Pros and Cons of Using Skills

Use this worksheet to figure out the advantages and disadvantages to you of using skills (i.e., acting skillfully) to reach your goals. The idea here is to figure out what is the most effective way for you to get what you want in life. Remember, this is about your goals, not someone else’s goals.

Make a list of the Pros and Cons of practicing your skills in this situation.

Make another list of the Pros and Cons for not practicing your skills or of not practicing them completely.

Check the facts to be sure that you are correct in your assessment of advantages and disadvantages.

Write on the back if you need more space.

Pros and Cons of Practicing Mindfulness

Make a list of the pros and cons of practicing mindfulness skills.
Make another list of the pros and cons of not practicing mindfulness skills.
Check the facts to be sure that you are correct in your assessment of advantages and disadvantages.

Rate Willingness to Practice (0 = None; 100 = Very High) Before: _____  After: _____

Fill this worksheet out when you are:
• Trying to decide whether to work on becoming more mindful of the moments in your life.
• Feeling willful; saying no to letting go of emotion mind or extreme reasonable mind.
• Resisting observing the present moment, rather than escaping it or trying to control it.
• Resisting giving up your interpretations of others or yourself, rather than just describing.
• Resisting throwing yourself into the flow of the moment; wanting to stand on the outside.
• Feeling threatened whenever you think of letting go of judgments.
• Not in the mood for being effective instead of proving you are right.

When you are filling out this worksheet, think about these questions:
• Is a mindless life in your best interest (i.e., effective), or not in your best interest (i.e., ineffective)?
• Will refusing to go into Wise Mind solve a problem, or make a new problem for you?
• Is observing the moment without reacting to it immediately likely to increase your freedom, or decrease it?
• Is being attached to your thoughts instead of the facts you can describe useful, or not?
• Is staying judgmental helping you change the things you want to change, or getting in the way?
• Is it more important to be effective, or to be right?

Due Date: __________ Name: ____________________________ Week Starting: __________
EMOTION NAME: ____________________________ INTENSITY (0–100) Before: ____ After: ____

Fill this worksheet out when you are experiencing difficulties with:
• Trying to decide whether to work on changing ineffective emotions.
• Feeling willful/saying no to letting go of emotion mind.
• Deciding whether to work on reducing your emotional reactions to specific events.
• Feeling threatened whenever you think of letting go of emotions.
• Not in the mood for being effective.

When filling out this worksheet, think about these questions:
• Is living in emotion mind in your best interest (i.e., effective) or not in your best interest (i.e., ineffective)?
• Will refusing to regulate your own emotions create a new problem for you?
• Is reducing immediate high emotions likely to increase your freedom or decrease it?
• Is being attached to your emotions about a situation useful or not?
• Is working to reduce your emotion really too much work?

Make a list of the pros and cons of changing the emotion you are having difficulty with.
Make another list of the pros and cons of not changing your emotion.

Figuring Out What My Emotions Are Doing for Me

Due Date: ________ Name: ____________________________ Week Starting: ________

Select a current or recent emotional reaction and fill out as much of this sheet as you can. If the prompting event for the emotion you are working on is another emotion that occurred first (for example, feeling afraid prompted getting angry at yourself), then fill out a second worksheet for that first emotion. Write on the back of the sheet if you need more room. Remember to use your describe skills for each question.

EMOTION NAME: ______________________________________ INTENSITY (0–100): ___

Describe Prompting Event

What happened to prompt this emotion?

Describe Motivation to Action

What action was my emotion motivating and preparing me to do? (Was there a problem my emotion was getting me to solve, overcome, or avoid?) What function or goal did my emotion serve?

Describe Communication to Others

What was my facial expression? Posture? Gestures? Words? Actions?

What message did my emotion send to others (even if I didn’t intend to send the message)?

How did my emotion influence others (even if I didn’t intend to influence them)? What did others do or say as a result of my emotional expression or actions?

Describe Communication to Myself

What did my emotion say to me?

What facts could I check out to be sure the message my emotions were sending to me was correct?

What facts did I check out?

