EVE POWNALL AWARD FOR INFORMATION BOOKS (19-24)

Intended for an audience ranging from birth to 18 years (some books may be for mature readers, please note recommendations)

19. Phasmid: Saving the Lord Howe Island Stick Insect (Rohan Cleave and Coral Tulloch) $24.95 $19.96
Phasmid presents the amazing true story of the Lord Howe Island Phasmid or Stick Insect. Once thought to be extinct, the phasmids were rediscovered on Balls Pyramid, a volcanic outcrop 23 kilometres off the coast of Lord Howe Island, Australia, prompting an extraordinary conservation effort to save this remarkable insect. With a captivating story by Rohan Cleave and illustrations by renowned artist Coral Tulloch, Phasmid is a positive story about one species incredible story of survival in a time of worldwide species decline.

The Gestapo called her The White Mouse and they wanted her, dead or alive. Nancy Wake was an Australian who joined the French Resistance during World War II and became the most wanted woman in France. Parachuting behind enemy lines, blowing up bridges and smuggling refugees across borders, Nancy fought fiercely against the enemy and became the most decorated Australian woman in any war.

21. Amazing True Story of How Babies are Made (Fiona Katauskas) $19.99 $15.99
The Amazing True Story Of How Babies Are Made is Fiona's brilliant response to finding herself reading the same sex-ed book to her son as her mother had read to her. That book is, of course, Peter Mayle's 1973 bestseller. Fiona's book captures all the elements that made WHERE DID I COME FROM? Such a success: it's funny, it's warm, it's straightforward and it's the perfect helping hand for carers. But things have changed since the seventies, and Fiona's book is exactly what modern parents have been waiting for!

22. Lennie the Legend: Solo to Sydney by Pony (Stephanie Owen Reeder) $24.99 $19.99
This is the inspiring true story of nine-year-old Lennie Gwyther who, at the height of the Great Depression in 1932, rode his pony from his home town of Leongatha in rural Victoria to Sydney to witness the opening of the Sydney Harbour Bridge. Lennie's 1,000-kilometre solo journey captured the imagination of the nation, and his determination and courage provided hope to many at a difficult time in Australian history.

Ancestry is the third book in the Century of Service series. It tells the stories of individuals and families from a range of cultural backgrounds who served with Australian units during the First World War. This image-rich publication draws on the Australian War Memorial’s diverse collection, including private records, photographs, works of art, and relics.

24. We Are the Rebels: The Men and Women of Eureka (Clare Wright) $19.99 $15.99
The Forgotten Rebels of Eureka is the most talked-about work of Australian history in recent years. Now here is Clare Wright's groundbreaking, award-winning study of the women who made the rebellion in an abridged edition for teenage readers. Front and centre are the vibrant, adventurous personalities who were players in the rebellion: Sarah Hanmer, Ellen Young, Clara Seekamp, Anastasia Hayes, and Catherine Bentley, among others. But just as important were the thousands of women who lived, worked and traded on the goldfields—women who have been all but invisible until now. Discovering them changes everything. Age 14+

25. Flywheel, The (Erin Gough) $19.95 $15.96
One moment. One pause. One whole new life. Declan knows bad things happen in Walgaree. But it’s nothing to do with him. That’s just the way the Aborigines have always been treated. In the summer of 1965 racial tensions in the town are at boiling point, and something headed Walgaree’s way will blow things apart. It’s time for Robbie to take a stand. Nothing will ever be the same. Based on the true events of the Freedom Ride. This was a little known but very important event in Australia’s history. It was pivotal in changing laws and rights for Australian Aboriginal people. Age 13+

Declan teeters at the edge of the platform, two versions of his life are revealed. In one, Declan watches as his body is destroyed and the lives of those who loved him unravel. In the other, Declan pauses before he jumps. And this makes all the difference. Age 15+

