I have come to fulfill the law and the prophets
Dear People of St. Bede,

This weekend, most parishes in the Archdiocese are conducting the 2014 Annual Catholic Appeal entitled "You Are the Temple of God" drawn from Saint Paul's first letter to the Corinthians: "We are God's Temple when, in his name and with his grace, we serve others and stand for justice, reconciliation, truth, and respect for life."

This weekend, many Catholics are listening to a message from Cardinal George inviting us to take part in this important campaign and next weekend pastors will be conducting the in-pew pledge. We will not be doing this at St. Bede. The reason for this is because in July we will be starting the campaign "To Teach Who Christ Is," which is a campaign to support Catholic Education within the Archdiocese of Chicago. As we approach July, more information will be coming regarding this important appeal.

All those who have participated in the Annual Catholic Appeal in past years have received or will be receiving a letter from Cardinal George inviting you to be a part of it, once again. If you have not received a letter and a pledge card and would like to participate in the 2014 Annual Catholic Appeal, pledge cards are available either at the back of the Church or the rectory office. I invite you to participate in the 2014 Annual Catholic Appeal to help us reach our goal of $34,000.00 for this year.

As you may know, this past year St. Bede benefitted from the Annual Catholic Appeal by being part of the dollar for dollar match, which helped us with our parish debt. Thanks to your generosity, we were able to collect over $200,000.00. That amount was matched by the Archdiocese, helping us reduce our debt by over $400,000.00. Once again, thank you for your generosity and I encourage you to take part in this year's campaign, in our effort to reach our goal.

In the love of Christ,
Fr. Rodolfo G. Ramirez

A Word of Gratitude…

Dear Father Rodolfo
and the Catholic Community of St. Bede,

I would like to thank all of you from the bottom of my heart for the warm welcome you offered to me two weekends ago and for your interest and enthusiasm to help our efforts in providing the Eucharist to the indigenous peoples of Chiapas, Mexico.

I also want to thank those who stopped by at the end of each Mass to ask questions about what we do in ‘the missions’ and especially those who donated so generously, providing the means to put gasoline in our car in order to visit more communities. A total of $748.00 was given. It will go a long way in helping us, especially now that Dr. Emily Obinger, from Chicago, will visit our communities to provide health care for the children of the villages. I was concerned about the means of transportation in order to take her to the most remote villages to see some of the children, but through your community God has, once more, provided for His people.

I reiterate my invitation to visit Chiapas to anyone who would like to have a mission experience in a foreign country. This invitation goes to adult individuals, entire families or parish groups or ministries. If interested, even if you are only curious about it, you may contact me at josecmendez@hotmail.com to see where the Lord will take us.

Fr. Rodolfo, I thank God for your friendship. I am proud to be your classmate and I praise God for calling you to serve in the community of St. Bede.

Tu amigo y hermano,
Fr. Carmelo Mendez

Rosary Making for the Troops, Missions & Anyone in Need

Wednesday, February 19th @7:00 PM in Coleman Hall

All are invited to learn how to make knotted twine rosaries
Come and join us for an informative venture into the birth of the Catholic Church. Jesus is the center of our faith and church but if it had not been for his disciples the church would most likely not be what it is today! The Gospels are very informative about the life, death and ministry of Jesus. They carry us up to the time when the Holy Spirit descended upon the men and women who would have to make a decision as to whether to continue what Jesus started. Without the Acts of the Apostles, the gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John would be left without a satisfying answer to the question, “What happened next?” Acts is a historical document that follows these men and women through their decision to continue. This continuation leads to the birth of the church as we know it today. What these men and women went through so you and I can peacefully worship here every day without the threat of persecution is truly the work of the Holy Spirit.

Starting on February 26th a series into the Acts will be our Lenten journey. Every Wednesday during Lent we will come to understand and interact with the most crucial, interesting and difficult journeys of those who devoted themselves in fulfilling the mission of Jesus Christ.

What will be the objectives in this study of Acts?

- To understand the content and significance of the Book of Acts in the establishment and early growth of the church.
- To venture through each of the chapters to fully appreciate the ministry of the Holy Spirit in the apostles and the early church.
- To reveal the examples of conversion to the gospel of Christ.
- To answer the question, “So what does this have to do with my life today?”

