This Book is Dedicated

To Our Forefathers: for their unswerving faith in the possibilities of a virgin land such as Kulm.

To The Present Generation: who diligently and tenaciously hold to that heritage of faith.

To Posterity: who in their time will carry on that faith which has shaped the destiny of Kulm.

Forward

A view of Kulm's history during the past sixty-five years has brought back memories to the large group of its citizens who have been taking a look at its past.

With the memories has come an appreciation for the many pioneers named and unnamed, who braved the early hardships and left a heritage greater than they knew.

As the time for the work was comparatively short and the workers are amateurs in journalism, many items of interest may be mission from the allotted pages. The histories of many early settlers do not appear as no information concerning them was available. Information and early photographs were furnished by children and grandchildren of these early pioneers. To the best of our knowledge, we take these statements as correct. Mistakes may have taken place in the construction of this book, so please bear with us, as we amateur writers did the best we could under the circumstances.

The committee has worked with the co-operation of the community and therefore it has turned out to be a community project and we say, "History is not made by the majority, but by individual men and women."

The committee takes this opportunity to express their appreciation to the Kulm Lions Club who sponsored this project, and to the scores of individuals who have given so generously of their time and efforts, their pictures, and information to make this book possible. Special appreciation goes to all business places and individuals who sponsored pages, bought advertising, etc. Appreciation also goes to Miss Margaret Rose, who gave us additional information from records stored in the State Historical Library at Bismarck.

The book is sent forth with the hope that it may record some of the heritage of the past, give an appreciation of the present, and an inspiration for the future.

The Lions Club sponsored many worth-while projects during its existence. The last major project sponsored was in promoting the idea of paving the streets in the city.
It is well to mention that Oscar Lange was elected Lion Tamer when the club was first organized and has held that office continuously to the present date.

The Ashley Lions Club was the sponsoring club for the Kulm Lions.

The Lions meet the 3rd Tuesday of each month in the City Auditorium at a dinner meeting served by the Kulm Homemakers Club.

History of Kulm

The townsite of Kulm was established in 1892 on the northwest quarter of section 26, township 133, range 66. The Soo Line purchased 106 acres for a townsite and right of way. Wesley Organ appropriated another 40 acres for this purpose. All of this land had been formerly Wesley Organ’s homestead.

About this time Mrs. Christina Buechler and two sons, Fred and Christ, who were living in Merricourt and operating a general mercantile store and the post office there, decided to move their store to this new townsite. Two brothers, Fred Flegel and Christ Flegel living in the Kulm territory at that time, heard of this contemplated move and got in touch with Fred Buechler asking to have the job of digging the basement for this first store on main street. While they were digging the basement, a Soo Line surveyor approached Christ Flegel and asked what they would like to have the town named. As neither of the brothers could speak English at that time, Fred Buechler acted as interpreter. Christ Flegel through his interpreter told the surveyor that if it was up to him to name the new town, he would like to have it named Kulm for three reasons, first - because Kulm, Bessarabia, South Russia was his birthplace, second - Kulm, Germany was the birthplace of his ancestors, third - that most of the settlers living around the new site were from Kulm, Russia and Kulm, Germany.

As a result of this request the name of Kulm was printed on a little station that was erected on the right of way in 1892.

To gain the good will of the people and help build up the town, the railroad company constructed an enclosed shed 28 x 140 feet for stabling farmers teams free of charge, this building being located where Gackle Brothers coal sheds are now standing, in the northern part of the city of Kulm, right across the Soo Line tracks. An addition 16 x 28 feet was built on the east end of the shed, furnished with a stove and coal, where the farmers could stay day or night without pay for heat or lodging.

At this time the station agent F.A. Evans informed the early settlers that the cars of grain were going out of Kulm in a steady stream and that the Soo Line planned to sink a well to furnish water for a tank as the nearest one was at Oakes, N. Dak.

Because it was located in the south western tip of LaMoure County and near the corner of Dickey, McIntosh and Logan counties, it had a large territory to draw from and expanded rapidly.

Kulm remained the western terminus of the Soo Line railroad until 1898 when it was extended west.

In a short time Kulm had seven grain elevators, which in one season received and shipped nearly one million bushels of grain.

Besides the elevators there were also street buyers of grain who had their scales on the site just north of John Stroehl’s service station. The purchased grain was immediately loaded into railroad cars that were ordered in advance and were on side tracks. As high as 300 bushels of grain were taken in by these buyers in a day.

The quantity of grain handled in Kulm was considerably larger than in any other town in LaMoure County.

Besides the store of Mrs. Christine Buechler and sons, who were the first to do a general mercantile business in Kulm, having moved their building and goods from Merricourt in 1892, other general stores were started; one by Zellmer and Lange, later owned by G. Lange exclusively, and located on the present A.J. Smith block and the John Grosz store just north of the post office building, and the J.M. Erbele and Anderson and Hieb establishments.

Kulm's first photographer was John Reiman, followed by Fred W. Kemp.

J.A.T. Bjornson built the first drug store in 1894 on what is now the northern part of the Farmers Union Oil Company Station.

Looking through the back files of prescriptions kept by Mr. Bjornson, was one numbered 55 made out to G. Thorsen in 1896 written by Dr. Otto E. Penske.

Jake Byer, A.G. Ulm, Gordon and Benn, and J.F. Snyder had drug stores about where the present drug store is located.

Margaret Wolfer, now Mrs. John G. Gackle, was the first telephone operator, the switchboard being located in Gordon and Benn's drug store in 1907.

A baby girl, the first child born. December 2-. 1893, was Clara Grosz. The first boy was Martin W. Gackle, born January 16, 1894.

Before the railroad was extended to Kulm, Fred Mix had completed and was operating the lower story of his hotel located on the site commonly known as the Anderson building.

Robert Roan, who opened a boarding house for the Soo Line track layers in the summer of 1892, started a restaurant and eating house on the site where the Standard Service Station, owned by John Stroehl, is located and later ran the first dray line.

The John Hillius' upon learning that the Soo Line would be extended to Kulm from Merricourt moved a one room building up from Ellendale and added it to a restaurant bought from Pratts and continued this restaurant which was located between the present Ben Koenig Barber Shop and the Kulm Messenger building. In a few years the Hillius' added another story which was opened to transients. Later this building was moved out to the Hillius farm.

Other hotels and restaurants were the Kulm House, under the management of E.G. Sweeney, located where the J.M. Erbele store once stood. Beneke and Heller who ran a general restaurant and served coffee at all hours at the location where Him Weatherly now has a cafe.
Kennagy and Smith, two young men who came up from Ashley, also had a restaurant. The location of which is unknown.

Theodore Gerndt had a small oyster stew cafe located on the north side of the present Palm Department Store.

Wesley Organ, who had a house in the southeastern part of Kulm kept a number of boarders while the town was being built, sometimes having as high as thirty to forty taking meals there.

Otto Becker had a confectionery store north of the Kulm Messenger building where he lost his life when a fire in April of 1926 destroyed his building. Swankes Barber Shop and the Star Cafe were owned by Mr. And Mrs. Max Lay.

Jake Smith's Cafe or restaurant was in the building later occupied by Mr. And Mrs. Max Lay.

Henry Palm, according to our knowledge, was the first barber.

The first bank in Kulm started in 1892 with J.B. Sharpe as president and Charles Preutz as cashier. It occupied the side where the present post office is located and was known as the First State Bank.

The first building was a frame structure and after the fire in 1906 a brick building was erected on this same spot.

The LaMoure County Bank which began in 1896 with M. Olaf Hausken as president occupied a site in a frame building just north of the present Steinwandt Cafe. Later, a two story brick building was built, which is now occupied by the Butrick Dry Cleaning Plant.

Wm. Watson was one of the first blacksmiths. M.F. Brauer and George Schneider as partners were also early blacksmiths, having their shop just south of the Kulm Mill.

As far as we know, the first men to operate meat markets were a Mr. Smith and Ernest Schneider who had his market about where the Brost Brothers Hardware Store is now located.

In 1902 Kulm had a creamery managed by Mr. Bacon assisted by Charles and Gerald Wright. It was located in the southeastern part of town just south of the David Hettich home. It has a capacity of 1000 pounds of butter daily which was shipped to New York City.

This building was converted into a light plant in 1911 and later became the home of Jacob Roedel where Burk's now reside. The Kulm Mill later bought the Light Plant.

The earliest recollection of pioneers as to a livery barn was the one across from the Kulm Depot and east of the Kulm Mill. It was operated by Fred Flegel, and later on by A.B. Malin.

Elijah Organ had a livery barn in the southeastern part of town next to the Wesley Organ home.

Reimenschneider and Guss also had a livery barn on the lots just east of the Salzer Lumber yard.

Wm. Raichle in later years conducted the same kind of business at this location.
John Melicher and John J. Jenner opened the first harness shop in 1895, south of David Hettich’s present building. Later on it became a real estate office, then a barber shop.

The first lumber yard was owned by D.C. Sullivan, later by Zellmer and Lange. It was located south of the Kulm Mill. In 1894 P.C. Burfenning came to manage the Salzer Lumber Yard which was located just north of John Stroehl's Service Station.

L.J. Guthmueller went into the hardware business in 1893 in the building located on what is now the Farmers Union Oil Company. John J. Jenner worked with him.

David F. Brost operated a hardware and machine business on this same location from 1905 to 1908. He then moved to the present site on the west side of the street and added a furniture department.

George Gackle Sr. started in the grain and farm machinery business, and in 1893 engaged in the furniture and hardware business. It was known for a time as Gackle and Billigeier but developed under the name of Gackle and Company. This business has always occupied the present site.

The first post office was in Buechler's store with Fred Buechler as postmaster. He was followed by J.A.T. Bjornson who had the post office either in his drug store or a small building beside it. In 1898 the post office was located across from the City Auditorium and H.L. Kelly was postmaster. From there the post office was moved to the Standard Oil Station site with P.C. Burfenning as postmaster.

Some of the early doctors were: Dr. O.E. Penske, Dr. Sorg, Dr. Wendt, Dr. Barbour, Dr. Benn, Dr. Sturgeon and Dr. Brenckle. E.E. Railson was the first veterinarian.

The dentists were: Dr. Ellsworth, Dr. Thompson and Dr. Washburn.

The first real estate offices were opened by F.C. Brandt and A.B. Malin.

The first attorney remembered by our pioneers was Nels Larson.

The Kulm Mill Company had its origin in 1893 on the site it still occupies with Rott Brothers and Hellwig as the first owners and a man by the name of Fuller as their miller.

In 1895 B. Frank Smith followed by his son Jean in 1898, came from South Dakota and took over milling operations.

The mill in early years had a 100 barrel capacity per day bringing farmers from as far away as 50 and 60 miles.

The newspaper of Kulm as far back as files and information obtained, had it's beginning in 1897 and was called the Kulm Messenger.

H.L. Kelly, we believe, was the first editor and in 1901 or 1902 A.B. Malin edited the paper with J. Stanton Jensen as business manager.
The printing office was first located on the west side of main street near the present Super Service Garage and when A.B. Malin was editor the site of the Kulm State Bank was its location.

Jacob Roedel, Sr., in 1893 was a maker of caskets, as factory made ones were not obtainable at that time.

Kulm's earliest known tailor was G.F. Mierling. Besides his tailor shop, he conducted a small grocery and confectionery store.

The following taken from the records of the city auditor lists the official proceedings of the village of Kulm, February 12, 1897.

Trustees: C.J. Zellmer, Adam Brezler, J.M. Erbele with Nels Larson as clerk.

In 1906 a city formed government was organized and adlermen elected were: Dan Grosz, L.J. Guthmueller, M.F. Brauer and J.F. Brenckle. Treasurer was A.E. Ogden, Justice of the Peace, J.P. Parker; Police Magistrate, A.B. Malin.

H. Bergam was appointed City Auditor and P.C. Burfenning was the first mayor.

KULM REFORMED CHURCH

The Reformed church building has an interesting history. It was the first school house from 1893 to 1899. The church was organized in June 1897 and incorporated in July 1902. Services were first held in the homes. Pastor of this congregation was Rev. Stienecker who lived in Ashley and drove to Kulm with horse and buggy. He was followed by Landsiedel, Sheidt, Zepf, Wittenborg, Depping and Bodeman. The members have since disbanded and the building was purchased by the American Legion and serves as their Legion Hall.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
The beginning of the first Congregational Church of Kulm, North Dakota, leads back to the year of 1893 when services were conducted in the homes of George Gackle and John Gross until the erection of the first church building in the year 1897.

Due to a great spiritual desire on the part of the people this first building soon proved much too small for the accommodation of the increasing attendance, and plans for a larger building were not only drawn, but actually carried out under the fine leadership of Rev. M. Trieber, who was assisted in this great undertaking by Mrs. George Gackle. The results of their untiring efforts enabled the congregation to dedicate the second church building in the spring of 1905.

During the past 64 years this church has been served by the following clergymen: P. Burkhardt, M. Trieber, A. Vogel, E. Wagner, J. Ament, H. Nuetzmann, C.A. Lippemberger, H. Wuerth, P. Ruder, B. Moss, E. Ketterling, Carl Roemmich and C. Martin the present pastor. Through the efforts and untiring labor of these men the church was able to make continuous progress.

Following the work of Rev. M. Trieber was Rev. Albert H. Vogel and his assistant, student Rev. Ferdinand Berghoefer. During these years the following congregations made up the Kulm Parish: Gnadenfeld, St. John's, Hoffnungsfeld, Postthal, Friedensfeld, New Beresina, Wirch's and First Church of Kulm. Under Rev. Vogel, the following congregations built churches: Friedensfeld, Hoffnungsfeld, Postthal, and New Beresina.

In 1912 the Kulm Parish was host to the General Conference.

Under Rev. H. Nuetzmann many members died because of influenza. The spiritual life of the church was fortified and revival fires broke out. Once again Kulm had the privilege of being the host church for the General Conference. This was said to have been the largest General German Conference in the history of this denomination.

In 1924, after the resignation of Rev. Neutzmann, 4 churches left the Kulm Parish. These churches were: Hoffnungsfeld, Friedensfeld, St. John's and Friedens. That left 4 churches in the Kulm parish.

Two other churches left the parish, Postthal members dispersed, joining Trinity Congregation at Jud and some with the Kulm parish. New-Beresina came into the city to join the local church.

Several years ago the last congregation, Gnadenfeld, disbanded and joined the local Congregation. Thus, what once was a parish of 8 churches, now has amalgamated to the present First Congregational Church.

Sunday, October 27, 1946, the congregation celebrated its fiftieth anniversary, at which time drives were started to raise funds toward a new church.

Ground breaking ceremonies were held June 1950 and work on the new structure ensued. On September 24, 1950 cornerstone laying services were conducted by their able pastor Rev. C. Roemmich. Though, the congregation was left without a Pastor in October 1950 work on the new edifice continued and the sanctuary was ready for dedication, when Rev. Martin accepted the call to become Pastor of this church on July 1, 1951.
The church today consists of some 150 families, about 350 members, 100 of whom have joined since the building of the new church edifice.

A mid-week Bible study and prayer service was introduced by the Pastor. Several spiritual awakening services have fostered the inner life of the flock.

The church has an active youth program which consists of a C.E.Y.F., a Young People's Society, a fine Sunday School, Junior Chorus and Young People Choir. It has a Senior, Mixed Choir and Ladies Chorus. There are also two Ladies Organizations, The Ladies Aid and Dorcas Society.

The Sunday Evening Services is still intact.

Officers of the church at the present time are: Pastor, Rev. Martin; Sunday School Supt., Mr. George Gackle.

CONGREGATIONAL DORCAS SOCIETY

On March 13, 1935, a group of fourteen ladies of the New Beresina Church east of Kulm met at the farm home of Mrs. Ben Herman and organized a ladies' aid under the name of the: "New Beresina Ladies' Aid". The following officers were elected: president, Mrs. John (Mathilda) Brost; Vice President, Mrs. Rudolph Herman; Secretary, Mrs. Gotthilf Miller now of Dryden, Wash.; Treasurer, Mrs. Ben (Emma) Herman now residing at Minneapolis, Minn. In August of 1946 the society decided to change the name to Dorcas Society.

The purpose of this Society is Christian fellowship, education, service and stewardship, and to undergird the spiritual program of the First Congregational Church, as it serves the cause of Christ in the community, in the home and foreign missions.

Contributions of money and clothing have been made to charitable institutions and relief organizations, shut-ins are remembered as well as those of the church.

Different ways of raising money are by having fall suppers, bake sales, and serving at auction sales.

The meetings are held every third Thursday of the month. The previous hostess has charge of the devotional program.

The charter members of the society are: Mrs. Mathilda Brost, Mrs. John Janke, Mrs. Deopold Herman, Mrs. Rudolph Herman and Mrs. Otto Herman. One charter member, Mrs. Fred Herman is deceased.

The Dorcas Society has at the present time 36 members. Mrs. Gottlieb Herman Sr. age 78 is the oldest member and is also an honorary member.
The present officers are: president, Mrs. Otto Riebhagen; vice president, Mrs. Irvin Mogck; secretary, Mrs. Clifford Schott; and treasurer, Mrs. Richard Herman.

The Congregational Ladies Aid of Kulm, North Dakota, was organized on September 11, 1929 in the home of Reverend and Mrs. Peter Ruder, who then served as pastor of the Kulm parish.

It was voted that the purpose of the Aid be: To give help and happiness to the needy; to glorify God and beautify God's house; to spread the word of God through the channels of living service; and to let the Spirit of God prevail in the lives of all members.

The first president was Mrs. Minnie Grosz (now Mrs. Kost of Parkston, South Dakota). The first minutes list twenty-six members, four of whom are still active, they are; Mrs. N.G. Isaak, Mrs. Reinhold Bohnet, Mrs. Peter Schott and Mrs. Geo. Gackle.

The present officers are: Mrs. Sharpe Pruetz, President; Mrs. Ida Smith, Vice President; Mrs. Otto Gackle, Treasurer, and Mrs. Ossie George, Secretary.

Gnadenfeld was the oldest Congregation of the German Congregational Churches in North Dakota. It was organized in 1886 under the leadership of Supt. George Albrecht and Pastor C. Jose with 18 members. It was organized in the home of Mr. And Mrs. Gottlieb Schneider with the following members: Mr. And Mrs. August Miller, Mr. And Mrs. John Miller, Mr. And Mrs. John Kroll, Mr. And Mrs. Louis Billigmeier, Mr. And Mrs. Karl Hillius, Mr. And Mrs. Daniel Foloff, Mr. And Mrs. Daniel Grosz and Mr. And Mrs. Andrew Blume. During the first two years the services were held in the sod house of Mr. And Mrs. John Miller. In ten years this congregation grew to 34 members, so they were pressed for more space in which to hold services. In 1896 the members with their Pastor Paul Burkhard came to an agreement to build a new church building 10 miles southwest of Kulm. This structure was built 24 by 36 feet and after being completed it was dedicated to the Lord with Rev. D. Neuenschwander as guest speaker. In 1911 revival meetings were held and over forty souls were saved.

In 1936 the Gnadenfeld Church celebrated their 50th Anniversary with Rev. Paul Burkhardt as guest speaker.

In 1953 the Gnadenfeld Church Congregation decided to quit having services in their Church and disposed of their building and properties. Thereafter they became united as members with the First Congregational Church in Kulm. The Gnadenfeld Church building is still located on its original site.

KULM EVANGELICAL UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH

The work of the Evangelical United Brethren Church in the community was begun approximately in 1889. Kulm was one of the many preaching appointments of the Ashley Mission which Rev. Loewen served. Succeeding ministers who served while Kulm was still on the mission status were: A.F. Herzberg, G. Hoff, R.E. Strutz, F.H. Brockmueller and C.E. Oeder.

In 1906 an important transaction was made by the Dakota Conference. The church in Kulm received its first resident pastor in the person of Rev. G.C. Thiele. In the same year a building was purchased from the Baptist congregation. In the fall of 1907 it was dedicated after being remodeled and enlarged. The first officers of Zion Church were: Class Leader, Ferdinand Kosanke; Board of Trustees, Christoff Zellmer, John Mantei and Frederich Brost. Only one of the charter members, D.F. Brost, is still living and a resident in Kulm. In these early years the church building was located on the site now occupied by the Community Hall. In 1902 the building was moved to its present location.

Rev. G.C. Thiele served the church devotedly and successfully until 1912 when Rev. G. Heur was assigned to the charge. Succeeding ministers were: A. Oertli, R. Tammen, A. Rux, O.W. Ferk and G. Duebendorf. In 1923 Rev. A. Gehring was assigned to the field. Under his ministry the church prospered in an unusual way. Rev. F.W. Agte succeeded him. In 1931 Rev. O.N. Felberg, presently serving as an evangelist for the denomination, began a very effective and useful ministry. His successor was Rev. O.A. Gehring, a young man who had received his license to preach from Zion Church. More recent ministers have been: J.J. Schroder, C.E. Bach, J.M. Burkhard, L. Buechler and Rueben Gums. Under the ministry of Leo Buechler the preaching services were for the first time entirely in English. The church was extensively remodeled and an educational "L" unit was added to the structure. In 1955 a tower entrance with added facilities for Sunday School and cloak room purposes was added completing the structure as it stands today. Organizations which presently function in the life of the church are: The Women's Society of World Service, The Evangelical United Brethren Men, The Sunday School, The Adult Fellowship, The Youth Fellowship, The Boys and Girls Fellowship. The present pastor is C. Knoepfle.

THE WOMEN'S SOCIETY OF WORLD SERVICE of the KULM E.U.B. CHURCH

The first women's organization of the Evangelical United Brethren Church was a Ladies' Aid organized by Rev. and Mrs. G. C. Thiele in 1910. None of the ladies who were members of this group are living today.

In 1934 the Ladies' Aid was reorganized under a new name, "The Women's Missionary Society". After the merger of the Evangelical and United Brethren Churches, the society's name was changed to "The Women's Society of World Service". This is a unified society which works for the interests and cause of the Church in her ministry throughout the entire world.
EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN ZION CHURCH

The Evangelical Lutheran Zion Church was first organized in 1928 as the Kulm Community Church with the Rev. H. Wuerth as pastor.

The charter membership consisted of forty-five members and held its services in the City Auditorium. In 1929 the group purchased a used church building located six miles south of Berlin for $500.00. Early the next spring it was moved to its present location. In September of 1930 the building having been remodeled and redecorated, was dedicated as a new worship center, with Rev. W.W.A. Keller of Jamestown and Rev. J. Schmitt of Fredonia as the guest speakers.

In May of 1934, with many more members expressing their desire to identify themselves with the church body, the congregation voted to have its name changed to Evangelical Lutheran Church. In 1939 under the faithful guidance of Rev. L.A. Westenberger, the congregation affiliated itself with the American Lutheran Church which has its headquarters in Columbus, Ohio. The congregation is still a member of that church body.

For two years the organization has seeded a "God's Acre" consisting of from 50 to 85 acres of land, the proceeds being used to promote Kingdom work in their midst.

The monthly meetings generally consist of a topic or Bible Study and fellowshipping, at which the members get better acquainted, as well as to also discuss problems of mutual interest which they would not be able to do as a group otherwise.

At present the membership of this rather new organization numbers 21 members with Richard Stadler, President; Jake Steinwandt, Vice President; Lloyd Hildebrand, Chaplain; Albert Heidinger as Secretary and Treasurer, and Custodian, Mr. Fred Schlenker.

THE NEW BERESINA CHURCH

In 1899 a few of the Homesteaders met in the home of one Jacob Bohnet, an elderly Christian, to hold services. His home was located southeast of Kulm. Two traveling Evangelical preachers came through the country, on foot in 1900, holding revival meetings. They heard of this group, so went to Mr. Bohnet and offered their services. Word was sent out to all to come and they held a service or two before going on their way. After they left, these people kept the meeting going until nearly all were saved. They held services in the Gottlieb Herrmann home for a time. In 1902 the first sod home of Friederich Herrmann was vacated for a new sod home, so they decided to use this for their church. Some of the first families to attend these services were John Herrmann Sr., his sons John Jr., Christian, Gottlieb and Friederich, the Fred Bossarts, Nicolia Stehr, Fred Hehr and Fred Schlenkers Sr. These families were all poor so each contributed what he could toward heating this sod house in the winter. Usually it was no more than a basket of chips. They had no chairs so made a few benches and brought in the wagon seats to set along the wall. As the years passed more and more people moved into the neighborhood and they joined the group. At this time Rev. Michael Trieber was serving the Congregation Church in Kulm, and he came out to help them organize. They met in the Friederich Herrmann home and elected Friederich Herrmann as Deacon and J. Bohnet as Sunday School Superintendent. After this they held their services in the school house. In 1908 they built a church four and a half miles east of Kulm. In 1914 this church was host to the North and South Dakota State Conference, which was quite an undertaking for so small a church. There were two tents used, one for services and one for a dining room. Mr. Fred Miller had bought an old school and was in the process of moving it to his farm, so they moved it into the church yard and the ladies used it for a kitchen, and after the conference he took it on home. This little church saw many weddings, baptisms, and burials. There is a cemetery there too, where most of those old pioneers have been laid to rest. These people loved to sing. Whenever they gathered together they would always have a sing fest. The young people formed a choir under the direction of Rev. Ruder. Among the older members was a fine quartet composed of Messrs. Gotthilf Miller, C.B. Mogck, Fred Herrmann Sr. and John Janke, with Mrs. G. Miller as pianist.

The New Beresina Church was a member of the Parish of the Kulm Congregational Church. In 1946 the members of this church joined the Kulm Church in a body, and their building was sold to the Assembly of God Church, and is still functioning as a house of God.

ST. PAUL'S EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH
In the year 1892 Pastor Bode, living in Albion Township, Dickey County, member of the Missouri Synod, came to Kulm several times and held services with several Lutheran Families. In January 1893 this congregation was founded and organized. The first regular services were held upstairs in the Gottlieb Lange store. Later they were held in the school house. Due to the long distance for Pastor Bode to travel and because of his many other stations, Edgeley began to serve this congregation. From 1894 to 1905, St. Paul's Church was served by pastors from Edgeley. In August 1905 Candidate Klausler accepted the call to this church to become its first resident pastor. In 1909 this congregation officially joined the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod.

From 1908 to 1927 this congregation was served by Candidates Sibern, Schmook, W. Pebler, H. Willuweit, T. Klatt and A. Horn. Pastor H. von Gemmingen of Medford, Wis. Accepted the call to the church in 1927 and served for 16 years. Pastor Henry Kuring served as pastor from 1944 until 1950. In 1951 Candidate Elmer A. Schomberg was ordained and served the congregation as pastor until November of 1955. Pastor Spoomer of Edgeley is now serving the church.

St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church has been moved from its original site, which was north of the school house. It is now located beside the parsonage in the southwest part of Kulm. It has been completely remodeled and redecorated.

Charter members of the St. Paul's Church were Mr. And Mrs. Ludwig Schuldheisz, Mr. And Mrs. Gottlieb Lange, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Stehr, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Staeck, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Schulz and Mr. and Mrs. Christ Heck.

For the education of the young people, the church offers a Sunday School and Saturday School. Junior confirmation instruction is conducted for two years. A two week vacation Bible School is also held. For additional Bible study and fellowship a Ladies Aid has been organized which also plans and executes certain activities carried on by the church.

The church is privileged to have tow of its former members in the Lutheran ministry. They are Benjamin and Allen Schuldheisz, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Schuldheisz of Kulm. Larrie Schulz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ewald Schulz is attending ministerial school in preparation for the Lutheran ministry.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church observed its 60th anniversary in 1953.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN LADIES AID

The Ladies Aid of the St. Paul's Lutheran Church was organized on March 27, 1930 at the home of Mrs. John Mintz under the willing guidance of Rev. H. von Gemmingen, who was the pastor.

The following were the first officers: Mrs. von Gemmingen, president; Mrs. John Mintz, vice president; Mrs. G.E. Chambers, secretary; Mrs. Jake Straub, treasurer.

On September 30, 1954 the Aid joined the Lutheran Women's Missionary League. "Serve the Lord with Gladness", is our motto. The objectives of this organization are to develop and maintain a greater mission consciousness among the Lutheran women of the Synod, Missionary Education, Missionary Inspiration and missionary service and to gather funds for mission projects directly sponsored or approved by Synod, especially for such for which no adequate provision has been made in the budget.

At present our membership stands at 18, and the following are holding offices: Mrs. Denvy Malm, president; Mrs. John Stroehl, vice president; Mrs. Oscar Lange, secretary; Mrs. Art Okerlund, treasurer. Hildebrand, Mrs. Ed LaBrensz, Mrs. Edwin Koenig, Mrs. Rose Koenig, Mrs. Lawrence Koenig, Mrs. Eward Schulz, Mrs. Lydia Schuldheisz, Mrs. Dan Schuldheisz, and Mrs. Alex Ulrich.

Mrs. Dan Schuldheisz and Mrs. Lydia Schuldheisz are the only two charter members who have remained faithful members up to the present time.

POMONA VALLEY LUTHERAN CHURCH

The Pomona Valley Lutheran Church was organized in 1888 by the following people who were also charter members: Jacob Longsjon, L.A. Ueland, Sigvart Berntson, John Broen, Lars and Carl Nordby, Ole Holman, Berrvind Wagnhild, Ludwig B. Larson, Andrew Lindblom, Andrew Larson, Gustav Thorson, J.A. Edstrom, Gustav Nyland, Jonas Johnson and John Groetin.

The first annual business meeting was held in 1889 when the following officers were elected: President, Jacob Longsjon; Secretary, Sigvart Berntson; Treasurer, Gustav Thorson.

First trustees elected were: Carl Nordby, Gustav Nyland and Andrew Lindblom.

There was no permanent minister to serve the congregation until 1893, when Rev. L. Herburg served one year for $50.00, giving seven services. From then on the following have served:

- Rev. Moe, 1894-1901;
- Rev. K.L. Kleaveland, 1901-1908;
- Rev. H. Moe, 1908-1921;
- Rev. O.K. Torgeson, 1921-1924;
- Rev. Eggen, 1924-1925;
- Rev. Garstad, 1925-1926;
- Rev. Morsund, 1926-1928;
- Rev. C.J. Nolstad, 1928-1941;
- Rev. Gustav Gunsten, 1941-1947;

In 1894 the congregation joined the same charge as Oakes and it was in effect until 1928, when the congregation joined with LaMoure, St. Ansgar and Berlin. This continued until 1933, then Kulm, and Berlin were alone until 1941, when the two congregations joined in with Montpelier and Ypsilanti.

The Pomona Valley Ladies Aid was organized in 1901 by Rev. K.L. Kleaveland. The first officers were: President, Mrs. M.C. Larson; Secretary, Miss Laura C. Larson; Treasurer, Mary Steen.
The Sunday School was organized the same year with L.H. Steen and Miss Laura C. Larson as teachers. In 1935 the Sunday school was reorganized with Mrs. Ole Johnson as Superintendent.

Jacob Longsjon served as President, Treasurer, and trustee from 1888 until 1922 when he passed away.

Sigvart Berntson served as President or Secretary for 14 years to the time of his death. L.H. Steen served as Treasurer from 1900 to 1916 and then as President from 1922 to 1944, except in 1925.

On March 12, 1913 the Pomona Valley Lutheran Church was incorporated under laws of the State of North Dakota. First services were held in a school house in Pomona View and Norden Twp., then the German Lutheran church was rented in 1934, when the lease terminated. This proved a blessing in disguise. The congregation had their own church building. The Ladies Aid having saved enough money to buy the building and the furnishings.

In September of 1938 the 50th Anniversary was celebrated with the cornerstone laying and dedication.

Pomona Valley Lutheran Congregation was the first organized church in the Kulm vicinity. It was served by faithful pastors to devoted members. Nothing can excel the devotion and religious spirit of the founders.

POMONA VALLEY LADIES AID

The following were elected: President, Mrs. Maren C. Larson; Secretary, Miss Laura C. Larson; Treasurer, Miss Marie Steen.

When first organized the aim was to pay expenses of parochial schools. Later other obligations came as: giving to missions, orphan homes, and to aid the church treasury. Then a building fund was set aside, the money to be used for a church home. In 1935 that was realized when a church building was bought and moved in. The aid paying for moving, the remodeling and furnishing of the church.

Every meeting since organization has opened with song, reading of scripture and prayer by the pastor or one of the members and special numbers which added to the interest. Last year's programs of Women's Missionary Federation was followed.

THE CHURCH OF GOD SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH
In the late '80's a group of believers, living about twenty miles south of Kulm, commenced to keep the seventh day Sabbath as a day of rest and worship and they went by the Bible designation of "The Church of God". There were about twelve or fourteen families in this Way at one time, and originally they came together in different homes for fellowship and worship. Later they had a church building of their own to meet in for a while.

As the years went by, some of the old settlers died, some moved away, and some made other changes until there were only a few left. In more recent years a few new ones have been added to the group, some of whom moved into town, and a church building was erected in Kulm in the summer of 1941, and dedicated in November of that year.

Elder Christ Kiesz of Eureka, South Dakota has consistently looked after the spiritual welfare of this assembly for many years. Others that have assisted from time to time were Elder Ivan Harlan and Elder Harvey Otto. At the present time Elder John Kiesz of Alfred is also ministering here.

"The Church of God" came through a line of Sabbath-keepers, dating back to pre-Protestant Reformation days in Europe. At the time of the Puritan migration to America, some of these people settled in Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, and New Jersey between the years of 1664 and 1800. Many drifted West and South after the Revolution, and a formal organization of these scattered churches was effected in Michigan in 1865.

This church is one of the few in America with more members abroad than at home. The total foreign membership is estimated at 45,000, with eighty foreign workers, not including Canada and Mexico. In Mexico City alone there are about 3,000 members, and about 130 churches scattered throughout the Republic. National headquarters are located at 1510 Cook Street in Denver, Colorado; and the publishing house is at Stanberry, Missouri. The official church organ is the Bible Advocate, now in its 90th year.

Fundamentalist doctrines and practices prevail here. The church believes in the infallibility of the Scriptures, the fall of man through sin, complete atonement and redemption for sin through the shed blood of the Messiah on the cross, Jesus in the tomb, after His death, for three full days and three full nights, repentance and conversion for forgiveness of sins, water baptism, holiness, the Lord's Supper annually, observance of the Moral Law, the return of the Jews to Palestine in the last days in fulfillment of prophecy, the literal coming of Jesus a second time to establish the millennial reign with the saints on the earth, the resurrection of the dead, and the annihilation of the wicked after the final judgment.

KULM BAPTIST CHURCH

The Kulm Baptist Church was organized July 4, 1892 when a few Swedish Baptist settlers decided to form a church. The eight charter members were: Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lundstrom, Peter Tjernlund, Anton Tjernlund, Anton Bjur, Gust Dahlberg, J.P. Johnson and Rudolph Ogren. None of these are living today.

At first Anton Tjernlund acted as preacher when no other minister was available. The Lord blessed the work in those early days for during the first year the membership doubled.

The first regular pastor, Rev. Olaf Sutherland, came in 1894 and by 1896 the membership was thirty. Other early pastors who served for longer or shorter periods were: Rev. Hans
Rev. Bengt Anderson came in 1922 and during his pastorate a wonderful revival swept the entire Swedish settlement. More than fifty professed conversions were witnessed. Miss Minnie Nelson was the Evangelist, assisted by Rev. and Mr. A.E. Pederson. Student pastors during the following years were: Rev. Harold Martinson, Rev. Ernest E. Nelson and Rev. Eric Anderson.

In 1930 Victor Erickson became the pastor. During his seven year ministry more than 30 members were added to the church. Rev. N.E. McCoy served as part-time pastor beginning in 1938. Rev. David Anderson, Rev. Ray Shodin and Rev. Paul White followed as pastors.

The new church building was dedicated October 31, 1948. In 1951 a deep well was drilled and a water system was installed in both the Church and the parsonage.

The oldest living members in length of membership are: Mrs. Betsy Lindgren, Mrs. Olaf Olson, Alma and Carl Lindgren and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Bowman.

Rev. Credo Erickson is the present pastor coming here in June of 1955.

KULM BAPTIST MISSION CIRCLE

The Kulm Baptist Mission Circle was organized by a missionary who came here in 1907. Her name was Mathilda Malmberg, who later became Mrs. J.A. Tjernlund.

This circle has been active for about 50 years and is possibly one of the oldest in this area.

The theme of the Circle is Missions and the spreading of the gospel to needy in foreign lands.

There is a group of about 30 ladies now, as many of zealous ones have gone on to a better land.

We are striving to carry on the wonderful work they started.

KULM ASSEMBLY OF GOD

Efforts to permanently establish an Assemblies of God Church in Kulm were begun in August, 1946 when Rev. C.G. Scharnberg, presbyter of the North Dakota District Council and pastor of the Gospel Tabernacle in Swede Township, invited Rev. Lloyd C. Jorgenson, Evangelist, to Kulm.

Rev. L.C. Jorgenson, together with co-workers, Oliver W. Johnson and James L. Roney, began meeting in a district tent on August 8th, 1946 on the lot just west of the present Ford building. After September 15th meetings were held in the City Auditorium and Glad Tidings Mission; however quick action was taken to purchase a small church a few miles east of the city. Favorable weather made it possible for Rev. C.G. Scharnberg to rally his men from the Tabernacle and a large number of volunteers from Swede Township and to pour the foundation early in December of that same year.
The purchased building was moved in, and the first service held in the building was a children's Christmas program. At this time Glad Tidings Mission on Main St., which had undoubtedly blessed the lives of very many during its years of service, was discontinued. In 1949 the Gospel Tabernacle, an Independent Pentecostal Church which had been a Gospel Lighthouse in the community north of Kulm voted to amalgamate with the Kulm Assembly of God.

To accommodate the numerical growth, in 1947 the main auditorium of the church was made one-third again as large as it was, an entry was built on the south side of the church, and the interior was completely remodeled and decorated. Again, in 1950, an annex twenty-four feet by sixty feet was added to meet the need of the rapidly growing and scientifically departmentalized Sunday School.

The various departments of the church working in accord and unity have brought the resultant, satisfying growth. In the Assembly Sunday School there has been a remarkable development in operation and attendance. The average attendance in 1949 was 34, and in 1956 it was 179. Jean Loven is the superintendent of this five-department school of fourteen classes, which keeps thirty-three workers actively engaged.

The Women’s Missionary Council actively engages in home and foreign missionary enterprises. This strong arm of the church is a continuation of the WMC introduced by Miss Edith Storlie and Miss Evelyn Westlund in 1939. The Men’s Fellowship organizes the men in a similar field of service.

The Christ's Ambassadors are the youth of the assembly. 50 youth of C.A. age conduct a weekly service in the church, while bi-monthly meetings are held by the Christian Cadets (ages 9-13) and the Teens.

The Assembly Singers have conducted many sacred concerts throughout the area, besides providing music for all the services of the church.

Rev. L.C. Jorgenson has continued as pastor since 1946. Two summers he studied and traveled extensively in Europe as speaker and musician. His dedication to the ministry has contributed much to the upbuilding of the local Assembly of God.

HISTORY OF KULM SPECIAL SCHOOL

The story of the Kulm School is one of continuous progress since the first classes assembled in a small one room school house built in 1893 on the site of the E.M. Anderson home.

Mrs. J.A.T. Bjornson, nee Anna F. Milne, was the first teacher to teach in this one room school house as did two of her successors, A.D. Griffin and David Dallas.

In 1896 the room was partitioned when Ray Cruden came and another teacher Miss Rodman was added.

The following were among the first 44 pupils: Emil Anderson, Albert Burkle, Carrie Doering, Henry Doering, Anna Ecklund, John Ecklund, Matilda Ecklund, Oscar Ecklund, John Gackle, Christina Grosz, Bertha Hillius, Gottfried Grosz, Lydia Grosz, Benjamin Kurtz, Edward Kurtz, Members of the first school board were: J.A.T. Bjornson, president; Chas. J. Jones, secretary; Eric G. Anderson; Sigvart Berntson; Gustav Nyland. One of the last three acting as treasurer.

In 1897 the Kulm Special School District was organized withdrawing from the Norway Common School District.

From the forty-four pupils who attended that first school there has been a yearly increase as shown by the 625 graduates since 1927.

Coinciding with an increasing enrollment has been an expanding school plant. In 1900 a four room building was constructed on the present school site. More space was added to this in 1908. The older part of the present brick building was constructed in 1924 after the earlier structure had been destroyed by fire. Again in 1939 need for increased school facilities prompted the construction of a school gymnasium and additional classrooms. Kulm can now boast one of the finest school buildings in this area.

The first record of a two year high school was in 1902 with P.J. Burfenning, Gottfried Grosz, Bert Malin and Matilda Sperling as graduates.

The first four-year high school program was introduced in 1926, and the first high school graduation exercises held in 1927. Two young men, Clarence Guthmueller and Otto Sperling received their diplomas at that time.

In the spring of 1935 the school was advanced from a town graded school to a second class classified school. Then next year the school was again advanced to a first class classified school. Under the able guidance of the former superintendent G.M. Stephens, the local school continued to grow and it was through his untiring efforts that the school was accepted as a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the highest rating agency in the U.S. This membership was attained in 1943 and the school has continued to maintain the high standards set by this Association.

