Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to require a separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques. The Legislature further finds that the exception established by this section to the general prohibition against tied interests must be limited to its expressed terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and intends that this section be construed accordingly.

§ 25503.30. Winegrower's interest in on-sale license

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, a winegrower or one or more of its direct or indirect subsidiaries of which the winegrower owns not less than a 51–percent interest, who manufactures, produces, bottles, processes, imports, or sells wine and distilled spirits made from grape wine or other grape products only, under a winegrower's license or any other license issued pursuant to this division, or any officer or director of, or any person holding any interest in, those persons may serve as an officer or director of, and may hold the ownership of any interest or any financial or representative relationship in, any on-sale license, or the business conducted under that license, provided that, except in the case of a holder of on-sale general licenses for airplanes and duplicate on-sale general licenses for air common carriers, all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The on-sale licensee purchases all alcoholic beverages sold and served only from California wholesale licensees.

(2) The number of wine items by brand offered for sale by the on-sale licensee that are produced, bottled, processed, imported, or sold by the licensed winegrower or by the subsidiary of which the winegrower owns not less than 51 percent, or by any officer or director of, or by any person holding any interest in, those persons does not exceed 15 percent of the total wine items by brand listed and offered for sale by the on-sale licensee selling and serving that wine. Notwithstanding paragraph (1), wine sold pursuant to this provision may be purchased from a California winegrower so long as the wine purchased is produced or bottled by, or produced and packaged for, the same licensed winegrower that holds an interest in the on-sale license and such direct sales do not involve more than two on-sale licenses in which the winegrower or any person holding an interest in the winegrower holds any interest, directly or indirectly, either individually or in combination or together with each other in the aggregate.

(3) None of the persons specified in this section may have any of the interests specified in this section in more than two on-sale licenses.

(b) The Legislature finds that, while this section provides a limited exception for licensed winegrowers, that limited exception is granted for specific purposes, and that it is also necessary and proper that licensed winegrowers maintain the authority granted under this division to sell wine and brandy to any individual consumer or any person holding a license authorizing the sale of wine or brandy.

(c) The Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to require a separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques. The Legislature further finds that the exceptions established by this section to the general prohibition against tied interests must be limited to their express terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and the Legislature intends that this section be construed accordingly.

Amendments:
1997 Amendment: (1) Deleted subdivision designation (a) at the beginning; (2) substituted “, except in the case of a holder of on-sale general licenses for airplanes and duplicate on-sale general licenses for air common carriers, all of the following conditions are met” for “the following conditions apply” at the end of the introductory clause; (3) deleted former subds (a)(1) and (a)(2) which read: “(1) The winegrower's principal place of business is located in Napa County, the winegrower has been in continuous operation, although not necessarily under the same ownership, for more than 25 years, and the winegrower, directly or through its subsidiaries, produces more than 5,000,000 gallons of wine annually in this state.”

1998 Amendment: (1) Added subdivision designation (a); (2) redesignated former subds (a)–(c) to be subds (a)–(a)(3) and subds (d) and (e) to be subds (b) and (c); and (3) added the comma after “finds that” near the beginning of subd (b).

Note—Stats 1996 ch 900 provides:
SEC. 7. With respect to Section 4 of this act, the Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution in order to allow a winegrower whose principal place of business is located in Napa County and who meets certain other requirements to hold an interest in an on-sale license.

(c) Any beer manufacturer or winegrower who, through coercion or other illegal means, induces a beer or wine wholesaler to fulfill those contractual obligations entered into pursuant to subdivision (a), is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine in an amount equal to the entire value of the sponsorship funds involved in the contract, plus ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine. This person shall also be subject to license revocation pursuant to Section 24200.

(d) The Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to require a separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques. The Legislature further finds that the exception established by this section to the general prohibition against tied interests must be limited to its express terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and intends that this section be construed accordingly.

(b) For purposes of this section, “interactive entertainment facility” means premises which feature interactive computer and video entertainment attractions, themed merchandise, and food and beverages.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, having considered the public welfare, the economic impact on the state, and the entirety of the circumstances involved, the Legislature further finds that the purpose and intent of the general prohibition against tied interests is not violated by granting the exception established by this section.

The director shall prepare, as part of the annual report required by Section 23055 for submission to the Legislature, a listing of the number of certifications made pursuant to this section or the absence of any certifications. Where there have been no certifications made pursuant to this section for two consecutive years, this information shall be included in the report.

(g) The Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to require a separation among manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques. The Legislature further finds that the exception established by this section to the general prohibition against tied interests shall be limited to its express terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and intends that this section be construed accordingly.

Amendments:

2010 Amendment: (1) Added “but not more than 3,000,” in subd (a); and (2) amended subd (a)/(5) by substituting (a) “monetary expenditures for” for “purchases of”; and (b) “in any calendar year shall be for products” for “shall be”.
§ 25504. Penalty for violations

The provisions of Sections 25500 to 25503, inclusive, do not apply to any equipment, fixtures, or supplies furnished, given, lent, or sold prior to June 13, 1935, so long as the equipment, fixtures, or supplies remain in the premises in which installed prior to that time, nor do they apply to carbonic acid gas or tapping accessories furnished to any one on–sale licensee to a limit of not exceeding a value of five dollars ($5) per tap in any one calendar year.

§ 25505. Ban on interest in certain licenses or businesses by on–sale licensee; Exemptions

No on–sale licensee, or any officer, director, employee, or agent of that licensee, shall hold any ownership or interest, directly or indirectly, in any manufacturer’s, winegrower’s, rectifier’s, importer’s, or wholesaler’s license, the business conducted under that license, or the property used in the business.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the holding by one person of a wholesaler’s license and an on–sale license in a county with a population that does not exceed 15,000.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the financial or representative relationship between a manufacturer, winegrower, manufacturer’s agent, rectifier, distiller, bottler, importer, or wholesaler, or any officer, director, or agent of that person, and, except as otherwise specified, a person holding only one of the following types of licenses:

(a) On–sale general license for a bona fide club.
(b) Club license (issued under Article 4 (commencing with Section 23425) of Chapter 3 of this division).
(c) Veterans’ club license (issued under Article 5 (commencing with Section 23450) of Chapter 3 of this division).

The provisions of this section shall not prohibit the leasing of property by an on–sale licensee to a manufacturer, winegrower, rectifier, importer or wholesaler provided that the lease agreement is first approved by the department. The department shall approve the lease agreement unless it finds that the rent payable is not the fair rental value of the property or that the purpose of the lease is to violate any of the provisions of this chapter.

The provisions of this section shall not prohibit the holding of any ownership or interest by an on–sale licensee, or any officer, director, employee, or agent of any on–sale licensee, in any winegrower’s license, which winegrower manufactures, produces, bottles, processes, imports, or sells wine only, or in the business conducted under any winegrower’s license, provided the on–sale license, or the officer, director, employee, or agent thereof does not sell pursuant to that on–sale license any wine manufactured, produced, processed, imported, or sold by the licensed winegrower for so long as the holding of the ownership or interest continues.

(e) Any and all of the licenses specifically enumerated, mentioned, or described in Section 25503,30, either singly or in combination.

2. Construction

1. Generally

The mere fact that B & P C § 25506, does not specifically prohibit a retailer from possessing an interest in a beer and wine wholesale license does not create an inference that the statute permits a retailer to possess an interest in such a license. California Beer Wholesalers Assn. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1971) 5 Cal 3d 402, 96 Cal Rptr 297, 487 P2d 745, 1971 Cal LEXIS 262.

Any person who held an interest in, or was a member of, a cooperative wholesale grocery company on May 1, 1947, which cooperative holds a distilled spirits wholesaler’s license, may hold and renew his off-sale general license and may acquire an off-sale general license or licenses for bona fide retail grocery store or stores. Any person who is admitted to membership, or acquires an interest, in such a cooperative after May 1, 1947, may hold or acquire off-sale general licenses and shall operate a bona fide retail grocery store at each location at which he holds or acquires an off-sale general license. Any cooperative wholesale grocery company which held a distilled spirits wholesale license on May 1, 1937, may hold and renew the license, notwithstanding its members or some of them hold off-sale general licenses pursuant to this section.

§ 25509. Additional charge against retailer not making payment

(a) A distilled spirits manufacturer, a brandy manufacturer, a beer manufacturer, a winegrower, a wine blender, a distilled spirits rectifier, a wine rectifier, a distilled spirits wholesaler or a beer and wine wholesaler who sold and delivered beer, wine, or distilled spirits to a retailer and who did not receive payment for such beer, wine, or distilled spirits by the expiration of the 42nd day from date of delivery shall charge the retailer 1 percent of the unpaid balance for such beer, wine, and distilled spirits on the 43rd day from date of delivery and an additional 1 percent for each 30 days thereafter.

(b) A distilled spirits manufacturer, a brandy manufacturer, a beer manufacturer, a winegrower, a wine blender, distilled spirits rectifier, a wine rectifier, distilled spirits wholesaler or beer and wine wholesaler who sold and delivered beer, wine, or distilled spirits to a retailer and who did not receive payment in full by the expiration of the 30th day from date of delivery or who has not received payment of the 1 percent charge at the expiration of the 30th day from the day the charge became due shall thereafter sell beer, wine, or distilled spirits to said retailer either for cash or by receiving payment in advance of delivery until such time as all payments are received for the beer, wine, or distilled spirits sold and delivered to the said retailer more than 30 days previously.

(c) The 42-day period and the 30-day period provided for in this section shall commence with the day immediately following the date of invoice and shall include all successive days including Sundays and holidays to and including the 42nd or 30th day as the case may be. When the 42nd day from date of invoice or the expiration of each additional 30-day period falls on Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the next business day shall be deemed to be the expiration day.

(d) All moneys received from a retailer in payment for any beer, wine, or distilled spirits sold and delivered to him or her shall be first applied to the payment of the oldest balance on beer, wine, or distilled spirits. All checks received for such payments shall be deposited for collection not later than the second business day following receipt of said check. A promissory note, postdated check or check dishonored on presentation shall not be deemed payment.

(e) In enacting the act that amends this section by adding this subdivision, the Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to remove the retailer from financial or business obligations to suppliers or wholesalers by the extension of credit beyond the terms contained in this section. The Legislature further finds that the exception established by this section to the general prohibition against tied interests shall be limited to its express terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and intends that this section shall be construed accordingly.

A supplier may service, repair, and replace the above–specified items of alcoholic beverage tapping equipment as necessary. NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality

1. Constitutionality
Even assuming that the Legislature did no more than fashion under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act further means of proscribing previously prohibited marketing practices (B & P C §§ 25600–25666, 17000–17101), any such duplication is not a ground for unconstitutionality. The possibility that other less stringent regulations might suffice is a matter within the Legislature’s discretion and not the concern of the Supreme Court. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

§ 25600. Premiums, gifts, or free goods; Refunds or exchanges for dissatisfied customers; Advertising specialties

(a)(1) No licensee shall, directly or indirectly, give any premium, gift, or free goods in connection with the sale or distribution of any alcoholic beverage, except as provided by rules that shall be adopted by the department to implement this section or as authorized by this division.

(2)(A) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), for purposes of this section, a refund to, or exchange of products for, a dissatisfied consumer by a licensee authorized to sell to consumers shall not be deemed a premium, gift, or free goods given in connection with the sale or distribution of an alcoholic beverage.

(B) A winemgrower may advertise or otherwise offer consumers a guarantee of product satisfaction only in newsletters or other publications of the winemgrower or at the winemgrower’s premises. A winemgrower may refuse to a dissatisfied consumer the entire purchase price of wine produced by that winemgrower and sold to that consumer, regardless of where the wine was purchased.

(b)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), no rule of the department may permit a licensee to give any premium, gift, or free goods of greater than inconsequential value in connection with the sale or distribution of beer. With respect to beer, premiums, gifts, or free goods, including advertising specialties that have no significant utilitarian value other than advertising, shall be deemed to have greater than inconsequential value if they cost more than twenty-five cents ($0.25) per unit, or cost more than fifteen dollars ($15) in the aggregate for all those items given by a single supplier to a single retail premises per calendar year.

(2)(A) No rule of the department may impose a dollar limit for consumer advertising specialties furnished by a beer manufacturer to the general public other than three dollars ($3) per unit original cost to the beer manufacturer who purchased it.

(B) With respect to beer, a beer manufacturer may give consumer advertising specialties to the general public that do not exceed three dollars ($3) per unit original cost to the beer manufacturer who purchased it. For purposes of this paragraph, “beer manufacturer” includes a holder of a beer manufacturer’s license, a holder of an out-of-state beer manufacturer’s certificate, an out-of-state vendor that holds a certificate of compliance, or a holder of a beer and wine importer’s general license. A licensee authorized to give consumer advertising specialties pursuant to this paragraph shall not be precluded from doing so on the basis of holding any other type of alcoholic beverage license.

(C) A beer manufacturer, as defined in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) shall not require a beer wholesaler to fund the purchase of consumer advertising specialties that beer manufacturers are permitted to give under paragraph (2).

(D) Consumer advertising specialties furnished by a beer manufacturer are intended only for adults of legal drinking age. Coin banks, toys, balloons, magic tricks, miniature bottles or cans, confectons, dolls, or other items that appeal to minors or underage drinkers may not be used in connection with the merchandising of beer.

(c) With respect to distilled spirits and wines, a licensee may furnish, give, rent, loan, or sell advertising specialties to a retailer, provided those items bear conspicuous advertising required of a sign and the total value of all retailer advertising specialties furnished by a supplier, directly or indirectly, to a retailer do not exceed fifty dollars ($50) per brand in any one calendar year per retail premises. The value of a retailer advertising specialty is the actual cost of that item to the supplier who initially purchased it, excluding transportation and installation costs. The furnishing or giving of any retailer advertising specialty shall not be conditioned upon the purchase of the supplier’s product.

Retail advertising specialties given or furnished free of charge may not be sold by the retail licensee. No rule of the department may impose a dollar limit for consumer advertising specialties furnished by a distilled spirits supplier to a retailer or to the general public of less than five dollars ($5) per unit original cost to the supplier who purchased it.

2. Construction

3. Applicability

4. Construction with Other Laws

5. Authority of Department

1. Generally

Co-operative corporation holding off-sale beer and wine and a wholesaler's license does not violate Alcoholic Beverage Control Act so as to warrant suspension of its license, by paying patronage dividends to its stockholder members. Certified Grocers of California, Ltd. v. State Board of Equalization (1950, Cal App 1st Dist) 94 Cal App 2d 209, 213 P2d 251, 1950 Cal App LEXIS 1208.

A liquor wholesaler's offer of a $1 rebate to purchasers of certain types of wines did not constitute “free goods” under B & P C § 25600, prohibiting a licensee from giving “free goods” in connection with the sale of alcoholic beverages. The word “goods” is commonly defined as tangible movable personal property having intrinsic value, and does not ordinarily mean money. Gonzales & Co. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverages (1988, Cal App 3d Dist) 151 Cal App 3d 172, 198 Cal Rptr 479, 1984 Cal App LEXIS 1538.

B & P C § 25600(a) prohibits any licensee from giving any premium, gift, or free goods in connection with the sale or distribution of any alcoholic beverage except as provided by rules, and the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control's Rule 52(a) prohibits gifts of alcoholic beverages in connection with the sale of any alcoholic beverage. B & P C § 23386 authorizes wholesalers to give away samples to make sales. Rules as prescribed by the Department, and one such rule (Rule 52(a)), allow free samples only to other licensees, and not to consumers. Accordingly, the practice by which a beer brewer purchased its own products in bars or other drinking establishments, and offered custom- ers the opportunity to exchange its product for whatever brand they were currently drinking (a practice commonly known as “trade spending” or “trade sampling”), was unlawful. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1999, Cal App 4th Dist) 71 Cal App 4th 1518, 84 Cal Rptr 2d 621, 1999 Cal App LEXIS 466, review denied (1999) 1999 Cal. LEXIS 5470.

A regulation of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that prohibited a beer company’s use of sweepstakes to promote its product was valid, since a cash prize was a “premium” within the meaning of B & P C § 25600, which prohibited licensees from giving any premium, gift, or free goods in connection with the sale or distribution of an alcoholic beverage, except those of inconsequential value. Accordingly, the regulation did not operate more broadly than § 25600. Cooper Distillers Corp. v. Stroh (2001, Cal App 3d Dist) 86 Cal App 4th 768, 103 Cal Rptr 2d 570, 2001 Cal App LEXIS 54, review denied (2001) 2001 Cal. LEXIS 2479.

4. Construction with Other Laws

5. Authority of Department

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not act beyond the scope of its authority in enforcing one of its rules so as to prohibit a beer manufacturer from giving things of value to members of the public in circumstances unrelated to a sale of alcoholic beverages. Such action exceeded the scope of B & P C § 25600 (gifts or premiums in connection with sale or distribution), as that statute relates to the “sale” of alcoholic beverages, since in regard to sales, § 25600 only authorizes the department to prohibit donations made in connection with the transfer of title of alcoholic beverages for any consideration. However, in amending § 25600 to prohibit donations made in connection with a “distribution” as well as a “sale,” the Legislature intended to authorize the department to enforce as its rule, which then defined “sale” as the total business of merchandising. Miller Brewing Co. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1988, Cal App 3d Dist) 204 Cal App 3d 5, 250 Cal Rptr 845, 1988 Cal App LEXIS 803.

California State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control could not prohibit a brewing company from offering its customers cash rebates on the purchase of beer. B & P C § 25600 forbade the giving of cash premiums, not rebates. People ex rel. Dept. of Alcoholic Beverage
§ 25600.5. (Repealed January 1, 2014) Authority to provide, free of charge, entertainment, food and beverages at invitation-only event in connection with sale or distribution of wine or distilled spirits; Conditions

Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, a manufacturer of distilled spirits, winemakers, rectifier, or distiller, or its authorized unlicensed agent, may provide, free of charge, entertainment, food, and distilled spirits, wine, or nonalcoholic beverages to consumers at an invitation-only event in connection with the sale or distribution of wine or distilled spirits, subject to the following conditions:

(a) No licensee, other than those specified in this section, may conduct or participate in any portion of an event authorized by this section. A licensee authorized to conduct an event pursuant to this section shall not be precluded from doing so on the basis of holding any other type of alcoholic beverage license.

(b) An event authorized by this section shall be conducted on premises for which a caterer’s permit authorization has been issued, except that any event held on the premises of a licensed winemaker shall not be authorized to provide any distilled spirits other than brandy.

(c) No event authorized by this section shall be conducted on premises for which a permanent retail license has been issued.

(d) Except for fair market value payments authorized pursuant to this section, a licensed winemaker shall not receive any other item of value or benefit in connection with events authorized by this section.

(e) The person authorized by this section to provide, free of charge, entertainment, food, and beverages shall be present during the event.

(f) The person authorized by this section to provide, free of charge, entertainment, food, and beverages shall have sole responsibility for providing payment for the entertainment, food, beverages, and rental fees at the event. Payments for entertainment, food, beverages, and rental fees shall not exceed fair market value. No other licensed person shall be authorized to provide any distilled spirits other than brandy.

(g) Requests for attendance at the event shall be by invitation sent to consumers over 21 years of age at a specific address via mail or e-mail, by telephone, or presented in person. Invitations or other advertisements of the event shall not be disseminated by any other means. Invitations shall not be sent by the authorized person or their authorized unlicensed agent inviting all of the employees of a retail licensee or a chain of retail licensees under common ownership to an authorized event.

(h) Attendance at the event shall be limited to consumers who receive and accept an invitation to the event. Invited consumers may each invite one guest. All attendees shall be over 21 years of age. The total number of consumers and their guests allowed at any event authorized by this section shall not exceed 400 people. Admittance to the event shall be controlled by a list containing the names of consumers who accepted the invitation and their guests. The persons identified in this section shall be responsible for compliance.

(i) No premium, gift, free goods, or other thing of value may be given away in connection with the event, except as authorized by this division.

(j) The duration of any event authorized by this section shall not exceed four hours.

(k) A person authorized to conduct events pursuant to this section shall not conduct more than 12 events in a calendar year where the consumers and guests in attendance exceed 100 people, and not more than 24 events in a calendar year where the consumers and guests in attendance is 100 people or fewer.