Example: Figuring Out What My Emotions Are Doing for Me

Due Date: ___________ Name: _________________________________ Week Starting: ___________

Select a current or recent emotional reaction and fill out as much of this sheet as you can. If the prompting event for the emotion you are working on is another emotion that occurred first (for example, feeling afraid prompted getting angry at yourself), then fill out a second worksheet for that first emotion. Use the back of the sheet if necessary. Use describe skills for each question.

EMOTION NAME: Shame and Guilt INTENSITY (0–100): 80

Prompting Event
What happened to prompt this emotion?

_I left my roommate's pot on the burner and forgot about it. I destroyed it. I then threw the pot away without telling my roommate._

Motivation to Action
What action was my emotion motivating and preparing me to do? (Was there a problem my emotion was getting me to solve, overcome, or avoid?) What function or goal did my emotion serve?

_My emotion was motivating me to shrink away from my friend, to hide myself. It’s possible that the function was to get me to change that behavior. The emotion was also functioning to get me to try to hide that I destroyed the pot._

_To influence my friend to stop being mad at me._

Communication to Others
What was my facial expression? Posture? Gestures? Words? Actions?

_My eyes were looking down. My lips were turned down. I was slouched slightly and turned slightly away from my friend. I did not say anything. I put my hands on my forehead._

What message did my emotion send to others (even if I didn’t intend to send the message)?

_I think my friend realized that I felt bad._

How did my emotion influence others (even if I didn’t intend to influence them)? What did others do or say as a result of my emotional expression or actions?

_My friend tried to get me to talk. I think it influenced her to stop yelling at me and be more kind._

Communication to Myself
What did my emotion say to me?

_It was wrong to do what I did. I feel badly about it because I disappointed my friend. I have really messed this up and now she will never trust or like me._

What facts could I check out to be sure the message my emotions were sending to me was correct?

_I could ask myself if what I did would get me kicked out of my house/friendship. I could try to figure out if what I did crossed my own wise/clear mind, moral code, values. I could ask her: Have I destroyed the relationship? Is she going to kick me out? Stop spending time with me? I could also ask what I can do that would help her to trust me again._

What facts did I check out?

_I felt bad about burning the pot—but it wasn’t a moral code or values issue yet until I tried to hide that I had done it. That behavior did go against my Wise Mind. I asked my roommate if she hated me now and she said no. I asked if there was anything I could do to fix the situation, and she asked me to buy a new pot, and I did._

Worksheets for Changing Emotional Responses
EMOTION REGULATION WORKSHEET 5  (p. 1 of 2)

(Emotion Regulation Handouts 8, 8a)

Check the Facts

Due Date: ___________ Name: ____________________________ Week Starting: ___________

It is hard to problem-solve an emotional situation if you don’t have your facts straight. You must know what the problem is before you can solve it. This worksheet helps you figure out whether it is the event that is causing your emotion, your interpretation of the event, or both. Use your mindfulness skills of observing and describing. Observe the facts, and then describe the facts you have observed.

Step 1

Ask: What emotion do I want to change?

EMOTION NAME: ___________________________ INTENSITY (0–100) Before: ___ After: ___

Step 2

Ask: What is the PROMPTING EVENT for my emotional reaction?

DESCRIBE THE PROMPTING EVENT: What happened that led you to have this emotion? Who did what to whom? What led up to what? What is it about this event that is a problem for you? Be very specific in your answers.

CHECK THE FACTS!

Look for extremes and judgments in the way you are describing the prompting event.

REWRITE the facts, if necessary, to be more accurate.

Step 3

Ask: What are my INTERPRETATIONS (thoughts, beliefs, etc.) about the facts?

What am I assuming? Am I adding my own interpretations to the description of the prompting event?

CHECK THE FACTS!

List as many other possible interpretations of the facts as you can.

REWRITE the facts, if necessary. Try to check the accuracy of your interpretations. If you can’t check the facts, write out a likely or a useful (i.e., effective) interpretation.

Step 4
Ask: Am I assuming a THREAT? What is the THREAT? What about this event or situation is threatening to me? What worrisome consequences or outcomes am I expecting?