Having attained the highest rating possible, efforts have been made in recent years to improve the quality of equipment available.

During Supt. M.W. Gunter’s efficient administration the addition of a hot lunch program in December of 1946 was another step forward, the installation of an Intercommunication System and the first school carnival.

During the time David Hoel was Supt. The operation of two school buses added the children from Norden, Pomona View, and Hollan School District.

The music department consists of a mixed, a girl’s and a boy's chorus.

The school has a 26 piece beginners band and a Kulm High Senior Band with 39 members.

KULM BANDMOTHERS
Kulm Bandmothers was organized in 1942 under Carl Ulmer, music director of Kulm school. Mrs. P.J. Eberhard served as president. The money raised by this club was later used to help purchase 29 band jackets. The club dissolved and was re-organized in 1953 with Mrs. Albert Buerkle as president; Mrs. Walter Botsford as secretary and Miss Mary Dahlager, school music director, as treasurer. This club purchased 12 more jackets, 41 belts, 41 caps, a bass horn, alto clarinet and tympani.

The present officers are: Mrs. Lee Holland, president; Mrs. Ervin Dennis, vice-president; Mrs. Roland Jans, secretary; Mrs. Harold Nelson, treasurer.

SWEDE SCHOOL

The Swede school district was organized in 1887 at the residence of Anton Lindgren. The meeting was called to order by Anton Lindgren. Daniel Malm was chosen chairman. The first order of the business was to name the district. After some discussion it was decided to name it the Swede School District No. 1. The second question, introduced by Carl L. Lindgren, was that the district should bond itself for $800.00, for the construction of a school house. The first annual meeting in the new school house was June 30, 1889. A new school board was then elected for a term of 4 years. The names of the school board members were: Peter Lundstrom, Daniel Malm, Erick J. Johnson and Peter Bjur as clerk. The board decided that a salary of $20.00 be paid to the teacher, and the board and room for the teacher could not be more than $8.00 per month. The first teacher was a man by the name of Dallas.

KULM PUBLIC LIBRARY

On September 21, 1936 Kulm opened its first Public Library. Mrs. C.O. Fergusson was instrumental in the organization of a library. An experienced worker from the State Library Commission was contacted and helped catalog and institute an index system of filing the books. Many of the first books were donated and others bought.

The American Legion Auxiliary was sponsor with the Kulm Homemakers Club and the Kulm Civic League as co-sponsors.

It was located in the basement of the City Auditorium and was open two hours a week on Wednesday from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m.

They borrowed books from the State Library Commission at Bismarck, N. Dak. To supplement the library, also subscribed and received gift magazines and cooperated with the local school library to avoid duplications.

The library collected no borrower's fee, only for books overdue.

The American Legion took over the sole sponsorship of the library in 1946, at which time a reorganizing meeting was held on July 10, when Mrs. Ed Orth was appointed librarian with Mrs. Giles Chambers and Mrs. E.A. Guthmueller as assistants.

On January 7, 1948 the library was moved into the school house. New shelving was put in at this time, and this proved to be a satisfactory set up. Later the library grew and an increase in enrollment at the school necessitated using the library room for a class room. The American Legion gave the library room in their building to which the books were moved.

At present Mrs. Ed. Orth is Librarian, assisted by Mrs. Richard Herman and Mrs. John Borth.

We are now anticipating a new library building.

KULM VOLUNTARY FIRE DEPT.

The Kulm Voluntary Fire Department was organized November 9, 1909. A.R. Reise was the first Chief, P.J. Burfenning, Ass't. Chief; and Fred Larson the Secretary.

The following were the charter members: Emil Anderson, Otto Hillius, Fred Kempf, Gott. Hanneld, Fred Larson, Gottfried Grosz, John Mundt, Nat Grosz, Robert Lange, Gust Grosz, John Jenner, Russell Burfenning, Peter Stolt, A.R. Reise, Johnny Kessow, Bruce Ogden, George Schneider, P.J. Burfenning, Bert Malin, Wm. Lange.

The City of Kulm had at this time purchased two chemicals and one hook and ladder cart.

In 1939 the first truck was purchased when city water was available to use with the hoses which were purchased by the city. In 1949 the Civic Improvement Association bought the first fire truck including pumper and ladders.

The City now has 29 hydrants and a good water supply; and an active Fire Department of 40 men.

The present officers are: Robert O. Gackle, Chief; John Borth, Assistant Chief; Oscar Lange, Secretary.

KULM'S BANDS - PAST & PRESENT

True to tradition as with all new towns the band bug found its way to Kulm.

Kulm's first band was organized in 1896 and was under the leadership of a little hot-headed Norwegian by the name of Ole Johnson.

In those years band leaders by tradition played the cornet or they just didn't rate as band leaders, and as a rule most of them used the E flat cornet for their work, a high pitched canary voiced instrument now obsolete. Ole played the E flat cornet and how. The writer was once told of how Ole at one of the rehearsals threw his cornet down and jumped on it, in a fit of temper. After such treatment the playing condition of that instrument can be left to the reader's judgment better than can be described. Chris Buechler and Otto Hillius were members of the first band. Otto's brother, Ted played in a later band. As Otto once remarked, "The bass drum was bigger than I was but that was the instrument wished on to me".
The next band leader was Glen Denning, a cornet player who saw service as a bugler in the Spanish-American War. Glen soon left Kulm and a Mr. Thurn took over the band.

In the meantime a young photographer located here from Hoffman, Minnesota, by the name of Fred Kempf and was playing in the band. When Thurn left, Fred Kempf or "Fritz", as everyone called him took over the thankless job and came to the front with his band in about 1902 or 1903 and many of the old timers here still remember that band in its green uniforms with the brass buttons and black braid. The little red-faced blacksmith, Gooch, was considered the band's best cornet player. Mike Amen also played the cornet. Willie Lange and Fred Gackle played altos. Chris Buechler the baritone, Jensen the editor was the snare drummer, Big Mitz the bass drummer. There were the Rott brothers, John and Curley. Art Koenig was the clarinet player.

With members leaving one by one the band discontinued activities. Kulm was without a band for several years, during which time the Swede Township Band played the celebrations in and around Kulm. Hugo Ogren, the popular bass player and charter member of the Kulm City Band was a member of the Swede Township Band at that time.

In 1911 Fred Kempf again organized a band which was active for several years. In early 1917 the directorship of the band was taken up by Dr. Theuer who later passed it on to a Mr. Schmidt who was also a good violinist. In the fall of 1917 with World War I starting, several of the members were drafted into the service so the band hung up, until the return of the boys in the spring of 1919 when a Mr. Kraus was named leader. He shortly turned the band over to Walk Davis, a former circus cornet player who was working as second man at the Soo Line Depot. After a couple of years Davis left and Kulm was again without a band.

Late in 1925 the present band was organized with Ed Hollan as director and has been under his direction ever since. He served throughout World War I with the 352nd Infantry Band in the U.S. and France, and after working several years in the Holton Band Instrument factory at Elkhorn, Wis., returned to his home stamping ground.

Down through the years the band has played in all of the important cities along highway No. 10 from Mandan to Fargo and all the smaller towns within driving distance of Kulm. On July 1949, U.S. Senators, William Langer and Milton R. Young of North Dakota honored the band by designating it the North Dakota U.S. Senator's Band.

Some half dozen of the charter members are still with the band.

A.R. (Abbie) Kempf was the band's first drum major, followed by L.H. (Bud) Brown. After that the band used Majorettes who were also skilled twirlers.
Sylvia Hollan, the director’s daughter was the first majorette, followed by: Marlyn Mueller, Romona Young, Beatrice Kramlich and the present majorette, Jo Engelbreitson.

ROBERT KURTZ AMERICAN LEGION POST NO. 57

On or about the 7th of March, 1919, a group of officers and men gathered in Paris to see what could be done in regard to organizing veterans organizations. At that meeting great progress was made and on March 16, 1919 another meeting was called at Paris and the American Legion was founded.

The first National Convention was held in St. Louis, Mo. In August of 1919 a group of veterans from Kulm met at the G. Lange store and the Robert Kurtz Post of the American Legion was organized.

They submitted the names of the 16 veterans to the Legion department of North Dakota, for a charter and on September 22, 1919 a charter was issued to them. The charter members were: Paul Jenner, Mark A. Buechler, Albert Gackle, William Wolff, Emanuel Hauff, Edwin Renz, Edward Guthmueller, Harry Wolff, Reinhold Bohnet, Robert Lange, Reinhold Kurtz, Albert Hellwig, Theodore Giedt, Edward Aldinger, C.O. The first meeting was held in Lange's store and then in the fire hall which was located where Palms residence is now, later they had club rooms above the First State Bank. This place was held quite awhile until they moved their quarters into the basement of the auditorium. They were forced to move again. The post disposed of all their holdings and met in the First National Bank and in the lobby of Fergusson Bros. Office over the Drug store. Then again the post met with the city council regarding a place where they could meet once a month. Permission was granted to meet in the Auditorium.

The membership crash came when a lot of the members moved away and joined other posts. The legion, however has managed to maintain a post. World War II and the Korean conflict has again added new members.

At present the Post has acquired a building of their own in which the regular meetings are held. Lawrence Koenig is Post Commander at present. Reinhold Kurtz is the only charter member still with the post. Four members have passed away.

Two of the present members are second generation members, their mothers belonging to this same group. They are Joanne Dennis, daughter of the former Marion Beich and Joyce Hildebrand, daughter of the former Arleen Beich.

It is outstanding for a youth organization to continue for the many years it has in Kulm and has been especially profitable in this community as no Home Economics is offered in the school. Much credit to the success of this group goes to the very find leadership it has had over the past years. The ladies are members of the Kulm Homemakers and receive no pay for their many hours of devoted work. Their only reward will be the thanks of the many girls who received so much through the 4-H Club.

GERMAN NORTHWEST FARMERS UNION LOCAL

The German Northwest Farmers Union Local No. 1222 was organized October 29, 1927 with Robert Hollan as chairman, J.J. Mueller as Vice Chairman and Ed Hollan as Secretary-Treasurer.

After a couple of years it merged with the Farm Holiday Assn., a militant farm group organized for the purpose of halting some of the many unjust evictions so common at the time of the dry thirties. In the late thirties when rainfall once again blessed these parched prairies, the local was re-organized under the banner of the "Farmers Union" by Dick Joyce, who was at that time Farmers Union State Secretary.

The membership has grown to 150 members and holds its regular monthly meetings. It has a junior class of 8 and a reserve class of 11 members. Each year the local sends Juniors and Reserves to State and County Camps, and members to County and State Conventions.

Seven members have gone to Washington D.C. on Farmers Union Trips lobbying for a better farm program for family type farmers. Several members have been state delegates to Denver to the National Convention. Five members toured the T.V.A. in 1947.

A member of the Local, Gottlieb Hartman, has served on the Dickey County Organization for 12 years and has been County president for 5 years.

Security on the Land and World Peace and Understanding.

"Index of 1957 Jubilee Book" was later printed. To assist any family research, the surnames will be transcribed in alphabetical order and a number assigned to each family entry. If a picture is printed along with the article, the notation [picture] will be included at the beginning of that family history article. In some cases, where available within the article, the maiden name of the wife will be shown in the heading.)

001. ANDERSON, CARL & ANNA (Hanson)

[picture] Carl A. Anderson was born in Vastergotland, Sweden on October 15, 1887. In the year 1905 he immigrated to America together with his brother John F. Anderson. They came to Chicago and worked there until the spring of 1907 when they came to Kulm.

Then Carl worked for Victor Arvidson and J.A. Hedlund and during threshing for Carl Oberg. He then went to Washington for a short time returning in the fall of 1908 and worked at different places. In 1914 his brother John and he rented the Peter Tjernlund farm.

In 1918 Carl bought some land in Guthschmidt Township, Logan County and started farming there. In 1919 he was married to Anna Hanson. She was born in Norway on March 18, 1889 and came to this country from Oslo, Norway in 1913. They have one daughter, Helen, Mrs. Stanley Johnson, Kulm, N.D. In 1905 in partnership with Chas. Linder he started a general store, buying out a man by the name of Mureling. Sometime later in partnership with Christ Hieb they bought the then Brost Bros. General store. Its location was where the Farmers Union station now is located. The store at that time was known as Hieb and Anderson. Some time later his brother Oscar and he bought Mr. Hieb's share and continued in the same location until 1917 when he bought the John Schuldheisz store, then he continued in business until selling out in 1956. He also at one time had a store at Lawton, N.D., and after selling this business they bought Brauffman store at Lehr, N.D., which was operated by his brother Oscar.

The Andersons have two children: Kenneth Anderson, civil engineer, Riverdale, N.D.; and Beverly Anderson, dietician, St. Mary's Hospital, Duluth, Minnesota.

003. ANDERSON, ERICK & BETSY (Erickson)

[picture] Erick G. Anderson was born February 27, 1856 in Sweden. He came to the U.S. in March 7, 1882. He married Betsy Erickson of Wilmar, Minn. On November 28, 1882. They settled for some time at Bird Island, Minn. In a short time he started out with a covered wagon drawn by two oxen for Walcott, N.D. where he filed on a quarter of land. Eight years later he put his belongings in a covered wagon drawn by the two oxen and came to Edgeley, N.D. He settled on a farm 2 miles north of what is now Kulm.

While living at Walcott they were frightened several times by the report that Indians were coming as raiding parties. At such times the settlers came to town for more possible safety.

In those days seed was hard to obtain so he had to go to Fargo for seed wheat and potatoes.

Eggs at that time were 5 cents per dozen and butter was 6 cents per pound.

They lived for 23 years on this farm. This tract grew to 7 quarters. In 1913 they retired from the farm and moved to Kulm, where he lived until his death in 1929. He was a member of the Swedish Baptist Church 6 miles north of Kulm.

004. ANDERSON, JOHN & ANNIE (Arvidson)

John F. Anderson was born in Vastergotland, Sweden August 27, 1882. He and his brother Carl came to America in November of 1905. They stayed in Chicago until the spring of 1907, then he came to Swede Township where he worked on the John Arvidson farm for one year and for a neighbor during the summer months.

He went to Chicago and there he stayed until 1909, when he came back to Swede Township and worked for Jacob Bjur.

In the fall of 1909 he took a homestead in South Dakota. He returned to Swede Township in the spring of 1913.

In 1914 he and his brother Carl rented the Peter Tjernlund farm. He married Annie Arvidson June 24, 1914.

[picture] A.V. Arvidson was born in Somland, Sweden on December 19th, 1879. In July of 1899 at the age of 19 he came to Kulm with his sister Augusta Arvidson. All he owned was $63.00 in cash, but he had a healthy body and enthusiastic spirit, working days and often nights in order to make enough money to begin farming.

He rented land, borrowed money paying 12 percent interest, bought horses of which 2 died even before they were paid for. He worked hard. For lack of horses, he used a young heifer together with horses, training her like the rest and after completing the use of her she was found to be in better condition than when he started working her.
After some time he bought a quarter of land in Logan County, paying $3.50 per acre. Later he bought two more quarters of land in LaMoure County adjoining that of his brother C.J. Arvidson.

On January 2, 1907, he was married to Emma Tjernlund daughter of the late J.A. Tjernlund of Swede Township. To this union five children were born: Edith, Mrs. Arthur Erickson of Edmonton, Canada; Ellen, Mrs. Clyde Haglund, Seattle, Wash.; Ruth, Mrs. Cliff Reynolds, Pinehurst, Idaho; Everett, Pinehurst, Idaho; and Hazel, Mrs. James Dunn of Spokane, Wash.

On February 10, 1946 daughter Ruth was fatally burned at their ranch home one mile out of Pinehurst, Idaho, leaving four small children who were cared for by Grandma Arvidson and Everett until the father Cliff Reynolds moved to his own home and Mrs. Arvidson moved in with him until he was remarried a year later.

The Arvidsons did diversified farming, grain, sheep, hogs and Holstein cattle, mostly milk cows. They never had a tractor, but used horses all the time.

During the drought years of 34-36 and all the losses, Mr. Arvidson's health failed very badly.

In 1941 Mr. and Mrs. Arvidson went to Kellog, Idaho to live with their son Everett, but returned again in 1942. In May Mr. Arvidson passed away at the age of 62.

Mrs. Arvidson finished out the year farming with part time help from her son-in-law Jim Dunn.

The farm was rented to Arvid Erickson and together with sister Teckla Tjernlund, and son Everett, Mrs. Arvidson left for Idaho, where she makes her home with her son Everett, but at present time is living with her sister Teckla Tjernlund in Spokane, Washington.

018. BJUR, ERICK & AMANDA (Noren)

[picture] In 1880, Erick Bjur and Amanda Noren were married in Storliden, Norsjo, Sweden. A few years later they decided to migrate to this country. As they were the first people to leave from that part of Sweden, their departure caused quite a sensation.

Leaving their baby boy, Frank about 8 months old, with his people, they started out on their long journey, traveling in various ways.

As traveling such a long distance had about exhausted their finances, they immediately sought employment. After four days of tramping the streets of Chicago, they finally found work with a farmer living a few miles south of there.

When the summer work was completed they started out again for the pine timbers of Wisconsin. In a lumber camp not far from LaCrosse, where he found work, she also cooked for a gang of laborers where each received a salary of $1.00 per day.

After the camp broke up Mr. Bjur went on to a railroad construction job near St. Cloud, Minn., Mrs. Bjur staying with a family in LaCrosse.

In several months she joined her husband in Minnesota and after buying a covered wagon, a stove, a hand plow, a yoke of oxen and some provisions they started out for North Dakota to try homesteading.

Coming to Moorhead they crossed the Red River on a ferry boat. After crossing Mr. Bjur started his yoke of oxen up the hill from the ferry and as the load was rather heavy the oxen balked and started backing the load into the river. Mrs. Bjur, sitting in the covered wagon with her baby Arthur, was in a dangerous position. Her husband, seeing this, grabbed the rear wheel of the wagon and in this way and with the help of the man running the ferry, managed to get the load up to the top of the hill.

After further traveling for three more weeks they landed about four miles south of what is now known as Oakes, their nearest trading post being Lisbon. Filing on some land they built a small sod shanty, plowed some land and planted corn and potatoes which brought a good crop.

Thus they had things nicely started for a home, when one day a man on horseback passing their homestead shouted that the Indians were coming through the district, plundering and killing the white people. Mrs. Bjur was ready to leave the home, but her husband decided they had better stay and defend themselves as best they could with an old gun he had rigged up. To their relief this proved to be a false alarm.

The first winter in 1883-84 in North Dakota was quite eventful. Mr. Bjur, being a good hunter, provided plenty of meat and fish for the family needs. He did not surpass Mrs. Bjur a great deal when it came to shooting, however for she too showed excellent marksmanship. On an occasion when a land inspector came unexpectedly and spent the night with them, she provided meat for the family by going down to the lake and shooting two big ducks. This relieved the embarrassing situation of having only potatoes and butter to eat. In the spring of that year they started with new hopes, planting and sowing for a new crop. Later on, one day, quite unexpectedly Mr. Bjur's father, Anton Bjur came from Sweden. The following year, 1885, Mrs. Anton Bjur, also came, bringing the little grandson, Frank. She was accompanied by Mr. Bjur's brothers, Peter and Jacob.

As the homestead land was pretty well taken up around Oakes and they expected more people from the old country, they decided to move again, selling their land rights for $800.00. The old covered wagon was rigged up and they started out again.

This time they started building a new home in the western part of LaMoure Co., now known as Swede and Norden Townships. They was in 1887. LaMoure, thirty-five miles distant, was the nearest postoffice. The following year the railroad was extended further west closer to the Swedish Colony. This new trading place was called Edgeley.

In the year 1890 Mrs. Bjur made application for a postoffice which was granted. This postoffice was named Newberg. This was in existence until the Soo Line was built as far as Kulm. The desk of the postoffice is now a cherished relic of Mr. Carl Bjur, son of the Erick Bjurs.

A few years later the Bjur family, with the exception of Frank and Alma, moved to the state of Washington. In 1906 they returned to Kulm in order to thresh and dispose of their property here, as they expected to settle permanently in Washington. However, Mrs. Bjur was stricken with appendicitis and passed away one Sunday morning in October, leaving Mrs. Bjur with ten children, the youngest Eddie, two years of age. Through all these sorrows and hardships of early pioneer days Mrs. Bjur's faith in God, the belief in His kind providence never wavered.