How will the class be conducted?
Each class will consist of a discussion of selected passages from Acts working through the book chapter by chapter. Handouts will be given that highlight each week’s discussion. Review questions will be distributed for each chapter for home follow-up and discussion with the family. The first class will be introductory in nature and will assign chapters to be read prior to the next class. Bibles will be given out for the series so we are all using the same text.

Who will facilitate the series and where will they be held?
Deacons Larry Spohr and Phil Bertolani in the School Library from 6:30 PM till 8:30 PM.

Will I miss out if I can’t attend every class?
Handouts will be given outlining each week’s class. If you miss one there will be enough information in the handouts to keep you up to date.

Will there be time for open discussion?
Classes will vary in the time given to open discussion. Throughout each class interaction will be the norm!

Will we cover every chapter in Acts?
Yes, but some will have less emphasis than others depending on chapter significance.

Treasures From Our Tradition

In a few weeks’ time, at the Chrism Mass of the diocese, fresh sacramental oils will be blessed and chrism consecrated for use in every parish. Olive oil is the main ingredient of chrism, but olive oil with some exotic additives that change its character and purpose. Rich balsam and perfumes separate chrism from the pantry. Food no longer, neither is this oil for grooming or toning muscles. It has a breathtaking aroma that is both alluring and enduring.

The prayer of consecration is a good meditation for the coming Lenten season since it focuses us on the goal of our journey, linking it with the olive-bearing dove at the end of Noah’s stormy voyage of forty days. The dove signaled the birth of a new world, a society reborn from the wreckage of the old, drowned world of sin. At the end of our Lenten journey, the oil of chrism will be poured down in abundance on the brows of catechumens and infants, as well as on those to be confirmed or ordained. Lent puts us in touch with the hard edges of life in need of salvation, and the chrism of Easter joy redeems and restores.

Jesus and the Law

In today’s continuation of the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus addresses the relationship between the current interpretation of the law of Moses and his own. He insists that he has come to fulfill, not abolish the law. Jesus is explicit here. He repeats the phrase, “You have heard . . .” with the counterpoint, “But I say . . .” He will not settle for mere avoidance of outright murder or adultery or lying. He goes to the source of murder—hatred, resentment, spite. He insists on chaste living. He overrules the one-sided loopholes that allow men to divorce women, a law based on the view of women as property. He disallows all the means that people employ to play fast and loose with marriage. His words urge mutual fidelity. His listeners and followers are to honor the law wholly and not minimally. The consequences of failure are clear and severe. The smallest are watching. They are those rendered powerless by age or ignorance or circumstance. These little ones depend on the word and action of the mature and knowledgeable, and they are not to be betrayed.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUING SUPPORT

Please Note:

There is no specific ‘2nd Collection’ next Sunday! Anyone who prefers to save a stamp and not mail their 2014 Annual Catholic Appeal donation may put their envelope in the Sunday basket and we will forward your donation with others. Please make sure that your check is made payable to the Annual Catholic Appeal.

ANNUAL STATEMENT OF CONTRIBUTIONS

Please note that your Annual Statement of Contributions includes only money donated to St. Bede Church during 2013. It includes donations in the Sunday collections and any 2nd collection donation—whether to one of the Archdiocesan collections or to St. Bede. However, it does not include any amounts donated directly or indirectly to the Annual Catholic Appeal. Those who contributed to the Annual Catholic Appeal should have received or will soon receive a letter/statement from the Archdiocese indicating the amount of your contribution to the 2013 Annual Catholic Appeal.

ATTENTION GIVE CENTRAL USERS!

Several users of the Give Central system have recently brought to our attention that their contributions are not being taken as they directed. In looking into this situation we discovered that when people provide a ‘start date’ for their contributions there is also an ‘end date’ that is to be indicated. It seems that the ‘default end date’ is a year after the ‘start date’.

Please review your Give Central record to make sure that your end date is when you want it. Thank you!

We encourage all in the parish to use GIVE CENTRAL for their regular contributions.

It’s safe and secure!