(2) The limitation on events authorized by this section shall be by person, whether that person holds a single license or multiple licenses. If a person holds multiple licenses, the limitation shall be applied to the person holding the license, not by type of license.

(l) When applying for a caterer’s permit authorization, the person authorized to conduct an event pursuant to this section shall include, in addition to any information required by the department, all of the following information:

(1) The name of the company authorized to conduct the event.

(2) The number of people planned to be in attendance.

(3) The start and end times for the event.

(4) The location of the event.

(m) All alcoholic beverages provided pursuant to this section shall be purchased from the holder of the caterer’s permit.

(n) All alcoholic beverages served at an event authorized by this section shall be served in accordance with Sections 25631 and 25632.

(o) No person authorized to conduct an event pursuant to this section shall hold such an event at the same location more than eight times in a calendar year.

(p) The person authorized to conduct an event under this section may provide attendees at the event with a free ride home. The free rides shall only constitute free ground transportation to attendees’ homes or to hotels or motels where attendees are staying.

(q) In addition to the prescribed fee imposed upon a licensed caterer to conduct an event authorized by this section, the department may also impose a fee upon a licensee authorized by this section to provide, free of charge, entertainment, food, and beverages at an authorized event. The fee shall be representative of the cost of administering and enforcing the provisions of this section, but shall not exceed two hundred dollars ($200) per event.

(r) The Legislature finds and declares both of the following:

(1) That it is necessary and proper to require a separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques.
§ 25601  BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE  296

(2) Any exception established by the Legislature to the general prohibition against tied interests must be limited to the express terms of the exception so as to not undermine the general prohibitions.

(e) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 2014, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute that is enacted before January 1, 2014, deletes or extends that date.

§ 25601. Keeping disorderly house

Every licensee, or agent or employee of a licensee, who keeps, permits to be used, or suffers to be used, in conjunction with a licensed premises, any disorderly house or place in which people abide or to which people resort, to the disturbance of the neighborhood, or in which people abide or to which people resort for purposes which are injurious to the public morals, health, convenience, or safety, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

A. GENERALLY
1. Generally

This statute refers to conduct on the premises or resort thereto for improper purposes, and cannot be construed as an attempt to regulate mere patronage by any particular class of persons without regard to their conduct on the premises. Stouten v. Reilly (1951) 37 Cal 2d 713, 234 P2d 969, 1951 Cal LEXIS 325, superseded by statute as stated in Harris v. Capital Growth Investors XIV (1991) 52 Cal 3d 1142, 278 Cal Rptr 614, 805 P2d 673, 1991 Cal LEXIS 900.

Fact that violation of section constitutes misdemeanor does not limit power of department to proceed where the facts are such as to bring it within provisions of section. Nelson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 3d Dist) 166 Cal App 2d 783, 333 P2d 771, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2547.

It is clear that revocation of on-sale liquor license did not depend solely on violation of unconstitutional § 24200 subd (e), concerning use of licensed premises as resort for sexual perverts, where order of revocation adopted hearing officer’s decision stating that additional grounds for suspension or revocation of license existed under § 24200 subd (b), concerning violation by licensee of rules of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, for violation of this section. Stouten v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2575.

Revocation of liquor license under B & P C §§ 24200 and 25601, allegedly in violation of licensee’s federal constitutional rights in that, purported sole ground for revocation was presence of homosexual clientele at bar, was res judicata for purposes of injunction action under 42 USCS § 1983, as the Department is a state court of limited jurisdiction. Francisco Enterprises, Inc. v. Kirby (1973, 9th Cir Calif 482 F2d 481, 1973 US App LEXIS 8706, cert den (1974) 94 S Ct 1413, 39 L Ed 2d 471, 415 US 916, 1974 US LEXIS 1176. 2.

Construction
Word “suffers” means to permit, allow or not to forbid activities which constitute premises a “disorderly house.” Givens v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 176 Cal App 2d 529, 1 Cal Rptr 446, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1513.

Word “permit” does not imply affirmative act; “permit” involves no intent; it is merely passivity, abstaining from preventative action. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

A statute such as B & P C § 25601, which imposes penal sanctions for maintenance of a disorderly house, may not be uncertain or vague and must fairly apprise the public of the conduct prohibited. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 3d Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

The meaning of “disorderly house” as used in B & P C § 25601 is specific both in common parlance and in common law, and a house is disorderly if kept as a place where acts prohibited by statute are habitually indulged in or permitted, or where acts are performed which tend to corrupt morals of the community or promote breaches of the peace. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 3d Dist) 246 Cal App 2d 198, 54 Cal Rptr 547, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1019.

There is no uncertainty in a statute which provides that “every licensee, or agent or employee of a licensee, who keeps, permits to be used, or suffers to be used, in conjunction with a licensed premises, any disorderly house or place in which people abide or to which people resort, . . . for purposes which are injurious to the public morals, health, convenience, or safety, is guilty of a misdemeanor,” and since the statute is clear there can be no doubt of its constitutionality as a valid exercise of the state’s police power. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 3d Dist) 246 Cal App 2d 198, 54 Cal Rptr 547, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1019.

3. Duty of Licensee

Law requires more than that licensee make some colorable efforts toward maintenance of lawfully conducted premises; it demands that he so conduct his business that it meets minimum requirements of decency and morality. Givens v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 176 Cal App 2d 529, 1 Cal Rptr 446, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1513.

An on-sale liquor licensee has affirmative duty to maintain properly operated premises, acquiescence is permission or sufficient within purview of section and his license may be revoked where he fails to perform his statutory duty. Givens v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 176 Cal App 2d 529, 1 Cal Rptr 446, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1513.

Law demands that on-sale licensee so conduct his business that it meets minimum requirements of decency and morality, where overpering evidence shows that licensed premises are in fact “disorderly house,” conclusion follows that licensee has permitted or suffered such condition to exist. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

Section imposes affirmative duty of maintaining lawfully conducted premises, and it is unnecessary, in proceeding to revoke license for violation of that section, that evidence show active participation on part of license holder in acts that have rendered premises injurious to public morals. Coleman v. Harris (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 401, 32 Cal Rptr 486, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1791.

4. Knowledge; Acts of Employees
Whatever is permitted by an on-sale liquor licensee’s agents with respect to licensed premises is permitted by her within this section. Swegle v. State Board of Equalization (1954, Cal App) 125 Cal App 2d 432, 270 P2d 518, 1954 Cal App LEXIS 1902.

Section does not require that condition of licensed premises as disorderly house be knowingly created. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

Under B & P C § 25601, making it a misdemeanor for a liquor licensee to keep, permit to be used, or suffer to be used, in connection with licensed premises, any disorderly house, no proof of knowledge by the licensee or his agent of the proscripted acts is necessary, it being sufficient that the evidence show that such acts took place at the licensed premises. Munson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 245 Cal App 2d 598, 56 Cal Rptr 805, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1665.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control properly revoked the off-sale beer and wine licenses of two markets for keeping a disorderly house (B & P C § 25601) and causing a law enforcement problem and a condition contrary to public welfare and morals (Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22; B & P C § 24200, subd (a)), because of frequently occurring illegal drug transactions on the premises, without requiring proof that the licensees knowingly permitted the drug transactions or that the sale of alcohol caused or contributed to the illegal conduct. There was ample evidence that the premises had become law enforcement problems, that the owners were actually or constructively aware of the problems, and that they were not effective in controlling the rampant drug trade on the licensed premises. That the markets were located in a high-crime area was irrelevant. There was a sufficient showing the premises constituted a nuisance within the meaning of the statutes and the constitutional provision. Yu v. Alcoholic Bev. etc. Appeals Bd. (1992, Cal App 6th Dist) 3 Cal App 4th 286, 4 Cal Rptr 2d 280, 1992 Cal App LEXIS 123, review denied (1992) 1992 Cal. LEXIS 2293.

B. PROCEEDINGS
5. Generally
On-sale liquor licensee was fully and fairly apprised of charge of violating this section with sufficient certainty to prepare his defense, where it was charged that between certain dates, on licensed premises, licensee permitted or suffered males to kiss, caress, and engage in lewd and indecent acts and conversations with other males, and that police officer and two agents were invited by patrons to engage in lewd acts. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

In proceeding to revoke on-sale liquor license, findings that there had been misconduct on licensed premises in violation of this section need not specify that misconduct occurred within conscious presence of licensee or his employees. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

Assuming that defense of entrapment is available in proceeding to revoke on-sale liquor license for violation of this section, such defense was not established where record was without conflict that agents were solicited by patrons and employee of licensee to engage in sexual perversion, that intent to commit such acts originated in minds of those who made proposals, and that agents did no more than to afford those on premises opportunity for solicitation. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

In a proceeding before the Alcoholic Beverage Appeals Board an accusation was sufficient and it gave defendant notice sufficient to satisfy due process where it charged the licensee to be used as a disorderly house, set forth the date, place, name of a female solicitor, name of the solicitee, the fact of solicitation for an act of prostitution on seven separate occurrences, and in a second count, relating to the keeping of unbroken bottles, gave the date, number of unbroken bottles, size, brand and type of liquor, of each of seventeen bottles and where the defendant admitted possession of the bottles. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 3d Dist) 246 Cal App 2d 198, 54 Cal Rptr 547, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1019.

Disciplinary action against a liquor licensee, on the ground that he permitted prostitutes to solicit in his bar (B & P C § 25601) was not precluded by reasonable delay, where the violations charged took place within the three-year statute of limitations (B & P C § 24207), and where the delay was not shown to have been deliberate or prejudicial, but the other hand, could have been to the licensee’s benefit had he heeded the police warnings during that period. Munson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 248 Cal App 2d 598, 56 Cal Rptr 805, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1665.

In revoking a liquor license for the licensee’s conduct contrary to public welfare and morals under Cal Const art. XX, § 22, and B & P C § 24200, subd (a), the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not err in failing to make an express determination as to a violation of those sections, where identical considerations were involved in the department’s determination that illegal and immoral acts on the premises constituted the conduct of a disorderly house on the licensed premises in violation of B & P C § 25601. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1972, Cal App 2d Dist) 25 Cal App 3d 331, 101 Cal Rptr 815, 1972 Cal App LEXIS 1034.

6. Admissibility of Evidence
In proceeding to revoke liquor license on ground that licensees permitted licensed premises to be used as disorderly house or place where people resorted for purposes contrary to public welfare and morals by allowing homosexual activity on premises, it was not error to exclude testimony of psychologist as to whether or not she considered homosexuality perversion, where conduct and activity shown by evidence had occurred on licensed premises were well within meaning of term “sexual perversion” as that term is known to average person, and testimony of psychologist in contradiction of clear, certain and commonly accepted understanding of behavior in question was immaterial. Morell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1962, Cal App 1st Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 504, 22 Cal Rptr 405, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

Where the fact in issue was solicitation for prostitution and the truth of the girls’ statements was not important, testimony by agents of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control regarding conversations with two girls was not inadmissible as “administrative” hearsay, though admitted in an administrative hearing; the testimony was equally admissible under commonlaw rules. Since the declarations were “operative facts” they were also admissible as original records. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 3d Dist) 246 Cal App 2d 198, 54 Cal Rptr 547, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1019.

7. Sufficiency of Evidence
Mere proof that homosexuals patronize a restaurant and bar, for the purpose of illegal or immoral acts, and use it as a meeting place or hangout, without proof of illegal or immoral acts committed on the premises or resort thereto for such purposes, is insufficient to show a violation of this statute. Stoumen v. Reilly (1951) 37 Cal 2d 713, 234 P2d 968, 1951 Cal LEXIS 325, superseded by statute as stated in Harris v. Capital Growth Investors XIV (1991) 52 Cal 3d 1142, 289 Cal Rptr 614, 805 P2d 873, 1991 Cal LEXIS 900.

Corporation’s liquor license is properly revoked for violation of section, under evidence that numerous homosexual acts were committed on premises, liquor was sold to obviously intoxicated persons, and beer was sold to minors. Maxwell Cafe, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 142 Cal App 2d 73, 298 P2d 64, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1949.

Liquor license revocation for violation of this section is sustained by evidence that, to licensee’s knowledge, sexual perverts met at premises and there engaged in sexual perversion without opposition from her and in more than isolated instances. Kershaw v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 544, 318 P2d 494, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1321.

Where objectionable behavior, such as homosexual activity, in licensed establishment is of continuing nature and not merely isolated or accidental instance, it is inescapable conclusion that licensee has permitted and suffered resultant condition which offends public welfare and morals and violates statutory prohibition against keeping disorderly house. Morell v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control

The premises licensed to sell alcoholic beverages were permitted to be kept and used as disorderly house in violation of this section is supported by evidence that police surveillance was constant necessity, arrests for intoxication were frequent and regular, and minimum of 58 intoxicated persons frequented establishment in six months period. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 212 Cal App 2d 106, 28 Cal Rptr 74, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2821.

Revocation of on-sale liquor license for violation of this section was supported by substantial evidence, where there was testimony that male patrons, in bar-tender’s presence, caressed one another, that male patrons invited each other and agents to participate in lewd acts, that bartender greeted male patrons with lewd language and pantomimed unnatural sex practice, that when licensees were behind bar employee invited to engage in lewd acts, and that patron invited agent to commit perversion denounced by Pen C § 288a. Stoumen v. Munro (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 219 Cal App 2d 302, 33 Cal Rptr 305, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2375.

In revoking an on-sale, general bona fide eating place license, for a violation of B & P C § 25601, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control could not properly base its decision on the keeping of a house that disturbed the neighborhood or the keeping of a house to which people resorted for purposes that impaired public morals, where there was no evidence that the licensed premises disturbed the neighborhood or that people resorted to such premises for any of the purposes condemned by the statute. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

8. Prostitution

Finding of department in revoking liquor license that licensees permitted their premises to be used as disorderly house to which people resorted for purposes injurious to public morals and health was sustained by evidence that prostitutes solicited acts of prostitution on the premises under circumstances clearly supporting inference that they were knowingly permitted to do so by licensees or their employees, that drinks were served to obviously intoxicated persons, and that lewd and lascivious acts were performed there with knowledge and cooperation of employees. Rosales v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 171 Cal App 2d 624, 341 P2d 366, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1875.

Findings of department in revoking liquor license of taxi dance establishment that premises were permitted to be used for purposes injurious to public morals were sustained by evidence that one taxi dancer rubbed her hands against the leg of a witness and then “that disturbed the neighborhood or the keeping of a house to which people resorted for purposes that impaired public morals, where there was no evidence that the licensed premises disturbed the neighborhood or that people resorted to such premises for any of the purposes condemned by the statute. Boreta Enterprises, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1970) 2 Cal 3d 85, 84 Cal Rptr 113, 465 P2d 1, 1970 Cal LEXIS 258.

Revocation of licensee’s liquor license for allowing known prostitutes to enter and remain in licensed premises and there solicit acts of prostitution was supported by testimony of two agents of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that while in licensee’s bar they were each asked by female patrons to engage in acts of prostitution, that bartender not only permitted acts and conduct alleged but also aided and abetted them, that he told agents most of female patrons of bar were prostitutes, and that bartender used vulgar and obscene language which was audibly to other patrons of bar. Presto v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1960, Cal App 3d Dist) 179 Cal App 2d 262, 3 Cal Rptr 742, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2228.

A decision by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board was supported by substantial evidence as generally applied in judicial proceedings and such evidence supported the decision of the board, where two investigators of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control testified that they were solicited for acts of prostitution on seven separate occasions, on one occasion the solicitation was accompanied by physical acts of sexual enticement, all solicitations were accompanied by a discussion of the proposed monetary consideration, most of the solicitations were within sight and earshot of one of the two, or both, bartenders of the establishment, and in conversations between one of the agents and a bartender an awareness of the girls’ activities was clearly manifested. Los Robles Motor Lodge, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966, Cal App 3d Dist) 246 Cal App 2d 198, 54 Cal Rptr 547, 1966 Cal App LEXIS 1019.

An administrative finding that for three years the licensee of a bar and his employees “permitted” the premises to be used in conjunction with a disorderly house, within the meaning of B & P C § 25601, proscribes frequented such conduct as a misdemeanor, was amply supported by evidence, inter alia, that police officers’ conversations with prostitutes were conducted so as to be overheard by others at the bar, including the bartenders, that a bartender was given a list of known prostitutes by which to be warned against soliciting, and that another actually warned prostitutes when police officers were present. Munson v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 248 Cal App 2d 596, 56 Cal Rptr 805, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 1665.

The record in a proceeding to revoke a liquor license supported the conclusion of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that the licensee conducted a disorderly house in conjunction with the licensed premises in violation of B & P C § 25601, where there was substantial evidence of the commission by employees of the licensee on the premises of the illegal acts of pandering, attempted pandering, and conspiring to operate a house of prostitution, as well as substantial evidence of the commission of immoral acts on the premises. The licensee had the responsibility to see that its employees committed no illegal or immoral acts on the premises. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1972, Cal App 2d Dist) 25 Cal App 3d 331, 101 Cal Rptr 815, 1972 Cal App LEXIS 1034.

9. Relief and Review

Department did not abuse its discretion in revoking general on-sale liquor license of licensee where conduct for which license was revoked, namely, taking of unlawful bets on horse races at licensed premises, constituted crime under state laws and was thus at least technically contrary to public welfare or morals. Maloney v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 172 Cal App 2d 104, 342 P2d 520, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1931.

Fact that Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board sustained decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking liquor license on ground of violation of this section, did not limit reviewing court to consideration of that ground only where original decision was also based on determination that continuance of license would be contrary to public welfare and morals within meaning of Const Art XX § 22, and accusation put licensee on notice that his license might be revoked under constitutional provision and there was finding to that effect. Benedetti v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 187 Cal App 2d 213, 9 Cal Rptr 525, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 1374, overruled Kirby v. Alcoholic Bever. Eq. Appeals Bd. (1970, Cal App 1st Dist) 8 Cal App 3d 1009, 87 Cal Rptr 908, 1970 Cal App LEXIS 2117.

That liquor licensees were first offenders who were guilty, at most, of passive tolerance of wrongful acts charged against them did not make order revoking their license for maintaining disorderly house in violation of this section a harsh and discriminatory penalty which ought not to have been imposed against them, where there conceded was substantial evidence to sustain violation charged, fixing of penalty was vested in discretion of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and its determination will be disturbed only if there is clear abuse of discretion. Coleman v. Harris (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 218 Cal App 2d 401, 32 Cal Rptr 446, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 1791.

§ 25602. Sales to habitual drunks; Civil liability; Consumption of alcoholic beverages as proximate cause of injuries inflicted upon another by intoxicated person

(a) Every person who sells, furnishes, gives, or causes to be sold, furnished, or given away, any alcoholic beverage to any habitual or common drunkard or to any obviously intoxicated person is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) No person who sells, furnishes, gives, or causes to be sold, furnished, or given away, any alcoholic beverage pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section shall be civilly liable to any injured person or the estate of such person for injuries inflicted on that person as a result of intoxication by the consumer of such alcoholic beverage.

(c) The Legislature hereby declares that this section shall be interpreted so that the holdings in cases such as Vesely v. Sager (5 Cal. 3d 153), Bernhard v. Harrah's Club (16 Cal. 3d 313) and Coulter v. Superior Court (Cal. 3d) shall be abrogated in favor of prior judicial interpretation finding the consumption of alcoholic beverages rather than the serving of alcoholic beverages as the proximate cause of injuries inflicted upon another by an intoxicated person.

1978 Amendment: (1) Designated the former section to be subd (a); and (2) added subds (b) and (c).

The conclusion of the court that the patron was "obviously" intoxicated at the time the defendant served him was sustained by evidence that the patron talked loudly, spilled some of the beer he was drinking, fell against a witness, set the glass on the bar rather heavily several times, and asked in a loud voice for another glass of beer; also by evidence that the balance was poor, face flushed, speech thick, and eyes bloodshot; his clothing was disarranged, and he kept arguing with another person. People v. Smith (1949, Cal App Dep't Super Ct) 94 Cal 246, 1972 Cal App LEXIS 1155.

The trial court properly sustained the demurrer of defendant liquor store operator to a wrongful death complaint alleging that plaintiff's decedent, who was a passenger in plaintiff's automobile, was injured as a result of defendant's sale of alcoholic beverages to plaintiff's decedent, and was agruing the judicial rule that a commercial vendor of alcoholic beverages is liable for injuries proximately caused by the sale of liquor to an obviously intoxicated customer. The court held that the statute did not extend protection to the person to whom the liquor was sold. Moreover, the complaint failed to allege facts from which a violation of the statute could be inferred or from which it could be inferred that a violation, if such existed, proximately caused the death, and, in any event, the contributory negligence of the deceased barred recovery by his heirs. Sargent v. Goldberg (1972, Cal App 2d Dist) 25 Cal App 3d 969, 97 Cal Rptr 300, 1972 Cal App LEXIS 1088.

In an action by a minor who was allegedly injured after he became intoxicated at a party and lost control of his vehicle while attempting to drive home, against the minor who hosted and supervised the party, for negligent management of the premises, the serving of alcohol without a license, the furnishing of alcohol to an intoxicated minor, and for nuisance, the trial court properly sustained defendant's general demurrer. The complaint alleged that defendants knew the decedent would, upon leaving the premises, drive an automobile on a public highway, it also charged that defendant furnished alcoholic beverages to obviously intoxicated customer in violation of Veh C § 21650. However, damages may not be recovered from the vendor of alcohol to an obviously intoxicated customer in violation of B & P C § 25602, or on the theory of negligent management of the premises, the serving of alcohol without a license, the furnishing of alcohol to an intoxicated minor, and for nuisance, the trial court properly sustained defendant's general demurrer. The complaint alleged that the defendants knew the decedent would, upon leaving the premises, drive an automobile on a public highway. Whether the demurrer was properly sustained of a general demurrer to the complaint. Though the survivors of a person who died in an automobile accident against the minor who hosted and supervised the party, for negligent management of the premises, the serving of alcohol without a license, the furnishing of alcohol to an intoxicated minor, and for nuisance, the trial court properly sustained defendant's general demurrer. Though the survivors of a person who died in an automobile accident against the minor who hosted and supervised the party, for negligent management of the premises, the serving of alcohol without a license, the furnishing of alcohol to an intoxicated minor, and for nuisance, the trial court properly sustained defendant's general demurrer.

The immunity was intended to encompass the situation of a sale by a tavern operator to a wrongful death complaint alleging that plaintiff's decedent purchased as alcoholic beverage from defendant while in a state approaching intoxication immediately prior to receiving injuries allegedly causing his death. The rule that a seller of alcoholic beverages who makes a sale to an obviously intoxicated person in violation of B & P C § 25602, may be liable to members of the general public suffering personal injuries or property damage as a proximate cause of the sale does not extend protection to the person to whom the liquor was sold. Moreover, the complaint failed to allege facts from which a violation of the statute could be inferred or from which it could be inferred that a violation, if such existed, proximately caused the death, and, in any event, the contributory negligence of the deceased barred recovery by his heirs. Sargent v. Goldberg (1972, Cal App 2d Dist) 25 Cal App 3d 969, 97 Cal Rptr 300, 1972 Cal App LEXIS 1088.

The 1978 amendments to B & P C § 25602, abrogating the judicial rule that a commercial vendor of alcoholic beverages will be held liable for injuries proximately caused by the sale of liquor to an obviously intoxicated customer, operates prospectively from its effective date of January 1, 1979. Sisvel v. Steffenoni (1979, Cal App 1st Dist) 88 Cal App 3d 633, 152 Cal Rptr 56, 1979 Cal App LEXIS 1319.

In an action against the estate of a deceased tavern operator for damages allegedly resulting from the tavern having served liquor to an intoxicated person, limited to available insurance coverage pursuant to Prob C § 721, enforcement of a liquor liability exclusion in the decedent's insurance policy was not a violation of the public policy of the state of recognizing a cause of action against a vendor of alcoholic beverages. That public policy does not mandate that insurers must provide coverage for such vendors in every insurance policy. Stewart v. Estate of Bohnert (1980, Cal App 5th Dist) 101 Cal App 3d 978, 162 Cal Rptr 126, 1980 Cal App LEXIS 1455.

The 1978 amendments to B & P C §§ 25602 and CC § 1714, which abrogated the judicial rule that a commercial vendor of alcoholic beverages is liable for injuries proximately caused by the sale of liquor to an obviously intoxicated customer, did not divest an intoxicated plaintiff of her right to recover damages for injuries proximately caused by a bar or tavern operator's breach of duty to persons other than the plaintiff. The general negligence rule applies. Ander v. Courtside Lounge (1984) 37 Cal 3d 720, 209 Cal Rptr 347, 691 P2d 1013, 1984 Cal LEXIS 142.

In a personal injury action against an employer on the theory of respondeat superior, by an employee who was injured when a co-employee drove a truck in which the employee was a passenger off the road, the co-employee’s consumption of alcohol was within the scope of her employment and thus the employer was not immunized from liability by CC § 1714, or B & P C § 25602 (immunities from liability for those who furnish alcohol to others). Since the employer is liable for the risk of an employee’s consumption of alcohol within the employee’s scope of employment, and regardless of the employer’s furnishing of alcohol, the immunity of the statutes was inapplicable. Childers v. Shastra Livestock Auction Yard, Inc. (1987, Cal App 3d Dist) 190 Cal App 3d 792, 235 Cal Rptr 641, 1987 Cal App LEXIS 1542.

Unlike the 1978 amendments to CC § 1714, and B & P C § 25602 (immunity against liability occasioned by furnishing alcohol), no duty to supervise or protect can arise from the sale of alcoholic beverages to an obviously intoxicated minor by a host not licensed pursuant to B & P C § 23300, or failure to require proof of age for sale of alcoholic beverage licensee that had served the driver. Thus, the trial court properly sustained the licensee’s demurrer without leave to amend and dismissed the injured person’s complaint, which had asserted several tort theories all premised on the service of liquor to the driver. The sole exception, sale of liquor by a licensee to an obviously intoxicated minor, did not apply and no other exceptions could be implied under the statute. Hepe v. Paknad (1988, Cal App 6th Dist) 199 Cal App 3d 412, 244 Cal Rptr 823, 1988 Cal App LEXIS 192.

In an action against a bar and bartender by the father of an intoxicated person who was killed when crossing the street after leaving the bar, CC § 1714 and B & P C § 25602, barring dramshop claims, also barred any action against the bartender upon an expectation that defendants would provide a safe ride home. Andrews v. Wells (1988, Cal App 3d Dist) 204 Cal App 3d 533, 251 Cal Rptr 344, 1988 Cal App LEXIS 854.

The duty of B & P C § 25602, to eliminate civil liability for the furnishing of alcoholic beverages to intoxicated persons, was intended by the Legislature to have the effect of imposing sole and exclusive liability upon the consumer of alcoholic beverages for any liability to a third party. Knighten v. Sam’s Parking Valet (1988, Cal App 4th Dist) 206 Cal App 3d 69, 253 Cal Rptr 365, 1988 Cal App LEXIS 1098.

The legislative intent behind amendments to B & P C § 25602, eliminating civil liability for the furnishing of alcoholic beverages to intoxicated persons, is to impose sole and exclusive liability upon the consumer of alcoholic beverages for any damages caused to third persons. Accordingly, to effectuate the spirit of the Legislature’s intent, complainants may not maintain civil actions for liability against the furnisher of alcoholic beverages merely by couching their complaints in language apart from the furnishing or selling of liquor. Knighten v. Sam’s Parking Valet (1988, Cal App 4th Dist) 206 Cal App 3d 69, 253 Cal Rptr 365, 1988 Cal App LEXIS 1098.

In an action against a bar alleging that it and its employees knew or should have known of plaintiff’s mental disability and that he was unable to control his consumption of alcohol, and that the bar continued to serve drinks resulting in his being injured as he was leaving the street, the trial court did not err in sustaining defendant’s demurrer without leave to amend on the ground that the action was barred by B & P C § 25602 (liability for furnishing of liquor to intoxicated person), and CC § 1714 (proximate cause of injuries resulting from furnishing of alcoholic beverages to intoxicated person). There is no statutory exception to the immunity provided by B & P C § 25602, except for obviously intoxicated minors (B & P C § 25602.1). Because the mentally infirm, incompetent, or retarded range from whose disablement is not immediately evident to those requiring constant care, it must be left to the Legislature, guided by qualified professionals, to determine whether this large and diversified group is to be treated similarly to minors. Cardinal v. Santee Pita, Inc. (1991, Cal App 4th Dist) 234 Cal App 3d 1676, 286 Cal Rptr 275, 1991 Cal App LEXIS 1176.

In accordance with the express conclusion from the operation of a statute that indicates the Legislature intended no other exceptions to be implied, the Legislature, in amending CC § 1714 (proximate cause of injuries resulting from furnishing of alcoholic beverages to intoxicated person), and B & P C § 25602 (liability for furnishing of liquor to intoxicated person), and enacting B & P C § 25602.1 (furnishing alcoholic beverages to obviously intoxicated minor), must be deemed to have abolished tort liability against the furnisher of alcoholic beverages except in only one situation: namely, providing alcohol to an obviously intoxicated minor. No other exceptions to this immunity exist. By declaring the consumption of alcohol, and not the sale or furnishing of such, to be the proximate cause of injury inflicted by intoxicated persons, subject to only one exception, the Legislature stated loudly and clearly that it rejected the concept of preserving even limited liability for those selling or furnishing alcoholic beverages to anyone other than obviously intoxicated minors. Such a legislative declaration is within its domain. Cardinal v. Santee Pita, Inc. (1991, Cal App 4th Dist) 234 Cal App 3d 1676, 286 Cal Rptr 275, 1991 Cal App LEXIS 1176.

In an action against a baseball team, a parking company, and the city who hosted the stadium, for the wrongful death of a person who was killed while riding his bicycle, by a driver leaving a baseball game at which he had consumed alcoholic beverages both in the stadium and the parking lot, the trial court properly sustained defendants’ demurrer without leave to amend. In view of B & P C § 25602, under which the consumption of alcoholic beverages rather than the serving of alcoholic beverages is the proximate cause of injuries inflicted by an intoxicated person, neither the parking company nor the baseball team could be found civilly liable. Neither could the liability of any defendant be based on their simply permitting the driver to consume alcoholic beverages on the premises. Moreover, the claim that defendants failed to prevent or to prohibit patrons from drinking and actually encouraged the use of the parking lot premises for drinking failed as a matter of law to state a cause of action. B & P C § 25602, bars suit against those who simply permit the consumption of alcoholic beverages on their premises as well as against those who supply alcohol. Leong v. San Francisco Parking, Inc. (1991, Cal App 1st Dist) 235 Cal App 3d 827, 1 Cal Rptr 2d 41, 1991 Cal App LEXIS 1252.

B & P C § 25602, providing a person who furnishes alcoholic beverage to any obviously intoxicated person shall not be civilly liable for injuries inflicted as a result of intoxication, is not limited only to those who provide alcohol to obviously intoxicated persons, despite the statute’s reference thereto, and to cases involving the provision of alcohol to such persons. Were the reference interpreted as limiting, then the statute would bar out only against those who simply permit the sale or furnishing of alcoholic beverages to an obviously intoxicated consumer, yet permit tort recovery against one who supplies to a sober individual who later becomes intoxicated. Obviously, the supplier in the former situation is better able to foresee the risk of harm to others and thus engages in the more culpable conduct. It cannot be believed the Legislature intended such a whimsical anomaly. Leong v. San Francisco Parking, Inc. (1991, Cal App 1st Dist) 235 Cal App 3d 827, 1 Cal Rptr 2d 41, 1991 Cal App LEXIS 1252.

In an action against the operator of a bar and restaurant for injuries suffered when plaintiff was assaulted and stabbed by another patron, the trial court erred in sustaining defendant’s demurrer to plaintiff’s first amended complaint, which was founded on premises liability and alleged defendant’s failure to protect its patrons against such assaults. Although the initial complaint was subject to demurrer because it alleged the assailant was intoxicated and it sought to impose liability precluded by B & P C § 25602, subd. (b), for defendant’s negligence in furnishing the alcohol to the assailant, plaintiff deleted that allegation upon an expectation that defendants would provide a safe ride home. Andrews v. Wells (1988, Cal App 3d Dist) 204 Cal App 3d 533, 251 Cal Rptr 344, 1988 Cal App LEXIS 854.

In an action against a bar and its insurer for injuries suffered when plaintiff was assaulted and stabbed by another patron, the trial court erred in sustaining defendant’s demurrer to plaintiff’s first amended complaint, which was founded on premises liability and alleged defendant’s failure to protect its patrons against such assaults. Although the initial complaint was subject to demurrer because it alleged the assailant was intoxicated and it sought to impose liability precluded by B & P C § 25602, subd. § 25602.1  BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONES CODE

B & P C § 25602, generally immunizes an establishment from liability for injuries to third parties resulting from the furnishing of alcohol to its patrons, permitting its patrons to consume alcoholic beverages on the premises, or for failing to prevent or prohibit its patrons from drinking alcoholic beverages and encouraging the use of its premises for drinking. However, the statute does not preclude all actions against innkeepers merely because they furnish alcohol. The proprietor of a place where intoxicating liquors are dispensed owes a duty of exercising reasonable care to protect his or her patrons from injury at the hands of fellow guests. Although the proprietor is not an insurer of the patrons' safety, he or she has a duty of care to protect patrons from the reasonably foreseeable criminal or tortious conduct of third persons, and is thus liable for receiving or harboring guests of known violent or vicious propensities. Cantwell v. Peppermill, Inc. (1994, Cal App 1st Dist) 25 Cal App 4th 1797, 31 Cal Rptr 2d 246, 1994 Cal App LEXIS 637, review denied (1994) 1994 Cal. LEXIS 4969.

In an action arising out of an automobile accident caused by an intoxicated minor, against the owner of the building rented by the sponsor of a dance at which alcohol was served to the minor on the evening of the accident, the trial court properly entered summary judgment for defendant. Under B & P C § 25602.1, imposing liability on any person who “causes to be sold” any alcoholic beverage to an obviously intoxicated minor, the phrase “causes to be sold” requires an affirmative act directly related to the sale of alcohol, which necessarily brings about the resultant action to which the statute is directed, i.e., the furnishing of alcohol to an obviously intoxicated minor. The statute requires malfeasance, not acquiescence; mere inaction is not sufficient. Accordingly, when a person's only acts relating to the sale of alcohol to an obviously intoxicated minor are (1) being the landlord of the premises on which the renter sold alcohol to the minor, and (2) having acquiesced in the liquor license application of the organization which rented the premises, the person cannot be said to have “caused [alcohol] to be sold” to the minor within the meaning of B & P C § 25602.1. Therefore, defendant was immune from liability for injuries inflicted as a result of the minor's intoxication under the sweeping civil immunity of B & P C § 25602, subd. (b). Hernandez v. Modesto Portuguese Pentecost Assn. (1995, Cal App 3d Dist) 40 Cal App 4th 1274, 45 Cal Rptr 2d 229, 1995 Cal App LEXIS 1191.

Security company hired by a restaurant that served alcoholic beverages did not owe a duty to prevent minors from consuming alcoholic beverages. The court dismissed an action against the security company brought by the parents of intoxicated minors who suffered a fatal accident after leaving the restaurant; B & P C § 25602 provided the security company with immunity from suit. Elizarraras v. L.A. Private Security Services, Inc. (2003, Cal App 2d Dist) 105 Cal App 4th 237, 133 Cal Rptr 2d 302, 2003 Cal App LEXIS 627.

Court granted defendants’ motion to strike parents’ claim for improper service of alcohol in a wrongful death and survival action because California’s anti-dram shop provision, B & P C § 25602(b), precluded the parents’ claim. Voillat v. Red & White Fleet (2004, ND Cal) 2004 US Dist LEXIS 4359.

§ 25602.1. Supplying of alcoholic beverage to intoxicated minor; Cause of action

Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 25602, a cause of action may be brought by or on behalf of any person who has suffered injury or death against any person licensed, or required to be licensed, pursuant to Section 23300, or any person authorized by the federal government to sell alcoholic beverages on a military base or other federal enclave, for “pursuant to Section 23300”, (2) added “, and any other person who sells, or causes to be sold, any alcoholic beverage,”; and (3) substituted “that” for “such” after “giving of” and after “sustained by”.

In a personal injury action alleging defendants’ liability as retail liquor dealers in furnishing alcoholic beverages to a sober minor, who subsequently operated a motor vehicle while intoxicated and caused plaintiffs’ injuries, the trial court properly granted summary judgment in favor of defendants. Under B & P C § 25602.1, licensed alcoholic beverage dealers who provide alcoholic beverages to sober minors are immune from claims by third parties injured as a result of the intoxication of those minors. Rogers v. Alvas (1984, Cal App 1st Dist) 160 Cal App 3d 997, 207 Cal Rptr 60, 1984 Cal App LEXIS 2607.

It was well within the prerogative of the Legislature to declare that the consumption of alcohol and not the sale or furnishing thereof is the proximate cause of injury inflicted by intoxicated persons, except for sales by licensed vendors to obviously intoxicated minors, as it did by enacting the 1978 amendments to B & P C § 25602, and CC § 1714, and adding B & P C § 25602.1. exception to the immunity provided by B & P C § 25602, except for obviously intoxicated minors (B & P C § 25602.1). Because the mental incapacity, inebriation, incompetence, or retarded development of a minor is not immediately evident to those requiring constant care, it must be left to the Legislature, guided by qualified professionals, to determine whether this large and diversified group is to be treated similarly to minors. Cardinal v. Santee Pita, Inc. (1991, Cal App 4th Dist) 254 Cal App 3d 1676, 286 Cal Rptr 275, 199 Cal LEXIS 1176.

In an action arising out of an automobile accident caused by an intoxicated minor, against the owner of the building rented by the sponsor of a dance at which alcohol was served to the minor on the evening of the accident, the trial court properly entered summary judgment for defendant. Under B & P C § 25602.1, imposing liability on any person who “causes to be sold” any alcoholic beverage to an obviously intoxicated minor, the phrase “causes to be sold” requires an affirmative act directly related to the sale of alcohol, which necessarily brings about the resultant action to which the statute is directed, i.e., the furnishing of alcohol to an obviously intoxicated minor. The statute requires malfeasance, not acquiescence; mere inaction is not sufficient. Accordingly, when a person’s only act in connection with the sale of alcohol to an obviously intoxicated minor is (1) the landlord of the premises on which the renter sold alcohol to the minor, and (2) having acquiesced in the liquor license application of the organization which rented the premises, the person cannot be said to have “caused [alcohol] to be sold” to the minor within the meaning of B & P C § 25602.1. Therefore, defendant was immune from liability for injuries inflicted as a result of the minor’s intoxication under the sweeping civil liability statute of B & P C § 25602, subd. (b).

2. Construction

§ 25602.1. Therefore, defendant was immune from liability for injuries inflicted as a result of the minor’s intoxication under the sweeping civil liability statute of B & P C § 25602, subd. (b).

An 18-year-old woman who was injured when, upon leaving a restaurant and bar in which she had become intoxicated, she ran across the street against the traffic signal and into the path of a car stated a cause of action against the restaurant and its agents, based on their negligence in serving her alcoholic beverages, under B & P C § 25602.1, which provides that, notwithstanding B & P C § 25602 subd. (b) (barring actions against purveyors of alcoholic beverages by persons injured by intoxicated persons), “any person” may bring an action against licensees who furnish alcoholic beverages to obviously intoxicated minors where the furnishing is the proximate cause of the injury or death. The usual meaning of the words “any person” include injured intoxicated minors in the absence of a statement excluding them, and the Legislature made no such exclusion, in contrast to the language of other statutes dealing with minors. Additionally, both the legislative history of the statute and its subsequent interpretation by the Supreme Court supported the conclusion that minors themselves were intended to be included in the class of persons who could bring actions against licensees. Chalup v. Aspen Mine Co. (1985, Cal App 4th Dist) 160 Cal App 3d 997, 207 Cal Rptr 60, 1984 Cal LEXIS 2607.