As Mrs. Bjur preferred North Dakota to Washington, they disposed of their farm in Washington and returned to North Dakota to live. Here four miles north of Kulm, she spent most of the rest of her eventful life mothering her youngest children while she went for frequent visits to her older children in Washington and Oregon. She lived to be 71 years of age and spent her last years with her daughter, Mrs. Bert Lindgren. In June, 1930, she was laid to rest in the Swedish Baptist Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Bjur were both devoted members of the Swedish Baptist Church, and did much towards building up the institution.

022. BLOMQUIST, AUGUST & AMANDA (Larson)

[picture]  August Blomquist was born January 7, 1877 in the Northern part of Sweden. He came to this country with his parents and three brothers, John Gust and Hugo in July of 1892. His father filed on a homestead about twelve miles northwest of Kulm. The closest town at that time was Edgeley. He recalls that all the territory was a wild, open prairie. August was 15 years old at the time of his parents' arrival in Swede township and he spent most of his boyhood on his father's homestead where he helped with the essentials of establishing a home. Homes were made mostly of sod although there were a few small lumber shacks. Newcomers to this country had to be taken care of by those who had already settled. Mr. Blomquist recalls that a certain family had to take care of as many as seven families in their single room during the winter. There were two babies born in this one room home one winter. People were very helpful to each other.

The settlers had very little money, if any, to buy the necessities [of] life. It is true, he says, that they could get up to 160 acres of nice fertile land practically free, but they could not scratch up even a patch of potatoes with their bare hands. They had to depend on their neighbors who lived 5 to 10 miles away to lend them a yoke of oxen and a hand plow. Mr. Blomquist goes on to say that it is impossible to tell the present generation what the real pioneer settlers were up against.

August did not have the privilege of attending school in this country. He spent only six weeks in school in this country, however he had considerable schooling in Sweden and it was a great help to him here. In 1910, on March 23 he was united in marriage to Henry Amanda Larson. He bought a farm of his own and spent most of his life farming.

Eight children were born to this family. They are: Ruth, Mrs. McEvan, San Francisco, Calif.; Hubert, Chicago, Ill.; Victor, San Francisco, Calif.; Erland, Kulm, N.D.; Marcelle, Mrs. Henderson of Seattle, Wash.; Lloyd in the island of Hawaii; Curtis, Seattle, Wash.; and Arlene, Mrs. Lyle B. Mr. and Mrs. Blomquist were blessed with the following children: Evelina, Mrs. August Soberg; John, August, Gust and Hugo Blomquist and Agnes, Mrs. Victor Samuelson.

The four boys came with their parents to this country and Agnes was born in N.D. She died in 1953. Mrs. Evelina Soberg also died.

026. BORTH, MICHAEL & MARIA (Kurtz)

[picture] Michael Borth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Borth of Beresina, Russia, was born November 4, 1885. At the age of 18 he came to America and homesteaded on a farm 7 miles northwest of Fredonia for seven years. The farm land was seeded by hand.

On Dec. 6, 1906 he was united in marriage to Maria Kurtz, who with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Kurtz of Alt Artsehs [Alt-Arzis], Russia, migrated to America in 1905 and settled in Enid, Oklahoma. Mr. and Mrs. Borth knew each other in the old country.

In 1914 the homestead was traded for a livery barn from Mahlin in Kulm. Bill Dugan had been renting it before them. During the livery barn days people came for many miles with wagon and team to trade their wheat for flour at the Kulm Mill, located right across the street from the barn. Pioneers came from Ellendale, Gackle, Wishek and many more towns and farms and these trips would take days at a time.
With the beginning of Mr. Borth's ownership of the livery stable he was a well known figure on the streets of Kulm. He had accommodations in the barn for 40 horses --he had plenty of hay and water for the animals and a friendly welcome for all visitors. Mrs. Borth was always ready to feed the hungry travelers. A lasting friendship was developed through these services. They livery barn was one-half block long and also housed sleighs and buggies and Mr. Borth always kept a team of high spirited horses for hire to the doctor and mail carriers. Many a life was served and saved by this efficient service.

In 1918 the barn was destroyed by fire. A 40 mile an hour wind made it impossible for anything to be saved except the horses. The origin of the fire was never determined. A new barn was constructed at once. Mr. Borth felt the loss deeply, but also considered the people who needed housing for their animals. The town of Kulm was becoming more settled --cars were beginning to be used and the livery stable business was getting slack, so Mr. Borth started a cream station in the Anderson building in 1926.

During a period of 19 years he carried on this business along with poultry, eggs and hides, in various locations throughout the city. In 1926 Mr. Borth was selected as City Chief of Police. It was during this time that the First State Bank was robbed at 1 a.m. A bombardment of shooting was heard, so Mr. Borth, on his call to duty, left his home to check on the strange noises. Before he walked a half a block he was stopped by a brick falling from the Grosz building, where the robber had shot to kill. Mr. Borth's home was surrounded by armed men, he then circled the block and in terrific fear he made it home safely, with his only injury a hole in his jacket. After but only about 30 minutes the shooting stopped and Mr. Borth checked the disaster.

Mr. Borth was Chief of Police, Street Commissioner, Auditorium Janitor, Ticket Collector for 9 years. He took great pride in his office duties and practiced justice and taught it to all without creating hard feelings. In 1921 Mr. Borth built the home where his family was reared. He was an ardent supporter of that which would help the progress of his city.

Mr. and Mrs. Borth were blessed with eight children: Molly, Mrs. Otto Kosanke, Kulm; John Borth, Kulm; Olga, Mrs. Henry Reister, Leavenworth, Washington; Alvina, Mrs. Otto Smith, Lyndon Stations, Wis.; Emman, Mrs. Elmer Grosz, Glendale, Calif.; Delores, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Ellendale, N.D.; Raymond Borth, Burbank, Calif.; Mrs. Violet Helmer, Lyndon Station, Wis.

056. FLEGEL, CHRISTIAN & LOUISE (Richter)

[picture] Christian Flegel was born in Kulm, South Russia on April 14, 1859. Mr. Flegel was the son of Christian and Carolina Flegel. Mr. Flegel was united in marriage to Louise Richter in 1880.

The Flegels decided to go to America, as Mr. Flegel's parents and his only brother, Frederick, had already gone to the U.S. Mr. and Mrs. Flegel immigrated to this country in 1892, arriving in Ellendale in the latter part of July.

They stayed at the home of Frederick Flegel for about one month. While the family stayed there, Mr. Flegel found land that suited him. This was two miles west and one mile north of the present site of Kulm. He filed on this land, built a small clay-rock house, and moved into their new home. The next summer they built a bigger clay-rock house and lived in this until 1899 when they built their first wood house. They lived on this farm until 1911 when they built a home in Kulm where they spent the rest of their lives.

Mr. Flegel had an interest in the Kulm Mill for a number of years. His brother, Frederick, and Gottlieb Dobler were his partners. The same year that the Flegel family came to this country, the Soo Line extended their line to the present site of Kulm. While the Flegel Bros., Christian and Frederick, were digging the basement for the first store in Kulm, Buechler's Store, a surveyor of the Soo Line asked Christian what he would like to have this town called. Christian replied, "I would like to have it named Kulm." Late in the fall of 1892 the Soo Line Depot with the name of Kulm on it was built. Mr. Christian Flegel always was interested in politics and he helped organize the Non-Partisan League in 1916.

Mr. and Mrs. Flegel were blessed with ten children: Mrs. John Mayer, Justina, American Falls, Idaho; John (deceased); Mrs. Marie Beierle, Goodrich, N. Dak.; Daniel, Kulm; Mrs. Sophia Pratt, Yakima, Wash.; Mrs. Emmeline Ziegenhagel, Fargo; Frederick C., Kulm; and three children died in infancy.

These pioneers told many experiences and how they would go out working for almost nothing so they could earn enough money to buy food. They immigrated to this country in 1892 and homesteaded eleven miles southeast of Kulm. Mr. and Mrs. Haase built a sod house. Their barn was built on stone. They had two oxen for their farm operation. They were hard to handle at times because they usually headed for pot holes on hot days.
After about two years they built a three room house of clay and stone. This house is still occupied by one of the daughters. Mr. Haase did most of his blacksmith work and also did work for his neighbors. In the fall of the year Mr. Haase was always kept busy grinding feed with a grinder run by the windmill. Mr. Haase remained on this homestead until 1917 when he moved to a farm near Merricourt on which he farmed until he retired and moved to Merricourt in 1925.

083. HAFFNER, CHRISTIAN & FREDERICKA (Sandau)

The development of the Dakota Territory in the vicinity of Kulm owes much to one of its American born sons, Christian Haffner.

Mr. Haffner was born April 3, 1884 in Tripp, S.D. and as a young boy came to this section with his parents in 1896.

In 1906 he was married to Fredericka Sandau by Rev. Thiele. Mrs. Haffner was born April 28, 1888.

They lived south of Kulm until 1911, when they moved to Pocatello, Idaho, where he was deputy sheriff until he returned in 1926. They lived here until 1943 enduring many hardships rearing their ten children. In 1928 they lost all their belongings in a fire.

084. HAFFNER, JOHN & CHRISTINA (Guthmueller)

One of the early pioneers of Dickey County was John Haffner, who was born December 25, 1859 at Newdorf, South Russia. At the age of seven years he lost his father, then with a brother he came to America in 1874. They settled first in Yankton, S.D. Mr. Haffner saved all the money he earned and was able to have his mother and sister come to this country.

In 1883 he married Christina Guthmueller who was born on June 22, 1862 at Newdorf, South Russia and came to America in 1879 with her parents.

In March of 1896 Mr. and Mrs. Haffner and family moved to Kulm, driving a stage coach with their belongings from Edgeley. On the way from Edgeley the stage tipped over and all the Haffner belongings were dumped into a snowbank. The oldest son had a bird in a bird cage with him and during this episode the bird flew away after the cage broke open.

The family lived three miles south of Kulm until 1906 when they moved into town. They had eleven children, nine of whom have joined their parents.

Mr. Haffner was alderman of Kulm for several years. Mr. and Mrs. Haffner were members of the Reformed Church of Kulm.

[picture] Mrs. Christ Hanneld, nee Rika Hanneld, was born April 26, 1886 at Parkston, S.D. She came with her parents, Mrs. And Mrs. Ludvig Doering, to a farm 7 miles south of Kulm in 1889. Mrs. Hanneld remembers when Kulm was started, as they and their neighbors were so happy they could get their supplies so close and wouldn't have to go to Ellendale or Edgeley with the oxen anymore. She also has memories of when she started school. Some of the children were 5 and 6 years old, and some were grown men. They all had to start alike, with the ABC's, as none could speak English. The first teacher's name was Bayer. They had a lot of fun learning the English language but only went to school for 2 or 3 months. Their second teacher offered a prize for the children who tried not to speak German during school hours. Mrs. Hanneld won a prize of a ribbon 3 yards long at the end of the year.

At the age of 12 years she worked in the household of Daniel Grosz for 8 months for which her parents received $40.

Mrs. Hanneld moved into Kulm after the death of her husband where she still lives. She has 2 children: Alvin, who lives 7 miles south of Kulm, and Alma, who lives in Naperville, Ill.

086. HANNELD, GOTTLIEB & MATHILDA (Isaak)

[picture] Gottlieb A. Hanneld was born in South Russia on April 12, 1881. At the age of 4 in 1885 he came with his parents to the U.S. and settled at Parkston, S.D. Soon after they moved to a farm near Ashley and Gottlieb grew to manhood. For a while he worked in a meat market at Edgeley.

On May 21, 1905 he was united in holy matrimony with Mathilda Isaak. The young couple made their home in Kulm where they remained until the time of his death.

Mr. Hanneld followed the butchering trade most of his life, turning occasionally to other occupations. He was employed in the meat department of the Peoples Store.

087. HARTER, CARL & MAGDALENA (Schafer)
Mr. Carl Harter was born in Matilendorf, Russia of German decent. He was united in marriage to Miss Magdalena Schafer. Mr. Harter and his family, together with several other families immigrated to the United States in 1894. They landed at Tripp, S.D. and settled on a farm 30 miles south of Fort Pierre on land to be homesteaded at that time. This small colony of people stayed at Fort Pierre for two years. All their neighbors were cowboys and Indians, who treated these new comers very well. They were always kind and considerate, especially when they were driving large herds near their dwellings, they say that the immigrants were not hurt by the cattle. Mr. Harter helped the cowboys with their roundups and rode horseback with them. They paid him 75 cents a day. He also put up hay and sold it to the livery stable at Fort Pierre and thus he provided the necessities for his family.

Because they could not find water, drilling was complicated, Mr. Harter set out to look for a new location. He rode horseback from Fort Pierre to Dawson Flat, south of Bismarck, in the spring of 1897, and worked there for some farmers earning some money and keeping a lookout for a homestead site. In the fall he traded his horse and saddle for a different horse plus a harness and a two wheeled cart. He drove back to Fort Pierre and moved the immigrants up to Dawson Flat where they stayed over winter. But these hardy people did not give up. They had a deep feeling and faith in the good Lord that He would not let them down, and by His help they made it. In the spring everything took on a new look and a new life. There were wild geese and ducks for meat and they still had flour for bread. Mr. Harter had located a new homestead site for all the immigrants six miles west of Merricourt, N.D. The whole colony of immigrants moved to Merricourt by covered wagon.

The first threshing was done by horse power, it taking 10 horses to drive a thresher. Mr. Harter's son John drove the horses and other members of the family fed it by hand or brought the grain to the machine, the women and children helping wherever needed.

Years later Mr. Harter and two neighbors, John Wahl and Adolph Schmidt's father, bought a complete steam thresher. Then later Mr. Harter bought out the other two and he and his sons did custom threshing for many neighbors.

Their first dwelling in which they lived was built of sod. This was cut with a spade. The whole family worked together to build the house as well as a barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harter had three sons: John, Merricourt, N.D.; Dan, Clarksburg, Calif.; Jake, deceased.

088. HASZ, DANIEL

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hasz came to America from Kulm, Bessarabia, South Russia, in 1887. They lived in Parkston, S.D. the first winter, and moved to a farm about 10 miles from Kulm the following spring. Here they built up a farm with a small sod house. They farmed with oxen and started life here in America much like any other pioneer.

As soon as they were able, they built a better house of clay and boards. As they had a large family, they built a good sized oven in which they could bake 14 large loaves of bread and 25 guchen [kuchen] at one time. Twisted hay was used for fuel and it kept one person busy feeding the fire.

In 1919 they moved into the city of Kulm and lived in the house that is now owned by Andreas Kungel. In 1926 they moved to Bismarck. Mr. Hasz passed away in 1928 and Mrs. Hasz in 1930.

John G. Hauff was united in marriage to Bertha Fregien on February 24, 1918. They have five children: Arthur Hauff of Los Angeles, California; Wilbert of Brookings, S.D.; Ruth Harstat of Grand Forks, N.D.; Dave of Kulm, N.D.; and Anna Entzi of Lehr, N.D.

092. HEDLUND, J. & CHRISTINE (Peterson)

Mr. Hedlund was born in Sweden on May 28, 1861. He came to America in 1891, arriving in Edgeley on June 23 of that year and worked for several farmers in that area.

Mrs. Hedlund (nee Christine Peterson) came to America from Stockholm, Sweden, and arrived in April of 1893. Her first taste of pioneer life was a stormy day when she rode on a load of ground feed from Edgeley to Newberg, which was then a postoffice and a home for the Erick Bjur family and now is the home of the Robert Lundgren family. She was later employed at a farm near Edgeley through the summer.

Mr. Hedlund and Miss Peterson were united in marriage on November 4, 1893, and located eight miles northwest of Kulm. Like the early settlers, they endured many hardships. The ox team was a popular mode of transportation, no roads, not a furrow plowed, but despite this they made merry with the neighbors in their sod shacks.

In 1905 they took two children from the Children's Home in Fargo, William Robert, deceased, and Alice Emma, Mrs. Fred C. Flegel.

Before coming to this country, Mr. and Mrs. Hedlund were faithful members of the Salvation Army. When the Baptist Church was organized north of Kulm, they became active members there.

Mr. Hedlund passed away at his farm home on February 24, 1914. Mrs. Hedlund continued to live on the farm until 1918 when she moved to Kulm. She passed away in Kulm on October 6, 1928.

093. HEHR, DAVID & CHRISTINA (Maier)

David Hehr was born in Kulm, N.D. He was united in marriage to Christina Maier who was born in Russia, but had immigrated to this country in 1891.

The Hehrs have lived in Kulm almost all of their lives. For some time Mr. Hehr was engaged in the implement business and moving of buildings. He also has done considerable farming and is still farming, but on a smaller scale.

Mrs. Hehr operated a restaurant for some time but her health forced her to retire from such business.
This union was blessed with five children who are as follows: Henry Hehr, Seattle, Wash.; Alice, Mrs. Ted Schield, Sidney, Montana; Clarence Hehr, Kulm, N.D.; Rueben Hehr, Arlington, Virginia; LeRoy Hehr, who is serving in the U.S. Army.

094. HEIDINGER, CHRIST & MARY (Rathke)

[picture] Christ Heidinger was born August 13, 1883, the son of John and Catherine Heidinger at Wittenberg, Bessarabia, Roumania.

His mother died when he was 11 years old. In May 1898, his father immigrated with his three children and tried to find a better living place in America. In June of the same year they arrived at Kulm and settled on a homestead northwest of what is now Kulm. Here Mr. Heidinger shared in the labors, hardships and struggles to build up a farm and home.

In January 1911, Christ Heidinger was united in marriage to Mary Rathke of Fredonia, N.D. Three children were born to this union. They are: Albert and Edwin of Kulm, N.D.; Alma, Mrs. Nelson Schanke, Genoa, Ohio.

Mr. Heidinger passed away on August 28, 1934 at the age of 51 years. He was a devoted member of the Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Heidinger makes her home in Fredonia, N.D.

095. HEIDINGER, FRED & M. (Pressler)

[picture] Another person who endured the hardships of being a pioneer was Mrs. M.M. Heidinger. She was born March 4, 1887 at Mathildendorf, South Russia.

In 1902 Mrs. Heidinger came to America with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Pressler. They had planned on settling in Java, S.D., but no one seemed to know just where Java was located so they stayed at Kulm.

Soon after arriving in America, Mrs. Heidinger worked for various people near Kulm. Most of the work she had to do was farm work and often, especially during the summer months, her day started at 3 a.m. and lasted until 12 midnight. Times were not as easy as they are now and wages were not as high either. She received $90.00 a year for her hard work.

After several years of having to help with farm work Mrs. Heidinger accepted employment in Kulm. Here wages were higher and work was not so hard. She worked at the homes of various Kulm pioneers which included the families of Dan Grosz, John Grosz, and Peter Billigmeier.

After their marriage in 1906 Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heidinger lived on a farm two miles south of Kulm. The house was made of hand made bricks of straw and clay. The walls were 18 inches thick and the house was quite warm. This house is still standing today, although boards now cover the walls. The barn of stones was cemented together with lime.

Mr. and Mrs. Heidinger struggled with their share of hardships. Once during the winter of 1911 and later on at another date, fumes escaping from a coal stove made the whole family ill. The family narrowly escaped death.

On June 8, 1912 a hail storm completely destroyed the Heidinger crops. As if this weren't enough, a similar storm completely destroyed the crops the following year.
But storms, blizzards, prairie fires, and lack of money could not dampen the pioneer spirit of Mr. and Mrs. Heidinger.

Seven children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Heidinger. Four died in infancy. The living children include: H.F. Heidinger of Milnor, N.D., Mrs. Sam Henke of Kulm, N.D.; R.R. Heidinger of Verona, N.D.

Since 1943 Mrs. Heidinger has made her home in Kulm.

Mr. Heidinger immigrated to the United States on June 8, 1898 and settled in Swede Township near Kulm. He homesteaded about seven miles north of Kulm and farmed with the help of his children. He passed away while still farming on his original homestead.

Two children, Barbara, Mrs. David Schlenker; and Christian are deceased; Adam of Kulm, N.D. is the only living child.

097. HEIER, KATHARINA

Katharina Herrmann was born in Beresenia [Beresina], Bessarabia, South Russia in 1897 and came to the United States with her parents, Gottlieb and Sophia Herrmann in 1889. She grew up on their homestead eight miles southeast of Kulm.

Her first recollections of her youth were her school days. There were not enough eligible school children to have a teacher come out into their community so her school days began at the age of ten. The first group of children ranging from 10 to 14 years went to classes in a granary on the Bossart farm. This they attended two years using makeshift benches and boxes for desks. Because the children were needed on the homesteads in spring and fall, school was open only during the winter months and many school days were missed during this period due to bad weather. The third year the first school house was built, it was equipped with all the new and necessary equipment of that time. More of the Herrmann children started school at this time; going back and forth the two and one-half miles with a two wheel, horse drawn cart.

