PASTORAL SHARINGS

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We hear today two of the most beloved and well-known passages of Sacred Scriptures: the call of Jeremiah the prophet and the hymn to love from 1 Corinthians. The former is used at many ordinations of deacons and priests, a reminder that God’s call for each of us begins in the womb, at the moment of conception, when He fashions us with a purpose in this gift of our lives. The latter is proclaimed at many weddings, describing the varied dimensions of Christian charity and the spiritual gift of love.

Familiarly often breeds an indifference; so we might not always see it as keen to listen to these passages today with fresh ears. Yet, Saint Paul gives us much to reflect upon in his letter. Towards the end of the passage we hear, “At present I know partially, then I shall know fully, as I am fully known.” What a beautiful acknowledgement made by Saint Paul! His vision of the world, his understanding of God’s plan for himself and for others, his knowledge of God and the role he plays as a prophet, is marked by this humble recognition that he doesn’t know everything!

Like Paul, we only see partially, incompletely, imperfectly. On this side of heaven, we must always recognize that our understanding of God and His will for us is marked by these limiting qualities. This causes us to walk by faith – trusting in what the Lord has revealed to us through Christ; to rest in hope – knowing that God will make good of His promises to us; and, to live by the law of love – measuring our actions against those beautiful qualities of love sung by Saint Paul throughout this passage.

To be haughty and prideful, thinking we know it all, gives birth to a blind ignorance expressed in the Gospel passage today: Jesus’ townsfolk and kin could not recognize who He truly was when He appeared in their midst. They could not hear Him explain that He was the fulfillment of the promised Messiah in their midst. They thought they knew who He was and what God’s plan was for Him. But they didn’t see how ignorant they truly were, driving the longed-for Messiah to the edge of a hill in order to kill Him. Familiarity conceived in them an ignorant arrogance that prevented them from seeing the Christ and all that He could do for them!

How often in our lives does a similar ignorance and arrogance kill relationships, or opportunities for ourselves or others, or limit our scope of who God is calling us to be? Each of us has been called to great things by the Creator who fashioned us in our mothers’ wombs. Each of us is sustained and strengthened by Spirit of love who fills our hearts and gifts us beyond measure. Each of us has potential beyond our own imaginations. As we hear these familiar words today, let us dare to hear them as if for the first time, letting them lead us to rediscover God’s will for each of us and to help one another to discern and to live out that will for our own happiness and for the good of all God’s people.

In His Heart,

STEWARDSHIP - A WAY OF LIFE TITHING: GOD’S PLAN FOR GIVING

January 24, 2016 $1,004

From Father Brommer: “Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous.” (1 Corinthians 13:4)

Do you get jealous? Do you focus more on the things that other people have than on the gifts that God has given to you? Are you pompous? Do you acquire more possessions to impress others? At times we are all guilty of these things. Pray for more humility. Pray to become less self-centered and more God-centered.

Comments on Tithing from the Pew: “Although tithing has been a subject I have read about in studying the Old Testament, I had not made the appropriate correlation to my membership in my parish community. Tithing has been the solution to my quandary: ‘What is my right share?’ It has made me feel that I really ‘belong’. It’s a good feeling.

• Thank you for your gift of tithing •

The choir is appealing for new members to join our ranks in the next few weeks as we begin Easter preparations. Anyone high school age and older can join the Cathedral Choir.
