Welcome to another great day at A Place Called Olive! Travis Cottrell is our special musical guest this morning. Currently serving at Englewood Baptist Church in Jackson, Tennessee, Travis and his wife Angela have three children. Tonight he will team up with our choir/orchestra for a marvelous night of worship. You won’t want to miss it!

Today I will be praying over our middle and high school students. Yes, they have already begun their academic year, but this prayer time is different. We are commissioning them as missionaries. Pray for them to be bold, honorable and humble with the Gospel on their lips and in their lives.

We are just fourteen days away from the United in Prayer gathering at the Pensacola Bay Center. Sunday, September 11 is the date and 6pm is the time. Make plans to join us as we cry out for revival!