CHECK THE FACTS!
List as many other possible outcomes as you can, given the facts.

REWRITE the facts if needed. Try to check the accuracy of your expectations. If you can't check out probable outcomes, write out a likely noncatastrophic outcome to expect.

Facts

Step 5
Ask: What's the CATASTROPHE, even if the outcome I am worrying about does occur? Describe in detail the worst outcome I can reasonably expect.

DESCRIBE WAYS TO COPE if the worst does happen.

Step 6
ASK: Does my emotion (or its intensity or duration) FIT THE FACTS? (0 = not at all to 5 = I am certain):
If you are unsure whether your emotion or your emotional intensity fits the facts (for example, you give a score of 2, 3, or 4), keep checking the facts. Be as creative as you can be; ask others for their opinions; or do an experiment to see if your predictions or interpretations are correct.

Describe what you did to check the facts:
Figuring Out How to Change Unwanted Emotions

Due Date: __________ Name: __________________________________________ Week Starting: __________

Once you have checked the facts, use this worksheet to help you figure out what to do next. Before you can figure out what to change, you have to decide whether acting on your emotion is effective in the situation you are in (and whether the emotion is one you actually want to change). (If you are not sure whether you want to change it or not, go back to Emotion Regulation Worksheet 1 and do pros and cons.) In the flow chart below, circle Yes or No at each level, and then select the skill that fits your situation best.

PROMPTING EVENT for my emotion (who, what, when, where): What prompted the emotion.

Make a list of two of the most important values in your life that are important things for you to work on right now.

VALUE: ____________________________________________________  Importance ( )  Priority ( )
VALUE: ____________________________________________________  Importance ( )  Priority ( )

Rate the importance of each value for a “life worth living” to you (1 = a little important, 5 = extremely important). Then rate how important it is to work on this value NOW (1 = low priority, 5 = very high priority).

REFINE YOUR CHOICES. Review your list and ratings above and the value you have chosen to work on now. CHECK THE FACTS. Make sure that what you think are values and priorities are in fact YOUR values and priorities—not the values others have, the values others think you should have, or old internal “tapes” of values you learned but no longer really believe in.
Rewrite your list if you need to.

CHOOSE A VALUE TO WORK ON NOW. Pick the value that is either the most important to you or is your highest priority to work on right now. (If you have more than one value that is a high priority to work on right now, fill out another worksheet for that value.)

VALUE TO WORK ON NOW: ____________________________________________________

STEP 4. IDENTIFY A FEW GOALS RELATED TO THIS VALUE.

List two or three different goals related to this value. Be specific. What can you do to make this value a part of your life? (If you have trouble thinking of goals, brainstorm as many goals as you can think of that might be related, and then choose those most related to your values.)

GOAL: ________________________________
GOAL: ________________________________
GOAL: ________________________________

STEP 5. CHOOSE ONE GOAL TO WORK ON NOW.

Select one goal that is reasonable to work on now. If one goal has to be accomplished before other goals can be worked on, choose that one as your working-on goal. Be specific. If you want to work on more than one goal at a time, fill out two worksheets.

Goal to work on: ________________________________

STEP 6. IDENTIFY SMALL ACTION STEPS TOWARD YOUR GOAL.

Break down the goal into lots of small steps that you can do. Each small step is a subgoal on the way to your overall goal. List action steps that will get you closer to your goal. If you can’t think of any steps, try brainstorming ideas. Write down whatever comes to your mind.

If you start to feel overwhelmed because a step looks too big, erase it and break it down into smaller steps you think you can actually do. Rewrite your list if you need to so that the steps you think you can do are included. Put in the order that you think you should do them. If you start to feel overwhelmed because there are too many steps, stop writing new steps and focus on just one step.