In an action by an injured motor vehicle passenger against the residents and owners of the home in which a guest consumed alcohol before driving the car in which plaintiff was injured, statutory amendment B & P C § 25602.1 (supplementing § 25602.1 to the existing immunities) did not apply. Zieff v. Weinstein (1987, Cal App 1st Dist) 191 Cal App 3d 997, 236 Cal Rptr 536, 1987 Cal App LEXIS 1599.

3. Applicability

Although, under B & P C § 25602.1, a licensee may be held liable for furnishing alcoholic beverages to an obviously intoxicated minor, this statutory section is the sole explicit exception to social host immunity; although not set forth specifically, a party cannot be held civilly liable for violating the statute's misdemeanor provision of serving alcohol to minors (B & P C § 25655). DeBolt v. Kragen Auto Supply, Inc. (1986, Cal App 4th Dist) 182 Cal App 3d 269, 227 Cal Rptr 258, 1986 Cal LEXIS 1703.

B & P C § 25602.1 (action against licensed person for providing alcohol to obviously intoxicated minor causing injury), may be invoked only when the provider of alcohol is licensed. Thus, in an action by a passenger injured while riding in an automobile driven by an intoxicated minor, against two persons who had sold alcohol to the minor before the accident, the trial court properly sustained without leave to amend defendants’ demurrer to the passenger's complaint, and dismissed the causes of action against them. Defendants had sold the alcohol at a social gathering at their home, and were not licensed under B & P C § 23300 (requirement of alcoholic beverage license); thus, § 25602.1 did not apply. Zieff v. Weinstein (1987, Cal App 1st Dist) 191 Cal App 3d 997, 236 Cal Rptr 536, 1987 Cal LEXIS 1599, review denied (1987) 1987 Cal. LEXIS 305.

An injured motor vehicle passenger’s cause of action against the residents and owners of the home in which a guest consumed alcohol before driving the car in which plaintiff was injured, statutory amendment B & P C § 25602.1 (supplementing § 25602.1 to the existing immunities) did not apply. Zieff v. Weinstein (1987, Cal App 1st Dist) 191 Cal App 3d 997, 236 Cal Rptr 536, 1987 Cal LEXIS 1599, review denied (1987) 1987 Cal. LEXIS 305.

In an action by the family of the victim of an automobile accident against the corporate owner of a convenience store, the convenience store franchisees, and a store employee, the trial court erred in denying summary judgment for defendants, who asserted that B & P C § 25602.1 (supplying alcoholic beverage to intoxicated minor), provided no basis for imposing liability on them. A minor who had been drinking heavily with a companion bought beer in the convenience store, and then rejoined his companion in the companion’s automobile, which was subsequently involved in the accident in which the victim died. The companion was driving at the time of the accident. Section 25602.1 should be construed strictly so as to require that the negligence resulting in liability of the alcohol purveyor be that of the very person who purchased the beer. Salem v. Superior Court (1989, Cal App 4th Dist) 211 Cal App 3d 585, 280 Cal Rptr 447, 1989 Cal App LEXIS 611, review denied (1989) 1989 Cal. LEXIS 2752.

As the sole exception to statutory immunity from liability for injuries to persons resulting from the furnishing of alcohol to another, B & P C § 25602.1 (imposing liability on anyone selling to an obviously intoxicated minor), must be strictly construed to effect the Legislature’s intent. In their ordinary sense, the words “causes to be sold” imply some type of affirmative act on the part of the person causing alcohol to be sold, which is directly related to the act of selling alcohol. Thus, a trier of fact may not find liability unless it determines that the minor exhibited one or more signs of intoxication which were sufficient to cause a reasonable person to believe the minor was intoxicated. Hernandez v. Modesto Portuguese Pentecost Assn. (1995, Cal App 3d Dist) 40 Cal App 4th 1274, 48 Cal Rptr 2429, 1995 Cal App LEXIS 1161.

Security company hired by a restaurant that served alcoholic beverages did not owe a duty to prevent minors from consuming alcoholic beverages. The court dismissed an action against the security company brought by the parents of intoxicated minors who suffered a fatal accident after leaving the restaurant; B & P C § 25602 provided the security company with immunity from suit. Elizarraras v. L.A. Private Security Services, Inc. (2003, Cal App 2d Dist) 108 Cal App 4th 237, 133 Cal Rptr 2d 302, 2003 Cal App LEXIS 627.

4. Construction with Other Laws
California courts do not hold liable, under B & P C § 25602.1 (sale of alcoholic beverage to intoxicated minor; creation of cause of action against licensee), a private person who, although he or she served liquor to an obviously intoxicated minor, was not licensed under California law to serve liquor. Thus, an Enlisted Club Marine Barracks which sold alcohol to an obviously intoxicated minor was immune from tort liability under the Federal Tort Claims Act, with regard to the minor's motorcycle accident which killed his passenger, since the club was exempt from California liquor licensing requirements. Federal Tort Claims Act liability was predicated on state law, and a private person in a situation similar to the United States would be immune from civil liability. Gallea v. United States (1986, 9th Cir Cal) 779 F2d 1403, 1986 US App LEXIS 21635.

5. Purpose
Although Veh C § 23155 [repealed] (driving while under the influence), and B & P C § 25602.1 (civil liability of licensees for injury caused by serving alcohol to obviously intoxicated minor), deal with retrospectively, the purposes behind the statutes are different. Thus, impose liability under § 25602.1, the injury need not be caused by the minor’s driving; instead, visible signs of a minor’s obvious intoxication must be established. Being under the influence of alcohol is not comparable; blood alcohol level may be circumstantial evidence of a minor’s outward appearance, but it is not dispositive. Reaction to alcohol and tolerance of it differ among persons, and even within a person, depending on physical condition and other factors. Jones v. Toyota Motor Co. (1998, Cal App 1st Dist) 199 Cal App 4th 364, 243 Cal Rptr 611, 1998 Cal App LEXIS 61.

6. Evidence: Generally
In determining whether one has sold liquor to an intoxicated person, a jury may consider evidence of blood-alcohol level, but such evidence is marginally relevant where there is no direct evidence of the patron’s behavior at the time of the sale. Thus, in an accident victim’s suit alleging negligence in serving liquor to an obviously intoxicated minor, sufficient evidence supported the jury’s conclusion that the minor was not obviously intoxicated at the time of the sale, where the jury reasonably could have found his .10 percent blood-alcohol content about two hours after the accident was due to alcohol consumed after rather than before the sale. There was conflicting testimony as to the amount of liquor consumed by the minor, and two experts testified that the amount the minor admitted drinking prior to the sale would have been insufficient to raise his blood alcohol that high by the time of the test. Red eyes and alcoholic breath alone do not compel a conclusion that a person is obviously intoxicated. Schaffield v. Abboud (1993, Cal App 4th Dist) 15 Cal App 4th 1133, 19 Cal Rptr 2d 205, 1993 Cal App LEXIS 526, review denied (1993) 1993 Cal. LEXIS 3569.

Defendant [tavern proprietor] further knew that defendant [assailant] had a propensity for becoming aggressive when intoxicated. In spite of such knowledge, defendant [tavern proprietor] negligently continued to sell and serve alcoholic beverages to defendant [assailant].

8. As a proximate result of such negligence, defendant [assailant] became intoxicated and aggressive [set forth assault, for example: and stabbed plaintiff with a knife immediately outside the (tavern), causing the hereinafter described injuries].

9. As prescribed by Section 25602.1 of the Business and Professions Code of the State of California, defendant(s) [and DOES I through V, inclusive] owed plaintiff a statutory duty of care. 12. Plaintiff was employed as an [specify] by [employer] at the time of the assault and battery. As a further proximate result of the injuries sustained, plaintiff was prevented from engaging in his employment and thereby lost earnings. The precise amount of such earnings is not presently ascertained; plaintiff will seek leave to amend this complaint to provide such information when his wage loss has been computed.

13. [If applicable, set forth facts supporting further damages sustained by plaintiff].

Second Cause of Action

1. Plaintiff re–alleges Paragraphs [1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 10, 11, 12, and 13] of the First Cause of Action of this complaint with the full force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

2. Defendant(s) [tavern proprietor] [and DOES I through V, inclusive] knew, or in the exercise of ordinary care, should have known that defendant [assailant] was a minor, and consequently should not have been sold and served alcoholic beverages in [tavern] or been permitted to remain in [tavern].

3. Despite such knowledge, on the [evening or as the case may be] of [date], and continuing on into the [early morning hours or as the case may be] of [date], defendant(s) [assailant] [tavern proprietor] [and DOES I through V, inclusive] served or permitted to be served to defendant [assailant], a minor, large quantities of alcoholic beverages without requiring proof of age from defendant [assailant].

4. As a proximate result of defendant(s)' negligence, defendant [assailant] became intoxicated and assaulted plaintiff as previously alleged.

5. Defendant(s) [tavern proprietor] [and DOES I through V, inclusive] owed plaintiff a statutory duty of care as prescribed by Sections 25602.1 and 25608 of the Business and Professions Code of the State of California. By providing alcoholic beverages to such minor, [assailant], defendant(s) breached that duty of care, and the negligence proximately caused plaintiff to suffer the injuries previously described in this complaint.

2. In committing the acts set forth herein, defendant [assailant] acted maliciously and intended to cause injury to plaintiff, and plaintiff is entitled to punitive damages in the sum of $ .

Wherefore, plaintiff prays:

First Cause of Action

1. That defendant(s) [tavern proprietor] [and DOES I through V, and each of them] be cited to appear and answer this complaint;

NOTES OF DECISIONS
1. Generally
2. Constitutionality
3. Applicability
4. Construction with Other Laws

1. Generally
 Provision respecting public nuisance under this section is not ambiguous or unintelligible. People v. Frangadakis (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 184 Cal App 2d 540, 7 Cal Rptr 776, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 1904.

2. Constitutionality
 This section does not conflict with federal or state constitutional provisions relating to deprivation of individual liberty and private property without due process of law, but is valid exercise of police power. People v. Frangadakis (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 184 Cal App 2d 540, 7 Cal Rptr 776, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 1904.

3. Applicability
 In action to abate as public nuisance restaurant engaged in serving intoxicating liquor without license, it was not error to permit agents of the department of alcoholic beverage control to relate conversations between them and doorman and waitresses, where ostensible employment was established as to both doorman and waitresses and defendant was in area at time. People v. Frangadakis (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 184 Cal App 2d 540, 7 Cal Rptr 776, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 1904. Decree ordering that defendants, “their heirs and assigns,” be enjoined and restrained from using or permitting the use of the premises was modified by striking quoted words since action was in personam, not in rem, and heirs and assigns were not parties; and decree was also required to be modified by adding words “in violation of Section 25604 of the Business and Professions Code,” since it was unlawful to use premises for serving alcoholic beverages or mixes for consideration only without license. People v. Frangadakis (1960, Cal App 1st Dist) 184 Cal App 2d 540, 7 Cal Rptr 776, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 1904.

In an action under B & P C § 25604 and Pen C § 11200, to abate the public nuisance created by persons unlawfully selling and serving alcoholic beverages on their premises, failure of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to give defendants two weeks written notice of the existence of a nuisance prior to seeking an injunction did not prejudice defendants. Such notice is required only by the Penal Code and defendants had actual notice through the existence of years of litigation on the matter. In a suit in federal court they had admitted facts constituting the nuisance and they failed to request that the injunction be dissolved on the ground of lack of notice. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Locker (1982, Cal App 2d Dist) 129 Cal App 3d 381, 181 Cal Rptr 55, 1982 Cal App LEXIS 1330.

4. Construction with Other Laws
 B & P C § 23090.5, providing that no court except the Supreme Court or Courts of Appeal shall have jurisdiction to review, affirm, or reverse any order, rule, or decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is completely inapplicable to proceedings to abate a nuisance brought pursuant to B & P C § 25604 and Pen C § 11200. Therefore, in an action brought under the nuisance statutes, the superior court had jurisdiction to issue a permanent injunction against the illegal sale and serving of alcoholic beverages as a public nuisance. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Locker (1982, Cal App 2d Dist) 129 Cal App 3d 381, 181 Cal Rptr 55, 1982 Cal App LEXIS 1330.

§ 25605. Delivery of beverage pursuant to telephone order

No offsale licensee shall deliver any alcoholic beverages pursuant to orders received for such alcoholic beverage by telephone unless upon delivery the recipient shall be able to furnish proof of age and identity to indicate that he or she is 21 years of age or over.

This section does not apply to any person who uses an automobile or other vehicle to transport distilled spirits for lawful use in the trades, professions, or industries. Any person violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

The department may seize any automobile or other vehicle used contrary to the provisions of this section.

2. Applicability

Where owner expressly prohibits use of her taxicabs for transporting liquor, procedure to forfeit one of cabs for illegal transportation of intoxicating liquor by employee would be abhorrent to law. People v. One 1941 Buick 8, (1944, Cal App) 63 Cal App 2d 661, 147 P2d 401, 1944 Cal App LEXIS 988.

Former Alcoholic Beverage Control Act (Stats 1935 p 1123, as amended), exempting common carriers from forfeiture provisions of the statute, exempted owner of taxicab company from forfeiture of taxicab which he did not know was being illegally used by driver to transport or sell liquor while operating taxicab for company. People v. One 1937 Lincoln Zephyr Sedan (1945) 26 Cal 2d 736, 160 P2d 769, 1945 Cal LEXIS 188.

The placing of a case of liquor on the back seat of a parked automobile, the doors of which are locked, constitutes concealment where the record discloses no evidence that the case of liquor could be seen from outside by one looking through the window of the automobile. People v. One 1940 Oldsmobile Club Coupe (1947, Cal App) 80 Cal App 2d 372, 181 P2d 950, 1947 Cal App LEXIS 964.

3. Costs

Disbursements made by state for storage of automobile seized for transporting contraband alcoholic beverage are not taxable as costs against legal owner who appears as claimant in proceeding to forfeit automobile. People v. One 1950 Ford Sedan (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 140 Cal App 2d 647, 295 P2d 486, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 2295, 60 ALR2d 809.

§ 25607. Possession on premises of goods not covered by license

(a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), it is unlawful for any person or licensee to have upon any premises for which a license has been issued any alcoholic beverages other than the alcoholic beverage which the licensee is authorized to sell at the premises under his or her license. It shall be presumed that all alcoholic beverages found or located upon premises for which licenses have been issued belong to the person or persons to whom the licenses were issued. Every person violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor. The department may seize any alcoholic beverages found in violation of this section.

(b) A bona fide public eating place for which an on–sale beer and wine license has been issued may have upon the premises brandy, rum, or liqueurs for use solely for cooking purposes.

(a) This section shall apply to licensees other than a retail on-sale licensee or on-sale beer and wine licensee who is licensed and operates as a bona fide public eating place, as defined in Section 23038, 23038.1, or 23038.2, or as a hotel, motel, or similar lodging establishment, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section
25503.16; a winemakers license; a licensed beer manufacturer, as defined in Section 23357; a retail licensee who concurrently holds an off-sale retail beer and wine license and a beer manufacturer’s license for those same or contiguous premises; and a retail on-sale license or on-sale beer and wine licensee who is licensed and operates as a bona fide public eating place, as defined in Section 23038, 23038.1, or 23038.2, or as a hotel, motel, or similar lodging establishment, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 25503.16, a licensed beer manufacturer, as defined in Section 23357, or a winemakers license, who sells off-sale beer and wine under the on-sale license on those same or contiguous premises.

(b) The Legislature finds and declares that it is in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare to adopt operating standards as set forth in this section for specified retail premises licensed by the department. The standards set forth in this section are state standards that do not preclude the adoption and implementation of more stringent local regulations that are otherwise authorized by law.

(c) Other than as provided in subdivision (a), each retail licensee shall comply with all of the following:

(1) A prominent, permanent sign or signs stating “NO LOITERING IS ALLOWED ON OR IN FRONT OF THESE PREMISES” shall be posted in a place that is clearly visible to patrons of the licensee. The size, format, form, placement, and languages of the sign or signs shall be determined by the department. This paragraph shall apply to a licensee only upon written notice to the licensee from the department. The department shall issue this written notice only upon a request, from the local law enforcement agency in whose jurisdiction the premises are located, that is supported by substantial evidence that there is loitering adjacent to the premises.

(2) A prominent, permanent sign or signs stating “NO OPEN ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE CONTAINERS ARE ALLOWED ON THESE PREMISES” shall be posted in a place that is clearly visible to patrons of the licensee. The size, format, form, placement, and languages of the sign or signs shall be determined by the department. This paragraph shall apply to a licensee only upon written notice to the licensee from the department. The department shall issue this written notice only upon a request, from the local law enforcement agency in whose jurisdiction the premises are located, that is supported by substantial evidence that there is drinking in public adjacent to the premises.

(3) No alcoholic beverages shall be consumed on the premises of an off-sale retail establishment, and no alcoholic beverages shall be consumed outside the edifice of an on-sale retail establishment.

(4) The exterior of the premises, including adjacent public sidewalks and all parking lots under the control of the licensee, shall be illuminated during all hours of darkness during which the premises are open for business in a manner so that persons standing in those areas at night are identifiable by law enforcement personnel. However, the required illumination shall be placed so as to minimize interference with the quiet enjoyment of nearby residents of their property.

(5) Litter shall be removed daily from the premises, including adjacent public sidewalks and all parking lots under the control of the licensee. These areas shall be swept or cleaned, either mechanically or manually, on a weekly basis to control debris.

(6) Graffiti shall be removed from the premises and all parking lots under the control of the licensee within 72 hours of application. If the graffiti occurs on a Friday or weekend day, or on a holiday, the licensee shall remove the graffiti 72 hours following the beginning of the next weekday.

(7) No more than 33 percent of the square footage of the windows and clear doors of an off-sale premises shall bear advertising or signs of any sort, and all advertising and signage shall be placed and maintained in a manner that ensures that law enforcement personnel have a clear and unobstructed view of the interior of the premises, including the area in which the cash registers are maintained, from the exterior public sidewalk or entrance to the premises. However, this latter requirement shall not apply to premises where there are no windows, or where existing windows are located at a height that precludes a view of the interior of the premises to a person standing outside the premises.

(8) Upon request of the local law enforcement agency in whose jurisdiction the licensed premises are located or at the discretion of the department, each public telephone located on off-sale premises (or located in an adjacent area under the control of the off-sale licensee) shall be equipped with devices or mechanisms that prevent persons from calling into that public telephone.

(9) Every licensed retailer who sells or rents video recordings of harmful matter, as defined by Section 313 of the Penal Code, shall create an area within his or her business establishment for the placement of video recordings of harmful matter and for any material that advertises the sale or rental of these video recordings. This area shall be labeled “adults only.” The licensed retailer shall make reasonable efforts to arrange the video recordings in this area in such a way that minors may not readily access the video recordings or view the video box covers. The failure to create and label the “adults only” area is an infraction punishable by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100). The failure to place a video recording or advertisement, regardless of its content, in this area shall not constitute an infraction.

(10) A copy of the applicable operating standards shall be available during normal business hours for viewing by the general public.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Construction
3. Applicability

1. Generally
Since Alcoholic Beverage Control Act was enacted to protect safety, welfare, health, peace and morals of people, violation of any of the provisions relating to prohibited sales constitutes misdemeanor within meaning of this section. Peck's Liquors, Inc. v. Superior Court of San Francisco (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 221 Cal App 2d 772, 34 Cal Rptr 735, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2214.

2. Construction
Section means that violation of any of prohibited acts contained in div 9 of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is misdemeanor, and unless another penalty is specifically provided, violator may be punished in accordance with this section. Peck's Liquors, Inc. v. Superior Court of San Francisco (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 221 Cal App 2d 772, 34 Cal Rptr 735, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2214. The fact that the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act authorizes public enforcement in the form of administrative sanctions (B & P C § 24200) and criminal penalties (B & P C § 25617) does not furnish a basis for finding an unlawful delegation of legislative power. Wilke & Holzheiser, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1966) 65 Cal 2d 349, 55 Cal Rptr 23, 420 P2d 735, 1966 Cal LEXIS 208.