Consider using GIVE CENTRAL not only for your weekly contribution for the support of St. Bede but also for the dedicated collections, such as Debt Reduction, St. Bede School, etc. Using GIVE CENTRAL allows you to support St. Bede even when you are ‘out of town’ or unable to come to Mass. Please visit the parish website for a link to GIVE CENTRAL, go to www.givecentral.org or pick up a form at the church entrances to sign up to support St. Bede. Please note that if you use the printed form it should be returned to us in a sealed envelope.

Your on-going commitment to St. Bede is greatly appreciated!

Congratulations to the St. Bede School February Raffle Winner, Kelly English!!

!!!!!!! NO CONCEALED GUNS !!!!!!!!

You will soon see the No Concealed Guns sign on the doors of the Church, School and Rectory.

Please note that we are required to post these signs if we do not want firearms on our campus. In light of the presence of children in the school and our belief that violence should not be a part of the lives we live as Catholics, all are asked to refrain from carrying any sort of weapon.
Families and the Gospel
— Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

To experience the peace which Christ promises we must shed our grudges, jealousy and feelings of being misunderstood, unappreciated or ignored. Peace and anger don’t mix. Today’s gospel warns, if you want peace in your heart and home, get rid of your anger. Anger is too costly.

Remarrying Well with Children

by Deacon William F. Urbine D.Min., LMFT

Don’t be afraid to seek help. Seeking help from a competent marriage and family therapist can be very beneficial. It is a sign of great love to suggest this help early, rather than when in the middle of a crisis. The therapist should be familiar with stepfamily issues. The local parish priest, diocesan Catholic Charities office and the National Registry for Marriage Friendly Therapists can recommend marriage and family therapists. If Sally and Sam are really struggling in their relationship, attending a Retrouvaille weekend and follow-up program would be helpful. Retrouvaille has helped stabilize many marriages. Also, Sam and Sally should talk to other parents in stepfamilies. This will help them normalize their experiences as a family.

Examine priorities. Sally and Sam might need to accept that in their children’s eyes loyalty to their parent might come before the marital relationship. While this is contrary to a couple’s belief that the marriage comes first, children need to feel that they will never be abandoned, especially after major losses. Children need to know that they will always be first in their parents’ concerns. Thus, Sally and Sam need to make sure to acknowledge the importance of their children’s loyalties, even as they nurture their own marriage. Talking this through is essential to a successful remarriage.

Remember that change takes time. Sally and Sam need to accept that in some stepfamilies the experience is like a roller coaster ride. Acknowledging that time can heal one’s hurts and also begin to create loving relationships is essential.

It takes time for a stepchild to love a new stepparent, just as it does for the stepparent to love a new stepchild. Sam and Sally should try to do things individually with each child, when the opportunity arises. This can happen when they drop a child off at band practice or go to the hardware or grocery store. A little time alone with each child goes a long way in cementing relationships. Also, each parent should accept that the missing parent (the mother of Sam’s children and Sally’s deceased husband) are very important to the children. Let them grieve their losses and support them, even though some time has elapsed after the death/divorce. The Rainbows program can be of great assistance to their children.

Trust that God is in the messiness of family life. Sally and Sam need to keep acknowledging to each other and themselves that God is present in the ordinariness of daily life. There is a real gift–grace–given to us in our sacramental marriage. Sally and Sam can pray daily for and with each other. They can recognize everyday victories (a good report card, a soccer game well played), and acknowledge unsettling challenges (an upsetting day at work, a sick child). In all this, Sally and Sam can give thanks to God for the gift of married love and family life.

Parents set the climate in the home, whether warm and welcoming or icy and aloof. Appreciate is a word that holds great meaning for parents as they seek to establish a healthy atmosphere for their children. Do you appreciate each of your children for the person he or she is? Do you show appreciation for the contributions each child makes to the life of the family? Do you help your child appreciate the gift of faith the family has been given and help it deepen and grow? Every human being wants to be seen and appreciated for the person he or she is. Give your children that gift each day by recognizing their gifts, encouraging their interests and skills, and appreciating their unique and God-given personalities. In prayer, experience how God appreciates you! —Tom McGrath