Action Step 1: ________________________________
Action Step 2: ________________________________
Action Step 3: ________________________________
Action Step 4: ________________________________

STEP 7. TAKE ONE ACTION STEP NOW. Describe what you did: ________________________________

__________________________________________

Describe what happened next: ________________________________

REMEMBER: ATTEND TO RELATIONSHIPS

Attending to relationships (Group A on Emotion Regulation Handout 18) and being part of a group (Group B) are important to just about everyone. If you did not choose a value from one of these groups, review them to see if one of these first 10 values is an important one for you to work on. If you choose one, write it down and then, after working on it, fill out the rest of the worksheet.

Describe the relationship or relationship problem you want to work on: ______________________________

Getting from Values to Specific Action Steps

Due Date: _______ Name: ___________________________ Week Starting: _______

Once you have figured out your values, the next step is to decide on specific things you can do or achieve (goals) that will make your life more in line with your values. Once you have goals, you can figure out what action steps are necessary to achieve the goal.

Example: VALUE: Be part of a group.

Possible GOALS:
- Reconnect with old friends.
- Get a more social job.
- Join a club.

Pick one GOAL to work on right now.
- Join a club.

- Look for clubs on craigslist.
- Go to the bookstore by my house and ask about book groups.
- Join an interactive online game or chat room.

1. Pick one of your VALUES:

2. Identify three GOALS:

3. Circle one GOAL to work on right now.

4. Identify ACTION STEPS you can take right now to move closer to this GOAL.

5. Take one ACTION STEP now. Describe what you did:

Describe what happened next:

Diary of Daily Actions on Values and Priorities

Due Date: ________  Name: __________________________  Week Starting: ________

This diary is for tracking your progress in reaching your goals and living according to your own values. You can either fill out one page for each value or goal you are working on, or you can fill it out every day no matter what goal you are working on that day. Remember to be very specific. Check Emotion Regulation Worksheet 11 or 11a for your list of important values and goals.

Mindfulness of Current Emotions

Due Date: __________ Name: ________________________________________________________________________ Week Starting: __________

EMOTION NAME: ___________________________ INTENSITY (0–100) Before: ____ After: ____

Describe situation that prompts emotion. (Fill out Steps 1 and 2 on Emotion Regulation Worksheet 5, if necessary.)

When emotional intensity is extreme, go to CRISIS SURVIVAL SKILLS first and fill out Distress Tolerance Worksheets 2–6. With any emotion, high or low, practice radical acceptance with MINDFULNESS OF CURRENT EMOTIONS.

Check off any of the following that you did:

- Stepped back and just noticed the emotions I was experiencing.
- Experienced the emotion as waves, coming and going on the beach.
- Let go of judgments about my emotions.
- Noticed where in my body I was feeling the emotional sensations.
- Paid attention to the physical sensations of the emotions as much as I could.
- Observed how long it took the emotion to go away.
- Reminded myself that being critical of emotions does not work.
- Practiced willingness to have unwelcome emotions.
- Imagined my emotions as clouds in the sky, coming and going.
- Just noticed the action urge that went with my emotion.
- Got myself to avoid acting on my emotion.
- Reminded myself of times when I have felt different.
- Practiced radically accepting my emotion.
- Tried to love my emotions.

Identify which pros and cons are short-term (just for today) or long-term (beyond today). Then ask your Wise Mind: Would you rather have a good day or a good life? Make a mindful choice about your behavior.

If this worksheet helps you choose skillful behavior over crisis behavior, be sure to keep it where you can find it and review it again when you are in crisis.

Identify which pros and cons are short-term (just for today) or long-term (beyond today). Then ask your Wise Mind: Would you rather have a good day or a good life? Make a mindful choice about your behavior.

If this worksheet helps you choose skillful behavior over crisis behavior, be sure to keep it where you can find it and review it again when you are in crisis.

Paired Muscle Relaxation

Practice Paired Muscle Relaxation (tensing your body muscles and then letting go of tension completely as you breathe out). Practice as many times a day as you can at first until you notice that when you exhale, our body automatically relaxes on its own. At this point, you have paired breathing out with relaxation. Once that happens, continue practicing but not as often.