3. Applicability
Assuming mere failure by administrative agency to use one form of enforcing statute rather than another constitutes agency's interpretation that form not used is not available, interpretation by Alcoholic Beverage Control Board of §§ 24749-24751 (repealed), prohibiting sales of intoxicating liquors at less than fair trade price, by limiting itself to remedy of suspending or revoking licenses for violations and not attempting to prosecute persons for violations cannot prevail against Supreme Court's interpretation that Alcoholic Beverage Control Act contains general provision applicable to prohibited sales, that violations for which another penalty is not specifically provided constitute misdemeanors punishable by fine, jail term, or both. Peck's Liquors, Inc. v. Superior Court of San Francisco (1963, Cal App 1st Dist) 221 Cal App 2d 772, 34 Cal Rptr 735, 1963 Cal App LEXIS 2214.

§ 25618. Penalty for felonies
Every person convicted of a felony for a violation of any of the provisions of this division for which another punishment is not specifically provided for in this division shall be punished by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, imprisonment in the state prison, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

Amendments:
1983 Amendment: Substituted “ten thousand dollars ($10,000)” for “five thousand dollars ($5,000)”.
2006 Amendment Substituted “imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, imprisonment in the state prison, or by both that” for “or by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than five years, or by both such,” after “ten thousand dollars ($10,000)”.

(b) This section does not apply where the possession is within premises located in a park or other public place for which a license has been issued pursuant to this division.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality
2. Construction with Other Laws

1. Constitutionality

B & P C § 25656, prohibiting females from tending bar except in certain situations, is repugnant to Cal Const art XX, § 18, declaring that a person may not be disqualified because of sex from entering or pursuing a lawful business, vocation, or profession, and is, therefore, void. Sail’er Inn, Inc. v. Kirby (1971) 5 Cal 3d 1, 95 Cal Rptr 329, 485 P2d 529, 1971 Cal LEXIS 230, 46 ALR3d 351.

The classification created by B & P C § 25656, prohibiting females from tending bar except in certain situations, is invidious, wholly arbitrary, and unconstitutional under the equal protection clauses of the state and federal constitutions. Sail’er Inn, Inc. v. Kirby (1971) 5 Cal 3d 1, 95 Cal Rptr 329, 485 P2d 529, 1971 Cal LEXIS 230, 46 ALR3d 351.

(b) In any place of business where alcoholic beverages are sold to be consumed upon the premises, to employ or knowingly permit anyone to loiter in or about such premises for the purpose of begging or soliciting any patron or customer of, or visitor in, such premises to purchase any alcoholic beverages for the one begging or soliciting.

3. Construction and Application
4. Persons Subject to Action
5. Accusation
6. Evidence: Generally
7. Evidence: Sufficiency

1. Generally
If contract between liquor licensee and entertainment agency under which entertainers are employed by licensee created independent contractor relationship and not that of employer and employee, it applied only to performances of entertainers as dancers; it did not extend to acts of entertainers in seeking patrons to purchase drinks for them or to any other contractual deals or transactions with licensee, and as to these relationship of employer and employee existed. Oxman v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 740, 315 P2d 484, 1957 Cal LEXIS 1551.

In prosecution for conspiracy to violate section, it was not error to neglect to instruct jury as to meaning of words “hostess” and “B girls,” as used in information, where defendant did not request such instruction, “hostess” is one of common understanding, and court, in instructing with reference to finding as to alleged overt acts, sufficiently directed their attention to meaning of expression “B girls.” People v. Holstun (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 167 Cal App 2d 479, 334 P2d 645, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2359.

2. Validity
Section is not void for want of certainty on ground that language is so broad as to apply to legitimate entertainers. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

Classification in Rule 143 of Board of Equalization forbidding female employees to solicit purchase or sale of alcoholic beverages on licensed premises was reasonable and did not arbitrarily discriminate against women, and rule had reasonable relation to legitimate ends for which board was created, was in harmony with purposes of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, and was valid and constitutional as against charge that it was too broad and that Legislature had covered the field in enacting this section and § 24200.5 subd (b). Mercurio v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1773.

Provision prohibiting licensee from permitting anyone to “boiter” on licensed premises to “solicit” drinks is not too broad, vague, or indefinite for enforcement, since meaning of “boiter” and “solicit” is clear and certain. Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 843, 301 P2d 997, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

Section is not unconstitutional on ground that it is vague and uncertain for failing to define word “hostess” used therein, since it is apparent that it was legislative intent to prohibit direct procuring or encouraging of purchase of alcoholic beverages by female attendant employed at on-sale premises if her duties as such attendent include dispensing hospitality by such means as receiving, entertaining or drinking with male customers. People v. Holstun (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 167 Cal App 2d 479, 334 P2d 645, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 2359.

3. Construction and Application
Section prohibits only direct solicitation of drinks and not purchase of drinks by patrons of their own initiative and violation while watching entertainment and when asked by waitress if they desire service. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

“Loiter,” as used in section, has meaning of “to linger idly by the way, to idle,” “to loaf,” or “to idle.” Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 843, 301 P2d 997, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

“Loiter,” as used in section, has sinister or wrongful as well as reasonable definite implication; it connotes lingering in designated places for purpose of committing crime as opportunity may be discovered; loitering as forbidden includes waiting, but mere waiting for any lawful purpose does not constitute loitering. In re Cregler (1961) 56 Cal 2d 308, 14 Cal Rptr 289, 363 P2d 305, 1961 Cal LEXIS 297.

4. Persons Subject to Action
Contention that this section does not expressly provide for vicarious liability of principal for acts of his agent, whereas § 25601 expressly provides that “Every licensee, agent or employee of licensee— . . . ” is unsound since quoted language is not used to impose vicarious liability upon employer for acts of his employee, but is inserted to add personal liability of employee to that of employer, and no such language is necessary in this section. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

It is not perquisite to holding liquor licensees responsible under this section, § 24200 and Pen C § 303 that they personally hired “B” girls or permitted solicitation of drinks in their tavern. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

Licensee of on-sale liquor establishment is chargeable with knowledge of his bartender that girl is loitering in place for purpose of soliciting drinks from customers. Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 843, 301 P2d 997, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

Club’s practice of hiring women to solicit the club’s male patrons to buy drinks for them at an elevated price and paying the women commission for the sales was improper. Lopez v. Baca (2002, Cal App 2d Dist) 98 Cal App 4th 1008, 120 Cal Rptr 2d 281, 2002 Cal App LEXIS 4172.

5. Accusation
There is no variance between accusation charging liquor licensees with violation of this section, § 24200 and Pen C § 303, and proof of violation by licensee’s employees. Cooper v. State Board of Equalization (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d 672, 290 P2d 914, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1242.

Charge that on-sale liquor licensee violated subd (b) by employing or permitting designated person to loiter on premises for purpose of soliciting purchase of alcoholic beverage for solicitor is sufficient to enable licensee to prepare his defense, since in administrative proceedings against licensee the courts are more concerned with fair notice to accused than technical rules of pleading. Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 843, 301 P2d 997, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

6. Evidence: Generally

Trial court properly determined in mandamus proceeding that no relevant evidence was excluded at hearing to revoke liquor license where affidavit of witness licensee wished to present stated that affiant was employed by licensee and had been instructed by him not to accept for or ask for any alcoholic beverages and not to drink alcoholic beverages while on duty, but also stated that affiant had been employed by licensee many months after proceedings to revoke license were begun.相似 v. Munro (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 175 Cal App 2d 1, 345 P2d 598, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1258.

Evidence similar to that which supports decision and order of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control revoking license on ground that licensee knowingly permitted woman to loiter in or about premises for purpose of begging or engaging customer to purchase for her alcoholic beverage will support charge that continuation of license by that licensee would be contrary to public welfare and morals (§ 24200 subd (a)) in that he caused or permitted designated females to solicit

Evidence though weak, is legally sufficient to show violation of subd (b) where it is proved by bartender in on-sale liquor establishment in response to request for “a drink,” and there is no evidence to show that it was in fact not alcoholic. Wright v. Munro (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 843, 301 P2d 997, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1801.

Finding that licensee employed and permitted female entertainer to solicit and encourage patrons to buy her drinks under scheme by which she was to receive commission was supported, as against objection that there was insufficient proof that champagne cocktails purchased by entertainer and consumed by her were alcoholic beverages, where she testified that she ordered champagne cocktails and was served what purported to be such, that she had champagne in her home and knew how it tasted, and that drinks served her in licensed premises were either champagne or cheap wine. Ozman v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 3d Dist) 153 Cal App 2d 740, 315 P2d 484, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1551.

Evidence was insufficient to support revocation of license on ground that licensees employed waitress to loiter on premises for purpose of soliciting patrons to buy drinks, where it appeared, among other things, that waitress was not standing idly by, loafering or walking around aimlessly without purpose, but was engaged in her duties as witness or bartender, and where evidence that licensees knew she solicited drinks was weak. Garcia v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 425, 326 P2d 894, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1753.

Suspension of on-sale liquor license for violation of rule prohibiting solicitation of purchase or sale of alcoholic beverages by female employee of licensee for her consumption was sustained by testimony that entertainer employed by licensee asked agent of department to buy her champagne for her consumption which she did purchase and consumed where testimony was sufficient to show that agent had no knowledge that champagne was being sold at on-sale premises. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 596, 326 P2d 929, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1778.

Suspension of on-sale liquor license for violation of rule prohibiting sales of alcoholic beverages by licensee's female employee for her consumption was supported by testimony that entertainer and cigarette girl, both employees of licensee, asked witnesses to buy them drinks, as against claim that such testimony was hearsay and inadmissible. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 596, 326 P2d 929, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1778.

Proof was sufficient to show that female employee was served alcoholic drink where bartender indicated that he was serving her “screwdriver,” licensee testified that “screwdriver” as served in his place contained orange juice and vodka and there was no evidence that alcoholic drink was not served to female employee, in proceeding to revoke on-sale liquor license for allowing female employee to solicit alcoholic beverage from customer. Greenblatt v. Munro (1958, Cal App 1st Dist) 161 Cal App 2d 596, 326 P2d 929, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1778.

Decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control Board that licensee, through his bartender, knowingly permitted woman to loiter in or about premises for purpose of soliciting customer to purchase, alcoholic beverage for her, in violation of subd (b) and order revoking license, were supported by substantial evidence where agent testified that two female persons were sitting at bar when he entered premises, that he approached him, said she was waitress and asked him to buy her drink, that this conversation took place in immediate presence of bartender, who fixed drink as soon as girl specified what she wanted and without waiting for order, that girl stated that drink contained vodka, after he had furnished “double” of same, bottle of vodka was presented, to agent's statement that drink contained vodka, and that agent paid for both drinks. Greenblatt v. Martin (1961, Cal App 1st Dist) 189 Cal App 2d 787, 11 Cal Rptr 669, 1961 Cal App LEXIS 2250.

In liquor license revocation proceeding, all that was required to support charge of employing or knowingly permitting woman to loiter around licensed premises for purpose of begging or soliciting patrons to purchase alcoholic beverages for her was knowledge of bartender imputed to licensee and evidence that woman solicited drinks from three persons in premises, one of whom was alcoholic beverage control agent. Guder, after he had furnished “double” of same, bottle of vodka was presented, to agent's statement that drink had been furnished to minor, to a minor shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500), or the person shall be required to perform not less than 36 hours or more than 48 hours of community service during hours when the person is not employed and is not attending school, or a combination of a fine and community service as determined by the court. A second or subsequent violation of subdivision (b), where prosecution of the previous violation was not barred pursuant to Section 25667, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500), or the person shall be required to perform not less than 36 hours or more than 48 hours of community service during hours when the person is not employed and is not attending school, or a combination of a fine and community service as determined by the court. It is the intent of the Legislature that the community service requirements prescribed in this section require service at an alcohol or drug treatment program or facility or at a county coroner's office, if available, in the area where the violation occurred or where the person resides.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3), any person who violates subdivision (a) by furnishing an alcoholic beverage, or causing an alcoholic beverage to be furnished, to a minor shall be punished by a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000), no part of which shall be suspended.
suspended, and the person shall be required to perform not less than 24 hours of community service during hours when the person is not employed and is not attending school.

(3) Any person who violates subdivision (c) shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for a minimum term of six months not to exceed one year, by a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both imprisonment and fine.

(4) Persons under the age of 21 years may be used by peace officers in the enforcement of this section to apprehend licensees, or employees or agents of licensees, or other persons who sell or furnish alcoholic beverages to minors. Notwithstanding subdivision (b), any person under the age of 21 years who purchases or attempts to purchase any alcoholic beverage while under the direction of a peace officer is immune from prosecution for that purchase or attempt to purchase an alcoholic beverage. Guidelines with respect to the use of persons under the age of 21 years as decoys shall be adopted and published by the department in accordance with the rulemaking portion of the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code). Law enforcement-initiated minor decoy programs in operation prior to the effective date of regulatory guidelines adopted by the department shall be authorized as long as the minor decoy displays to the seller of alcoholic beverages the appearance of a person under the age of 21 years. This subdivision shall not be construed to prevent the department from taking disciplinary action against a licensee who sells alcoholic beverages to a minor decoy prior to the department's final adoption of regulatory guidelines. After the completion of every minor decoy program performed under this subdivision, the law enforcement agency using the decoy shall notify licensees within 72 hours of the results of the program. When the use of a minor decoy results in the issuance of a citation, the notification required shall be given to licensees and the department within 72 hours of the issuance of the citation. A law enforcement agency may comply with this requirement by leaving a written notice at the licensed premises addressed to the licensee, or by mailing a notice addressed to the licensee.

(g) The penalties imposed by this section do not preclude prosecution or the imposition of penalties under any other provision of law, including, but not limited to, Section 272 of the Penal Code and Section 13202.5 of the Vehicle Code.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
- In action against tavern owner for injuries resulting from collision with automobile driven by minor who had been sold intoxicating liquor by the defendant, demurrer is properly sustained, as sale was too remote to be considered as proximate cause of injuries. - Licensee conducting sale of beverages under on-sale license is charged with active duty to prevent minors from consuming intoxicating liquor on licensed premises, and if licentiate through employee, has knowledge that such consumption is taking place there arises immediately active duty to prevent its continuance, and failure to prevent it is permitting such unlawful consumption, justifying suspension of license. NOTES OF DECISIONS

misdeemeanor was adopted for the purpose of protecting members of the general public from injuries resulting from the excessive use of intoxicating liquor. Waller v. Sloan (1977) 20 Cal 3d 199, 142 Cal Rptr 152, 571 P2d 609, 1977 Cal LEXIS 188.

In an action to establish the liability of a convenience store franchisor for the sale of beer to an intoxicated minor by the franchisee, the trial court did not err in refusing to instruct that the franchisor owed a nondelegable statutory duty of care with respect to the sale of alcoholic beverages. Although B & P C §§ 25602 and 25658 prohibit the furnishing of alcoholic beverages to minors and intoxicated persons, they provide no specific safeguards or precautions to be exercised by the licensees in that regard. Moreover, the case was tried on the theory that the franchisee was the agent of the franchisor, and to have permitted plaintiffs to drastically change their theory of trial after all the evidence was in would have been unfair to the franchisor. Wickham v. Southland Corp. (1985, Cal App 4th Dist) 168 Cal App 3d 49, 213 Cal Rptr 825, 1985 Cal App LEXIS 2970.

Legislation enacted in 1978 (B & P C § 25658, subd. (a); CC § 1714), which eliminated social host liability for injuries resulting from the intoxication of a guest, is not retroactive, and does not immunize hosts from being civilly liable for injuries resulting from an accident occurring before the January 1, 1979, effective date of the legislation. Sagadin v. Ripper (1985, Cal App 3d Dist) 175 Cal App 3d 1141, 221 Cal Rptr 675, 1985 Cal App LEXIS 2910.

In a personal injury action against the hosts of a party who provided beer to an already intoxicated minor for injuries plaintiffs received shortly thereafter when the minor collided with another car while going, at a high rate of speed, in a residential district, at a time he was legally intoxicated, the trial court properly granted the hosts' summary judgment motion, since the hosts were immune from liability under CC § 1714, and B & P C § 25658, unless they knowingly provided alcoholic beverages to one who was unable to voluntarily resist their consumption because of some exceptional physical or mental condition, and youth, by itself, was not such a condition. Bass v. Pratt (1986, Cal App 1st Dist) 177 Cal App 3d 129, 222 Cal Rptr 723, 1986 Cal App LEXIS 2532.

B & P C § 25658(c) applies to any situation in which an individual purchases alcoholic beverages for an underage person; this includes, but is not limited to, the buyer-by-proxy and shoulder tap scenarios. In re Jennings (2004) 34 Cal 4th 254, 17 Cal Rptr 3d 645, 95 P3d 906, 2004 Cal LEXIS 7669.

2. Construction

Cal Code Reg. tit. 4, § 141(b)(5) does not require the identification take place inside the premises where the sale was made. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2003, Cal App 4th Dist) 109 Cal App 4th 1687, 1 Cal Rptr 3d 339, 2003 Cal App LEXIS 1072.

The firemen's rule, providing that negligence in causing a fire furnishes no basis for liability to a professional fireman injured fighting a fire, is applicable to policemen, and precluded recovery by a policeman for personal injuries sustained while attempting to arrest a minor for being drunk in public as the result of defendants' minor daughter's unlawful serving of alcoholic beverages at defendants' residence. Since the policeman was not one of the class of persons for whose protection B & P C § 25658, subd. (a), prohibiting the furnishing of alcoholic beverages to persons under the age of 21, was adopted, the doctrine that violation of a statute gives rise to a presumption of negligence was not applicable and did not preclude the application of the fireman's rule. Walters v. Sloan (1977) 20 Cal 3d 199, 142 Cal Rptr 152, 571 P2d 609, 1977 Cal LEXIS 188.

Defendant minor's contribution of money toward the purchase of alcoholic beverages, which were subsequently consumed by a minor companion, was not sufficient to establish under Pen C § 31, a joint enterprise or conspiracy among the minors to violate B & P C § 25658, subd. (a) (furnishing alcoholic beverages to a minor). Defendant did not himself purchase the liquor and there was no evidence to indicate that he had exercised any control over it. Bennett v. Letterly (1977, Cal App 4th Dist) 74 Cal App 3d 901, 141 Cal Rptr 692, 1977 Cal App LEXIS 152.

A complaint against a minor in a personal injury action based on the minor's violation of B & P C § 25658, furnishing alcoholic beverages to another minor who, while under the influence of alcohol, negligently operated his car so as to collide with plaintiffs' vehicle, and which alleged that defendant's conduct was the proximate cause of plaintiffs' injuries, stated a cause of action sufficient to withstand a demurrer. The statute imposed a duty on defendant even though he was a minor, and defendant was within the class of persons for whose protection the statute was enacted. A presumption of negligence arises from the violation of a statute which was enacted to protect a class of persons of which the plaintiff is a member against the type of harm which the statute suffered as a result of the violation of the statute. King v. Ladyman (1978, Cal App 3d Dist) 81 Cal App 3d 837, 146 Cal Rptr 782, 1978 Cal App LEXIS 1628.

In order to violate B & P C § 25658, subd. (a), making it a misdemeanor to furnish alcohol to a person under 21 years of age, there must be some affirmative act of furnishing alcohol. Mere nonfeasance does not violate the statute, and allegations which do not allege that a defendant actually furnished alcohol fail to state a cause of action for negligence. Sagadin v. Ripper (1985, Cal App 3d Dist) 175 Cal App 3d 1141, 221 Cal Rptr 675, 1985 Cal App LEXIS 2910.

Under B & P C § 25658, subd. (a), making it a misdemeanor to furnish alcohol to a person under 21 years of age, a party giver furnished beer within the meaning of the statute where he not only contributed to the common fund for the purchase of the beer, but directed two guests to pick up the beer, and where he also attached the keg, facilitating access to the beer. Sagadin v. Ripper (1985, Cal App 3d Dist) 175 Cal App 3d 1141, 221 Cal Rptr 675, 1985 Cal App LEXIS 2910.

In a civil action against social hosts for violating B & P C § 25658, subd. (a), making it a misdemeanor to provide alcohol to a person under 21 years, the party giver's father was properly found to have "furnished" beer where he told his son that if parental beer was used, it would have to be replaced, from which the jury could reasonably infer an authorization to use the beer. Such an authorization constitutes the requisite affirmative act of furnishing as a matter of law. However, since the mother took no affirmative act which directly or inferentially constituted furnishing alcohol, and since family relationship alone is not sufficient to impute the negligence of her husband and son to her, there was no competent evidence that she violated the statute. Sagadin v. Ripper (1985, Cal App 3d Dist) 175 Cal App 3d 1141, 221 Cal Rptr 675, 1985 Cal App LEXIS 2910.