She also recalls many days that she and her brother Rudolph were sent out on the prairies to herd the cattle and horses. Some of the neighboring children who were also herding were Adolph and Ottilia Herrmann and Fred and Nathaniel Schlenker who cared for their family's herds. Fred Schlenker was the only one herding on a horse. Often howling coyotes frightened the youngsters so badly they took their herds home.

Katharina was confirmed in the Congregational church while Pastor A.J. Vogel served. She has remained a faithful and loyal member of the church to this day. In 1919 she was united in marriage to Reinhold Konrad. Five sons were born to this union. They were: Wilbert of Kulm; LeMar of Portland, Oregon; Marvin of Bismarck, N.D.; LeRoy now serving in the U.S. Navy and Adolph who died in infancy. The Konrads farmed southwest of Kulm for eleven years when Mr. Konrad passed away in 1930. Mrs. Konrad moved in with her children until they were grown.
Mrs. Konrad married Emanuel Heier of Alfred, N.D. where they farmed until Mr. Heier's death in 1954. She then returned to Kulm where she has been taking care of her aging parents.

098. HERMAN, RUDOLPH & OLGA (Brosz)

[picture] Rudolph Herman was born August 5, 1899, 6 miles east and 2 miles south of Kulm, to Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Herman. He grew to manhood on his parent’s farm. In 1922 he started farming for himself six and one-half miles northeast of Kulm. He was united in marriage to Olga Brosz of Gackle, N.D. on June 21, 1923. He lived on various farms until 1937 when he sold out and moved to Edgeley. Mr. Herman worked in the Edgeley Farmers Union Elevator from 1938 until 1941; the LaMoure elevator from 1941 until 1945, and the Kulm elevator in 1946. In 1947 the Hermans purchased a restaurant and operated it for one year selling it back to the original owner. Mr. Herman worked at odd jobs until 1949 when he became chief of Police of Kulm. He held this position for four years. At present he is employed at the Woodworth Elevator Co. at Fredonia and maintains his residence at Kulm.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman have two children: Deloris, Mrs. Ernest Fey of Missoula, Montana and Gerald at home.

099. HERRMANN, FRIEDERICH & JOHANNA (Belder)

[picture] Mr. Friederich Herrmann, son of John and Kathrina (Keier) Herrmann, was born in Beresina, Bessarabia, South Russia on August 6, 1867. Mrs. Herrmann, nee Johanna Belder, daughter of Martin and Christina (Schlaag) Belder, was born September 6, 1871, in Beresina, Bessarabia, South Russia. Their ancestors had immigrated to Russia from Germany in about 1812.

Mr. and Mrs. Herrmann were united in marriage February 5, 1889. While in Russia, Mr. Herrmann's occupation was cabinet-maker. A small group of people decided to go to America after hearing of the opportunities in the land far over the ocean, from early immigrants. Included in the group were Mr. and Mrs. Herrmann and family, her parents, three brothers, John, Gottlieb and Christian and their families. They sailed on the ship "Kaiser Wilhelm" and arrived in New York on March 14, 1898. The group arrived in Kulm by train with all their worldly possessions in their hands. They had to live with friends they had known in Russia until they could build sod houses. Mr. and Mrs. Herrmann lived with Fred Maiers southeast of Kulm at that time.

Later they built a wooden frame house at its present location on the homestead five and one-half miles east of Kulm. Their nearest neighbors were Charles Rauleigh and Ludvig Schuldheisz. There were many hardships of hunger and cold those first years, but with God's help they survived and worked together side by side for fifty-four years. Mr. Herrmann served as Deacon of the church and Sunday School Superintendent for nearly forty years. He also served on the township board for many years. Mrs. Herrmann was a charter member of the New Beresina Ladies Aid.

To this union were born twelve children, one of whom preceded the parents in death. They are: Mathilda, Mrs. John Brost; Mary, Mrs. Christian Nill; Richard, all of Kulm, N.D.; Jacob, Bismarck, N.D.; Fred, Brockert, N.D.; Martha, Mrs. Rudolph Bjornseth, of Fargo, N.D.; Harry, Venice, Calif.; Amalia, Mrs. Clarence Nordstrom, Minneapolis, Minnesota; Rosalie, Mrs. Harold Symons, Chicago, Ill.; Alma, Chicago, Ill.; and William of Dolton, Ill.
Mr. Herrmann died September 3, 1943 in the Bismarck Hospital. Mrs. Herrmann died July 24, 1950 in the home of her son, Richard, Kulm, N.D. Both are buried in the New Beresina Cemetery east of Kulm.

100. HERMANN, GOTTLIEB Sr. & SOPHIA (Dietrich)

[picture] Among the early pioneers settling near Kulm, N.D. were Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Herrmann Sr. and his wife Sophia. Mr. Herrmann was born January 10, 1876, in Beresina, Bessarabia, South Russia. He married Sophia Dietrich on November 27, 1897, coming to America in the year 1898.

Due to the shortage of land in Bessarabia, South Russia, to where his parents had migrated from Germany during 1812, Gottlieb and Sophia with a baby girl named Kathrina, boarded a ship called Kaiser Wilhelm, bound for the United States of America. They came to the United States in 1898. The first night was spent on the ship, the next day they landed and took a train and came as far West as the railroad was then built, which was at Kulm, N.D. Here they were happily received by Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Lange, who welcomed all the newcomers that had the name of Herrmann. Spending a few days with the Langes and visiting other acquaintances, they were told about the Co. seat, Ellendale, N.D. They went there to apply for their citizenship papers, they had to have an interpreter. A week later they left to claim a homestead located eight miles southeast of Kulm, consisting of 160 acres. After five years of hard labor and breaking sod the homestead became their own.

Mr. and Mrs. Herrmann had $76.00 when they came to this locality. With it they purchased their first property consisting of a team of horses for $37.00, a cow for $38.00 and a second-hand wagon for $8.00.

Their house on the homestead was built with sod and $37.00 worth of lumber. It was a barn and house combined. The farm animals, pigs and chickens given to them by some helpful neighbors. During the spring and summer the chickens lived in a dugout, under a huge stone made by Mr. Herrmann. The winter months were spent in an attic affair built by Mr. Herrmann in the barn. The wagon which was they only means of transportation, was used for all purposes- going to church and visiting neighbors. Their first groceries purchased were coarse flour, sugar and coffee. The butter was churned from the cream that was skimmed from the milk and sold.

Thus were the first seven years spent in America, breaking sod for cultivation, increasing acreage each year, working with his father who also had a team of horses.

One morning the Herrmanns decided to take their children and go to celebrate the 4th of July, the horses panicked and ran away. Rudolph, the baby, who was lying in the wagon sleeping, fell off unnoticed. The other children were hanging on for dear life when the wagon overturned, falling on Mr. Herrmann's ankle and breaking it. Kathrinia had to walk back some distance to find the baby who was still sound asleep. In the meantime a neighbor came along and gave aid to Mr. Herrmann's ankle and helped the rest of the family get organized.

During the early part of 1912 at about sundown a hail storm of hurricane strength came through this part of North Dakota and hit the Herrmann farm. The big barn was destroyed, injuring the horses that were within, the smaller buildings were all blown away; the granary in which grain was kept, but was also used for a summer kitchen when it was empty, was also destroyed. It so happened that Deopold being 4 years old had fallen asleep in the summer kitchen in the late afternoon, and no one missed him until they had all gathered in the house before the storm struck. Kathrinia had to run and find him. Flour and grain was spoiled, the dishes and kettles were all broken except for one cup. The chimney was blown from the house, windows were all broken from big hail stones, and had to be plugged with pillows and feather ticks until the storm ceased. Again the neighbors came to help and get the family on their feet again.

Mr. Herrmann was known for his horses, which he raised with the help of his sons, starting with only one team he increased them in number until he had thirty. Many people came to buy them. He sold some of them to the government during World War I for $150 a horse. Mr. Herrmann was always willing to accept the improved methods of farming.

Much excitement was created when Mr. Herrmann purchased the family Model T car. He tells that on a stormy day it was customary to fold back the top in order to save on the gas. On one occasion when the family was driving to church they felt a tremendous holt, when suddenly they saw the father chasing a tire which had come off of a rear wheel. Being fleet of foot he caught the tire before it fell over.

On December 26, 1933, misfortune again hit the Herrmann household, the house was destroyed by fire, including all their belongings, but it was not too long before they had moved a cook car on the premises and added a summer kitchen to it. A new home was built in 1934 and by fall it was ready to live in.

During the 45 years Mr. Herrmann farmed they had good and bad times, but never did his ten children have to go away to earn their own livelihood. The children are all living except Benjamin who was killed in 1941 with a power- take off.

In 1943 Mr. and Mrs. Herrmann moved into Kulm where they still reside. Their oldest daughter, Mrs. Heier is caring for them in their sunset days. Theirs has been a rich and full life. Mr. and Mrs. Herrmann are members of the First Congregational Church.

They suffered the loss of their home by fire in 1927, together with all their possessions.

Due to poor health on the part of Mr. Herrmann, they had to sell their farm in 1928 and the following year moved to Kulm. Mr. Herrmann operated a cream station for a while. He soon found that he could do no work at all. After a series of operations and the advent of penicillin he found he was well again, so has gone back to work. He worked for W.J. 106. HILLE, SIMON [picture] Simon Hille, when seventeen years of age came with Sperlings to this country in 1885 and settled in Scotland, S.D. He was born March 28, 1868 and was married to Susanna Hille in 1889 in Scotland, S.D.

Susanna Hille was born in Kulm, South Russia February 27, 1869. She came to this country in 1880.
Everywhere rumors were heard of the land that was to be had for the asking in North Dakota, so shortly after they were married they came to this territory. They came to Dickey County and filed on a homestead about 8 miles south of Kulm.

Their possessions were not many. They, however, were the first pioneers in the neighborhood to own a team of horses. They also brought with them bedding, a few cooking utensils, a cow, two little pigs and a few chickens. These were all brought in a covered wagon drawn by the horses. After they arrived here they didn't know what to do to keep the little pigs from running away so they dug a hole in the ground to serve as a pen.

Their home was made of sod. Lumber was scarce, because of the distance it had to be hauled and it was also expensive. The winters were long and cold and many times it was a problem to keep warm due to shortage of fuel or warm clothing. The first several years were especially hard due to crop failures and low prices. Buffalo bones were picked and hauled to Ellendale and exchanged for food and flour. Ellendale was their nearest town at that time and was 42 miles from their farm.

A number of years later they built a house of lumber which still remains on the homestead. Their closest neighbors were Fred Hildebrand, Daniel Haas, Emanuel Bader and Joe Hollans.

Church meetings were held in homes, and later a school house was built about three-quarters of a mile east of their homestead and services were conducted there for many years. Their first minister was Rev. Treiber, who usually made the trip with a one horse buggy. Their first teacher was Charley Wilson, who taught for six years and made his home with the Hilles all the while that he was teaching there.

Mr. and Mrs. Hille were blessed with nine children of whom two died in infancy. The children are: Magdaline, Mogck Siewert, Kulm, N.D.; Emilie, Mrs. John Widmer, Osage, Iowa; Rudolph J. Hille, Frazee, Minn.; Bertha L., Mrs. Gust Kurtz, Jamestown, N.D.; Erna Hille, Fargo, N.D.; Salome, Mrs. Ryan Kurtz, Kulm, N.D.; Helmuth S. Hille, Kulm, N.D.

In 1943 they moved into the city of Kulm, where Mr. Hille passed away several years ago. Mrs. Hille who is 88 years old, makes her home with her children.

Mrs. Susanna Hille, 88, is shown above holding her great-great grandchild, seven-week old Peggy Ann Brockel, who represents the fifth generation of the family.

On the extreme left is Mrs. Maggie Siewert, daughter and first born of Mrs. Hille, seated on the arm of the chair is Mrs. Edward Schock, daughter of Mrs. Siewert and her first born, standing in the back is Mrs. James Brockel, daughter of Mrs. Schock and her first born. The baby is the first child of Mr. and Mrs. Brockel.

The photograph was submitted by Mrs. Edward Schock of McLaughlin, S.D., who informs that both she and her husband were born and reared in Kulm and moved to McLaughlin in 1934.

June, 1957, will mark the 23rd year that Mr. Schock has run a star mail route there.

107. HILLIUS, JOHN

[picture] Mr. and Mrs. John Hillius were both born in Neuelft, Bessarabia, South Russia. John on October 20, 1860 and Mrs. Hillius on October 1, 1860.

When Mrs. Hillius was 20 years old, she was married to Mr. Hillius.
Six years later they emigrated to America with their little daughter, Bertha. On November 27, 1887 they arrived by train in Ellendale, North Dakota. A Mr. Smearer from Ashley drove them from Ellendale to the homestead of Mrs. Hillius' sister who with her family lived eight miles south of the present site of Kulm.

In the spring, Mr. and Mrs. Hillius filed on a homestead for their own, three miles west of Kulm. In order to file on the land, Mr. Hillius had to walk 40 miles to Hoskins, the first town in McIntosh County, to the land office of John Wishek.

On this homestead they built a sod house, Mrs. Hillius herself laying the 4000 sod bricks that covered a light framework.

By picking up buffalo bones and selling them in Ellendale, Mr. Hillius acquired a team of oxen and an old sled.

All their meals were cooked out of doors on a few flat stones. Mrs. Hillius tells how one day she and her sister started out with their oxen and sled for the Kroll home 8 miles away, taking their dough with them in order to bake bread in an oven made of clay.

In October of that fall, before the window panes had been placed in their house, a big snow storm came up and Mrs. Hillius, being left alone, while Mr. Hillius was out looking for help, gave birth to her second child, a son. Upon his arrival with a neighbor lady the next morning, they found the sod shack half full of snow, but the mother and baby were smiling a welcome.

The following year they moved back to Ellendale, remaining there for about five years, then when word came that the Soo railroad had been extended to Kulm from Merricourt, the Hillius family moved a one room building up from Ellendale and started a restaurant. An addition was built to this later and it became known as the Hillius Hotel.

Mr. Hillius at this time was given the contract of driving a star route from Kulm to Edgeley, and later also carried passengers and express.

In 1908 they bought the Kulm Hotel and operated that for 15 years.

In 1922 Mr. and Mrs. Hillius both attended a night school for adults and Mrs. Hillius had the distinction of being the oldest pupil for two successive sessions. Soon after this she was taken all over by Miss Minnie Nielsen, Supt. Of Public Instruction, to give talks on night schools, which she did in a very efficient manner, thereby arousing much interest in that worthwhile project of eliminating illiteracy.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hillius have passed on and also their oldest son Theodore.

The remaining children are Bertha (Mrs. Sam B. Ruud) of Albert Lea, Minn. And Otto of Portland, Oregon.

108. HILSCHER, MICHAEL & REBEKKA (Hasz)

[picture] Michael Hilscher, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hilscher, was born December 30, 1882 in Leipzig, South Russia. At the age of 18 he came to America with his parents. They settled on a farm 12 miles southwest of Kulm.

On December 2, 1902 he was united in marriage with Rebekka Hasz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hasz. Mrs. Hilscher was born December 26, 1884. They lived with Mr. Hilscher's parents until 1905, when they moved to Wishek where they farmed and operated a livery stable. In 1923 they moved to Bismarck where they operated a dairy farm. In 1926 they again returned to the Kulm vicinity where they again farmed and endured the usual hardships of the time. In 1932 Mr. Hilscher started a truck line and hauled cattle to market and had a cream route for the Mandan Creamery. He with the help of his boys had the truck line for 14 years. After this they moved to a farm 11 miles south of Kulm on Highway 56 where they had a blacksmith shop, garage, and a service station, known as Hilscher's Corner.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilscher are faithful members of the Seventh Day Adventist Church of Ellendale.

To this union were born 12 children of whom 4 are deceased. Their children are: Gust, Sweet Home, Oregon; Ruth, Mrs. H.J. Hagelgaentz, Otis, Kansas; Willie, Harper, Kansas; Edna, Mrs. S.J. Chaney, Climax, Colo.; Erma, Mrs. Ambrose Muheim, Kulm; Gideon, Herbert and Orville of Kulm.

109. HIOM, TOM

[picture] IN the long list of pioneers who did their bit for Kulm during its early years, the name of Tom Hiom cannot be overlooked.

He was born of Norwegian parents and grew to manhood at LaCrosse, Wis. Here he worked as a log boomer, work which calls for a combination of skill, strength, and courage. Tom had all of these.

It isn't generally known what year the Hioms came to Kulm, but it was before the Soo Line built its track this far.

He served as village marshall when Kulm was a wild and wooly frontier town, and indeed there were times when hot lead was freely exchanged. For a stretch of time he drove the overland stage between Kulm and Edgeley. He also operated the Union Hotel which stood on the west side of main street.

The Hiom family left Kulm in 1902 and settled on a homestead ten miles south of Braddock where Mr. Hiom lived for thirty-five years enduring many unbearable hardships that went with pioneer life. In the summer of 1907 his wife passed away leaving him with the care of three young children. In spite of the grief and hardship, Tom kept his family and home together. In 1910 he married Sadie Lewis to which union a daughter, Viola was born.

In the spring of 1937 after repeated droughts and dust storms Mr. Hiom with his remaining family moved to Montana and settled in the Bitterroot Valley, south of Missoula, near the town of Florence where in this mild climate he enjoyed his declining years. However, as all good things must come to an end, so it was with his rugged constitution and otherwise good health which began to fail. He was hospitalized at Missoula where shortly afterward in January of 1942 he passed on to join other pioneers in the great beyond.

Mr. Hiom had five children: Anna, the former Mrs. J.D. Smith of Kulm, (deceased); Emma, Mrs. Ed Hollan, Kulm, N.D.; Mrs. Myra Gerds, Janesville, Minn. (deceased); Bert Hiom of Moffit, (deceased); and Viola, Mrs. John Walker of Florence, Mont.

His widow, Sadie Hiom with her daughter and son-in-law, the John Walkers still reside at Florence.
Thus another pioneer figure is brought to life again in the pages of this book by the sons and daughters of the pioneers who thrill and glory in the memories and deeds of these people who did so much to help develop this last frontier.

110. HOFFER, ANDREW

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hoffer were both born in Russia. Mr. Hoffer was born in Depritz [Teplitz?], Russia, December 12, 1887 and she was born in Glastiatz [Kloestitz?], Russia on October 8, 1887.

They immigrated to America at different times-She came to America six years before Mr. Hoffer. Mrs. Hoffer came to the United States in 1895 and Mr. came in 1901. They both lived in the Kulm vicinity before their marriage which occurred on February 10, 1910.

They made their first home in Helwig, N.D. After four years there they moved to a farm six miles south of Kulm. In 1920 they came to live on a farm on the west outskirts of Kulm.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffer went through the hardships of early pioneering, living in a sod house, hard work and little money.

Mr. Hoffer died July 6, 1949 after a lingering illness. Mrs. Hoffer and son Oscar moved to Kulm where they now reside.

Seven children were born to Mrs. And Mrs. Hoffer: Hulda, Mrs. William Morgan, LaMoure, N.D.; Oscar, Kulm, N.D.; Edwin, Aberdeen, S.D.; Edna, Mrs. Jack Ellingson, Aberdeen, S.D.; Emilia, Mrs. Reuben Hehr, Kulm, N.D.; Esther, Mrs. Alvin Schlauch, living in California.

111. HOFMEISTER, JOHN & MARTHA (Billigmeier)

[picture] Mr. John Hofmeister was born April 2, 1879 in Waverly, Minn. He came to Kulm March 10, 1906. As there were no homesteads available at this time, he took up the carpenter trade.

Mrs. Hofmeister, nee Martha Billigmeier, was born July 5, 1892, to Ludwig and Juliana Billigmeier, who had immigrated from Leipzig, South Russia, to a farm 6 miles southwest of Kulm, on what is now known as the Ted Netz farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Hofmeister were united in marriage September 27, 1909. They moved to Ingomar, Montana in 1914 and homesteaded 320 acres of land. They lived there until 1937, when they moved to Forsyth, Montana, where he took up his old trade of carpentry.

To this union were born 3 children: Raymond, Helena, Montana; Andrew, Pullman, Washington; Irene, Mrs. Amos Smith, Lindsay, Montana.

112. HOLLAN, CLARA [Grosz]

[picture] Clara, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Grosz was the first child born in the city of Kulm. She was born on December 20, 1893. As a young girl she attended the Kulm Public School from which she was graduated. She was active in work in the Congregational Church having been its pianist and also a member of its choir.