27. Freedom Ride (Sue Lawson) $17.95 $14.36
Robbie knows bad things happen in Walgaree. But it’s nothing to do with him. That’s just the way the Aborigines have always been treated. In the summer of 1965 racial tensions in the town are at boiling point, and something headed Walgaree’s way will blow things apart. It’s time for Robbie to take a stand. Nothing will ever be the same. Based on the true events of the Freedom Ride. This was a little known but very important event in Australia’s history. It was pivotal in changing laws and rights for Australian Aboriginal people. Age 13+

28. Single Stone, A (Meg McKinlay) $16.95 $13.56
Every girl dreams of being part of the line - the chosen seven who tunnel deep into the mountain to find the harvest. No work is more important. Jena is the leader of the line - strong, respected, reliable. And - as all girls must be - she is small; her years of training have seen to that. It is not always easy but it is the way of the things. And so a girl must wrap her limbs, lie still, deny herself a second bowl of porridge. It is her magic wish. She believes in keeping a low profile: real life will start when school finishes. But when she attracts the attention of Billy Gardiner, the whole world changes.

29. Inbetween Days (Vikki Wakefield) $19.99 $15.99
At seventeen, Jacklin Bates is all grown up. She’s dropped out of school. She’s living with her runaway sister, Trudy, and she’s in secret, obsessive love with Luke, who doesn’t love her back. She’s stuck in Mobius—a dying town with the macabre suicide forest its only attraction—hold onto the life she thought she wanted, Jack learns that growing up is complicated—and love might be the biggest mystery of all.

30. Cloudwish (Fiona Wood) $19.99 $15.99
For Vân Uoc Phan, fantasies fell into two categories: nourishing, or pointless. Daydreaming about Billy Gardiner, for example? Pointless. It is better to break the law to help a friend? How can a girl tell another girl she likes her without it ending in humiliation and heartbreak? And - the big one - is it ever truly possible to dance in public without falling over? Age 15+

Award Winners will be announced on Friday 19th August 2016

PLEASE NOTE: Due to publishers reprinting schedules some Short List titles are not currently available. We will supply those in stock immediately and forward the balance as reprinted.

31. 65-Storey Treehouse (Andy Griffiths) $12.99 $10.39
Andy and Terry’s amazing 65-Storey Treehouse now has a pet-grooming salon, a birthday room where it’s always your birthday (even when it’s not), a room full of exploding eyeballs, a lollipop shop, a quicksand pit, an ant farm, a time machine and Tree-NN: a 24-hour-a-day TV news centre keeping you up to date with all the latest treehouse news, current events and gossip. Well, what are you waiting for? Come on up!

Fero isn’t a spy. But he looks exactly like someone who is: Troy Maschenov - a ruthless enemy agent. But what starts as a case of mistaken identity quickly turns into a complicated and dangerous plan. Fero is recruited to fight for his country. He will have to impersonate Troy, enter enemy territory, hunt down a missing agent and bring her home in time to prevent a devastating terror attack. Fero is in way over his head. Hastily trained, loaded up with gadgets and smuggled across the border, he discovers the truth about espionage. Getting in is easy. Getting out alive is hard. Age 12+

33. 300 Minutes of Danger (Jack Heath) $9.95 $7.99
George is trapped in a falling aeroplane with no engine and no pilot. Milla is covered with radioactive waste and her hazard suit is running out of air. Otto is in the deepest darkest parts of the ocean, where something hungry is circling... 10 dangerous situations. 10 brave kids. 30 minutes to escape. Age 11+

34. Bella and the Wandering House (Meg McKinlay) $12.99 $11.70
Bella is very surprised one morning to discover her house has moved in the night – not a lot, just a little. Her parents are too busy to notice, but even they can’t pretend it’s not happening when they wake up to find their house on the banks of a lake. Night after night the house moves and the family wakes to a new location. Unless Bella can solve the mystery, who knows where they’ll end up? Age 10+

Bridget’s family has been turned out of their home during the Irish potato famine and their only refuge is the workhouse where living conditions are hard and freezing and the food sparse. There is one chance for Bridget and her sister - to take a ship to a new country and become Australians. But will they survive the journey, let alone the challenges that await them in a far away land? Age 10+

36. Helix and the Arrival (Damean Posner and Jules Faber) $15.99 $14.40
What if a wimpy kid was born in the Stone Age? Turning thirteen is when caveboys miraculously change from skinny, hairless, squeaky-voiced cowards (like me) to thick-browed, hair-covered, deep-grunting cavemen (like my best friend Ug). That’s when we’re tested. It’s called the Arrival. You’re supposed to disappear into the woods and return with something big, dangerous or rare - preferably all three. Except I can’t even lift a club above my shoulder. Even with my friends Ug and Saleeka trying to teach me to hunt, I don’t have a chance. Age 9+

37. Fourteenth Summer of Jack Angus, The (Jen Storer and Lucinda Gifford) $16.99 $15.30
Following the death of their mother, Angus Jack and his sister, Martha, have moved to Australia with their father to start a new life. They end up living in a bayside suburb, next door to a peculiar old lady called Reafen, who is a second-hand dealer. To Angus and Martha, Reafen seems harmless enough. But who is she really and where did she get all the weird and creepy stuff in her shop? Reafen kicks off a chain of events that draws Angus into her world, into ancient feuds, wild magick and bitter rivalries, into the astonishing dramas of the Old Realm. Age 11+

38. Hush Treasure Book, The (Karen Tyleur) $29.99 $27.00
Welcome to the world of HUSH ... a world of magic, wonder and mystery... Created for the Hush Music Foundation, famous for its original music albums used in hospitals all around the world, this book is a treasure trove that will delight and entertain the whole family... A glorious collection of stories, poems and pictures from thirty favourite storytellers.

The Very Cranky Bear and his friends are back! There’s music in the air in the Jingle Jangle Jungle! Can Bear’s friends help him find the perfect instrument to play?

43. I’m a Hungry Dinosaur (Janeen Brian and Ann James) $19.99 $18.00
Our favourite little dinosaur (I’m a Dirty Dinosaur), is now hungry for cake. Ann James has had fun painting with flour, cocoa, icing and 100s and 1000s with adorable results that will inspire lots of rumbling tummies and cake making! Shake, stir, mix, bake . . . . This little dinosaur just loves cake!

44. Small and Big (Karen Collum and Ben Wood) $25.99 $23.40
Small and Big are the best of friends but they have very different personalities. Big is loud and confident and certain that it’s the big things in life that matter, while the more reserved Small finds beauty in the details. When Small finds himself hopelessly lost in the city, Small and Big both discover what really matters: each other. A beautiful story about being lost and being found again.
CBC NOTABLE BOOKS: EARLY CHILDHOOD (39-55)

(In Alphabetical Order by Author)

RH (SCHOOL)

45. Puddles Are For Jumping (Kylie Dunstan)
   Trees are for climbin’, Swings are for flying. And puddles are definitely for jumping! Two little girls skip, swing, jump, climb, hop, bounce, twirl, wriggle and laugh through their day in this delightful celebration of children’s play. Kylie Dunstan’s lively, vibrant collage illustrations perfectly capture the excitement and joy of children discovering the pleasures of their everyday world, with all its adventures and fun.

46. This and That (Mem Fox and Judy Horacek)
   The brilliant team that brought you the best-selling Where is the Green Sheep? Have a new story to tell. A story of THIS, and a story of THAT.

47. Meep (Andy Gepert)
   MEEP is a story about a baby peacock who gives away his feathers to help his friends feel better about the way they look. It’s a story about kindness, friendship and ultimately being happy with the oddities and beautiful imperfections that make you, you and me, me.