Practice paired muscle relaxation as many times a day as you can, and describe your experience below. Check the type of practice you did: individual muscles, muscle groups, or all of your muscles at once.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Day</th>
<th>Number of times practiced paired muscle relaxation</th>

(Distress Tolerance Handouts 11, 11a, 11b)

Radical Acceptance

Due Date: __________ Name: __________________________ Week Starting: __________

1. Make a list of two very important things in your life right now that you need to radically accept. Then give each one a number indicating how much you accept this part of yourself or your life: from 0 (no acceptance, I am in complete denial and/or rebellion) to 5 (complete acceptance, I am at peace with this). Note: if you have already completed this section, you don’t need to do it again unless things have changed.

What I need to accept (Acceptance, 0–5)

1. __________________________________________ (______)
2. __________________________________________ (______)

2. Make a list of two less important things in your life you are having trouble accepting this week. Then rate your acceptance just as you did above.

What I need to accept (Acceptance, 0–5)

1. __________________________________________ (______)
2. __________________________________________ (______)

REFINE YOUR LIST

3. Review your two lists above. Check the facts. Check for interpretations and opinions. Make sure that what you are trying to accept is in fact the case. Check for judgments. Avoid “good,” “bad,” and judgmental language. Rewrite any items above if needed so that they are factual and nonjudgmental.

PRACTICE RADICAL ACCEPTANCE

4. Choose one item from the very important list and one item from the less important list to practice on.

1. __________________________________________

2. __________________________________________

- Observed that I was questioning or fighting reality.
- Reminded myself that reality is what it is.
- Considered the causes of the reality, and nonjudgmentally accepted that causes exist.
- Practiced accepting all the way with my whole being (mind, body, spirit).
- Practiced opposite action.
- Coped ahead with events that seemed unacceptable.
- Attended to my body sensations as I thought about what I need to accept.
- Allowed myself to experience disappointment, sadness, or grief.
- Acknowledged that life can be worth living even when there is pain.
- Did pros and cons of accepting versus denial and rejection.

Mindfulness of Current Thoughts
Due Date: __________ Name: ____________________________ Week Starting: __________

Describe your efforts to observe your thoughts in the past week. Practice observing thoughts each day at least once. Don’t focus just on thoughts that are painful, anxiety-provoking, or full of anger; also observe and be mindful of pleasant or neutral thoughts. For each thought, first practice saying, “The thought [describe thought] went through my mind.” Then practice one or more strategies to observe and let go of thoughts.

Check off any of the following exercises that you did.

1. Used words and voice tone to say a thought over and over; as fast as I could; very, very slowly; in a voice different from mine; as a dialogue on a TV comedy show; or as singing.
2. Relaxed my face and body imagining accepting my thoughts as sensations of my brain.
3. Imagined what I would do if I stopped believing everything I think.
4. Rehearsed in my mind what I would do if I did not view my thoughts as facts.
5. Practiced loving my thoughts as they went through my mind.
6. Refocused my mind on sensations I was avoiding by worrying or catastrophizing.
7. Allowed my thoughts to come and go as I focused on observing my breath coming in and out.
8. Labeled the thought as a thought, saying, “The thought [describe thought] arose in my mind.”
10. Stepped back from my mind, as if I was on top of a mountain.
11. Shuttled back and forth between scanning for physical sensations and scanning for thoughts.
12. Imagined that in my mind thoughts were coming down a conveyor belt; were boats on a river; were train cars on a railroad track; were written on leaves flowing down a river; had wings and could fly away; were clouds floating in the sky; or were going in and out of the doors of my mind. (Underline the image you used.)

Skills When the Crisis Is Addiction

Due Date: __________  Name: ___________________________ Week Starting: __________

Check off two skills for backing down from addiction to practice this week during a stressful situation:

- Plan for abstinence
- Plan for harm reduction
- Practice clear mind
- Search for abstinence reinforcers
- Increase non-addicting pleasant events
- Sample abstinence for ____ days
- Burn bridges
- Build new bridges
- Practice alternate rebellion
- Practice adaptive denial

Skill 1. Describe the situation and how you practiced the skill:

______________________________________________________________________________

How effective was the skill in helping you cope with the situation (keeping you from doing something to make the situation worse)? Circle a number below.