On June 7, 1915 Clara Grosz was united in marriage to Robert Hollan, a son of Joseph Hollan of Kulm. After their marriage they resided on a farm five miles south of Kulm.
One son was born to Clara and Robert Hollan. The son, Lee Robert, makes his home on a farm two miles west of the farm on which he was born. He has two sons, Dennis and Curtis.

After a lingering illness Clara Hollan passed away on July 21, 1922 at the age of 29.

113. HOLLAN, JOSEPH & PAULINE (Hartman)

[picture] Joseph Hollan was born in Austria-Hungary, July 3, 1863. He immigrated to America in 1866, and settled at Seneca, Kansas after spending a short time in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Hollan arrived in the Kulm community in 1883 and homesteaded south of what is now Kulm. He was married to Pauline Hartman on March 26, 1885 at Clear Creek, Kansas.

Mr. Hollan was a leader in this community in all things progressive. His love of reading and an inquiring mind led him into the study of many fields, the favorite perhaps being astronomy. His musical skill even in his early manhood made him a violin player in much demand and that love, too, lasted all of his life, until rheumatism and illness stiffened his fingers and made playing an ordeal. He bought the best phonograph of the time and selected excellent records.

He helped to organize the schools and the Farmers Elevator. Both he and his wife strove to better the educational opportunities of rural children through longer terms and better qualified teachers.

Mr. Hollan was a crank for good seed grain and he experienced long and untiringly [?] to raise fruit trees that bore fruit. He put a great deal of research into tree culture for wind-break, for shade, for fruit and for beauty. The evergreen forest which now surrounds his old homestead stands as a monument to his untiring efforts.

He brought into the country registered livestock; Percheron horses, Shorthorn cattle, Oxford sheep and Poland-China hogs. For many years he owned a family of race-horses that won many races through the years that he followed this sport.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollan loved people. Their home was a rendezvous for the school friends of their children, the community's young folks or a week-ending teacher. There were dances in the kitchen, there were dances in the granary and there were dances in the hay-mow of the huge barn. The old cottonwood grove was an ideal picnic spot, and many and gay were the summer-time festivities held under its shade.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollan were blessed with ten children. Two have died: Theodore Hollan in 1924 and Robert Hollan in 1951.

The eight living children are: William V. Hollan, Eureka, Nev.; Ida, Mrs. R.R. Earnest, Bothell, Wash.; Emman, Mrs. S.E. Starr, Dallas, Ore.; Edwin C. Hollan, Kulm, N.D.; Daisy, Mrs. F.J. Broderick, Seattle, Wash.;' Nellie, Mrs. Elliot, Minneapolis, Minnesota; Mayme Hollan, Aberdeen, Wash.; and Lawrence, Kulm, N.D.

Positive by nature, yet always willing to meet his neighbors on the best possible terms, Mr. Hollan had a wide circle of lasting friends. Business men found him the essence of honesty and his neighbors knew that his word was his bond.

114. HOLLAND, ROBERT
Robert Hollan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hollan, was born on a farm five miles south of Kulm on June 28, 1892.

He attended public school and studied violin under Jack O'Brien and Reverend Scheidt of Kulm for three and one-half years. At the age of twenty three he married Clara Grosz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Grosz, residents of Kulm. They established their home one mile west of his father's farm and engaged in diversified farming. A son, Lee Robert, was born to them on September 8, 1916. Six years later Mrs. Hollan became ill and passed away. By hiring help, Robert kept his son with him and continued farming and repairing violins, a hobby which he had enjoyed for many years. In the spring of 1923 he married Sophia Klundt of Jamestown. A son, Walter, was born in 1924. Spinal meningitis claimed him and he passed away in March of 1926. Four more children were born to them: Arthur in 1927; Raymond in 1933; a girl in 1935 who died shortly after birth; Theodore in 1939. All the sons live in the Kulm vicinity except Raymond, who lives at Guelph.

Robert loved country life and enjoyed working with the soil. He also was very fond of livestock. He was active in various farm organizations such as the Farmers Union and the Holiday Association. He was township clerk of Northwest Township a number of years and for eight years he served on the Board of County Commissioners of Dickey County.

He was very interested in music and was a charter member of the Kulm Concert Band for twenty-six years, in which he played the clarinet. For two years he led the Congregational Church orchestra playing the violin.

He underwent major surgery in the Bismarck Hospital December 14, 1951 and passed away December 17, 1951.

Among the many European immigrants who arrived in the Kulm area were Mr. and Mrs. Ole A. Holman.

Mr. Ole A. Holman was born May 20, 1865 in Veldere, Norway. He came to the United States as a young man in 1886 and worked on farms near Yankton, S.D.

On May 27, 1887, he was united in marriage to Miss Mathea Larson who was born on January 20, 1861, at Veldere, Norway. The wedding ceremony took place in Volin, South Dakota.

Shortly after their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Holman moved to Logan County and homesteaded about six and one half miles northwest of Kulm.

Their first home and barn were made of sod. Later these buildings were replaced by frame ones.

During these early years one of the major problems was securing water. Mr. Holman's first well was dug by hand and was approximately 75 feet deep. Being this well contained no water, he was forced to dig a second well. This one proved to be successful and was located about one-fourth mile from the barn. It was 90 feet deep. The water was brought up by rope and buckets which made it very treacherous and hazardous in the winter as the water would freeze on the ropes.
Mr. Holman was a carpenter by trade. He made several bobsleds from plans which were used to haul hay and other farm products in the winter time. He also built all his own farm buildings including a six room house and a huge barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Holman were very poor during the late 1880's and early 1890's and as a result of their poverty were unable to buy any fuel. Their children were kept busy picking up cow chips and twisted tall slough hay which served as a substitute for coal.

When the Holmans arrived northwest of Kulm in 1887, there were no rural schools. The first rural school to be built in their vicinity was in 1895 which was located about one-fourth mile south from their homestead. The first teacher was Mr. Charles McCarthy and some of the first students were Albert Holman, Gottfried Dittus, and Bernard Steen. The school term lasted for two months. Some of the later teachers were Mr. Charles Williams, Miss Grace Semple, (Mrs. Otto Groh) of Kulm, Mr. Harry McNeil of Edgeley, and Miss Lydie Serr of Yankton, S.D.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Holman were charter members of the Pomona Valley Lutheran Church which was organized in 1888. Mrs. Holman was also a charter member of the Ladies Aid.

The Holmans observed their silver wedding on May 27, 1912. Open house was held and the Fredonia Band under the personal direction of Mr. Sigfried Johnson played during the afternoon.

In 1919 they retired from active farming and moved into Fredonia.

Their Golden Wedding was observed on May 27, 1937. Mr. and Mrs. Holman were blessed with seven children of whom six are surviving. They are Albert, born October 22, 1880; Louie, born October 2, 1890, both of Fredonia; Melvin, born November 7, 1892, of Verona; Mary, born March 28, 1894, now Mrs. Eli Ferch of Verona; Olaf, born March 6, 1898, and Myron, born March 20, 1903, both of Fredonia.

In 1935 Mr. Holman was stricken with cancer. He passed away on September 15, 1940 at the age of 75.

Mrs. Holman passed away on November 19, 1943 at the age of 82.

Both were laid to rest in the Norby Cemetery.

116.  HUTTON, THOMAS

Thomas Hutton was born in England. He came to America and spent a few years in Chicago attending Veterinary School.

He settled in Swede township when it was just at its beginning. Here he built a home and put tenants in it. They had charge of the homestead while he went about the community doing veterinarian work.

After a number of years, Mr. Hutton went to Canton, S.D. and later to Walla- Walla, Washington, where he was married to Miss Williams. Two children were born to them.

Mrs. Hutton died in Washington and Mr. Hutton returned to this vicinity where he again practiced at his profession.

In 1917 he left for Colorado and later died there.
His two daughters Nellie and Sarah were left with grandparents in Oregon.

117. IRION, GOTTFRIED & MARIA (Hiller)

[picture] Gottfried Irion, the son of Jacob and Elizabeth Irion, was born in the village of Postal, Bessarabia, South Russia; on Sunday evening, May 22, 1897, with his parents and brothers, he arrived in Kulm, N.D. An uncle Jacob Elhard, took the family to his home. They purchased the relinquishment of the H.E. Putnam's homestead in Raney Township, Section 30, where they made their home. A sod house and well were already there.

After he helped his father remove rocks and break up some sod land, he was hired out for $35 for a six month period. This was considered to be good wages for a thirteen year old boy. Most of the time thereafter he was employed by others. In the winter of 1904 he and Theodore Fode worked on the Delaney Ranch caring for 600 head of steers. This requiring hauling eight loads of hay daily besides cooking for themselves. Evenings were often spent at the Ole Johnstad Ranch where Al Ravely, the local teacher, entertained them with his violin. Wages were then $15 per month. Sam Brand was the ranch manager.

On March 19, 1908 Gottfried Irion and Maria Hiller, daughter of Christoph and Salomina Hiller were united in marriage. They lived on Section 32 in Glen Township on the homestead he had taken two years before. Jud was his postoffice from before the railroad until 1915.

To them were born 4 children. They have eleven grandchildren and one great-grandchild. The children are: Ella, Mrs. Ray Lehr, Moorhead, Minn.; Adina, Mrs. Edgar Klundt, Alfred, N.D.; Anna, Mrs. Martin Renschler, Jamestown, N.D.; Clarence Irion, Fargo, N.D.

Their farming problems were those of all pioneers: the hailstorm of 1910, preceded by a spring prairie fire; a prairie fire as late as 1926 destroyed their hay and fence posts; and in 1935 a tornado and hailstorm destroyed some new machinery and governmental grain bins.

In 1948 Mr. and Mrs. Irion retired from active farming. They are now living in Kulm where they purchased a home. They belong to the Congregational Church.

118. IRION, JACOB & ELIZABETH (Schoetle)

[picture] Jacob Irion was born at Postal, Bessarabia, South Russia, May 2, 1859. He was the son of Frederick and Louisa (Heidinger) Irion. On January 1, 1883 he married Elizabeth Schoetle. He was a blacksmith in Russia.

The strict army rules, the insufficiency of land, the three years of sickness for Mr. Irion, which used most of his earnings, were the incentives for their immigrating to America. With their five sons, they left South Russia on May 4, 1897 for Bremen Harbor in Germany, where they waited two days for the ship which carried them to New York in seven days. They arrived in Kulm, N.D. May 22, 1897, where Jacob Elhard, a brother-in-law met them and took them to his home in a horse drawn wagon. Nine families came from Postal, Russia together.

Eleven children were born to this union: Gottfried, Kulm, N.D.; Emanuel, Great Falls, Mont.; Samuel, March, Mont.; George, Fargo, N.D.; Ted, Kulm, N.D.; Otto, Fredonia, N.D.; Ernest, Lodi, Calif.; Lydia, Entwistle, Alberta, Canada; Bertha Fode, Jud, N.D., and Emilia, Mrs. Albert Fode, Jud, N.D. One infant daughter passed away in Russia.

Their pioneer problems were much the same as those which confronted all immigrants: money shortage, difficulty of breaking the sod for fields, fire and weather elements. Mr. Irion's health improved so greatly in America that they farmed their homestead until 1927, when they retired and bought a home in Kulm. Jacob Irion passed away March, 1940 in Kulm; Elizabeth Irion passed away in Kulm, April 1946. They were of the Congregational faith.

119. ISAAK, CHRISTIAN

[picture] Christian Isaak was born in 1820 in Kulm, South Russia. He was the father of Gottlieb Isaak. He came to the United States in the year 1886 with his two sons, Gottlieb and Gottfried. He lived with his son Gottfried until his death in 1913. He filed on a homestead near his son Gottlieb but never proved up on it. He had lived to witness and participate in the marvelous development and progress of the state that had gained him as a worthy pioneer. He was skilled at the blacksmith trade and his expert service came into frequent use. It was a very difficult job, by reason of the high tempering of the metal. He taught his son, Gottlieb the blacksmith trade. He was a widower and never attempted to remarry and establish a home for himself but was contented to live with his son, Gottfried. He did visit his son, Gottlieb and family, walking seven miles with no effort. It is related that he would rather walk than drive a team. The first time he ever saw an automobile was in the year 1909 when his grandson, Otto Isaak drove him from Gottlieb's farm to his home. The only transportation he enjoyed with safety was a team of oxen that were trained to drive by the command Haw and Gee.

He was a person of few words but a devoted Christian and his affiliation was with the Seventh Day Adventist Church now located twelve miles south of Kulm.

120. ISAAK, GOTTFRIED & CAROLINE (Leischner)

[picture] Son of Mrs. And Mrs. Christian Isaak, Gottfried was born in South Russia, Koloniea, Kulm, on September 17, 1868. In 1886 he immigrated with his father to the United States and settled in Parkston, S.D. where he worked for the Winter Bros. On January 3, 1887 he was married to Caroline Leischner.

As Dakota pioneers the Isaak's located in this area before the City of Kulm was founded. They witnessed the terrible blizzard of 1888 in South Dakota, which took a heavy toll of lives, including school children. After some time they decided to go farther North to join Mr. Isaak's father and brother Gottlieb so they packed their belongings and traveled as far as Ellendale, N.D. and then farther on as far as Kulm, N.D. which wasn't on the map at that time. They homesteaded 18 miles southwest of what is now Kulm.

These were strictly pioneering days. Their closest neighbors were Daniel Patzer, Mike Henneberg, Knopps and Irions. There were plenty of buffalo horns and bones available and occasionally a load of bones and horns were picked up and hauled to Ellendale to make some money to buy a few food supplies. This would always be a very weary and hard journey. If the oxen didn't get thirsty during the trip then it would take about a week, but if they did get thirsty, they would lead for a lake and take their time to get going again. Luck was our lot most of the time except once the oxen tipped the load of bone into a lake and Mr. and Mrs. Isaak found themselves in the lake with the bones, shouting Gee! Haw! Get up! But that didn't help the situation any, altho it increased the weight of the load and the check was a little larger.

In 1938 they left the homestead and moved to Ashley, N.D. where they lived for six years and then moved to Greenway, S.D. for a few years and are now residing in Aberdeen, S.D. at 510 NO. Penn St.
Six children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Isaak of which three are living in Aberdeen, S.D. They are: Oscar, Edna, and Nathaniel, John lives in Stockton, California; Lydia, Mrs. D.B. Brennise, Rapid City, S.D., and Emma, Mrs. R. Roloff in Portland, Ore. Nathaniel was inducted into the service July 22, 1918 at Terry, Montana. He served with the military police here in the states and nine months in France. He was discharged on July 26, 1919 as a first class private, and is at the present time employed at the Cox Bakery in Aberdeen, S.D.

They were united in marriage on December 16, 1880, and with Gottlieb's father, Christian Isaak, they immigrated to the U.S. in March of 1886 and settled at Parkston, S.D. In the spring of 1886 they moved to what is now known as McIntosh County and homesteaded on a farm twelve miles south of the site of the present city of Kulm. This territory was still virgin prairie at that time and Gottlieb's father observed, "Here is land enough for my children's children's children." The land obtained by this pioneer as well as that of his son Gottlieb is still retained by the family. Christian Isaak passed away in 1912 at the age of 93.

Gottlieb, like his father, was a skilled blacksmith. It is told that he was able to weld effectively the tine of a hay fork which, because of its high tempering, is very difficult.

In the early days the only means of transportation was the wagon and oxen. It is related that at one time Gottlieb hauled a load of hay to Ellendale, N.D. taking two days to reach his destination. He sold the hay for two dollars to Fred Blumber, Sr. (this grocery store is still in existence in Ellendale). He purchased coffee, chicory and sugar and proceeded on his way letting the oxen find their way home. He drove all night and when daybreak came he discovered the oxen had turned around while grazing along the road and he was back in Ellendale where he had started from the day before.

In 1919 the Isaaks sold their farm equipment, built a home in Kulm and retired.

In the spring Mr. Kurtz and his father-in-law and five other men took the train to Ellendale where they were met by land agents, who took them out to look for land. They all found land in McIntosh County about 40 miles west of Ellendale. Their nearest postoffice was Hoskins, now Ashley.
They returned to Ellendale and brought back their families, and the building of sod homes began. Since Mr. Kurtz was a carpenter by trade, he was of great help and each farmer helped the other out. It has often been said that these seven families were the first settlers in the east end of Antelope Valley. They often walked to Monango, Edgeley, Ellendale and several times to Jamestown looking for work.

The Kurtz family went through many hardships the first years they were out here. There was very little money so the family would go out and pick up buffalo bones and haul them to Ellendale to sell. In return they would buy the necessary staples such as flour, coffee, rice, prunes, cornmeal and a little sugar.

For fuel they cut rushes from around the lakes and tied them into small bundles with a week to hold them together.

Then the year of 1892 Kulm was born which was a great help as the new town was much closer than had been Ellendale and Monango.

Mr. Kurtz became acquainted with P.C. Burfening, manager of the lumber yard and since Mr. Kurtz was a carpenter the lumber yard manager encouraged him to move to Kulm. In 1893 they moved to Kulm and lived there until 1902. In that year they moved to the state of Washington, farming there for three years. Again the Kurtz family came back to Kulm but stayed here just a short time before moving out to California, Washington, and then returning to Kulm to stay. This was in the year of 1906.

165. LARSON, GUSTOV & AMANDA (Backstrom)

[picture] Gustov Larson was born in Vasterbottens Lan, Sweden in 1860. He was married to Amanda Backstrom in 1885. They and their four small children immigrated from Holmtrask, Sweden, and came to America in 1892. Fellow travelers on the voyage were two other early pioneer families who settled north of Kulm, the Anton Johnsons and Oscar Grundbergs. The Grundbergs later moved to Alberta, Canada.

Gust Larson and his family settled in LaMoure County on a homestead 10 miles northwest of Kulm. The four children who shared the adventures of pioneer living were: Henry, Mrs. August Blomquist, Arvid, Who moved to Canada as a young man and died there in 1934, and Elmer, Born in 1891, who married Olga Grundberg, daughter of Oscar Grundbergs. He still farms one mile north of the original homestead. Fritz died in infancy. Two more children were Victor and Tyra. Victor born in 1893, was married to Edna Johnson and farmed his father's homestead until 1949. He then moved to a farm near Gackle. He now lives in Gackle where he operates a shoe shop. Tyra was born in 1895. Her mother died in 1896, leaving her the infant, and four other young children.

Pioneer life in a sod house brought many hardships to this family as to all early settlers. In those days sharing with and helping ones neighbors was almost a necessity to survival. Following this precept, the Eric Ogren family welcomed baby Tyra into their home where she spent her childhood. She later became Mrs. Alfred Sjostrom and lived on a form north of Kulm until her death in 1925.
Mr. Larson passed away in 1922.

166. LEMKE, ADAM

[picture] Adam Lemke was born September 27, 1861 in the village of Leipzig, Bessarabia. Here as an infant he was baptized, and later after religious instructions, he was also confirmed.

On January 20, 1883, he was married to Christina Lutke. In May 1887, he left Leipzig with his wife and two small daughters, Karolina and Sofia, and in the company with his sister and her husband they came to America.

They came to Scotland in Dakota Territory where Mr. Lemke's sister and brother-in-law had located and where they stayed until they could make further plans. They could find no land there, so they bought a cow and two oxen. They bought a wagon and the two families packed their belongings into it and started to look for a family of acquaintances who had come to Dickey Co. about two months earlier. This was the Freimuth family.

The direction was pointed out to them, and the number of miles given, but they had no map, no trail, and no knowledge of the language. They traveled two days before they came to a dugout where they could get a drink of water. Soon their provisions ran out, but they came to another dugout where by means of signs they were able to get some bread. It was a hard trek, but they finally reached their destination. Leaving their families on the prairie, the men walked over to the Freimuth house to get their location, then went back to get their families. It was about the 12 of July when Mr. Lemke finally landed at the place where he made his home, fifteen miles south of where later the city of Kulm came to be built.

Mr. Lemke and his brother-in-law got busy and cut sod and mixed clay and grass and put up the walls of a dirt house making it 16 by 24 feet with two rooms, one the living room and the other the kitchen. They got some lumber for the doors and window frames and boards for the roof. They covered the roof-boards with tar paper and put sod on top of the paper. They also built a room on one end of the house on which they put a brush and sod roof to shelter the animals. They also dug a well twenty five feet deep and curved it with field stones. Later this well went dry and Mr. Lemke moved half a mile east where there is a natural spring in a valley from which the township gets its name, Spring Valley Township. This is the place where the buildings are located now.