In order to impose civil liability on social hosts for violation of B & P C § 25658, subd. (a), making it a misdemeanor to furnish alcohol to a person under 21 years of age, there is no requirement that alcohol be furnished with the knowledge that the drinker will be driving. The question in cases of concurrent causes is one of foreseeability, not negligence. Defendant may be liable if his conduct was a substantial factor in bringing about the harm, though he neither foresaw nor should have foreseen the manner in which the harm occurred. Sagadin v. Ripper (1985, Cal App 3d Dist) 175 Cal App 3d 1141, 221 Cal Rptr 675, 1985 Cal App LEXIS 2910.

In order to violate B & P C § 25658(c), the person furnishing the alcohol need not know that the person to whom it is furnished is under the age of 21 years. In re Jennings (2003, Cal App 3d Dist) 106 Cal App 4th 869, 131 Cal App 3d 233, 2003 Cal App LEXIS 900, rev’d (2004) 34 Cal 4th 254, 17 Cal Rptr 3d 645, 95 P3d 906, 2004 Cal LEXIS 7669.

Cal Code Reg. tit. 4, § 141(b)(5) only requires the peace officer to enter or remain on the premises to arrange a face-to-face identification. The literal terms of the section leave the location of the identification to the discretion of the peace officer. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2003, Cal App 4th Dist) 109 Cal App 4th 1687, 1 Cal Rptr 3d 339, 2003 Cal App LEXIS 972.

Although B & P C § 25658(a) clearly embraces the social party host (because such persons furnish or give away alcoholic beverages to their guests), the generalized actions of the typical social party host, providing provisions for his or her guests, does not run afoul of the more general § 25658(c) because, as a general matter, such hosts cannot be said to have purchased alcohol “for” any particular guest. Although a social host could be said to have purchased alcoholic beverages for every one of his or her guests, such an interpretation would be unreasonable, as in that case, “purchase for” would mean the same as “furnish to,” blurring the distinction between the two subdivisions; as used in § 25658(c), the term “for” is used as a function word to indicate the person that something is to be delivered to. In re Jennings (2004) 34 Cal 4th 254, 17 Cal Rptr 3d 645, 95 P2d 906, 2004 Cal LEXIS 7669.

To obtain a conviction under B & P C § 25658(a), the People need not prove the offender knew the person to whom he or she furnished, sold or gave an alcoholic beverage was in fact not yet 21 years old. In re Jennings (2004) 34 Cal 4th 254, 17 Cal Rptr 3d 645, 95 P2d 906, 2004 Cal LEXIS 7669.

Legislative history indicates the legislature intended that a conviction of violating B & P C § 25658(c) does not require a showing the offender had knowledge of the imbibers's age or other criminal intent; accordingly, although the People must prove an accused "purchased" an alcoholic beverage "for" an underaged person, the People need not also prove the accused knew that person was under 21 years of age. In re Jennings (2004) 34 Cal 4th 254, 17 Cal Rptr 3d 645, 95 P2d 906, 2004 Cal LEXIS 7669.

3. Defenses

In a mandamus proceeding to compel the State Board of Equalization to set aside an order suspending liquor licenses of cafe owners following a decision of the board that they sold whiskey to a minor in violation of this statute, a finding that the board's decision was not supported by substantial evidence would not be disturbed on appeal, where it appeared that the clerk in charge of the cafe asked the minor to prove his identification as to his age, that the minor exhibited a registration card issued in the name of another person; that the minor signed a piece of paper copying the name of the other person, and that the clerk compared the signatures, thought there was a fair resemblance, and made the sale. Young v. State Board of Equalization (1949, Cal App 9th Dist) 90 Cal App 2d 256, 202 P2d 587, 1949 Cal LEXIS 969.

Where evidence shows that before purchasing intoxicating liquor, purchaser submitted to bartender document purporting to indicate majority, apparently complying with former Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, and bartender testified that he believed document to be official, Board of Equalization and courts could not suspend license for selling to minor, in absence of supported finding that bartender acted in bad faith without diligence. Keane v. Reilly (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 130 Cal App 2d 407, 279 P2d 152, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1912.

Section 25660 is available as defense in prosecution for violation of this section. People v. Garrigan (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d Supp 584, 289 P2d 892, 1955 Cal LEXIS 1273.

Ruling that § 25660 is not available as defense in prosecution under this section, though erroneous, does not affect any substantial right of defendant where it is conceded that defendant did not comply with § 25660 on occasion of sale on which prosecution is based. People v. Garrigan (1955, Cal App 1st Dist) 137 Cal App 2d Supp 584, 289 P2d 892, 1955 Cal LEXIS 1273.

Prohibition of B & P C § 25658 (prohibition against sale of alcoholic beverages to minors), can occur despite the seller's lack of knowledge that the purchaser is under the age of 21, the seller's liability is not absolute, since B & P C § 25658, allows the seller to rely on the apparent age of majority and identity. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1994) 7 Cal 4th 561, 28 Cal Rptr 2d 638, 869 P2d 1163, 1994 Cal LEXIS 1391.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board did not abuse its discretion in upholding the suspensions of the liquor licenses of two grocery stores for selling alcohol to minors in violation of B & P C § 25658, subd. (a), where the stores had sold alcoholic beverages to minors acting as police decoys. Although Cal. Const., art. XX, § 22, prohibits the sale to, or purchase by, minors of alcoholic beverages, the Constitution does not preclude the use of minors as decoys. An evidence that two officers saw minor, a 15-year-old boy, make the purchase, by the alcoholic beverage make a face to face identification of the alleged seller as required by Cal C Rgs, tit 4, § 141b(b), which is a defense to an action brought pursuant to § 25658. Acapulco Restaurants, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1998, Cal App 2d Dist) 67 Cal App 4th 575, 79 Cal Rptr 2d 126, 1998 Cal App LEXIS 896.

In a prosecution for sale of an alcoholic beverage to a minor (B & P C § 25658), the trial court properly refused to instruct the jury to find defendant not guilty if the jurors found police had not complied with specific guidelines established by regulation requiring a decoy to answer truthfully when asked any questions about his or her age. Although the Legislature directed the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to adopt and publish guidelines for the use of underage decoys, there was no statutory directive for the Department to determine what action or inaction would create a defense to conduct made criminal when the Legislature enacted § 25658. After an indication the Legislature delegated such power to the Department, this would constitute an improper usurpation of the Legislature's function to define what is criminal conduct. People v. Figueroa (1999, Cal App 4th Dist) 68 Cal App 4th 1409, 81 Cal Rptr 2d 216, 1999 Cal App LEXIS 5.

Although the prosecution need not prove an offender's knowledge of age in order to establish a violation of B & P C § 25658(c), a defendant is entitled to raise an affirmative defense, for which he bears the burden of proof, that he honestly and reasonably believed the person for whom he or she purchased alcoholic beverage was at least 21 years old. Recognizing the viability of a mistake of fact defense is consistent with the modern trend away from strict liability for criminal offenses as well as the statutory scheme of which B & P C § 25658(c) is but a part. In re Jennings (2004) 34 Cal 4th 254, 17 Cal Rptr 3d 645, 95 P2d 906, 2004 Cal LEXIS 7669.

4. Hearing

Where licensee accused of having sold beer to minor was represented at administrative hearing of department by member of bar who actively participated in proceedings, cross-examined witnesses, introduced evidence and made use of all available facts or authorities to effectuate licensee's exoneration, and where attorney made no motion for continuance to enable licensee to be present in person, but offered in evidence transcript of proceedings of licensee's trial in municipal court for purpose of proving his innocence, he is in no position, in subsequent mandamus proceeding to compel department to set aside order revoking license, to complain of his failure before department or to claim that he was denied due process. Molina v. Munro (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 601, 302 P2d 818, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1362.

5. Evidence: Generally

Although evidence of identification of bartender as having illegally sold alcoholic liquor to minors may have been hearsay, such evidence is admissible to supplement direct evidence of identity. Moyer v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 140 Cal App 2d 651, 295 P2d 583, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 2296.

Police officer testifying in liquor license case is, as expert in field, competent to give his opinion that a drink served a minor contained distilled spirits. Griswold v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 807, 297 P2d 762, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1929.

Presumption in liquor license case that liquor is served when requested is not overcome by presumption of innocence; it may support a finding, and it prevails until controverted. Griswold v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 807, 297 P2d 762, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1920.

ABC was permitted to suspend a store's liquor license after a clerk sold an alcoholic beverage to a minor acting as a police decoy. Cal. Code Regs, tit 4, § 141b(b) permitted the police to conduct a face-to-face identification of the clerk outside rather than inside the store. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2003, Cal App 4th Dist) 109 Cal App 4th 1867, 1 Cal Rptr 3d 330, 2003 Cal App LEXIS 972.

6. Evidence: Sufficiency

Finding that liquor license sold whiskey to minor is supported by evidence that minor ordered "bourbon on rocks" and it was served to him, where licensee did not see to fit attack such prima facie case, but simply offered evidence to excuse violation, claiming inadvertence. Griswold v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 141 Cal App 2d 807, 297 P2d 762, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1920.

Finding of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that liquor licensee sold beer to minor in violation of law is sustained by evidence that two officers saw minor, a 15-year-old boy, make the purchase, by

§ 25658.1 Offer in compromise not permitted for violation of Section 25658; Revocation of license

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, no licensee may petition the department for an offer in compromise pursuant to Section 23085 for a third or any subsequent violation of Section 25658 that occurs within 36 months of the initial violation.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 24200, the department may revoke a license for a third violation of Section 25658 that occurs within any 36-month period. This provision shall not be construed to limit the department's authority and discretion to revoke a license prior to a third violation when the circumstances warrant that penalty.

(c) For purposes of this section, no violation may be considered for purposes of determination of the penalty until it has become final.

1999 Amendment: Added subd (c).

Amendments:

1997 Amendment: (1) Amended subd (a) by (a) substituting “that” for “such a” after “he or she makes” in the first sentence; (b) substituting “Section 25602 and Section 25602.1 pertaining to sales to” in subd (a)(1)(D); and (c) deleting “On and after January 1, 1992,” at the beginning of the first sentence of subds (a) and (b); (2) adding the comma after “acknowledgment” in the introductory clause of subd (a)(1); (3) substituting “commencing with Section 25631” for “commencing with Section 25630” of Chapter 16 in subd (a)(1)(C); (4) deleting “On and after January 1, 1992,” at the beginning of subd (e); and (5) substituting “video recordings” for “videotapes” both times it appears in subd (d).

Law Revision Commission Comments:

2009—Subdivision (a)(1)(C) of Section 25658.4 is amended to correct a cross-reference. Former Section 25630, the first section of Article 2 of Chapter 16, was repealed by 1969 Cal. Stat. ch. 614, § 1.

Subdivision (d) is amended to reflect advances in recording technology and for consistency of terminology. For a similar reform, see 2002 Cal. (a) Any person under the age of 21 years who attempts to purchase any alcoholic beverage from a licensee, or the licensee’s agent or employee, is guilty of an infraction and shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred fifty dollars ($250), or the person shall be required to perform not less than 24 hours or more than 32 hours of community service during hours when the person is not employed or is not attending school, or a combination of fine and community service as determined by the court. A second or subsequent violation of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500), or the person shall be required to perform not less than 36 hours or more than 48 hours of community service during hours when the person is not employed or is not attending school, or a combination of fine and community service, as the court deems just. (b) The penalties imposed by this section do not preclude prosecution or the imposition of penalties under any other provision of law, including, but not limited to, Section 13202.5 of the Vehicle Code.

§ 25659.5. Sale of keg beer; Identification label; provision of false information by purchaser; Fees

(a) Retail licensees selling keg beer for consumption off licensed premises shall place an identification tag on all kegs of beer at the time of sale and shall require the signing of a receipt for the keg of beer by the purchaser in order to allow kegs to be traced if the contents are used in violation of this article. The keg identification shall be in the form of a numbered label prescribed and supplied by the department that identifies the seller. The receipt shall be on a form prescribed and supplied by the department and shall include the name and address of the purchaser and the purchaser’s driver’s license number or equivalent form of identification number. A retailer shall not return any deposit upon the return of any keg that does not have the identification label required pursuant to subdivision (a).

(b) Any licensee selling keg beer for off premise consumption who fails to require the signing of a receipt at the time of sale and fails to place a numbered identification label on the keg shall be subject to disciplinary action pursuant to this division. The licensee shall retain a copy of the receipt, which shall be retained on the licensed premise for a period of six months. The receipt records shall be available for inspection and copying by the department or other authorized law enforcement agency.

(c) Possession of a keg containing beer with knowledge that the keg is not identified as required by subdivision (a) is a misdemeanor.

(d) Any purchaser of keg beer who knowingly provides false information as required by subdivision (a) is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(e) The identification label required pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be constructed of material and made attachable in such a manner as to make the label easily removable for the purpose of cleaning and reusing the keg by a beer manufacturer.

(f) The department is authorized to charge a fee not to exceed the actual cost of supplying receipt forms and identification labels required pursuant to subdivision (a). Fees collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund.

(g) As used in this section, “keg” means any brewery–sealed, individual container of beer having a liquid capacity of six gallons or more.

§ 25659. Proof of age

For the purpose of preventing the violation of Section 25658, any licensee, or his or her agent or employee, may refuse to sell or serve alcoholic beverages to any person who is unable to produce adequate written evidence that he or she is over the age of 21 years.

A licensee, or his or her agent or employee, may seize any identification presented by a person that shows the person to be under the age of 21 years or that is false, so long as a receipt is given to the person from whom the identification is seized and the seized identification is given within 24 hours of seizure to the local law enforcement agency that has jurisdiction over the licensed premises. A licensee, his or her agent or employee’s decision to not seize a license shall not create any civil or criminal liability.

§ 25660. Evidence of age and identity; Proof of reliance as defense

(a) Bona fide evidence of majority and identity of the person is any of the following:

(1) A document issued by a federal, state, county, or municipal government, or subdivision or agency thereof, including, but not limited to, a valid motor vehicle operator's license, that contains the name, date of birth, description, and picture of the person.

(2) A valid passport issued by the United States or by a foreign government.

(3) A valid identification card issued to a member of the Armed Forces that includes a date of birth and a picture of the person.

(b) Proof that the defendant-licensee, or his or her employee or agent, demanded, was shown, and acted in reliance upon bona fide evidence in any transaction, employment, use, or permission forbidden by Section 25658, 25663, or 25665 shall be a defense to any criminal prosecution therefor or to any proceedings for the suspension or revocation of any license based thereon.

1. Generally

This statute does not impose on licensees the duty of determining at their peril whether the drivers license in a bona fide license of the party presenting it and they have a right to assume the validity of such license and to accept the holder as the legal owner unless his personal appearance demonstrates the contrary above mere suspicion. Conti v.

If licensee delegates to employee task of ascertaining bona fide documentary evidence of majority and identity, required by this section, as defense to proceeding for suspension of license for selling intoxicating liquor to minor, he is bound by employee’s conduct as if he had acted in person. 5501 Hollywood, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 748, 318 P2d 820, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1351.

A licensee does not act at his peril in selling liquor, and if he uses due care and acts in good faith his license is not to be jeopardized because a minor representing himself as an adult succeeds in purchasing liquor. Raab v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 4th Dist) 177 Cal App 2d 335, 2 Cal Rptr 26, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2475.

A licensee under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is barred by the acts and omissions of his employees, but, by the same token, he has the benefit of their collective conduct, knowledge and reliance in determining whether there has been a compliance with the provisions of B & P C § 25660, relating to evidence of majority and identity. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

Although a violation of B & P C § 25658 (prohibition against sale of alcoholic beverages to minors), can occur despite the seller’s lack of knowledge that the purchaser is under the age of 21, the seller’s liability is not absolute, since B & P C § 25660, allows the seller to rely on the existence of majority and identity. Proviso Corp. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (1994) 7 Cal 4th 561, 28 Cal Rptr 2d 638, 869 P2d 1163, 1994 Cal LEXIS 1391.

2. Purpose

Purpose of section, as enacted, was to relieve vendors of alcoholic beverages from having in all events to determine at their peril the purchaser’s age, and it was intended to furnish readily applicable standard usable under conditions generally obtaining which, when complied with, would constitute a defense if in fact purchaser was under 21. Dethlefsen v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 3d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 561, 303 P2d 7, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1376.

Purpose of requiring documentary evidence as proof of identity is that licensee, or his agent, may, by comparing picture, description, or signature appearing on documents with appearance or handwriting of person representing them, have reasonable basis for concluding that person in question is individual depicted in documents, and has reached his majority as indicated by information therein. Pastime Cafe, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 114, 323 P2d 551, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 1969.

In enacting this section legislature provided method whereby liquor permitted the minor to consume an alcoholic beverage in the licensee’s presence, the onus is on the minor to prove that he was of legal age to purchase liquor. Raab v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958, Cal App 3d Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 335, 324 P2d 98, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2003.

The provisions of B & P C § 25660, relating to bona fide evidence of major and identity, furnish a licensee under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act with a procedure to protect himself and in effect establish an exception to the general prohibition against transactions with minors. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

3. Construction

Section, as it read prior to 1955 amendment, should be interpreted to apply to each individual sale, and any seller acting in violation of such requirement must have done so at his own risk. People v. Garrigan (1955, Cal App Dep’t Super Ct) 137 Cal App 2d Supp 854, 289 P2d 892, 1955 Cal App LEXIS 1273.

Act of questioning minor and seeing proof of age two or three weeks before sale is not “immediately prior” to sale. Farah v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 335, 324 P2d 98, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2003.

4. Requisites for Successful Defense

To protect a vendor, evidence of majority and identity of purchaser would have to be presented by person whose appearance is such as to make it doubtful on which side of line dividing minority from majority the purchaser is; when doubt as to fact would arise in good faith, vendor can rely upon documentary evidence of majority and identity, such as motor vehicle operators’ licenses and draft board certificates, but bona fides of such documents must be ascertained if lack of it would be disclosed by reasonable inspections, circumstances considered; such circumstances include vendor’s right to rely upon usual presumptions of legal age. Dethlefsen v. State Board of Equalization (1956, Cal App 3d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 561, 303 P2d 7, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1376.

To prevail with defense under section, it is incumbent on merchant to demand documentary proof of customer’s majority “before furnishing any alcoholic beverage to a minor,” and where hearing officer and department do not believe merchant’s story that minor exhibited driver’s license which purportedly proved his majority, such defense is not established. Molina v. Munro (1956, Cal App 2d Dist) 145 Cal App 2d 601, 302 P2d 818, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1382.

It is essential to successful defense under this section that operator’s license or other evidence of majority be presented by one whose appearance indicates that he or she could be twenty-one-years of age, and reasonable inspection of document must be made by licensee or his agent. 5501 Hollywood, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 2d Dist) 155 Cal App 2d 748, 318 P2d 820, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 1351.

There are three tests by which to measure conduct of liquor licensee in determining whether there has been compliance with this section: (1) inspection of documentary evidence of majority and identity offered by customer is entitled to rely on its apparent genuineness; (2) he must exercise caution that would be shown by reasonable and prudent person in same or similar circumstances, and (3) he must make inspection of documentary evidence and his appraisal of physical appearance of customer “immediately prior” to sale. Farah v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 335, 324 P2d 98, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2003.

In proceedings for suspension of a license under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act for violation of B & P C § 25658, subds. (a), (b), by selling and furnishing an alcoholic beverage to a minor and by permitting the minor to consume an alcoholic beverage in the licensee’s premises, the licensee may assert reliance on the original demand and exhibition of evidence of majority and identity (B & P C § 25660), on entry upon the premises, in selling, furnishing or permitting the consumption of an alcoholic beverage by that minor following the entry and such defense is not lost because a second employee pursued an inordinate inquiry before serving the minor, where the minor patron had exhibited to one employee on entry on the premises, and at all times thereafter had on his person, what was found to be bona fide evidence of majority and identity. Lacabanne Properties, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

Reliance in good faith upon a document issued by one of the governmental entities enumerated in B & P C § 25660, constitutes a defense to a liquor license suspension proceeding based upon dealing with a minor, even though the document is altered, forged, or otherwise spurious. Kirby v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1968, Cal App 5th Dist) 267 Cal App 2d 895, 73 Cal Rptr 352, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1466.

