Sunday August 6th 2006 - The Transfiguration of the Lord
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

A few weeks ago I wrote in my pastors notes about the need for people to take rest. This past week I thank God for the opportunity to enjoy a restful and prayerful vacation at my home in Hazlet, NJ. I am grateful that there are two nearby parishes that have Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament where I have the opportunity to make daily visits to our Eucharistic Lord. This rest has really given me more time to read and, more importantly, more time to pray, especially praying for people who have asked me to pray for them. Praying for other people is called intercessory prayer.

Intercessory prayer is not the same as prayers for yourself, or for 'enlightenment', or for spiritual gifts, or for guidance, or any personal matter, or any glittering generality. Intercession is not just praying for someone else's needs. It is praying with the real hope and real intent that God would step in and act for the good of some specific other person (s) or other entity. It is trusting that God will act, even if it's not in the manner or timing we seek. God wants us to ask, even urgently. It is casting our weakness before God's strength, and (at its best) having a bit of God's passion burn in us.

The Bible has many cases of people standing up for others before God. Jesus was the prime example of an intercessor. He interceded in prayer that God bless and protect His followers. At the cross, He prayed, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." Indeed, His whole life, His whole reason for being born, was to be a living intercession, a giving of His life to span the rift caused by our rebellion against God. Stephen’s last words were an intercession on behalf of those who were killing him. Paul prayed constantly for the struggling young church, for character, behavior, witness, and wisdom. It is Paul's regular prayer for the church and its people that sets the usual pattern for our own intercessory prayers. And Epaphras was the “prayer wrestler” for the church in Colossae.

Each day I pray a Eucharistic Holy Hour and part of this time I pray for all the parishioners of St. Raphael-Holy Angels Parish and our many ministries. So please know that I pray for you daily. However, if there is a particular need that you would like me to intercede for you before the Lord, please let me know by calling me at the rectory or leaving a message. We are also blessed to have the Good Shepherd Charismatic Prayer Group that has an intercession prayer team that prays for our parish. Their phone number is listed in this parish bulletin on page 6 under Parish Ministry.

Finally, I ask for your prayers for a baby named Stephen. Stephen was born two weeks ago with menkes disease. It is a fatal disease in babies, so there needs to be a miracle. We believe in miracles! Please join me in interceding for Stephen.

Have a blessed week!

In Jesus and Mary,
Father Jeff Kegley
Pastor

Appeal for Mid-East Peace
"So That They Immediately Put Down Their Weapons"

Dear Brothers and Sisters!

Two days ago, my stay in the Aosta Valley finished, I came directly here to Castel Gandolfo, where I intend to remain until the end of the summer, with a brief interruption in September for the apostolic visit to Bavaria. I wish, first of all, to address my affectionate greetings to the ecclesial and civil community of this beautiful town, where I am always happy to come to.

I cordially thank the bishop of Albano, the parish and the priests, as well as the mayor and municipal administration and the other civil authorities. A special thought goes to the directorate and personnel of the pontifical villa, as well as to the police, whom I thank for their valuable service.

Moreover, I greet the many pilgrims who, with their warm presence, contribute to making evident, also in the homier atmosphere of this summer residence, the universal ecclesial dimension of this, our appointment for the Marian prayer.

In this moment I cannot help think of the situation, ever more grave and more tragic, that the Middle East is going through: hundreds of dead, many wounded, a huge number of the homeless and refugees; houses, towns and infrastructure destroyed; meanwhile, hatred and the desire for revenge grow in the hearts of many.

These facts demonstrate clearly that you cannot re-establish justice, establish a new order and build authentic peace when you resort to instruments of violence.

More than ever we see how prophetic and altogether realistic is the voice of the Church when, in the face of wars and conflicts of every kind, it points out the path of truth, justice, love and liberty (cf. encyclical "Pacem in Terris"). Humanity must also cross this path today to achieve the good desire for true peace.

In the name of God, I appeal to all those responsible for this spiral of violence, so that they immediately put down their weapons on all sides! I ask governing leaders and international organizations not to spare any effort to obtain this necessary halt to hostilities and so to be able to begin to build, through dialogue, a lasting and stable concord for all the people of the Middle East.

I appeal to all people of good to continue and to intensify the shipment of humanitarian help to those populations so tested and needy. But especially [I ask that] every heart continue to raise the hopeful prayer to the good and merciful God, so that he grants his peace to that region and to the whole world.

We entrust this sorrowful petition to the intercession of May, Mother of the Prince of Peace and Queen of Peace, so venerated in Mideast countries, where we hope to see soon reign this reconciliation for which the Lord Jesus has offered his precious Blood.

In today's Gospel we see Jesus feeding the hungry multitudes. With the same generous love he continues to offer us daily the Bread of Life. May the Eucharist sustain us always in our love of God, and open our hearts to our neighbors, especially to those in need! I wish you all a blessed Sunday!

“ It is especially for you, young people, to take on the great task of building a society where there will be more justice and solidarity” — Pope John Paul II, World Youth Day VI

To build up a society in which we have more justice and solidarity, we must break down the barriers of hate and indifference. Hate is the opposite of justice, and indifference. Not caring prevents us from building solidarity. The Christian life leaves no room for hate or indifferences. We must love and we must care.