With the buildings up, both Mr. and Mrs. Lemke went down to Ellendale and worked for Frank Wilson. Mr. Lemke got $25.00 a month and Mrs. Lemke got $3.00 a week for doing the housework. When Mr. Lemke wasn't working for pay he cut hay with the scythe and hauled it to Ellendale, and sold it for $1.50 a load. On the hay hauling he used oxen and the distance of 28 miles took two days to make the round trip. Mr. Lemke and the older children also picked buffalo bones with which the hills were strewn in those days, and hauled them to Ellendale and sold them.

The second summer they worked for Mr. Wilson again, but also did some sod-breaking for themselves. They didn't have much of a crop that year. Mr. Henneberg, a neighbor, cut Mr. Lemke's crop for 75 cents an acre. Dan Grosz from 18 miles north came down with a horsepower threshing machine and did the threshing. On this horse-power rig they used some horses and some oxen.
Mr. Lemke was in Dickey County several years before he had seen a cat or chickens. Then several years later he was near Edgeley and saw some geese, and bought them as the children had never seen a goose.

Mr. Lemke built a heating stove made of cracked limestone fragments mixed with clay which heated or burned becomes hard. The top and return flue were supported by scrap iron.

After the death of his wife on November 9, 1930, Mr. Lemke went to Europe to visit his old home and relatives and friends. After his return on June 15, 1935, he continued to live on the farm. On June 7, 1936 he married Justina Brenneise.

Mr. Lemke retired in 1943 and moved to Ellendale. After suffering a light stroke he was taken to the Old People's Home in Eureka, S.D. Here he died May 30, 1948, at the age of 86 years.

Eleven children were born to the Lemke family. Two children preceded Mr. Lemke in death. The living children are: Karoline, Mrs. George Nill, Merricourt; Henry, Wishek; Dr. S.A. Lemke, Lemont, Ill.; Rudolph, Forbes, N.D.; Emiel, Chicago, Ill.; Lydia, Mrs. Gust Boettcher, Wishek; Bertha, Mrs. Arthur Krein, Kulm; Salome, Mrs. Sidney C. Tobey, Boulder, Colorado.

In June of 1886, they and the families of Anton Bjur, and Charles and L.J. Lindgren, arrived in the Kulm area. They chose to settle in an area about five or six miles north of what is now Kulm. That area was entirely unsettled and they hoped that many of their relatives and neighbors from Sweden would join them here. Quite a number of them did come later and the Swede settlement grew to considerable size. There was no town of Kulm then and mail was brought to the Bjur home which served as a postoffice and was named Newburg.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Lindgren took much interest in the welfare of the community. Mr. Lindgren helped to organize the Swede School District. Mrs. Lindgren, even in Sweden, had developed much skill in caring for the sick and this ability was often called upon in the pioneer homes. The nearest doctor was in LaMoure, so in any kind of weather she would go to help those in need. News of this ability spread to outlying areas wherever there was a need and though the languages were sometimes different they found a way to understand each other.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindgren were sincere Christians and from the very first Sunday here they joined with their neighbors in gathering for worship. They were both faithful members of the Kulm Baptist Church.

In the spring of 1885 in company with Andrew Holm they arrived in America, their first home being a few miles east of Oakes, N.D. Later in the year a few men went to look for a better location. In the spring of 1886 they arrived at what is now Swede Township. They had enough lumber and tar paper for the roof of their first sod house. This house was on section 22. In this house 6 boys and 2 girls were born. In the summer of 1890 a well of 75 feet deep was dug by hand, which provided the farm with plenty of water. This well is still in use today. In the fall of 1886 Peter Lundstrom and Carl Nordin walked to Casselton to work on a farm. Their wages were 75 cents a day, total of 27.00 each for the harvest season. They walked to Edgeley and bought 50 pounds of flour, sugar, coffee and salt which they carried on their backs to their homes, 15 miles west of Edgeley. The ocean voyage took six weeks during which time a daughter, Arizona, was born. They came to Edgeley by train and settled in what is now Swede Township, with $35 left to get started.

They lived with Anton Lindgrens who also had a large family. They got their sod house built that same summer on his homestead about 8 miles north of what is now Kulm. There the youngest daughter, Hilma, was born in 1890.
The first fall he worked at Edgeley, hauling water for a steam threshing rig, receiving the two oxen he had used as pay.

The Malms, like other early settlers had many hardships. There were fierce blizzards and terrible prairie fires to contend with. For fuel they burned hay. The first oxen and cows were lost when the barn made of hay and lumber burned down. They had an abundance of daily products but had no market for them, until later when Kulm was established, then they could sell butter. The children had to walk 3 miles to school which left little energy for study. The first teacher was a Mrs. LeWright.

Every member of the family did his part. Mr. Malm worked on the railroad for sometime. On a week end he walked home from Jamestown to see how his family was faring. The children did cattle herding. Being open country all around they took in cattle for $1 per head and horses at $2 for the season. They built a shack and corral at the LeWright spring where they camped.

Mrs. Malm as well as other women of the community sheared sheep as far away as Fredonia area, for 7 cents a lb.

They purchased a two room wooden structure from Heffelfing, a sheep rancher, farther east which replaced their sod house.

In 1901 they moved this house to Andrew's homestead 9 miles north of Kulm, where they later built a larger home and resided until their death.

Daniel Malm died February 21, 1921 and Mrs. Malm died December 8, 1936.

They couldn't speak each others' language at all to begin with, but the Malm family believed it was their duty to become familiar with the language of their new home as soon as possible, and Mr. Peak was a good teacher. He taught Mrs. Malm both how to speak and read the language, using as a textbook, an American cookbook.

After a couple of years with Mr. Peak, they settled in Ray Township. Their first home was a sod house, and in 1904 they built a large frame home, which is now owned and occupied by the Kurtz.

Prairie fires were a real dread and threat in those days and many were the times when they fought fires for days in order to save both their own and their neighbors' property.

Mr. Malm used to take in and herd cattle for the other settlers during the summers, and visits from cattle rustlers were not uncommon, sometimes they were successful while other times he was able to frighten them off. One night in particular he would recall, there was no time to dress but out he went and gave chase on foot and saved the entire herd.

The Melms retired from farming in 1914 and moved to Swede Township. Mrs. Malm passed away in 1924 and Mr. Malm passed away in 1937.

Mr. Malm served many years on school boards in Ray Township. They were both very active in the work of the church and were among the founders of the Kulm Gospel Tabernacle.

185. MONTANEY, GEORGE

George Risley Montaney was born April 17, 1868 in Ixonia, Jefferson County, Wis. He lived there until he was twenty-four years old.

He came first to what is now South Dakota, living in Kingsburg County for five years where he married a Dakota girl October 31, 1897. After a few more years in South Dakota he came to Kulm in 1902 and homesteaded in German Township. His father died when George was just a young man, leaving his mother and two other brothers. George being the oldest child, provided a home for his mother and children.

After coming to German Township Mr. Montaney built one of the best homes in the community.

Teachers were scarce as they would not come and live in a mud house, because of the fact that Montaneys had a suitable home, teachers were lodged there for 22 years. Mrs. Montaney herself was a teacher, and their fine library and musical facilities made their home a desirable boarding place. Mr. Montaney kept gentle horses so the teachers were given transportation to and from school without extra charge.

Mr. Montaney took a great interest in improving conditions in the township. He was road overseer for 15 years. He also had a part in the construction of the telephone lines and establishing a mail route.

In spite of Mr. Montaney's advanced age, he still likes to travel, but he still prefers this part of the country.

186. MUELLER, ALBERT & ADELINE (Miller)
Mr. Albert Mueller was born on a farm south of Kulm in 1904. He lived on a farm until 1912 when he moved to Idaho. He came back in 1916, lived in Kulm that winter then moved back on the farm seven miles south of Kulm, with his parents.

He was married to Adeline Miller in 1932. They moved to Edgeley in 1937 and worked for the State. They moved back to Kulm in 1939 where they have lived ever since. Mr. Mueller now operates the dray line in Kulm, hauling the U.S. mail to and from the depot.

They have four children: Marlin and Raymond at Jamestown; Darlene and Dennis at home.

187. MUELLER, DAVID Sr. & ELISABETHA (Neumann)

David Mueller and Elisabetha Neumann immigrated from Kulm, South Russia to this country in December of 1893. They were united in marriage, a few days after their arrival on December 25, 1893, by the Rev. Baumann in the Gnadenfeldt Congregational Church of Kulm.

They then homesteaded five and one-half miles northwest of Kulm. The site is just north of the present John C. Buerkle from. Mr. and Mrs. Mueller toiled the pioneer way. They tilled their land with oxen. They drove by ox-cart to Ellendale to get such essentials as flour and cornmeal. The trip usually took from two to three days.

Mr. and Mrs. Mueller later moved to Streeter and lived there until 1907 when they returned to Kulm and settled on a farm one mile west of Kulm. This farm is now known as the Edwin Mueller farm. Here they lived until 1928 when they built a home in Kulm and retired from farming.

This union was blessed with seven children, two of whom have passed away. They are: Martha Mueller, Eureka, S.D.; Otto Mueller, San Francisco, Calif.; Gotthilf Mueller, Tacoma, Wash.; David Jr. and Edwin, Kulm, N.D.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Mueller have passed away. Mr. Mueller died December 22, 1950 and Mrs. Mueller died February 25, 1953.

188. MUELLER, JOHN

John Mueller was born in Kulm, South Russia in the year of 1857. He married Minnie Mueller in Russia and the couple immigrated to the U.S. in the year 1886 and homesteaded in McIntosh County. The first years of homesteading were not easy and many eventful things are recalled. The year 1867 brought one of the worst prairie fires. After the fire, Mrs. Mueller took a butcher knife and cut brush that was left by the fire to use for kindling as all wood was destroyed. It was recalled the following winter brought a bad snow storm that lasted for three days. The snow covered all the buildings on the farm and with only the house chimney showing, Mr. Mueller had to shovel the snow from the kitchen of the house in order to save the family. Mr. Mueller and his boys hunted the prairies for animal bones that were taken and sold in Ellendale, the closets town. It was not known what these were used for. The Muellers had ten children. Still living are: Mrs. Mathilda Siewert of Kulm; Nathaniel of Ashley, N.D.; Lydia Jenner of Rapid City, South Dakota; Mrs. Martha Everhardt of Web City, Mo.; and Gust of Lodi, California.

Being deeply religious folks, the Mueller home was always open to those who wanted to worship. Visiting pastors often stayed in the home and it was here the First Congregational Church in North Dakota was organized. This was in the year of 1887. This congregation was later known as the Gnadenfeld church. The first resident pastor to serve was a Rev. Hess and later the church was served by the pastors from the town of Kulm.

189. MUND, GOTTHILF & ANN (Munsch)

[picture] Gotthilf Mund was born July 28, 1884, in Beresina, South Russia and came to this country with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Mund, at the age of two years.

Thirteen years later they purchased the Jacob Munsch farm six miles southwest of Fredonia. 190. MUNDT, JACOB & KATHERINE (Reich)

[picture] Jacob G. Mundt was born May 12, 1879 in Beresina, Russia. He came to this country in 1886. Together with his parents they settled twelve miles south of Fredonia.

Mr. Mundt lived the life of the pioneer during his boyhood. Their first living quarters was a tent 6 by 8 feet in which eight persons lived, including a baby. The cooking was done over a stove built of stone. Heavy weeds were used as fuel and later a stove was built into a hillside. Water was carried from a lake which was a short distance from their tent house. Oxen were used to break the land and two cows provided the milk, cream and cheese. Like many settlers of that time they were ready to share what they had with others. Their home was only large enough for one bed and the children usually slept under the bed on the floor. Other people who stayed with them had to find lodging in a wagon box and were often forced to move into the tent when rain storms came. Eventually a sod house was built 6 by 20 feet. This home served as a church for those in the territory who wanted to worship. A layman usually conducted these worship services.

The Mundts often picked buffalo bones and took them to Ellendale to be sold and a few essentials were bought such as flour which was the most important part of the diet. This trip usually took them three days and many times there was no food left when they returned home. Snow was often so deep that the oxen would become stuck in the deep drifts.

Mr. Mundt was united in marriage to Katherine Reich on December 6, 1911. After their marriage they settled three miles west of Fredonia where they lived until 1947 when they moved to Fredonia. In 1952 they took up their residence in Kulm.

Ten children were born to this union: Esther, Mrs. Oscar Schill, Leola, S.D.; Emgard, Mrs. Edwin Leobo, Leola, S.D.; Lenhardt, of Fredonia, N.D.; Wilbert, Aberdeen, S.D.; Adeline, Mrs.

[picture] Daniel Netz was born in NeuElft, South Russia on August 26, 1868. At the age of 20 he left for the United States and came to North Dakota in 1888. After he became of age he filed on a homestead, eight miles south of Fredonia, where he started farming for himself. In June of 1888, he was united in marriage with Maria Keller, who also immigrated from NeuElft, South Russia. Many happy and unhappy days were spent on the old homestead.

In 1928, Mr. and Mrs. Netz retired from farming and moved to Fredonia, where they lived until 1948, when Mr. Netz passed away.

Mrs. Netz is living with her children in the Kulm vicinity. She is 82 years of age.

Mr. Netz held the office of deacon of the Congregational Church for 28 years and Sunday School teacher for nine years.

This union was blessed with 13 children of which 11 are living. 192. NILL, CHRIST & MARV (Herman)

[picture] Mrs. Christ Nill (nee Marv Herman) was born November 23, 1891 at Beresina, So. Russia. She accompanied her parents and sisters to America in March of 1898. The family lived with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Dobler until her parents located a homestead six miles southeast of Kulm. They built a barn of sod in which they lived until they finished a two room sod house. Their first meal on the homestead was cooked outside, because the house did not have a chimney.

When they came here there were many hardships and many times very little food for the family. Her father bought one milk cow and two horses. He took the horses and went to work for some people near Edgeley and many times while he was gone they had no food to eat. At one time while he was gone they had nothing left at all in the house. The door on their house was open and a prairie chicken flew right into the house. They caught it and killed it and again had a meal to eat.

When they first came to Kulm there wasn't a schoolhouse any place, so the children were not able to go to school until they were about ten years old.

When Mrs. Nill was 22 years old she went to do Nurses Aid at the Oakes Hospital and took care of her sister who was a patient there.

On October 29th, 1915 she was married to Christ Nill and lived on the Jacob Nill farm five miles south of Kulm, N.D. In 1928 they purchased their own farm on which they lived until 1954 when they moved to Kulm. They had five children, they are: Ruth, Mrs. Emil Janke, Kulm, N.D.; Anita, Mrs. Ray Anderson, 5436 Bryant Ave. So., Minneapolis, Minn.; Ione, Mrs.
Mr. George Nill was born May 28, 1882 in Beresina, Bessarabia. He was baptized May 30th of the same year. He was confirmed on April 6, 1897 in the town of Klostitz [Kloestitz] in Bessarabia by Pastor J. Peters.

He came to America with his brother-in-law Friedrich Goehner and his sister Anne Marie. The party landed in Kulm, North Dakota on New Years Day 1897.

Mr. Nill settled on a homestead sixteen miles southeast of Kulm in the year 1904. He married Karolena Lemke on January 29, 1905. They were married by Rev. M. Treiber in a school house in Dickey County.

The Nills lived on this farm for 39 years through good years and bad years. In the year of 1912 they harvested their biggest crop in all of the thirty nine. After that there was a stretch of bad years. One year they hailed out completely. And for several years after that they hailed out partly. Then came the dry years with 7 complete crop failures. During this time they nearly lost everything. But then the rains came again and they soon paid off all their debts.

While they lived on the farm the Nills were members of the Hoffnungsfeld Church where Mr. Nill served as Deacon and as Sunday School Superintendent for many years, while Mrs. Nill and the children were active in the Ladies Aid and the Sunday School.

In the year 1912 the Kulm church had the General Conference of the Congregational Church. Mr. Nill butchered a sheep and Mrs. Nill took all her bedding and dishes to Kulm on the Monday before the conference began. This was done to help feed and take care of the many delegates and visitors that came to the Conference.

The Soo ran a special train from Hankinson to Kulm to accommodate these people. The kitchen was arranged upstairs in the Gackle store, and everybody had meals and a place to sleep all free of charge.

On the first of October in 1942, Mr. and Mrs. Nill moved to the town of Merricourt. At this time all of their four children had married and left home. They now also transferred their church membership to the First Congregational Church of Merricourt. Here again Mr. Nill served as Deacon and as a delegate to the conference and brotherhood meetings, while Mrs. Nill served as a Sunday School teacher.

On Sunday, October 31, 1954 the Nills celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, or "Golden Wedding". It was also Mrs. Nill's 70th birthday.

The day was observed by a special program in the church, after which Mr. and Mrs. Nill, their four children with wives and husbands, their 8 grand children and one great grandchild, as well as many friends and well-wishers gathered in the church basement where all enjoyed a lunch served by the Ladies Aid.

George Nill died on November 20, 1956, and was buried November 23, in the Kulm cemetery. Rev. J. Hoersch officiating.
Jacob Nill settled at Scotland, S.D. He was born June 5, 1864 in Beresina, South Russia. In 1887 he married Fredereka Hille. In 1888 they came as some of the early pioneers to North Dakota and settled six miles south of Kulm, building and living in a sod cabin. Ellendale was the nearest source of food supply and oxen and cows were used as means of transportation as well as for plowing and seeding. In 1889 they became members of the Gnadenfeld Congregational Church. In 1905 they moved to Kulm, transferring their membership to the First Congregational Church and remained faithful members until their death.

Four children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Nill, Mathilda Nill who passed away in 1956; Mrs. Solomon Hildebrand (Fredereka) Kulm; Mrs. Martin Erberle (Emily) Minneapolis, Minn., deceased since 1950; Mrs. Adolph Smith (Ida) Kulm, N.D.

Andreas Nilsen was born at Krosera, Norway on January 29, 1868. There in 1896 he was married to Kjirsti Kjos, who was born April 16, 1878.

In 1908 Andreas and Kjirsti Nilsen and their three small children came to America. They spent their first year with friends in Forman, N.D. where Mr. Nilsen worked as a farm laborer. The following year they went to Kulm where Mr. Nilsen engaged in carpenter work until he started farming on Jens Wensberg's farm in 1910. In 1923 they purchased a farm 4 miles north of Kulm which was their home until Mr. Nilsen passed away December 20, 1937. Mrs. Nilsen is now living in St. Cloud, Minnesota.

To the Nilsens four children were born: Micholi, Kenosha, Wis.; Olaf and August, St. Cloud, Minn.; and Ragnihild, Mrs. Jim Cherney, of New Brighton, Minnesota.

Anton Norden was born in Narsja [Norsjo], Sweden on July 15, 1864. There he married Alma Erickson in 1890. In the same year they immigrated to the United States of America, where the farm home of their dreams was realized. They settled on section 32 of Raney Township in the state of North Dakota.

They were pioneers whose good foresight impelled them to obtain a homestead in untamed prairie, which held many secret forces to be reckoned with. They were one of the first families to settle in Raney Township. That homestead was their home until they retired to spend the remainder of their lives with their sons, Henry and Alfred.

Mr. and Mrs. Norden had the following children: Henry and Alfred of Kulm, N.D.; Martin, Aberdeen, S.D.; Helen, Mrs. Sam Rott, Aberdeen, S.D.; Jennie, Mrs. Martin Swenson, deceased; Albin, deceased.

They immigrated to the U.S. in the summer of 1886, with their children, Oscar, Annie, and Edla. Their youngest son Edward was born in Kulm on August 11, 1891. Six children died in their infancy.

Mr. Norden homesteaded on the farm now owned by Alvin Land.
After twelve years of farming, in the spring of 1898, he left for Newdale, Manitoba, Canada in company with the late Jake Lindblom. Annie and Edla accompanied their father.

The trip was made with horses and covered wagon. Being in April, it was cold and took a week to make the journey. Mrs. Norden, Edward and Mrs. Lindblom followed later by train to Newdale.

Mr. Norden passed away on February 21, 1938 at the age of 83. Mrs. Norden was 88 years old when she died April 24, 1940.

They were the parents of ten children of which the two oldest were born in Sweden.

On the farm they struggled for survival against the usual hardships of the poor immigrants from other lands who came to this country without money or any other means than their youth and strength and their will to work and do without and endure the hardships and disappointments that came their way.

About a year later he homesteaded northwest of Kulm where his family joined him in 1908. This was his home until they passed away. Mrs. Noren died in June of 1929 and Mr. Noren in August of 1940.

Besides farming, Mr. Noren did a great deal of blacksmith work.

Constant companions to other hardships during the early years were lack of water, prairie fires and blizzards. Mr. Noren frequently recalled how he and Mr. Wensberg were caught in a blinding blizzard one evening on their sixteen mile drive home from Kulm. After losing all sense of direction and location, Mr. Noren released the reins of the team of broncos which he was driving and the horses instinctively found their way home.