48. Thunderstorm Dancing (Katrina Germein and Judy Watson)
   When a sunny day at the beach turns stormy, a little girl runs for covers. Her daddy and brothers are wild in the wind and lightning, and her poppy is as loud as thunder. They fill the house with stamping and crashing while Granny plays piano to their riotous thunderstorm dancing... until the storm passes and they all fall down. Then, in the stillness, the girl is ready to play. What will she be, now that the rain has stopped and there’s a glimmer of sunlight?

49. What Do You Wish For (Jane Godwin and Anna Walker)
   All the children in the street are writing down a special Christmas wish. But what is Ruby’s wish? What does she wish for at Christmas time? Ruby thinks of all the things that make Christmas special... From this much-loved creative partnership comes a sparkling and beautiful story, full of the wonder of Christmas, the magic of wishing, and the timeless dreams of a child.

50. Hop Up! Wriggle Over! (Elizabeth Honey)
   Hop up, wriggle over, wakkey wakkey, HUNGRY! Crunch crunch, gobble gobble, lick lick, MORE! BONG BONG, clang clang, ting ting, SHHHH! Come on, slow coach, Zip! Zap! ZOOM! With nine baby animals in the family, every minute of the day is wild romping fun!

51. Too Busy Sleeping (Zanni Louise and Anna Pignataro)
   Eleanor longs to play with her baby brother, but newborn Reuben is always asleep. Will Eleanor wear out with waiting?

52. Frog Finds a Place (Sally Morgan, Ezekiel Kwaymullina and Dub Leffler)
   Ever since moonlight shone down on him in his pond, Frog has wanted to live up with the Moon and the stars. He works hard to get there, but although he tries and tries, its a long way for a little frog...

53. This is a Ball (Beck Stanton and Matt Stanton)
   For the Grown-Ups: You know how you’re right all the time? All. The. Time. Yes, well, it’s time to give the kids a turn. Which is why everything you read in this book is going to be wrong. But that’s okay, because the kids are going to correct you. And they’re going to love it!

54. Alfie’s Lost Sharkie (Anna Walker)
   It’s time for bed, and Alfie can’t find his most important toy. Where could it be? There are plenty of places to look... and that makes focusing on getting ready to sleep very difficult. Whimsically illustrated in watercolour and collage, this delightful story celebrates the chaos of a typical evening routine with a preschooler, equal parts exasperating and endearing.

55. Bogtrotter (Margaret Wild and Judith Rossell)
   Bogtrotter doesn’t ever stop running, until the day he meets the frog. Every morning Bogtrotter runs across the bog, up the bog, down the bog and around the bog until it’s time to go home. Sometimes he wishes things would change, but he doesn’t know how or what or why. Until one afternoon, when he picks a flower for the first time in his life.

70. Girl From the Great Sandy Desert (Jakuna Mona Chuguna and Pat Lowe)
The Girl from the Great Sandy Desert is the charming account of the life of Mana, a young Walmajarri girl, and her family, in the desert country of north-west Australia. Simultaneously delightful tales of children growing up and a social and cultural history of a way of life, Mona Chuguna’s semi-autobiographical stories are set before European settlement impacted on the lives of the people of the Great Sandy Desert, and before they left their homelands. With gentle humour, the stories depict the daily life of hunting and gathering, kinship obligations, the never-ending search for water, and the exploits of the young children. Alongside each story are cultural insights that enhance understanding of the text, making it especially valuable to educators looking for authentic material.

71. Prehistoric Marine Life in Australia’s Inland Sea (Danielle Clode)
Step back to a time when Australia’s red centre was flooded by a vast shallow ocean, the Eromanga Sea. While dinosaurs stalked the scattered islands that made up the Australian continent, giant marine reptiles ruled the waves. This book is a guide to the fauna of the Eromanga Sea and its coasts during the Cretaceous period. This richly illustrated book brings to life yet another aspect of the fascinating world of Australia’s prehistoric past and provides an introduction to some of the amazing fauna, geology and fossils found in this part of the world.

