Expectations for Students

During the summer break, students should
- read assigned books for your grade level
- complete the reader response log for at least one of the two books read to assist you in understanding the books and in developing the chosen project

After the summer break students should
- turn in your reader response log(s) to your teacher
- complete your summer reading project by the deadline (August 17, 2012) with your parents and teachers guidance
- take the Accelerated Reader test. Students may take the test during the first two weeks of the school.

Guidelines for Summer Reading

Each student is required to do the following
1. Read at least two books during the summer from the list below.
2. Complete a reader response log for one of the books. Please note: The reader response logs are due the second week of school
3. Take the Accelerated Reader (AR) test for the designated book at your grade level.
4. Complete or begin working on your performance-based activity or storyboard about one of your books. All summer reading projects will be due by August 17.

Summer Reading List

| 1. The Foot Book                          | By: Dr. Seuss |
| 2. Biscuit goes to School                | By: Alyssa Satin Capucilli |
| 4. Chicka, Chicka, Boom Boom            | By: Bill Martin |

Suggested Summer Reading Activities

Each student will complete one activity from the list below to show his/her comprehension of the book he/she choose.

1. Construct a mobile discussing each story element and present an oral interpretation. The mobile should include the following elements:
   - Title
   - Author
   - Main Characters
   - Setting
   - Plot Summary (Beginning, middle, and end)

2. Construct a comic strip the retells the entire story, and be ready to present an oral interpretation of your comic strip.
3. Create and use a storyboard. (Refer to the Summer Reading Project Rubric*). The storyboard should include the following elements:
- Title
- Author
- Main Characters
- Setting
- Plot Summary
- Conflict
- Solution or resolution
- Author's purpose
- Tone or mood

4. Make a paper bag puppet of your favorite character from the story and write two sentences about the character. Be prepared to read your sentences and show your puppet in the classroom. Follow the guidelines on the attached worksheet and answer questions.

PAPER BAG PUPPET -- CREATING A STORY CHARACTER

OBJECTIVE  To make a paper bag puppet of a character in a story we read.

MATERIALS paper bag or sock, crayons or markers, other materials appropriate to make a hand puppet

PROCEDURE
1. Select a character for your hand puppet from a story you enjoyed.

   What story have you selected?
   What character have you selected?
   Why did you select this character?

2. Tell your family member about the story and the character you selected. Explain what the character did in the story and what he, she, or it is supposed to look like.

3. Gather materials that you can use to turn a paper bag or an old sock into your hand puppet. Check with your family member to make sure the materials you are using are not needed for something else.

4. Make your hand puppet as original as possible. On the puppet's face try to capture an emotion that the character had in the story.

5. Show your hand puppet to your family member and ask for suggestions or reactions.
   Who is helping you?
   What was his or her reaction to your puppet?

6. Make any improvements that you think will help improve your puppet.

7. Bring in your puppet to class (sometime near the end of August: an exact due date will be given during the first week of school)

DISCUSSION
Discuss these questions with your family member.
1. Ask your family member to give you five words that describe your puppet.
   List them.

   2.
   3.
   4.
   5.

2. Do you agree? What words would you use to describe the puppet?

   (b)
   (c)

NOW TRY THIS!
Be prepared to tell your teacher and classmates why you selected this character for your hand puppet. Be prepared to explain the expression you put on the puppet's face. Write your ideas here.

Parent Feedback
As-Salamu Alaikum Kindergarten Parents,

I would love to hear your comments and how your child reacted to the activity. Use the space below to provide feedback. Thank you.

Reader Response Log Guidelines

The objectives of this activity foster students' understanding of the books they will read during the summer. Students will respond personally and analytically to the required texts and genres. Students should discuss the books with others such as their parents, friends, relatives, or teachers for better understanding. Responses should be neatly handwritten. Log entries should be turned in during the second week of school.

Directions: Complete a reader response log for at least one of the books read to assist you in understanding the books and developing your chosen project. A parent must sign the reading logs. The reading log worksheet is attached.