Liquor licensee’s employee asked to see minor’s identification, but she did not recognize that the license was a fake. Although B & P C § 25660 applies to fake identifications that purported to be issued by a government agency, the licensees in this case failed to exercise reasonable diligence and did not reasonably rely on the fake identification. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2004, Cal App 1st Dist) 116 Cal App 4th 1429, 13 Cal Rptr 3d 826, 2004 Cal App LEXIS 819.

5. Burden of Proof

Defense afforded licensee by this section is affirmative, and burden is on him to show that he is entitled to its benefits. Farah v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1958, Cal App 2d Dist) 159 Cal App 2d 335, 324 P2d 98, 1958 Cal App LEXIS 2003; Burako v. Munro (1959, Cal App 2d Dist) 177 Cal App 2d 335, 324 P2d 98, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1382.
In a proceeding involving a suspension of a license under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, the licensee has the burden of proving the defense that evidence of majority and identity was demanded, shown and acted on as prescribed by the provisions of B & P C § 25660. The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1968, Cal App 1st Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 181, 67 Cal Rptr 734, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1730.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not abuse its discretion in suspending a liquor license because of the licensee's employment of a minor in violation of B & P C § 25663, where, although the licensee acted in good faith, the evidence of the employee's majority relied upon by him did not consist of documents issued by a governmental authority. Pastime Cafe, Inc. v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959, Cal App 1st Dist) 174 Cal App 2d 688, 345 P2d 124, 1959 Cal App LEXIS 1754.

The evidence was sufficient to support the suspension of a liquor license for sale to minors where it appeared that each of the minors involved testified that he purchased liquor from the licensees' store, two of them showing no identification at all and the third showing only an identification card such as contained in a wallet and which he filled out himself, and there was some corroboration of their testimony. Raab v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1960, Cal App 4th Dist) 177 Cal App 2d 333, 2 Cal Rptr 26, 1960 Cal App LEXIS 2475.

The court shall also order the person to pay the costs of the court proceedings and any other costs that may be ordered by the court.

The court may order the person to pay all or any portion of the costs incurred by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in connection with the investigation or prosecution of the person.

1999 Amendment: Substituted subd (a) for former subd (a) which read: “(a) Any person under the age of 21 years who has any alcoholic beverage in his or her possession on any street or highway or in any public place or in any place open to the public is guilty of a misdemeanour. This section does not apply to possession by a person under the age of 21 years making a delivery of an alcoholic beverage in pursuance of the order of his or her parent, responsible adult relative, or any other adult designated by the parent or legal guardian, or in pursuance of his or her employment. That person shall have a complete defense if he or she was following, in a timely manner, the reasonable instructions of his or her parent, legal guardian, responsible adult relative, or adult designee relating to disposition of the alcoholic beverage.”

NOTES OF DECISIONS
1. Generally
2. Construction with Other Laws

1. Generally
It was not only the right of a police officer but his duty to check any suspicious activity and it was proper that the officer should find out more about a panel truck, which he had never seen before, observed in the middle of the night parked in a questionably illegal way in an alley located in a home area; the officer had the right to stop the car and require identification, and when he discovered that there was an active breach of the law by the minor occupants, under circumstances which prima facie made them guilty of an offense through the use of an open jug of wine, he was not remiss in ordering their arrest. Bramlette v. Superior Court of Merced County (1969, Cal App 5th Dist) 273 Cal App 2d 799, 78 Cal Rptr 532, 1969 Cal App LEXIS 2228.

A police officer’s arrest of a juvenile for violating B & P C § 25662 (possession of alcoholic beverages by a minor in a public place) was proper, where the officer had noticed a group of juveniles congregated near a liquor store, where they told him they were waiting for someone but would move on, where defendant then came out of the liquor store with a paper bag, which he went out of his way to deposit behind a wall upon seeing the officer, and where the bag proved to contain a bottle of whiskey and two bottles of wine. The fact that juveniles were in an area where such groups do not usually congregate justified detaining and questioning them and defendant’s suspicious actions justified investigation of the contents of the bag. People v. Superior Court (1973, Cal App 1st Dist) 30 Cal App 3d 257, 106 Cal Rptr 211, 1973 Cal App LEXIS 1155.

2. Construction with Other Laws
Defendant, placed under arrest for possession of alcohol by a minor, could not be arrested or prosecuted under B & P C § 25662, relating to possession of an alcoholic beverage by a minor in a public place, but was chargeable under Veh C § 23123.5 [renumbered], covering such possession “in a motor vehicle”; defendant was not only subject to the extra penalties imposed by that section but was also entitled to the rights of a person charged thereunder, including the right to be taken before a magistrate so that he might be admitted to jail. People v. Superior Court (1971, Cal App 1st Dist) 14 Cal App 3d 935, 92 Cal Rptr 545, 1971 Cal App LEXIS 1043.

A booking search of a juvenile defendant legally arrested under B & P C § 25662, for possession of alcoholic beverages in a public place was proper, and marijuana found on his person was therefore admissible in evidence against him. While B & P C §§ 24209, provides that a person arrested for such an offense may be released without being taken before a magistrate on his signing an agreement to appear in court, there is no requirement that such a person must be released without bail or without booking; it is a matter within the discretion of the arresting officer or the booking officer. People v. Superior Court (1973, Cal App 1st Dist) 30 Cal App 3d 257, 106 Cal Rptr 211, 1973 Cal App LEXIS 1155.

State law did not preempt an ordinance that prohibited underage drinking, as shown by blood alcohol, because Cal Const Art XX, § 22, does not refer to consumption and the ordinance was not duplicative of H & S C § 11199, subd. (e); B & P C §§ 25662, subd. (a), 25665, 25658, subd. (b); or Veh C §§ 23136, 23140. In re Jennifer S. (2009, 1st Dist) 2009 Cal App LEXIS 1803.

§ 25663. Employment of person under 21; Employment of person under 18 by off-sale licensee; Employment in bona fide public eating place licensed for on-sale of alcoholic beverages

(a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), no licensee that sells or serves alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises shall employ any person under 21 years of age for the purpose of preparing or serving alcoholic beverages. Every person who employs or uses the services of any person under the age of 21 years in or on that portion of any premises, during business hours, which are primarily designed and used for the sale and service of alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) Any off-sale licensee who employs or uses the services of any person under the age of 18 years for the sale of alcoholic beverages shall be subject to suspension or revocation of his or her license, except that no person under the age of 18 years may be employed or used for those purposes if that person is under the continuous supervision of a person 21 years of age or older.

(c) Any person between 18 and 21 years of age employed in any bona fide public eating place, as defined in Sections 23038 and 23038.1, which is licensed for the on-sale of alcoholic beverages, may serve alcoholic beverages to consumers only under the following circumstances: such service occurs in an area primarily designed and used for the sale and service of food for consumption on the premises; and the primary duties of the employee shall be the service of meals to guests, with the service of alcoholic beverages being incidental to such duties. For purposes of this subdivision, “serve” or “service” includes the delivery, presentation, opening, or pouring of an alcoholic beverage.

§ 25663.5. EMPLOYMENT OF PERSONS 18 TO 21 YEARS OF AGE AS MUSICIANS

Notwithstanding Section 25663 or any other provision of law, persons 18 to 21 years of age may be employed as musicians, for entertainment purposes only, during business hours on premises which are primarily designed and used for the sale and service of alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises, if live acts, demonstrations, or exhibitions which involve the exposure of the private parts or buttocks of any participant or the breasts of any female participant are not allowed on such premises. However, the area of such employment shall be limited to a portion of the premises that is restricted to the use exclusively of musicians or entertainers in the performance of their functions, and no alcoholic beverages shall be sold, served, consumed, or taken into that area.

§ 25664. ADVERTISEMENTS APPEALING TO MINORS

(a)(1) The use, in any advertisement of alcoholic beverages, of any subject matter, language, or slogan addressed to and intended to encourage minors to drink the alcoholic beverages, is prohibited.

(2) Signage or flyers advertising an establishment that serves alcoholic beverages to individuals under the age of 21 years are prohibited under paragraph (1) if one of the establishment’s principal business activities is the selling of alcoholic beverages, and the advertisement expressly states that the jurisdiction in which the establishment is located has a legal drinking age of under 21 years or that individuals under the age of 21 years may patronize the establishment.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to restrict or prohibit any advertisement of alcoholic beverages to those persons of legal drinking age.

(b) The Department may adopt rules as it determines to be necessary for the administration of this section.

2003 Amendment: (1) Added subdivision designation (a)(1); (2) added the commas after “‘The use’ and after ‘beverages’ both times it appears in subd (a)(1); (3) added subd (a)(2); and (4) added subdivision designations (a)(3) and (b).

§ 25665. Persons under 21 years of age on premises

Any licensee under an on-sale license issued for public premises, as defined in Section 23039, who permits a person under the age of 21 years to enter and remain in the licensed premises without lawful business therein is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person under the age of 21 years who enters and remains in the licensed public premises without lawful business therein is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars ($200), no part of which shall be suspended.

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Applicability
3. Local Ordinances

1. Generally
Where minor is present in barroom and bartender is inactive or passive with respect to his affirmative duty to ascertain age of patrons, such passive conduct on part of bartender amounts to “permitting” minor to be present in barroom. Ballesteros v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 234 Cal App 2d 694, 44 Cal Rptr 633, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1054.

Married woman 18 years of age who accompanies her husband into on-sale licensed premises does not come within exception stated in this section that prohibition against minors being on on-sale premises is not applicable to person under 21 years of age who is on premises on lawful business, where husband was in barroom merely as patron of alcoholic beverage licensees. Ballesteros v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 2d Dist) 234 Cal App 2d 694, 44 Cal Rptr 633, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1054.

2. Applicability
A finding that a liquor store that also had a bar allowed a 20-year old woman to enter with friends and sit at a table for 10 minutes before a waitress notice her and asked for identification, alone, was not sufficient to support a conclusion that the store violated B & P C § 25665.

§ 25666. Appearance of minor at hearing

In any hearing on an accusation charging a licensee with a violation of Sections 25658, 25663, and 25665, the department shall produce the alleged minor for examination at the hearing unless he or she is unavailable as a witness because he or she is dead or unable to attend the hearing because of a then-existing physical or mental illness or infirmity, or unless the licensee has waived, in writing, the appearance of the minor. When a minor is absent because of a then-existing physical or mental illness or infirmity, a reasonable continuance shall be granted to allow for the appearance of the minor if the administrative law judge finds that it is reasonably likely that the minor can be produced within a reasonable amount of time. Nothing in this section shall prevent the department from taking testimony of the minor as provided in Section 11511 of the Government Code.

Amendments:
1987 Amendment: (1) Added “he or she is unavailable as a witness because he or she is dead or unable to attend the hearing because of a then-existing physical or mental illness or infirmity, or unless the licensee has waived, in writing, the appearance of the minor. If a person is convicted of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 25658, or Section 25658.5, 25661, or 25662 and is granted probation, the court may order, with the consent of the defendant, as a term and condition of probation, in addition to any other term and condition required or authorized by law, that the defendant participate in the program prescribed in Article 3 (commencing with Section 23509) of Chapter 12 of Division 11.5 of the Vehicle Code.

Amendments:
1998 Amendment: Substituted “Article 3 (commencing with Section 23509) of Chapter 12 of Division 11.5” for “Article 1.7 (commencing with Section 23145) of Chapter 12 of Division 11.5”.

Administrative Provisions

§ 25750. Power of department to make rules; Nude persons; County option

(a) The department shall make and prescribe those reasonable rules as may be necessary or proper to carry out the purposes and intent of Section 22 of Article XX of the California Constitution and to enable it to exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred upon it by that section or by this division, not inconsistent with any statute of this state, including particularly this division and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(b) Any regulation which excludes nude persons from licensed premises shall not apply to a nude person at licensed premises located at a nudist resort or nudist campground which was in existence prior to January 1, 1977, and whose operation is in conformance with local land use regulations.

(c) Subdivision (b) is applicable only in a county where the board of supervisors of the county in which the licensed premises is located adopts an ordinance or resolution making subdivision (b) applicable in that county, and the sheriff of that county certifies that no extraordinary police problem would be created thereby.

Amendments:
1955 Amendment: Substituted “department” for “board”.
1987 Amendment: (1) Designated the former section to be subd (a); (2) amended subd (a) by (a) substituting “those” for “such” after “and prescribe”; (b) adding “California”; (c) deleting “any of the provisions of” after “inconsistent with”; and (d) deleting “the provisions of” after “including particularly” and after “this division and”; and (3) added subds (b) and (c).

NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Generally
2. Particular Rules and Regulations
3. Applications and Licenses
4. Prices
5. Employees and Entertainment

1. Generally
Former Board of Equalization could not, under the guise of rule making, in effect usurp the power of the legislature by attempting to enlarge and extend the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act. Blatz Brewing Co. v. Collins (1945, Cal App) 69 Cal App 2d 639, 160 P2d 37, 1945 Cal App LEXIS 705.

An invalid rule of the State Board of Equalization was not ratified by the subsequent passage of this statute and former Stats 1935 p 1125 § 38 (now § 25006). Blatz Brewing Co. v. Collins (1948, Cal App) 88 Cal App 2d 438, 199 P2d 34, 1948 Cal App LEXIS 1487.

Fact that person could conjure up a hypothetical situation as to which rule of Board of Equalization might have been unreasonable did not require that rule be held unconstitutional in every case of facts actually before court. Mercurio v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1773.

Board of Equalization had broad power to determine what was contrary to public welfare or morals and to prohibit licensee from doing or permitting any acts on licensed premises. Mercurio v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1773.

In determining whether rule of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control constitutes proper exercise of police power, appellate court is limited to ascertaining whether object of rule is one for which police power may be invoked and, if so, whether rule bears reasonable relation to object sought to be obtained. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1962, Cal App 3d Dist) 204 Cal App 2d 729, 22 Cal Rptr 634, 1962 Cal App LEXIS 2304.

In evaluating an equal protection attack against a regulatory statute or regulation, it is improper to isolate its effects on a specific segment of the affected class and to sustain the attack if found deficient as to that segment alone; the overall effect on the entire class must be viewed. Hence, the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board improperly based its finding that a rule of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, disqualifying spouses of disqualified persons from holding liquor licenses, was unconstitutional sex discrimination, by considering the effect on spouses of law enforcement officers only and ignoring the multitude of spouses of other employees of sheriff, police, district attorney and Alcoholic Beverage Control offices, all of whom were disqualified from holding liquor licenses and most of whom would probably be male. Reece v. Alcoholic Beverage Etc. Appeals Bd. (1976, Cal App 3d Dist) 64 Cal App 3d 675, 134 Cal Rptr 698, 1976 Cal App LEXIS 2111.

2. Particular Rules and Regulations
Where the act itself defines what constitutes wine, a ruling contrary to that definition is ineffective. Tux Ginger Ale Co. v. Davis (1936, Cal App) 12 Cal App 2d 73, 54 P2d 1122, 1936 Cal App LEXIS 979.

Rule may not be enacted prohibiting licensed dealers in beer from purchasing or importing beer produced by out-of-state brewers unless the latter obtains certificates of compliance. Blatz Brewing Co. v. Collins (1945, Cal App) 69 Cal App 2d 639, 160 P2d 37, 1945 Cal App LEXIS 705.

Cal Adm Code § 70 (Cal Code Reg), requiring liquor licensee whose licensed premises have been placed “out of bounds” or “off limits” by armed forces disciplinary control board to post two notices of that fact in conspicuous places on his premises, is in excess of rule-making authority vested in Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, and Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board properly set aside decision of Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control suspending on-sale beer license held by licensee who refused to comply with requirement.

3. Applications and Licenses
Department may promulgate and interpret rules concerning surrender of licenses, such as 4 Cal Adm Code § 65 (Cal Code Reg). Joseph George, Distributor v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1957, Cal App 1st Dist) 149 Cal App 2d 702, 308 P2d 773, 1957 Cal App LEXIS 2089.

Cal Adm Code tit 4 § 61.1 (Cal Code Reg), promulgated by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and providing that no on-sale general license or on-sale beer and wine license shall be issued within 1 mile of university unless department is satisfied that location of premises is sufficiently distant from campus and nature of licensed business is such that it will not be patronized by students, is void, being in conflict with Pen C § 172e, removing restriction against sale of alcoholic beverages in proximity to universities as to bona fide public eating places. Harris v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1965, Cal App 1st Dist) 235 Cal App 2d 479, 45 Cal Rptr 450, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 947.

The cancellation of an off-sale general liquor license by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control pursuant to Adm Code, tit 4, Rule 46(d), was not unconstitutional and was not in excess of the department's jurisdiction, where the power of the department to adopt Rule 65 and to interpret the rule was derived from Cal Const, art XX, § 22, and B & P C § 25750, and implied from the power granted thereby, and the department did not, by adoption of the rule, abridge or enlarge its authority or exceed the powers given to it by the constitutional provision and the statute, Samson Market Co. v. Kirby (1968, Cal App 2d Dist) 261 Cal App 2d 577, 88 Cal Rptr 130, 1968 Cal App LEXIS 1779, cert den (1968) 393 US 11, 89 S Ct 49, 21 L Ed 2d 18, 1968 US LEXIS 578.

The evident objective of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in promulgating rules disqualifying law enforcement officers and spouses from holding liquor licenses is to prevent a conflict of interest between liquor licensees and those involved in the enforcement of liquor laws. Hence, the record in proceedings challenging the departmental rules on equal protection grounds unequivocally disclosed justification for, and the rational relationship of, spousal disability where it was evident from the record that conflict of interest situations could readily develop should a person of questionable age be sold an alcoholic beverage by the licensee in the presence of the law enforcement officer. Reece v. Alcoholic Beverage Etc. Appeals Bd. (1976, Cal App 3d Dist) 64 Cal App 3d 675, 134 Cal Rptr 698, 1976 Cal App LEXIS 2111.

The liquor industry is one whose regulation is recognized as intimately related to the public interest, indicating deference to legislation; there is undeniably no right, either explicitly or implicitly guaranteed by the Constitution, to engage in the liquor business. Accordingly, no fundamental interest is abridged by rules of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control disqualifying law enforcement officers and spouses from holding liquor licenses, and the strict scrutiny test does not apply on a constitutional equal protection challenge to the rules. Reece v. Alcoholic Beverage Etc. Appeals Bd. (1976, Cal App 3d Dist) 64 Cal App 3d 675, 134 Cal Rptr 698, 1976 Cal App LEXIS 2111.

4. Prices
A rule of the State Board of Equalization making a violation of the Federal laws or regulations relating to ceiling prices for alcoholic beverages a ground for revocation of a liquor license, did not set up an original standard which bound the board in advance to be guided by any and every regulation which the O.P.A. might turn out to legislate on pricing liquor prices. Moore v. State Board of Equalization (1946, Cal App) 76 Cal 2d 758, 174 P2d 323, 1946 Cal App LEXIS 780.

Regulation by Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control of quantity sales of distilled spirits to retailers does not come within meaning or purview of “public welfare or morals” as that term is used in Const Art XX, § 22. Schenley Industries, Inc. v. Munro (1965, Cal App 1st Dist) 257 Cal App 2d 106, 46 Cal Rptr 678, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1234, overruled Ralphs Grocery Co. v. Retmel (1968) 69 Cal 2d 172, 70 Cal Rptr 407, 444 P2d 79, 1968 Cal LEXIS 234.

Legislature comprehensively covered entire field of alcoholic beverage control in enacting Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, but remained silent as to subject of permissible discounts on quantity sales of distilled spirits and did not delegate authority to act in this respect to Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, notwithstanding department's authority to make “such reasonable rules as may be necessary or proper"; thus department did not have power or authority to enact rule prohibiting quantity sales of distilled spirits by manufacturers, rectifiers and wholesalers to retailers at discount which would amount to greater sum than seller’s cost saving resulting from quantity sale as compared with single-case sale. Schenley Industries, Inc. v. Munro (1965, Cal App 1st Dist) 237 Cal App 2d 106, 46 Cal Rptr 678, 1965 Cal LEXIS 1234, overruled Ralphs Grocery Co. v. Reimel (1968) 69 Cal 2d 172, 70 Cal Rptr 407, 444 P2d 79, 1968 Cal LEXIS 234.

