Guided learning hours

Cambridge IGCSE syllabuses are designed on the assumption that learners have about 130 guided learning hours per subject over the duration of the course, but this is for guidance only. The number of hours required to gain the qualification may vary according to local curricular practice and the learners’ prior experience of the subject.

1.3 Why choose Cambridge IGCSE Literature (English)?

Cambridge IGCSE Literature (English) offers learners the opportunity to read, interpret, evaluate and respond to a range of literature in English. The range includes drama, prose and poetry from the works of Shakespeare to contemporary literature. This course enables learners to deepen their understanding and appreciation of the ways in which writers use English to express meaning and achieve effects. Cambridge IGCSE Literature (English) will stimulate learners to read for pleasure, to explore wider and universal issues, promoting a better understanding of themselves and the world.

Cambridge IGCSE Literature (English) is accepted by universities and employers as proof of knowledge and understanding of literature in English.

Prior learning

We recommend that candidates who are beginning this course should have previously studied an English curriculum such as that of the Cambridge Secondary 1 programme, the Key Stage 3 Programme of Study within the National Curriculum for England, or equivalent national educational frameworks. Learn more at www.cie.org.uk/cambridgesecondary1
Progression
Cambridge IGCSE Certificates are general qualifications that enable learners to progress directly to employment, or to proceed to further qualifications in another subject area or at a higher level, requiring more specific knowledge, understanding and skills.

Candidates who are awarded grades A* to C in Cambridge IGCSE Literature (English) are well prepared to follow courses leading to Cambridge International AS and A Level English, International Baccalaureate Certificates in English or the equivalent.

Candidates submit a portfolio of two assignments (600–1200 words each). Each assignment should be based on the study of one complete text. The text must be equivalent in scope and demand to the set texts for Paper 1, Paper 2 and Paper 3.

The assignments must be on different texts. One of the assignments (but not two) may be on a text set on Papers 1, 2 and 3.

The phrasing of each assignment’s title must allow for assessment in relation to all four assessment objectives. One of the assignments may be an empathic response to a prose or drama text.

This component is assessed and marked by the Centre, and a sample is submitted for external moderation by Cambridge.

For more information and guidance on creating, presenting and marking coursework, see Section 7.
7. Coursework assessment

7.1 Coursework guidance notes

For further guidance and for the general regulations concerning Centre-based coursework assessment, see the Cambridge Handbook.

The following notes provide general guidance for teachers on creating, presenting and marking the coursework portfolio.

Format
- The coursework portfolio must contain two assignments, each on a different text.
- Assignments should be between 600 and 1200 words (including quotations, but excluding references/bibliography). Candidates must not confuse length with quality. Assignments that are significantly over or under the word count guidance may be self-penalising.
- The assignments must be securely fastened and clearly marked with the candidate’s name, number and the Centre number.
- Candidates may use typewriters or word processors, or can write their assignments by hand.
- Work sent to Cambridge for external moderation must not be sent in clear plastic folders or ringbinders. A completed Individual Candidate Record Card must be included with each portfolio and a completed Coursework Assessment Form must also be submitted.

General
- Assignments can be completed at any time during the course, usually following a programme of study undertaken by a teaching group. The best assignments usually follow a shared learning experience. Candidates should undertake more than two assignments to provide a choice of assignments for their portfolio. Although assignments are selected by the candidate, it is recommended that the teacher and candidate discuss which are the best assignments to submit.
- Candidates should remember to proofread their work carefully.

Texts
- Assignment texts can be chosen by teachers or by candidates and teachers together. They must be originally written in English, and of a quality appropriate for study at Cambridge IGCSE.
- Candidates within a Centre do not have to submit assignments on the same texts.
- Assignments must show that the candidate has studied the whole text.
- If poetry or short stories are used for an assignment, candidates must cover a minimum of two poems or stories. Candidates are not required to compare poems or stories within the assignment, as it is assumed that the assignment is based on the study of a wider selection of poems or stories broadly equivalent to a poetry or short stories set text.
Authenticity

- A general discussion on the progress of assignments is a natural part of the teacher/candidate relationship, as it is for other parts of the exam. In addition, if plans and first drafts are completed under teacher supervision, then teachers can be assured of the authenticity of the final assignment.
- Teachers should not mark, correct or edit draft assignment material; candidates can certainly draft and redraft work, but teachers should only give general guidance during this phase.
- It is the Centre’s responsibility to make sure all coursework is the candidate’s original work. Where appropriate, candidates should provide references to secondary source material, listing these at the end of the assignment.