I still couldn’t stand the situation, even for one more minute.   I was able to cope somewhat, at least for a little while.   It helped somewhat.   I could use skills, tolerated distress, and resisted problem urges.

1 2 3 4 5

Did this skill help you cope with uncomfortable emotions or urges, or avoid conflict of any kind? Circle YES or NO.

Describe how the skill helped or did not help: ________________________________

Skill 2. Describe the situation and how you practiced the skill:

Planner for Dialectical Abstinence

Due Date: __________ Name: ___________________________ Week Starting: ________

Problem Behavior: _______________________________________

Check each activity and describe what you did.

PLAN FOR ABSTINENCE

To maximize the chances I’ll stop ________________________, I need to aim for abstinence.

☐ Plan activities to do instead of problem behaviors (e.g., work, find a hobby, go to a support meeting, volunteer). These will include:

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

☐ Spend time or touch base with people who will reinforce my not engaging in problem behaviors and my engaging in effective behaviors (e.g., effective friends or family members, co-workers, employers, my therapist, people from group). These people include:

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

☐ Remind myself of reasons to stay abstinent and be effective (e.g., to reach long-term goals, to keep/get relationship, to save money, to avoid shame). These include:

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

☐ Burn bridges with people who represent a temptation (e.g., lose their numbers, unfriend them, tell them to stop contacting me, make them not want to hang out with me). These people include:

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

Use skills (things to do to avoid urges, interpersonal effectiveness, distress tolerance, emotion regulation, mindfulness). The most useful skills for me include:

Find alternative ways to rebel. These include:

Publicly announce I’ve embraced abstinence and effective behavior.

PLAN FOR HARM REDUCTION

If I have a slip, I don’t want the slip to turn into a slide. To avoid a slide, I must have plans to regain my balance and get back to abstinence and effectiveness.

Call my therapist, sponsor, or mentor for skills coaching. His or her number is: ____________

Get in contact with other effective people who can help (e.g., friends or family, people from group). These people include (with contact information):

Get rid of the temptations (e.g., drugs, comfort food); surround myself with cues for effective behaviors (e.g., workout clothes, fruit).

Review skills and handouts from DBT. The most helpful skills/handouts for me are:

Opposite action (Emotion Regulation Handout 10) can be rehearsed to fight guilt and shame. If no other option works, go to an anonymous meeting of any sort and publicly report your lapse.

Building mastery and coping ahead for emotional situations (Emotion Regulation Handout 19), and checking the facts (Emotion Regulation Handout 8), can be used to fight feelings of being out of control.

Interpersonal skills (Interpersonal Effectiveness Handouts 5–7), such as asking for help from family, friends, sponsors, ministers, or counselors, can also be helpful. If you are isolated, help can often be found via online support groups. These people or groups include:

- Conduct a chain analysis to analyze what prompted the lapse (General Handouts 7, 7a).
- Problem-solve right away to find a way to “get back on the wagon” and repair any damage you have done (Emotion Regulation Handout 12).
- Distract yourself, self-soothe, and improve the moment.
- Cheerlead myself (e.g., “One slip is not a disaster,” “Don’t give up,” “Don’t get willful,” “I can still climb back on the wagon.”) My cheerleading statements will include:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Extreme thinking:</th>
<th>Middle ground:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I have not quit yet; therefore I am doomed and might as well give up.</td>
<td>Relapsing once does not doom me to never stopping.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Now that I’ve relapsed, I might as well keep going.</td>
<td>I relapsed, but that does not mean I have to stay relapsed. I can be effective and get up now.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I missed an appointment, so I’m done with treatment.</td>
<td>I missed an appointment, but I can get in to see my therapist ASAP.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Other:</td>
<td>Other:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Other:</td>
<td>Other:</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Do pros and cons of stopping again now.
- Stay away from extreme thinking. Always look for the middle ground. Don’t let one slip turn into a disaster. (Check each extreme thought I am giving up and the middle ground I am accepting.)

- Recommit to 100% total abstinence.