78. In the Skin of a Monster (Kathryn Barker) $17.99 $16.20
What if your identical twin sister was a murderer? Does that make you a monster too? A profound, intense, heartbreaking fantasy that tackles issues of fate versus free will, and whether you can ever truly know someone.
Ages 15+

79. Rich and Rare (Paul Collins) $24.95 $22.46
An anthology can be compared to a patchwork quilt, sewn by many hands. Each piece in the patchwork is different: distinctive in texture, shape, pattern, colour. Each piece, separately created, has its own individuality, is self contained, and could exist on its own. You are about to enjoy some of Australia’s best stories, poetry and artwork from the likes of: Shaun Tan, Leigh Hobbs, James Roy, Justin D’Ath, Kirsty Murray, Simon Higgins, Gary Crew, Scot Gardner and many others... Ages 13+

80. River and the Book, The (Alison Croggon) $16.95 $15.26
Combining magical realism and fable, this lyrical tale is the story of a landscape and community destroyed by Western greediness. In our village we had two treasures: the River, which was our road and our god; and the Book, which was our history, our oracle and our soul. Simbala is a Keeper of the Book, the latest in a long line of women who can read the Book to find answers to the villagers’ questions. As developers begin to poison the river on which the villagers rely, the Book predicts change. But this does not come in the form that they expect; it is the sympathetic Westerner who introduces a particular girl and a boy who then feature in the following spread. The spreads show what Australian kids liked to eat, the clothes they wore, the activities and the activities they enjoyed.

81. One True Thing (Nicola Hayes) $19.99 $18.00
When is a secret not a secret? When your whole life is public. Frankie is used to being a politician’s daughter, but it’s election time, so life’s crazier than usual. Add a best friend who’s being weirdly distant, a brother to worry about, and the fact that Frankie’s just humiliated herself in front of a hot guy - who later turns up at band practice to interview her about her music. Jake seems to like Frankie - really like her. But then everything crumbles. Photos appear of Frankie’s mum having secret meetings with a younger man - and she refuses to tell the public why. With her family falling apart around her, Frankie is determined to find out the truth - even if it means losing Jake.

Summer isn’t telling the whole truth about herself, but figures it doesn’t matter if they never see each other in person, right? When Will returns to Kettering, the two finally meet and Summer can no longer hide her secret - she is deaf. Can Summer and Will find a way to be friends in person even though they speak a completely different language? Age 14+

83. Beauty is in the Walking, The (James Moloney) $16.99 $15.30
Everyone thinks they know what Jacob O’Leary can and can’t do - and they’re not shy about telling him either. But no one - not even Jacob - knows what he’s truly capable of. And he’s desperate for the chance to work it out for himself. When a shocking and mysteriously crime sends his small country town reeling, and fingers start pointing at the newcomer, Jacob grabs the chance to get out in front of the pack and keep mob rule at bay. He’s convinced that the police have accused the wrong guy; that the real villain is still out there. And he’s determined to prove it - and himself - to everyone. Ages 14+

84. Newt’s Emerald (Garth Nix) $18.99 $17.10
After the Newington Emerald is stolen at the height of a conjured storm, eighteen-year-old Lady Truthful Newington goes to London to search for the magical heirloom of her house. But as no well-bred young lady can hunt the metropolis for a stolen jewel, she has to disguise herself as a man, and is soon caught up in a dangerous adventure where she must risk her life, her reputation and her heart. Balancing twin roles as a young lady coming out in her first season and as an intrepid young man up against an evil sorcerer isn’t easy, but Truthful has to manage it. Her father’s life and even the fate of England may depend upon her recovering the Newington Emerald! Age 14+