7.2 Marking and moderating coursework

Each assignment is to be marked out of a total of 25, in accordance with the assessment criteria. Assessment involves balancing the strengths and weaknesses in the candidate’s work. If a candidate submits no assignment, a mark of zero must be recorded.

Recording candidates’ marks

Candidates’ marks for Component 5 Coursework must be recorded on the Individual Candidate Record Card produced by Cambridge. These forms, and the instructions for completing them, may be downloaded from www.cie.org.uk/samples. The database will ask you for the syllabus code (i.e. 0486) and your Centre number, after which it will take you to the correct forms. Follow the instructions when completing each form.

Internal moderation

When several teachers in a Centre are involved in internal assessment, then the Centre must make sure that all candidates are assessed to a common standard in order to produce a reliable order of rank. Centre assessments will then be subject to external moderation.

The internally moderated marks for all candidates must be recorded on the Coursework Assessment Summary Form. This form, and the instructions for completing it, may be downloaded from www.cie.org.uk/samples. The database will ask you for the syllabus code (i.e. 0486) and your Centre number, after which it will take you to the correct form. Follow the instructions when completing the form.

External moderation

External moderation of internal assessment is carried out by Cambridge. Centres must submit candidates’ internally assessed marks to Cambridge. The deadlines and methods for submitting internally assessed marks are in the Cambridge Administrative Guide.

Equality and inclusion

Cambridge International Examinations has taken great care in the preparation of this syllabus and assessment materials to avoid bias of any kind. To comply with the UK Equality Act (2010), Cambridge has designed this qualification with the aim of avoiding direct and indirect discrimination.

The standard assessment arrangements may present unnecessary barriers for candidates with disabilities or learning difficulties. Arrangements can be put in place for these candidates to enable them to access the assessments and receive recognition of their attainment. Access arrangements will not be agreed if they give candidates an unfair advantage over others or if they compromise the standards being assessed.

Candidates who are unable to access the assessment of any component may be eligible to receive an award based on the parts of the assessment they have taken.

Information on access arrangements is found in the Cambridge Handbook which can be downloaded from the website www.cie.org.uk/examsofficers

Language

This syllabus and the associated assessment materials are available in English only.

Grading and reporting

Cambridge IGCSE results are shown by one of the grades A*, A, B, C, D, E, F or G indicating the standard achieved, A* being the highest and G the lowest. ‘Ungraded’ indicates that the candidate’s performance fell short of the standard required for grade G. ‘Ungraded’ will be reported on the statement of results but not on the certificate. The letters Q (result pending), X (no results) and Y (to be issued) may also appear on the statement of results but not on the certificate.

Entry codes

To maintain the security of our examinations, we produce question papers for different areas of the world, known as ‘administrative zones’. Where the component entry code has two digits, the first digit is the component number given in the syllabus. The second digit is the location code, specific to an administrative zone. Information about entry codes can be found in the Cambridge Guide to Making Entries.
9. Appendix

9.1 Resources: set text editions

Unless otherwise stated, candidates may use any edition of the set text, as long as it is not an abridged or simplified version. There are many editions of set texts available, with newer editions sometimes including notes (often displayed on facing pages), illustrations, activities and further resources which make these texts particularly useful and user-friendly.

The edition of Shakespeare used for setting extract questions on examination papers is the Alexander Text of The Complete Works of William Shakespeare, ed. Peter Alexander (Collins, 1951; new edition 2006, introduced by Peter Ackroyd). However, this complete, standard one-volume edition is not recommended for classroom study of individual plays.