Mr. Ogden then made his home with his son Bert in Portland, Oregon, but has since passed away.
The first vivid remembrance the son Arthur B. (Bruce) has of Kulm is being snowbound in living quarters of the Lamb Lumber Company which was across the tracks from the depot where they remained for three days until they were tunneled out by outside help. He recalls that all stores and homes were buried in snow to roof peak levels, and had to be tunneled out to doors of buildings.

The first sinter in Dakota was spent in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lundstrom. Soon afterwards they filed a homestead 4-1/2 miles north of what is now Kulm. Their first home was a sod house. Sometime later they built a frame house. The Olsons encountered many hardships, such as prairie fires, crop failures, and illness. In the year 1900 there was no crop and another year it was so light that before Mrs. Olson could fix coffee the threshers were gone.

The first four children of Mr. and Mrs. Olson passed away in early infancy owing to the fact that there were many contagious diseases and no doctors in the community. Later this couple was blessed with six other children.

A.J. came to America from Bessarabia at the age of three years, living at Kulm. He attended Kulm Special grade school and Gargo Business College. Mr. Smith was a member of the Kulm school board for many years, was a member of the Commercial Club, was a charter member of the Lions Club, and was a member of the First Congregational Church. He had a keen and sound business mind.

Mr. Smith's health steadily failed him. In the fall of 1948 the People Store was completely destroyed by fire. A.J. at that time being an invalid was still vitally interested in the community welfare. A contractor, Milt Swedberg was contacted and plans were made for the modern three unit building known as the "A.J. Smith Shopping Center".

After Mr. Smith's death his wife, Ida turned these interests over to the present owners: E and H. Grocery, having been owned by W.J. Hildebrand, known as Hildebrand Locker for 8 years; Art Krein's Super Value and Palm's Department Store owned by Mr. and Mrs. Dell Palm.

He immigrated to the United States in July of 1887 and settled in the vicinity of Oakes, North Dakota. In 1888 he homesteaded on a farm twelve miles north of what is now the city of Kulm, North Dakota. He had heard land could be obtained for filing in the District of Newberg (now Swede Township). He then set out on snowshoes from Oakes and found the land he desired, ten miles north of Newberg Postoffice.

He found living quarters for his family in the home of Carl Nordens for the time being. Later a sod house was built.

Means of providing a living in the pioneer days were hunting buffalo bones which were hauled to Edgeley and sold; hides of animals were dried and shipped; deer and antelope roamed over the western hills and helped occasionally to contribute meat for the family.

Prairie fires were a constant menace. People from miles around would congregate to fight fires that endangered their neighbors.

Slowly the years of good yield brought changes. The present home North Grove (Mr. Smith's home) loomed up in 1903. He planted a grove, experimenting with a variety of fruit trees which thrived and beautified the grounds. He also planted a variety of shade trees. The grove covered a four-acre tract which made a haven for birds. It also became an attraction for many gatherings. The Fourth of July celebrations usually were held in the grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were blessed with nine children: Carl A. Smith, Hutchinson, Minn.; Anna C.; W. Smith; Halfrid V.; Lindgren, and Robert H. Smith, all of Minneapolis, Minn.; Gust A. Recollections of her childhood days include visiting her grandmother and the size of loaves of bread baked in those days. The oven was made of clay and stone, built half on the inside and half on the outside of the house. It had a grate in it, and below the grate the fuel, made of slough grass and twisted till it looked like rope was shoved in. When it was thought the oven was hot enough the ashes were raked out and the bread put in. The door was closed with wet clay. Mrs. Smith recalls one loaf of bread would just about have filled an electric oven today.

For light they lit a string which lay in grease in a clay dish. Candles were used on special occasions.

For extra money she with her brothers would gather buffalo bones and sell them.

Another incident remembered was the moving of their store from Merricourt to Kulm. They arrived before the store and didn't have a place to stay. Mr. Mix, who had completed the first floor of his hotel located on the now Anderson Store corner offered them the unfinished upstairs. Their beds were made of straw with a feather quilt over the straw. One morning they awakened covered with snow as the roof had not yet been shingled.

In 1895 she married Charles Pruetz. He died in November of 1918 leaving his wife and one son, Sharpe, who resides in Kulm.

Frank Smith passed away in 1907 leaving Jean with sound experience in milling, to continue his work. The nearest town was Ellendale which was forty miles away and with a team of oxen the round trip took from 3 to 4 days to get supplies; therefore the trip was made only about 3 or 4 times a year. Later the family moved to the new town of Kulm. A few years after that the family moved to a farm one and one-half miles south of Kulm. In 1903 the farm was traded for a store in Kulm, but this venture was not very successful so in 1906 they moved to the new town of Jud, N.D., and put up a new store building.

They moved the merchandise from the Kulm store to the new store in Jud and operated this store until January 1914, when their two sons Gottfried and Solomon took over.

268. ZELLMER, C. & MARY (Dittus)

[picture] As written by his daughter Martha Zellmer Gallagher.

C.J. Zellmer was born July 8, 1857 in Christovo, Province of Posen, Germany.

He came to America in 1878 and settled in Beaver Dam, Wis., where he lived for 8 years, working for his brother, August. From Beaver Dam he went to South Dakota to homestead. Later he moved to Kulm, N.D., and in 1895 married Mary Dittus, daughter of the late Jacob Dittus, Sr. of Fredonia, N.D.

I believe my father, C.J. Zellmer, was one of the early settlers in Kulm. I believe he had the first hotel in Kulm and General Merchandise Store there, which he had for many years. He also had a general merchandise store in Gackle. He acquired several pieces of real estate in and around Kulm, one farm he sold to the late Jacob Nill, which was not far out from Kulm.

In 1908 a group of men including the late A.B. Malin and my father went by train to Mexico City, Mexico, thinking some of them would settle there. Coming back they stopped in San Antonio - it was in January and it was like a bright summer day - and my father decided then that San Antonio was the place for him. So he bought a home before he left San Antonio. In 1909 they moved to San Antonio with their three children, Martha, Marion and Annetta. After living in San Antonio a few years, another daughter, Alice, was born.

My father bought a couple of ranches in Brazoria County, Texas, near W. Columbia, the first capitol of Texas. He moved to the ranch in 1918 where he lived until he died in 1924.

My mother and my three sisters moved back to San Antonio after his death.

Some of my mother's brothers and sisters still live in and around Fredonia.

The store and hotel my father owned in Kulm was burned to the ground and was never rebuilt by my father, as I remember.

My father and mother moved south mostly on account of their health.

In 1935 my mother married Fred Rott of Lodi, California, whom my father and mother had known for many years. When my father had the store in Gackle they became acquainted with Mr. Rott and my father financed him in a business, or set him up in business, so to speak. Mr. Rott died in 1947 and my mother moved back to San Antonio to be with her children.

My mother passed away in April 1949.

The children are: Martha, Mrs. Mack Gallagher, 3501 W. Commerce Street, San Antonio, Texas; Annetta, Mrs. O. George Pinca, 223 Mink Drive, San Antonio, Texas; Alice, Mrs. Alice Gallagher, 202 Quentin Drive, San Antonio, Texas; Marion, Mrs. Marion Weltens, passed away in 1936, she had no children.

After corresponding with Credit Union officials at Jamestown, a series of meetings were held and it was decided to apply for a charter to organize a Credit Union in Kulm.

The charter for the Kulm Credit Union was granted on December 10, 1949 and on March 23, 1950 a meeting was called to elect officers and committees. The board of directors were: Fred Vogel, William Staeck, Edwin Lundgren, Richard Herman and Lee Hollan. The credit committee elected was: Dell Palm, Rob Hollan and Walter Puhilman. The Kulm Credit Union has had a steady growth since it was organized. The total assets are $82,712.05. They have made half a million dollars in loans to members since organizing. The membership is up to 257. The purpose of the Credit Union is for the members to pool their money into the Credit Union and when a member needs financial aid he can make a loan at the lowest possible cost. He will be covered by Life Savings Insurance and by loan insurance at no additional cost, thereby eliminating the high costs charged by finance companies.

The present board of directors and committees that appear on the picture are: Fred Vogel, president; Richard Herman, vice-president; William Staeck, secretary and treasurer. Edwin Lundgren, director; Lee Hollan past director, replaced by Walter Kusler (not pictured; Mrs. Irvin Mogck, asst. treasurer.

GACKLE BROTHERS, INC.

[Picture of 6 faces] In 1893 George Gackle came to Kulm and with his two friends started a hardware and general merchandise store. The firm being, Gackle and Grosz, later changing to Gackle and Billigmeier, and then to George Gackle and Co.

At the same time a grain buying station was started, buying grain in a flat house, powered by horse-power. Grain was brought to town in sacks, and the grain was hauled into the freight cars by wheelbarrows. An elevator was built in 1906.

In 1915 George Gackle retired from the hardware business and the new owners were his three eldest sons, John, Fred and Martin.

August 1924, following the passing of their father, George Gackle, the firm became a corporation and included the three youngest sons, George Jr., Otto and Ernest, and a sister Emma, Mrs. Christ Hieb. Mrs. Hieb’s interest in the firm was bought by the Brothers some years later.

The business at present consists of a two-story brick building, which handles hardware, tools, sporting goods, farm supplies, and furniture. A brick building, which was formerly, John Grosz and Sons dry goods store, was converted into a machine shop and garage, and also a display room for new Chryslers, Plymouths, and International trucks and farm machinery. A quonset building was built in 1952 for machinery and is used to assemble farm implements. The grain elevator was rebuilt and modernized in 1953.

In 1955 the hardware store was completely modernized to handle a more complete stock, to provide faster and more efficient service, and to better display the electrical appliances and furniture.

In 1945, because of ill health, Fred Gackle sold his share in the business and moved to Eugene, Oregon. The brother John passed away in May of 1956.

Besides the remaining brothers who are actively engaged in the business, the firm employs Eddie Grosz, Wilbert Konrad, Mrs. Fred Strobel, Robert Gackle, Fred Kinzler, Jake Wolf, Dave Grosz, and Henry Lind.

Martin, George, Otto and Ernest agree their creed is, as it was in the beginning, the Golden Rule; and say, "We have done our best to live up to it; we still believe as did our founders, that Kulm is the finest spot on God's Earth in which to work and live."

FARMERS CO-OPERATIVE ELEVATOR CO.

[P176 Picture of elevator] In 1904, a group of farmers saw the need to organize a Farmers Stock Company at Kulm. After several meetings they organized and elected a board of directors which were: M.A. Ueland, Joe Hartman, Joe Hollan, John A. Stolt, A.E. Raney, E.G. Anderson, E. Bowman, Jim Brady, John Ogren.

They bought an elevator from the Atlantic Elevator Company and hired Mr. Klien as manager, who was replaced by John Stolt the following year.

In 1913, the stock company was dissolved and the present Farmers Co-operative Elevator Company was organized. This was managed by Mr. Stolt until 1916 when Erick Bowman was hired as manager who served until 1926.

In 1917, the lumber yard was built, this was under the management of Ed Orth until 1945.

Then seeing the need for a larger elevator to serve the growing needs of the farmers, the present elevator was built in 1918, some years later they bought another elevator which was dismantled in about 1928 and the present coal shed was built out of the salvaged lumber.

In 1947, the stock holders saw the need of a feed grinding, seed cleaning, and treating plant, which was built the same year. This proved to be an asset to the community and town.

Due to the changing method of harvesting and threshing, additional storage was needed, so a 60,000 bushel annex was built in 1953.

In 1954, to better serve the patrons, an office and woodwork shop was built into the lumberyard. A scale was also installed there to weigh the coal.

Again in 1956, due to inadequate facilities, the stockholders voted to build a new modern office, driveway, and warehouse. In the above facilities are: a bottle gas furnace, water and sewer, and electric operated doors.
This organization started in 1904, with only a few stock holders who bought an elevator for $8,000.00. Mr. L.H. Steen, one of the original organizers, is still a patron to date. This organization has grown to 450 Stockholders, who hold equity of $168,000.00 and handled 364,000 bushels of net grain sales of $570,000.00 in 1956.

The elevator started shipping part of the grain to G.T.A. in 1941. In 1945, the Directors voted to ship 100 percent to G.T.A. for which the stockholders have received an additional $70,000.00 stock credits of which $10,000.00 have been paid out in cash dividends.

Albert Buerkle has been employed by the elevator company since 1939, and has been manager the past 6 years, with Palmer Buerkle assistant manager for the past 6 years.

The Lumber Department sold $54,000.00 worth of building material and coal, this department is being managed by Albert Larson and has been for the past 3 years, with Alvin Lindgren as his assistant.

At the present time the board of directors are as follows: William Staeck, president; Edwin Malm, vice president; Gottlieb Hartman, secretary; Fred Vogel, Theo. Wirch, Victor Ogren, and Walter Puhlman, directors.

The board of directors feel that this organization has been a great asset to this community and the city of Kulm.

THE KULM MILL COMPANY

The Kulm Mill Company was built in the year 1893 by Rott Bros. And Helwig. These men were in the farming business and hired Mr. Frank Smith, father of J.D. Smith to operate the mill for them. The Smiths came to Kulm in 1895. Jean was 17 years of age at the time and assisted his father at the mill. A few years later the mill was purchased by Byer Bros. Who owned it for 5 years and sold it to Mr. Dobler. Mr. Dobler traded it to the Kerr Land Co. for land. After 5 years later Mr. Dobler, Christ and Fred Flegel again purchased the mill back from the Land Co. This partnership lasted only a short time when Fred purchased the entire mill. Mr. Frank Smith passed away in 1907 and son Jean took over the operation of the mill. In 1908 Jean purchased one-third interest from Mr. Flegel.

Mr. Smith recalls many interesting experiences over the years. People came for flour from points 100 miles away. The mill very often ran continuously for 24 hours a day, months on end and an average day was usually 18 hours. Jean recalls that very often they would look out of the windows on the third floor of the mill and see caravans of wagons coming across the prairies in the very early hours of the morning. Most of the farmers brought their grain in sacks and on top of the grain they carried feed for the horses as these trips often took several days.

The major part of the business of selling flour was done on the exchange basis, farmers bringing in their grain and receiving flour in exchange. Much credit was extended to farmers even in those days, with the promise to pay in the fall. This was often a strain on the manufacturer and one year the mill had to borrow over $4600 to continue operation. By the end of that fall every account on the books had been cleared and they were able to pay back every cent they had borrowed.

In approximately 1908 Fred Rossman, Sr. came to work for the mill as the miller, thus allowing Mr. Smith to spend more time in the administrative work of the concern. Mr. Rossman had been a miller in Russia before coming to this country.
In 1914 the Kulm Mill purchased the light plant for the city from Mr. Bacon. The light system had not been too successful up to this time and had suffered severe losses from ice storms, leaving the lines in the city badly damaged and they had to be completely rebuilt. The lights were operated by the 60 horse power steam engine that operated the mill but with the continuing added load, had to be replaced by a 150 horse engine and later an additional 75 horse with a generator was added.

During the first World War considerable pressure was put on the mill. Thirty percent of all the flour milled had to be sold to the government and strict record had to be kept of all flour milled.

As the health of Mr. Flegel began to fail, he was forced to sell his interest to J.D. Smith, Reinhold Beich and Jacob Ruff in 1922.

In 1926 the light plant was sold to the Northern Power Light Company, however, the mill continued doing contract wiring and in selling and repairing appliances. Forrest Smith, son of Jean Smith and a master electrician, managed the electrical department of the mill and also purchased stock in the company.

The drought had its effect on the business. Operating was often put to a severe test financially as the people needed flour and had very little money. Hard wheat, used to mill flour, sold for as little as 30 cents a bushel.

Changing times and progress made for many replacements and changes; in 1932 the steam engine was replaced by a high powered diesel engine. In 1933 Fred Rossman, Jr. who had spent much time in the mill as a child with his father, was added to the milling staff.

The elder Mr. Rossman passed away in 1934 after working in the mill for over 26 years.

In 1935 the Kulm Mill Co. became a corporation. Additional storage for grain was needed and the company purchased and sold several elevators. At present they still have one elevator in their possession. Much speculation was done both in grain and in land during the years. In 1943 they became dealers for Minneapolis Moline farm equipment.

As the times began to change the need for flour began to dwindle and in 1950 after 57 years of almost continuous milling the last sack of flour was made and the machinery stopped.

In 1952 Jean and Forrest Smith sold their interests in the corporation to Reinhold Beich. The following year the interior of the mill was stripped of its milling machinery and scrapped. Mr. Jean Smith retired and Forrest now resides in Washington. 1956 brought the last change as Jacob Ruff retired and sold his interest purchased in 1922 to Fred Rossman.

BROST BROS.

[P178 Picture of Hilmer & Wilbert Brost] In the year 1930 D.F. Brost and John Flegel bought the interests of Kulm Hardware Company from the Marshall Wells Co. of Duluth, Minn. This enterprise was formerly owned by Gehring and Tjernlund.

In 1930 John Flegel and Bernard Gehring operated the store which was known as Kulm Hardware Co.

In 1932 Bernard Gehring moved to McClusky and in the fall of 1932 W.E. Brost returned from Chicago and assumed the managership of Kulm Hardware Co.
January 1, 1933 D.F. Brost and W.E. Brost bought the interests of John Flegel and the business was thereafter known as Kulm Hardware Co., or D.F. Brost & W.E. Brost.

It is needless to relate the times between 1932 and 1938 when we and our customers sold hogs for one cent a pound and cattle were bringing from one- half to one cent a pound. Then in 1934 the government gave the farmers from $5.00 to $20.00 for each head of cattle they had to sell. I could go on and on and tell you about the sale of stock and grain. In 1933 the bushel of wheat brought $.25 and barley was $.10 and oats $.07.

In 1946 D.F. Brost retired and his son H.A. Brost took over the active position of partner to W.E. Brost. Since 1946 W.E. Brost and H.A. Brost have been partners in business under the name of Brost Bros. Which was changed in 1946 from Kulm Hardware Co. to Brost Bros.

Besides hardware and farm machinery they also had a furniture department, which they discontinued and took on the dealership of Oldsmobile and Chevrolet automobiles.

The original building has had several additions, the first one to the West, a warehouse was built and two years later a showroom to the North and front with a garage and repair shop to the back. Brost Bros. Building now extends a 96 x 120 ft. area.

The business personnel for Brost Bros. Are: W.E. Brost and H.A. Brost, Mgrs.; Mrs. John J. KULM COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTER ASSOCIATION

Credit for the beginning of this project in 1951 goes to the local firemen.

Later the raffling of a car purchased by Otto Gackle and Reinhold Beich for the firemen, began the actual fund-raising campaign for the Health Center.

In June of 1951 work was begun with the breaking of ground done by men of the community.

The plans for the Health Center at first only included offices for the doctor and dentist, but the consensus of opinion was that a maternity ward should be added.

This necessitated the calling of a mass meeting to determine the desire of the community.

This meeting on March 3, 1942 brought out that addition of this ward would bring the building under hospital classification and the general tone of the meeting indicated that this would be [in] the best interests of the people of Kulm and vicinity, so plans were changed and the work went forward until its completion in 1953.

A Health Center Board of Directors was elected to devise ways of raising money and carry on the business of the Association and the first officers were: Signar Lundgren, Herman Herrmann, Fred Vogel, Alvin Hanneld, Harry Isaak, M.W. Gunter and E.T. Brost. The latter three were named from the city and four from the rural area.

The sale of the car sponsored by the firemen, donations by individual members, firms, and organizations, memberships of $25.00, Booster Button and auction sales, Health parties given by the ladies and $10.00 memberships in a 300 club were all various methods to raise money which resulted in all debts being paid by 1956.

This modern health center has doctor and dental offices, delivery, X-ray and examining rooms, emergency and maternity wards, complete with nursery laboratory and small kitchen.

Dr. J.E. Grenz occupies the dental offices and our present doctor D.M. Cameron serves the community in the rooms set aside for his use.

Previous doctors were H.A. Fandrich and Richard M. Steidl.

Open house was held on August 1, 1954 at which time dedication ceremonies were held.

The present board of Directors are as follows: Clifford Schott, president; Mrs. Caleb Bjur, vice president; Mrs. Anna Bjornson, secretary-treasurer; and John Blumhardt, Ronald Brost, Ervin Mogck and Dell Palm.

CONCLUSION:

If our forefathers could see the many improvements that have been added since Kulm's beginning, namely: the modern business section with its white way and water and sewer system, beautiful churches, well kept homes and lawns, city park, community health center, modern school system, and among the many other projects of progress - the latest being one of the greatest undertakings, for a city of its size - being that of paving the streets of the city, they would know that their faith in the permanency of Kulm was justified.