A prohibition of quantity discounts of beer, effectively required by Rule 105(a) of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, constitutes, not “price-fixing” requiring explicit legislative authorization, but merely a prohibition against price discrimination, which for no explicit legislative authorization is required (disapproving, to the extent inconsistent herewith, the rationale in Schenley Industries, Inc. v. Munro (1965) 237 Cal App 2d 106, 46 Cal Rptr 678, 1965 Cal App LEXIS 1234). Ralphs Grocery Co. v. Reimel (1968) 69 Cal 2d 172, 70 Cal Rptr 407, 444 P2d 79, 1968 Cal LEXIS 234.

5. Employees and Entertainment
Classification in Rule 143 of Board of Equalization forbidding female employees to solicit purchase or sale of alcoholic beverages on licensed premises was reasonable and did not arbitrarily discriminate against women, and rule had reasonable relation to legitimate ends for which board was created, was in harmony with purposes of Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, and was valid and constitutional as against charge that it was too broad and that Legislature had covered the field in enacting this section and §§ 25657, 24200.5 subd (b), relating to grounds for suspension and revocation of licenses. Mercurio v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1956, Cal App 1st Dist) 144 Cal App 2d 626, 301 P2d 474, 1956 Cal App LEXIS 1775.

Though the mere employment of “topless” waitresses by a liquor licensee is not ground for revocation of a license, licensees are not generally sanctioned to employ topless or other similarly undressed waitresses and do not enjoy general immunity from disciplinary action if they do; where such purveying of liquor is attended by deleterious consequences, the department should establish good cause and make out its case for revocation or, alternatively, the department can adopt regulations covering the situation. NOTES OF DECISIONS
1. Generally
2. Authority of Department
3. Evidence: Admissibility
4. Search and Seizure

1. Generally
An agent of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, who, pursuant to an investigation of a public bar, failed to identify a man accompanying him as a police officer but merely identified him as a “new man” or by the officer’s name, could not be charged with fraud or bad faith which would vitiate the authority of agents of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and peace officers who make a reasonable search of a licensee's premises where the announced purpose of the visit by the agent was to conduct an investigation; neither the agent nor the police officer were under a duty to inform an employee of the licensee being investigated the exact capacity of the police officer accompanying the agent. People v. Lisner (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 249 Cal App 2d 637, 57 Cal Rptr 674, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

2. Authority of Department

An investigation of a public bar by a police officer and an agent of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control did not exceed the scope of authority conferred by B & P C §§ 25753 and 25755, which authorizes the inspection of liquor licensee premises by employees of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and peace officers for purposes of enforcing the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, where the record indicates that the investigating officer did not extend the search beyond that incident to enforcement of the alcoholic beverage controls statute. People v. Lisner (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 249 Cal App 2d 637, 57 Cal Rptr 674, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

This section authorizes the Department to examine only books and records relating to the business enterprise. However in view of the fact that this section had never been judicially construed the acts of the agent in examining licensee's personal bank records were discretionary and within the scope of his authority. Boreta v. Kirby (1971, ND Cal) 328 F Supp 670, 1971 US Dist LEXIS 13005, af'd (9th Cal) 485 F2d 582, 1973 US App LEXIS 7494.

3. Evidence: Admissibility

In a criminal prosecution, incriminatory statements made by the defendant to a police officer and an agent of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control were not the fruits of an illegal search and therefore inadmissible evidence where the premises searched were not a dwelling or a private place of business, but a public bar; where evidence is sought by governmental officers, pursuant to a regulatory function, such as the public regulation of traffic in spirituous liquors, both the privilege against self-incrimination and the guaranty against unreasonable search and seizure are limited. People v. Lisner (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 249 Cal App 2d 637, 57 Cal Rptr 674, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

4. Search and Seizure

An entry onto the premises and an examination of the records of a public bar with or without the consent of an employee of the bar did not constitute an illegal search where the officers conducting the entry and search did not exceed the authority conferred on them by B & P C §§ 25753 and 25755, relating to the power given agents and local peace officers to visit and inspect premises of liquor licensees. People v. Lisner (1967, Cal App 2d Dist) 249 Cal App 2d 637, 57 Cal Rptr 674, 1967 Cal App LEXIS 2270.

A search of a bar, made because of an anonymous tip indicating that narcotics sales were occurring there, which search was conducted without a warrant and pursuant to provisions of the Business and Professions Code was constitutionally reasonable. It advanced a substantial government interest in that B & PC § 24200.5, subd. (a) (revocation of liquor license for permitting illegal sales of drugs or narcotics), reflects a legislative judgment that the use of licensed premises for the purpose of drug sales poses a unique threat to the safety, welfare, health, peace, and morals of the people of the state that must be dealt with more vigorously than other illegal acts taking place on licensed premises. Further, the prerequisite of a warrant in such instances could easily frustrate investigation, and the statutes under which the search was authorized collectively provide a constitutionally adequate substitute for a warrant; B & P C §§ 25753, 25755, advise the licensee that inspections may take place during business hours and adequately limit the discretion of the inspectors as to time, place, and scope. People v. Paulson (1990, Cal App 1st Dist) 216 Cal App 3d 1480, 265 Cal Rptr 579, 1990 Cal App LEXIS 10.

§ 25754. Administration of oaths

The director and the persons employed by the department for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this division may administer and certify oaths in the administration and enforcement of this division.

(d) Any agents assigned to the Drug Enforcement Narcotics Team by the director shall have successfully completed a four–week course on narcotics enforcement approved by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training. NOTES OF DECISIONS

1. Construction
This section reasonably permits construction which would include application of CCP § 1013, relating to service of notices by mail, in its entirety to filing of notice of appeal from decision of department. Pesce v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (1958) 51 Cal 2d 310, 333 P2d 15, 1958 Cal LEXIS 235.

§ 25761. Disposition of fees and tax moneys
All money collected as fees pursuant to this division, as payments under Section 23096, and under the excise tax provisions of this division or Part 14 (commencing with Section 32001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Fund, which fund is continued in existence.
The money in the Alcoholic Beverage Control Fund shall be expended as follows:

(a) The amount necessary for the allowance of the refunds provided for in this division or Part 14 (commencing with Section 32001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is hereby appropriated, without regard to fiscal years, to the Controller for payment of these refunds.

(c) All original license fees paid on or after July 1, 1998, pursuant to Section 23954.5 shall remain in the Alcoholic Beverage Control Fund.

The benefits are needed because the battery or cruelty, separation from the abuser, or work absences or lower job performance resulting from the battery or extreme cruelty or from legal proceedings relating thereto (including resulting child support, child custody, and divorce actions) cause the alien child's parent to lose his or her job or to earn less or to require the alien child's parent to leave his or her job for safety reasons.

5. The benefits are needed because the alien child's parent requires medical attention or mental health counseling, or has become disabled, as a result of the battery or extreme cruelty.

6. The benefits are needed because the loss of a dwelling or source of income or fear of the abuser following separation from the abuser jeopardizes the alien's child's ability to care for his or her children (e.g., inability to house, feed, or clothe children or to put children into day care for fear of being found by the abuser).

the applicant’s declared status. A fee receipt from the INS for replacement of a lost, stolen, or unreadable INS document is reasonable evidence of the alien’s declared status.

(3) The applicant must complete and sign Form ABC-69.

(4) Where the documents presented do not on their face appear to be genuine or to relate to the individual presenting them, the government entity that originally issued the documents shall be contacted for verification. With regard to naturalized citizens and derivative citizens presenting certificates of citizenship and aliens, the INS is the appropriate government entity to contact for verification. The Department shall request verification from the INS by filing INS Form G-845 with copies of the pertinent documents provided by the applicant with the local INS office. If the applicant has lost his or her original documents or presents expired documents or is unable to present any documentation evidencing his or her immigration status, the applicant shall be referred to the local INS office to obtain documentation.

(A) The document presented indicates immigration status but does not include an alien registration or alien admission number.

(B) The document is suspected to be counterfeit or to have been altered.

(C) The document includes an alien registration number in the A60 000 000 (not yet issued) or A80 000 000 (illegal border crossing) series.

(D) The document is one of the following: an INS Form I-181b notification letter issued in connection with an INS Form I-181 Memorandum of Creation of Record of Permanent Residence, an Arrival-Departure Record (INS Form I-94) or a foreign passport stamped “PROCESSED FOR I-551, TEMPORARY EVIDENCE OF LAWFUL PERMANENT RESIDENCE” that INS issued more than one year before the date of application for the license issued by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control pursuant to the ABC Act.

(6) If the INS advises that the applicant has citizenship status or immigration status which makes him or her a qualified alien, a non-immigrant or alien paroled for less than one year under section 212(d)(5) of the INA, the INS verification shall be accepted. If the INS advises that it cannot verify that the applicant has citizenship status or an immigration status that makes him or her a qualified alien, a non-immigrant or alien paroled for less than one year under section 212(d)(5) of the INA, benefits shall be denied and the applicant notified pursuant to the ABC Act regular procedures of his or her rights to appeal the denial of benefits.

The applicant premises for an original or premises transfer of any retail license are located in a crime reporting district which has a 20% greater number of reported crimes, as defined below, than the average number of reported crimes as determined from all crime reporting districts within the jurisdiction of the local law enforcement agency if the following conditions exist:

(1) As to on-sale retail license applications, the ratio of on-sale retail licenses to population in the census tract or census division in which the applicant premises are located exceeds the ratio of on-sale retail licens-

(3) “Population Within the Census Tract or Census Division” means the population as determined by the most recent United States decennial or special census. Such population determination shall not operate to prevent an applicant from establishing that an increase of resident population has occurred within the census tract or census division.

(4) “Population in the County” shall be determined by the annual population estimate for California counties published by the Population Research Unit, State Department of Finance.

(5) “Retail Licenses” shall include the following:

PETITION FOR OFFER IN COMPROMISE (“POIC”):

Business and Professions Code Section 23098 authorizes the Department may accept a Petition for Offer in Compromise (“POIC”) in lieu of the service of a suspension of 15 days or less. For purposes of determining whether the Department may accept a POIC in lieu of suspension, the total penalty imposed must be for 15 days or less, and shall not include any period of stayed suspension that would result in the potential suspension being for a period of greater than 15 days, nor can it include any period of stayed revocation. In the event that the suspension is for a period of 15 days or less with some portion thereof stayed, the POIC shall be calculated based upon the period of actual suspension (not including the stayed portion). In such cases, if the stayed period of suspension is later reimposed, the Department will generally not accept a POIC in lieu of serving the reimposed period of suspension.

(c)(1) Any person who knowingly displays, sells, or offers to sell in any coin-operated or slug-operated vending machine or mechanically or electronically controlled vending machine that is located in a public place, other than a public place from which minors are excluded, any harmful matter displaying to the public view photographs or pictorial representations of the commission of any of the following acts shall be punished as specified in Section 313.4: sodomy, oral copulation, sexual intercourse, masturbation, bestiality, or a photograph of an exposed penis in an erect and turgid state.

§ 14575. Annual processing fee and processing payment

(a) If any type of empty beverage container with a refund value established pursuant to Section 14560 has a scrap value less than the cost of recycling, the department shall, on January 1, 2000, and on or before January 1 annually thereafter, establish a processing fee and a processing payment for the container by the type of the material of the container.

(b) The processing payment shall be at least equal to the difference between the scrap value offered to a statistically significant sample of recyclers by willing purchasers, and except for the initial calculation made pursuant to subdivision (d), the sum of both of the following:

1. The actual cost for certified recycling centers, excluding centers receiving a handling fee, of receiving, handling, storing, transporting, and maintaining equipment for each container sold for recycling or, only if the container is not recyclable, the actual cost of disposal, calculated pursuant to subdivision (c). The department shall determine the statewide weighted average cost to recycle each beverage container type, which shall serve as the actual recycling costs for purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), by conducting a survey of the costs of a statistically significant sample of certified recycling centers, excluding those recycling centers receiving a handling fee, for receiving, handling, storing, transporting, and maintaining equipment.

2. A reasonable financial return for recycling centers.

(c) The department shall base the processing payment pursuant to this section upon all of the following:

1. Except as provided in paragraph (2), for calculating processing payments that will be in effect on and after January 1, 2004, the department shall determine the actual costs for certified recycling centers, every second year, pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b). The department shall adjust the recycling costs annually to reflect changes in the cost of living, as measured by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor or a successor agency of the United States government.

2. On and after January 1, 2010, the department shall use the most recently published, measured actual costs of recycling for a specific beverage material type if the department determines the number of beverage containers for that material type that is returned for recycling pursuant to Section 14551, based on the most recently published calendar year number of beverage containers returned for recycling, is less than 5 percent of the total number of beverage containers returned for recycling for all material types. The department shall determine the actual recycling cost to be used for calculating processing payments for those beverage containers in the following manner:

(A) The department shall adjust the costs of recycling that material type every second year by the percentage change in the most recently measured cost of recycling HDPE plastic beverage containers, as determined by the department. The department shall use the percentage change in costs of recycling HDPE plastic beverage containers for this purpose, even if HDPE plastic beverage containers are less than 5 percent of the total volume of returned beverage containers.

(B) The department shall adjust the recycling costs annually for that material type to reflect changes in the cost of living, as measured by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor or a successor agency of the United States government.

(d) Except as specified in subdivision (e), the actual processing fee paid by a beverage manufacturer shall equal 65 percent of the processing payment calculated pursuant to subdivision (b).

(e) The department, consistent with Section 14581 and subject to the availability of funds, shall reduce the processing fee paid by beverage manufacturers by expending funds in each material processing fee account, in the following manner:

1. On January 1, 2005, and annually thereafter, the processing fee shall equal the following amounts:

(A) Ten percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate equal to or greater than 75 percent.

(B) Eleven percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate equal to or greater than 65 percent, but less than 75 percent.

(C) Twelve percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate equal to or greater than 60 percent, but less than 65 percent.

(D) Thirteen percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate equal to or greater than 55 percent, but less than 60 percent.

(E) Fourteen percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate equal to or greater than 50 percent, but less than 55 percent.
§ 14575

PENAL CODE

(F) Fifteen percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate equal to or greater than 45 percent, but less than 50 percent.

(G) Eighteen percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate equal to or greater than 40 percent, but less than 45 percent.

(H) Twenty percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate equal to or greater than 30 percent, but less than 40 percent.

(I) Sixty-five percent of the processing payment for a container type with a recycling rate less than 30 percent.

(2) The department shall calculate the recycling rate for purposes of paragraph (1) based on the 12-month period ending on June 30 that directly precedes the date of the January 1 processing fee determination.

(f) Not more than once every three months, the department may make an adjustment in the amount of the processing payment established pursuant to this section notwithstanding any change in the amount of the processing fee established pursuant to this section, for any beverage container, if the department makes the following determinations:

(1) The statewide scrap value paid by processors for the material type for the most recent available 12-month period directly preceding the quarter in which the processing payment is to be adjusted is 5 percent more or 5 percent less than the average scrap value used as the basis for the processing payment currently in effect.

(2) Funds are available in the processing fee account for the material type.

(g)(1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3), every beverage manufacturer shall pay to the department the applicable processing fee for each container sold or transferred to a distributor or dealer within 40 days of the sale in the form and in the manner which the department may prescribe.

(2)(A) Notwithstanding Section 14506, with respect to the payment of processing fees for beer and other malt beverages manufactured outside the state, the beverage manufacturer shall be deemed to be the person or entity named on the certificate of compliance issued pursuant to Section 23671 of the Business and Professions Code. If the department is unable to collect the processing fee from the person or entity named on the certificate of compliance, the department shall give written notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, to that person or entity. The notice shall state that the processing fee shall be remitted in full within 30 days of issuance of the notice or the person or entity shall not be permitted to offer that beverage brand for sale within the state. If the person or entity fails to remit the processing fee within 30 days of issuance of the notice, the department shall notify the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control that the certificate holder has failed to comply, and the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall prohibit the offering for sale of that beverage brand within the state.

(B) The department shall enter into a contract with the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, pursuant to Section 14536.5, concerning the implementation of this paragraph, which shall include a provision reimbursing the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control for its costs incurred in implementing this paragraph.

(3)(A) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), if a beverage manufacturer displays a pattern of operation in compliance with this division and the regulations adopted pursuant to this division, to the satisfaction of the department, the beverage manufacturer may make a single annual payment of processing fees, if the beverage manufacturer meets either of the following conditions:

(i) If the redemption payment and refund value is not increased pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 14560, the beverage manufacturer's projected processing fees for a calendar year total less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(ii) If the redemption payment and refund value is increased pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 14560, the beverage manufacturer's projected processing fees for a calendar year total less than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000).

(B) An annual processing fee payment made pursuant to this paragraph is due and payable on or before February 1 for every beverage container sold or transferred by the beverage manufacturer to a distributor or dealer in the previous calendar year.

(C) A beverage manufacturer shall notify the department of its intent to make an annual processing fee payment pursuant to this paragraph on or before January 31 of the calendar year for which the payment will be due.

(4) The department shall pay the processing payments on redeemed containers to processors, in the same manner as it pays refund values pursuant to Sections 14573 and 14573.5. The processor shall pay the recycling center the entire processing payment representing the actual costs and financial return incurred by the recycling center, as specified in subdivision (b).

(h) When assessing processing fees pursuant to subdivision (a), the department shall assess the processing fee on each container sold, as provided in subdivisions (d) and (e), by the type of material of the container, assuming that every container sold will be redeemed for recycling, whether or not the container is actually recycled.

(i) The container manufacturer, or a designated agent, shall pay to, or credit, the account of the beverage manufacturer in an amount equal to the processing fee.

(j) If, at the end of any calendar year for which glass recycling rates equal or exceed 45 percent and sufficient surplus funds remain in the glass processing fee account to make the reduction pursuant to this subdivision or if, at the end of any calendar year for which PET recycling rates equal or exceed 45 percent and sufficient surplus funds remain in the PET processing fee account to make the reduction pursuant to this subdivision, the department shall use these surplus funds in the respective processing fee accounts in the following calendar year to reduce the amount of the processing fee that would otherwise be due from glass or PET beverage manufacturers pursuant to this subdivision.

(1) The department shall reduce the glass or PET processing fee amount pursuant to this subdivision in addition to any reduction for which the glass or PET beverage container qualifies under subdivision (e).

(2) The department shall determine the processing fee reduction by dividing two million dollars ($2,000,000) from each processing fee account by an estimate of the number of containers sold or transferred to a distributor during the previous calendar year, based upon the latest available data.

User’s Guide to the Index

A few basic rules for using this index are:

(1) Consult the most pertinent subject. For example, if you were looking in an evidence book for information about depositions, you would start with DEPOSITIONS rather than broader headings like EVIDENCE, TESTIMONY or WITNESSES. The broader headings may also exist, but to find the material more quickly, look for the specific subject first.

(2) Cross references. Pay close attention to and make full use of the index cross references. An index cross reference directs the index user to go to another part of the index to find treatment. This serves to keep indexes to a manageable size by reducing repetition of treatment under different headings.

(3) Use definitions to aid in your search. Starting a search under the DEFINED TERMS heading exposes the index user to a diverse sampling of statutory terminology which could suggest to the user other headings to consult.

The index benefits from customer suggestions. Especially helpful are popular names or legal terms specific to your area of practice. We are grateful for your assistance in the ongoing improvement of the index.

To contact the indexers, you may use any of the following methods:
- Contact the indexers via a toll-free number, 1-800-897-7922, for assistance in locating material within the index, or to make comments or suggestions.
- Contact the indexers by e-mail to lng-cho-indexing@lexisnexis.com.

For issues not directly related to the Index, such as missing pages, ordering or other customer service information, you may contact Customer Service via a toll-free number, 1-800-833-9844, or by toll-free fax at 1-800-828-8341.