85. For the Forest of the Bird (Sue Saliba) $17.99 $16.20
A novel about love and the things you can and can’t change, from the winner of the Victorian Premier’s Literary Award for young adult fiction, Sue Saliba. ’I want to tell you that he’s coming home...and it’s going to be like it was before he went away before everything broke apart.’ Nella waits for the swallows by the creek each spring. It’s a secret vigil she’s followed over since her father left. This year she’s going to take him with her.....but can we ever return to the way things were? Age 14+

86. Small Madness, A (Diane Touchell) $16.99 $15.30
Rose didn’t tell anyone about it. She wondered if it showed. She looked at herself in the mirror and turned this way and then that way. She stood as close to the mirror as she could, leaning over the bathroom basin, looking into her own eyes until they disappeared behind the fog of her breath. Looking for something. Some evidence that she was different now. Something had shifted inside her, a gear being ratcheted over a clunky cog, gaining torque, starting her up. But it didn’t show. How could all of these feelings not show? She was a woman now but it didn’t show and she couldn’t tell anyone. Age 16+

87. Guy, the Girl, the Artist and His Ex, The (Gabrielle Williams) $17.99 $16.20
A rock chick. An artist with attitude. A girl with a past. A party animal. Four lives collide when one of the world’s most famous paintings is stolen. It’s a mystery that has the nation taking, but while Picasso’s Weeping Woman might be absent from the walls of the National Gallery, in other parts of Melbourne the controversial painting’s presence is being felt by Guy, Rafi, Luke and Penny for four very different reasons. Life, love, art and one giant party intersect in this offbeat comedy about good intentions, unexpected consequences and the irresistible force of true love. Age 15+

CRICHTON AWARD FOR NEW ILLUSTRATORS SHORTLIST 2015 (200-202)

200. Underwater Fancy-Dress Parade, The

(III. Allison Colpoys and text Davina Bell) $16.99 $13.59

The day before the underwater fancy-dress parade, Alfie got that feeling ... Sometimes it's hard to be brave. Sometimes you get that feeling. Sometimes you're just not ready ... until, one day, you are. From a dynamic new picture-book partnership comes the story of Alfie and a big octopus wearing a tiny hat and the things you can only whisper to the cowboys on your wallpaper.

201. Cat With the Coloured Tail (III. Dinalie Dabarera and text Gillian Mears) $19.99 $15.99

Mr Hooper and The Cat with the Coloured Tail travel through the countryside in their ice-cream van. They enjoy looking for heart shapes (their favourite game) and making people happy with their delicious moon-creams. But a dark feeling is following the cat. Something is wrong. When the ice-cream van enters the forest, Mr Hooper and the cat realise the heart of the world is in danger. Will they be able to save it? A lyrical fable about love and healing.

202. Fish Jam (Kylie Howarth) $19.95 $15.96

A jazzy little fish called Toot has trouble finding a friend to play with in the wide blue sea because he is a little noisy. Make that very noisy! His loud musical ways are not appreciated by those that he meets, until something unexpected happens - our little fish is swallowed by a large whale, and inside the whale's stomach he finds a ready-made band that he can join. A limited text picture book.

Meet Weary Dunlop (III. Jeremy Lord and text Claire Saxby)

No 165 from Australia: Story Country

Sir Edward ‘Weary’ Dunlop was an Australian Army surgeon during World War II. Weary was among the Allies taken as prisoners of war in Java and moved to Thailand to work on the grim Thai-Burma railway. This is the story of how Weary’s bravery, tenacity and compassion helped save the lives and bolster the spirits of Australian POWs. From Ned Kelly to Saint Mary MacKillop, Captain Cook to Banjo Paterson, the Meet ... series of picture books tells the exciting stories of the men and women who have shaped Australia’s history.

My Gallipoli (III. Robert Hannaford and text Ruth Starke)

No 60 in Notable Books: Picture Book

My Gallipoli looks at the history of Gallipoli from the months immediately before the landing at Anzac Cove in April 1915 through to the Allied retreat and the aftermath of the first World War, and beyond to the present day pilgrimages and commemoration ceremonies at the site of this historic campaign.
