These two tools are being selected more and more often by successful home visitation programs nationwide to help collect data on the outcomes of their services. Both tools have been shown to have acceptable validity and reliability rates for use with diverse populations of families with young children. Authors of both tools provided "Train the Trainer" sessions for the Wisconsin team of trainers so that we can bring you a valuable training experience.

TOPICS COVERED INCLUDE:
- Features of ASQ-3 and ASQ:SE
- How to deliver and score ASQ-3 & ASQ:SE
- Understanding cut-off scores
- How to share results with parents

REQUIRED MATERIALS:
Participants should bring the ASQ-3 and ASQ:SE User Guides to the training session. Participants from one program may share guides.

The complete ASQ-3 system includes:
